Feel Me

First glimpse was normal
Second came crush
Without my conscious
I found I was blind
Come let me see you
& hold you in my arms
Come let me take you
Make you for eternity mine.
How awful it feels to have a lonely heart
No person to care for
No one to hold tight
My eyes full of tears
My heart conquered by fears
Still I want to have you
Am surrendered to you
I want you to feel me
Just the way I feel you.
