My Heart's Voice

Love is a feeling that can't be explained in words Music is a sound that can't be expressed in words Like Love and Music my heart has a voice
And must be heard Pure as Love and Pure as Music
Pure as the Almighty One Pure as the Sunlight and the Moonlight and all the Sacred Rivers and the Oceans and the Blue Skies that abound Such is my love for you
Just as animals feel the love and music of each other
They have words too
The Heart's Voice
You are my real happiness and the peace of my soul that I searched for through centuries and centuries and Now by the wish of Nature and as our Destinies wished I' m so close to my Wisdom
The music of my life that keeps my heart beating forever
And at last my heart has found its Voice...

Sangeetha, My Love

Sangeetha, My Love, To the counting of days...hours...minutes and moments, which leads me to icy breath and the warm touch
The warmth and the freshness in your eyes, which steals my breath away
The enigma of watching you come to me... is like watching GOD towards you and taking you into itself
The magic of talking with you for endless hours days weeks months years...is the most beautiful dream anybody can imagine.
