I'm not doing things right, or at least there not going right, after two years life is bad it seems so sad that most people do not understand... They see the good side of me no one see's the bad, thats why I write to keep going, is it that bad..?

My #1 Friend

Life is bout the same when you see it through my eyes
Somtmes good somtmes bad, but overall I'm mostly sad
So how can I live life this bad

Life has freinds
Some loyal while a few are idoits,
I know I can always call on a certain one
She is so much nicer shes my number 1,
One pereson who will always be new
I just wish i could tell my feelings too

I will always tell her the final truth
Weather good or bad
I hope to never make her sad
I will always be true to you
