Lord Increase Our Church! ! !

Lord~....Increase Our Church...

In God's dwelling, the pastor and the church are praying for increase. God says, "The Harvest is plenty and the laborers are few."

In church service, one morning a prostitute and a drug dealer, dressed not up to the standards of those that are judging, walks in the door. They are rejected and gossiped about by the members of God's dwelling; they leave, never to return to that church.

Next week service, the pastor and the church prays again for increase for the church.

God responds by showing, He sent the increase through the prostitute and drug dealer. God was going to increase the church through them. Through them, He was going to bring thousands off the streets that are lost.

God is a mysterious God; He sends unexpected packages to accomplish His Greatest Tasks...so then He Will Be Glorified!

No Man Is An Island....

Though our circumstances may make us want to be invisible.
God has created this whole entire earth,
from planet to animal to human being.
Each having its own purpose, to work toward a planned operation.
God works through and by no other way but order.
Each ordered step given to man by God,
are to assist in the deliverance of the person,
we are designed to help.

We cannot deliver ourselves from our own circumstance, but through moving without delay to help the next one waiting to be delivered,
we in return are favorably delivered by God,
out of our own circumstances.
God is a Spirit, He uses His creations to show His Love, Greatness, Power, Forgiveness and Mercy!

Our Enemies Are Our Footstool

In life when you are wronged by someone, God says your reward is in Heaven, but you also receive a taste of it on earth.

Our favor that we receive in life, which is circumstantial, according to the blessing promised by our Father, is payment from God, for going through something for His Namesake. God has promised when we go through something for Him, He owes us and He pays all His debts on time.

If our enemies only knew, each time, that they had been influenced to hurt us, that they actually set us up in a position to receive a huge blessing, that we were not suppose to receive, they would always be kind to us!

Thank God for friends and enemies and all the contributions they make in our lives.

Perky? No Hurt!

Not being perky does not mean your depressed
Your hurt does not allow you to access a perky personality that you had before your hurt was inflicted.
Our adversity on a higher scale was not aimed for us really Our adversity orchestrated by the enemy was actually aimed to shoot God, but since we are His creations, we are caught in the cross fire.
God in return says, since you were hit for me,
I will use it to bless you and bless your seed, and you will be able to bring others that have experienced this same shot from the enemy out with you
And Uhhh, My child, do not worry about your perkiness!
I will restore it three fold!

Sharing Our Experiences

Sharing our experience does not set us aside from the rest, but allows others to have the freedom to dissect various parts of the issue they can relate to.

We must remember what we have and are experiencing has happen to the one before us and before them as well. Just as the world goes round and round, so has uncommunicated experiences of each other that keeps causing re-occurrence of pain.

The good thing is, just as the world goes round, change can happen to be passed down from generation to generation, a new era of communication openly, peace and a whole lot of joy.

Words Have Power! Only When God Places Power Behind Them! ! !

In God's word it states that there is life or death in the power of the tongue, but it is our Father that puts power behind the words! Just as He watches over His Children, He also watches over words that are spoken against us! He has given us a wonderful text for our mental comfort, a cushioned pillow text to sleep on 'No Weapon Formed Against Us Shall Prosper, Every Tongue That Rise Against Us, We Shall Condemn'!

The true purpose of "No weapon formed shall prosper" is to protect the mind of the person being targeted by the enemy, whether it is the enemy gossiping, manipulating, using false insinuations to the mind, or the enemy using an individual while in casual conversation to tear down the spirit of another. The main tool as stated previously in this book is that the enemy uses gossip to destroy the mind of mankind. The enemy loves to try to bully God's beautiful children, and the main way is through gossip of the mind.

From the beginning of time, the enemy has tried to use gossip of the mind, manipulation and insinuations of the mind to removed God's children off the path designed by God. This fact is evident when he cunningly convinced one third of the angels to turn against God in Heaven. It was even more evident when he deceived and convinced Eve that disobedience to God would be more profitable to her, then obedience to God.

The powerful phrase, "No weapon formed against you, shall prosper, " has been given as the answer key for mankind to walk in victory physically, spiritually and mentally. This powerful phrase is designed to be the cushioned pillow of peace, to sleep at night. It is the mental medicine of the mind, body and soul.

The enemy has unfortunately tried to convince mankind that there is no power in speaking with authority God's words for us, "No weapon formed against you shall prosper." The tactic he used, was to have mankind feel as though such powerful words stated in the Bible, given by God, Our Creator, were made simply for those in the Bible at that time, and that any passage stated in God's word, holds no weight of power now. This is another deception of the enemy, to try to handicap God's children, so that we will feel that there is no hope. This is his way of being a bully to the mind. This is the very reason why God created this verse, so that we would have a weapon to fight back against the enemy, to protect our mind.

How many times in conversation, have you been sharing with someone something great in life you would like to do? Some healing you would like to receive; and somewhere in the conversation, the enemy has used that person to tell you that your desired plans will not work, or your healing may not come, or will not come. Recognize that is the spirit of the enemy using that individual without them even knowing it. God has promised in His word, that He has already conquered the world, and all that we need to be victorious, through His blood. So all things are attainable in Him, wisdom, knowledge, healing, our desires, whatever we seek to allow us to progress forward, has already been conquered through Him.

So words only have power, when our Father puts the power behind it! This is great comfort for all!
