Timothy Hector(03/09/1990)

I write from the heart that is all you need to know

All For You

This is really messing with me i really only want to be there for you when you need me that i'll do for eternity the other stuff means less to me i only wish you could see what it is we could be if only we were free from these lives that have hold we do everything that we're told its useless to break free and be bold it will only come back on us 10 fold i cant give up and walk away i promised you i would stay until you need me no longer meanwhile it just gets stronger all these things i feel for you i know in my heart are true but there is just so much in the way its going to one day send me grey but patience is something i can learn your trust is something i will earn when we together i feel like one and apart it all comes undone i give up, i have fallin for you thats something i can't undo its useless to try and fight all i can do is try to hide because for you its easier that then me always on your back coz what i feel wont go away and i dont need you to say what it is that you feel because i already know its real and that we must put aside what we feel to do whats right

Timothy Hector

Breaking Me Down

You brought me down, broke all my walls all my worries seemed so small because when you are near i forget all my fears friends are suppose to help each other so why should i have to cover all the things i feel for you when i'm sure you feel it to life is a mess, or so they say i will be glad when i find the day thats everything makes sense to me my head is a mess, literally i open up bit, by bit the words sit on the edge of, my lips i just cant bring myself to say all the things that made me this way but slowly i'll make it there to that point, at which is where you will know everything there is about my life, through what i've lived but in return i ask one thing for you to do the same for me open up whats inside from me you dont have to hide what it is you think or feel i need to know that this is real that this isnt just all one way because that is not how i play

I'll put my trust in you what else can i do your like no-one i've ever met a friend i will never forget

Timothy Hector

Broken

What happened to me? I can write no more Been trying for months and still nothing Never have I had trouble penning my thoughts Until the day we fell apart.

It's like I have forgotten how I wrote for you because that's all I knew My voice though loud is not strong I just wanted you to know how I felt

Even now as I write this for you No poetry, just words on paper
I read our poems and letters from before A pain rises in my chest, I want that back

I need to know that I am loved I love to know that I am wanted
I want to know that I am needed

Timothy Hector

Choices

i am alone in this world and nobody cares i could run naked and no-one would stare they cant see me im like a ghost A friend is what i really want most they so hard to find they're all the same no values or morals, thier folks they blame but in the end its one's own choice each of you has a powerful voice

You choose the paths you take in life dont matter which, there's no wrong or right so long as your happy, and have the things you need you have done alright, you dont need the greed people judge by the clothes you wear does it matter who's logo you bear?

of course not, its all about money thats not the person i want to be so sit alone and stick to roots they can laugh i dont give a hoot if that means having very few friends then they are the ones worth the time i spend so take my advice and listen hard don't do what they say, just follow your heart because in the end its just you to blame for turning out exactly the same

Dead End Road

I can't cope anymore, it's such a mess
I do what I can, I try my best But for every step forward I take two back I just can't do it, I am fed up, I am jack

No job, no car, no real home My only relationship is had through a phone I need something solid, someone to hold Are you too young? Or am I too old?

My life is maze, full of dead ends
I take different paths, make no real friends Because sooner or later I will reach another wall
I don't want connections when I have my next fall

It killed me last time to say goodbye
I lied to their faces, and held a brave smile I said "I'll come back; it's only for a while"
As I drove away I shed a tear from my eye

For I knew that was the end of that old life I started a new one, kept out of strife
But then I met you and my whole world just stopped Forgot what I was doing, I was so lost

No I have a connection, strongest I've felt You can't change the hand that you're dealt So I am at a dead end, nowhere to go What do I do? How should I know?

Timothy Hector

Destiny

We met at the pool when you were just a kid such a gentle soul, a life barely lived i had to leave for a little while you welcomed me back with that same warm smile i wanted to know you just a bit better that one night lasted almost forever i guess u dont know it yet but that night you saved me from inner death for some strange reason i felt a connection one i havent felt in 19 years life lessons as time went on we only got closer i prayed day and night for it never to be over but the past shows us nothing last forever why didnt i try to do things a bit better i became selfish, greedy and one track minded i wanted you all to myself until i was reminded that things arent always as they seem it was just all my pathetic little dream we learnt together a long time ago life without the other just wasnt the go we cant be together and cant be without i should never have opened my big mouth so here we are now trying to patch this up what brought this on so quickly, so abrupt of course thats right it was me chasing my fabricated destiny

i hope we can move past this mess i know i will try my absoloute best i want, no i need you in my life who is to say wether its wrong or right time is the only judge, that will truly decide wether i should leave this place or swallow my pride because i dont want to lose you or have to leave we are destined to be just friends, i have to believe

Timothy Hector

Don'T Want To Leave

So sick of feeling alone
So sick of no having a home
I move around from place to place Never having my private space

And when I finally settle down All I hear, is the sound Of people telling me to move How is that I prove

I am happy where I am I finally have made some friends
I want to stay and make a life
How can u say that's not right?

Surely now you can see How happy I can be
When I stay with my friends Don't tell me it has to end

It's my life now I'm an adult If I mess up now, it's my own fault.
Let me stay, enjoy what I have built I don't need all the guilt

Now I know what a home is It's something I don't want to miss I am staying put and that is that I can do this now and that's a fact

Timothy Hector

First Kiss

Each day is harder then the one before The pressure that builds, I just ignore For with you a kiss means more
You are the one I adore

Should I kiss you or should I not?
If I do, will I stop?
I hold you in a warm embrace I look in your eyes, we are face to face

It's hard to part, but I let go I walk away because I know We aren't together, it's not right You smile at me, blinding bright

I know that smile and what it means You feel it to but we just can't be So patiently I will sit and wait For the perfect time and place

At that moment, my world will stop For it will be the end of the beginning And the beginning of the rest of my life

Timothy Hector

For Better Or Worse

Left all My friends, my entire life for promises of better days, its all a lie your the only good, to come of me being here its already been over half of a year

Even that isn't as good as it seems just a big mess, again brought on by me maybe i should just pack up and leave its only you who'd miss me, Why did i believe?

That i could do better by coming to this place everything i do blows up in my face i need to let go of you, get away, make haste just being close to you makes my heart race i didnt expect to fall for you like this it doesn't matter how hard i resist your in my head all day life a song on repeat the way u make me feel just cant be beat

Im stuck in a bind, which way do i go?
should i take off and miss the show?
you are someone from which i cant part for better or worse your stuck in my heart

Timothy Hector

House Of Cards

As the days go by, closer we get
It can only get better yet I feel happy, way more often These are the days I thought I'd forgotten

You're on my mind for hours on end, I find it hard, in you, to see a friend Coz now when I think of you, that's not what I see
There is something between us, it's not just me

You feel it to, but it is getting hard I am afraid we will fall like a house of cards
When I see you, we each get a high Today more so, now I can almost fly

I want this to last, as long as it can I don't want to this feeling to ever end In you, I have found myself again That is why I can't settle for friends

I'm not rushing you, coz I know you cant now But soon it won't matter, I know that somehow Coz we will fall together, both cave in The pressure is building, it's about to begin

Starts with a long warm embrace
And then it will just pick up pace Hugging you, holding you, a small kiss goodbye
The thought kinda makes me smile

But I promised I'd be patient and I'm a man of my word Despite the things you may have heard I'll wait for you, for as long as u want That's how i feel, it not my fault

Timothy Hector

Make It Through

I'm over it, it's all the same
But who is to blame
Is it me? Is it you?
Can we really make it through?

So much that I don't know I just want to take it slow Savour every moment we have Who knows when it will end?

Days go by, still no word
Been so long since I have heard How you feel or what you want I start to question do I belong?

Coz lately all I can do Is pray we make it through My words and actions can't express How you make me feel the best

I hide behind my wall of writing While my tongue, I am biting I have not courage or the balls
To bring down all my walls

I want to open up and talk
But if I get too close I walk Away because I just cant do it I don't want another lament

I just need you to share Because you know that I care
I will try to make it right Please I don't want to fight

Timothy Hector

No Words

You bring out the best in me
A part that is rarely seen It helps to know someone cares
For me that is really rare

I was walking on air, having so much fun
Now on thin ice, its already begun The beginning of the end? I hope not i want to give u more, everything I've got

The harder I try, the harder it seems To let go and tell you everything But when I relax it doesn't come either What is they key? I need a breather

Try, try I must get it out I need to stop messing about You mean so much to me Why can't you see

I'm trying my best to let you in I just dunno how to begin I open my mouth but nothing comes I just sit there looking stunned

I need a push in the right direction
I need to be taught a lesson On expression of one's self If only u knew how I felt..

Timothy Hector

Patience

I just want to hold you for hours at a time but when i think like that i pull myself into line for i know that you can never be mine to wish for that is surely a crime i need to step back and stay in my place and stop getting all up in your face we're going to fast at a ridiculous pace i just need to slow down, its not a race i have forever, or at least thats what i hope to work things out with you, i think i can cope with not knowing which way we will go my emotions keep running to and fro sometimes i feel like i should just run but i know my feelings are just to strong i can wait, i dont care how long i wish i could change it, coz i know its wrong its so stupid that i got you into this mess though i am sure that i should confess i fell like i have been blessed whats happened with us is simply the best

Timothy Hector

Questions

When did it happen?
When did it all go wrong?
When did you stop singing my song?
What have I done?
How do I fix it?

Maybe I should have walked away..
But its too late now, too far gone
Now I just have to be strong

Fight for what I want Fight for who I need Fight for everything I believe

Timothy Hector

Regrets

I'm sorry I messed up like I always do Did something stupid didn't think it through A night out not worth it now I feel blue Drugs and alcohol are less important than you

3 bad calls in a row is what set me off Once I started drinking it just didn't stop Went off the rails, did what I could To mess myself up, then I understood

Why I moved here, why the fresh start For hours I just sat in the dark Thinking of why I would let my friends down All for one stupid night on the town

I wasted my money, my night and my health All for that feeling, so long since I've felt Just to realise I don't like it anymore I'm sorry I messed up like I said before

Can you forgive me it's more than I deserve You were screaming out for help, but I never heard For what I have done there is no excuse Won't happen again, that I promise you...

Return To Us

You have been on my mind all day again so much to say, dunno where to begin I miss you, i love you, i cant be without do you feel same? i am starting to doubt

I feel like we are falling apart slipping down, back to the start come back home, where you belong without you here, it feels so wrong over a month since i've heard from you and im really starting to feel blue all i want is a warm embrace because i feel lost in space so much going on right now you keep me on earth somehow i miss the days, we were together you always made me feel much better i guess for now i'm on my own i really need to just stay strong for the others, for they hurt to i feel like i am just the glue holding everyone together i hope that soon it gets better to live like this is such a shame and not knowing who to blame

this is getting so obsurd what happened? where did you go?
come home please we miss you so...

Taz Or Tre'

From the first time i saw you, something changed inside Your smile was just so bright, i had to close my eyes I have no idea why i was drawn to you but it felt so right, what else could i do

From that day forward, we really hit it off We were still young, we'd never felt so much We were hopeless though, we had no idea how To have a relationship, we wouldn't allow

Our true feelings out, till we got older That's is when we both got bolder You ran away from home and I took you in And that is where our story begins

Almost a year I waited for you I loved you so much what could I do Then you gave yourself to me completely Each others first, we did it discreetly

Then at 16 we got our own place
That is when it blew up in my face 3 years we lasted, flew by like a race You decided you needed your space

I did as you asked and left you alone
So you went to my best mate fore a bone Lied to me for a year until you moved out Then a uni guy, then I didn't doubt

I broke it off, you hurt me so much I locked myself up, my heart I did clutch 6 month bender is what brought me undone I did drugs, never ate and drank only rum

I had to move home, I was in so much debt I swore to myself, what we had I wouldn't regret I learned from you what a woman can do Destroy your life and heart if you allow them to

I thought you where "Taz" the one I would marry But you were two faced, the evil one "Tre" Is the cheater, the liar, the one I don't like!
Taz disappeared, with your father I did unite

He changed you, in ways I never understood But in the end it all came out good I learnt my lesson, learning more everyday I just wish Taz had stayed and not Tre

The Way It Is

Its 2 am and I can't sleep for the 4th time in a week it goes in circles round and round for the right answer can't be found

The trials of life the ups, the downs confuse me so, all i hear is the sound of that sweet voice deep in my head saying those words i wish you'd said but its so stupid that i want this so when deep inside i really know that it is wrong to want such things i know what sort of mess it brings i want for you to do well and succeed in every aspect of your dreams so why wish upon a star when i know this is where we are you have plans and goals to achieve while i chase my stupid dreams down the drain most of the time but these mistakes they are me own i wont drag you down with me i will be a man, just you see when i come back i'll be a man with goals and plans in my own hands although i am going away i will come back to you some day i wont truly leave you. you know that to while ever you need me, i am there for you but for now we must go our seperate ways im sure to think of you every day i know this hurts, it hurts me to but when im down i'll write to you because i know you'll make me smile if only for the shortest while though i fear that while i am gone you will grow up and move on and i dont want that, not for you coz i hope you feel the same way to i feel like we are meant to be together someday cant you see i know not now, not even soon but i pray one day you'll feel it to for now i am happy as your friend im here for you until the end i made a mess, then made it right and i dont want another fight it got to me, drove me mad, to know that i had made you sad.

so there you go i said it all please dont make me feel like a fool i laid it out for you to see what you really mean to me

Timothy Hector

Three Little Words

I know I love you, but I'm scared
It would be easier if nobody cared How do I say those three little words?
You will surely say that's absurd

I want to shout it from the roof
But I cant, it is too soon I don't know if you feel the same But down feel down, you're not to blame

I made this happen by hanging on Though I couldn't walk, it was too strong It's only now I truly see What it is that we could be?

But these three words describe it best Or they could make an absolute mess I have to tell you, I can't hold it in
As I let it go, the pressure lifts and it begins

So much emotion has built up inside
When this is over I am going to hide
As I write, my breath begins to slow
I love you babe, more then you know...

Timothy Hector

Wondering

I Sit here alone thinking real hard about the lucky draw of my cards i found you in a real time of need a good friend i found, a true friend indeed

But lately it feels like more then just that A lot more to me as a matter of fact Idont know how, and i dont know why i just fell for you, so hard i could cry its not just physical its emotional to its not like all i want is to.... im not like that and to be pretty straight i havent thought about us in that way i enjoy your company and supporting nature though i fear i may be putting in danger our friendship by getting this out i wish i knew how you felt without a doubt

Though i know its pointless coz you are to young i just want the chance to hold you and say hun how was your day? Did you have much fun? but when we get close, you lock up and run but you know what i mean, all jokes aside its taken a lot for me to swallow me pride and get all this out on paper and print i just wish you would dropp me a hint as to how you feel about all of these scripts not knowing is like taking a hit to the face on a cold winter day why is it so hard for you to say one way or the other is all i ask for its so hard not knowing anything at all i know you say that you dont know all i want is a true blue, fair go i bear my heart and soul for you i just wish i knew what to do sometimes i wanna runaway from it all but i that would just make me a fool i would miss you to much, i need you around to keep my feet flat on the ground because i wander off the paths in my life you help me keep direction and my sight on the difference between wants and needs funny how you are both to me..

Timothy Hector

You Will Never Know

I just want to runaway and hide
Keep all these feelings inside
Don't show emotion as you walk away
Its only weakness, they'll ask you to stay

Waiting around will do more harm than good My only wish is that you understood That by holding on, you're missing out On better guys, have no doubt

I want to leave so you can be free
I just need you to know what you mean to me
But I can't find the words they're not in my head
"I love you" are the only ones unsaid

But to admit that I love you would break my heart Knowing that soon we will have to part So I guess in the end you will never know Just how much I do love you so

I just want to runaway and hide
Keep all these feelings inside
Don't show emotion as you walk away
Its only weakness, they'll ask you to stay
