

Poetry Series

OLUWASEYI NIFEMI
- poems -

Publication Date:
2012

Publisher:
Poemhunter.com - The World's Poetry Archive

OLUWASEYI NIFEMI()

My Drama

I linked myself on a war

And dreamed a little space

For whom i laid my hanger up

The sun was on my side

My lazy body felt relax

Played with pebbles tips

The waves came up, the waves went down

My nose sing a song of leaving man

The pebbles; they were smooth and round

And warm upon my hand

Like little people i had found

Sitting among the sand

And so my dream began

I wondered how my journey may be

I have forgotten whence i came

Or what my home may be

In my journey

I sweet dream

I found myself in joy and happiness

And awake quite nice

OLUWASEYI NIFEMI