Jennifer Wilmer is a single mother who was raised in Temple Hills, Maryland. Though she has lived in different areas along the east coast, Jennifer has found her way back to Maryland. As you will see, Jennifer writes under the penname of JStar, a nickname given to her by a dear friend that has remained with her for decades. As a mother of two beautiful daughters, she absolutely adores spending as much time with them as possible and her main focus in life is guiding them into adulthood the best way that she can. Jennifer strives to demonstrate to them the unconditional love that this world doesn't always provide while expanding her professional writing career to depths never before dreamed of.

JStar has been writing ever since she can remember; first by journaling daily and eventually branching into writing songs and short stories. It wasn't until later, out of admiration of her mother's poetry and how beautifully her words formed, that she began writing poetry of her own. Writing allows her to express inner feelings that she would normally keep to herself. Her emotions flow onto paper. It is a place where she can be honest, blunt, and raw with words. Expression through words is not an option for her; it's something that flows naturally through her veins like words contained on the edge of her tongue that just have to be spoken. For her entire life these words were kept private, now she has been brave enough to share her heart with the world. To build her nerve up, she first started Open Mic sessions then blogging and now is pursuing professional publishing. Her purpose for writing is to share stories, in hopes of providing comfort in times of need as well as sharing her feelings on different types of love and life's happenings.

"Thoughts continuously flowing in my head pouring out of my soul like sweet sugar coating my words" JStar

#1

I refuse to be number two
No matter how much I love you

Even though I know your heart belongs to me
That I clearly see
But your obligations to her take precedence over me

Until our love can be shared openly
We cannot be

Ms. JStar

A Woman's Beauty

The beauty of a woman
Is not determined by a man
Her beauty can be found in her grace
Not just the beauty of her face
It can be found in her style
It can also be found in her smile
Her beauty is in her thoughts
Not just what she has been taught
It can also be found in her soul
It cannot go untold
Her beauty is within her
She does not need to lure
Anyone, because her presence
It is her whole essence
A woman's beauty is in her heart
Her beauty is her art

Ms. JStar

Action

Actions speak louder than words
My vision is no longer blurred
By your empty promises
Loneliness I can no longer harness
With affections I desire
The level I want is so much higher
More than you are able to give it seems
To you it feels like I am going to extremes
But I don't think what I am asking is too much
Wanting more than just your touch
Needing more of you
Than this distant view
Not sure how much longer I can wait
My patience is about to deflate
If you truly love me like you say you do
Your actions need to make their debut

Ms. JStar

Addicted

I am completely addicted to you
Just as you are to me
To the way we love
What we are together
But we are not right for one another
Giving in time and time again; only setting ourselves up
Knowingly starting something when we cannot be Knowing how intense our feelings are for one another
But we still are addicted and can't stop
Just can't get enough of you, of us...

Ms. JStar

Addiction

Mind focused on one thing only
While your wife is at home sick of being lonely

All responsibilities are out the door
Her cries you again ignore

You will do whatever you have to do
Any lies you can construe

Nothing or no one else is more essential
Losing all self worth and potential

Stealing the kids toys and bikes
Hurting her with each continuous strike

Selling your soul with each puff of the pipe
Polluting your mind with each line you swipe

Either death or prison awaits
Only God can determine your fate

Prison takes you away from everyone
The pain you have caused cannot be undone

Now you have taken a life in sorrow
All your dreams and hopes of tomorrow

Will be lived behind those bars
Your family will continue to feel the scars

Your addiction left behind
Memories of torture to remind

Pain endured will last a lifetime
You're not the only one paying for your crime

You're addiction affected everyone around you
And broke the hearts of the one's who truly love you

Affects Of Aids

It all started with a cough that just wouldn't go away
He still hadn't even admitted he was gay

He felt sick every day, he knew something wasn't quite right
He didn't have the strength anymore to fight this fight

After confirmation, then came deep depression
His family finally heard his heartfelt confessions

Depression took over and consumed
His worst fears were a reality and no longer assumed

He gave up hope completely
He was grieving inside deeply

Seclusion was his first defense
Total lies his lover told were the greatest offense

He now needed assistance with mom's care
The pain was more than he could bare

His body was covered with a horrible rash
Continuously cursing at everyone, breaking moms heart with each lash

He didn't have the energy to get out of bed
It caused extreme pain to even move his head

Thresh would build up in his throat causing him to choke
His only enjoyment was his coffee and to smoke

His friends didn't understand and was scared to be around
Feelings of abandonment were profound

He lost so much weight that he looked like a skeleton covered with skin
He felt as if he were being punished for his sins

He refused his medication because he no longer wanted his life prolonged
This world he never felt as if he really belonged

He was always teased and tortured his entire childhood
It was obvious he was gay just by the way he stood

In his final days he told mom he saw God and that He needed him
He said that the flowers in His garden were so amazingly beautiful even down to the stems

But he didn't want to leave his mother here
She told him his time to leave was near

She would miss him dearly but couldn't stand to see him suffer another day
Saying good bye to her son, wasn't easy finding the right words to say

Watching the constant torture was driving her insane
After three long years of suffering and pain

I knew he was gone at 5 am, as soon as I heard the phone ringing
It sounded just like the angel's were singing

He was now pain free and in a better place
Now life without him was not easy to face

Ms. JStar

Aids

Aids took over and totally consumed his body
Causing him constant immeasurable pain
The pain was so great that he pushed away everybody
Until he was unable to maintain
He was no longer the brother I once knew
He had only himself to blame
This is the brother that taught me how to tie my shoes
He tortured himself in shame
He was scared to die but it was now a reality
All he wanted was to be loved
And now he was paying for his sexuality
He died feeling completely unloved
Except from his family and the people who really mattered
My mom had to watch her son slowly wither away
Her world was forever shattered
His death affected everyone around
I not only lost my brother but my best friend
Even though 13 years has passed, his presence still surrounds
The sorrow of missing him will never end
The memories I will never forget
The good and bad times I will always cherish
There is not a moment of regret
I still can't believe his life on earth has been perished
I will hold his love in my heart forever
And the lessons he taught
His son never really knew his father however
His battle on earth has been fought

Ms. JStar

All My Love

Baby, you hold the love from my heart within your hands
Day by day, and minute by minute; my love for you continuously expands

We have been through more than most could bear
This goes above and beyond any casual affair

I could never imagine, life without you
Pursing the depths of our love that is ever so true

We have an undeniable addiction to each other
It's unexplainable the love that we share for one another

Your love comforts every fiber of my being
It's only unconditional happiness for us; that has been foreseen

To you, I commit all of the love inside me
With monogamy forever & always guaranteed

Ms. JStar

All Or Nothing

You don't really want to hear
The words that caused my tears
Or know the reason my heart aches
My emotions you don't want to partake
My fears and doubts you don't care to ease
Once that door is closed, barricading is my expertise
I can't lock away only half of my heart
This will cause no more feelings to depart
Now I will keep all within Things will never again be like they've been
If I can no longer release
Denying a part of me just to appease
Accept me for me
This is my final plea
Or it's leading to our downfall
It's all or nothing at all

Ms. JStar

Alone

As the sun sets
The loneliness sets in Lying alone
In this empty bed
Day dreaming
Of what I desire
Knowing for sure
What I don't want
Not settling for less
Then I deserve
With all that said
I am still alone

Ms. JStar

Always Love You

You gave me your heart, and I gave you mine
We were willing to allow our love to stand the test of time

Our entire relationship was like no other
You will always be my best lover

The intensity of our love will always consume me
I will never understand why we cannot be

My love for you will always be true
My heart will always belong to you

Ms. JStar

Are You Really Ready

You say you are ready for my love,
But are you really

Are you ready for the intensity of my love,
Are you really

Are you even sure what that entails

You say you are ready for my love to the fullest

I guess only time will tell
My love is and will always be real
I will always tell you how I feel

Ms. JStar

Artistic

Artist of words
Creating images
Of my life stories
With pen and paper
Spilling my heart
In all shades
Onto my easel
Broadening horizons
Painting lessons learned
With rhyme and reason
Tantalizing word play
In the artistic form of poetry

Ms. JStar

Autumn

Colorful fall leaves,
Coating green grass

Looking through,
Frost covered glass

Brisk autumn chill,
Breezing across finger tips

Half moon glowing,
Into an almost eclipse

Stars illuminating,
Dark crisp skies

Bitter cool air,
Awaiting sunrise

Ms. JStar

Awaken

His touch awakens, as a breath of fresh air
His kiss evokes feelings deep
Way beyond a casual affair
With my heart at ease, comes peaceful sleep
His heart soothes inner fears
His eyes confirm sincerity
Wiping away stains left from trails of tears
Walls tumbling, leaving room for prosperity
His personality completely comforts, emotions ignite
His hands guide in new undiscovered directions
Withstanding disagreements, previews a different light
Willingly demonstrates truth behind affections
His voice fills my ears, profoundly outspoken
Words don't give justice to an unwritten lyric
With him, love prevails the unspoken
His love fully awakens my spirit

Ms. JStar

Baptismal

Repenting our sins
Our walk with Him begins

His glory within us resides
Grasping the wholeness He provides

Taking His extended invite
We are dressed in all white

As my body is dipped into His Holy Waters
I commit my life to Him beside my daughters

With His Holy Spirit, I feel renewed
Arising from the Waters, the reformed me debuted

My daughters followed my lead
What a tear-filled honor indeed

I stood next to them while their bodies were submerged and purified
In His name, we glorify

We now see the world with different eyes
Our spirit and soul has now been baptized

Ms. JStar

Battle

Battling inner demons trying to possess
All of my skeletons, I confess

Mainly to myself, only sometimes to others
Without completely letting in another

Into my space
Memories cannot be permanently erased

Through thoughts and the pain I feel
By dealing with this pain I can heal

So that I can conquer
These feelings into true happiness, I can conquer

I am the only one who can control
The feelings locked deep into my soul

Only my spirit can rattle
These demons only I can battle

Ms. JStar

Beauty

Fresh hair cut and color; make up looking fierce
Eyes deep enough to pierce

My fresh black pumps with the newly manicured toes out
Looks are deceiving; inside I am overcoming self doubt

Tight, sexy dark blue jeans with the red low cut top Making all the on-looking men's jaw drop

Cute baby face on the outside
But who wants to really know the complete inside

Short in height and small in frame
Does anyone care what's really in my brain

Focused and professional, but always real
When will someone truly care how I really feel

Smiling face in front of the others
Can we truly trust one another

Not impressed unless they can really connect mentally
And not only for satisfaction that only lasts momentarily

The eyes are the key to one's soul
Look deep inside that person and see their true role

Everyone in life is not for keeps
Every night I singly sleep

Choosing not to settle for less than I deserve
My full heart I have chosen to reserve

It's not in my physical description, but what's it's my heart
My inner beauty is my true work of art

Ms. JStar

Believe

Unable to sleep, tossing and turning
Soul on fire and constantly burning

Thoughts and drama consuming
Fears and worries slowly resuming

Feeling totally frustrated
Anger being illustrated

Nothing being accomplished
Sanity being diminished

Wishing I would have prevented
And first of all repented

Prayer could have preserved
Energy could have been conserved

So, why stress over what cannot be controlled
Be patient and watch what unfolds

Everything is a part of His ultimate plan
Continue to trust, even if we don't understand

Believe in His word and subdue
Things will work out as they are supposed to

Ms. JStar

Betrayal

Betrayal is the worst feeling
Secrets are now revealing

Deception is unforgivable
You have made life unlivable

The proof is undeniable
You have proved you are unreliable

Stop running the game
You've been caught, there is only you to blame

Promises broken
Truths unspoken

I don't even know who you really are
All I see is a liar

A cheater, a deceiver
Not the once successful achiever

I was fooled into believing
Now I am grieving

Heartbroken and torn
Stuck in the heart with your thorns

Something I thought was beautiful
Turn out to be the most harmful

What happened to our happy home
Now I am hurt and all alone

Why did you have to lie
Then try to deny

Why did you waste my time
Feeding me all those lines

Why did you have to cause me all this pain
Just because you wanted to do your thing

Why not be straight up and tell it like it is
You don't have all the answers to the quiz

Now it has caught up to you
There is nothing you can say or do
I am through with you

I am tired of you
Everything that comes out of your mouth is untrue

I can never forgive or forget
Meeting you is one of my biggest regrets

Get out and don't come back
Before I can't take it no more and attack

Now I can see clear and see a different portrayal
You have left me with the worst betrayal

Ms. JStar

Breathless

Everytime you walk into a room, I feel you
I feel the strength of our hearts pursuit

When I close my eyes, you are on my mind
Feelings take over and chills run up and down my spine

Yearning to feel you deep inside
Wanting to feel our passions fully collide

Craving to feel your kisses caressing me
From head to toe, setting me free

The depths of these feelings my hearts confessed
Thoughts of you leave me completely breathless...

Ms. JStar

Burden

He was someone I was supposed to look up to Now, someone I wish I never knew

Someone I was supposed to trust
Personal recovery is a must

Someone that was supposed to teach me how to be an adult
I felt as if I were at fault

What has been done has scarred me for life
Now, apologies will never suffice

You took a piece of my soul each time you hurt me
This burden on my heart I just can't set free

You were supposed to be Daddy

Ms. JStar

Can'T Let Go

I just can't seem to let you go
The love inside me continuously flows

You consume my every emotion and inner thoughts
The thought of losing you has me very distraught

Lying in this empty bed missing the warmth of your body next to mine
Making love to you, feeling our emotions intertwine

The strength of your arms embodying me
Allowing our hearts to agree

And give in to this love that we have created
These feelings felt have been long awaited

I just can't walk away from this love that I feel
My true emotions can never be fully concealed

Listen and feel my hearts silent plea
Letting go of you, would be like letting go of a part of me

Baby, you are to me; my love's plateau
Experience my love within and never let it go

Catch Me

Not quite sure how, I feel these feelings I am feeling
This wasn't supposed to happen
Due to past dealings
Didn't think I had it in me
And allow someone in so close to me
Been hurt too many times
Not trying to fall blind
Have no control over how my heart feels
Willing to chance it, to see if it's REAL
What's love if it is never felt at all
Just know I will always be here,
Giving my all

Are you there to catch me if I fall? ? ?
Mmnn...

Ms. JStar

Caught Up

I know I am not ready for commitment
I still hold in my heart a lot of resentment

From past events
Had me doubting what love represents

I was not looking for anything serious
Because love can make you delirious, angry and oh so furious

But, across the smoke-filled room there you were
I had no clue what was about to occur

The attraction was undeniable
Even though you're true intentions were unverifiable

Now that time is being spent Feelings getting caught up without minds consent

Trying hard to pull my heart back
Cannot allow myself to get off track

Enjoying every second of your presence
Caught up in the moment disregarding future consequence

Leaving heart and mind torn
Trying to prevent being scorned

Too scared to put myself out there
Fearful of being left in despair

But these feelings inside grow more intense
Weakening my defense

Now my heart is stuck
Trying hard not to get caught up

Chances

We didn't realize or appreciate what we had until it was gone
We used lack of communication as a pawn

We weren't honest with ourselves much less each other
You were more than just my lover

I hold very intense love for you in my heart
My heart aches every moment we are apart

I thoroughly enjoy time spent with you
Your love I can't bear to forever lose

I have given my heart and taken a chance on love
I only wish our problems could be reconciled and our love can rise above

Ms. JStar

Change

Life for me has completely changed
By choice, all the men in my life are now estranged

Was tired of being the one giving
Always the one forgiving

Removing all possibilities off the shelf
I am so much happier by myself

I am learning how to live my life alone
Living life for me and taking care of my own

It was time to break out of that same routine
Looks like I am back out on this dating scene

Meeting different people, enjoying what life has in store
Happiness to the fullest is the road I want to explore

I am the only one who can make me truly happy inside
Unable to share the love within so I keep it confided

Maybe one day I will find someone who is worth my time
He would have to keep up as I continue climb

Right now my life is in my control
To strengthen only my soul

Not looking back but learning from past mistakes
Setting goals and raising the stakes

No more drama left to exchange
My life was due this drastic change

Ms. JStar

Chaos

Dreams interrupted
Rudely awakened
In the wee hours of the morning
Rounds of gun shots firing
Screams of terror and fear
Constant news horror stories
And witnessing what's not reported

Becoming routine occurrences
Tired of the shootings
Daily robberies
Carjacking realities
Domestic violence
Child abuse and sexual assaults
Hourly murders

When does it end
Never I guess
When do you get numb
To the acts violence
I simply can't Violence is a part of my life
That I can never accept

Chaos of different kinds
Shows in every aspect of life
All we can do
Is live life to the fullest
Live it like it's our last day
And avoid being center
In a life of chaos

Character Sketch-Class Assignment

Standing on a DC street corner, praying no one would stop but desperately needing someone to.

Her stomach growls were getting louder, but not quite enough to ask for help.

Her spirit hungry and pockets empty.

The shine of brake lights almost blinded, taking her mind to a place that she never wanted to go. Reality was now in front of her, negotiating pricing and services all the while trembling within.

Once in the car, hearing the door slam, she remembered her father. The things he did to her, the things he made her do. Fear took over her mind. Then echoes in her head of the rape by the boy she trusted, holding her down, cries for help ignored and disregarded. Now scared to back out, terrified of what he would do to her if she changed her mind. No choice remained but to go through with it. They parked in a dark alley and got out of the car. She couldn't face him, she couldn't face herself.

Leaning on the hood of the car she whispered, "Only from the back."

Handing him the condom, she pulled down her tight blue jeans just enough for him to enter her. Closing her eyes, pretending this was not happening. Tears streamed down her face. Her soul was bleeding, attempting to separate her mind from her physical actions. Thank goodness it didn't last long.

When it was over, she pulled her pants up and staggered almost drunkenly down the alley. Barely able to walk in her heels; the trembling was overwhelming. No longer able to control the muscles in her legs, she felt weak.

She walked back to the spot where she was supposed to meet her so-called boyfriend. Knowing he would be upset because she did nothing that was prearranged. She called him, and he was yelling in her ear of how scared he was for her. Telling her, he had been up and down the streets looking for her, terrified for her life. She desperately wanted to run, but had nowhere to run to. Her options were next to none, friends were nowhere to be found.

As he pulled up he demanded she get in the car. And started cursing her out about the money because she accepted only half of what she was supposed to ask for. He took the cash that she just sold her soul for and stopped the car in the middle of the street. He yanked her out of the car with a fist full of her hair, pulling her earring out. She heard it fall to the pavement right before her face landed. Screaming for help, but no one came to her rescue. Seeing rage in his eyes that she never knew existed. Trying to remember the love his eyes once displayed. He got back in the car and sped off, circled the block then yelled at her to get in the car.

After she did, he beat her in the face, blood gushing from her lip. One hit after another, not only bruising her face but her spirit as well. Her head kept hitting her window and felt as if it would explode. Wishing he would just go ahead and kill her, she was hurting inside worse than the physical pain she was feeling. Ending it all was something she thought about every day, but didn't have the courage to do.

The last words she heard him speak as she got out the car, "I did this because I love you Nicole, and I was scared to lose you."

Nicole sat observing the variety of different people in the busy train station. Wearing sunglasses; trying to hide her black and swollen eyes. She watched families with smiles on their faces, couples looking as if they were truly in love, children tightly grasping mother's hand. She was desperately missing her daughters, crying on the inside while the smiles on her face hid the pain. Scared to be alone, or in the streets, this would not be her first night sleeping at this train station

As she sat reflecting, realizing the consequences for her actions. She had no one to blame but herself. She was lost from herself, lost from her true potential. Homeless, through no fault but her own and the choices she made. She lost her daughters, her husband, her job, her home, and everything that ever mattered, or what she thought mattered at the time. Her reactions reflected desperation, her need for survival, her desire to overcome. Attempting to find strength to not give up completely; this seemed like the easier way out right now. She was disgusted and blaming herself. Her situation, her actions were no longer her. She did not want to live, praying for God to end her misery and suffering.

She walked to the pay phone and called her mother with tears filling her eyes. Finally-deciding to get on the next train to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina leaving DC, leaving her daughters in order to get herself together.

Choice

The pain and troubles have already been endured
Now you have grown and matured
Move on and whip away your tears
Resist by overcoming your fears
Don't allow them to consume
Don't ignore the flowers bloom
Enjoy the beauty bestowed before you
Defy evil plans being construed
Stay in search of things that bring joy
And rebuke the things that destroy
Listen to that inner voice
Happiness is a choice

Ms. JStar

Cleansing

Rain drops saturating
Immersing my pores
Tears escaping my eyes
Renewing my soul
Releasing emotions
Soaked leaves and debris
Squashed under my feet
Embracing the cleansing

Ms. JStar

Comfort

Within the Word, God provides comfort and peace
As an armor to make it through Giving strength to maintain until your problems cease
Allow Him to use you
To assist others in their fight
Allow your testimony to provide confirmation
And comfort that everything will be alright
His Word gives us hope and inspiration
A law of His instructions to live by Remain faithful and obedient Inner strength He will supply
Your relationship with Him is the main ingredient
To peace and happiness
Take comfort in His assurance
And the knowing that He will bless
And provide endurance

Ms. JStar

Confined

Heart pounding rapidly
Stomach tossing and turning Body heat rising
A lump forming in my throat
Words escape my mind
Stuck on the edge of my tongue
Not able to release
By simply speaking
Revealing inner meaning
Confessing true love
For now these words remain confined
Until the time is right
Or maybe never to be spoken

Ms. JStar

Confused

Not sure what I want
State of confusion haunts
Not sure which way I should turn
Is this a lesson to be learned
What is it that I am searching for
I am not quite sure
I just know that I haven't found a solution
Is there a possible resolution
At times I just want to scream
Wishing this was just a dream
But that wouldn't help
This stress is compromising my health
Why do I let things get to me
Why do I let it affect me relentlessly
What would be the best
For me, when will it come together so I can rest
So now I contemplate
Hoping the choice I make won't be a mistake
Not having a clue
Confused and not sure what to do

Ms. JStar

Crave

I just don't know what it is about that man
He just does something to me
That no other can
Willingly locked in his love like a detainee
That place in my heart his name is etched
Unchartered territory of any other
Only his image my eyes have sketched
He gives me chills and makes my heart flutter
Hanging on and never letting go
Love over flowing like a tidal wave
Day by day the intensity grows
It's only him that my heart and body craves

Ms. JStar

Craving

When you are not around,
I am thinking of you constantly
Craving to love you endlessly,
Teasingly and tauntingly

Missing the warmth of your arms
That so lovingly surrounds
With you, my heart is bound
Always wanting your love around

Ms. JStar

Crying

Emotions felt deep enough to bruise
Mind erratic and confused

Knowing what I want and need
But allowing my heart to continuously bleed

Tears of blood fall from my eyes
Actions are not too far from my demise

Inside I am grieving
Suicidal thoughts conceiving

Fighting that inner struggle
Seeing reality is a constant juggle

Images flashing
Self torture rehashing

Attempting to stay above
And erase these thoughts of

Hurt and pain
Allowing inner happiness to reclaim

Finding that strength to compete
And stop focusing on deceit

Ms. JStar

Deep

My love for you runs deep within my soul
My worries and fears, your love continues to console

We have been through our share of adversities
And overcome all of our uncertainties

No longer plagued by doubt
Your love I never want to live without

Ms. JStar

Depression

Just sitting with a blank stare on my face
The pain inside just will not erase

While the world is moving at a fast pace around me
No one can hear my silent inner plea

Holding back tears from my eyes
The smile on my face is only a disguise

Hiding the emptiness felt inside
Feeling there is no one I can confide

No one else can understand what I am feeling
No one can help me through with what I am dealing

So overwhelming that I can no longer cry
But the pain I can no longer defy

Not wanting to ever get out of bed
Can't stop the memories replaying in my head

Having no desire even to eat
Inside I feel totally incomplete

Forcing myself out only makes these feelings stronger
I feel as if I just can't deal any longer

The only thing keeping me from ending it all
Is my daughters picking me up each time I fall

I can't leave them here dealing with this world alone
So I fake it and leave my feelings postponed

All the while I feel as if they are eating me alive
Holding on just enough to survive

Pushing everyone close far away
Not wanting my feelings to display

Emotions are starting to numb
Death inside has already succumb

These words will be my only confession
I just don't know how to get out of this deep depression

Ms. JStar

Deserve

I love you enough to let you go
I know my apprehension has clearly shown

Our personalities conflict
Future problems I can depict

I don't think I can be the woman for you
Even though my feelings for you are true

I am not built for the sacrifice of your career
When I have to sleep alone, I shed tears

The distance is too hard for me
My loyalty I can no longer guarantee

A relationship should not be lonely
Even if I am your one and only

I need more than you could possibly give
This emptiness I do not want to relive

I need attention that you cannot produce
Future pain I do not want to induce

Although love has clouded my vision
My feelings are in a division

Our paths are going in opposite directions
Despite our hearts connection

I don't want to hold your heart on reserve
My complete honesty you deserve

Ms. JStar

Destine

Things have gotten a little rough
But it has only made us tough

Nothing can separate us
We have a genuine love

Things are not always easy
Actions haven't always been pleasing

Things have been said and done
All we can do is move on

Put the past behind us and focus on our future
Our spiritual growth we nurture

We are in this together
Things will get better

Only if we work with each other
And not against the other

I am here for you, you are never alone
Through all of this we have grown

With the help of God, we can do this
He is the route to all happiness

He will guide us in the right direction
Just as long as we follow his lead and don't give into the devil's deceptions

The love we share is a true blessing
Now it is our turn to take control of our destiny

Ms. JStar

Devotion

I am not fakin this time around
My feelings for you are deep and profound

I know I hurt you not just once but more than twice
When your love will always suffice

I am ready to give you all of me
Not half or a fraction, ALL of me

You are someone I could commit the rest of my life to
For you there is nothing I wouldn't do

When I am around you my heart skips a beat
My body goes numb from my head to my feet

Nothing else matters, as if time is standing still Wanting this feeling to last from now until

Forever and a day
Words can't possibly relay all that my heart wants to say

My actions will show my hearts true emotions
To you I pledge my undying devotion

Ms. JStar

Discovery

Lying in my bed listening to the rain drops
Wishing they would never stop

Not wanting to leave these covers
Hiding and not wanting to be discovered

Enjoying being alone
Everything else can be postponed

Taking personal quality time
Not worry about any deadlines

Completely focused on me
And what it is that I need

Actually loving me in totality
Door knocks bring me back to reality

Ignoring everyone else
Only going by my own impulse

Being alone is actually not that bad
No one to get on your nerves and make you mad

Relaxing with everyone out of reach
Listening to my own inner speech

Not depending on anyone's guarantee
Discovering that I do really love me

Ms. JStar

Distance

The love I feel for you is more than just lust
Even though there are miles of roadway between us

Your love comforts when distance prevails
Depths once thought impossible are now unveiled

We are now again oceans apart
But in your hands you hold the only key to my heart

Whatever comes our way we can transcend
Before we became lovers we began as friends

Our years of friendship has made loving you instinctive
Spending time around you now is purely seductive

I wish I could have you every second of everyday
Since that is impossible today

I will be patient as I prove my love to you
No matter how long it takes, no matter what we have to go through

Our love is in existence
Nothing changes except a little distance

Ms. JStar

Do You Know Me

Do you really know me the way you think you do
I don't think so
Because if you did then your perceptions of me would be more accurate
Instead of being so off base as they are
Makes me wonder what you really think of me
If you can even conceive the thought of my intentions being as such Like it is even in my nature to do something to purposely hurt you or what we have
Yes at times stress and frustration can make you do and say things that you would not normally say or do
But I am not an evil, conniving or a deceiving person
That just is not in my nature
I would think you of all people would know that but I see that you don't
I guess that you could never ever really understand me
Understand my thoughts and reasons behind my words and actions
But I guess that since you could never walk in my shoes you can never know
All you have is what you think in your head to be true
But I refuse to admit to something that is not the truth
My life experiences has made me the person that I am today
And since we were raised so totally opposite of each other
There is no possible way you could truly understand me
And what lives inside of me
I try to be upfront and explain my feelings and reasons
But for some reason you do not believe me
Like I would have any reason to lie to you in anyway
I don't and I would have never married someone that I could not be open with Someone who I can be me around no matter what
You are the man I chose as my life-long partner
I try my best to explain my motives but for some reason you still misperceive
I understand that you have been mistreated many times
But what you fail to realize is I am not anyone that you have ever dealt with before
I think that you hold me accountable for everyone's mistakes
I do not think that is fair
As much as I have tried to explain you still just don't really get me
Guess there is not much else to do after I have already spoke from my heart
But I guess you already had your mind made up before you even consulted with me
I guess that two people can never read what is in the others mind and heart

That we only go on what we think but I see we never really know
We only know what we allow ourselves to believe
I am the only one who can know what flows through my veins
What makes my heart beat
What allows air to flow through my lungs
What feelings I feel
What thoughts I think
What makes me whole

Ms. JStar

Done With The Lies

Nothing is as it seems
What happened to our plans and dreams

Were they all just a front
To get what you want

What did you think I was ignorant
And would put up with it

Sorry to tell you
That I am smarter and wiser and could see the truth

For what it really was
You thought I would stay just because

You put it on me
You thought I wouldn't see

Even though you had me fooled for a moment
I could see past your false commitment

Even though you feed me that fairy tale
The truth prevailed

Had me forgetting who I really am
And made me feed into your scam

Putting me down like I was no one
Had me forgetting I was someone

Someone with class
I was someone you could harass

But I regained my true self
And stopped compromising my health

I don't need anything you have to offer
Now it is my book and I am the author

My story to tell
My chance to excel

I am done with the lies
Stop trying to deny
It is my time to say goodbye

Ms. JStar

Dont Bother

I am getting tired of these guys spittin game
It's all starting to sound the same
Half or more are married or committed
But of course the truth was omitted
Pretending to want more
When it's really only my body they want to explore
Sorry, I am just not that easy
It takes some true effort to please me
And what happened to chivalry
What's up with guys approach, literally
Can I please have some respect
From the door your intentions I can detect
I am really starting to get irritated
When any approach is illustrated
My excuse may be awkward
I truly don't even want to be bothered

Ms. JStar

Doubt

Doubting myself
Not sure if I am capable
Of loving
Another or myself
I see only my imperfections
How can someone else
Love me if I can't love myself
I am scared to give
Of my heart
And be hurt once more
Am I worthy of true love
Or am I just in love
With the idea of being loved
Am I worthy of someone Looking past my imperfections
Wanting to heal my pains
Allowing me to cry
Holding me
When the nightmares consume
I desire to be loved
But terrified to let anyone in
I keep running
But I am tired
Tired of doubting

Ms. JStar

Eclipse

My heart feels like the moon in an eclipse
Craving your kisses on my lips

Remembering the feelings felt picking you up from the airport
Heart pounding like a ball on the basketball court

Your hugs are as comforting as a nice warm blanket
Right at that moment my heart flagged a sign that read TAKEN

Every second with you felt as if time stopped
All of my guards immediately dropped

Years of anticipation
Defining my hearts dedication

The second I left your presence
The reassurance of your eyes now in absence

I started doubting myself and constantly analyzing Debating if this was real or was I just fantasizing

Was it possible for you to love me as you said
But I feel as if I have awakened from the dead

I was terrified of being hurt again
My wounds still had yet to mend

I still remember the pain
When you left to catch the plane

In fear I pushed you away time after time
But I couldn't run from what had already been defined

My love for you runs deep within
To places no one else has ever been

I am unable to let go
Now I am ready to go all out and allow my love to clearly show

I am ready to prove my loyalty to you
And demonstrate to you that my love is true

I want to no longer reminisce
My heart is now ready to shine through this eclipse

Ms. JStar

Ecstasy

As soon as you open the door
Our clothes fall feverishly to the floor

Anticipation climbing within Teasing and taunting until you give in

Feeling passion like never before
Embody my love as it pours

Completely into your soul
Actions are beyond our control

Executing emotions felt
Playing each card as it is dealt

Finding and emphasizing each hot spot
Writing in detail the script to each plot

Teaching each other new tricks
Feeling vibrations with each lick

Knowing and exploring each other
Releasing multiples and then another

Entrusting you with my mental, physical and spiritual
Your touch is ever so sensual

Stimulating each of my senses
The constant flow my body dispenses

Guarantees pure satisfaction
My bodies' natural reaction

To the love that you produce
Your eyes continue to seduce

Our hearts are forever entwined
Beyond the physical ecstasy has been defined

Emotional Collision

The sound of your voice sends chills up my spine
These feelings inside love defines

Your touch is always a comforting guide
These emotions are like waves about to collide

The scent of you relaxes my senses
And shuts down all the barriers to my defenses

Pure ecstasy soothes my inner soul
My body moves to the music only you can control

Acting out what is felt and not scripted
Like our own language of love has been secretly encrypted

Creating the Décor of our personal nirvana
You are my relaxant, better than anyone's marijuana

Relax and close your eyes; enjoy this as our personal eclipse
Kissing you feels like Heaven piercing through my hips

Embrace as one; our souls adhere Feel my love immersing into your atmosphere

Pure satisfaction is more than you could ever envision
Conceive within you, and embrace this emotional collision

Of true and unconditional love...

Ms. JStar

Emotional Suicide

Solitude

Is the only suitable thing for my mood

Nothing against you

There is nothing you can do

This is something that I have to deal with myself

No one else can help

No one can take away the pain

That I battle within, it rains

Constantly, it is hard to control

Not sure what will unfold

I don't really know how to handle these emotions

I feel as if I am being sucked up by the ocean

It is hard to decipher through these feelings

I cannot explain what I am dealing with

Just understand that nothing is directed towards you

I am struggling to construe

I have declared combat within

Didn't mean to throw you in the spin

Please do not take offense

Because it seems I am on the defense

But the warfare is being fought

Within me, and has gotten me all distraught

This was not meant to hit you first hand

I hope you can understand

I love you

For understanding and dealing with me, thank you

Emotions

It takes a special man to love me
My emotions are over the top to the thousandth degree
It doesn't take much for me to get in my feelings
My heart still needs healing
I need a man who is willing to comfort
My insecurities to avert
Someone who has no problem with reassurance
And doesn't see my emotions as a hindrance
Because along with strong emotions
Comes loyalty and devotion
When you truly love me
You have to love all of me

Ms. JStar

Empty

Awakening alone to an empty bed
No more of your loving kisses instead

Your belongings are not here anymore
Your clothes are not over in dresser drawer

Your chair looks as if you never sat there
The scent of your cologne no longer fills the air

No more memories to make
Now my heart is in constant heart ache

My love for you still lives within Moving on, I don't know where to begin

Ms. JStar

Excuses

Why do we make excuses for why we can't obey
This is when our hearts are led astray

Falling into evil temptations
Ignoring His expectations

Then blame Him for not progressing
Instead of on our knees confessing

Wondering why our problems are not being alleviated
But the route He mapped we deviated

We go to church and hear the Word
But don't truthfully understand what we heard

We take what we want to hear
But our efforts are not sincere

How can you love Him with half of our heart
Without learning His word that He is attempting to impart

Build a true relationship with Him
Allowing Him to be the only one you depend

He will give you the strength to make it through Your spirit He will renew

You will be able to feel His presence within
And allow your walk with Him to truly begin

Existing

I feel like a hollow shell just existing
The pain is beyond resisting

Consuming my thoughts and actions
Trying hard to find a distraction

Which can't be found
Your lies continue to surround

Not knowing the truth from fiction
Believing your contradictions

I can't believe you have hurt me once again
You have proven I can't depend

I have been there through thick and thin
Just so you can destroy me within

Leave me feeling numb
Allowing the pain to succumb

The pain keeps persisting
I am just here existing

Faith

Why do we worry and stress
Instead of awaiting God to bless

We make choices that have consequences
Blaming Him for our mistakes is our greatest offense

Why do we fight against His will
Instead of trusting His Word to instill

Faith that everything will work out just as it's supposed to
And not always when and how we want it to

We need to learn how to let go
And realize that He is the One that is in control

All He asks for is our love and obedience
Pray at the altar with faith and confidence

Live out our purpose here in this life
And He guarantees us eternal life

With inner peace and unconditional love
Just build a personal relationship with God above

Ms. JStar

Fear

Dreams of happiness seem so far out of reach
Even though these lessons are to teach

Maybe I don't want to learn
Maybe I want true love to return

I want to learn how to love again
Learn how to give in

Give all of me to the one that deserves
Instead of being the one that only observes

Happiness all the while I envy
The pain deep inside that no one else can see

Not allowing love in Constantly reliving where I have been

Can't get past these tears
Can't get past my fears

Instead holding my heart discreetly
Unable to let go and love completely

Ms. JStar

Feeling Love

I am very confusing and emotional
But my love in totality is purely unconditional

If you can see past my inner fears
Look deeper inside, things aren't always as they appear

Trust is something I still have a hard time believing in Still feeling so much pain within

Never thinking I was good enough to be loved in return
Loving me is something I had to relearn

Allowing someone in my heart again
Brings up fears that are hard to explain

Just wrap your arms around me and hold on tight
At times I may need reassurance that everything is alright

Be patient as I learn how to love once more
While our love to the fullest we explore

Your love to me almost seems unreal
Assist me while I am learning to feel

Ms. JStar

First Love

Loved you ever since "New Jack City"
Knew right then I wanted to keep you in my vicinity

For you I truly carry an addiction
"Happily ever after" has always been my depiction

As a kid I dreamed of us having kids and getting married
For years I kept my love for you deep inside buried

But I could never let you out of my grip
Until now we've missed our chances for an adult relationship

Our friendship has grown stronger and stronger over the years
You've always been there to calm my fears and wipe away my tears

Now we are both available to explore
The depths our love can lure

Our friendship makes loving you a given
With you, any mistakes can be forgiven

I've always loved you right from the start
You are the only man I could trust with my heart

In my heart you've always stood above
You are definitely my first true love...

Ms. JStar

Focus

Our road has been rough from the beginning
Back and forth we contemplated on ending

A few times said our goodbye's
But to you my heart will always be tied

We had trouble letting our guards down
And loving as if no one was around

Our child I felt growing inside me
Out of our love our child was conceived

Now together we mourn the loss
Pain is shared, but our love for our child will never be lost

Through time and healing our bond has grown
The strength of our love has clearly shown

We have another chance at happiness
If we allow our love to wash away any fears or sadness

Now we have the opportunity to make things right
Let's focus on our love and never lose sight

Ms. JStar

Fool

You show me time and time again
You're not worth my love
But do I listen to what's Thrown in my face
No, my heart over rules
Like a damn fool
Wish I could turn my feelings off
Like a light switch
Is there a pill for that
I must need to see a shrink or something
Cuz I still love your sorry as@
I am a damn fool
For you

Ms. JStar

For Sale

Jobless and homeless
Nowhere to turn
Not sure what to do
Her kids need to eat
And need a place to sleep
No one to help
Feeling completely alone
Only decision that is feasible
Giving up her kids
For now at least
Hungry, cold and confused
Desperation takes over
Standing on a DC street corner
Praying no one stops
But then brake lights shine
A white car stops, pricing discussed
Not offering enough
But she is desperate and accepts
As she sat in the seat next to him
Terror took over her thoughts
Reliving previous rapes as an adolescent
Wishing she never got in the car
But it's too late now
He is asking questions but she can't hear
They stop in an alley
She wants this to hurry up and be done
She pulls down her pants just enough for him to enter Makes sure he uses the condoms she brought Doesn't trust him at all
Bends over and tells him only from the back
So she doesn't have to see his face
Thank God it was over fast
Pulls up her pants and walks away into the night
Feeling dirty and raunchy
Tears flowing down her cheeks
When her boyfriend finds her
He tells her to get in the car
Then yanks her out by her hair
Earrings fly across the pavement

Beats her repeatedly with rage in his eyes
He was someone that she never knew
He takes the money she just sold her soul for Alone in the shower for nearly 4 hours
Trying to wash away the filth
But it still remains within her soul
Memories will haunt for decades

Ms. JStar

Forever Young

Forever Young

Dedicated to the life of Andrea Arnold

Our Heavenly father needed His angel
We can search for reasons from every angle
And still never understand
His ultimate plan
Take comfort that she can no longer feel pain
Even though your life will never again be the same
Cherish the memories that will never fade
Find that strength that she always displayed
I will always remember her smile
Although I have only known her a short while
She was one of my daughters best friends
The person she could confide and depend
I saw a beautiful soul
Mother to mother; I wish I had the words to console
Always remember the laughter and the fun
In our hearts she is forever young

Ms. JStar

Free

Sometimes I just want to be alone
To be invisible and unknown

In my own little space
No one to chase

No one around
Completely quiet, hearing no sounds

Not dealing with anyone's attitude
Not having to show anyone gratitude

Just free to be me
No rules and no guarantee

Feeling only my own thoughts and dreams
No one hearing my inner screams

Dealing with self first and foremost
Mind escaping into the unknown, curtains finally closed

Going anywhere my heart desires
Feeding my soul with what it requires

Just completely loving me
Being free to just be me

Ms. JStar

Free Falling

Sick and tired of stressing
Constantly assessing
Damage already done
And all that's left undone
Wondering how I am going to make it
Not understanding how the pieces are going to fit
Letting go
Even though the debts are still owed
Having faith that He WILL provide
Closing my eyes and opening my arms out wide
Feeling assurance in His calling
Letting completely go and free falling

Ms. JStar

Freedom

Wearing what I want
Even if it flaunts
Doing as I please
Never trying to tease
Hanging with the girls
The hair always tight with curls
Not needing a man
Doing it all myself, because I can
Not having to answer to anyone
But myself, not listening to no one
Always being me
If you don't like it just flee
Going where ever I choose
I am always right and you always loose
I am not trying to please you
Only myself, you can do what you do
And I will do mine
Not worrying about the time
Having much fun
Until I feel that I am done
What I say goes
I don't just shut up and go with the flow
What I say counts
Expressing myself, not letting the tension mount
Doing whatever my heart feels
Not looking for a free meal
I don't need what you got
I do for me and mine, and we already got a lot
I don't need you
I only need me, and I am doing well to
You didn't think I could
Well you shoulda
I proved you and everyone wrong
I stayed under you for too damn long
Now I got it all
And it's my call
Coming home as late as I want and lit
Freedom is mine, I just took it

God's Gift

Life is the most precious gift
Treat it as such and do your best to uplift

Stop wasting time in sorrow
There will always be tomorrow

To make a fresh start
And ease your heart

God is in control
Have trust in him as his love consoles

Enjoy each moment as if it is your last
Once the time is past

You can never get it back
So make sure happiness is intact

You only get one lifetime
So make it worth each and every dime

Keep loved ones close
And be sure to thank God first and foremost

Ms. JStar

Good Bye

Now it's really time to say goodbye
We both know the real reasons why

Now there is truth to my inner fears
It's hard to maintain and control my streaming tears

I really wish I didn't have to let you go
I had high hopes for our love to grow

Into a love more beautiful than ever imagined
Loosing you forever was unimagined

Now I feel empty with no desires to move on How can my love all of a sudden be withdrawn

I just wish you saw how much I truly do love you
I just wish you loved me with half of the intensity my love is for you

Now it's time for me to step away
If it's meant to be you will find your way back to me one day

When you are ready to give me what I need
If that day should come, I will be right here for our love to proceed

But if you don't make it back to me
I will finally realize it wasn't meant to be

As much as I would love to continue to deny
For now I must say good bye

Ms. JStar

Happiness

I wish for you the utmost happiness
Mind clear and heart free of emptiness

If anyone else cannot see, I can See that you are a very good man

Your heart is pure
I am sorry for any pain you have had to endure

You deserve so much more
You are someone I truly adore

Yet you still do not see your true worth
You have been unique since birth

You have so much inside to cherish
Drama and unhappiness should soon perish

Even if it's not with me
I wish only happiness always for you and your heart to agree

Ms. JStar

Healing

Scars leaving stains
Only dried tears remain

Still hurting deep inside
There is no one I can confide

Not sure how to move on
Even though the cause of my pain is gone

I still feel the remnants of the pain
All my love and trust has went down the drain

When will my rain end
When will my heart mend

Only I can heal myself
Need to put all my feelings on the shelf

And move on to bigger and better things
And see what life brings

Erasing these stains that are causing so much pain
No more tear drops staining my window pane

From looking out the window watching the clouds
Day dreaming, no more pain leaving shrouds

Due to life's dealings
Through all of the pain there is healing

Ms. JStar

His Battle

Let go and your joy will be complete
Don't just fall in defeat
Your troubles make you stronger
Don't hold onto the guilt any longer
Repent your sins
And your peace will begin
Never give up hope
Whatever it is, you CAN cope
Set your mind at ease
Don't question God's expertise
Stay in fear of His reign
Allow His glory to attain
And His knowledge to excite
Realize that it's just not your battle to fight

Ms. JStar

His Light

When the clouds are too thick to see the light
Keep your goals in sight

Be prepared to trip and fall for your vision is not yet clear
Find that strength to persevere

No matter what road blocks are in the way
In the good and the bad, don't forget to kneel before Him and pray

Be thankful for where life has brought you thus far
Even when the lessons learned leave scars

Stop making wishes over a four leaf clover
For it aint over, until God says it's over

He will provide all that you require
And not always everything you desire

Have faith that it will all work out in the end
Just the way He intends

Allow His love in your heart to reside
His light is our constant guide

Ms. JStar

His Voice-Friday's 55

His voice makes my heart skip a beat
Sending chills from my head to my feet
My stomach fills with butterflies
Vibrations felt through my thighs
Senses alert
He is the whip cream to my dessert
Tasting his essence
Feeling his presence
His voice comforts my heart
His voice is assurance when we are apart

Ms. JStar

His Word

The Word feeding my soul
Emptiness fulfilled
Thirst for knowledge being quenched
Like my spirit is hungry
I can feel my wounds healing slowly
My pain resting in His hands
My faith strengthening
For "It is written"
Assurance guaranteed
On bended knee
Releasing my heart to Him
In its entirety
Fully submitting
Openly loving Him

Ms. JStar

Homecoming

Rolling her long silky brown hair
Applying make up to prepare

For her junior homecoming
Looking at the woman she is becoming

Her dress hugging her curves
Hoping her future boyfriend treats her as she deserves

Her first time wearing heels
Knowing its excitement that she feels

Posing as a grown woman with such innocence
The young child I am watching transform I reminisce

She is preparing for the world not knowing all its horror
She will make mistakes as she explores

I am there to help her learn and teach her how to get back on her feet
Overcoming lies and deceit

She has only experienced her first heartbreak
Discovering so called friends can be fake

So much more to learn
Knowing she is smart and will make a man earn

His right to her heart
Giving her strength to overcome if or when they grow apart

It seems like only yesterday I was changing her diapers
Now it's the tears falling down her cheeks I wipe

Wishing her more success than I experienced
Praying my mistakes have influenced

Her future decisions
I am sure that her life will be more than I can currently envision

My precious baby is no longer a child
I sent her off to her dance and within I smiled

Ms. JStar

Homeless

It all started when my marriage crumbled into ashes
My life went crashing

I had no idea what was about to transpire
Distress got me fired

Life turning upside down
So called friends are nowhere to be found

Had to make the hardest decision
Sending my children to daddy was more than I could envision

Endured unimaginable affliction
Starting all from the first eviction

Living place to place was not where they needed to be Sleeping and eating daily was not a guarantee

No one showed me compassion
Generosity only came in rations

Times got desperate
Keeping mind and body separate

As I did things I never thought I could do
Putting myself in situations I wish no one had to ever go through

I learned no one truly cares
Except the Man above, who I send my tearful prayers

Had to learn how to humble myself and set my pride aside
Having faith the He will always provide

All along He heard my silent plea
After I learned my lessons He started blessing me

Sending me in the direction I needed to succeed
Gaining the strength to proceed

He carried me through the horrors of the streets
My fears I have no choice but to defeat

Ms. JStar

Hunger

Hungers burning desire
Hearts shooting flames of fire
Sparks of electricity no longer deniable
Constant eruption always reliable
Lightning strikes felt within the soul
Lives brought together with a common goal
Insatiable beams of light
Irresistible to fight
Two hearts connected as one
True love can never be undone
Every emotion explored
But there is always a hunger for more

Ms. JStar

I Am Here

I know you are in a lot of pain right now
I want you to know that I am here for you always I can be your shoulder if you should allow
I am willing to help you through these rough days
Words are not always needed to make your heart heal
Just know whatever you need, I am here
My heart is breaking wanting to take away the pain you feel
Although I know your pain will never truly disappear
This hurt will get easier with time
God's will we may not always understand
Or have his reasoning's defined
Just remember I am always here extending my hand

Ms. JStar

I Commit

We are about to make the biggest commitment of our life
We are soon to be husband and wife
I am as happy as I've ever been
With you the rest of my life I plan to spend
I never knew I could ever find true love
I commit my life to you on this special day and every day thereof
I always thought that I would never find Mr. Right
The fire inside of me you ignite
You bring out my inner passion
Accentuate my compassion
Within that I never knew was there
On this day my love I declare
For the world to see
And envy
What we have people search their whole life for
And never find a love like ours that soars
I promise to be the best wife you could ever dream of Our love was sent from above
We were definitely blessed
This love we share had progressed
Into something we could have never predicted
Our love is unrestricted
Make sure the lines of communication are always open
Let our love always flow like the ocean
So free and clear
Our souls are bonded now as one we appear
From this day on
I will prove what has been agreed upon
For eternity in our utopia I submit
To you my life I commit

Ms. JStar

I Promise

These were my wedding vows... If you recognize some of the lines it's because I took pieces of the poems I had written for him and combined them into one poem...

Baby, I promise to always love you unconditionally
I promise that I will be the one who shows you a love traditionally

I promise to be everything you will ever need or desire
I promise to provide you with everything that you require

I promise to always stand beside your every decision
I promise to be all that you could ever envision

I promise to show you a love that is ever so true
I promise to show you happiness that is long overdue

I promise to always be honest and never lie
I promise to be the one that you can always rely

I promise to be the keeper of your most private secrets
I promise that you will never have any regrets

I promise to be the protector of your heart
I promise to always finish what I start

I promise to be appreciative of everything you do
I promise to listen attentively to the little details and never subdue

I promise to be there for you when you need me
I promise to never hurt you or deceive

I promise to always pay attention to the hands that are dealt
I promise to love you more and more each day, in sickness and in health

I promise to be all yours
I promise to assist you in your endeavors

I promise to always adore, honor and cherish you
I promise to always demonstrate respect that is due

I promise to kiss away your tears when sadness makes you cry
To make you feel priceless, something that money can never buy

I promise to be your strength when you feel weak
I promise to be the treasure that you so eagerly seek

I promise to be your shield
When you are not quite up to the battlefield

I promise to be your guiding light
When the clouds from the storm send you out of sight

All these things I will prove Any doubt you have I can surely remove

As I promise these things with a guarantee
I am confident that in turn you can promise the same to me

On our special day, I dedicate my life
To you always as your loving wife

Ms. JStar

I Still Want You

I want you to kiss me passionately like you used to
I want to see you smile again when I am in your view

I want to feel the passion we once knew
I want to forget the troubles we have been through

I want sleepless nights next to you
I want our love to feel brand new

I want ecstasy to the fullest pursued
I want to feel safe to subdue

I want you to completely hold me within you
Feeling your love inside is long overdue

I want our love's strength to always anew
Baby I still love and want only you

Ms. JStar

I Wish

I wish I didn't love you the way I do
I wish I could just forget everything we have been through

I wish I could pretend like these last year's didn't take place
I wish I didn't have to experience so much disgrace

I wish I didn't give you the key to my soul
I wish I didn't give you so much control

I wish I could stop feeling so much pain
I wish you didn't drive me insane

I wish I knew how to move on
I wish you didn't leave me feeling so withdrawn

I wish I could see beyond you and me
I wish I could live without guarantee

I wish our love we never pursued
I wish I never ever loved you

Ms. JStar

Ignored

Taking it one day at a time
Feelings not exactly sublime
Life is so repetitive and routine
And nothing in between
No joys of fulfillment
No love instilled
I feel like I am battling this world alone
While situations continue to be thrown Feelings of neglect
Sort of like a disconnect
Body becoming numb
Not sure if what I want will ever come
Or if it even truly exists
Loneliness persists
Feeling if I die tomorrow
There will be no tears of sorrow
Everyone will live their lives as normal
Why do my emotions have to be abnormal
Why do I care so much
Sometimes my heart needs to be touched
I get insecure and need reminding
Mind games unwinding
Is it wrong to want to feel love seeping my pores
For my feelings to be nurtured and not ignored

Ms. JStar

Impaired

Thoughts consuming my mind
Memories always remind

Of pain and grief
My heart stolen like a thief

Only to be hurt every time
Even after the wedding bells chimed

Every man I have ever given my heart to Expected me to subdue

And accept treatment given
The torment cannot be forgiven

I am trying to forgive myself
And put this pain up on the shelf

But I am still unable to give my all
It's only the nightmares I recall

Too scared to let the right one in Can't shake my feelings within

Blocking my future blessings
Constantly depressing

In a state of seclusion
Continuous confusion

Will I ever find inner peace
And allow the love inside to release

To the one deserving of my heart
Will this pain ever depart

Having faith in my belief
Praying for absolute relief

I feel broken and hopelessly in despair
I have declared myself love impaired

Ms. JStar

In Love

In love with love
The idea of love
The illustrations of love
The feeling of love
The fullness of love
The comfort of love
The courage of love
The sexiness of love
The sensuality of love
The electricity of love
The enrichment of love
The illusions of love
The 'In Love' of love

Ms. JStar

Indecisive

I want what I want and now
Even when I am not sure how Patience is something I am not good at Impulsiveness is something I combat
I go with the flow of the moment
Loneliness has been an adjustment
In trying to find the perfect match
There are feelings that attach
Been back and forth a few times
To see which light shines
The brightest in realities eyes
Over and over I revise
In the end I just want something real
I want true love to reveal
But I don't trust my decisions
Not sure if this is what I envisioned
Trying calm the apprehensive
And no longer be so indecisive

Ms. JStar

Inevitable

Around you I feel at home
Eager to turn each stone

I can be me, with no acts to fake
No impressions I need to make

With you, I am in my comfort zone
The undeniable love and trust set the tone

There is just about nothing we don't know about each other
Yet, there is still more to learn about one another

When we met at the movie theater that day
I was numb and my mouth couldn't form the words I wanted to say

When it was made known it was my number you wanted
We had no idea the bond being confronted

I looked in those eyes and had to have you
The closer we got, I became to love you

As teenagers, we were best friends
You became someone that I grew to depend

As adults, we missed our chances but became lovers
It's good our secrets were never discovered

You are that someone that I could never let go
That one that always had my heart even when no one could know

Now life brings us another chance
To heighten things above this romance

I can no longer contain the uncontrollable
I am tired of running from the inevitable

Ms. JStar

Inner Flame

Again you made love to me and made my heart skip a beat
With your love felt inside no other man could ever compete

All the love you continue to demonstrate I happily reap
Now as I lay next to you, watching you peacefully sleep

Thinking of all the ways I want to please you
Giving to you well deserved happiness that is long over due

What we share is unexplainable with words spoken
You fill the holes in my heart that was once broken

There is no one true definition of our love
The depths you have taken me were undreamed of

I urge to break down my barriers and my whole heart allow you to claim
With only you to share the intensity of this undying inner flame

Ms. JStar

Inner Tears

No one can see me crying
Within I feel like I am dying

No one can hear my silent cries
It's been so long since I have seen my sun rise

No one can feel my pain
The pain that is driving me insane

Everything looks fine but looks are deceiving
Inside I am constantly grieving

Torturing myself it seems
But no one can hear my screams

No one can rescue me from myself
I can't seem to put old feelings on the shelf

And let these feelings past
It's like a spell upon myself, has been cast

Immeasurable pain I feel
I am not sure how much longer I can conceal

I feel as if I am about to explode
Torment has been bestowed

How do I release
And find again that inner peace

Can I get past my fears
Can I stop these inner tears

Ms. JStar

Intrigued

Intrigued by the depths of you
Got me wondering if I should pursue

Curiosity is getting the best of me
Putting myself out there with no guarantee

I am feeling your sexy style
Hopeful you are worthwhile

Not looking for anything serious
Loving the mysterious

Wanting to know what it takes to make you smile
Levels of you trying to compile

Piecing together the real you
Asking myself if you are true

I have enjoyed time spent
Curious of your intent

Time will only tell
If things will excel or we say our farewells

Actions speak louder than words could ever
Hoping we are successful in our endeavor

Eager to see if you can take my breathe and leave me fatigue
You have me very intrigued

Ms. JStar

Irresistible

Not a moment goes by
That my body doesn't crave
The way our tongues tie
Tasting each second memory saved
Soft kisses on my neck and lips
I can't even pretend to resist
Pure love sips
Drunken passion twisted
Tingling sensation
Floating high
Loves creation
Nothing denied
Everything kissable
Ecstasy irresistible

Ms. JStar

Isolated

Isolated in my own mind
My own world I drift
Falling into my own darkness
Facing my own demons
Totally alone

Isolated

Just going through the motions of life
In my own fogged daze
Life feeling repetitive
Feeling as I am facing the world on my own
Loneliness and depression takes over

Isolated

Body becoming numb
Wishing time away
Depression controlling thoughts
Nightmares feeling like reality
In my own mind

Isolated

Ms. JStar

Joe

Aids took you away from me
For all the world to see
You went out of our sight so fast
But you left us plenty of memories to last
It is your gentle touch that we miss
And your cheek to kiss
You are my big brother and I am your little sister
Your horrible death wrecked my life like a twister
I am dealing with so much grief
My heart is in so much disbelief
It's been almost a year now
But it still feels like yesterday since you threw in the towel
I know that you did not mean the horrible things that you said to us
Even though you gave everyone so much fuss
I know that the pain took over your mind
But there was no cure to find
You once told me that it felt day to day like you were living with the flu
You were no longer the brother I once knew
Your body was in too much pain
It felt like you was just hit by a train
I wished that there was something that I could have gave you to take the pain away
All that I could do is hope and pray
Then that cool summer morning when God finally called your name
Now nothing could ever be the same
You told mom that you saw Heaven and you did not want to leave us
But it was your time to go, it certainly was a must
I bet that it was a long journey home
Now you have a new place to call your own
Our life here on earth goes on
All we have left to do is mourn
I will definitely mourn you
Until I join you
Now all your son has left is very few memories of his dad
And now he will be forever sad
All I can do is hold him and think of you
I will be sure to let him know what a fine you man he can be too
You will forever be in my thoughts, prayers and my mind

I will always remember and be grateful for the short time...
That God gave us

Just Once More

Lying here in this bed next to him
Wanting him to touch and love me until my knees go numb
Longing to feel his soft kisses on my neck
Loving me all the way down past the small of my back
His hands caressing my thighs as gentle as a feather
Making my senses alert and sensitive to his touch
Craving to feel him inside
Taking me to our special sensual place
Indulging into pure ecstasy
Falling asleep in his arms, awakening to his much desired kisses
But instead
I lay next to this man I love with every molecule of my body
Hurting, missing the love we shared
Both knowing we cannot be, not now
But the love we share is so powerful and keeps pulling us back
Now we lay here as two friends would Pretending we don't want to give in
Just once more...

Ms. JStar

Keep Your Head Up

Keep your head up

Don't let the circumstances bring you down

Even though the problems continue to mound, and don't seem as if they will let up

Stop focusing on what is around

Those problems can be overcome

Lessons are to be learned

But don't let tensions overwhelm

Happiness has to be earned

Have faith and hope

Don't let nonsense break your focus and inner peace

God will help you cope

And the problems will soon cease

Trust in me

I am here to stay

And follow the lead

God will be there to show us the way

Ms. JStar

Kiss

Your kisses make my heart flutter
To where there are no words for my lips to utter Like a therapeutic healing
Words don't give justice to this feeling
Bringing my body shivering cold chills
Like the world is spinning but I am lying still Thoughts disappear from my mind
While feelings are redefined
In a total state of bliss
By your gentle, loving kiss

Ms. JStar

Kiss Me

Kiss me like you never have before
My reservations and hesitations totally ignore

I know I haven't allowed myself to completely let go
Allowing emotions to reach its plateau

I have been scared to give in Terrified to truly begin

Kissing you takes things to a new height
Setting a blaze my fears to ignite

Trusting you entirely
Releasing to you my heart in its entirety

Unleashing feelings never felt
While insecurities continue to melt

Demonstrate without words but with actions
Not allowing for any distractions

Feeling again that pure love actually exists
All of these feelings set free just by your loving kiss

Ms. JStar

Knowing

Scared not knowing
Not sure where I am going
Not sure how I am going to make it
Feeling as I want to quit
But know I can't allow myself to succumb
Knowing there is more I want to become
I just need to make it past this Knowing I can't afford to remiss
I am learning how to wait
Attempting not to fall for the bait
Things are looking grim
Stepping out with faith as my limb
Knowing He is faithful and His words are true
Knowing He WILL carry me through

Ms. JStar

Let You Go

I love you so much that I have to let you go
Hard to let the pain inside show

You still have so much life to live
Before you are ready for the love I have to give

For you, inside I already carry love
But love cannot always stand above

There are so many things you are destined to pursue
Wanting for you everything that is due

Will always hold onto you in that special place
Locked deep inside my heart, is our personal space

If it's meant to be, it will be
Our hearts hold the key

Our lives are on separate journeys
Maybe one day, you will find your way back to me

But for now, I have to let you go
Enjoy each day of your life and go with the flow

I love and respect you too much to hold you down
In my heart, you will always be around

We were brought into each other's lives for a reason
Even if it's just for a short season

Just want to let you know
Even though I may have to, I don't want to let you go

I will always love you baby

Ms. JStar

Let's See

Even though we just met, you've got my attention
Got me contemplating future decisions

Not sure what will come our way
Making me curious enough to stay

All other contender's go unnoticed
To see where this will lead takes higher focus

Not making expectations, just going with the flow
Everything about you, I wanna know

Time is of the essence
Right now, I'm just enjoying your presence

The more time is given, the more is craved
Around you it's hard to behave

The first attraction was physical
But I want to also stimulate the mental

Learning the depths of your soul
Making happiness the highest goal

Willing to see this through
When you are not around, you got me missing you

Curiosity is getting the best of me
Slowly following your lead

Opening locked doors
With you I may want to explore

I hope you are also feeling me
Just where this goes, let's see

Ms. JStar

Loneliness

I am so tired of being alone
Tired of feeling like I am on my own

Tired of waking up to an empty bed
Wondering what's ahead

My standards are high as ever
But I don't want to be by myself forever

I want to feel the feeling of love
An no longer the lack thereof

I want someone to share my thoughts and dreams
Nothing is ever how it seems

Being alone does has its benefits
But it also has its limits

I miss being made love to all night
And all those feelings that excite

I miss hearing the words "I love you"
That kind of love that makes you feel brand new

But I am not willing to accept just anything
Definitely not looking for a meaningless fling

Been there, done that many times before
But my feelings I can no longer ignore

Lately I have constantly pushed good men away
Terrified of being betrayed

I know I need to let my guards down some Or I will allow my loneliness to succumb

Ms. JStar

Lost In Love

Lost myself in you
Searching for the love that was long overdue

Had me wrapped up so tight
Catching me off guard making me lose my sight

Forgetting who I am to be Fully trusting you with my heart set free

You had me completely open
Had my heart hopin

It would last forever
The love we shared is now severed

Our love was so intense
Losing my defense

Two opposites coming together
Thinking we could weather

Anything that came our way
Not knowing we were just prey

Got caught up in this love thing
The depths of our love we would cling

Sometime love just isn't enough
Love wasn't supposed to be this rough

We just couldn't seem to stay on the same path
Couldn't weather love's wrath

The troubles our love has cost
In our love we were lost

Ms. JStar

Lost In The Clouds

I feel like everything is tumbling down on me all at once
I feel like there is no escape in sight
Everything that could go wrong has in abundance
I do not have the energy to fight
I know I must not give up
But I am not sure what I can do
Why did everything have to be so abrupt
I only wish that I could have everything that is due
Where is it going to come from
I only wish that I had the answers that I need
My body feels so numb
All I have left to do is plead
Please God help me
Guide me down the right path
Assist me in my relief
Give me strength to overcome the wrath
Help me see the light through these rough clouds
I know it's there I just need to find it
With your help I am sure that everything will be fine
I am putting my faith and trust in you
I know I will see the light in time
I will just leave it up to you

Ms. JStar

Love

When I first meet you I wasn't sure what would unfold
The chemistry we had could not go untold
As soon as we laid eyes on each other we connected
It was like when I looked in your eyes I saw my life reflected
I felt as if I couldn't get enough
Of you, like you were sent from above
I could feel your love up my spine
You were someone that I can spend all of my time
I just had to make you mine
Your body I desire
Your love sets my heart on fire
You are just what I needed in my life
My heart feels like a kite floating in the sky
You make me feel so good inside
Any instructions I can abide
You inside me is what I lust
Experiencing you is a must Making love to you is like no other
You are the best lover
Friend and confidant that I could have asked for
I couldn't have wished for more
We are so much alike it is unreal
My heart is yours to steal
Wonderful is the way you make me feel
You keep me flowing like a river
You make my body quiver
The way I feel is indescribable
Words do not give it justice, it is unbelievable
Anytime you need me look to your right, I will always be by your side
I am here for that long ride
Anything that comes our way we can handle
Our love will never go out like a candle
Anytime you feel like you need me just call
I will be there giving you my all
I love you boo
And will do anything for you

Ms. JStar

Love At First Sight

It all started with a glance
Momentarily fantasizing about romance

Our eyes were introduced
The depth of your eyes surely seduced

And intrigued
Had me feeling fatigue

Time abruptly stopped
My heart dropped

And the first word hasn't been spoken
Almost like my tongue was broken

When you finally stepped, not taking me for a fool
I tried to play calm and cool

But my heart was racing
Curiosity tasting

Leading us into invigorating conversation
Leaving me with much fascination

Trying to deny
The strong feelings I felt inside

The chemistry was unbelievable
The emotions were undeniable

Trying not to set myself up for heartbreak
But this seemed different, it had to be fate

Your honesty relaxed me
We were definitely meant to meet

My guards melted like butter
My heart was at a constant flutter

Our minds connected on a journey
You have proved you are worthy

Souls instantly connected
I no longer feel neglected

This is something that had to be pursued
I am diggin your views of life and that sexy attitude

Trying hard not to give in
But I don't know how long I can hold it in

Finally, your true intentions you revealed
Commitment and love appealed

When you slowly kissed my lips
It felt as if heaven pierced through my hips

Your arms surrounding my body
Your sincerity and warmth I embody

I feel at peace
Emotions continuously increase

In your arms I feel at home
You have shown me that I can never be alone

Now much time has passed
Our love is surely meant to last

Ms. JStar

Love Overcomes

An argument is always just an argument
There is nothing that we cannot overcome
At times we may have a disagreement
But we can move on
And always forgive
Always talk and work it out
No need to continuously relive
No matter what it is about
We can come to a compromise
If we both work together
No need to bring in outside sources
As long as we confront the problem together
At times we may run into many courses
Struggles and obstacles that test us
For our love will only grow stronger
As outside problems may become relentless
Soon with acknowledgment they will be no longer
Our love's strength we can always depend
While life in depth we explore
Bring everything forth and reprehend
So we can deal with it at the core
The bond we share
Makes a lifetime happiness inevitable
Nothing else can compare
We are unstoppable
A force to be reckoned with Nothing else could ever come above
What we have, any problem can be dismissed
Because we have true love

Ms. JStar

Love See's No Color

Our love is beyond the color of our skin
Our love comes from within Didn't realize that was such a sin
If we are happy what does it matter to anyone else
Just as long as we are true to what is felt
We are not trying to please anyone but our self
Why cant people just be happy for us
Instead of making such a fuss
This is not just lust
This is real love
The long lasting type of love
The kind of love that was sent from above
Why do others feel the need to hate
What difference does it make
To you, why are you so up in arms and acting so irate
I am not in this to hurt you
I am in a love that is so true
Didn't mean to offend you
I should be entitled to love that is due
And I wish the exact same for you

Ms. JStar

Loved Anyway

He treated me like sh! @,
But I loved him anyways
Convincing me of change,
Begging me to stay
Knowing the truth
Knowing he could not be true,
To me
I loved him anyway

Ms. JStar

Magic Man

What makes you magic
What is it about you that will make me gotta have it

How long will the magic last
Can you guarantee my expectations will be surpassed

Actions speak louder than words
Too many lines I have already heard

My life has seen too much disappointment
I am ready for that commitment

If you can't guarantee that don't waste my time
My heart is on the line
I am looking for a love that is sublime

Will you prove each day your worthiness
Are you willing to appreciate bliss

Will you honestly be there when you are needed
Can you really satisfy me indeed

I need justification before I can give my all
I have to protect my heart so I won't fall

Into another trap and can't break free
So it is pure happiness you can guarantee

Ms. JStar

Me

I am not like anyone you have ever met
But I am someone you may never forget

I take things as they come
I make sure the job gets done

At times I may cause unnecessary stress
But don't worry it is just a test

I am a very thoughtful person
I like to discuss the problem from the start before things worsen

I don't have time and energy for drama
Treat me like you would treat your momma

That should be with the utmost respect
Always come correct

I am very strong
I have been done wrong

I have been through too much in my life
I am still here despite

I will not tolerate ignorance
I love to keep you in suspense

I stand up for what I believe
I have many goals I plan to achieve

I am very sincere in my efforts
I am consistent in my endeavors

I am honest and open-minded
I do not walk around blinded

I see the people for what they are
I appreciate the bizarre

I am very dedicated and loyal Myself I love to spoil

Take time to get to know me before you judge
I will always be there to give you that nudge

I don't need anyone or anything to define
What flows through my spine

I will always be me
That I can guarantee

Memories

Memories consume my dreams,
Of times shared

Touching my soul,
Places no one has dared

Those feelings embraced,
Within my veins

Flowing blood through my heart,
Of loves remains

Ms. JStar

Mesmerized

Just the mere thought of you gives me cold chills
Complete satisfaction you continually instill

The things you do cannot be truly defined
You make love to my entire body as well as my mind

I consume the love your body dispenses
You leave me open and defenseless

Your passion secures
Your confidence assures

I was once too scared to give in
Because of the way you make my head spin

But now I am tired of fleeing
I want to embody the love that I have been seeking

There is no other man on this earth that can suffice
No other man that can entice

Emotions erratic, nothing left to analyze
In a state of shock, you leave me mesmerized

Ms. JStar

Mid-Life Crisis

Not where I expected my life to be Nothing accomplished for the life I wanted for me

Too busy taking care of others
Catering to the kids and undeserving lovers

Re-evaluating what it is that I desire
Finding the happiness that I require

Realizing that being happy is a choice
Now listening and obeying my inner voice

No longer looking to others to provide when what I need truly lies within Ready for my fulfilled life to begin

Said goodbye to people and things that no longer had a place
That drama and stress now replaced

No longer worried about petty obligations
Raising my expectations

God provides unconditional love that I have been in search of
I give all my worries and troubles to the Man above

Wake each day with a genuine smile on my face
Satisfaction and happiness embraced

Ms. JStar

Miles Away

Even though you are miles away
My heart only feels the love we share
Our love is powerful and here to stay
I will always feel how much you care

You are within my soul, every fiber in my being
The connection we share is undeniable
We have our problems that were not foreseen
But our love is always reliable

We are worth fighting for Whatever it takes
Whatever God has in store
No matter how high the stakes

We can surpass, as long as we have each other
The world is our play ground
No one can put us under Even as problems mound

We will find a way
Hold onto what we have, just don't give up
And the benefits will come as they may
We have more on our side than luck

I miss you, and will be here
For you no matter what, no matter how long
Because our love will do the steering
There is no way we can go wrong

God will provide us with more
Just learn the lessons that are in store

I wish you weren't miles away
But this is God's way

Ms. JStar

Mindless

Mindless state of mind
Natural instincts redefined

In the seconds he enters my presence
Within my veins I feel his essence

His voice sends chills
His love fulfills

Emptiness that I didn't know existed
Love making revisited

He instinctively knows just where to kiss
Reminding me what I have missed

His touch sends vibes
That no prescription can prescribe

Pure ecstasy runs through my soul
Pleasure is the ultimate goal

He takes me to places no man can find
Clocks stop in this moment in time

Words don't give justice to the feelings he introduces Just with the look in his eyes he instantly seduces

The seconds and hours with him I constantly reminisce
Sending me into a mindless state of bliss

Ms. JStar

Miracle

Miracles come true with faith and trust
When life leaves you in disgust

Step out and believe He will carry you
But taking that first step is what you have to do

No matter what it is you are in need of
Be assured in His love

Stop being fearful
And step out in your miracle

Ms. JStar

Mirror

As I look in the mirror at my reflection
I can only see my imperfections

Trying hard to point out the good within me
Discovering what others can clearly see

Searching my soul for my purpose here
Wanting my fears to just disappear

Gaining strength to fulfill my goals
Desiring again to feel complete and whole

Seeking out in my life what's missing
Pushing past my thoughts constantly reminiscing

Overlooking nightmares haunting
Attempting to cease the persistent taunting

Wondering how my experiences can benefit others
Hoping my joy and pain can help another

Spreading my life through my words
Speaking my truths that were previously unheard

Looking past my physical appearance
Ignoring the usual interference

Exploring all possible resolutions
Not focusing on any other conclusions

Making my place in this universe
Sending all negative energy into reverse

My destination route is now clearer
Double checking my reflection in the mirror

Ms. JStar

Missin You

Missin you, your touch
The way you make me feel inside and out, I miss so much

Your eyes gripping my soul
You complete me and make me whole

The depth of your spirit
Your love is intense, not only can I feel it but I hear it

When I close my eyes, I hear the love
Pure as a white dove

Filling my anatomy, consuming my heart
I hate this being apart

Every moment without you is like an eternity
Causing momentary insanity

Our foundation is strong
Together is where we belong

I am here missin you
Lovin only you

Ms. JStar

Missing You

God has called his precious angel home
You were always the glue that kept our family whole

You taught me that such big things can come in such a small frame
You guided me into the man I have become

I remember the consequences when I didn't want to go to school
You showed me education was more important than being cool

You gave us more than we could have dreamed of You taught me strength and unconditional love

How I can just taste the delicious cakes you baked
I know you will always be watching over me but yet my heart will always ache

For the love you so freely instilled in me
It's so hard to accept that your soul is now set free

And now we are here to carry on your legacy
And make sure you are honored accurately

My inner tears will never truly subside
My love for you will always live here inside

Ms. JStar

Missing Your Love

It's the soft, slow kisses on my neck I miss
Sending me into a total state of bliss

Making love felt like we were the only two in existence
Continuously pleasing me with strong persistence

Watching the sun set with the moonlight reflecting off of the waves
Its only you I endlessly crave

Driving for hours with strong anticipation
To relieve all of my sexual frustration

Just being in your presence
Feeling your essence

Was all I ever needed
But my insecurities interceded

Being unable to trust I ruined "us"
And any chances we had of success

But I can't stop feeling the pain
Now only missing your touch remains

Missing the sound of your voice
The way you made my heart rejoice

Inside and out the way you made me feel
My true feelings I can no longer conceal

I am missing your love
And the lack thereof

Ms. JStar

Misunderstood

My intentions misread
Drama always ahead

My heart crushed time and time again
Always having to defend

Tired of not being taken seriously
Wish thoughts and emotions could be expressed fearlessly

Without misunderstanding my true meaning
Ask before interpreting what you think you are seeing

Maybe truth can shed light
To prevent the upcoming fight

But trust has to be in place
If not then this is just a waste

Why bother making you understand
I am not sure if you ever can

I am always straight up, telling it like it is Why can't you see it for what it is

Not what you think or want it to be
Not sure if you will ever see
The true me

Always misunderstood...

Ms. JStar

Mom

You are always there for me
Your love I clearly see

Anytime I have called, you have been there
Showing me how much you care

Your love to me is enchanted
At times I may take you for granted

Unintentionally, of course, it's just life gets so hectic
And things pop up unexpected

Without you I would not be where I am today
You have guided me through my days

Showing me my mistakes
And putting up with me giving you headaches

I know I have been a handful
But to you I am truly grateful

God has blessed me with a Mother like you
Any problem that may arise I am confident that you will see me through

I truly value the love that you share
You are appreciated and I truly do care

I love you Mom! !

Ms. JStar

Moments

Each moment that passes and your arms I can't feel around me
My heart mourns and I feel as if I can't breath
I hold onto each happy memory, each kiss
Your warm embrace I miss

My heart and soul is with you each moment of each day
I am trying to express what my heart wants to say
I love you today, yesterday and each day for the rest of my life
I am honored to be in your life

Ms. JStar

Moments Passing

Moments passing me by Watching the clouds form shapes in the sky

Mind completely out of reach
Watching the waves splash onto the beach

Children building castles in the sand
Couples walking hand in hand

Just relaxing, thoughts continuously surging
Feelings slowly emerging

Slight jealousy stirring inside
Dreaming of the one man I could confide

Loving me relentlessly for who I truly am to be Seeing the true beauty within me

But since there is no man who is deserving
I am here peacefully observing

The world and all of its elegance
Mind focused and in a constant trance

Enjoying what life brings my way
Thanking God each day as I pray

Ms. JStar

Morgan

You have been like family for many years
Hearing you are gone brought instant tears

I have been there through the many stages you've surpassed
Remembering what we spoke of, not knowing it was our last

Your life was heading in the direction you wanted it to be
Your unique spirit is now set free

We will miss your beautiful smile
Your good heart and most of all, your laugh; all the while

Your spirit through Raven will continue to shine
Your genuine love will remain in our hearts throughout time

Cherished memories of your presence remain
For many now life could never be the same

May God be with your family and friends in this time of sorrow
Your time here God gave us, was borrowed

Now the sadness and pain can never be fully eased
May God rest your sorely missed, wonderful soul in peace

You are gone, but never forgotten...

We love you Morgan! ! ! !

Ms. JStar

Mother's Day

Times have been rough but you have always been there
Being my savior in despair

Always giving heart-warming advice
No other so-called friend could ever suffice

You are definitely my best friend
Any heart breaks, you will forever mend

On this Mother's Day I am honoring you
Appreciation that is long over due

Even though right now you are afar
I wish your day is as special as you are

Happy Mother's Day

Ms. JStar

My Big Brother

Childhood memories of you
And all that we have been through Constant fights
Hair pulling and arm bites
Teaching me to tell time and tie my shoe
What to or not to do
Teaching me how to love what's inside
Worries and concerns with you, I confide
Taking day trips to amusement parks
Watching in amazement lights and firework sparks
Teaching me how to drive
With you by my side I always felt alive
Teenage mistakes
Giving me back what life takes Disagreements and arguments forgotten
No more revenges plotting
Both young parents together learning
Giving our children the love they are yearning
The lessons you have taught
I pass onto my children, what is most sought
Your guidance taught me, me
I truly wish you didn't have to leave
Me alone, not knowing, lost
Your journey for love has cost
And left me without my big brother
Your soul still fills me enough to smother
I feel you within and around
Your words of wisdom and experience still surround
I miss your strong arms comforting my fears
Your gentle hands wiping away my tears
Even after 10 years, I know somewhere you are still here
I just can't accept your gone, I just miss you oh so dear

Ms. JStar

My Choice

Mind scattered
Disregarding things that once mattered
Find a new direction
Not allowing my mind to be misled by affection
Choosing my destiny
Maintaining my sanity
Not allowing life to affect my mood
Feelings no longer seclude
Depression no longer has control
Taking back what life has stole
Regaining my own voice
Happiness is my choice

Ms. JStar

My Deep Ocean Of Thought

Always in deep thought
Mental stimulation
Everything coming to a halt
Intoxicating penetration
Into the unknown
Thoughts erratic
Feelings shown
Almost like an addict
Actions amplified
For reasons untold
Body numb and mummified
Under mind's control
Spirit boasting
Strengthening my mind
Heart afloat
Thoughts and desires intertwine
Mind always in a race
Hidden and secure
My secret place
Answers within I ensure
My escape
Into my own little world
Invading this is called mental rape
This is my space twirled
Around the real me
My thoughts run deep as an ocean
My own personal retreat, mental relief
Desires put into motion
All in my head
Lying there untouched
Pure, never tainted or misread
Securely clutched
Always true to self
First and foremost
For my personal health
My personal toast
No one could ever truly understand
The vibes that flow within Emotions dealt with, and stronger I stand

My thoughts will never end
And are always constant
Until you have walked in my shoes
You could never relate
But listen closely to all my clues
While I attempt to intoxicate
A distraction to deter
And make sure my thoughts and feelings
Are always secure, and un-telling of what may occur
My private dealings
Are my own
Never for others to be let completely in
They are meant to be left to the unknown
Only to reside deep within

Ms. JStar

My Heart

I can be crazy and far from perfect
At times my flirtatious nature can be suspect
I overanalyze everything and am extra emotional
And my reactions are usually irrational
Sometimes I don't feel like cleaning
And my attitude is not always pleasing
My finances and debt are overwhelming
And my stresses can be overbearing
Even though I am carrying baggage
My heart is bigger than the average
My love is true and sincere
And will never disappear
I give you an invitation into my life to be a part
All I have to offer is the love in my heart

Ms. JStar

My Husband

You have proved your love for me
For all the world to see

You complete me and make me whole
You are within my soul

Now we are as one
Our future has begun

My love for you is undying
Our goals are underlying

We have before God and our families committed
Our lives to each other we have submitted

We promised love and honesty,
Trust, respect and monogamy

I have every intention on living up to my words spoken
Each and every promise will remain unbroken

Until death do us part
Are the words that remain in my heart

In sickness and in health
Even when there is no wealth

Money can never suffice
What we have doesn't come with a price

It is felt within
And remember never to forget where we have been

For our road is destined to be long
As years pass our love will grow stronger

This is the biggest commitment of our life
I am honored to be your wife

Ms. JStar

My Star

You are my star
Even though we are apart
I am always thinking of you
And the places I can't wait to take you
You are growing so fast
Each day that is past
I am missing you more and more
The world is yours to explore
Any way you choose
Problems along the way will introduce
Lessons to be learned
And spiritual growth will be returned
Success is yours for the taking
This is your world to be king
To conquer and rule
Just as long as you do good and stay in school
You are my jewel
My most prized possession
Be sure to follow your passion
Search for your destiny
You will always be the world to me
Your strength is inevitable
Knowledge is ignitable
As long as you are a believer
You will always be the achiever
Stay strong
Royalty is where you belong
Always remember who you are
My star

Ms. JStar

My Sunrise

Your love is like the sunrise
Being there indefinite is not a compromise
Like the water fall
So elegant and pouring you it's all
Like an ocean
Not always smooth but deep with emotion
Like a rose
With time matures and grows
Like a mountain
Strong and never doubting
Like a river
Continuously flowing, making me quiver
Like a flower
Beautiful and ready to empower
Like a beach
Relaxing with destination out of reach
Like the clouds
It's presence is endowed
Like a Lion and cub
Secure, safe and always filled with love
Like a home
Stable, domesticated and never alone

Ms. JStar

My Thoughts Personified

Sitting at the computer feeling the vibe
Surging through my mind and spills out in strides
My feelings, thoughts and whatever is on my mind
Not sure of how it will turn out I grind
The keyboard, my mind overflowing
Not knowing
Exactly what will appear
My words form clear
All these unspoken words inside
I cannot deny
I feel a desperate need to release
My emotions increase
Flooding the page
In a constant rage
Cannot control myself until these words are spoken
It is for me, my token
It feels so good to get this out of my system
And put it into rhythm
A part of me is shared
Doesn't matter to me if anyone cared
It is my relief
It is only my belief
That I speak, only my needs that I need to meet
My personal retreat
Much to elate
Emotions intoxicate
My mental escape

Ms. JStar

No Other

It's only been a few days since I saw you last
But I miss you already
The second you are out of my presence
I miss you and can't wait to see you again
You are the epitome of what a man should be Everything that I have always wanted
Exactly what I have always needed
There is not one bad thing I could ever say about you
You go above and beyond
What I could have ever dreamed of
You have always been there
As my comfort zone
The one and only man who truly loves me for me
Never judging knowing the skeletons
You are a part of me
I am glad I will never have to know life without you
I want to see your face each day as I wake
And sleep soundly in your arms each night
I want you to be my; be all, end all
No other man on this earth
Can make me feel the way you always have
No other man on this earth has ever had my heart
As you have since the day we met

Ms. JStar

Not Today

I am just not the one today
Everyone needs to just stay out of my way
Not in the mood for nonsense
Trying not to let my mood cause offense
But people stay testing my patience
True my attitude needs some maintenance
Just not feeling ok in any way
Because today is not the day

Ms. JStar

One

You are the only man I desire
The one that sparks flames to my fire
I breathe your scent and become high
Like a kite floating in the sky
Embracing the comfort of your touch
These feelings I clutch
Deep within my being While guaranteeing
Pure serenity
Revealing loves identity
Soothing my soul
Becoming one

Ms. JStar

One Night

Watchin from afar, waiting for your chance
It all started with a simple dance

Your eyes caught my attention
Curious to find your definition

Wondering the heights
We can reach on the warm fall nights

Just you and me
The pleasure we can receive

Experience the intensity
Forgetting about simplicity

The sexual attraction is undeniable
Sensual pleasure is unmistakably reliable

Waking in your arms surrounding Within my petite body, climax is arousing

To utopia you continuously send Never wanting this to come to an end

Pleasure so extreme making me loose sight
Words do not give justice to our one night

Ms. JStar

One True Love

Am I worthy of true love
Lust is just not enough

I keep meeting the wrong men
Can't find one I can depend

One I can trust with my heart
One that can't stand being apart

One who loves me for me
And not what he wants me to be

Is true love just a fairy tale
Am I destined to always fail

Am I meant to be alone
Sometimes I hate to come home

To emptiness
And loneliness

Sleepless nights
Dreaming about Mr. Right

Does he really exist
A man who I simply cannot resist

Where is he hiding
I am tired of all the lying

All the game
Men seem to be all the same

How will I recognize him
Will he be true and go out on a limb

When needed
Will my expectations be exceeded

Is he right under my nose
When will his identity be exposed

When will I find a man to fulfill
And not just a cheap thrill

One man to satisfy my every need or desire
Show me true love that I require

Is there a man for me that will always be monogamous
One man who can erase all of my sadness

One man to share a lifetime of happiness
An eternity of constant blissfulness

Will I find a man who is worthy of
Is there one man who will stand above
Is there such a thing as true unconditional love

Ms. JStar

Only You

Your touch soothes my soul
Calms me and makes me whole

Your strong arms are a comforting guarantee
Leaving feelings of security surrounding me

Your sexy, inviting eyes look deep inside
With you, secrets I confide

The sound of your voice captures my attention
Vibes flow within with just a mere mention

Your kiss sends chills from head to toe
You got Niagara flowin below

Your scent memory recalls
Relaxing to my hearts applause

Your heart demonstrates your love so freely
Got me wanting to trust you completely

Your love blinds me from the daily stress
Your love I crave, my hearts confessed

I will always love and want you
Baby, you and only YOU! !

Ms. JStar

Options Narrow

Life changing decisions to be made
Choosing the wrong one, I am so afraid
Just because we are feeling each other
Doesn't mean that we are right for one another
I have very good options but not sure which is best
One does stand above all the rest
I just hope he is the right man for me
Not necessarily wanting him on bended knee
I just want something real
I want to release all this love inside that I feel
I want this to be a lifelong commitment
A love that's consistent
The one man that I chose to share my soul
The one I turn to, to be consoled
I know that nothing in life is guaranteed
Just tired of wasting my time with those who mislead
Not rushing into anything, patience is key
I am curious if he can keep me happy
And give a relationship that will continue to excel
I will never know unless I try; only time can tell

Ms. JStar

Our Chance

You are a very special person to me
Anything your heart requires I will fulfill indeed

There is so much love inside me that I want to share with you
Our love growing to the fullest is long over due

I have known you half of my life
As a child I longed to be your wife

But now just your love will suffice
Even though my words may be concise

There is so much more I want to show
So much more you need to know

To feel my love flowing through your pores
From day one, I have always been all yours

Give me the chance
And allow our romance to enhance

Penetrating the core
Releasing all of our love to pour

Into each other's soul
Allowing love to completely console

Let's finish what we started so long ago
By taking our love to the next plateau

Ms. JStar

Our Reward

My heart is torn
It continuously mourns

Until I can feel your presence
Surrounded in your essence

Dreaming of you
And me, happiness long overdue

Times have been rough
Problems continuing, dealing is tough

Without your love and support
Serenity would be short

You are my guiding light
I thank God to have you in my life

I can't wait until the day we reunite
Physically reconnected, our hearts recite

Our love that is never in danger
No one could ever break our bond, especially never a stranger

I am awaiting the day you return home
Until then, I could never roam

I will wait as long as it takes
I can deal with my heart aches

Nonsense will be ignored
Just as long as you are my reward

Ms. JStar

Paradise

Life is so precious
It is something that should never be neglected

Savor each moment
As it is your last momentum

Every second that is past
Treat it as your last

Cherish time spent
Everything has something to represent

Take time and notice the small things
And see what it brings

Once the time is gone
There is no recalling

Always remember as you climb
God only gives us one lifetime

Ms. JStar

Pleasure

I feel your gentle kisses slowly caressing me softly
Your hands soothing my body ever so lightly

Taking your time, relaxing me completely
Delicately tasting every inch of me

My juices showering you in excitement
My body chasing and anticipating each movement

Enticing each and every one of my senses
Enjoying the love your body instinctively dispenses

Fully submitting myself to you
With you, nothing is ever taboo

Spontaneously positions ever changing
Side to side, up and down; always rearranging

Gently tugging my hair from behind
Ecstasy has truly be redefined

Lying next to you in pure satisfaction
Loving you is a natural reaction

Your love in totality I treasure
My body had never experienced such pleasure

Ms. JStar

Precious Life

Life is so precious
It is something that should never be neglected

Savor each moment
As it is your last momentum

Every second that is past
Treat it as your last

Cherish time spent
Everything has something to represent

Take time and notice the small things
And see what it brings

Once the time is gone
There is no recalling

Always remember as you climb
God only gives us one lifetime

Ms. JStar

Proposal-Friday's 55

The words escaped his mouth "I am ready to claim you as mine"
He moved the hair draping my neckline

Forehead kisses ever so gently
Expressed his love relentlessly

It's time we share the love held inside
What was yearned for is now supplied

He knelt on bended knee
And proposed his love for me

Persuasive Essay-Class Assignment

God opens doors.

Even when you are still making the same mistakes, He has your back.

Even when you lose focus and direction, He still shows you the way.

He will allow you to make your mistakes and suffer the consequences of your actions. But he will not put more on you than you can bear. Even when it feels like you just can't take anymore, you can. Adversity makes us stronger. If we take our troubles to God and have faith that everything will work out as it's supposed to, it will. It's our decisions that hold us back from our blessings. God always shows you how to get back on track. When you stop worrying and have faith, your burdens and troubles don't affect you the same.

God is always on time.

Even when you don't know how you are going to make it from one day to the next, He will provide.

Even when help doesn't come when you think you need it, God will be on time.

For a week I was worried about how I could come up with $25.00 I needed to pay my rent. I stressed myself the entire week trying to come up with solutions.

When a co worker walked up to me and said, "The Holy spirit told me that you are in need."

Mind you this co worker had no idea that I was struggling with financial difficulties. He handed me exactly $25.00 and walked away. It was confirmation to me that God does really have my back and that God is always right on time.

God opens doors.

Even when troubles in your life tell you that you are not going to make it through, you will.

Even when what you wanted doesn't come to pass, your blessing will supersede your wants.

Then last week, I was stressing because I didn't know how I was going to make it to work that week. I did not have a dollar to my name. Consumed with thoughts of how I could get the money I needed for gas. When it was down to the last minute of my work day, not knowing how I was going to make it to work the next day. My supervisor offered to fill my gas tank up. That gas allowed me to make it to work for the next three days. This showed me that help comes from places that I didn't know were an option.

God is always on time.

Even when life throws you unexpected curve balls, He will give you the strength to endure.

Even when the clouds are too thick to see clearly, He will be your constant guide.

I have come so far in my life that I know that God will not let me fail, again. I overcame a drug addict husband, joblessness, homelessness, an abusive boyfriend, and giving custody of my daughters to their father. I now have a good job, my own apartment with my daughters and now able to be the best mother that I can be. I am so terrified of losing everything again that when I come up short, I get paranoid. I worry and stress myself over everything when if I rested my faith in God, there would be no need to worry. No matter how bad it looks, God opens doors and makes a way out of no way.

God opens doors.

Even when life overwhelms, he will show us mercy.

Even when we have hit our rock bottom, he will pick us up and carry us through the fires.

Have faith in God. He will open doors that were never thought possible. And provide things you couldn't have envisioned for yourself. Just the knowing that He is always on time provides unimaginable comfort. He will provide an inner peace that never before existed. God continues to show us that there is no need to stress, because He will take care of us. No matter what life looks like, He will carry us through anything that comes our way. All of this is just a reminder to stay strong and continue to fight the battles that life brings our way. Look toward to the rewards of our strength and endurance.

God opens door and He is always on time.

Rain

Tears drops staining my cheeks
Just hearing the words as he speaks

He is giving up and can't take no more
My issues he can no longer ignore

I know I am not easy to love
My insecurities stood way above

I constantly pushed him away
Not sure if he was to betray

I just couldn't let him in
I didn't even allow us to begin

The truth was that he already had my heart
From the very start

I didn't want him to take advantage
I don't know how I am going to manage

No desire to move on Feeling neglected and withdrawn

I love him more than I could show
Now he will never know

Freeing myself of this inner pain
My soul is cleansing with each dropp of rain

Ms. JStar

Rain Drops

Rain drops kissing my forehead
While tear drops from my eyes are shed
In need of a mental cleansing
Self doubt lingering
Doors are opening but I still doubt
Is this my chosen route
What if I don't succeed
Is the devil attempting to mislead
Praying for guidance
Relief in my finances
Mental stresses released
Goals increased
Fears consoled
Rain drops cleansing my soul

Ms. JStar

Rainbow

Life continuously throws us down bumpy roads
Pain takes over and implodes

We make mistakes over and over again
But we have to know when to say when

Learn how to overcome
Not allowing ourselves to succumb

To drama and dismay
Never being led astray

Once the rain clears
The beautiful rainbow appears

Note: This poem was inspired by my daughter Tanaesha, she came up with 'No Rain, No Rainbow' This poem is to explain her phrase's purpose

Ms. JStar

Real Happiness

Wishing there was something in my life REAL
Tired of the way I constantly feel

Never knowing what it feels like to be loved back
Always giving my all, but getting the same return is where I lack

When will I get back even half of what I give Just heartache is what I constantly relive

I am the truest person you will ever meet
Why am I being given so much deceit

Why do I keep meeting the same type of people
With this I kneel down at the steeple

Pray to God to change my life for the better
Writing down all of my feelings to the letter

Tired of being sick and tired
Stressing over what has transpired

I know real happiness has to be in store
I just can't take life like this anymore

I deserve so much more
Pain and misery have been implored

I know my true happiness can only come from within God is the only one else I can truly depend

Waiting for God to continue to bless
With TRUE and uplifting HAPPINESS

Ms. JStar

Released

All of my pain, released
No longer allowing past hurt to hold me back
Half of my responsibilities, released
No longer taking on others responsibilities as my obligation
My burdens, released
Not allowing others to bring me down with them
My hesitations, released
No longer wasting precious time second guessing
My doubt, released
My faith assures me
My worries, released
No longer stressing over the uncontrollable
My fear, released
Knowing God will carry me through My self-consciousness, released
Walking with my head held high
My insecurities, released
Truly loving me in totality
Drama, released
Not allowing drama into my life any longer
Headaches, released
Previous stress not affecting today
Obligations from others, released
No longer taking on others responsibilities
Heart-aches, released
Not allowing heart-ache to prevent future love
Disappointments, released
No longer allowing others to take my joy
Expectations, released
Giving it ALL to God, allowing His will to control

Ms. JStar

Remembering

Winds brushing my lips reminding
Heating cold nights
Cooling summer sweats
Quiet in a crowded room
Beams of light in darkness
Teaching the untaught
Smiles replacing emptiness
Kissing tear drops
Loving the unlovable
Remembering his love

Ms. JStar

Rhythm

You evoke feelings I never knew existed
Feelings of happiness
The love I feel flowing through your veins
Bleeds straight into my heart
With a pulsating rhythm
Just waiting to explode
Taking us to higher levels
Of ecstasy and intimacy
To a plateau of our very own
Reaching new heights with every second
Where time doesn't even matter
Nothing else matters anymore
But the feelings being produced
Between the two of us
The creation of
Our own rhythm of love

Ms. JStar

Scarred

Unable to trust
Scorned
Can't move beyond lust
Unforgiving
Always skeptical
Tired of giving
Game detectable
Heart torn
Wanting love felt
My heart mourns
Playing cards that are dealt
Unable to give all of me
My love lies enclosed
Unable to set free
True feelings not disclosed
Scarred
Scorned
Unable to trust

Ms. JStar

Senseless

As the round of shots rang out
I heard her scream and shout
Then I heard another round shatter
Bodies scattered
No longer able to scream
Lost hopes and dreams
Lives lost
For what cost
Senseless crimes
Influencing young kid's minds
That's all they know
All they have been shown
When do you get used to hearing the sirens
When do you get used to guns firing
Futures no longer reflected Senseless acts of crime expected

Ms. JStar

Silence

Baby, close your eyes and feel with your senses
Shut off all of your defenses
Don't think with your mind
Witness this as we intertwine
Focus on the energy that is being produced
Absorb it as it is introduced
Into your soul
Conceive me within you as I console
Experience the vibes that we create
These feelings we elate
Put your arms around me and squeeze tight
I invite you to be apart of this plight
Immerse yourself into my atmosphere
Relax as our souls adhere
And become as one
Enjoy what has begun
This can never be undone
We are connected in every way
Notice my persona is displayed
Nothing to hide
These feelings we cannot deny
I embrace the kiss on my lips
This is our personal eclipse
I clutch your gentle touch
Baby, I love you so much
As chills ride my spine
This love we define
But not into words
These feelings can only be felt and not heard
Dip into my intellectual
Make it ever so sensual
And sprinkle me with your trust
This is far beyond lust
This is love that is so true
This love to the fullest we pursue
It is unexplainable science
Feel as I demonstrate my love in silence

Sincere

You deserve more than I have given
Time and time again you have forgiven
My doubt and fears
When my insecurities interfered
I constantly ran from the inevitable
My past mistakes were no longer deniable
But you always loved me for me regardless
Even when my love I attempted to suppress
But I can no longer deny
Never again say goodbye
My loyalty I can guarantee
I love you with everything that's in me
My heart is no longer broken
Words can no longer be spoken
My actions will show clear
My heart is truly sincere

Ms. JStar

Someone

I want unconditionally...

Someone that tells and shows me how special I am to them
Someone that will make sure I am ok before he is worried about him
Someone who unconditionally loves me for me
Someone who encourages me to be everything I can be Someone who for no reason brings me flowers
Someone who believes in unconditional love and its true powers
Someone who listens and truly cares how I feel Someone who is patient and will comfort me as I heal
Someone who is man enough to tell me no
Someone who is secure enough to allow his love to clearly show
Someone who will treat me like a woman should Someone who will jump hoops to do all he could Someone that makes you want to rush home to Someone nightly to make love to Someone to hold me at night
Someone who no longer wants to argue and fight
Someone who would never put his hands on me
Someone who wouldn't dream of cheating and only desires me
Someone that can't imagine their life without me
Someone who is prepared to stand on bended knee

Does this man exist?

Is this too much to ask?

I am prepared to give the same in return and then some...

Ms. JStar

Soul Mates

I know that this is fate
I know for sure that you are my soul mate
I knew ever since our first date
What has progressed since I could only contemplate
Everything is so familiar
We are too similar
Our souls are bonded beyond belief
Things are so wonderful you have me in disbelief
Finding each other has been such a relief
My search for you has dissipated
You are exactly what I anticipated
Pinch me is this real
You have that unique appeal
You are just unbelievable
It is beyond explainable
We were made for each other
You are my best friend, my confidant as well as my lover
You are everything that I dreamed for
You are everything I need, want, desire and so much more
We share the same feelings, thoughts and dreams
Everything is really as it seems
You can read me
You can really see the real me
We share the same goals
We share the same souls
Our souls are together as one
We are ready to take this plunge
As husband and wife
With you I want to share the rest of my life
We have a bond that we cannot deny
You are the one that I can always rely
No need to fake
Or put on any front, this is not a mistake
It is simply fate
Taking its rightful place
There is no doubt in my mind that you are my true soul mate

Ms. JStar

Souls Kissed

You were the first man I ever dreamed of
The first man I ever wanted to love

Our families and age got in the way
But in my heart you were there to stay

Now decades have passed us by
My feelings I still cannot deny

Since I am still not able to claim you as mine
I didn't expect our souls to intertwine

All I anticipated was one night of bliss
Now I can't stop yearning for your kiss

Words can't give justice to the emotions we shared
No other experience in my life can ever be compared

That comfort zone we find in each other
Can never be found in any other

Now where do we go from here
Our souls have now adhered

There is no turning back now
Our hearts are forever connected regardless of what life will allow

My love for you deep within will always exist
Now that our souls have eternally kissed

Ms. JStar

Speak

Dear Lord,

I put my life into your hands
Even if I don't understand
Only you know what's best for me
And with faith my heart agrees
I am at a crossroad in my life
Two men want me to be their wife
And I am not sure which way to turn
Your guidance I yearn
My financial situation is not quite right
I am in desperate need of your insight
I want to be able to provide
At home where my children reside
I desire to be the best person I can be
And live my future as you foresee
Please shine your light
And give me a line of sight
Now I pray and listen for your voice
In your name I rejoice
I know you will give me all I seek
To my heart you speak

Ms. JStar

Stalker

I don't know why some people can't take no for an answer
I guess the thrill of the chase is the enhancer

You're not man enough for me
I don't care how much you beg and plea

Will you just leave me alone
Your reasons are unknown

Haven't you hurt me enough
My road is already tough

With the hurt you already put me through
Now you're sabotaging my happiness with your untruths

You didn't treat me right when you had me
The abuse was a guarantee

That you will never have my heart
I wish your existence in my life would depart

Why can't you just let me go
I don't want you, you already know

Let me live my life in peace
And allow all this pain inside to release

From you, I just want to be free
Will you please stop stalking me

Ms. JStar

Step Up

It's time to step up or walk away
No longer being led astray
My desires aren't being met
My needs you've chose to neglect
Luckily my heart isn't in too deep
But please don't sleep
Because I do have options
So take this as a word of caution
What you won't do someone else will
Your place can be easily filled
It's now or never
I am not going to wait forever

Ms. JStar

Stimulation

His lips taste as sweet as chocolate strawberries
The love he continuously gives, my heart carries

Softly rubbing his sexy, clean shaven bald head
Knowing repeated eruption is not far ahead

While his juicy lips are gently massaging me
From my head all the way down to my feet

His hands slowly caressing, bringing sensations to new heights
Perfecting tongue wrestling fights

Stimulating each and every one of my senses
Licking up the fluids my body endlessly dispenses

Anticipating returning the favor
Each dropp of him I truly savor

Loving each and every part of him
Until he feels complete numbness in his limbs

His muscular arms cradling my body to the best position
Forcing me into total submission

Following his lead
From his reactions I feed

Pure ecstasy refined
Memories I replay in my mind

Ms. JStar

Stolen Memories

The memories we have made remain within
Our love never had a chance to truly begin

You belong to her, and could never be mine
The feelings I feel inside only love defines

Yearning to feel you next to me
Loving so pure and free

Wanting all of your love to myself
Denying our passion is cheating ourselves

You could never be mine to claim
There is no future for us to proclaim

So now our romance will remain one of those untold stories
As I continue reminiscing on our stolen memories

Ms. JStar

Storm

Winds gusting ferociously
Debris flying in circles
Rain pounding the pavement
Resembling rivers flowing downhill
Clouds suddenly darken
Lighting striking
Illuminating the sky
The fury is terrifying
Then as quickly as it came
It was gone
The sky brightens
To the most beautiful shade of blue
Robust white clouds
Allowing rays of sunlight through
Calmness arises
As if the fury never took place
Just as life
Throws us storms
The calmness prevails
And washes away yesterday
For today is a new day
We made it through yesterdays storms

Ms. JStar

Strength

My world is flipping upside down
But I see the pieces of the puzzle falling into place
Listening to the sounds
Of your voice and recognizing your face
Leading me through the fires
Protecting me from harm
No longer living through desires
Not falling for the devils charm
Finding strength within
That I never felt before
You are the only one I can depend
To open closed doors
I never thought possible
Each day no matter the circumstance, I praise your name
And you show miracles that were once impossible
Now, my life will never be the same

Ms. JStar

Stressed

Tossing and turning in my bed
So much going on in my head

I can't sleep without stressing
Constantly assessing

Sometimes I just want to forget
But there is too much to regret

Since I can't turn back the clocks
I mind well unlock the locks

Set my mind free
Agree to disagree

But sometimes that is easier said than done
Some things just cannot be undone

What can set my heart at ease
I want my fears permanently seized

Ms. JStar

Stuck

The pain we have caused has consumed me
Runs inside so deep within me, I can't seem to breathe

Feels as if my heart is shattered
Feelings up and down, uncertainly scattered

Emotions unpredictable, taking each of its turns Stability soothing my soul, my heart sorely yearns

Can't see beyond you and me, why do I have to Love is not always a guarantee, now there's nothing further to pursue

Trying to find the strength to put out previously set fires
Not knowing how to move on when it's you my heart desires

Ms. JStar

Sugar Coated

Thoughts continuously flowing
In my head
Pouring out of my soul
Like sweet sugar coating my words
Sprinkling your heart
With purple rain drops
Comforting your spirit
Calming your doubts
Dismantling your fears
Your mind drifting
Into my world
Heeding my lessons
Feeling my passion
The heat rising from my veins
The steadiness of my heart beat
Compassion for my pains
My journey to inner happiness
Presenting my life through my words
Sugar coated

Ms. JStar

Surreal

It's a known fact that women love stronger than men
We stay in search of true love
Wanting that one man to love us to no end
Giving us everything our heart is in search of
We don't take in account real life
No man or woman is perfect
We are too caught up about in his wife
That our feelings misdirect
We have to learn to love the man for who he truly is
And not what we want him to be
Why do we have to investigate in belongings of his Why do we look for a guarantee
We need to be spending time making sure personalities fit
Seeing if everything about him we can love
The signs are there from the beginning but our blinders omit
Does the good in him stand above
Enjoy time spent and stop looking for secrets to reveal
Stop searching for a love that's perfect and surreal

Ms. JStar

Taste

My taste is what I chose;

The sour, I was already prepared for
The sweet, my mouth watered for
The bitter, may not be what I planned for Life brings the sour, have your sword battle ready

Sweetness isn't always steady
The bitter came unexpectedly, but you have been through worse already

Now your tastes have been defined
Chose to savor the tastes being refined
And learn the lessons being presented
Grow and learn what can be prevented
Outcomes are not always similar
Know your taste buds so that they are familiar

Ms. JStar

Tasteless

My mouth is dry but I cannot quench my thirst
In a pool of thoughtlessness I am immersed

The world is going on around me
My inner screams are dying to be free

But I choose to remain allusive
Leaving my love and feelings for my own exclusive

Insecurities and heart entwined
Raging their own wars

Not allowing the other to win
And the other not willing to ever give in

Lost hopes and dreams
Are causing two extremes

Emotions remain unfazed
Inside my eternal love is about to set a blaze

But the one that deserves it has not revealed his face
So until he shows himself, I have removed my taste

Ms. JStar

Tears

Tear drops slowly falling down my cheeks
Heart breaks with every word he speaks

Knowing it's all lies
I see the truth in his eyes

Repeatedly trying to convince me
Like I am some fool and can't see

I can't believe you would speak to me with so much disrespect
The truth you choose to neglect

Ms. JStar

Terrified

I thought I was dreaming when you spoke those words
Although our future goals are in accords

I am truly terrified to give my heart
This time I want to take my time and be smart

I want a true love that will stand the test of time
A love that's real and sublime

I want to rest my fears upon your shoulders
With the key to my heart as you are the beholder

Hopefully a love like no other can grow
If I don't give it a chance, how will I ever know

I have been waiting my lifetime for those words to be spoken
I just don't want my heart to again be broken

I want to take things nice and slow
To allow your sincerity to clearly show

I hope that you are one I can truly confide
Just love me truthfully and help me get over being completely terrified

Ms. JStar

Thank You

Thank you for being there for me when I most needed
Thank you for not running when things got heated

Thank you for listening to me even when I am making no sense
Thank you for standing beside me in my defense

Thank you for holding me when I needed to be held
Thank you for having faith even when I rebelled

Thank you for taking care of me when I didn't think I needed to be taken care of Thank you for giving me your love

Thank you baby! ! !

Ms. JStar

Thank You-Prayer

Dear God,

Thank you Lord for continuously blessing our lives
Thank you for opening our eyes
To your promises and guarantees
Thank you for putting our troubles and worries at ease
Please give us strength to bear adversities
Fill us with the Word that accompanies
Your love and grace
Our hunger for your knowledge embraced
Thirst for your spirit overcomes
Guiding us to being the best we can become Teaching us your Word as it empowers
Your glory and love continuously showers
Cleansing away our sins
Continue to walk with us as our journey begins
Help us overcome the devils constant attack
Fill us with the confidence we currently lack Thank you again Lord for always having our back
Thank you for keeping our lives on track
Even when we thought we didn't have the strength to continue
Thank you for your love that always renews
Thank you Lord, Thank you

In Jesus name, Amen

Ms. JStar

The Beauty Of The Sky

Sitting there watching the sky
Watching the clouds pass me by
The sky is a deep blue
You can get lost in the clouds for a few
Day dreaming that you are floating on the clouds
Just you, with no one else around
Watching the clouds take a defined form
Observing the sky getting dark for a storm
Fierce lighting blazing
Lying there gazing
In amazement of the sky's different faces
Dreaming about different places
Watching the sky turn orange and red
As the sun sets while lying there in my bed
In the early morning
Noticing the clouds forming
The purple and blue sky is grabbing my attention
It is too beautiful not to mention
It is breath taking
There is no mistaking
The many different feelings
You can observe the earth's dealings
Just as our moods can change
The sky is a face that reflects the earth's strains
Tornados and hurricanes
You respect its reins
Raindrops falling
Cleansing the earth for its calling
Beautiful white snow
In the evening hours you can see its glow
Appreciating the sky's beauty
As it goes on accomplishing its duty
Lighting striking while it illuminates
The clouds depth and rejuvenates
Lying there observing
The beauty of the sky that is well deserving

Ms. JStar

Thief

He stole my heart like a thief in the night
I was open and couldn't put up a fight

Trust overcame
Love has been proclaimed

Happiness is guaranteed
Monogamy agreed

Communication prevents misunderstandings
Although disagreements sting

They can be worked through
Into love we can again subdue

Making up is the best
Our hearts impressed

Ms. JStar

Thief-Friday's 55

He stole my heart like a thief in the night
I was open and couldn't put up a fight

Trust overcame
Love has been proclaimed

Happiness is guaranteed
Monogamy agreed

Communication prevents misunderstandings
Although disagreements sting

They can be worked through
Into love we can again subdue

Making up is the best
Our hearts impressed

Ms. JStar

This Time...

Right now my soldier is on a ship
Wishing you were close enough so I could get a grip

Deep into your soul
Years ago my heart you stole

Working together everyday
But our spouses we didn't want to betray

Your eyes gripping my soul with that smile
My heart pounding all the while

Lusting to wake each day next to you
The roughest times in my life you helped me through

Years have passed but our love and friendship have remained
The deep feelings we have for each other cannot be explained

We now have the chance to explore
True love to its core

Time gave us this chance
And is now allowing us to advance

To depths we only dreamed of
To find out if this is really love

Now that I can claim you as mine
Our hearts can now intertwine

I cannot wait until I feel your arms surrounding me
Turning this love up to the next degree

Now we have a chance to define
These feelings that have grown only stronger over time

Ms. JStar

Thoughts

Thoughts of you bring a smile to my face
And warmth to my heart
You are always on my mind

Thoughts of you bring chills to my body
And tingles within
You are always on my mind

Thoughts of you bring butterflies to my stomach
And dizziness to my feet
You are always on my mind

Thoughts of you bring solitude to my mind
And focus to my destiny
You are always on my mind

Thoughts of you provoke feelings never before felt
And at times irrational thoughts
You are always on my mind

Ms. JStar

Today

Here one day, gone the next
It's the time in between to reflect
Making each day joyous and fulfilling
Be open and willing
To take on each obstacle that comes our way
Not being lead astray
Cherish love in totality
Make happiness a reality
Stop wasting moments in sorrow
Look forward to tomorrow
For it is never promised
Let the beauty of today not be dismissed

Ms. JStar

Tonight

You've waited patiently
For me to love you
The way you love me
At first I was scared
To open my heart and be hurt
But the gentle kisses on my neck
Relaxed my spirit
And allowed me to feel
To embrace the feeling of love
Being loved in return
Is the greatest feeling in the world
Its all I have ever wanted
I feel comfortable with you
Everything feels so right
All I ask is for you
To love me for me
And always be true
My love will fulfill
You're every need and desire
For the rest of our lives
I gave you my heart
And all that it entails
Treat it with care
My words were true
When I said that I love you
Because I gave you my heart tonight

Ms. JStar

Torn

I am feeling torn
I feel that I can't go on

I cannot live this
These feelings I cannot dismiss

But I don't know how to do it on my own
I have depended on you too long

I am very unhappy so I must Be the only one I can trust

I have finally realized that life doesn't have to be like this
I have a need to venture and discover happiness that I have missed

We have grown apart, as the years have passed us by
It is unfortunate that we let our love die

I guess I had grown accustomed to this way of life
I had to stop convincing myself that we can live happily as man and wife

It is hurting my children more seeing me miserable
I need to stop waiting on a miracle

I need to step up and take charge
My life is in desperate need of a recharge

I don't know where to start
But I must follow my heart

I must find happiness within myself
And stop depending on someone else

To show me love that I should hold
No one can take away my precious gold

I just needed to locate it
And to myself commit

Before I can expect someone else to love me
I need to love and respect myself to the highest degree

Ms. JStar

Torture

It is torture loving someone that I cannot have as mine
Wanting to be in your arms all the time

Wanting more than you are ready to give Each moment with you I constantly relive

The depths of your love has pierced my soul
Sharing a bond for life together; mind, body & soul

Letting you go to see if you'll find your way back to me
Now, is our only destiny

Ms. JStar

Trance

At work unable focus on the phone, I'm in my own little zone
Whatever they are talking about is unknown

My mind is in a trance
Focused on last night's romance

I am still feeling your love immersing my pores
My soul kissing yours

The sensual touch of your ecstasy
Bringing reality to our fantasies

Your kisses floating my senses
Naturally your love leaves me defenseless

My hearts pain you completely console
Your love seeping the depths of my heart and soul

My senses redefined and enhanced
Your love locks me in a total trance

Ms. JStar

True Importance

We are allowing life to take over
Defining what's urgent
Instead of prioritizing
For what's really important
Life's petty obligations
Really don't matter
Why stress over the unimportant
Take time to enjoy this life
Live out your purpose here
Take the gifts that God has given
And use them for their true purpose
Bless others just as He has blessed you
Even when we don't understand
Obey and have faith in His plan
Even if we don't like it
We are exactly where we are supposed to be Enjoy this moment in time
Savor the beauty and blessings in front of us
Learn the lessons provided
Allow your home to be your sanctuary
Block out the troubles of the world
Make time for what's truly important
Take time to reflect
Listen and hear His instructions
Don't allow life to cloud your hearing
Envision the path that has been provided

Ms. JStar

True Love

Your love makes me feel like soft rose petals falling down my face
Into my heart, blossoming into full bloom, our love is something that cannot be erased
You make my body feel warm inside on a cold winter day
Our love is definitely here to stay
Every day, all day long I am thinking of you
I can't concentrate on anything else, and forget the things that I have to do
Your love consumes me
Your love sets my heart free
To explore every possibility to any depth
Our love is so strong nothing could ever intercept
You satisfy my every need
Anything I could ever dream you gratify me indeed
You are everything I will ever need for sure
Anything you throw my way I am ready to endure
With open arms, I accept it graciously
I will always be there for you waiting by your side patiently
I will go to any length to make sure you are satisfied
Any request I will gladly comply
Our love is as relaxing as a rainy day indoors
Making love all day long, tantalizing every core
Our love is not to be tainted with
Our love will live on like an old myth
From here on out we are considered as one
Everything we do we accomplish as one
Your love is something I could never live without
In my heart there is no doubt
Our love is forever
And forever we will be together

Ms. JStar

Trust

I have learned a lot in my lifetime
And ready to learn more as I continue to climb

I have literally been through hell and back
Constantly fighting away the devils attack

Each day as I pray for relief
I am learning to have confidence in my belief

That He will carry me when I cannot walk
Knowing that He will be my voice when I am unable to talk

Discovering the path that He is leading me toward Opening doors that were once ignored

Exploring my own inner happiness
He completely fulfills leaving no room for emptiness

Giving God my everlasting trust
Allowing Him to correct the unjust

Ms. JStar

Us

Do we give "us" another chance
Does our foundation have enough substance

Can we get past the things we've been through
Is there anything left to pursue

I know the feelings in my heart are real
Not sure if our hearts can heal

From the drama we've shared
You've proven how much you truly care

Emotions run deep
Without you next to me I cannot sleep

You consume my thoughts and dreams
Is anything as it seems

When you are not around I constantly miss you
And think of things I want to do for you

If only we can let go and give in
To what we cannot control and no longer pretend

That our love isn't real
What we feel is too powerful to conceal

Ms. JStar

Valentine

Valentine's is a day to show the ones you love how much you care
A time that all the love inside should be shared

This should also be continued each and every day after
I hope your days are filled with love and laughter

Just wanted to let you know on this day, you are on my mind
With you I desire quality time

I want to learn everything about you
Reflecting on ways to please you, tease you, and love you

Hoping that you never drift afar
I hope your Valentines Day is as special as you are Happy Valentine's Day Baby! ! !

Ms. JStar

Violated

A woman violated
Feels very isolated

Alone and scared
Thinks no one cares
Too afraid to share

Alienated
Dirty and tainted

Very Embarrassed
Constantly asking why was I the one harassed

How could a man do that to a woman
Not a true man

Just so he could feel powerful
In control because she is doubtful

Guess he has something to prove
She is now too scared to move

Guess you are a big man now
To her every second seems like an hour

Belittling a woman who is smaller than yourself
She is wondering why no one has come to help

Your cheap thrills
Send her chills

She will never ever be the same
Now self respect and self-esteem is hard to claim

She can never forget or get past
Her entire life terror and fear will last

Haunting
And taunting

Breaking down in tears
Constant fears

No cure for the depression
Maintains absolute discretion

All from one man's actions
His satisfactions

But what about her temple
It has been violated just that simple

And now nothing can take it back
She will always remember and relive the attack

There is nothing she can do
To ever construe

A woman violated can never get back what has been taken
And will always feel forsaken

Ms. JStar

Waiting

I am desperately waiting for you to love me like I love you
Waiting for you to choose me
Waiting to be the one you come home to every night
Waiting to awaken in your arms daily
Waiting for you to make that ultimate commitment to Waiting for you to see how much I really do love you Waiting for you to see I got your back no matter what Waiting for you to see I could never hurt you
Waiting for you to see how happy you could be

Baby, I am waiting on you...

Ms. JStar

Wanting You

Light's shimmering down on you
Admiring the energy flowing through you

From afar I see you spitting those rhymes
Wanting to be inspiration for those lines

Wantin to be in mind when you wrote that hook
I wanted you to be mine from the first look

Reminin 'bout last night
Wonderin what we are in for tonight

Giving meaning to spoken words
Embracing this love surge

Clinging and not wanting to let go
Within my love flows

Smokin this herb, chillin to the words of Floetry
Inside your love forms emotion into poetry

Not quite sure where things are heading
Naturally we create the perfect setting

Lovin and wantin you for you
And everything you aspire to do

Ms. JStar

Wasted

Your sorrows are forgotten but still remain
Currently not driving you insane

Deep within they are bleeding
Giving power while misleading

Intoxicating your inner thoughts
Leaving you completely distraught

Even more confused
Ego continues to bruise

Drink after drink
Mind and heart no longer in sync

Puffing and passing
Memories still harassing

Too blasted to even care anymore
Feelings totally being ignored

Now able to sleep without nightmares
Victory declares

One more day concluded
Horrors eluded

But still slowly eating at your flesh
New problems continue to manifest

Nothing to look forward to
To the bottom of the bottle you subdue

Awake and start the routine again
Now your sanity totally depends

On these chemicals you're using to set free
Still trashed with debris

Sobriety never again tasted
Lifeless life remains wasted

Ms. JStar

What Lies Within

Crying deep inside
Trying my best to cover and hide
What I am truly feeling
The smile on my face is never revealing
Always make sure everyone else is happy
All the while I am the one feeling crappy
Inside I am screaming
Constantly grieving
Didn't want to burden anyone with my troubles
Everything affects me in doubles
Emotions increasing
Confidence decreasing
Feeling as if I am about to explode
My home is not a humble abode
I am miserable
Happiness seems expendable
There is no safe way out
I have always done without
I need to redefine myself
Do it for me and no one else
Find the courage that lies deep within
I know it is there and I can always depend
On me, whatever it takes
I know I can locate my inner strength
The first step is recognizing the problems
Then trying to figure out how to solve them
It is going to take a lot of planning
It is definitely going to be demanding
I know I can survive
I am sure there is a way to revive my life
Despite what lies ahead
It has to be better than feeling dead inside
There is no one I can confide
What will it take to compensate
So now I contemplate
Searching for relief
Something to set my heart at ease
Free me from my tribulations
I know I can do it as long as I have true dedication

Ms. JStar

What's Love

Really, truthfully
Two hearts connected as one,
Loving each other endlessly
Accepting each other's faults
Showing the other unconditional true love
Without expecting anything in return
Supporting one another in everything
No matter the consequence
Agreeing to disagree, communication strengthens

But we are afraid of getting hurt
Lied to, betrayed, or cheated on Mentally or physically
We are scared to completely let go and wholeheartedly love

My problem is that I don't know how to love if it's not completely
Giving my all
I don't know how to love partially
What's the point
If it's not REALLY LOVE...

Ms. JStar

Whisper

Soft whispers in my ear
Ignoring the sounds that I hear

Heading in the direction I feel
Forgetting nightly to kneel

Stressing because nothing is going as planned
And I don't quite understand

Not happy with the person I became
But I still don't hear Him calling my name

Daily He makes His presence known
The inevitable postponed

Until we have no choice but to turn to Him
Bringing light to what was once dim

Overwhelming feelings
Of an inner healing

Letting go of personal expectations
No longer worrying about complications

My path is now clear
Allowing His word to adhere

In His joy I rejoice
Recognizing His voice

Ms. JStar

Why

Why do I love you so much
Why do I crave your touch

I know you love me, but not the way you love her
It's the love I feel from you, that continues to lure

Me back in
Time & time again

I know that I can love you better than anyone can
I was scared in the past and ran

But we always come back to each other

Ms. JStar

Why I Write

I write to release withheld emotions
In attempts to make sense of the inner commotion

While sharing my life's experiences
I am hoping to make a difference

Trying to shed light
In battling that intimate fight

Showing my current resolution
With possibilities of an exclusive evolution

Sharing my joy and pain
Although the feelings still remain

It is now easier to withstand
With clear thoughts I am now able to understand

And move past anything that comes my way
First of all thanking God for my gift to convey

Ms. JStar

Wish You Were Mine

I wish you were all mine to claim
What is it that you share with her that you don't with me
I have given you my soul and everything that goes along with it
But still it doesn't seem to be enough
When we are together it feels like our personal section of Heaven
Reserved especially for us
Nothing could be more perfect
Still you don't know the depths I would go for you, for us
Where there are no limits or restrictions
In your presence I feel as if we are the only two people on this earth
No one else exists or is even relevant
Almost like we are untouchable
But then reality sets in
And you are going home to her
You give me your heart just enough to lose myself in you
Then you snatch it back to share with her
My heart aches to be the only love in your heart
I realize we had issues before you and her reconnected
But we still share our love within us
Unable to completely let go
I don't know how to move on when my heart is consumed with you
But loving you and not able to claim you as mine hurts even more
I just wish your love for me was just as strong and my love for you

Ms. JStar

You

Before you can expect someone to love you
You have to love yourself and accept you for YOU
First and foremost you need to love where you came from
The road has not always been easy or fun
But these lessons you learn along the way
Make you a better person for the next day
Don't ever be ashamed of who you are You've made it this far
Not to let anyone dictate what you feel inside
What is in your heart is not a lie
Don't let others make you feel less a woman
You don't have to answer to no man
Stand up and be proud
Let your words be felt aloud
Make sure that you take care of self
First before you can care for anyone else

Ms. JStar

You Are My Everything

You are my everything
You make heart sing
This love we have will last
There is nothing that we cannot mask
My love is so strong
I could never do you wrong
My heart you hold
In your hands, nothing will go untold
Every second that we are apart
It breaks my heart
I hate to be away from you
Our love is so true
I long for your gentle touch
Baby I miss you so much
From the moment I looked into your eyes
I cut all ties
And devoted my life to you
There is nothing I wouldn't do
I am yours and you are mine
Our love will stand the test of time

You Are The One

You are the man that I dreamed about as a little girl
The man I fantasized about in my mind
You are the man I have been searching my whole life for The man I thought I'd never find
You caught me off guard
I had stopped searching
After searching long and hard
To find someone nurturing
I thought you didn't really exist
I thought you were just a figment of my imagination
When our eyes met I couldn't resist
I knew it just wasn't infatuation
I knew that very moment you were the "one"
The one I would share with the rest of my life
You left me stunned
Especially when you asked me to be your wife
I know that this is real
I know that this is true love
Anything that comes our way
I know we can deal
Your sincerity makes you stand above
Your loyalty is profound
Your love is unconditional
Your warmth surrounds
Your love is has not restrictional
You are that special someone that I have been waiting for
We have finally found each other
You are the one that I adore
I don't ever want to recover
You go that extra step to give me so much more
You love and accept me for me
You never criticize
You listen to what I have to say, communication is the key
You have me mesmerized
If I am wrong, I never want to be right
I want to keep this feeling alive
I know that everyone will have that occasional fight
Making you the happiest is what I strive
Thank You

For loving me
And always being true
Thank you baby
I will always give you respect that is due
I will always love you and be true

You Are Truly A Wonderful Man

You are wonderful in every way
You truly know how to make my day
You are an amazing man
Beside you is where I will always stand
You give me everything
Anything I need you bring
Without expecting anything in return
My every desire you have learned
Without even asking, just a mere thought
And you have already brought
The resolution
You are my only solution
You have no limits or boundaries
You are just so astounding
Every day I thank God for giving you to me
Giving me the opportunity to love you unconditionally
Into our future filled with love is where we merge
It is hard to put it exactly into words
Just how unbelievable you really are
You are my star
I still can't believe you actually exist
Everything about you I just can't resist
Everything I will ever need, with you I have found
Where ever I am I want you always around
When it comes to you I will always find the time
To cherish, honor, and thank God you are all mine
You have always shown me a love that is so true
I am honored to show the same amount of love back to you

You Complete Me

With you my thirst is quenched
My heart is replenished

My soul is refreshed
I am finally free of stress
I feel so blessed

You fulfill me
Mentally, spiritually and physically

You are the water in my fountain
You are my will to climb that rough mountain

My search has ended
Your greatness will always be commended

With you at my side
It is only tremendous satisfaction that fills my eyes

I feel we can accomplish anything
My weakness is now mending

You brought life to my lonely ambiance
A stronger foundation within our alliance

You have brought pleasure to my pain
Only felicity and strength remain

You fill my emptiness
You guaranteed my happiness

Daily you prove your loyalty
With you I feel like royalty

Nothing else could ever compare
I know for sure you will always be there

I cannot imagine life without you
This love we share is ever so true

With you at my side I feel whole
My every need you console

You are wonderful indeed
You definitely complete me

You'Re Breathtaking

Your looks...

You are lookin soo damn fine
Too many thoughts runnin through my mind
You are the sexiest man I have ever seen
You are the man of my dreams

Your smell...

You smell good enough to eat
Into your dimensions I cant wait to retreat
Your shirt I love to sleep wrapped in Your unique scent I smell within

Your touch...

Your touch feels like heaven
Keeps me beggin
For more, touch me here; touch me there
Your love never lets me prepare

Your taste...

You taste like the sweetest honeydew
I just can never get enough of you
Body fluids being transferred
In our utopia we are transformed

Your sounds...

Your moans and sighs are refreshing
Your satisfaction is replenishing
Making me want to please you more
Our fantasies we explore

Your soul...

Your soul speaks to me
In so many ways, sometimes I just cant believe
Your soul is connected to mine
Makes me want to press rewind
This love is defined
Our love is forever intertwined

You'Re Loss

You had it made and you just didn't realize
I would have taken care of anything you could idealize

I had your back no matter what went down
I was your queen and you wore my king's crown

If you said jump I would ask "how high"
There was nothing for you I would deny

I was your shoulder to lean on
Made you feel special from dusk to dawn

There were no limits to my love for you
My love was always pure and all so true

In the beginning our love was like a fairytale
Anything that came our way we could prevail

To my shock, out the blue things just turned to hell
Not sure what really happened, but with my love you started to rebel

I never did anything, but you were never able to completely trust me
With your reasons I could never agree

I understand people have done you wrong
But to you my mind, body and soul I belonged

I was your wife, your soul mate
But our vows you chose to desecrate

The things you done in return could never be forgiven
You left me no choice to go the route that you were given

We thought our love was forever
Now there is no turning back ever

The true me, to you I could never get across
I tried everything possible to make it work now our love we have crossed
There was nothing more I could do to convince you, baby it's just you're loss

Ms. JStar

You'Re Not Ready

You're not ready for the depths of my love
And all it consists thereof

You're not ready to let go
And truly discover love at its plateau

You're still not ready to leave those others alone
When you've been offered the crown to my king's throne

With every desire and fantasy fulfilled
And long years of bliss as our foundation continued to build

You're not ready for a lifetime of pure and true happiness
Ending all disappointments and any emptiness

The memories we have made I will continue to relive Because you're still not ready for the love I have inside to give

Ms. JStar

You'Re Secret

Can't continue keeping our love a secret
Tired of having to be discreet

I deserve to be number one in your life
Felt as if I were when you asked me to be your wife

But you just can't seem to let her go
The lengths I am willing to go, time will only show

I have proven my love to you time and time again
But loving in secret is where we remain

I know the depths of your love for me
But you are scared to let go and love without a guarantee

So we remain in this comfort zone
When you're with her, I am tired of being home alone

I need more than you are currently giving
Tired of pretending, I am truly not understanding and forgiving

If our love is meant to be it will be
Now we need to set our love free

And see if it returns
We need time to see if our hearts yearn

If our love is worth fighting for Because I do not want to be you're secret anymore

Ms. JStar

You'Re Wife

You are the world to me
I am as happy as I can be
You are everything I could ever dream for You give me everything I need and more
Your love keeps me going
Your loyalty keeps my heart continuously flowing
With your warm love, we belong to each other Everything we do we accomplish together
Our love will overcome
Any obstacle and problem that shall come
Along, baby we can do this
No matter how high the risk
Our love is extremely strong
It will be here for the long Run, we can accomplish anything we set our mind to Our love is so deep, years to come it will still seem like new
I promise I will be by your side forever
I could never hurt, deceive or break your trust ever
I dedicate my life to you as you're wife
I know this is for life
