Do You?

How does one fall in love? Do you trip? Do you stumble, lose your balance and drop to the ground, graze your knee, graze your heart? Do you crash to the stony ground? I know i am in love when i see you, i know when i long to see a muscle has been s hang unruffled by all breezes. The air is still, i have fallen in love without taking a step. When did this happen? I haven't even blinked. 'I am in love'. Typically stupid choice but i am though. I am racked by love, as if love was pain. There is only one face, it is all i see. Awake or asleep, your face is all i see.

I Can'T

I can't go on anymore, my life is over. I don't know to be strong, i just wish i was not sober. No one seem's to care, there is nothing left for me here. I am a failure to anything that ever existed. I can't do anything even if it is listed. I am putting my life on hold forever more.

I Don'T Know What To Do.

You look at me like i am not even here. I don't know what to do, all i want is you. I can live without anything, but you. You say this, but you do that. I just don't know any more. I am just trying not to give up, but i am hurting. When you fall in love with someone it is not easy to forget them or get over them. I know for me it is not. Please tell me what to do because all i want is you. I am begging you to tell me what to do. I don't want to push you away, but i need to tell you something. I love you and no matter what i always will.

Judgement Day...

Written in ink and sealed with a kiss i know you love me so listen to this. Out of all the men i have ever met you are the one i just can't forget. Out of all this time i think that GOD above invented you for me to love. When i get to heaven and you are not there i will write your name on a golden stair. If you are not there by Judgement Day i will know you went the other way. Just to prove my love is true i will go to hell to be with you.

Tonight

Tonight I thought of suicide because there was nothing else to do. I thought if i died i would finally get to you refuse to care and nothing ever changes no matter how many poems i write. So i want you to know I LOVE YOU and always will even if i decide to make death my only resource tonight.

Tonight Part 2

Tonight i thought of suicide because there was nothing else to i thought of you and wondered what you would do without ht if maybe i died no one would have to worry about me and i would never be in the way again. Thought maybe if i did it i might eventually get to you. It does not matter any more no one cares or at least that is how it feels. When you live your life in fear then nothing seems to be okay or never will.

Tragedy...

They blame everything on me, my life is tragedy. I am always in trouble over something. Tragedy you figure many would not that's me my name is Tragedy. People say don't worry it will all go away. I know eventually it will always be on the surface and that it won't stray. People can't stand me, but there is more to me than what people want to see. Yes that's me i am Tragedy.

Would You?

What's done is done. What's said has been said. The past is the past, i can't change that now. All i can say is i am here for you always. No matter what happens, no matter what people say i will always love you until my dying day. You made me love even when i did not love myself. You are my heart, my soul and you complete me. If i told you that i love you, what would you say? Would you worry about me? Would you forget i existed? Would you get rid of me? Would you run away? Would you forget that i cared? Would you push me away? I want to tell you, but i don't want you to run away.
