Ajay Kumar Dey (Pranabnandan)()

Sri Ajay Kumar Dey, a respected figure from Poradanga village in Murshidabad district, was born on September 22, 1992. Educated with a Bachelor's degree in Chemistry, he has worked as both a teacher and a Chemist, but is primarily recognized as a preacher of the Gaudiya Vaishnava tradition and a Bhagavata reciter. Inspired by Vaishnava philosophy, he has composed numerous devotional songs (Padavalis) , using the pen name 'Pranabanandan' in his writings, which are celebrated for their reflection of love, devotion, and knowledge. For his significant contributions to literature and religious propagation, he has received several honors, including the Nazrul Award and the Bangla Akademi Sammaan, and he is often lauded in poetry as the embodiment of knowledge and devotion and his literary work likened to an 'ever-flowing stream'.
