PoemasFrom Shortiee(01/24/1994)

Life has been tough on me but some how i have made it through. I Will Be 20 years old on January 24,2014 and for me to be alive to this date is a blessing. I am Hispanic and i just want to be able to share my heart anonymously with everyone since i cant share it with those around me.

Damn...

My world fell apart right on top of me, I was so good to you, but you couldn't see and like a dumb ass I still gave you the key now I'm hurting and i can't pick up the broken pieces I should have walked away along time ago, you gave me so many reasons Now I feel like I'm in a cycle that never ceases.

I love you I felt like I was gonna be able to break through tried to see things from a different point of view but I was a fool
I ignored the main rule never give your heart to someone if they're just gonna use it as a tool.
I believed in you Gave you the benefit of the doubt But you were being slick every chance you got right in front of my face

How could I have been so naive? Why didn't you tell me to leave?
Is this the goal that you wanted to achieve?
Make me believe in your lies?
Make me think that I had won the great prize?

Damn.... I have so much to say but I can no longer think straight, You said you understand and that you can relate But how can you relate when this is a mess you chose to create Am I supposed to sit here and wait.?
Start fresh on a clean slate?
Is this a choice that I will later regret.?
Did you really mean everything you said.?
Or will you continue until I'm internally dead?

Damn...

Feeling

I feel so numb, I don't feel love anymore,
So numb from everyone letting me down just like before,
Sad that I now think everyone is out to hurt me,
But I'm not giving nobody the key,
I'm floating as dead as the dead sea

Numb that I don't feel like myself anymore, So damaged that I don't even know what I'm looking for, Heart so paralyzed I am scared of affection, can't even recognized when someone gives me their undivided attention.

Constantly overthinking,
It really is killing me,
My insecurities are getting the best of me,
I'm going freaking crazy

Feeling like the ugliest person in the world, not feeling like I'm enough, been taken for granted, tired of acting tough

I am so broken,
Feels like I'm never getting back up
From being so deep in the ground that I am stuck.

Friendship After Love

You know you're in love when his/her happiness means a lot more than your own, when you know that no matter how much it hurts to see that person with someone else you're still willing to be there for him/her to be there to support that person no matter what, its not about being stupid and it's not about being desperate, it's about being able to be a friend and not someone you used to know, If in a relationship you were my lover and my best friend why would I let a break up ruin what we had. Yes I love you but because I love you I am willing to be there for you, Sometimes love grows in sooo many unusual ways, but with you it grew perfect.

You tough me how to think differently and how to view certain situations carefully, you saw me in my best moments and my worst.

You have my back just like I have yours, I won't let you down no matter what comes forward.

He Doesn't Care (Am I)

Am I really with someone who doesn't care about me?

Who doesn't care what I do?

Am I really with someone who only cares about the investment I do with them?

Is that why he does a lot for me just so I can continue to invest?

What ever happened to being in a relationship because the feeling is mutual?

Because there is genuine love towards the person?

Because the time you spend with that person is worth a million things words can not explain?

Is materialistic things really worth more then the feelings of someone else?

Is that where the actual happiness to ones future relationship will really be at?

I guess money can buy happiness for most human beings now

Nothing symbolic seems to matter anymore

I'm falling in love once again only to get shut down and hurt

And I continuously make the attempt to prove myself when in the end it won't even matter to him

He doesn't care what I say as long as I invest

He doesn't care what I do as long as I invest

He doesn't care what goes on as long as I invest

He's doing a lot for me but still doesn't care as long as I invest

So when will he care about me?

When will he care about..... Is he ever going to care?

Love Me Unconditionally

I just want someone to love me unconditionally
To adore me
To want me
To be someone's special one and only For someone to actually take my feelings into consideration For someone to continuously remind me I am beautiful

I'm tired of feeling used I'm tired of feeling less than everyone else
Why do I love so hard without knowing if that person loves me back

I am done letting someone define my value as a woman
I am done letting someone take over my personality
I am done letting a lie give me hope
I just want someone to love me unconditionally

I want to be the reason behind his smile
The cause of his joy
The one who brings him happiness
To be his motivation and more
I want to be the first person he sees when he wakes up and the last when he goes to sleep

Why do I love so hard without knowing if that person loves me back

My heart is aching and I now cry in silence I can't show how weak I'm getting Sweet karma has started getting the best of me I'm slowly dying but I'm still loving
Why do I love so hard without knowing if that person loves me back

I just want someone to love me unconditionally

New Ways

My past is way behind but these memories are still alive, just tormenting me and haunting me waiting for that one moment where i break uncontrollably...

I hate that there's no escape to where i wish i was free from the expectations that people wait for and all the temptations that i crave for,

I tried to work real hard to change my ways but i see that it's never enough so some people say.!

People ignoring me,

not even supporting me, should i give up.? ! ?

Getting put down is all I live for,

I mean i don't even have real dreams anymore...

Nothing is meant to be this way, but i guess their the ones who get to say...

Never really realized what life really is until you've gone through hell and pain

God forgive me if I said your name in vain make me a better child and help me change, give me signs out of range.!

Help me forget about all this pain, patch me up into a new path, showing me what's good and bad...

Help me build my own expectations in which they'll keep me from my temptations

I've had so many hesitations in so many different situations in which i don't know what to do.....

I pray to you cause i need you...please tell me what I need to do.

One Wish

The sun is going down, the sky is getting dark, there's never a moment left out behind in which your always on my mind..

You were in it yesterday, your were in it today,
you'll be in it tomorrow,
and until my last day...

In the night sky where the moon shines bright the stars following beside it I saw this one special star the brightest one of them all while following my childhood memories I made one wish one wish about you and me.

Star light, star bright

I wish I may, I wish I might have this wish I wish tonight....

I wish for my hope and dreams to come true, in which I'll dream of being with you.....

Poema De Amor

En a veces no puedo explicar lo que siento por ti pero si se lo que te quiero decir tu risa hace mi corazón latir
y tus palabras me hacen sonreír

Yo quisiera que tu estuvieras aquí para decirte que eres mi razón de vivir

Sin ti no sabría que sería de mí solo quedaría ilusiones y sueños para estar junta a ti...

Estas en mi mente en cada instante de mi día Cuando me llamas yo salto de alegría Yo te diera un abrazo y no te soltería para tenerte en mi mundo donde yo te llevaría...

Simply My Way Of Thinking

Holding my feelings in, taking faults before they begin, making everyone happy, While inside I'm slowly dying.

I put a fake smile on,
can't show my true emotions, I take it as a weakness, and as for them would be their advantage.

Could it be that I don't know how to be happy? , or that I'm constantly overthinking every situation and I make myself miserable?

Despite of what I've been through, I'm the strong one in the family, they saw me grow up not showing much emotions as before.

Some say I'm heartless...
I reply,
'Is not that I'm heartless, I just learned how to use my heart less and built walls up to only let those in who really deserve to see that side of me..'

I learned how to not waste my time with people, I learned how to not trust anybody; everybody became shady to me...
I learned that even if family comes' first, sometimes' they can be the shadiest of them all.

Friends come and go so why stress when they leave it just means they were never there to begin with...
If you step into my life don't expect much from me, the day you want to leave the door is right there, I won't be the one holding it for you, cause you can do that yourself...

Story Of My Life

I went through a moment where my life was juss hell and pain, for a moment i really wanted to slit my vein, i didnt find a reason to be here anymore especially after i found out i was about to have a kid from someone i didnt know i was only 14 and i was pressured into having sex i wasnt in the U.S. and i was threatened, i was fighting for my life but i had to take it, couldnt tell my mom cause i didnt want her to worry, i had to be strong and keep myself calm even tho i cried to sleep as the nights felt soo long.

2 years after i made a new friend i skipped school to go chill with him, little did i know something was slipped into my drink...so i blacked out and dont remember a thing when i woke up i saw 2 condoms by my hand i had no clothes on and then he came in, i was pushed down and hit in the head and i blacked out and i dont remember a thing i was dropped off and i went straight to bed ive never cried soo much before i felt like i was a little kid, i felt alone, clueless but couldnt tell, cause of what happened was all my fault, i left school for some fun but that fun turned to be into rape, ever since then i neva forgave myself for leavin,

I neva saw the light but i know i will one day i juss cant believe ive made it up to this day, 20 years of life but i still blame myself for it yes it still hurts but i cant move on from it, I cant run away from my past so i learned that but i cant accept my past and i know that if it happened for a reason then what is it cause im just about to call it quits so let it be it.

I never knew my father so i was never daddys little girl, i wish i was maybe things would of been different, ive survived my struggle but i still feel alone with no one to confide to, no one to catch me when i fall im still in a world where i cant find no happiness but im still here hoping that maybe one day ill find it...

Su Tristesa

Triste en su agonía y lleno de dolor, llorando todas las noches y muriendo por amor, extranando a esa persona de quien se enamoro,

Aver quien mas se atrevera romper su corazon, este sufrimiento es una gran deprecion voltiandose y illendose fue un error que cometio.

Cuando te enamoras debes de siempre recordar que en cada ewstoria de amor siempre va ver su principio y su final, le decea el mal amor aunque bien save que le dolera en su corazon, biendo en lo que ocurre el se recuesta en un ricon esperando, sonando, recordando su dolor, siempre tendra mala suerte en el amor.

You (Spanglish)

Time flew by and you've captured my eye,
With a single stolen kiss to the night of our first date, I have to admit I was very impress by how you treated me and how you showed how real you can be.

With you I experienced something completely different, Tu creciste en mi and had me making commitments, to keep moving on and stay strong, to never look back at the past and always take deep breaths like if it's my last,

My mind goes crazy, Estoy loca por ti,
You got me thinkin' about you day & night 24/7,
I fell for you but you picked me right up, gave me no worries
no false stories

Te quiero mucho

you've become something really important to me, that's why I give it my all, y siempre lucho por ti,

You're like my superman who came and swept me off my feet, quien me enseñó a querer, Making my heart skip a beat..

You always make me smile,
I end up feeling free and wild,
I get lost with your touch, and hypnotized with your kisses My body gets paralyzed as you caress me so gently..

Te quiero and you mean everything to me and there is no one else in this world that will ever take your place, you are my man and I am your woman your the only one who can make my heart beat a race...
