Agreed Sister I Agree

Agreed sister I Agree

Are you awake?

Aye Aye Agreed!

Will you play with me?

Aye Aye Agreed!

Can you come with me?

Aye Aye Agreed!

When will we leave the house?

Aye Aye Agreed!

Sister Sister listen please!

Aye Aye Agreed!

Is that all you say?

Aye Aye Agreed!

Must I sit here and sigh?

Aye Aye Agreed!

Agreed sister I agree.

All Is Done

Sun gone down
Day is done
Moon gone up
Night is nigh
Stars in the sky
Light is gone
All is dark
All is done

Adella Banes

Bridge To Light

Dare I make a step
Dare I take the leap
Scared as though I am
Scared and I will creep

For before me spans a bridge

Can I cross the Connection
Can I Walk across
Afraid as though I am Afraid and I will make the toss

And at the end is light

Might I see the ending
Might I End the Dark
Fearful as though I am Fearful and I'll Embark

And, I made it.

Carnation

Carefully blooming
Artfully reaching Regally Rising
Never giving in Adroitly blossoming
Tenderly growing
Indefinitely learning
Owing but to the sky
Nigh the carnation has bloomed

Circle Round

Bygone bygone
Day is done
Circle circle
Circle round
Night then day
Day then night
Bygone bygone
Night is start
Circle circle
Circle round
Night then day
Day then night
Stars above
Grass below
Running, racing
Watching glow
Blue sky
Sunshine
Bygone bygone
Day is start
Circle circle
Circle round
Night then day
Day then night
Night and day
Circle round
Day then night
Circle round

Dreamer

The world is devoted to your dream
Your dream their greatest pleasure
Accomplishing your greatest wish
To all would be a pleasure

Kings and Queens from different Realms
Bow and Curtsy to yo Lords of forgotten Nations
Are out For your dream to Pursue

And now a dragon you have fought
You've been rescued from a tower
All of this for the one thing you've got Your great Dreamer Power

Loved by all and Despised by none
The world looks up to your tale
And do all Know your name
To your dream to what you owe You will succeed or fail

And now you're there
In the sun's Ray and Beam
You've made it to your goal
But all's not real, so wake up from your Dream

And now against your wishes
Your in the real life's Streamer
But go on you always will do
Cause' your a real life Dreamer

Gallop

A bird flies a fish swims
As the horse gallops by Down the track
Down the road
Like a arrow shot from your bow
Majestic, Regal, Intelligent
Cross-country
Across the plain
Like a spear thrown from you hand
Like lightning across the sky
The horse gallops by.

Iris

In the day
Rise to the sky
In the sun
Sleep by and by

Adella Banes

Lilly

Longing to uproot from its soily bed
Inertly staying in this place instead
Loitering for its time
Lasting to be set free
Yearning for a time to walk with you and me

Little Things

Small and tender
Brief and humble
All the world
Can walk or stumble
But small things
Can leave a mark
Just little love
In a little heart
Little little things
Can make a lot of love
Just a little hug
From a little person
Just a little kiss
From a little child
And a small deed
A prayer to the lord
Is just as great
As the greatest reward
Just a little kiss
A kiss for your father
A little little love
And a little little thing
Can make the whole world
Can make the world sing
small and tender
Brief and humble
All the world
will walk and stumble
But inside my little house
Peace be love
And sleep be rouse
But a little thing
so great a little thing a little little gesture that will never douse
just a little thing
Is inside my little house.

Loves Anger

Cross and Silent
Indignant pride
Stiff straight back
Stiff straight stride

Quiet words
Deliberate force
All around angry
All around Corse

Snide remarks
Angry and rude
Quiet stay silent
Quiet stay glued

Twisted words different than said
silver tongue changes
Sliver tongue does tread

Mad manner
All gone trust
Simply done to anger
Simply done to rust

Far and Easy
Never came back
Starting to crumble
Starting to lack

Forgive and forget
Never I say
Sorry, I can do
Sorry, I may

Over and under Under and buck
Side to side fixes
Side to side Luck

Peace be made
Through and through
I will forgive.
I will to you.

-Love is eternal
It stays in your heart
Never let it slide by Never let it be ripped apart

Mountains Of Despair

I stagger through the night
And day past day
Arms sore
Legs numb
Hope faded
My Faith has fell away
But through the fog that fills my brain
A tiny insistent voice
Yells at me and says

You are in charge
You know the way
Yet you falter still
Push on you great slacker
And I know that you can
Get up this pathetic excuse of a hill

I gather strength for one last shove
And I push past the pain

I walk through the night
And day past day
Arms tired
Legs bruised
Hope destroyed
My faith is torn to shreds
But through the cloud that fills my mind
A small adamant voice
Yells at me and says

You are in charge
You know the way
Yet you falter still
Push on you great slacker
And I know that you can
Get up this pathetic excuse of a hill

I pull together my determination for one last push
And I thrust past the hopelessness

I Run through the night
And day past day
Arms dead weights
Legs unfeeling
Hope gone
My faith has shattered
But through the despair that fills my head
A little encouraging voice
YELLS at me and says

You are in charge
You know the way
Yet you falter still
Push on you great slacker
And I know that you can
Get up this pathetic excuse of a hill

I am Exhausted gone defeated but I must slow down still

I round up my courage for one last thrust
And I reach the top of the Mountain

I have reached the peak of My mountain of Despair
And the beauty I witness
Was worth the long haul
I have climbed my mountains
Night by night and day by day
I endured the pain
Soon I will leave and climb another mount
But for now I stand firm and square
For all my troubles are gone gone are all of my Mountains of Despair.

Night Tonight

Starry Sky
Moons bright beams
Grassy field
Insects loud Chirps
Nights Darkness
Dim, Inky black
Fullest moon
Beauty to sight
Under the stars
Camping tonight

Adella Banes

Nights Beauty

Never so pretty
In thousands of years
Gone the sun down
Hence night is nigh
The sun is gone the moon is here
Stars sing for we all see

Beauty on earth
Entering the sky
Apon earth
Under beauty so high
Terry we not though we love it quite Young are we still but not is the night

Adella Banes

Rainbow

Red to Yellow

Orange to Blue

Rainbow runs over

Across and Through

Adella Banes

Rose

Rightfully beautiful
Outstanding in light
Stunningly pretty to Everyone's sight

Adella Banes

Sky Stream

Graceful ark
Lights Color Beam
Red to violet
And a Golden Gleam
Orange to Blue
And a Color Scheme
Yellow to Green
Across the Sky is A Rainbow Stream

Adella Banes

Small

One smallhug
One smalllife
One small child
One small kiss
One bigger one
One little person
One little house
One little room
One little sister
One older one
One tiny joy
One tiny baby
One tiny meal
One tiny love
One larger one
One giant faith
One giant book
One giant picture
One giant prayer
One small one

Adella Banes

Sunrise

Pink and purple
Yellow and green
Fill the sky
The world does sing
Light fills the morn
The birds start to fly
The world does wake
The sun does rise
The sunrise fills the sky
Wake wake wake wake
Wake and face the sun
Dawn pierces the sky
the wonderful Sun is nigh
Lights first rays are there
The sun does rise
The sunrise fills the sky

Adella Banes

Thunder

Storms in the sky
Lightning Cracks
Thunder Cries

Adella Banes

Train Tracks

These train tracks lead into the sky
These train tracks wind really high
This train rides in to the clouds
This train ignores normal bounds
Those train tracks pass into light
Those train tracks run out of sight
That train to normal rules does rebel
That train says farewell.

Adella Banes

Waiting Always

One and one are two
All about and right
Two and two are four
Just beyond my sight
Three and three are six
Joy and Great delight
Four and four are eight
Almost when its night
Five and five are ten
We out to do invite Six and six are twelve Unto the days highlight
DING DING BONG BONG BRING BRING! ! !
School is out and I
Take Flight!

What I Wouldn't Do For Love

Love is the thing that keeps you awaking
Keeps your breath going Keeps you from breaking

Love is the force that keeps you going
Keeps your heart beating
Keeps you from slowing

Love is the matter that keeps you from stopping
Keeps your life's meaning
Keeps you from dropping

What I wouldn't do
Keeps asking over and again
What I wouldn't do for love
What I wouldn't do for you

Adella Banes

Wondrous World

I wake to see the colors
Stream through my window wide
The colors dance and twinkle
And spin on a joyous ride
And wondrous thoughts fill my head
Oh they run through my mind

I run through my yard
Fleeing captivity
And to the great outdoors and the great outdoors sing and call to me
And wondrous feelings fill my head
Oh all the sadness does flee

I sit on the sill
Of my window pane
Wishing to just be free
But I still must sit and still refrain
And wondrous smells fill my head
Oh all the gladness I must feign

I walk happily down the street
Rain pouring on my head
All the sadness I feel
Leaks as the skies have bled
And the Wondrous sights fill my head
Oh all the greatness I have misread

I sit my back against a tree
When finally it hits
The world is great oh great
And sunshine does the sky admit
And the wondrous world does fill my head
And all beauty of the world does fit
And all beauty of the world piece by piece does fit
