Dreaming

I dreamt of you last night, beautiful
I daydreamed of your touch, blissful
I imagined your kiss, romantic
I am here like I always have been
In your closed eyes I will always be
The passion unfolds threw words on paper
Desire of that one night escapes our dreams
Floating on a cloud I can see you,
I can see us
I can begin to feel
Tormenting visions of you-I-our love
My love will shower you for eternity

Love Is Made Of!

You are where my heart belongs
You are the life I will live
You are the fire in my eyes
You are the ice that keeps me calm
As the day begins to become wet and,
Stormy skies begin to flow above my head
I can only see the sun and moon
I am where love begins and ends
I am the one to save you from all
I am the one who loves you for you
I am the one craves your every word
Now the night starts to form above
Moon glows threw the dark clouds
I can only see the stars so bright
We are where life begins and loneliness ends
We are what is right
We are what is forever
We are what Love is made of!
