Nicholas Maddison(27/06/1963)

I'm just a man who likes to write, I find words from my life, my actions.

Alone

I'm living my life to be
Yours is a life to live
And to find the love you need
Yours is a hard path to lead
Alone, cold, loveless path, should not be lead

Alone you should not be
Yours the family that need
And it's a life for love not loneliness
Yours should be filled with love
I'm sure that your life will be good

I'm hoping that love will blossom again
And yours will live for the rest of your life
Living, breathing and loving till the end
For when it's yours, you have control
And it's no life Alone X

Cancer

Cancer is a word to fear
It lingers in our thoughts
It brings fear to the ones we love
It's the C word that scares us most

To those that live with it
We know not what to say
We watch and hope, for them we pray
Hoping for them that cured they will be

But this time it has traveled too far
And hopes fade each time we see
But still we cling for one last hope
That the pain when it comes will be quick to cease

We have seen it take your loved ones before
No mercy for us, it eats our friends away
They try to smile, to hide their pain
To save our grief we believe them

Facebook

Whats this all about
A screen full of friends,
Some are old
Some are new

Some from work
Some from home
Some from afar
Some so close

Some are men
Some are women
Some are happy
Some are sad

Some are married
Some are singles
Some like the opposites
Some like the same

Some want more
Some want less
Some want more love
Some want less

They all have the same thing in common
They are all special to me

Nicholas Maddison

Fight

Why do we fight?
For what reason do we do
We love each other so
That parting pains us more
But we still fight

Scoring points that hurts them so
Then when we are all spent the rage has done its worst
We look back at why we did
And wonder at what we won

Nicholas Maddison

Flirtomatic

What's this all about?

Men and women for us to view

Some bold as brass

Some timid as a shrew

Some like the other

Some like the same

Some like both

So don't be ashamed

Many are married, looking for a bit more

Even more are singles, just yearning for love

Some just want to chat

And some just want to score

It's easy to use

And easy to be you

But be careful what you say

And what details you give away

Some will find love

Some will find hate

Some will find new friends

And some will lose their mate

Nicholas Maddison

Heart

Your heart is such a precious thing
And easy to be broken
When young, you trust it to others
Expecting them to trust, theirs to you

But as life moves through time
And it's dropped and dropped again
You give it less and less
Till its preciousness is gone

Nicholas Maddison

Hurt

You hurt me so
And you don't really know
How it feels.

I wish you could
Then maybe you
Would try to not let go

Trust is a hard thing
It works both ways

I love you so
And don't want to let go
But im finding it hard
Even so!

Nicholas Maddison

Kings

The Kings rule over us
We call them different names
They rule our lives so we should follow
And so, do there bidding for them

They expect us to pay them
And follow the rules they make
They expect us to give up lives
And do their fighting for them

Some are called Kings
Some are called Presidents
Some are called Prime Ministers
But all are called by us

Nicholas Maddison

Life

You live your life
Walking through with hopes
And with fears
Your dreams appear
Then move on

You wish your dreams, your hopes
But life makes its own way
Your hopes, your dreams disappear
And all that's left is life
Till the day when there is none

Nicholas Maddison

Love

Love comes to you
Through a tornado of desire
It lifts you high

Like a fast rising cloud
Then when you feel
That all is safe and well

The tornado that was love
Vanishes, dropping you
To hell

Nicholas Maddison

Love Or Hate

We live our lives to love
It's in our nature, and it's what we do
But sometimes our love turns
Then all we see is hate

Love gives us hope
Hate gives us pain
Like long knives trailing across our flesh
The more we hate, the more we loose

Then love will take longer to win
So my friends, remember this Love grows slowly and strong
Hate grows fast if you let it win

Nicholas Maddison

Maggie

She has gone
Quietly whisked away
She may have left
And is no more
But her deeds
And sins linger

We won the war
We lost the pits
Both came with a price
That still scars the country
Poll tax to riots
Post office to Buzby
And water to the highest bidder

Well Maggie's gone
She did us good
And she did us harm
She stood her ground
When others would fail
So rejoin Dennis
He's waiting for you.

Nicholas Maddison

Marry

If I was a King
I would rule the world
If I was a Queen
I would marry a King

If I was a poor man
I would live to be happy
If I was a poor woman
I would marry a rich King

Nicholas Maddison

Me

I see you looking at me
And I wonder what you think
Do you want to have me for the rest of your life
Or do you wonder when the next time I will fall

I am me and I can't change that, you see
I love you so dear and you love me
But times we struggle to see
That it's you and me

Nicholas Maddison

My Love

To my love, the one I want
The one I love so much
She brings to me my hopes
Of love, of life, of happiness

So why do I hurt her so
When all I wish is love
Then sit there and take the blame
For the fact I love her so much

Nicholas Maddison

October

October nears its end
The cold, the wind, the rain
They all come to claim
The summers colourful beauty.

But as the colour is stripped
Its death bringing promise of life to come
As the leaves become the earth
So will the earth become the leaves

Nicholas Maddison

She

She is my life, my hopes, my dreams
The one I love, the one I need to be Love she has for me, and I, love for her
We kiss, we cuddle, we give love to each other

Our bodies to share, our love to blossom forever
We know the touches that bring us joy
And the words of love, that will keep us together
And our bodies, we use for love, for they need pleasure

Nicholas Maddison

Want

I want you
You don't want me
I love you so
But you hate me

We loved each other once
In another time another place
Now all you want is anyone
As long as it's not me

I love you so much
That any life with you
Would be a life for me
Then no life, alone

Now you have found him
Time is not on my side
Your heading south
To find the life you want.

Nicholas Maddison

Who Knows!

The hate is there I know
The hurt is there I know
The love is there I know
But which is the strongest

I don't know!

Only time will tell I know
Only trust will tell I know
Only strong love will last

Who knows!

Nicholas Maddison

Would

Would you love me?

Could you love me?

Should you love me?

I should love you

I could love you

I would love you

With all my Heart

Nicholas Maddison

You

Life is what you make it
Or if you let them, what other people want
You can trust them, believe them
And hope they get it right

Or you can trust your feelings
And do what you feel is right
For when you're at life's end
There's only one person to blame

THAT'S YOU
