In These Seasons

in the night where the moon shines my soul sleeps and my heart beats.

in the cold winter nights my soul sleeps and my heart cries out for your warmth.

in the hot summer days my soul awakes and my heart feeds for your heart of shade.

in the cool spring nights my soul sleeps and my heart begs for your soft sweet heart.

in the fall mornings where the leaves fall my heart cries begs hurts for your key to your heart.

in these seasons my soul sleeps and awakes my heart beats cries begs and hurts for your heart to lay against my heart.
