A Friend

A friend is one of a kind,
is someone who makes you laugh and smile, is someone you treasure, , that is sweet,
never to let fall,
is the special one,
you will never lie to,
who always listens,
who is always there,
that stands by your side,
that never lets you down.
just by hearing their voice
the whole world lights up what a great, wonderful and amazing person they are they are the greatest ever the best of all there my friend.

Bad News

Bad news

That's all that seem to head now a days,

Is there any good news.

Trying to stay strong

Trying to stay positive

Trying not to give up

But how?

With all these people dying.

Alison Mills

Crush

I think about you day after day I remember when we first spoke and what we talked about I remember getting lost in you eyes as you where talking.
I wish some day
we will be together.
I go to hoping I will dream about you because you don't know about this crush I have on you.

Alison Mills

Days

Monday back to work Tuesday is ok
Wednesday we are half there Thursday getting closer Friday finishing work early Saturdays party time Sunday relaxing day

Dream Me And You

your always seem to be in my dreams You always stay with me
In my secret place Were they are no rules.

I want these dreams
To be real
I don't know what to say Or how to tell you These feelings are not going I thought I'd never feel like this About anyone.

I hope on day
My dreams come true
Just you and me.

Alison Mills

Dreams

I had a dream last night
It seemed so really
Your face were so clear Your eyes were so beautiful
It was just a dream

Your voice was the same As I heard you talk
The words were soft
As you spoke me to me
It was just a dream; I could swear it was you

Smelling the scent as you come closer Brought my heart to skip a beat I fell love in this dream, it was a true
It was just a dream, but I swear it was you

Friend

A friend
Can change a frown
Into a smile
When you're down
They understand You're best of friends
Will always share
As they care
This is my friendship
You like my friendship
Take care my friend

Friendship Turns To Love

what was once a friendship Has turned into more You ask yourself
when did this happen?
One day we were great friends Then you feel different About them
You have locked into them
And can't leave I have heard of these But never though
It would happen

Ghost

There's a ghost called coast the host.
The light flicker's on and off, as the picker picks biscuits picker starts to brick it, and sticks the biscuits back.

the black cat smacks into the small wall those pictures fall of the wall, as the door closes the floors feels like it's moving. the picker runs quicker, as coast the host starts to talk.

The toast jumps of the plate, as the chicken roast's the chip has a dip in Betty's hot pot.
the carling pops out of the fridge like lightening the carling says hello darling.

How I Feel

I take a look at you i wish you was mine and not her's but i know it will never be.
she thinks she's ugly she's perfect to me they may never know or may not know i exist but i know they exist I am still holding on to hope that maybe one day
we will be together

I Want

I want....

I want someone by my side all the time

I want someone to make me smile and laugh

I want someone to give me there jacket when I'm cold

I want someone who will make me happy when i am sad

I want someone who will hold my hand when i am scared

I want you

Alison Mills

Lonely

lonely so lonely Lonely and sad lonely and empty.

Lonely are the nights lonely are the days lonely are the years.

Lonely is this place lonely is my life lonely is this court room lonely is my sentence lonely am i, in so many ways so lonely am i.

Love

Love is when you cant stop thinking about them when you see them or hear there name
the whole world lights up when they smile you smile when they laugh you laugh when they cry you cry when there sad your sad you feel what they feel when they never leave your mind when you go to bed smiling because they made you smile and laugh that day when you look at them everything turns out right when you touch them you get that feeling what love is.

Alison Mills

Love?

you live in my heart I wont break your heart even if it makes me cry till the day i die

I have blood in my veined your thought flows through like pain I may not be the one for you but i still love you

you still live in my eyes even after all the goodbyes the dream is me and you being together

I still smile as I think off you I wipe away all the tears days and nights seem to be getting longer with the thoughts getting stronger not a happy chapter like 'they lived happily ever after'

but i still love you

Man City

C.T.I.D

City till I die

Rain or shine

Win lose or draw

We defend till the end

As the players come out

The fans sing blue moon and swing their scarves.

There the team that never gives up

There going growing fast

And will be the top

So city we love you

Monkey

There's a funky monkey, that like to be cheeky, as you go to the zoo and visit him, he nick's your food of you, before you have chance to blink, as you get a drink out, the cheeky funky monkey gives you a wink.

No Friend Like You

There is no friend like you
One of a kind You're the one I can rely on You're the one I can trust

You're my friend
Have been for many years
No one can tear us apart You're the friend I care about Take care my friend

People

We meet people every day, some we never want to forgot, some we wish we never meet.
We face challengers, some we complete some we fail.
People who we love people who we would do anything for, people we will always miss.
We are all different, but we all share the same things.

Alison Mills

Sad

Sad is no fun Sad is upsetting Sad is depressing Sad is boring Sad is no good Sad is lonely

Alison Mills

School

school where you make friend School get books and copy School have a laugh School get in trouble School gets boring School you to start to hate But when you leave school
You miss it
And wont to go back

Secert

I am keeping it as a secret Deep deep inside me
Only one person knows That's me

Keeping myself quiet Keeping myself away from everyone Keeping my lips shut I've wanted to tell them
But I haven't allowed slipping out yet.

I wish could touch you I wish I could hold your hand down the street I wish you would understand I really really love you

I know it's a hard thing
But I am hoping that it's what you love Not who love

It's okay to be scared But for how much longer can this go on I can't keep this love locked Inside forever

So this secret is going to stay with me Till at least the end of today.
I guess you are keeping one too.

Seemed So Really

It seemed so real That night
You and me together Talking and having a laugh

Sitting in your house Having a couple off drinks
Then you said to me
You have something on your face

Then you leaned over And kissed me
It seemed so really
Then I woke up
It was just a dream.

Snake

As i wake i see a snake, the snake is called Jake, I go and bake some cakes, as the snake ssssssssss behind me, i give it some stake.
I go out on a walk,
i tell my crazy friends, about my new pet Jake the snake, as i get home i have found Jake, has made hiself at home too.

Alison Mills

Truth

you say you care for me but is it the truth?
you say I'm beautiful but do you say that to every girl?

dreaming off you and me waking up knowing it will never be you are always in my dreams I don't know why or what it means my dreams are full of thoughts of you and me together.
you have to know i love you so you're the reason i won't let go your the one i turn to when i'm feeling blue you stay with me until things are through if you where gone and i didn't know where I'd be lost forever

Alison Mills

Unsure

Complicated and overwhelmed Is my head
The best thing to do Would be react
I am going to sit and wait
As I hope everything will work it self out It feels like I am trapped In a cage
And no one can help
I am going to strong And put a happy face one
And will not to cry
One tear
The fury of the mixed emotions
I guess in this world It's not simple Most people try and listen
And make there own minds up By the voices and other peoples opinions.

When I See You

Whenever I see you
I can't help but smile I've never felt this way about someone Should I be feeling this way About you?

You're on mind all day and night
It's crazy Cos I know we will Never be

But I don't what to do?
You make feel complete And give me goose bumps
