With Love From Waziristan

living at place where mountain touches the sky where my people live with their heads high

Where sky keeps changing its colours where every fragrance found in flowers where all people enjoys same belief where sincerity of purpose is solace and relief where nature shows blessing and beauty to save the nature is everyone's duty where fortune always favours the brave with excellence in motivation and crave where God shows Himself in the field where angles yield to provide shield where soldiers fight with life in hands where martyrdom comes like a garland where water flows in opposite direction

Oh my God what a station

The Gladiator

I am gladiator, born to win
Being a coward, is a biggest sin
I am a struggler, struggle is in my blood
My blood in veins run like flood
I am a soldier, soldiering is my passion
I love my people, I love my nation
I have no fear, insight my heart
To fight in battlefield I know the art
I am living on the land of pure
I know the pain, I know the cure
Being a gladiator is like heaven on earth
I am defender by my birth
Like a diamond I want to glow
Towards My Lord My head always bow

Chains

He loves the weather snow or rain
He manages every stress or strain
Always thinks irrespective of loss and gain
He feels society's blood and pain
Men is tied in ropes and chain
His heart is caged so his brain
He feels insecure again and again
Men is animal and he remain
By killing each other respect they gain
His efforts very less which goes in drain
Men is born free but everywhere in chain

My Love My Life

You are my love my life
Your separation cuts me like double edge knife
If you will cry my heart will cry
Love me my love or I will die
Your attitude make me think I can fly
For you I can come up till sky
In front of you I am so shy
But look inside I am confident guy
Without you I am cloud without destination
If your love is true we will meet at every station
If you love me I will love you back
You have everything and I lack

Hymn

You are my savior my God
You are the creator and Lord
God you live in heart and out
You are the sovereign there's no doubt
You have created this beautiful land
And every particle of this mighty sand
Birds and human recite Your name
You are the emblem of all same
You have created heaven and earth
In your creation there's no dearth
For you this world is crown of creation
You bring sun and moon in alteration
You feed all your creation
You gave creation a destination

The Defenders

For making Pakistan's image great Blood shed and sacrifices made
Some ultimately paid price of freedom
Some suffered and embraced martyrdom
For getting back their cherished land
Merging themselves with holy sand
All of them are defending the country
They are standing on every entry
Tribute is paid by sacrificing their life
By putting their life on sharpest knife
The force which kept the nation alive
From their strikes no one survive
Protecting their land day and night
They are right, they fight for right
There war is always for their land
They will kill the usurpers band
They remain steadfast day and night
They encounter all dangers whatever insight
They always ready rail to derail
With their efforts enemy fail

Men In Uniform

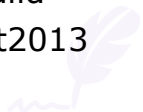

Away from our town
We are born with golden spoon and crown
We are there when duty calls
In our feet beauty falls
Our hearts are full of motivation
We serve our lives at every station
For people of our nation
For our own passion and devotion
We are the messengers of God
Help our land and us o Lord
We are the rock which cant break
We are determined to make our faith
We put our lives always on stake
Every challenge and responsibility we take
We are the rocks born so strong
To make our nation live long
We don't have any dream
To be in profession of light and beam
On our duty we feel proud
Our faith is strong our voices so loud
We are in profession which everyone dream
We are the chosen ones we are the cream
We go there where cold feels cold
We are the iron which cant mold
We damn care about the storm
We are the men in uniform

Soldier In Action

Together we live, together we die
We are the blessed ones under the sky
We accept bullets on over chest
We are the men at our best
We kill the pain with the pain
In this game there is no loss but gain
Even friends or foes, we damn care
Snatching the eyes who stare
Our every blood drop has a mission
To save the lives of new generation
We behold the blood in our eyes
That always thrills in our veins
Our destination is beyond the skies
No matter whether snow or rains
Ready to counter insurgency and muss
God has not abandoned us

Lovers Dream

Your lips are like the petals of flower
You are my strength you are my power

Your heart is so pure like heart of dove
You are the fairy from skies and above

Your hair has shine like the rays of sun
For me no place to hide, no place to run

Your eyes are green like the crust of sea
I feel more love when they look at me

Your hands are so soft I want to kiss
You're my dream you are my bliss

You are my moon I am the sky
Without you my life is so dry

You are dream which will never vanish
Every moment I spent I will cherish

Band Of Brothers

We are three our hearts are one
Band of brothers second to none

We are determined soldiers son
Excellence of effort in every run

Our nerve makes us born to win
We are upright, away from sin

We are loved ones and bless
We make mistakes, and confess

We help the poor endanger we save

We are body, soul and mind

Together we can make flow love stream
When you embrace me in rain

You bestowed your love all in all
I will be always be anxious for call
Let's go crazy for romance and dance
Let us take just chance after chance

Capt Kernal Sher Khan

Born and grown in brave family
Fought at every station manly War broke out at valley of Siachen
They were few against very many men
Distinguished this as his last journey
Pained his life and irony
Enemy's six times stronger attack
He repulsed hard and sent them back
He was there to save his nation
With full zeal and veneration
He walked down in valley of death
He brawled till his last breath
Showing great valour and courage
Surviving their attack being in rage
Suddenly a bullet hit his chest
He was a martyr at his best
Left this world with head high
His destination was in the sky
He had written history with blood
Destroying the enemy's plan to mud
By encountering the enemy in war
He left this world and gone far
Enemy decided to give him respect
Which he deserved and had in fact
He embolden a soldier's pride
For which he was known far and wide
He demolished the enemy's den
His destination became heaven then

Love In Chain

Love in chain is a love you gain
Without bargain always insane

It capture your heart and your brain
It's the gamble it's the game

It's so striking I can't explain
Played and misty in drops of rain

It offers you a better future
With its style and gesture

It never goes for the caste our race
But surely go for love and grace
