A Dark Land

As I walk through the shadows of dark land
I ask myself
Is this land the one that takes me to the earth's truth?
But wait!
There is a sound I could hear beneath my foot
Don't know if gone mad of too much darkness,
Or if it's just a dream of nightmares
But then,
Everything vanishes
And I woke up crying
As I see I am crying
I come to think
Why I'm crying? ,
Is not like anything happened to me.
And I notice in that moment of despair,
That my nightmares would never end
Cause the real world,
Is the nightmare I live in.

A Drop Of Blood

If there was a dropp of blood,
For every moment we spend apart
I am sure it won't be any left
Cause the cause of us being apart,
Isn't something I can't change
But the things that keep us together long ago,
Was just the past
Cause the present,
Will not allow us to stay together
Even though I look for answers,
To keep us among those who we love
There was no way I could of done it,
Cause our destiny is the one that take us among our roads
Now I am the one standing,
Just waiting for answers to show up at my face
Cause I know there is nothing to do,
But wait
And as I listen for a sound,
Or something to show up
I see that I must go on
And forget the past

A Wonderful Place

Nights passing by Winds pushing me through Feels like never endings
Just keep on going
Never going to stop,
But one place
A place that makes me joyful
A place where everything changes,
For something wonderful
There is no way better things to do,
Than this Times might go on
And things might change
But this place
Will always be the same

Afraid Of Darkness?

Somehow,
I feel this fear,
That tracks me down in the nights
You could hear
The crusting sound
And the wind blowing as the wolves howl
But that's not it
You could hear as if someone were behind you,
And even though you try to hide
They'll still follow you
You don't know why or who is it
But you run until you are at the light
You think you are safe
But next time,
It hunts you again

Beast Of A Lifetime

How beautiful are this prime times
We turn into beast at night and humans at dawn
It bares a moment
Just the time where love don't lie in its eyes no more
It turns into this beast even in the day
Cant seem to handle itself no more
It rips into the flesh and lets the blood drip from it's lips
There is no remorse in what it does and sorrow seems so far away from its mind
The heart is never content
So its thirst comes for more
The night seems so endless and the howls turned into growls
It's truly a lone wolf tonight
And this beast scraffles right through him
I stare at the eyes of a dead cold killer
So prudent and rowdy
Left only with the fur to coat around it's body from the cold harsh weathers
The moon lights it's path to a sleepless place
So tonight it would prey on the weak

Believing Of Love

Believing of love

Love tha I used to think it's true

It was just another lie

A lie that turned me crazy, believing that i loved you

Everything was wrong

Another mistake I did

Cause the love I had for you, was just pure confusion for me

I still felt something for you, but i only knew that's just a dream, wishing to be for real

And the magical love

It's gone to some others person's thoughts

Cause ' I no longer, ' will fall through the broken glasses of love

Bells Of Life

Bell rings
And birds rises high up in the sea
Nothing is aproching,
But the swealling of my pain
Ding-Dong
The bells sang, but forgot what to love
Ding-Dong
And my time is gone, before my eyes
I remeber those times that my heart ache
And now i don't know what to feel Hoping for a clue
I try to move on without a word
And those wonderful times that i got, seems like it's never worth it Cause my life has no limits, and the time don't seem to matter no more
All I had seen, had just vanish through time
And the matters of my hope, would never come back cause what i live in,
would never change

Fear

I come to fear, something that I should have
As I come to face it
I froze and stood there without a word
I try to speak
But the words in my voice was gone
I see that I can't over come it Cause my whole body was shaking, and my heart is pounding louder that i could almost hear it at the palm of my hand.
And there
There they show nothing else, but the madness they've created inside themselves
I try to run
But it was too late, almost as if they created a wall behind me to keep me from running
I was stuck
Doom to my end
Scared like a mouse trap in a cage to strange world
And after a heart attack they gave me
They let go
I start to walk away, but not run
Cause i see that my fear was just another way of being confuse

Find Your Way Through

Look into my eyes
What you see is nothing compared to what I've been So many things I've missed
And so many things I could off prevent
But no!
I didn't do anything,
All cause I was afraid
Now there is nothing that will ever scared me again
Cause I will fight back Back for the things that I love
And I will find my way
The way that I should off taken long time ago
So I could stand there,
And wish things
But it will never come true
Cause only me
Could make my wishes come true
Now
It's time!
Time for me to open a new way across my life

Hit

Everything it's done
There is nothing left to do
' Click' 'ick'
Every memory,
it's just another way of saying sorrow
Everything is left in the past
All the pain
All those thoughts
Come at once
Everything you thought you knew, are now useless for you
You see what you must do
And the chances come to switch your life, by saving the other
There
'Boom'
Someone is bleeding
Lying the floor
You realize you've been hit
And for your last breath
You hear people coming Crowding around you
And the ambulance comes in the corner of the street
' Wee ' ' Uh ' ' Wee ' ' Uh '

If I Were To Find U

If i were to find u
but the love of us have been lost
What would u do?
If my time has come to an end
Would u love me?
I don't know
But what i know is that u were for me
Sometimes love is a forbidden curse
And there is nothing to do
And the winds blow hard to keep us apart yet that doesn't stop me cause i know,
I love u
And there is nothing in the world that would take us apart would take us apart

Love

i could hear the time ticking, but everyday feels like the time has stop, and the love has left me.
i can't tell no more,
if i was meant to love, or to live on through sometimes i think of u, but don't know if i cry for u i try forgetting u and as time kept passing i felt like i could never leave u the worse thing is, that we could never be

Open My Eyes

Finally! ! !

The winds that use to be lost

Came back

My life has return! ! !

After all this years of rage

And misery

My life has came back

I could scent the aromas of life

I finally could rest in peace on those green grassy reeds,

Smelling those bushy red roses,

And hearing the birds' melody

Now I could behold everything

I could learn to love again

My life is starting all over again

All cause someone recent open my eyes

It took me soreness

And frustration to see something new

But Now I got it

My life is finally back

Pain

As I sit here in this astonishing night
I feel pain
I come to think
Those things are never the same after u move step
I felt those who suffer
I see that every minute of my life is never the same Sometimes I see the worse
Others I feel the empty dark hole that has filled up my heart
I could hear it every time
Less and less
Until there is a point where the love, and child inside me is gone
I feel nothing more
But this senseless thing that I can't describe
And everything is gone right before my eyes
Those who sees it
Can see nothing else,
But those empty eyes that use to be a child,
Before it turn nothing but gloom and confusion
I tend to walk to forget
But that's not enough
You never feel it yet, but u know it

Parts Of A Clock

Everyone moves when the handle of the clock runs
Some move a bit slow
But for me I let everything pass through me
I have no time
And I certainly wouldn't follow the crowd
Cause who I am,
Doesn't matter
Cause who I make myself out of it, is what counts the most
I see the pains of others
Revenge maybe
But what kills me the most
Is the shadows of darkness that it contains in some people
I hate becoming one of them
But they have a very contagious viruses
And so
I became one of them
Never knowing what I do
Or the reasons why I do them
I try to snap out of its cursive evil spell
But I couldn't
And now I stand among others
But never the same
And with a evil smile on my face
You guess what gets them

Something You Don't See

Darkness

Misery

Hatred

All I see it in your eyes

It's almost like there is nothing more you care for,

But the hatred that keeps growing inside you

And every time grown-ups look at u,

They can't tell anymore who you are

Every time kids look at you,

They don't know your style

Are you emo?

A tomboy?

Or poseur?

What are you?

But not even yourself knew who you were

All you care for was the hatred that keep growing

More

And more

Inside you

It's like It's never going to be stop to it

As for now

The only thing you see,

Breath,

And smell,

Is the darkness,

And frustration

That soon will become the future for you

What's The Right Choice

Look upon those who are in the streets
And never found their way
Look upon those who got hurt
And never came back
Now I am the one walking around,
Wondering if I made the right choice
Cause all I feel are the hot summers
And the cold winds at night that just leave me hanging there, Thinking
Is it supposed to be like this?
Is it supposed to just pretend as if nothing was happening?
Cause if it is!
Then my days have lost their laughs
And my tears have been clean out of me
There will be nothing to expect
And the days will be lost in time
Cause if nothing matter no more,
Then what u look for
