Beauty Of Voice.....

The beauty of voice

It's not in the choice of words

It's not the classiness of accent it's not in the huskiness of speech

It's the beauty of his voice that attracts

The purity of his heart is what reflects in the dialogue

When he is happy his joy is apparent in his talk

When he is bitterly angry his annoyance is clear in his silence amidst a heavy speech

His voice conveys every emotion

What he wants to say

What he doesn't want to but intends to make sure you understand

That's the splendor of his voice

At times when I don't want to listen to even a single word from him

And the way he calms me down with a cute and adorable note

His effortless ways of convincing and explaining the walks of life is what is commendable

It's the serenity of his speech what makes the dialect too innocent

That's the ethereal beauty of his voice

Listening to him, Talking to him

Takes you to the exquisite journey of patience

The beauty of his voice is so magnificent that its takes you to dark realms of brooding ambience

A swirling eternal world of dreams

It's in the genuineness of his words it's in the depth of his of speech

It's is the elegance of his accent

It's all in the delicate beauty of his voice cause that's the only thing that makes his presence felt

Dreaming And Smiling I Think Of You

Dreaming and smiling I think of you

The times we spent together, just me and you

Spending times meant spending live together

I still remember you smiling at silly jokes

Scared to talk, you always felt what if someday you will fall in love with me

When you already knew that you were in love

Naming It always as best of friendship

There's a strange relation we always share

No matter how far how long

It seems someday We will make it

Some day i will tell how fondly, dreaming and smiling I think of you

You are the best thing that I will always be cherishing

I Am Just A Girl

I am just a girl

Few dreams few thoughts

I am fond of fun and laughter

Be it sorrow be it life

I just want to forget all my issues and work it out somehow

I am just a girl

I love being talked about

Hard work is not just my life it is actually my life

I love being appreciated for things I do

I know how to get what i want I know how to set things right

I am just a girl

I have less time I know

There are so many things I want to achieve

I am not a super brain but my intellect is my strength

But still I have a lot to say, a lot to do, give me liberty, sit back and watch the play

I am just a girl

It feels good to be in love

It is great to have someone around

It's awesome, but if you think you can rule me, think again

I might just be a girl, but I have the ability to topple your world and turn the tables

Don't underestimate me

I know I have the power

I know I have the courage to stand and for my right

I am strong enough to deal with anything at all

But yes, I am just a girl.

I Want To Fly Higher.....

I want to fly higher

higher than the mountains

nearer to sky

closer to the sea

away from fire and desire

I want to fly higher

less is my time

shorter is my life

more are my goals

Please let me be free

I want to fly higher

For i have wings

for i have clearer skies awaiting to embrace and earth wanting to release

i want to fly higher

don't clip my wings

don't chip my wings

all i want is to fly higher away from the boundaries of the world away from the rituals of the society i have my wings please let me fly and be free free forever....

Even if i fall down after i am tired i would still wish to fly higher and be free unchain me now, open the doors of cages, loosen my wings for sky is waiting to embrace me in white clouds with silver lining

Plz let me be free

plz le me fly higher

higher than the mountains

closer to the sea

nearer to the skies earth awaits my release

I want to fly higher higher.....

If I Ever.....

If I ever say I just want to be with you will you hold my hand and say 'yes baby I am just a call away'

If I ever I cry will you wipe my tears off with your finger tips and say 'love please don't cry it makes my heart die'

If I ever fall will you grab me by your hand, hold me close to your heart and say 'I promise I won't let you loose ever again'

If ever I went quiet will you make me smile and say 'I love you being a chatter box' if I ever wanted to hold you tight will you just hold my hand and say 'it doesn't matter even if the world is around' if I ever wanted to laugh out loud would you crack some silly jokes and say 'your smile means world to me' if I ever would want you to say 'baby I love you' would you just hold my hand and say the unspoken - express - the unexpressed

if I ever shout at you would you just calm me down and say a simple 'shut up' and hold me if I ever would want to be alone would you just walk by my side silently holding my hand all through and just say 'I m there'.

If I ever want to enjoy life to the fullest would you take me for a ride in the middle of the night with loud music all around would you just say 'baby I am happy cause you are happy' would you?

if I ever gave you tough time being possessive would you just kiss me and tell me 'I am all yours honey! ! ' if I ever want to rest my head on your shoulder to seek solace with you would you hold me and hug me tightly reassuring that you will be there if I ever say I want to die loving you would you promise to be with me till the end of time.

will you always love me the way I love you would you...just be by my side

if only we were together.....

if only you cud believe I loved you and was ready to give up anything if only you cud understand I wanted you to say the unspoken..

Once.....

Once upon a time I knew a friend so close so serene that i was almost in love with em.

Things and times were so good that we almost fell for each other

But if only I could have understood the hard fact that good times are bound to end.

Once he went so ambitious that he left me crying, helpless and so frustrated that I chose not to trust anyone.

Once I felt so heartbroken that I decided not be friends wid anyone, so broke so disheartened

I was ready to fight the world and stars to answer me, why why was I put thru this pain why

Life and times changed... Time favored me... we met again... full of love and life...

Once again he came back and healed my aching heart and rendered it as good as new

I was happy and hearty so happy that I was ready to forgive anyone and everyone who ever ever hurt me thru out my life time

But once again life betrayed me he is still there but not there for me heartbroken, all I want to know is that I am just a girl .....

All I am asking for is just a bit of consideration for my feelings... Is that really asking for more...

As they say that if good times don't last long neither do bad times... Some day things and times will change..

Someday you will realize that all of it was just bit more worthy of consideration....

I am sure once again the sun will shine... There will be an end to this dark starry eyed night...

Once again we will be together and this time it will be forever and ever.....

That's Me I Am Human.....

I love dreaming

nobody ever taught me how to dream but I always have the passion to get what I don't have

that's me I am human.

I love loud loud! music

No one ever taught me to hear that but I kinda love the life its pumps in me

that's me I am human.

I love explicit creations of God

And I never learnt the art of admiring serenity of love but I am still in love with my life

And absolutely everything

God has gifted me

that's me I am human.

I love success and the fly high feel it gives

Not a soul on earth ever whispered in my ear that to be successful you just need to be true to yourself And now I have realized the steps that lead to my goal
that's me I am human.

I love toughness

No one ever told me that it's not tough to rise but it's very tough to stay at the top

And I have learnt my lesson the harder way that's me I am human and I am trying really hard to be what I want to be !!!
