Come In My Love

My heart is like God's paradise Come in, come dwell

Here is love without hatred Here is peace without sorrow

Come live in your destined destination.

I Want To Be

I want to be what you don't want to hear, i want to attain, what you don't desire to see: bigger than you in thousands fold, fulfilling the unlimited, celebrated by the world including you, and be loyal more than ever-before. i want to be, the real me created by GOD

I Was Sent

I was approached with smile Dressed for a purpose
I was endowed with potentials Prepared for a mission I was enlightened and given insight
All to fulfill great vision
I was sent by my maker With Heavenly backing

With friends and fiends
I live without losing focus With courage and hope I moved without frustration With my body and everything within I will try not to disappoint my maker

In time and with time
I realized the world is full of men Black and white I see But all I could do, give and share
Is the gift of love
In time I believe
The purpose of my creation Will surely be fulfilled

The world will be shocked
When the fruit of my potential Breeze positively

If This Is The Way?

If this is the way
And i go this path
Will i see no fear
Will i sensed no war

If this is the way
My mind as a base
My heart as an agent
Both will you be bold
In present of multitude

If this is the way
If this is my path
Let me walk and not be weary.

Life Ho Life

To few Life is a battle field
To some Life is a place to Learn To others Life is a place of tribulation While to some is a place to enjoy.
To you Friend What is Life?

Lonely But Strong In Love

Next seems to far
To see a loving heart
The more i think of been close
The more i felt the distance.

Let me hear you sing
Please, come kill my boreness
Let me see you smile
And feel the warmness of your presence

I'm lonely but happily strong I'm strong and full of joy I've got want many don't have

Love Song

'We' you and i drink not from same water,
But in ablutions
We prepared in spring
For a beautiful day

Have you ever had a dream Tell me, if yes
In wispering- hold my head
I know soon, they wil get jealous

Ibasepe- is not in our dictionary Ti nba ti mo, we speak not,

Let the love flows Osun- so ngbo.

Love Speaks

Dont miss the lyrics while listening to the melody the melody are all yours Dont ask me my name but identify me by my nature dont ask your friend if i'm around your neighbor cant tell you my best The whole world knows m name but few are able to identify me many enjoy my melody but little know the lyrics and all agree that i'm sweet I then look at them as ignorants some people said because of me they are cheated another said they capture them because of me I then asked people why I've said it times without numbers my name is not enough you need to know me in person thats when you can fell and know my nature My melody is not enough you need to know the lyrics for you to know the message i'm trying to pass and not be carried away

I dont desire to loss anyone so why die because of me i'm to put smile on every face why then do you cry because of me Some say i'm scared and some doubt it if i truly exist when i'm always around for people, but there is no reasonable communication between us which give ways for strange occurrence Try to know me expecialy who i am and search little for my name

Nigerians Are Full Of Dream

Nigeria, A pillar but not a stronghold;
Our leaders, A watchers not shepherd;
And our people are gifted, but they don't have a platform.

Without a platform to display
What you have (your gifts)
How then can it be fruitful, How can it multiply and bring forth many That is the main reason we are left behind,

Even as a nation.
We are gifted, but we have No place to show-case our talents, Neither do we have a show-room:
We are born-to-reborn.

But we are for long pregnant,
But no labour room, neither a bed Where we could give birth.
Some unfortunately fell on ground
And have been mixed up with sand,
It became polluted.
What do you expect from a seed That fell on a bad ground?

What do you expect of a nation That fell on he wrong hands?
And what do you expect of a nation Dying and has what can preserve her,
Will she give it to who so ever calls For it and squander her substances.
People don't think about those things.
Our Government have a fixation For Nigeria, but they have fixed Nigerians.
This is a time to think and not to sink.

Once, I Was Lost

Without a specify destination i dwell around perambulating I know not I've went so far And no one say i was wrong
Even if they did All i knew was once i was right Love i bet you wouldn't keep 'Cos in death you wouldn't be celebrated

Right In It' Time

when the day appears to be dark and all you needed is light don't be beating by the present because life still goes on You may think you are neglected the reason for this may be that you have what it takes So never give up because right in its time your desired expectations shall surely come to pass

Weeping Tears

Hear a word Binding the broken Through my mouth
Source from my inside Broken bones were make one

Word from me make the weak vein stronge An adhesive that unite to perfect Multitude were happy and i smile Seeing yielding the seed of my wish

Weeping tears from an eye
See my flesh going off unity
He pondered lucifying thr plane Matching like the ground yield no fruit

Weeping tears from an eye
My flesh, my word, the adhesive Call the interpreter of the unsaid
To know the purity of the undelievered

World Today

The day was not like before the night seems to be darker and the whole world are facing the consequences and to cop is not that easy because the task is not an easy one Pray 4 d world plead 4 your nation and show love to your brethren Am already on my knee

You Are One Creature

Lets talk about the sun the shining the light gives and the beauty of the day

Lets talk about the moon the pleasant look uncountable stars and the beauty

Lets talk about you your manner of understanding your Illuminating spirit your wise words and your gift of beauty
