Alone

Who am i to confront when my world's coming down And all i'm left with is a frown Who is thier for me when tears fall all down my face And i feel i am nothing but a huge disgrace Who is at the end of those stairs When i have fallen and cant get back up I once belived it was you You were always the person i looked up to But then after a while i started looking down on you As if you were nothing but your own dream come true I used to love who you were But now i hate who you become Beacuse your all about yourself So many things in life have happened to me So many times my life could have been gone I kept y mouth shut Just so i could make it this far But what was the point now 'Cauc the only thing that changed was me I guess i got tired and couldn't see clear Visions of ife hav never been clear Nothing was left but my picture in a mirror And after a while it just all shattered down And i was all alone (AGAIN) ! !

Begin

Where does my life begin?

does it begin in the life in which we all live in or does it begin in hell, where i'm heading for next no one really knows and i'm not too sure of who really cares but hey, maybe i'll one day learn the meaning of a friend maybe i'll one day learn what it means to depend cuz right now no one really knows where i begin....

Book And Pen

I cant write any more no more ways to express my thoughts its not always good to let them show even when my feeling were caught caught by what happened in the past i never knew they meant to last last til now so where do i begin again turning around, thoughts i have spin out of control, no place to rest thier head No more lovely beds Come back to me at once my feeling lets us be whole again all i need is a book and a pen to make this misery end!

Closed Doors

Ive always been told i cant never told i will never been told i can just because ive alwaysed lived behind the closed door but some one told me if you open the door you'll feel free and shine like no other but if you cry you show the worst in your self and give control to every other but if you stand strong you defeat thier purpose to make you feel as if you are no one dont give them that chance never worship any one but the man above who gave us life never die for no one but the man named christ always reach for your stars cuz they're shining bright ahead and i mean never go bacc behind them scary closed doors go bacc between them too crazed lands

Ihateyou, Iswear Ido!

And when im being nice you go an destroy my peace so why be yourfriend, why let you hurt me more then you already have Why would i let these things contuniue through out life if they have already happened before ihate yuu, iswear ido

No one wants to believe in my pain no one wants to endure the hurt so why be me and live wih you you dont do nothing but hurt me iswear i hate you i swear ido sisters are suppose to love one another family is suppose to care this house is neither one of these catagories

its not even funny to how these things work in this world i do for you and you dont do for me thats crazy stuff
I SWEAR I HATE YOU, I SWEAR I DO!

Somebody

Whats a promise when thiers no one to keep it You think thier your friends until all truths are reveiled and your names in thier mouth and yuu dnt know what to do So why te you my secret when your gonna go tell your next and thier gonaa tell thier next its gonna keep going and i hear about it from my long lost Friend not knowing were to begin and if i tell you another secret thats a lie another promise i might give it a try So where di we stand friends or what?
Cause seems like everybody told somebody

Souls Cry

what's a souls cry when no tears leak down And all my heart is left with nothing but a frown

to the man she once desired and the dream she once lived

whats a souls cry
when all you see is a hurtful past and a crazy present and nothings every changing

when all i see is the devil in my eyes hes standing over my bed and lookin for a prize not knowing that my life is it and he teaches me my time is done living in this world where i'm nothing but another souls cry

Star

so you walk around like your a star above the sky why? all you do is crush dreams and tell lies so i was wrong for my decision and i admitted my faults but you cant seem to come clean and understand your wrongs so you walk around like your a star above the sky _____ please your nothing but a failure to life itself and so now your ashame to show ya face and reveale your true self why is that?
its who you are - be yourself its all in your heart baby you gotta live the way you are, change ya self?
its up to you- but youll recieve your word

Life Lesson To Learn:

lifes not about the highest, shinning star

This Is Not My Family

i dont look like you i dont act like you so your not my family i know yuu dnt love me ive known that a long time so where is my ritefull family yuu think ims neaky and have no trust in me at all so wat to do do i stay and suffer from no love do i leave and search for the right home cuz all i knoe is im alone a house full of people but none of them claim me im embarrassing to have as a sister i was once told so i do not belong these people are not my family

Trust

Yu keep fuckin telling about the stuff that im fucking doin but have you ever payed close attention to yourself dont worry about what i do its just that imma be me and shine the way i please yuu keep trying to control my life and tell me what im doing wrong but if yuu take that chance and sit down and talk to me about the things yuu think im doing then we wot have these problems dont expect me to come to you come to me i mean there is nothing im doing wrong im bieng a 13 year old child with a mind of my own to powerfully develope into a stoing young mind but how can i do that if everytime i turn around i got stalker in my face no one ever took the chance to try to realize that i am hurt yuu never tried to see the pain behind my eyes and every time yuu say something yuu cause more so wheres the trust i trusted you to be there and listen to me and help me to survive throughout life and yuu didnt yuu trusted me to tell yuu whats wroong but im not tht type of person yuu expeted me to be i have my own power and strength that will carry me along way so do yuu trust me to at least be me

We

So there's me and a flock of birds roaming around looking for love so there's no words and just stars above a silent letter along the way hopefully it'll make it all better or the pain will stay i love you i do but you make me feel as a fool a fool with a flu that only yuu have a cure too will you fix me i have no clue i want to be we not jut me and you
