Rachel Finley(12-11-1992)

I am a simple girl... I am just living on a farm and going to school that I very much dislike. Over half the time i am depressed. my favorite poem is annabel lee by edgar allan poe. Most of my poems are written for and about a guy that i care deeply about, we used to be really close, and then we grew apart... even though i wish that never happened... he is the reason why i started writing and still am. I am always hoping that he will read these words just so he realizes that i care

(hey You) I'll Be Here

Hey you
I've been thinkin'
about you all day
have you been thinkin'
o' me too
I don't know why but you are always on my mind

And you know the other night
when you
kissed me
I felt whole for once in my life

So if you want to come 'round again I'll be here
don't be shy and I'll be here
waitin' for you

Hey you
I know that you are nervouse
about fallin'
don't worry because I am too
I know that you are thinking about what other people think

well, don't
'cause
we love
each other and thats all that matters and rember
I'll be here

Hey you
are you comein'
over yet why don't you call me I'm never sure if you want me around or not but I'll be here

Hey you
I miss you i wouldn't be writen if I didn't
I still think about you all the time
but you
never come around I'm still here but some one new came into this picture and this friday
I'll be with him

Hey you
I may or may not

still be here tomorrow
I'm tired of waitin'
so I won't Be here

A Tear

Do you know how many tears I've cried
Do you know how many tears Are because of you
This tear
That is roll'n down my cheek right now Is for you for all the pain you brought me
And all the joy you brought me
This tear is for you

A Young Life (In Memory Of My Cousin)

Today we are not celebrating a death Instead we are celebrating a life
A life
Who had a hard start in life Yet made it through

This joyful life
Brought hope
To those who had none

He was almost six
When he died Many said that He had just began his life

He wanted to be a superhero
And fly like Superman And now I hope that He realizes that He is one of my heroes

But no question about it
He was loved
And he touched the Soul,
Heart,
And spirit
Of every one he knew

Rachel Finley

Afraid

I
was wondering if you knew that you stole my heart and broke it when I heard that you were afraid of me and just so you know I am afraid of you too but they are two different kinds of fear you are afraid of me and my friends botherin' you non stop but I am afraid that I maybe fallin' in love with you if you are afraid of me, it's not right
to keep ignoring me if you hate me and you never want to see me again
tell me
and I will leave but then I would be afraid that I would never see you again

Rachel Finley

Are You Like Me?

Are you like me?

Do you get kicked when you are already down?

Do you stand tall when you feel like crying?

I do

But no one knows or will know

Because I am the girl forgotten in the corner

That hears and sees everything

Yes, no one will know my feelings

Because when they do they kick me down harder than before

So, are you like me?

Rachel Finley

Ever Since

Ever since
I met you
I haven't been sad
ever since
I found my self in your arms I have not been afraid of anything Ever since
I have been on your arm
I know that nothing could seperate us
ever since
I fell in love with you I have been changed forever

Rachel Finley

Falling Rain

is it falling rain
or is it falling tear drops it makes no difference any more because I know that you are not here anymore

and the falling rain will never stop the falling tears will never end

Rachel Finley

He Died

He was nailed
To the cross
He wore a crown
Made of thorns
He was whipped
With a leather rope
He died
Fore
He died
For you
Who was this?
My savior
My king
My friend

Rachel Finley

He Died For Us

He was there
He was there through it all I never saw him
You never saw him and yet HE was there...

He is one friend that I can lean on when I need help or when I am in doubt He loves me and everyone so much that he died for us and for our sins Yes, Jesus died for us and our sins upon the cross- So I will never forget him...

Rachel Finley

Here Thy Love

Here thy love
Here is a poisoned Rose Here is a kiss of death for thy love
Here is a black coffin
Thy love
Death is on your door
Thy love
You should know better Then to trust a vampire

Rachel Finley

Here Without You

I'm here
you know the places where we used to hang out at I am still here waiting
for you
If you
were lookin' for me
I'm here
The place where we met
the place where we talked until there was no more to say I'm here
without you it doesn't feel right but here I am
anywase waiting for you wondering hoping that you are thinking of me too here I am without you

Rachel Finley

I Can'T Pretend

I saw you yesterday
At the mall
I cant pretend
That I don't care
When you ignored me Because I do care
I can't pretend
That I don't miss you Because I do miss you
I can't pretend
That I don't think of you Because I do
I'm sorry
I can't pretend

Rachel Finley

I Don'T Want To Lose You

I don't want to lose you you are one of the best things That has happened to me
I know
that we have had our problems
I know
that we will have more But
I can no longer imagine my life
with out you can you understand

want to lose you
but you need to change your attitude You make fun of my friends
it hurts them and it hurts
me
You go out and drink with all of your friends then you lie about it

Do you
relize
that you are hurting your self and me
you claim
that you don't want to hurt
me
do you
relize
that you do
you claim that you love
me
do you relize that I did
love you

Rachel Finley

I Hear The Rain

I hear the rain
pound
on the roof
of this old house
and I feel that the streaming tears that keep rolling down my cheek
will never end but then
when you
call me up and I hear your voice then everything
feels right and I don't feel so alone and I know that I shouldn't ever again

the rain
keeps on pounding harder and harder yet and my heart beats as hard as the one that I love
and the one that loves me says
"I love you"
and all though
the rain
is still pounding
on the roof
a bright colored rainbow will come again

Rachel Finley

I Know

I know what every one says Especially when it is about me
The ones that say stuff about me
Don't know ME
I know that they consider me an object, and not a person.
Yes, I know everything.

I know what he said,
And I don't care
I know how I feel,
And no one else needs to know,
And that is a good thing
Yes, I know

Rachel Finley

I Think

I think maybe
If I got these Words
On paper then Possibly Someone Might care

I think may be
if I get all my feelings out in the open then maybe I won't feel so alone
Or so heart broken
I think
That I might be alone Seeing how I Am the one crying the corner
I think that I am the only one Who cares

Rachel Finley

If I Love You

Oh dear sir
If I love You
And
It you love me
And yet we have to hide our love What kind of love is that If I love you
And
If you love me
Then we shall be together
Until the end of time

Rachel Finley

It's Funny

It's funny that I feel this way about you Because I can not stand
All the stupid things you do You tease my friends
You go out and drink with all of your friends
I tell you no
But you do it any ways
And when you say no
I listen
You drive me crazy
With all those stupid things you do
And yet I cannot help but to Love you

Rachel Finley

Love Or Death

Are you afraid of love
I am
Are you afraid of death
I am not
For I know the truth Love creates more pain then my heart can hold And Yet I sacrifice myself to find it Just like every one else

Death there is none
You never die
But Instead
You go on the high way to heaven

Therefor Love is a figment of everyone's Imagination
And there Is no lies about death

Rachel Finley

My Last

My last thought
Will be of you
My last breathe Will breathing you in My last wish
Will be to see you again
My last testimony
Will be
I love you

Rachel Finley

Please Tell Me

Please tell me
Tell me if this is the end
If this is not the end Tell what is going on Please tell me I beg of you Tell me
Please tell me
Please tell me if this is the end Please tell me if there is no end

Rachel Finley

The Rest Of My Life

You are the man
I Love
If you expect me to leave you alone
you must be crazy
I am not going to leave You alone because I want to spend my entire life with you 'cause without you I am nothing
For the rest of me life
I want to be with you

Rachel Finley

What Do You See

Many people say
That I have pain in my eyes What do you think when Those people
Look into your eyes what do you see
When you look into my eyes do you see pain do you see my past do you see love
Do you see your reflection Or
Do you just see my eyes
What do you see
When you look into my eyes
