Whisper Dawn(July)

random thoughts come into my mind. I write at the spur of the moment. I may not always live through my thoughts, but they still come out! Sad isn't all that is done, yet here it is, Voices from Inside.

A Good Day!

One hour would do To feel joy... to laugh for real To look and see a love for me Touch my eyes
Let them shine
To have someone really mine Yet I know and believe This is never for me Ask me why?
Fate I could say... destiny mine
I will live with this Forever my time...
No good day..... can ever be here to stay

Whisper Dawn

A Moment

There was a Moment
When I looked in your eyes... with just one look I knew your Love.
There was a Moment
When standing by you I felt the beat of your heart... and knew it was for me.
There was a Moment
When one touch of your hand... showed me your feelings of a lifetime.
Now the moments are lost
The Look I see is distant
The Beat I feel is slow
The Touch you give is hard...
 The Love you had is gone.....

Always

Always the hardest to do Always the longest to say Never spoke with happiness Never said without sorrow To let go more than any can want The spoken words of Good Bye more than any can handle

Always Me

Sit here
The time keeps moving Waiting almost breaks my mind What am I doing
It keeps rewinding
I take a step and then let go But when I look
It all turns back Why I put myself through this Every time I know
When I stop to see I see only me
Not lost
Yet going around Looking for something That just can't be found When do I realize that It has been here
This whole time
Sit here
Only trying to see Everything all around me Then I have to hold on Keep going strong
For when I do Look and see
It has always been within me.

Anger

Anger seems to be all I know This haze over my eyes red as can be You set this off Yet act like it was all me Screaming and yelling
This I want to let loose
Just to show you
All this rage
It makes me feel like I'm in a cage Holding down this raw emotion Only want to get rid of this anger and pent up commotion.

Apart

Midnight worries, sleepless thoughts
Now that I have you What do I do.
As much as I want to
As much as I care
I just can't let my soul bare.
To much past pain
To much loss heart
Now that you love me
I feel torn apart.

Ask You This! !

Okay let me ask you this...
And you can tell me why
When I felt as open as the sky
All I really heard were lies Too much time has past
So many lies flew fast Believing then
And trusting you now Just don't mix for two Who are lost even now
One moment was there Yes, I used to care Shoved and pushed Grabbed and torn Nothing left but Resentment born
When did you see How this can be
These are the words spoken
From a world broken
No longer do we move
In this life's same groove
So simple of thought Was what I had bought Not anymore
Can your so called love burn
My heart is now mine Forever free from your time!

Beauty

Beauty when I look at you Love with your eyes
The smile that I see
I know that it is from me
The morning that I saw you right there is when I knew you had my love without knowing My heart to you always and true.
My daughter....My heart
My child...My love
I know you were a gift from above

Blind

Blind and I see Lost and here I am Time moves slowly
Don't really want to let go Laughter to tears
Is there really any fears Breathe there it is My mind is now his....

Whisper Dawn

Blind To See

cold un-touched life not meaning much trying to breathe my soul screams
blind to see Why always me?
Who can I tell?
Who can I let really see?
tired & scared
Yes, this is me here...
My mind with no bound this life on the ground all say that you care Yet when I look- no one is there I am wrapped all about my world torn apart Now I look up and see Alone now-
Just Me

Breathe

When you know love is ended you feel a soul unmended A hole inside deeper than expected
All you want to do is fix it But some things are broke and meant to be that way Life is full of surprises each and everyday One life, that now becomes two makes you wonder Why it happened to you At the moment you feel loves burn, the fire still lingers and your heart my still yearn Nothing comes easy, ending even harder.
But letting go is a start for things to come better.
Just know that as big as the ache the soul stays strong and will not break Another time, More love to come Take a breath, breathe right in and when love comes let it in.

Bring On The Rain

Feel my heart thunder Watch my soul wonder test me I say feel the breeze come my way My eyes may cloud over This storm is just beginning Bring On the Rain..... but know this I will not except any pain
I will weather this thru Life moved between us the wind coming about I see thru it all and know I will not Fall Let the Sky Seek Let YOUR heart speak
Now its your time
What else can I say Give it all.....
The storm will pass by right before your eyes Smile cause I see No more lies will you speak
No more Love will be lost Let the storm come in For the night will be all the truth will show light So I'll say it again...
Bring On the Rain!

Caught

Moving away through the last took awhile to get this way thought no more was to mind then it comes faster than all time Let it go move it past BUT..... guess it happens and it all couldn't last caught right up before I knew now its here no moving away to let this go blind again to only see the past always catches up to ME.

Clearly

That voice does not match those eyes clearly nothing but showing me lies Trust no longer a consideration wonder how long you thought you would have my admiration your words say such nice things but one look to your eyes say more than your thinking Deceit comes in many forms the way you look is just proof you are one The sweetest smiles are the ones given with lies straight from your eyes.

Commotion! !

Crashing down hold my sight what can I do But Scream tonight
One by One
it all passes through Grabbing hold tight
I move and struggle Hope almost lost Then I look everything has a cost Once I knew before it was caught things will happen without a thought then I know and I see Life is never a set Emotion Its Built up with so much Commotion! ! !

Confusion

Life is what it is people say things that should not be said confusion spins you around always seems to end up on the ground who says getting up and moving on is what we should do cause this feels worse than just having the blues smile as much as you can and pretend the best lies are the ones given with the look of true eyes Knowing when to look and knowing what you really see is just about all anyone can ever hope it will end up to be.

Dark Whispers

The night talks again Dark whispers of my name See nothing... yet it all seems clear My heart gives up My mind so near My life touched with despair
So weak now here
I want to disappear Go with the night
Yes take me away
Close my eyes
I don't want to stay
The dark whispers I hear These seem more real Giving in.... for that is what I feel....

Endlessly

When you know... that even the hottest love Can run cold... when you feel... the never ending real When you see... that the light can turn so fast to night
When it all comes down... to that moment when your slammed to the ground...
Now to look up... Only if it was that easy To scream with no sound...
To see without looking...
To speak when no words are needed...
And finally to look in deep and know that it all is within reach...
The sadness may be here.... this dark may ride high...
Even the ache in the heart... is still a start...
To see that life always continues endlessly...
The time for need... is what you really want to see...
Then it can be clear... even the real...
Is only what your mind lets you feel...

Enough

Once was enough
No more time Never again will your heart Be mine
Not because I want it Not because I love you Only for the reason I just don't need you Love we may have once shared Our hearts anew
But not anymore
Cause now I don't need you Broken promises, loss dreams
All your lies just make me want to scream
You may say sorry
You may even mean it
But with my broken heart
I just don't believe it! ! !

Fall Between

Hear the silence
fall between listen to the noise no-one sees Speak of words now lost in this sound what did I expect why should I have been surprised You show no emotion no love of any kind Close my eyes hope to see maybe some where there is love for me Need I look at another for what you should be able to give Listen as I may I still can't live, not this way you put me thru For my heart deserves more than what you show more than what your heart is willing to let go.

Finally!

Say the words
You feel
For just thinking them They will never become real Feel the sun kissing your skin Know the clouds will blow away
No longer a cover you will need Just open up and receive Move right along with The warm breeze Laugh at yourself
And understand
To live like this Is just so close at hand Love what you know and feel Never doubt Or think its unreal
For once that moment hits And you are able to let it all in Then all this confusion with surely quit Take it as it comes For its Love that always comes out Number one and it shall be Your heart that finally has WON!

For Now! ! !

'I want you forever"
"No, want me for now" Love always ends Lets us begin Don't seek my heart Go with this spark Don't entrust your love Let it go in the dark Smile for me
Like this I can see To touch you and feel Your heat for me
Do not give your heart Don't tell me lies Let what we have
Be before our eyes
I don't want a surprise Look at me
What do you see Tell me this
And just want ME.

For You

I look at you I see my future of me
to hear your laughter... to see your smile...
I know there is life things are good.
My life is for you love like nothing else
The smiles that I see The look of your love without question My heart is for you the hugs I receive To you my Child..... your all I need.

From Above

Calm when I sense you warmth in the wind the feeling of light shining from within Never a doubt
I know you are there A love without question
A place in your heart
I look to the sky
I know that you see always at my side never to fear, never to worry A presence I feel A sense you are there For now I know you will always be here with me

Frustration

Crying Screaming Even shouting about Only to realize That all this is Being kept inside
How can one feel this way And still move through out the days
Madness
Seems so close Tell me now
To let go!
Words spinning
In my head Up and down
I can't seem to find A way around hold it in squeeze it tight yell and know its only me hearing this tonight shut in from all sight scream yell let it out builds right up to the top no more holding on clutching to yes this is Frustration
Without a doubt! ! !

Go This Far

I wake up everyday
I wonder who I am
Time and time again
Our love becomes the end Sitting here I think Am I really this weak Letting you get hold Of more then just my heart
My mind can take so much Its feels like its going to break How did I let go? Why did I give in?
I look to you and see ...
Nothing there for me...
We used to hold it all Love without this shake Scary now it seems For no longer are you here for me Lonely as the days go by Fearful as I see you slip right by Can't catch hold because its not What you want or no longer care To be.
I'm here alone with you here by my side
I only wish I knew how I let it all Go this far Without me even to realize Together we are lost No longer do we see The Way it all used to be.

Gold

Heart of gold...
So I'm told...
Smile in my life
This also taken in strife
A moment so soon Soul is like the moon Beauty to see
Yet only for me
Close my eyes
I want to let go of all lies Set if all free
And finally....finally let myself breathe! ! !

Good-Bye

one by one the lights go out still you see everything all around eyes not open, but heart split wide this is how it is to see without your eyes.
Heart felt wrong when its done how do you say good bye?
love does not stop it lives on moves your eyes straight to your heart this is how it feels knowing love will never die.
how do you let go knowing you can never see their smile, to hear their voice..... letting them leave....you were never given a choice just like that a moment is taken your heart just stops knowing....
never to hold them ever again only when you close your eyes will the image hold up pain afloat, can not think broke in two knowing they have left you gone above, with all your love hurts more to look around feel only these memories that can be found the memory holds dear, close to your heart wanting it to be real.
and now they tell you its time to let go hurts so much within a child so precious.....
How do you say good bye?

Hold

Light and illusion Mixture of the two My mind to confusion Sometimes this shows thru One moment of time
mere second to hold Tell me just once Let me get near Feel my heat and do not fear Sorry this is me
My love can be bold Yet here you are Close to my heart Whisper the words
What my soul wants to shout!

Hold Up High

For once was mine
I know was just gone with pride Not able to leave it be only know that never can I have you see
can only look to you with a sigh if my silence could shout or even whisper your name would it change for us or will it just be the same I can't go back I won't let myself go you are lost to me
For Once Was mine..... is not for me in this time.

How

Look and see
What you do to me
Highs and lows
All I want to do is let go Say you care, you say that you do But what I get is I am nothing to you How do you do it?
Move with no care
Make me smile, give me one look Three words and their you have me all shook How can you do it?
How can you live?
When here I am just ready to give.....

I Do

Two words that were suppose to mean forever ' I Do' Now all is broken in two your deception was more than I could take My love I could no longer fake Your actions always spoke louder than any words could Went thru my heart more than it should I believed you loved me with all you had Now I see my loving you was sad
As much as it hurts, as much as I still may care
It will never be the same here My love for you is now lost given up with such cost My heart I gave to you is broken....
But one thing I can say is my soul will never be your token.

I Thought.....

Ever wonder how things
Can be over in just one blink of an eye!
One minute your love can be all you want Than there it is....he tells you leave him alone He no longer needs your help Or maybe needs you alone.
Get my heart strong
This I know....
But yet there is always the between When you look and wish for That touch and look He used to bring Now it's done
This I know....
I tried to step up and be the one To be there for him the one with no judgment But then yes he says no longer am I needed
No longer does he care.....
Well damn
What the F@*#
Have I been doing here! !

I Tried....

Laughter to tears
This is what I always feared Love gone wrong
Words became so strong
My heart can no longer Keep hanging on.
I tried what I could My love just wasn't that good
I know in my mind this is a lie It was not me who couldn't hold on But you and your heart
That closed this door
And threw everything to the floor Now I see and now I will Pick my heart up
No longer will I hold the door For the love we had Is no longer anymore!

I Wonder

I ask but yet I know I wonder yet I understand knowing does not make it easier Our love I thought was everything the loss I feel is cold hard to move inside me knowing nothing said or done touches you You say you love me now But the look I see... I wonder how Love without meaning got my heart and let it go, tossed up and down Confusion now is all I know Now its time to let us go

Inside

Look out with my eyes feeling the wind blowing thru me inside Warmth of the sun on my skin feels like ice from within Hoping all this will past soon I hope and it will be the last The waiting takes the most time with each minute that goes by my heart aches deeper inside Some say take it slow, give it time I just wish I could close my eyes.
Wake up to a new life start Yes, I know our love is gone But its me who's left with the memories of our heart!

Inside Of The Night

Smile to see
I can't find it within me
I talk with no sound
No more light seems to be found Hope and I pray that some things will go away This time is hard Everything goes so long One moment to move always something to prove I know I should breathe let everything just be But when I close my eyes it all flashes by Can't catch it all so close to a fall Look up to the night wishing for the light Then to realize its just me inside of this night.

Is This Me!

Is this me?
What do you really see moving through this life Wonder why I scream inside Look around to what I see Then no more questions Will move past me My sky grows dark my ground breaks up I am spinning around Slammed to the ground Now tell me this What do you see
Am I the person You thought I would be Never have I lied
Nor have I ever tried You just wanted to believe What you saw was all I could be Without even realizing That deep down
You never really knew me
I was just what you wanted to see

It Stayed

Time to smile
For all will be new Moving on
For you Look and know Hearts will continue To show
To let this go
Is not hurt,
Not even close
The time was done
The pace moved fast
You knew it then It would never last Look inside, look in deep What it was
Was not for keeps Smile inside Because you feel Life moves on
For every thrill.
Love is there Just don't look away For then you'll see It never swayed Right beside you Has it always stayed!

Just Me

Time and time I see only
picture of me just here with nothing to hold but sometimes fear not of danger that you think just of life and being on the brink craziness may be of mind but I look around and feel it all the time Slipping In and Out Catch my breath before I am running about Look into my mind tell me how I can free it of all thoughts of this crazy times

Just Us

Walking under the sky wishing you will always be by my side I look up and see all the clouds sun shining down touching my hand wondering what should I say...
I look to you and I know that no matter what, you will stay I sit in the wind feelin it flowing over my skin looking up to the sky without any words I know you are mine -
just by that one look in your eyes Hearts are given and taken all the time
But with you by my side
I know the sun will always shine.

Key

I sit alone with this key Everything is blocked from me Close my eyes then to see All alone... it screams around me When did things get this way When did I let it all sway
My mind says this My heart says that Times like this I can't look back To look up and face the lies Takes more strength then meets the eye
I let you in, you turned me out Shook my heart all about To scream and let the world know
Is more then I can ever let show You shoved me here and grabbed me there Now here I stand with my soul bare.....
Tell me this and tell the truth Was I ever a love for you I sit here all alone
With my key for this room....
Locked and sealed is what I am No longer can I really move This sadly.... is what love can do.....

Knowing

Stinging of the rain falling down on my skin this is how it feels within Knowing its over, knowing its gone all I want is to feel the sun.
Open up wide let the rain flow, feel the wind blow just want to let myself go Ride with the time Feel the rain and wind blow this is how I need to cleanse my soul and let my love go.

Learn It Now

My thoughts cross over to you... once it seemed alone & blue, the night seemed always true, my heart passing right thru... to think the thoughts of hurting of two...
Then I realized it can no longer be you..
it's to yourself you have to be honest & true.... at times like this clouds come in,
the soul is low,
faith than shimmers, the light is slow,
the smiles you give refuse to show...
Now its the time to let it all go, move on by,
keep the pace,
learn its space,
For once you know its all up to you, continue on for there's more to your song... the time to move on has been here all along...
Push on thru,
the clouds will pass... the sun will come,
the light will show, thoughts of you will move on fast.... shadows like this never really last,
learn it now,
know its the truth,
Love is the song we all sing too.....

Least Aware....

Lost but yet I am here Scared but nothing's there Cold inside Wonder why the times Seem to search for me
How do you tell When even you can't find the words Let alone
I need to know Why the things that pass Always happen so very fast Slow is what I need Though not really a necessity Just enough time
To look at it all
And see why the feeling I have seems to take it all Not lost nor even scared Just that life sometimes Hits just when your least aware.

Lessons

Words of anger Words of spite
This right now is all my sight Not much more to hang on for Just let it linger without a fight Yes I know and even harder to think Yet there it went faster then a blink Go ahead tell me all Tell me all this will pass And nothing will fall Tell me the lies Before my eyes
Try to make me think there was more to do I tried it all, patience, hope and loving Then you know
There it went and there was nothing I could do Life moves on, time flies by, lessons learned I AM TOLD
But this one time I can not see What was there for me to learn and see Anger...spite...vengeance...though not quite hate.... Yet!
Things happen for a reason....
I am so tired to hear this So show me please
What was I to learn Cause all it seems was that I got burned! !

Let It Shine!

Time is now
To let it shine Feel the breath
Of the beat Heart got caught Before you could speak Closed my eyes to the time
Not of truth was there any hope for me and you Gone before it was even started Moments like this I wonder Why, I let you in For I knew it was but a breath inside nothing there to ever take Grab hold let it be what it was right then A beat of two who no longer knew where their hearts were at the memory only left behind
close my eyes
the touch will linger for a moment still let it shine
for now I know you could never have been mine.

Life Unbended

Blind
No where to see Just look inside Eyes might be open
But no sight there
To be spoken Better to see Within the dark All around me Moving Touching
No longer words
Can be spoken Give in to the light Hope it really makes it bright Life Love Pain Happiness
Words all spoken and heard before Connected in one way or another How many poems or written sonnets have there been That consist of it all together When do we know that one without the other Is always around the corner
We live and learn Move with life Times do come When things go wrong Wrong to some May be to others
The way life is So why do they bother Yes its hard and tough
And the need to be strong Is all needed

Yet sometimes Maybe once
We can live
Our lives with things unbended.

Listen!

So I said and I believed The damage of the heart Could no longer touch me Closed my eyes
Let myself breathe
Just one moment.. just letting go I thought I had it under control With that touch... even just that look The way it was Yeah kind of got my heart shook What was fun... now is done Still I shall look.... just not like that For it was this lesson That showed me again
My heart can open and still really listen....

Locked

Crushed and Hurt Chose not to stay Chose to let go.....
Getting this pain out.... the only way I know.
Want to be free want to move on.....
Grabbed my heart.....
Locked my soul.

Look To The Sky

Thru the sky I see Thru the wind I feel Thru our love I lived.....
In these last days I know Life will go on.
I will be Free.....
The pain will let go...
Look to the Sky.....
This I know - My Heart will heal...
My Soul will let go.

Look Up To The Moon

Feel the night Closing in Touch my skin
Close my eyes
Know that this darkness Mirrors me from the inside Look up to the moon
Wanting to hold tight Life is spinning so much Out of control
What do I know..
Nothing here seems Strong enough to catch hold This air of the night Is all around No way for me to let go now
I scream in my silence
To worried for it to be out loud Whispers come about
Is that me thinking out loud
Do I keep looking with eyes shut tight Let my soul go with what I hope is right
The moon shines down With so little of light
You can almost wonder If ever, anything will be alright.
Talk in the dark with no one to hear Is this what my fears come too
I feel the night closer each time No longer soft as the breeze as it used to be....
Look up to the moon
And only can hope One night soon
It may be only up to you Then maybe with strength
You never knew
The time will come When you will know
Along with the night

Comes the moon
That on its own Can shine bright and yes sometimes things can be alright.

Lost

Laying here lost wondering where I am I just seem not to be able to fight this feeling of anguish day by day it seems more set losing all thought of living like this Almost feels like I'm always walking the night Seeing the Sky but not knowing what to be How can such feelings become of me?
I breath Deep to try to let go it just all seems to be so slow I look ahead and wonder if this feeling of being lost will have much cost.

Love, My Son

Close my eyes
Then I can see The love you were
And used to be Smile crosses my mind
And hits my heart
I only wish
It can stop this shiver Close to losing Close to a break Someone tell me now Things can be ok
I don't want to open My eyes just yet.....
This what I see makes Me want things how they used to be Once I thought I knew Now when I look at you Everything in my life steps Through....I don't want to lose you.
My Son.

Madness

Fire burnt to light Madness thru out this night telling not to hate bring it all to date Once it was done it was pushed right on Think to only know Can't let this go Red before my eyes
No longer able to cry Forgiving can't be shown Not until all of it is known.....

Many Words! !

Look into my heart
The key is gone
What else can I do
When it comes to you Many hurts
Many words
Love lost in the dark
It was all thrown around
I have to let go
To understand That within I can be stronger
Then you thought I am Mistook me for someone Who would always be there Now look in my eyes For its my turn to Tell the lies! ! !

Maybe

Woken up by the sound of silence Heart broken without words spoken Lying here mind spinning, so many ways its going I know its time to go Lift the burden from my soul Time taken away why All you want to do is lie I loved you once, maybe still but time has to go on nothing stands still Love hurts without a touch Time may heal with much Until than and when I know The Silence is what I wake up too

Me Tonight

Looking to the Sky... my eyes shut tight Feel the wind flowing down my skin.. shiver of light grabbing hold tight...
How can I go on without you tonight
I know what I said
I may know what's right Still here I am holding you close to my mind Hear the sound of everything now Know its just me trying to be free....
Sing the song of the wind blowing soft and slow this I will know... as much as I want too
 as much as I care
you to me will always be slight....
Showing is one thing feelings can never be light... closing my eyes
this is it...
I will only let it be me tonight.....

Me Too.....

I sit hear and feel the emptiness That I can't let show
The need to be strong And be the one to hold Together without losing My control.
Yet I wonder to myself Can I do this without Scarring my heart Tearing my mind
So easy to let go Let it all fall Let my heart show
That yes, I am worried too
My emptiness needs someone Strong for me too
But then I see and I know that if I was to be the one to give in and let all my concerns bare
The other will truly give up And no longer care to be here How can I lose someone like that It will break my heart Build my anger and Yes my control will really fall apart
This is the time that it Must be me To show the strength between Us two.....yet
I sit hear scared and mad Unable to let it show.
Maybe soon there will be My time for you to see That its not only just you But also Me too....

Mixed Up

This touch I see more than I feel How mixed up this makes me seem I look to you for just a sign for a glint of love within your eyes I lay here through the night by your side
I feel the heat that used to be Bring it back don't want it to leave let the touch I feel be more than what I see....

Morning

My morning is here the day has now begun this smile I have is forever going my darkness is lifted the night pushed away
I see so much of life now days I gave myself a start never to let up-always move on I love you like always just not to your point I stopped that right at the moment before I would break Life is what it is
and always what you make it Always start with the Morning turn away from the night during the day everything will always look bright!

My Circle

I sit here in my shadow wondering what will follow times like this I see all around me that things are always moving I gave you my word and I only wanted to be heard You lost the courage to me left only the moment for worry I let you go.....for my Soul For to continue on sitting in my Shadow was never my idea of what my life would Follow.

My Days

Sad is all my days seem What am I to do when it really is only me Hanging on to what I can Knowing nothing else can lift the emptiness I hear all the time that things will be fine
But the way my days go I don't see it anytime
Just that its all slow
One person can tear so much and not care Without any touch
I was the one who left myself without much You were the one to hold my heart bare This will have to end and stop now I know now I have to move on
I have to let go
But one question.....Why did you hurt me so?

My Gift

Spring it near Stopped my heart
Just the first sight
Then you were there
A gift so special Nothing can compare My heart is all yours
From the moment
Of your breath
From the sound of your voice
To look of your eyes
My heart is yours What else can it be But a gift from above
My heart to my love
My grandson your there Right from the start
Oh Yes you had my heart! ! !

My Heart

One smile was all I needed
One look was all that mattered To touch you was divine To have you love me made my life Once I felt that was all I needed One love to keep me going....
Now there are no more smiles
No more looks to still my heart
The last touch I was given was the one to break my heart Some say love is a lifetime
Now I see and know Love can be over You just have know when its time to let go

My Love

One minute you are my child smile of my heart care free as the wind Now my love,
You are the one to bring me smiles without end
The gift you are giving me
The life none can compare My heart is full with so much love and care love to you my child from deep within my heart for now you will know the endless love given to one that I have known thru you by being your mother.
The life that you have is a gift
from above.
My child, My daughter for now you will be a mother with the same kind of love.

My Luck!

Scream! !

Listen to me

shouting without sound

anger without expression

Kept inside

Held up tight

When do I get pushed to the point of no return

Do I take it as it comes

Move on light

tell myself that life is like this

Yet I turn around and around and there are people who never end up on the ground

Show me the way that everyone else seems to play

Cause they seem to do okay

Just one break

just once luck needs to come my way

Hang on, roll with the waves of life

What I wasn't told was that these waves can take you under makes you want to just surrender

How do I keep on moving with so much being slammed through my door

When is it my turn to feel free

To take that breath and Open my door to look out and say Yes, My life is here

My life will be smooth.....

Who am I kidding

My Luck just slammed that door too! ! !

My Secret

Tears before my eyes Though to see them
You would have to Look inside
How can I tell you it all when I look at you things around me just fall I love you with more than my heart More then even my soul
This it seems you should already know You close me off Shut me out
You do not hear Even if I were to shout Complex for me is what I see and feel Only to be you nothing comes clear Love does not come easy for us two Even more difficult cause I really don't know If I have your love still My heart sits here at an edge Just wondering when you will Grab me back Or push me over My secret for you
Is that my love is my cover

My Soul

Walk thru the Night feel it closing in.
Look with my soul searching for the Light Need to find a way out Need to let go know once its gone... the sun will shine thru.
My heart will be light
My time will go on My love will let go My Heart without Darkness
My Soul full of light.

My Star!

Twinkle, twinkle
My star was born
So bright that night
Just one look and I was took You got my heart Smiles from every beat Just for you my sweet, Love so much beyond What I knew I could seek I love you without question
My heart to you without hesitation!
Swelled with so much pride Climbed right in took me by such surprise To look each day and know That you are mine to love Given as such a gift
I can hardly speak
I love you this much My grandson, my heart....
Smiles I have Always will be
From me to you....hold you so tight Love is so bright....you have become my light... this is what I call love at first sight! ! !

My Test

What more can I do
Is there anymore to say My heart's split in two Not knowing which way to take I look and only cry
I hold so much inside Losing this battle Which way do I turn How do I move now Who can be here Feel all around me
The cold seeps right in Despair will soon follow I know I must hold on Keep hoping For the best My life at the moment Seems more like a test.

Never

This I know...

life of dispute only brings the worst out hard words to come by and bring it back again-I'm sorry is never easy to say without the pride stepping in Forgiveness cannot be taken nor can it ever be giving out As much as we want to shout Never will it be the same unless someone steps up to try to make it right Hurt and regret mix and tangle tight Nobody said it was easy to keep the family up One broken ring in the chain Tears it all apart Nothing more to say or do but let it all ride out Step aside and watch hoping no one else gets hurt
What more can I say
But I wish things stayed the same...

Never Any Fears

Warm is the breeze that touches my heart Love so sweet its running all through me I smile to know this is our life Love so complete
We will never know defeat Stronger through the years
never any fears
For now we know and see Our love was always meant to be.....

Never Let Go!

I hope through all my days
To keep your smile from Going away Look and know my love Everything is given
Faith cannot let go No need to look
You just know Wait with open arms Holding away from harm Love for you is complete Never doubt or feel defeat Patience I shall say Never will it sway
This time we have is now
Life may go so slow
But this you should always know my heart for you will always show My love for you will never let go.

Night

The night was all it took for me to open up too look into your eyes and see what was in your heart Once I knew forever
Once I had no doubt Now when I see..... the feelings just come out Some loves just don't last Some hearts just break down Togetherness we once were is the past we are now.

No More

The Silence is louder than any spoken words Screaming without a sound two people once in love....
Now what was strong is barely hanging on.
No more sorrys or forgiveness just the feeling of it being all wrong.
Once two pieces that fit together now broken and split apart Never able to turn back Mourn the loss of two broken hearts

Now I Know

Time and time it goes The love we had now old.....
Not so much as in years just too much in tears..... love gone wild and free this is what we used to be.....
Love and time combined
...it was sublime..... now I look ... I know and see What you were to me.....
Smiles like no other Love was but a wonder.....
Years for now it seemed Time lingered there between you and me.....
Fading as we go...this for us Now I know....
I loved you like no other.....my space for you was here
I let you seep insidefreeing me of fears.....
I looked to you and was seen...
My heart wide open and free.....
And Now I know....
Our love we had is getting old....
Time can no longer be.....
Just for you and me.....
My heart was gone and sold....
This was me and you....
A love so very bold....

One Kiss

To hear the words to give your heart Just one kiss
To believe your thoughts.
To believe those words let yourself go let the love in.
One night you open your eyes than you realize.... that the look, the words, the kiss was nothing but lies.

One Time....

One Day....One Time
Soon as I can Love You.....
Soon as I can Feel the same.....
it will be better.
Love and Let go....
My Heart is so full...both Love and Anguish..... both at One Time.
Open my Eyes...
Open my Heart....
One Day..... And.....One Time.

Only Just Me

Times I scream
Though its only silently Moments of tears only for me to feel I look to the sky
asking why This time for me Seems so hard to deal Fate never takes a break
I feel so lost Feeling torn apart
I only want to take some hold Before everything forces me to let go Twirled all about
I want to scream out loud Need someone to hold tight Tell me things can be alright Who do I look and see?
For when I look in the mirror
There is only just me.....

Opened My Eyes

Should I wonder why Maybe I should have always opened my eyes Truth was there for me too see I guess deep down I didn't want to believe But too much talk, too much people seen No more denying what has been done
You are who you are Something I could never be Maybe this was your way to set yourself free Why the lies and the dectet
I don't understand Makes me mad that you used me to cover your lies to cover your truth.....
Now I know I can get over you.

'Over'

Death of two Incomplete Vain I see Over me Reconcile to never be Cry no more End for sure.....

This is it for you and me.....
No longer can we see beyond Our love is forever gone!

Pride

Try as I might things just don't seem right trying to let go, it's just so slow this hurting inside it has to subside
I want to just hide, but I have too much pride this hole in my chest does not give me any rest Wake up from the night
only to realize there really is no light I know when it's over
I know it's the end
But to my heart it seems not to bend everything I thought everything I knew gone with a blink with no time to think yes I know it's time to say good bye and let my heart know our love was a lie.

Reflection

I tell you this, I'll tell you now
You are my love
But not fully my heart Sad this is, oh yes I know
But you just can not control
The weakness of the soul
I once always thought Through everything we were You would always be here To listen to me and let me be
A love without question
Heart without hesitation
Yes it was given, and yes you took it Touched me deep and hurt me hard Tell me this now... is this not you But a simple complication....
I gave you my love
You took my heart
But once those words were spoken Everything was torn right apart Yes you are my love
But without my heart
It's just a reflection of my soul Going toward another direction.

Sane? ? ? ?

INSANITY SITS HERE BESIDE MY LIFE WAITING ITS CHANCE TO GRAB ON TIGHT DO I GIVE IN AND LET IT ALL GO
I CAN SLIP ON BY NEXT TO INSANITY SITS LOW AND BEHOLD DEPRESSION LAUGHING WANTING ITS TURN EVERY WHICH WAY
EVERY WHICH BREATH I FEEL IT CLOSING IN NOW IS THE TIME I NEED TO HOLD STRONG YES MY MIND TELLS ME THIS ALL ALONG
BUT WHEN I LOOK AROUND AND SEE IT ALL COMING GEES I WISH I COULD LET GO MAYBE MY MIND ONCE LETTING IT IN INSANITY AND DEPRESSION
WHO KNOWS..... IT COULD BE BLISS OR WATCH OUT BELOW! ! !

Shadows

Shadows fall all around feel the air coming right thru the ground I sit back and wait wondering when it will all break From the start I thought this love was true thinking only of my love for you I may have been blinded from day one closing my eyes from what was true My whole heart I gave to you Without a thought, without a doubt I thought I knew your heart Now I sit here and wait thinking how easy love can break All the wants I have Cannot make this love last it takes two hearts to stay as one When one wanders and slips away It leaves the other with an ache more than one can take Our love was Supposed last Not let go and slip away this fast Once I knew we were always Now I sit here in my Shadows waiting ...listening now too what may follow...
The ending now in sorrow...

Smile And Love

Smile to your eyes Love to your touch All I want to do is hold you so much Your laughter makes my heart light Your voice my life bright To see you go about no worries in your thoughts you run free from all doubt You trust with all heart
When I look at you I realize You are me from inside.

Soft Is The Sound

Soft is the sound
of your love letting me down I would have thought with the heart running deep the noise would be so loud but that is just what I hear inside of me rushing around The look in your eyes is no longer there Your touch on my hand is cold with no more care Love is beyond what we thought would always be Soft is the sound of our love ending now.....

Son

One little boy so full of life the smile he gives me the touch of his hand words that he tells me the most powerfull ever said 'Mommy, I love you! '
yes... He is my son.

Song

Once I knew a girl who started a song then she realized it was way too long At one time she would have kept it going letting it play without even knowing Now that she looks back and watched it play knowing that yeah- it wouldn't have stayed!
No-one knows when a new song will start just have to go with it with an open heart One by one the notes will play.....
 There its..... another song- for another day!

Spite

Spite Trusting without Lies staring at you Red looking about No this isn't the way Yes anger can make Anyone sway Suspicion Deception Runs around Looking at every Corner in the dark Mind spinning
With all this doubt Tight inside Words spoken
With a fight Loss of touch Loss of mind Letting up A reason not Able this time Count on days
To come and go Only to know That yes
This is ANGER Being held Inside.....

Sway

Sing a song... let's move this along...
My life sways.. my mind tries to fade away Even those words can't make me stay Not spoken of the heart
Not sure where to start Truth you say... but your eyes look only to play
There are words told... that need to be bold And then again.... when I'm close... silence is what you show most Tell me now... show me how That what I see.. is really what you want to be?
I won't let go.... but I won't say yes Things unsure... are too big of a test Even the strong can get their hearts wrong
This is my reason To never get close Too much trust... can cost much Step on by... if all you want to do is tell lies My life.. a heart broken... loves past token Now move on... for this is now my song..
Even I know love can last for only so long...
Or show me the notes... the words to hear That can prove me wrong...
That sometimes there can be a long lasting song

Sweet.....

Sing to me this Song
Let me feel your love so strong Tell me always and true it will be me and you...
Love can shine thru it all never let us fall..
Hold us with your heart loving me can not be wrong for I have loved you for so long....
One thought I will always know Loving you is mine too own.. feel the song you sing
I want it to always be for me.....

Swept

Swept with anger
Mixed with thought
Now I know things really are not!
What you think nor what you know Hold it inside within me Yelling without sound Trying to hold my head up high When I really want to just lay down
Time and time again
I have dealt with this with no end
What more can I do
What more can I say
You are the one who gave it all away!

Sword

One by one
all is said and done forgiveness can be pushed so far family is not it at all shaken with such fury knowing it only makes more worry wrath and revenge does not bring peace nor will it ever bring any relief blood is blood though some deny move on with it deep inside hate can only be a word do not let it be the sword that ends your mind free it up let go in your time

Tell Me? ?

Tell me that things will turn ok Tell me that these lies will go away Tell me that nothing said is true Make me want to really believe you Jealousy makes the worst come out Fear turns everything about How can people be so mean?
Don't they understand?
The confusion they bring With the words they so Uncarefully ring
As good as I want to see That everything they say Is just not meant towards me Yet it hits like a rock Straight to my heart Callousness – disrespect
How can I look at it all
And make my mind not fall
I know this is their way To try to bring us down Hang on and let it ride through Please someone up there Help me too! !

Test!

I wonder....how much can life test you with? ? ?
I wonder....is this the best its gonna get? ?
I think for some reason my life is getting set up..... good or bad.....I don't see the outcome....
Surprises everyday.....scares always coming my way..... have patience I tell myself....what else can go wrong.....
I know I have so much to be thankful for....these things I do thank God..... but for some unknown reason only to him..... he's pushing me.....I just hope I can hold up....for me and my Family.....
God if you are there....can I have a hint on what it is you see for me? ? ? ? ?
before I really break down into some kind of INSANITY! ! ! ! !

The Breeze

Listening to the sound of the night Knowing everything is alright
The breeze touching my skin Feels like the night is talking again I look without needing to see I know without needing to be told That the love you have for me Is forever mine to hold.
Our lives are now one, my heart is now yours.
You give me strength by just being by my side.
Together is for us, our life is our start Forever we will never to be apart For now we have love with both our hearts.

The Dark

Look into the night seeing the dark feels like a picture of my heart loving you without caution letting my love show wanting only one thing for you to love me so How do you not see it?
the look on my face each time that you tell me your heart is in another place you say that you love me Yet when I try... all that you give me is nothing but lies.

The Field

The field we walk seems never to stop Different paths everywhere you turn When one is yours to learn.
Left or right never wrong Front or back either right Walk the choice you feel deep inside Never doubt the way you go The path we pick isn't all we know the way we walk thru it Is our life that we are destined to Know.

The Life

Lay down feel the surface push down let it go so you will know life isn't always this there is always more to know Push on, Move forward your choice is always your own Stand up, Break free let go with no fight The Circle is always going on right Take your place Run with the pace Let yourself in Do not feel any fright
This is what we call LIFE.

The Moon

The Moon moves up away then you know she's here to stay light too see with your heart feel this force with all thought Love the embrace you know is there Smile to feel it every where The Moon may seem all still and calm yet inside there's much too feel Shine down for this is so real.

The Rain

Wake up to the sound of rain thinking of you with a heart full of pain knowing your gone without a thought wondering why I am left with an empty heart Love burns and fades right before my eyes remembering us now I know it was all lies How I believed when you said you were true now I know your love made me a fool Now I see with eyes wide open□ letting go so my heart will heal days will be slow nights will be long One day soon I know I will be strong the hurt cannot last - it has to let go How else can I look at you without this haze over my eyes Sound of the rain to wash away..... to wash away the lies.

This Is Life! !

OK NOW I SEE VERY SARCASTICALLY
MOMENT TO MOMENT
BEFORE YOU KNOW IT EVERYTHING SEEMS BENT LIFE IS LIFE WHAT ELSE CAN YOU DO WHEN IT IS COMING RIGHT AT YOU TAKE A STEP FORWARD
THEN GET PUSHED ON BACK KNOWING ALL THIS EFFORT CAN BE JUST A SET BACK
GLIDES ON BY WITH NOT A CLUE TO ANYONE'S EYE
WHAT WE TAKE DEPENDS ON YOU NOT JUST FATE
MOVE WITH SPEED LIFE AT TIMES GIVES YOU ALL YOU NEED

Thunder

Sitting here not alone Times like this makes you wonder What the F! *#
Is causing this thunder
But then to think Then to know What it is
Is all for show
Time to move And time to go Here we are Not of anger Just shot through With no luck to cover Yet we look with pride
And make you all wonder For fortune may not be here too linger
we will always be here to make the world Thunder! !

Time

One day when I saw you I couldn't believe how you knew just from one look words spoken right thru One moment of time
One second out of life
From that time on I knew you were mine

To Begin! !

Thunder of life Crushes with sound Flashes of mistakes
Are always found Move with care
I will always be here Time does not go Everything moves so slow Look into the sky Wish my life can move on by As much as I move
As quick as I try to catch One look from above
And there's my shove Twist and turn
I most likely will get burned Dizzy from the speed What else do I need?
Holding my breath in tight
I look
Only I can't find the light Now I lay here in the dark Feel my heart with its spark The thunder comes again Flashes of my life move in....
Now I hope and breath in Hope its really my time to begin.

To Live

Emotions become me
A lot more than they should Letting go the anger Let go of the past
Time to move is coming at last One day at a time is what I am told Yet when I wake up its still something I hold Anger and upset is all that you give Time for me to let go now and continue to Live.

To Remain!

Do you see me like I want to be seen When I'm close to you is it all me?
do you want me like
I want you....
The fire starts when Your near...
Lingers more when You disappear...
Do you feel it when We get close
The tension that needs
More than words
To be spoken
The touch that I want
The love that I need
This is what I want you To be for me....
Is that to much?
Would this be what is called passion and lust?
Can you see when you are near That its you that I want for me.
Call me selfishcall me vain
But you to me are the only one I want in my heart to remain! !

To The Sun

Look to the Sun Feel of the light Knowing you're beside me Thru this life
No words need be spoken
The touch of your hand express' more than words can
The look in your eyes
The smile you give me
That feeling of undying love
The knowing of forever....
Look to the sun!

Today

Today is a lifetime your eyes shine with light To look at your smile one love from sight Yesterday a beginning hearts beat as one
the touch of your hand
the meaning of life Tomorrow forever
a love without end.

Told Me

You told me you could never...
I believed it was forever...
I thought it was always you and me it all seemed like a breeze Smiled like nothing could touch....
But wait....it did break with such....
Now I look with eyes wide open Yes, I know my heart may be broken But life goes on, the world still spins Just so you will know....
Your not the only one who wins!

Turn Away

Reflections I see My mind tries not to scream
What I know
Isn't always what is shown
Close my eyes
Don't want to hear anymore lies Turn away
Pretend its all okay Refuse to look Refuse to pass Then I see Right into the glass Cracks appear don't want despair
I scream inside
Get out of my mind Look away
For this is how my Life plays.....
Wake up now Grab hold tight Let there please now be light
"Depression is what I fight."

Two Words

One word when I see you A jump of the heart
The love of the begining
The feel of the start....
Two words for a life time the look of forever...
Our hearts are begining Love from the start

Uplifted! !

I will talk
I will scream Maybe my tears will Come down like a stream But no matter what is said
My life for now
Will be for me!
Time unspoken Words spun around Lift myself up from this ground!
I look up above
And I know
There is something Always for me to know Never a question
For when its there Its no doubt My life is now
My heart mended
My soul uplifted
My smile is mine
The laughter to hear
The sound so divine Accepting it all
No longer going to fall
What can I say How to explain
This is my shout Love from above Will always shine down!

Walk Alone

Walk alone
No one to hear Closed inside
I so want to hide Run Take it away
Time moves so slow
No more to say What more is there to do Look to the night
This is how I see Even when its light
My dark holds tight
My life seems like this fight Looking at both sides
What else can I see Reaching out Can't shout
Who will hear For I walk alone
There may be some light
But here my dark still holds me tight.....

Was It All

Was it all Such this way Despair.
Sadness weakening Madness hitting My mind splitting
Beyond repair...
Life's breath Blowing away
How did I let it get this way
look and know no matter which way I go this grabs me inside not wanting to let anything slide I scream and I cry
But its still here
Holding on tight
I wish everything
Can be alright.
Blackness is in front of my eyes
No longer do I want to see all the lies Peace may not be what this is Yet when the dark is lifted The pain comes crashing by Strength is not what I seem to hold This life seems so close for me to let go One word I would love to hear,
One phrase to make it all clear Yet I do not imagine to ever hear Wordless shouts only come out What I need is for you to hear My soundless cries
The look in my eyes
What can I do.....
When no longer Do I want see or even be Close my eyes for all times.

Was It Real

without a word.

Once I Knew....

without a touch

Now I wonder was it Real

That look, those words did it really mean the truth did I really matter.

Your actions show it was never....

So tell me how can I love you forever.

Who Knows!

Life moves beyond Makes your thoughts Linger out of control
One direction can be said Then another can be led What comes about?
May come around Then you wonder What was it all for?
Confusion
Is a giving
To say the words
And ask the questions Full circle Full life
What does it really mean But making it without To move with care Slow if you dare
What are these thoughts
What is the meaning Spoken aloud Words so bold
I just don't know Life is this Commotion
Confusion
And sometimes
So much combustion.
What does this mean?
Who knows
Words come out Getting put down
And there you go Just another poem! !

Why I Care

You say you love me
Honest and true
But with what all you put thru How can I believe you?
More than I want to
More than I care What I really want is For you to leave here
When I stop and think Of all the past times
What was I doing!
I'm just listening to your lies!
Why do you do this time and time again OR maybe I should ask myself
Why should I even care!

Wish

Scared and don't know why I want so much to feel look out from inside wish it could pass by I want to look and know through above and below you will be there for me.
Love given without hesitation soul mended without question My eyes want to see all I can keep words run deeper than ever spoken The ache of so much emotion Scared to really open my eyes Look and really know.....
My heart will not be flown Keep it close to you never let me go.

With My Eyes

I sit here with my eyes closed feeling this dark is it inside me or rather there and I'm blind because I don't want to know My life seems to be moving so slow I feel lost most of the time just wanting to open my eyes and find someone there just for me why must it all seem so shaded inside I need to let the feelings go So many ifs, So many maybes
Can someone change for the right reasons or is it all a myth we all portray and carry in our last hopes to live on our way.

Without A Thought

There was a time when I knew your heart without words There was a time I felt your love without thought I looked and knew your soul without asking.

Now I see the emptiness with no caring Our love is lost in the dark My heart is gone with no words our love is ended without thought

Without Sound

Laughter your music Smiles your song
The look you give more than a thousand words long The life you have so special and true Innocent without knowing trusting without asking loving without question.
The ways of a child more precious than knowing

Wonder

Wonder why all the time it felt like stings and pains tears like rain once I believed it was done never would have thought I was alone Time came by than I knew Your words were nothing but wind in the air Enough to let my heart care Games was all it was Made me want to believe you Once again...
I let myself go time went by then you showed that to you I was only your fool
The right words, the right looks and once again I got hooked....
Wonder why I let my heart go now I know for you it was all for show.

Words

Words that scream.....without a sound words that say more than what was meant We blame without thinking we hurt each other without meaning Caught in the middle not knowing which way to go Hard to say what we mean Hard to say what we know Words used as weapons to push away our love Yet deep inside we know its not over our pride just gets in the way Not one to give in Not one to show.... just keep going hope it will let go Before we realize, before its too late Stop and know words can be spoken that hurt like a knife Tear the heart and break the soul Yet we both know inside that love is there or maybe we just don't know how to let go.

You Are Mine

The Day that I saw you
The love felt from my heart
I knew you were mine
Right from the start.
The touch of your skin
The look of your face Gleam of your eyes
I knew you were mine.
Love without words
The moment I held you Nothing could compare
The feelings I knew
You are my child
You have always had my Heart

Whisper Dawn

You Are.....

You are my smiles my joy without sound touch of all senses this feeling I have fills everything in me
from the sound of your voice to the blink of your eye to that look that you give My heart stops with each beat filled to the limit you are what I see For every moment I have you
The world spins free.
Love without Question-Mother and child.

You Laugh

You laugh when I see you Your smile just breaks my heart Yet all I feel is all the love you have to give You run with no care Knowing I will always be there I love to see you play
So innocent where ever you stay Free spirit is what you are My love is what I give From my heart to yours
My Son, from the day you were born! ! !

Your Glass

Smile for me
For I know I'm Not what you expected Me to be Looking thru your glass
I'm not what I was in the past Perfection you say...
It just never swayed my way Broken it became My mind is just not the same
I am not some picture
You really want to frame
I smile and laugh
I cry and get mad
Yes, even I can be sad!
Life for me is not Really that bad!
Yet, here you are Judging me from afar
What did you expect?
Me to just let you come in
Be the one To not let anything show Be your glass Without any cracks
I am what I am
This no longer can get me down
The way you want me to seem Is just not what I want to really be I'll be here like always My smile right here
If you can't understand Then move on fast
For unlike you
I will not live in MY past! !

Yours

You were the first to know my heart to touch my soul your promise to me to always be here your the one who knew without asking to hold me without demanding The look I see...
The feeling that I know... all comes from you to me yesterday our begining today is for always... your love from you is mine My life for you is yours.
