Rev. Andy Hird is a minister of the human spirit who worships the True human spirit in himself and in all human beings.

He holds three degrees: a Bachelors in poverty, a masters in oppression, and a PhD in inhumanity attained from over 50 years of study and research, life experiences, and human out reach.

For the past 21 years, he has shared his professional life and human spirit with and for the good of all human beings. He works with people from all walks of life: the rich the poor; people who have fallen through the cracks; people with mental health issues; people with drug and alcohol problems, and with any other addictions they may have; people who are prostitutes; former inmates; people who are homeless; people who are growing old and often lonely; runaway children; people who feel hopeless and powerless; those whose lives are shattered; with still others who are enraged, bitter, and filled with hatred. Indeed, he has shared his talents and love with a wide variety of people helping them to show love and kindness to others.

He has been writing, and posting social activist poetry on the web for over three years, and giving readings at coffee houses.

He also has lectured at Doane College in Lincoln Nebraska for 15 years,4 to 5 times a year on awaken to humanity.

He is ordained as a minister by the universal life church ministries, an international organization.

Rev. Andy's mission is to Awaken People to Humanity; to awaken people to The True Human Spirit of love and goodness within all of us; to awaken people to the human collective; to help every person to share love, goodness, and their talents for the benefit and welfare of all humanity.

Apathy

Apathy

The smell of death is in the air
Violence and destruction loom everywhere
The earth quakes with fire and fear

Why don't I care?

Power and greed corrupt the spirit
Those who rule, enslave the mind
People rush like they are running out of time

Why don't I care?

Freedom and justice are dead everywhere
Our rights are suspended and tossed in the air
Prisons become homes for the forgotten
Humanity has become totality rotten

Why don't I care?

They come for us one by one, in the dead of the night
No more to be seen, no longer to fight
Now the hour is late, and no voice matters

I did not care

Homeless

Homeless

No place to call my own, no where to have a home
I live in the streets, dirt and filth beneath my feet
Occasionally into the shelters I can stay
Where if I kiss their Asses they let me stay

I AM HOMELESS

There is no trust in the dark and dreary streets
For over my shoulder I am always looking Ever afraid of what danger might be lurking
Just living is not an option for me, only survival is the key

I AM HOMELESS

Into the streets come the fakes and the phonies
Social, religious and do goodiers too, all shower me with false love
Forcing me to give in to all their causes
Never hearing or understanding my anguished pleas

I AM HOMELESS

Those who are in the know, say I don't want to have a home
They say I like to roam and be free
That is not true, I do want a home and to be clean
To make a difference in a world so mean

I DO NOT WANT TO BE HOMELESS

But society is cruel, non-caring and elite
The world they have created, just can not be Unless they make sure, they have people like me
In order to keep the world the way that it is, I cannot be freed

I MUST BE HOMELESS
