For Only You

Years has been passed by im still here with you we're still love each other every trials, problems that we faced makes our love stronger we cry and suffer every time we argue oh yes! Damn it hurt so much but we still hold on but the most important is we are happy to have each other even though we faced all that and maybe I'll die loving you for only you who makes me feel important and safe every time we're together i don't want to lose you, i'll die if it happen sound desperate but what can i do i love you more than anything else more than my life i swear!
For only you makes my life complete i loved you so much and continue loving you in the future till i die

Friendship And Love

One day you are n0thing for me but as days pass by, i been searching my self and find my self falling in love with you, i thought it couldn't be because i really don't care about you but whenever you're ar0und me i found my self starring at you realizing h0w cute you are, you're so kind and so sweet and i really blame you for that, cant help my self missing u over and over again, as my way of falling for u i thought i can stop it, that i can stop thinking about our mem0ries together you're smile so wonderful you're eyes so beautiful you're kissable lips that i want to kiss all over again you're hand that i want to hold, i want to hug u so tight for u you to kn0w that i don't want to lost you I'm in love with you but i kn0w its forbidden and that's for real its a boundary between friendship and love

Game Of Lust

its a big temptation to be with you you know and i know we have nothing because were just friend no commitment, must don't have any feelings and no other relationship but friendship we must know that rule but we just break it a rule that no physical related (sex) your the one who gives motive to me you show me a feelings that cant be and how fool and weak i am?
to go with that flow we know, we cant do that but why and how?
don't we have any conscience in our selves?
don't we have any lover that can be hurt?
we know its a sin but we just like it really love it and that's the truth that night is full of romance and i admit its great i also admit that night our fantasy because you admit that its all you wanted i love the way we did it every time i try to forget it i don't know but i cant, its a game of lust if you will play it make sure you wont fall in love make sure you will do it not because of love or else your the loser and he/she is the winner because he/she do it because he needs it remember its just a lust

Naked

one day your nobody and nothing to me as i passed by in your front you kept starring but i didn't mind as days passed by we become good as friend we knew each other but we are not so close but one day i wake up you're the one i thinking of you're all of me then as time goes by you talk to me seriously and say you love me and i'm feel the same way too now i don't want to lost you i need you more than you ever know im so sweet to you and i cant hide this strong feelings i love you and i need you there's nothing to hide from you because i'm naked around you

Thank God I Found Him

Thank you God for giving me this person i know he's not handsome like i thought but he's more than that because of his heart his heart that so kind and true our first meet i know i never mind him because his just a stranger around me we become couple unexpectedly.
.it so fast without thinking i accept his proposal i thought it could never last but the way he cares for me he gives me so much love as i never thought the way he protect me like no man can did just the way he is, i felt inlove with him thank you so much God for giving me this special gift Thank you God i found him

Worst Person

i am a worst person worst person who wish to kill my enemy i want to kill them until they ask for a pity kill them until their tears is falling until their blood flow like a river i want to see them screaming screaming to me with tears of blood blood of their own

i want to revenge for justice justice that im asking for so long so long that I've been to silence so long that I'm crying as i sleep because before i have no strength to fight but now i found my strength i don't have to cry as i sleep my face will be brighten again if i will kill them i can taste the sweetness of a revenge i don't have a pity with them anymore because i am a worst person
