I am 13 I love singing, dancing acting and writing poems when I'm in the mood. I love watching telly and my favourite programme is Eastenders in case your wondering what it is I'll tell you basically its a soap that comes on 4 times a week most people think that is silly to watch it but if like it I just cant help myself. I have 2 brothers so in total we are 3,2 boys 1 girl.2 years a car hit me and I broke my toe. I am a Christian and try and make the most of my time.

Friends

My friends are the best,
They live in the west,
They are so cool,
They make my brother drool.

I see them everyday,
Even when I hit they hay,

First there's Sumi,
Then Namrata and Rajni too,
They are my best friends,
I'll be with them until school ends.

God

Today is a day
A blessed day
A day where I can shout to the heavens and shout blessed be your name
The birds fly over my head to welcome the heavens
Because Jesus is the king of kings and the lord of lords
I stick my head out of the window and shout to GOD be the glory
The air brushes against my cheek its a sign
It's Gods breath, which smells so pure and innocent
I look across the road and I can see the heavens lowering down
The sunset brighten the town
The sun is Jesus light pouring down on us his love and mercy Think of him when you open your window or a see a sunset because he is the creator of all living things.

Hope In Life

Life to me is about being free

From the crack of dawn to the moonlit nights my heart is set on God. When I look to the heavens I see mini heavens. When I stick my head out the window I feel a breeze against my cheeks. But I know it's no ordinary breeze but it is God's breathe which awakens me.

It's not easy being a Christian because temptation and destruction pulls me down all I can do is pray for god to have mercy upon me.

When I am down the lord reminds me that he is my Shepherd and even though I walk in darkness I shall not be afraid because he will protect me.

This give me hope and I know that my hope in God will never end because it is like a light which shines too bright that nothing can block it.

Lovey Dovey

This is a song dedicated to a friend....

Love is something you need
Love is something you want
Love is something you have write in your heart
You got to give you got to share
That's the way it is....

My Dream

I got a dream some say it's dumb but it's my dream it's sweeter than cream flows like a stream makes you want to scream
I want to break free free from all these stereo types cause I'm black you think im a zulu make the noise rata ta tap tap your back run like a cheater sprint in meters then some of you see me as a thug no wonder why you wouldn't give me a hug
You see me on the bus your heart begins to pound you turn around
I hear no sound
you think im a gangster hoodies up guns and knives on the line

Sining

All crimes are a waste of times
Put your sins in the bins
Just stop on the dot
It ain't that hard
1 by 1 kids fall flat
With a big splat
Your boys loose their lives
Just to little knives
Don't they know that killing is just sinning?
Why can't they think?
Before they sink
But all they need is a little a bit of love
Sent from above
Listen to me its easy and clear it aint no shame

The Battlefield Of The Mind

My mind is like a battlefield...

First there's the good Samaritans who choose to do good

Then there's the careless looners who do what pleases themselves

Last but not least there's a leader or captain who chooses what each member of the mind should do

Sometimes the captain goes the easy way and lets the careless looners take control of the mind it feels fun but the fun doesn't last and consequences are left to defeat sometimes the battle can be won but sometimes there's nothing you can do but drown your sorrows in food and so on...

When the captain is in a good mood he lets the good Samaritans take control of the mind.....

It may be difficult to manage but when you have your amount of love, forgiveness and an open heart of shield there is no need for you to worry.

So before you do something you regret think because you do not know what lies ahead.....

The Girl Who Saved My Life

They say look before you cross the road
I 'thought I did' so I crossed the road

B@NG! ! !

My leg cracked in half the noise unbearable so I closed my eyes to relive the pain but it didn't work. I open my eyes to see if any one was around but all I saw was blood and darkness I began to have a panic attack.
I screamed and yelled but no one heard my cry

The dodgy driver drove away with out no thought
I cried and cried till my voice had gone
A bright light hit my eye
I heard a sweet voice say don't be afraid cause I am here to help you. She blew some dust on my broken leg my leg went back to normal and the blood on my leg disintegrated.
I asked her what her name was
She then told me " I'm the girl who saved your life" After she said that she vanished with a big bright light that was brighter than the sun.

I screamed come back here who are you don't go please don't go
No one cared to listen to me so I sat on the rocky ground and buried my face in my hands. My mind went mental I tried to think who the mysterious girl was.
I was confused and I am still confused I just wish I knew who she is.

Twisted Love

I thought he was my friend
Until the end....
But as time went by I fell in love
I thought that our love was like a dove
I thought we were more than friends
Turns out he likes my friend
How could he break my heart in 2
We were meant to be together
I thought it was the start of something new,
But I guess it's the end

I have to admit at first I didn't care but I can't bare it no more
He broke my heart in 2 he used me and abuse me
I let him into my heart I even gave him the key

I smile like everything's okay
But it's not but what can I say
They come and go so what the hey
I don't mind because one day my prayers will be answered and God will make a way

Why Do You Cry

Oh the pain oh the sorrow
She can't think no more
Her tears are so bitter
They come form within her core
I see her cry i cry with her
'She says i can't take it anymore'

I tell her not to cry but she doesn't care
She said 'I'm use to it I can bare

Before she left me she said please don't cry
But try
Try to be strong be better than me I'm going to heaven
Where there's no sorrow and I will get to meet kevan

Don't go I shouted
Please don't go
A tear form her cheek landed in my palm
I looked down to see it
But it had gone with her I tried to be strong so I said her a psalm
Good bye I shouted good by dear friend I'll see you 1 day
