Melissa Keen(12-22-88-Present)

I am a 17 year old that writes all the time i like to write alot of poems and most are about love and loss but i have a few that are about death. I lost one of my older brothers in a car accident in March 2002. and i wrote 3 for him and i hope you like all of my hard work.

Gone Forever

Lost in the dark no one around no one but yourself
you are gone forever

All alone in the quiet no one to talk to waiting for someone to come and rescue you
you are gone forever

you think you hear us you look around all you see is dark all we see is the memories you left
you are gone forever

Now at the gates of Heaven you still feel alone we all miss you but.... you are already gone

I Didn't Get A Chance To Say Good Bye

I didn't get a chance to say good bye to you To tell you that I loved you so To say what now must be one long unbroken cry of pain now that you have gone away I cannot tell you what a joy it was to be the one around you the burden was a gift, for giving does not burden one who loves through loving bleeding I wish I could have been with you when you..... perhaps aware, perhaps not Turned towards death I cry, I cry, I cry, I cry some more but it's done and now I must surrender what is gone you are gone

I Still Think Of You

I sit here and think of you I wonder if our love was true I cried many tears for you and i still do

As my mind wonders off I wonder if your still mine or is it over even though your gone I still love you and always will

You told me you loved me and I think you still do So tell me is your love still true even id its really over forever I want you to be here by myside so you can dry all the tears that I have cried

Its been months and i still cant get over you No matter how much I try I still cry for you

I still think your the one for me and I think you'll always will but you have to tell me now are we over or are we in love?

Im Going To Shine

Im a Flower
About to bloom still tinking
About you Im still going to shine

Im the sun
About to burst
Like my tears
About to run Im still going
To shine

Im like a cloud
About to rain
Im like a stream Flowing strong Im still going
To shine

Trusting in my light Following my heart
Like my light
My lamp
Im still going
To shine

Kristy

My name is Kristy
I am but 3
My eyes are swollen I cannot see

I must be love for I am punished by Ciggerett burns

I must do right I can't do wong or else im locked up all day long

Im no more than an expencive joke no more than speed or dope

Be quite now i hear teh car My dad is back from Luckys Bar

I hear him curse
my name he calls I squeeese myself against the wall on my bed its to late his face has twisted into Hate! ! ! !

I feel the pain
again and again Oh dear GOD! ! !
please let this end

My name is Kristy
I am but 3
Last night My Father Murdered Me! ! ! !

My Life

My life is like a living hell
Its like im living in a spell
I want no longer to dwell

My family is mean and hateful My family is cruel and wrong
I want no longer to dwell

I want to take a gun one pull and it will all be done

My Love

The grass is Green
The sky is Blue
I want you to know my love was true

When we broke up
You know i cried
you told me 'you loved me'
But now i know you lied

so here are my thoughts From honest I...
I thought we'd be together
For a very long time

I guess my love for you Will never end
But your love for me
Is Already dead

The Promise

You made me a promise
you said 'I'll Keep It' today you said 'I can't'

You made me a promise
you said 'I'll Quit' today you lit one up.

You made me a promise
you said 'I'll Go'
But you not here

You made me a promise
you said 'I'll Keep It'
today you let me down

True Love

when you find the one you love you know their the one
you can look at them and
feel that sensation in your heart
the feeling that tells you their the one when you find your true love you feel this place in your heart open up you see the change in your mood you know their the one for you this feeling tells you that you love them when you find this person your life will change you will do anything for them your main perpose is to make them happy you do your best to let them know you love them when your in love you may get in fights with them but you will never really mean to hurt them you want to let them know you love then you want them to be happy when you fight with them you will cry and cry and be angry but... you will forgive them no matter what it is you will do what ever it takes to let them know you care your heart will break when the trust is broken when the trust is broken you will let them earn it back you wont leave them just because they messed up love is one thing that does for give and you will let them know that

when you find the one you love
