Because Of You

The Beginning That I Want Forever.

You have made a big impact on my life without even knowing it.

You put me in a haze, in a dream, like a fairy tale.

We have been through so much and we still stand by each others side.

Because of you,

You have given me back my smile, put my heart back together, showed me how to love, you should me how to change things to make me a better person. You are my best friend and I cant believe I found such a girl that is able to actually do the things you do.

You don't see why I love you, why I want to be with you,

Here is your answer:

I love you because of who you are and I know that you can and will become, because of the laughs, struggles, tears, and drama we always stood tall next to each other. In the beginning of the relationship is was so fast and do blame myself. But its time for the slow down. I am being serious when I say this. I love you with every beat of my heart, and even being apart I still love you, when we are together you do cause me to get the chills just by the slightest touch of your hand against mine. You show me what a girlfriend is suppose to be like and act. You have done things for me that I have never gotten done before. We are so different but so alike at the same time. The connection i feel between you and I will is so strong like an electrical shock.

I want to be with you because above all the fights, annoying tactics I do and you do we are able to laugh about it later, I have so much when I am around you. When you are talking as you have realized its like glue on my brain. You are gorgeous and that comes with the package. You have the best personality, even though you play too much but that's what makes you who you are. I love it about you, You have that smile that blinds me. When you kiss my lips its like a reminder that you are always going to be here. When we have conversations there's always a laugh involved. You have the key to my heart, be gentle because its delicate. When I lay in your arms i feel so safe and protected. I want to make us work I don't want to run you away... Because you belong with me and I belong with you. Always. I don't know if its the fact that we started dating on July 4th that I feel the constant spark. But Its every single time you touch me I get this feeling that runs through my body. Gabbie I love you and I always will. I know that we aren't together at the moment but I do have hope to get you back in my arms again.7.4.13 is always in my heart and Mind. Its all Because Of You.

Get Used To It! ! ! ! ! !

He say something to him, saying you were right,
you were right about her, that hurt me.

My friend asks me whats wrong and I tell her what I saw and heard. She questions him and he comes up to me. We tell each other we hate eachother and he tells me
I follow her. He tells me that he is her boyfriend, Im like 'Whoa'
She told me that he is telling me that because he doesnt like me and that she is paying more attention to me and not enough attention to him. So, I tell her that I am going to back off and that I am going to give them there space. She tells me NO thats what he wants me to do. He doesnt like me and wants me to end my friendship with her...Well you know what, Our friendship isnt going to end 'Boyfriend' so get used to me being around...

GET USED TO IT! ! ! ! ! ! ! !

Gone...

Your gone and not coming back, Ive been waiting for years just to see your face, to see if you would come back to me, to say you love me once more, to hold me in ur arms again. To tell me everything will be ok, to tell me that you will be by my side through everything. To make myself get through this drama at school, to get me understand that Im losing the person Im most closest to. To be there to hold me when Im crying my eyes out, to cheer me up when I need a pick me up. When i need you to just help me run away from all the problems that causes all the heart break and pain in our hearts. I wish you were here with me. PLEASE COME BACK! ! ! ! ! !

I Forgave You! ! ! ! !

You do things with boys with me next you, I forgave you.

You say sh about me, I forgave you.

You are barely there for me, I forgave you.

You are embarrassed to be seen with me, I forgave you.

You disrespected my home, I forgave you.

You choose other friends during a time when I really needed you, I forgave you.

You chose boys over your best friend, I forgave you.

I am always there for you.

I am the one to help.

I am the one who takes you places with me.

I am the one that drops anything for you because you are my best friend.

I lied a couple times to you, you lied to me so much more. I forgave you each time.

Why can't you forgive me this one time?

Do I mean that little to you?

Did you even care?

Were you even my friend to begin with?

So many questions.... No answers

Taylor, you hurt me and you don't even notice it.

Im Sorry

I say Im sorry and she doesnt believe me
I say I need time she said no
I say I found someone else I hurt her.
I am not the type of person who hurts people.
I know I cant take things back, but I did find out that there is something called real love out of you.
I know in the future I will regret letting go but, I will learn from my mistakes and I hope when that day comes if that day comes you will be there to hear me out

Papi

She's my world, she's my girl, she's my future. I love her with all my heart. People say that Im a bouncer because I go with so many people. But what they dont understand is that Im just looking for that one girl to spend my life with. Now heres where i let you know that all dat bounce has gotta go. I found her, she's the one i been lookin for. I think that this is something much much more. More than this one time thing. But true love, yall know I aint no cheater, liar, i aint none of dat. So i know dat this gurl aint gotta worry bout me. I talk to her day n night, n lasy night i even started ta cry. cuz i got my self to realize that i am in love with this girl. She's my baby, She's my daddy, She's my papi. She's my Future. Papi I am sooo much in love with you. Aint no other girl finna take ur place. The spot in my heart that you hold is always yours. Should I?

If I say im sorry falling for you that would be a lie,
If I say im sorry for ever bein attracted to you that would another lie,
If I say I love you thats me telling you the truth but I should have never said it because you have a girlfriend that you love and im not the one that breaks up a relationship. So im sorry! I dont know why I am but I am! I know that I told you that I loved you and maybe I shouldnt have told you that. maybe you should forget about me, as much as that hurts for me to say that. You know what forget I said that because I wouldnt be able to forget you and I will just I dont know if I would be able to let you go! But I am sorry that I got in the way with your feelings for your girlfriend.Im not usually like this, and I dont know why I am acting like this is not normal for me and I dont know why but its only with you.I love you and I shouldnt should I? ? ? ?

Through The Deep Layers Of My Skin

With all the stress, the pain and the hurt in my heart
It seemed like the easiest thing to do but to let the blade go through the deep layers of my skin.

With him not on here, the pain just grows deeper,
if he was here he would know how to relieve the pain.
He would know the answer to everything.

To make everything easier and put things back in order and life would be normal, but the blade just goes deeper through the layers of my skin.

With this feeling of love not with me, it makes my heart
just want to stop beating, it makes my scars throb, it just wants me to pick up that blade and let it go through the deep layers of my skin.

Cutting seems like I will be able to relieve the pain that is going through my body every second of the day.

I dont know the one I love has died and I will not get him back and the feeling of love that have I have seems to be nothing.

I dont know cutting seems like the answer. I think that maybe I should just wait til that right one comes around again.

Where Are You?

I look for you everywhere, where are you?
I call out your name, where are you?
I say I love you waiting for you to answer me, where are you?
I feel you touching me, where are you?
I hear your voice, where are you?
I miss your touch, where are you?
I miss your scent, where are you?
I miss your smile, where are you?
I miss our late night conversations, where are you?
I miss seeing your eyes, where are you?
I miss your kisses, where are you?
I miss you, where are you?
Why did you leave me here on this earth alone?
Why did you die on me?
Why didnt god take me instead?
Why did you have to have cancer?
Why did you leave me?
You and I made a promise, ' Never Leave Me'
I kept that promise, you didnt.
I know you didnt want to leave me, it wasnt your choice,
I could use my best friend, my baby, my life, my everything,
I could use you everyday in my life. I need your advice, I need your comforting shoulder, I need your soft voice telling me everything will be ok.
Just one more conversation, one more huge one more kiss
one more hug, one more chance to see you one last chance.
Baby, I need you back! ! !
Please Come Back! ! ! !
Please! ! ! !

Wishes

Wishing she was mine, wishing she loved me, wish she would say she is in love with me.
I love her and she doesn't feel the same. Need her, she doesn't need me. I wish she was my girl, wish she was my world! do you love me? ? do you wanna be my girl?
You know who you are.
