Mi Amor

Mi amor how will you love me? In bed will you love my smell as you make love to me all night until light? will you love my beauty as it longs fades away? Mi amor can you love my heart and only my heart? Will you break my heart or i yours? will our love be able to fill your soul? Or will my heart feel like it has entered eternal hell? Will you be the love of my life? Or just another lover passing through the night? I wonder how this will go, but i truly don't know. So as love comes it also goes. Mi amor only time will tell.
