For My Ex

I told you that I loved you but that's not what I meant to say.
I wanted to ask you why you hurt me and let me walk away.
I know I'm not perfect but still I try to be.
I love you but you hate me.

I let you in but you never gave me the same.
You left broken hearted standing in the rain.
I know you love someone else but still you can love me.
I am lost and confused and this is close to aneness i'll ever be

I love you so much and my life was changed when you left.

I know I let you walk away but if only I convinced you why you shouldn't leave.
I backed down without a fight and believed all you said to me.
If I fought for what was rightfully mine maybe you and I could be happier than ever.

I know im human and I'm not the only one how makes mistakes come on look at all the ones you've made.

I was still holding on when you let go.
I lied so convincingly through my throat.
I played along to such a hideous lie.
I kept laughing when I wanted to cry.

I fought harder when I didn't want to try any longer.
And when I was finished and helped you.
You let me fall and help myself up.
You didn't return the favor of helping.

But it made me realize I never said the truth but simple as this: I HATE YOU

That's what I meant to if you read this, which I hope, you do.
My ex- for breaking my heart i will always hate you You may have helped me in some ways and when I realize it I will thank you then but until then

I love you and I hate you.

I can't live with or without you.

But it's much more painful to live without so I guess I will suffice.

Hells Hallways

I believed you when you uttered those helpless cries
You stared at me with emptiness in your eyes
And they pierce me like the black suns sky
And if only I asked you why

But I didn't so I see you crushed in hells hallways And I didn't tell you I will love you always So here I am being so blue While you believe I'm over you

And I guess it's my fault I stopped believing That you'd ever leave my faith of achieving And my and is broken in pieces of you And why is it you control what I do

Hells hallways crush us in between Like he wants a nightmare not a dream
So I'll never wake up being happy So it explains why loves so crappy

I don't think there will ever be a chance for me and you I know that my life long dreams will remain untrue
But that's what we get when we walked in hells hallways That means I will love you forever and always

I Love You

What's it like to lose the will the hole in my heart no one can fill I miss you and your smile
I wish you were with me for awhile

I miss you calling me a such a girl or how you made me want to twirl I miss those days when we'd laugh
I just so badly need you back

I depend on you to brighten my day to hold me close and make the pain go away I just wish I had more time to say gosh I love you in so many ways

I know I never really showed you the pain inside my heart I never thought that we'd ever part I lost my best friend and how will I ever breathe again there's so many ways to say it now I just wish I then knew how I could've yell I love you so and then maybe you'd know

I love you and I couldn't say I just wish you were here today my smile is fading just slowly now I want to see you but I don't know how

I'M Not Your Poker Game

I lost you once before and now i see you more everywhere i go i guess you must know i let myself play a game that in my heart made me insane i lost the game and don't know why i still want to cry

i am playing a game where i lose i lost once when i had to choose and look i'm back here again playing to win the heart of my best friend i am losing so much when i try i believed the truths were a lie and now i know who you are standing there by your car you show off to make me smile your snicker just so vile i am playing the game of love where when you win you go above all the rest where your number one and i feel like coming undone i scream out you name in the middle of the night to protect me and make it alright you play my mind just like your cards let em loose and hit em hard and when you lose you bust out an ace and it hits em like a slap to the face you play em good and look what i get every memory i want to forget cuz you let em lose and hit em hard playing my mind like you play your cards like my mind is a poker game get what you want and i go insane my mind isn't texas hold em win my heart now you got em my mind isn't a poker game god you know your so lame play me once adn you'll lose play me twice and hit the booze god i know just how to make you choose heres girl number one and two now you lose my mind isn't your toy god your such a typical boy play the victim when your caught play a guy i know your not

Living My Dream

i watched that bride walk down the isle she had that glow and she couldn't help but smile the groom watched her like she dropped from the sky and i thought of you but i don't know why i tell myself i know what i have to do but plans change when i'm with you my dreams are wild and unpredictable but all the stars with you are reachable and i remember that night when we watched the sky you kissed my lips and i thought i would die just because my life isn't what i thought it would be because i love you and you love me i am living my dream and i love watching you gleam i love you and you love me and thats all i want my life to be i am living my dream and the fairy tales i know one day i'll hear our wedding bells and i'm not scared of letting go cuz you'll love me, always i know

My One Love

So i saw you standing there your smile and your hair i couldn't help but see that you were also looking at me and look at all we've made look at the love it took that finally stayed and i'm finally with the one the one who lights my sky like the sun and maybe its too soon to say forever but i hope in my heart we'll always be together and i'm happy with what we've got i know i have to make sure not to say i love you a lot but that kiss we shared was so magical and perfect some how i know we'll fight together cuz we are worth it.

and it's impossible to break up a love like mine cuz being with you i can't help but shine and i know i can't say this now but i will someday, .somehow i love you oh yes, baby i love you my one love please, do you love me too?

Our Love Song

I saw your face on that Thursday night I felt okay and you made it all right Our hands tangled, and made into one It felt so good to see you're the one

That winter break seemed so long But you made everything we shared not as wrong I imagined a love that's so real Knowing you felt exactly as I feel

The day we came back I felt so blue Because all those things you said turned untrue
She was happy and that girl wasn't me Why was it you pretended to feel what I couldn't see?

That whole year I droned on and on about you I made scary things become true I became a girl that you would want Something to make my past life taunt

I faked a smile when you were with her But then again that whole time was a blur.
I guess I thought I had to say goodbye
So I walked away without another try

On my fifteenth birthday I talked to you again After two years I still missed you my friend Months later and we still feel the same Somehow I know this love isn't a game

I don't fear her coming between Like how she broke our love at the seam
This time it's my turn to dream
And your eyes that continue to gleam

I'm living our love same playing the game Somehow your love still drives me insane
But I'm not unhappy for losing you Because you came back out of the blue

I don't have to worry about the past now Cuz I'm finally happy but I don't know how I lied about all things real in our life Where our love is no more strife

I can't say that i am not afraid of ever losing you Bet then again, our love is finally true Nothing to worry about ever my friend
I'm happy listening to our love song again

That Is A Lie

I stare at the world covered in fear bad nightmares living in tears

My life lost in a world of hate maybe they could've helped But they arrived too late

They saw the scars
Carved upon my skin
They knew I'd lose
And i knew they'd win

They saw the knife
That pierced my heart
And they knew one day We'd fall apart

And i stared at emptiness
From my life
Like that dagger
That made you man and wife

And I hid in the face Of worlds hell
I love you both But you lied to me still

So I grabbed that razor
And put it to my wrist
It made my life worse Than a pleasant day bliss

I knew I'd try to Hurt myself again
And I knew I'd die to win
The heart of my best friend

The pleasure invisible Invincible is pain
I love heart aches so much
I drove you insane

I know I shouldn't do it But I still cry
I will never do this again
But that is a lie
