A Love Poem

Bloody nights
for one look of you I sleep with demons
make love to sins, I want you to see me that I am still right here since you've been gone, The memories are punishing me on my knees in front of you just for one look of you

A Murderer 's Tale

You are afraid, I can feel it, you are afraid of me, ho do you feel now that,
you are so close to Die?
I will feel your last breath with your blood i will write your name to the wall.
Look at me!
Just to be sure that the death knows who sent you there

Always

I stole a star from the sky to write your name so the universe knows that you are mine.
I stole a sunbeam
to see your pretty eyes whereever i go
I stole the moonlight for you so i can protect you in dark I stole water from the clouds to wash your tears I stole forgiveness from the Gods to be with you always

Dreamrider

I travel to unknown places where the day never ends the sun always shine a dreamrider i am and my youth is my comrade behind me i left the puppets of mankind I travel where there are no kings no dreamthieves
the sky is always blue no Gods and no Slaves just me
a crazy dreamrider

Factories Of Death

This stupid factory smees like death the same smell with the ugly basements I grew up it is strange how strong this smell is.
In this factory I see Only Human Puppets little people who had accepted their fate.
They speak when they told to They move when they told to.
That is not a good place for me I have smell and saw enough death, I want to smell the flowers at spring I will live for me, my hopes and dreams, without beeing a puppet I want freedom
I want Life!

Fight

Put your hands up my friend and accept the beating sometimes you need some rest during the fight dont forget to put your hands up and cover wait wait my friend, be patient

When the right momment comes hit, hit my friend like a hurricane cover up your self but see where are you hitting Dont let this life hurt you no more just stay focused, rest and hit again my friend, sometimes we all need a beating just to stay alive

Journey To Hell

The Devil told me that he took my soul, There is no heaven anymore for me waiting Angels crying quiet mourning for my soul, that in hell sent my dirty clan of thinking My Pain told me, tonight the loneliness will be my companion this last night.
Devil let me please take my childhood memories with me,

One More

Another round
another fight
one more struggle and out of sight.

Blood in my head
says i am alive
one more round one more fight.

Tell me who you are what do you want from me, and then just go away leave me to my fate

A new breath
is a new life
always with pain
that is the price

Rain

Oh how I love the Rain, to be with her,
she touches my soul
with her tears,
The wounds close inside of me
the pain is gone.
Love me if you want rain and my poor heart will be your lover.
Every dropp of yours
smiles at me
wash my tears
and everything that hurts moves away from me

Stars

The stars have debts to me, cause i loved them for,
so many years.

I can look at the sun again and joy his light A howl from a free wolf stole my heart a flying eagle stole my soul.

At the moonlight
howl, my wolf
at the clouds
flyes my eagle.

Like a wild flower in the storm i will still survive

The Wolves Always Howl

What is it that I fear most?
maybe it is the Pain living in me That makes me assailable, but maybe it is the darkness of my soul.

But what is the price i pay?
of whom the debts i owe and cannot pay, maybe i will never know

Whatever sore that i have comes every evening with the dark whispers become a scream and take it to the soul

Remember me my friend the song that i have told no matter what the fate
The wolves always howl

Thief In Your Dreams

No matter what you do, you can not take me away from your thoughts

Never!

I am coming like a thief inside your dreams You will cry awaking cause you are missing me you will search the room for my forgotten lyrics.

The wind reminds you of me

Again and again....

And when it rains

look for me

At the basements at ugly violent pubs and clubs

Because nobody managed to take me away from your thoughts and dreams

You should have known

Do not play with fire Baby!
