i'm a student & i'm in deep love with poetry,

How I Am Supposed To Live Without You! ! : -(

How i am supposed to live without you,
for totally my love over you screw.

I kept waiting for you,
as alone shore do for the tide,
being eager for this bide,
but waz unaware of your grudging stride.

For time being you gloomed fully in me, everyday watched you as the delightful moon, cz i waz in u and u were in me,
but u deceived n gave me up so soon.

It was easy for you,
to reel off your reply as 'NO',
AS everytime you meld my nobleness,
and let it down to show me low.

I Miss You! ! ! ! ! ! ! ! !

i miss u even though you are here i can hear ur voice loud and clear but i know you are about to leave again becoz that is the way it's always been i talk to you as if u never leave i build my dreams out of pure belief i walk the streets looking for the sign for someone to say i will soon be fine there is always a feeling of emptiness that always leaves me so breathless it takes the moment over u go and it takes a while to release and let go but then u are once again and i praise the God but deep inside i know it is temporary and that is a burden that i have to carry u realize u mean the world to me and i make it look like it so easy i do it all so u wouldnot feel my pain but all the pressure is driving me insane we are stuck at a crossroad for years now for the world to make it show but who has the courage to initiate is a whole new chapter that has to wait.....

My Everlasting Pain!

I feel lost and alone
Cz real friendship u have never been shown.

I donot remember
who gave me my role n Y?
Yet I know that I vl play it Till the day I die.

None of the things
Needed to be fixed or repaired
If only u have sometimes REALLY CARED.....

There is a thin line between Love and hate
When and if u wanna come back, jus come back
For that it will be tooooooooooo late.

U promised my heart to treasure
But u jus used me for your pleasure..

The love and happiness The time we shared was a pure bliss Soon, the heart wrenched, pain followed
And again my heart felt hollowed.

Now, wanna pray for peace
And for this pain to cease
I do want to forget what we shared The way u loved and how much u cared.

So, this everlasting pain
I must hide
CZ nobody really wants to know
The grief i keep inside.....

Please Take Me Back

How could it be that u let my love fall
there were times in my life that we had it all.

How can u stand there and break my heart
how did u allow me to grow
so far apart.

My heart still hurts
and causes me pain sometimes i just wish i could see u again.

I feel always that u are in my heart even though when we are apart but i am sure that i will win your warm embrace n then tears will stop flowing down my face.

Talk to me
and end this deafening silence and let my love
end the blinding darkness.

So please take me back and catch me when i fall cause all i need, u, right now more than anything at all.

Where Is That World! ! !

Somewhere...

Somewhere...

... Is a world where you are with me?

Where just you and i...

... And our feelings exist! !

Where dawn smiles, under your lashes...

... Where i can hear moon sing me,

A lullaby in your arms! !

Where is that world? ?

I wonder if it exists at all!

Where my life, isn't such a stranger to me...

... Where there is, no cobweb of fake dreams,

Where the glimpse, of your pretty face...

... Is not caused to remember,

From the ashes of memories! !

Where is that world? ?

I wonder if it exists at all!

Where my days begin,

At all times, from you...

Where i can conceal myself in you...

Where, you will even become known to my dreams...

Where there is no existence of mine, without you! !

Where is that world? ?

I wonder if it exists at all!

Where, whatever i possess, i will give it to you...

Every way and every path of mine,

That approaches to you! !

Where the rains of pain, will never be noticed...

It's my earnest feeling, that, I've always wished...

Where is that world? ?

I wonder if it exists at all!

Y Didnot Our Luck Favors Us

i will dedicate my heart to u cz my love was not enough for u what we had is gonna find its away though my roots is gonna shoot away what kind of life it is when we can't be one
as tears and rain can never interVine baby all i want is to regain ur heart but till then U AND ME DESERVE A BRAND NEW START

You Were My Everything

Missing you has now become a part of my life i cry sometimes missing you i just sit still at my own will just thinking about you on the small hill where i found no way for my pain to kill it takes a long time to express that how much you are smart your beautiness is not merely for eyes but it touches the soul and my heart i donot understand why we are just apart being single soul and heart what kind of life is this when we cannot be one
as tears and rain can never intervine
just imagine that you are the time and i spend each second remembering you but sometimes this remembrance seems to be as crime as it hurts me each and every time
