Angel Croshier(11-22-89)

Hey. I'm 18, attending college to be a vet. i've been writing poems since i was in the eight grade. I dont know if my poems are good or not but lemme know. I'm open to criticism. If anyone would like to see any of my poems that im still working on to give me some feedback, you can email me at vampyreangel17@.

Acting

What they say It isn't true
We're just close Holding your hand is just comforting nothing more

Our bond is fragile and contact helps me realize how much you mean to me.
I love you.

Like a sister should But do you feel the same or is it an act?

An Angel

I need an angel Someone to watch Over me.
When all hope has run out.

My life is a mess
And it feels like no one's left Maybe I need an angel

Soft wings of protection
To hold me when I'm scared Warm arms to comfort me
I just need an Angel

I need an angel
To chase away
My nightmares
To make things better

I want someone to protect me
I just want an angel like you.

Blood

Do you see it flowing from my body?
When i asked you to get out of my life
All you did was make things worse

I cant help being vulnerable
And listening to what you say

I'm not the same girl you knew
But i still hurt the same way
In the still of the night
The blood trickles down like rain

Do you even care
That you pushed me this far
And when you see the red
All over the walls
Will you care then?

Do you see whats happening to me?
That i dont even care anymore All i can do is stare at the river

Maybe when you see you hands stained red you'll see that it was because of you

Broken Promises

No one knows How to keep secrets
Not anymore
You might think
You can trust your friends
You may think She's the best person in the world
But she's probably your worst enemy

You can tell something was said
When you walk down the hall
And you hear whispers
And people are staring at you.

You wonder if it was her Who spilled
Your inner most secrets
Even though she promised
She wouldn't tell.

You end up in tears
Feeling very foolish
For trusting her once more
But you don't cry for long Since she's not worth crying over

But broken promises Broken friendships
It all leads to one thing
And that's a broken heart.

Chase Me Away

We've had our ups and downs
What couple doesn't have their frowns?
But lately we feel more like friends
All the sparks are gone; we just have odds and ends I've tried to grasp them back
And all you do is make me back track
You hinder me day in and day out Don't you want the fire back without a doubt?
Don't you want our passion to return?
It seems like you have no concern
You make me so mad with so many glances And I've given you so many chances Seems like you want us to end Like you're chasing me around the bend Why can't I stay?
I don't want to run today
Please don't chase me
Please hear my plea
My legs no longer sustain Don't chase me away again

Confusion

His hand fits mine perfectly He's my rock
My everything
I love him with all my heart
But I'm not sure he feels the same

Is there someone else Someone I know
And I'm close to.
Does he love me
As much as he says?

He calls me Angel and sweetheart
But is it an act
Or does he genuinely care for me?
Does he love me as much as he says
I'm not so sure

I don't know what to believe
But I do know I love him
With everything in me
He keeps me from doing Something stupid

No one understands
How much I need him
No one understands
How much pain I'm in Because I'm so confused

I hope he loves me
I hope he never leaves
If he does say goodbye I'll be devastated and I don't think I'll be able to go on

Cravings

When i lay down at night
I crave your touch
Your lips, your kisses
I crave them badly

I long to feel your body next to mine
To have the fire of our passion engulf us

The electricity between us crackles loudly Sending sparks of our desire everywhere

As we get lost in each other's mind, body and soul, the flames go up around us
But I'm still craving more

Dark Angel

As she walks through the darkness
She feels the eyes Burning a whole in her
She knows that its him
Her Dark Angel
Her protector
Her lover Everything that she is supposed to hate
But she cant help herself Love is swelling inside of her For her Dark Angel
Her handsome, sweet,
Dark Angel.

Death

I saw you holding My broken body
Crying, then wailing Then screaming.
You wouldn't let anyone one near my body
As you cradled it
In your loving arms
There was nothing
You could have done.
Even in death
Our our love lives on No kiss will bring me back, no matter how much you love me.
I'm gone forever but Don't let death kill our love.

Did I Help?

I can't handle your tears
They make me feel helpless
The drops sliding down your cheeks
Make me feel like I'm nothing

Your wet face against my neck makes me shiver cuz you're in pain

I don't know what to do when you whimper in pain All I do is hold you to make the world go away

Your curled up in my arms and I stroked your hair Your hands like ice gripped mine tightly

I tried to help you through this dark time
But I don't know
If it did any good

Distance Of The Heart

I went away
Cuz I was accepted
To my first choice
Of colleges.

I told you in a year
You could come up to be with me
And you said okay.

But a year is a long time
I haven't stopped loving you But have you found someone new?

I pulled up to your house
And knocked on the door.
Your mom answered
And said you were in the kitchen

I stood in the door way while you rummaged in the fridge
I smiled and came closer You sensed me and turned around

I smiled a little and said hi You closed the fridge and Walked toward me
My breath caught
As you stood in front of me

I slipped my arms around you
And your arms came around me
I melted into your embrace
And you hugged me tightly.

You pulled away slightly
And we kissed for the first time
In almost a year Then I knew.

It doesn't matter How far apart we are
For there can be no
Distance of the heart.

Do You Wish?

things were different
You act like it.
Your life changed alot once I came into it You're not close to him Because you chose me instead

But do you wish
That never happened.

Do you wish me to go away?
To turn back time
Do you want things back To the way they used to be?

Sometimes i do but then i think about how Good my life turned out to be Once you were at my side

But do you wish things to be different Do you imagine a picture that doesnt have me?
Do you wish to move on?
Because I cant grant wishes

Emotions

My heart hammers as you draw near My eyes are locked on yours
As you hypnotize me

My palms become damp as my nerves go haywire the blood pulses through my veins
And my knees become weak

Emotions constrict through me
I don't know whether to stay or leave Would you care if I left? or would you like me stay

My emotions become jumbled
As you fingers wrap around mine I feel safe and secure with you near The world could end, and I wouldn't know

When he lied to me
And I became confused
You were there
To shine truth in my eyes

My breath is in-sync with yours
Your chest is sold against my cheek
Your fingers run through my hair
And my eyes fall closed

Sleeping no longer bothers me Because I know I will wake up And you will still be holding me close to you

I did dream that you left
And I didn't know why
But when my eyes fluttered open,
Your brown eyes were watching me

You asked if I was okay
And I said yes with a smile
You saw the fear behind my lie
But didn't dig deeper

You pulled me closer
And whispered things in my ear
My nightmares drifted
And I melted in your arms

Everyday

The sun kissed the night sky
As the pink dawn approached Another day is about to start
And I'm pulled from the dream

I drag myself form bed
And muddled through school
I barely hear what anyone says
The day passes as a blur

I cant stand this any longer
Too much is swirling in my mind Sometimes I wanna die
But I cant bear to leave

Later, the thumping beneath you chest Underneath my cheek soothes my racing heart
And I feel relaxed and safe But now I must prepare,
For the day to begin again.

Everytime

Every time I see you
My hatred grows Anything I've felt Is gone and I'm glad

You keep taking him away Making him be with you more Let me be with him
Since all you are is vindictive

Every time he's with you
He acts like I don't exist
And that really isn't fair Every time you're around

Every time you're in the picture
You ruin everything
But obviously you didn't care

Every time you talk to me
You say you love me
And every time i cringe
So why cant you leave

Every time we talk Something goes wrong
So can you just go
Every time you should go AWAY!

Finally Happy

She said she loved me
But i didn't believe her
I haven't seen her since
But I found her
As I watch her golden hair Flowing about her shoulders
I quiver with panic
What if she finds out
I lied to her and betrayed her My golden angel is finally happy
Even if isn't with me

Forever And Always

You always say We're going to be
This way forever
But how can you be sure

I love you
And you love me
And I don't think That will ever change

But forever is a long time
Can you make promises
That last forever?
Could you keep them?

I wanna keep you Forever and For always But if you want to go
I'll fight to keep you

Can we really promise each other forever?
Forever isn't long enough To be in love

But I'll be with you always I hope you keep me forever
We might not have forever
But our love can last eternity.

From A Man To A Woman

I've seen all of you.
Your kindness and strength.
The best and the worst.
But you never gave up.
So many times you've almost lost everything
And you held it together.
You can see why I love you, even though you don't love me.
But that doesn't matter.
You ran in the rain To stand up for what you believe in.
You lost your one true love
And you're still here.
You let me take care of you
And that's more than I could ever ask for.
I hope you'll love me Someday and not expect me to be him, for I could never. I won't even try. But I'll love you more And I'll be there for you.
Which is more than I can say for him.
So tell me to go now if you Don't accept this. Otherwise I'll hold you and keep you Forever.

Go Away

Please go away
You're hurting me Your brutal fingers leave purple streaks

I told a friend
About your violence
But she didn't believe me
Now I'm alone

The only place i can go is home to the pain you cause me But it's too much

Soon, I'll be dead with your marks on me
But the pain will end

I will be safe and warm Loving arms will hold me
And the marks will fade
But only if one of us, goes away

Gossip

Its human nature to gossip
Everyone does it.
But what everyone doesn't do
Is think about the consequences.

Every time you share a secret to someone 10 other people are going to find out
So you never know, who you can trust.
Someone more deceiving than others
But we can't control it.
The gossip grows
Like the ivy up an old wall.

It will never stop
No matter how hard you try Fire with fire doesn't work
So how about the truth for once.

Hands

Her hand warm in mine kept us both warm
In the cold night air

No one understands
What we feel How fragile we are

Her hand in mine caused me to open up caused tears to spill

She squeezed my hand
Then I squeezed hers
To show I care

They didn't understand How much we mean to each other

They don't know how alone I am if she's Not with me

leads me through

We tenderly wipe away each other's tears and rub each other's back

Her hand would never strike me and I would never strike her

Our hands clasped together, shows us as sisters, not freaks

why our hands need the contact

Her hand warm in mine
Makes the world go away
And its just us

Nothing is wrong but if she lets go
I feel cold and alone

They don't understand How cold and lonely the world is with out her

She brings warmth just by holding my hand and I pray she never lets go

Cuz if she does I'll fall into eternal darkness and the world will die away

Him And Not You

I know I broke your heart
I smashed it to pieces
I didn't mean to You pushed me away
As the confusion
Began to swallow me whole.

I broke a promise to myself
And I keep hearing 'I told you so'
But I still don't understand How you could hurt me so

Everyone told me you would
And he would be better for me

They proved to be right
And now I understand
I had to be emptied completely
So he could fill me back up

I love him and care for him
So you no longer matter

Stop trying to ruin my life Stop thinking theres a chance
You blew it once the first lie Passed your lips
And that is unforgivable

I'm sorry you miss me
I'm sorry you're in pain
But how do you think i felt

A piece of me is now missing
But I think he is slowly healing me
I cant stand to be near you
For the pain is too much to bear

My heart and soul are battered I cant take anymore abuse
Just leave us alone
Our happiness no longer includes you

Hurt

I understand
That you're hurting
He left you for reasons Unknown to you
But I know how you feel

He's hurting too
Although for reasons Unknown to you yet.

You say that no one
Can make him stop loving you
No one did.
He did it on his own

But incase neither of you noticed I'm hurting too
He loves me
And I cant turn him away

But you, you are fake
You don't trust me
And you don't consider me a friend
So why should I feel for you?

Then there's my love
In the middle Hearing everything
He's unsure of what to do
And I'm unsure of what to say

I guess the hurt goes all around
And you think you know What he feels
But you haven't even begun

I Cried

I cried when we were together
I cried when we broke up
I cried when we spoke again
And when you lied again

I cried over you for hours
But no one cared about me
But he did
He loved me when you didn't

He wiped my tears away
But the pain didn't stop
You caused me to cry my heart out But I'm tired of crying

No more tears
No more pain
I don't even know
Why I cried in the first place

I'm done crying
I'm done waiting
So I'm gunna move on Without you.

I Do Not Understand You

I don't understand you
But I think you understand me

I see you and your bland face worries me
I ask you a simple question
But I can't seem to get A simple answer

You just don't seem to care
That I'm slipping away
Like a leaf on the breeze

The pain clouds my eyes
As tears slide down my cheeks Like rain
You leave me out in the cold
As my tears freeze like icicles

My eyes plead with you for help
But you ignore me and walk away

Do you not see me crumbling
Do you see me reaching for you Or do you just not care

I don't understand you
But I think you understand me
And you hold the answers
I seek.

I Dont Understand

I don't understand
How we're still together
I'm not quite sure What you find attractive

I don't understand
What you consider Beautiful and sexy
But you cant mean me

I don't understand
Why you still hold my hand
When you make me think That you're ashamed

I don't understand
Quite what upsets you But I don't wanna fight
Its too much for us

But what I do understand Is that I love you
And no one is gunna take you Unless they kill me first

I Miss You`

I miss our good times
You can't say we never had any We were closer then friends Probably closer then sisters.

I miss hanging out with you
With our laughter in the air
I miss the walks
Our best friend talks
Even the tears that flowed

But what i dont miss are the fights
The lies, the betrayl.
We're both guillty
And i know I'm sorry
Hopefully you are too.

So maybe
We can work things out Because I miss us being real friends
I really miss you

I Think I Should Go

I think we're moving on We aren't as close
As we used to be
So maybe it's time

You don't talk to me
As much as you used to
It seems like you Only want one thing

You know I'm not ready But it feels like you're Pressuring me
So maybe it's time

I love you and I don't want to go.
But you don't seem to Want me very much.

So tell me what to do Because I'm so lost
If I go, I'll be devastated
If i stay, I'll be miserable

So I think its time
Time to find someone new I think its time
Time for me to go

I Wonder

Do u ever wonder if things were different if you hadnt lied or cheated or made mistakes?
ever wondered?

ever wonder what it would be like to fly, or be invisible
to turn back time?
thats a big one.

if i could save the world from hunger, from ending because the end is inevitable

i wonder if i could take things back believe me i would i regret many things in life so i wonder what life would be like if i hadnt met u.

If I Died

If I died, would you care
Would you cry tears of joy or sadness Would you break down and sob or would you just shrug

If I died, would you move on And leave me in the dust Or would you forget the world cuz nothing matters anymore

If I died, would you laugh and poke fun at the people I love Or would you hold my broken body close to you, not caring about your tears

Would you whimper and wail?
Would the pain crush you?
Would it matter to you
If I died

Would I be missed
If I died
Or would you all continue with you life
If I died, would it matter to anyone

I'M Amazed

So many years have past
So many tears have fallen I can't believe it didn't last But life keeps on callin'

People have come and gone Hearts have been broken
A lot has gone so very wrong
Many lies have been spoken

I'm amazed by what I've lost
But most don't see it that way
Many friends have left, betrayal the cost It's more of a gain some say

I'm amazed at what I have My best friend by my side Couldn't split us up, not even with a lad
I definitely needed her as my guide

I'm amazed at what I miss
The love of someone no longer here Everyday I crave his kiss He's someone I hold so dear

But even more, I'm amazed
By whom I've become in this moment
I'm a grown woman
And I've dealt with torment

But I'm still missing that someone most amazing

I'M Not Perfect

I'm only one person
And even though
I try to do everything
I'm not perfect.

I can't say no to people
When they ask me for my help
So I end up doing more Then I can handle
But I'm not perfect

I make mistakes
And people get hurt
But I'm not perfect
And I can do is say I'm sorry

I know I've hurt people
And I've tried to make amends
To show that I'm strong enough To forgive those Who've hurt me
But I'm not perfect.

I'M Tired Of You

I'm sick you, getting your way Everytime you want something You get it without question

Its not fair.
Mom always takes your side
And Dad wont say anything Because of Mom

You think you know everything
But thats a laugh
In reality, you know nothing
And when I'm succeeding in life You'll be at home on the couch

You bad mouth me
And the choices I make But thats the thing
They're my choices

I'm tired of you
And they things you say So i'm saying this.
Good bye brother.

Keys And Locks

There are two guys
Only one key
One made of gold
One made of ice

The key made of ice
Is cold and hurtful
It doesn't fit perfectly But I used to want it to

The key made of gold
Is warm and tender
And it fits snugly
And I always want it to My heart stays

Locked up forever Cuz I'm afraid
To get my heart broken

The key of gold
Is welcome in my heart
The key of ice Always forces itself in

If I'm lucky
Gold will melt ice
And when the key finally goes in
He will capture my fragile heart
And love me forever.

Let Me Go

How could you do this to me?
How could you tear me apart?
Was I a bad girlfriend?
Or did you find someone new?

You broke my heart over and over again
I still don't understand why.
I thought I was good to you

When you were cruel
He was loving
He held me when I cried
When I cried from the pain

The pain that you caused That ripped me apart.
Sometimes, I think that It wasn't meant to be.

I don't have the raw feelings for you that I do for him.
Just let me go, please
So I can live my life.

I cant live with you calling
And making him frustrated He cries when you're with me on is time

I promised him I wouldn't call
But I don't know what he'd do.
Even worse, what if we saw each other, one last time?

Just to say our goodbyes
And make everything clear
I may love you in some way
But its not even close

To the way I love him.

Our love is intense, raw Needy, gentle, and forever.
Whatever you and I had is over It'll never be anything again.

Whatever you're trying to do
It wont work.
He's forgiven me too many times
But you and I,
He wont forgive me for that.

I thought we could be friends
But obviously you still want more I cant give you what you want
So please, say goodbye and please Just let me go.

Lies

Lies are easier to tell Even easier to get hurt by We know the truth
Will always come out But lies will always be told Someone always gets hurt Usually it's a friend Who's betrayed your trust
But you still care
Even though they lied
They say they'll stop
But in reality they wont Lies are what makes us human Lies are what is going to take us out

The truth is supposed to be solid.
But sometimes Lies make it crumble Lies shouldn't exist
And the one person who wants no lies
Is the number one liar of them all.

Love Is A Battlefield

Cupid strikes again.
An arrow through the heart
He smiles at you
And your knees tremble
He asks you to the movies
And you agree to go
The battlefield awaits 2 months go by
And things start to fall apart
The walls go back up Around your heart
And you prepare for the inevitable
You walk on to the battlefield
And take a knife to the heart
As he walks away
He joins up with your best friend
And you feel the knife in your back.
Love is a battlefield.

Love Is Enough

How do you know
When it is enough?
When there's enough
Sun, rain, and stars?
How do you decide
That they sun can set?
And the moon can rise.
How do you decide when You've cried enough?
For all that's lost?
For all that's gone?
Everything you know?
How do you know that You have enough
To make you happy?
How do you know
That what you're feeling is love?
Or if it is true?
Love isn't perfect.
It's hard, its scary, and its messy.
But it is enough.
Love is enough.
Always enough.

Lucky

I'm so lucky to be your girl,
To have you in my life
You don't understand
And I can't explain it

I don't think of myself
As pretty or beautiful But for some reason you do
So I consider myself lucky

We met by coincidence
And we trusted each other instantly Even though you knew
We couldn't be together yet

I didn't think you liked me
But you showed me you cared But you didn't have to
And I didn't expect you to

So I'm lucky to be with you
To have a guy like you
Some one who loves me
Some who cares about me

I'm so lucky
That you put up with me
Even when I drive you crazy
I'm so lucky that you stand beside me Oh so very lucky

Lying Eyes

Your soft blue eyes
Are so gentle, yet so deceiving
I want to believe everything you say But your eyes show the truth
Or so I trusted
Those lying eyes
Shouldn't make me weak
I wish you wouldn't Gaze upon me with Those lying eyes
But they won't look away Unblinking blue into brown
I can't stand the pain
The searing stabbing like ice Deep inside my heart
But do you care?
Those lying eyes wide with desire You gentle hands running down my arms
I want so bad to make it work
But I can't get past
Those lying eyes

Maybe

Maybe someday
Everthing will be perfect
Maybe someday
We'll have everything we desire
Maybe someday
There wont be any lies
Maybe some day
Reality will set in for some But that's impossible for a few of us Maybe today we can try To make tomorrow better
Maybe tomorrow
We wont worry about yesterday
Maybe now
We can worry about other things
Other things that matter.
Like you and me

Maybe It's Time

I felt cold and alone
When we spoke last night Because you barely said Anything

Maybe he's more important Maybe he's funner to be around
And if he is I have to know
So I can move on

I'll understand
It just means we've been together for too long

You keep saying
You love me
But when it comes down to it
You don't show it very well.

You knew how I felt about him
But you didn't seem to care
And I said you didn't have to call Unless I couldn't sleep

But you did anyway
And of course you made me cry
If he's more important to you
Maybe it's time
For us to say goodbye

Midnight Tears

I never cry
It shows weakness.
But i can't be strong.
Not anymore.

I've lost the only thing
That mattered in my life
And it hurts.

The tears are warm
As they lay behind my eyes
But I dont let them fall

I look out the window
And gaze at the moon Knowing you used to Look at it too

There are no stars so I guess I wont be able to make a wish I know you wouldnt Want me grieving like this But i am

And as the clock strikes 12
I feel one lone tear escape.

My Baby

Thump Thump Thump Along the Kitchen Floor silently he is not as he races toward the door back and forth more times than I can count he needs to run free but everyone is milling about he tilts his head in wonder his beautiful eyes of green he doesn't make a sound but he sure makes a scene

I finally get up to let the poor thing out but what does he do but run the house throughout

He's definitely crazy sometimes I think he's a dog as he rolls to rub his belly he's there there like a log so soft and silky

I could pet him for hours he purrs very loudly and he never cowers

he's my best friend I love him dearly he's the baby I'll never have
And I'll protect him so severely

My Broken Heart

When my heart broke It was like glass shattering Those pieces that You walk on are because of you

You lied and you cheated You took pleasure in my pain
I don't think these broken pieces can break anymore

My heart has broken Because you didn't care
But you walk away Leaving me to pick Up the pieces

But why do you say
You still love me?
After you hurt me
Why cant you stop Breaking my broken heart.

My Everything

You are my everything
But you may not see that I don't know how to make you see that you are the only one in my head

He means nothing to me.
Only you do.
You are my everything
Everything I need
To keep me going.

You're everything i want
Everything i need
And i never wanna lose you Because you are my one And only everything

My Identity

We are sheep
We follow each other
And do what everyone else does But for me i have one unique quality
I'm very gullable
I'd like to think that no one would like in this world
But i guess thats impossible
I want to trust everyone
But i always get hurt.
I'm not perfect, I know this.
But I'm not horrible either.
I'd like to think that everyone can trust me I'll keep your secrets and i promised i wont tell your darkest one
But if you tell mine and lie about it I'll play your little game
And hurt you ten times worse.
I get close to people
And sometimes too close
I put my feelings on the line
And sometimes i wish i didn't I'm on the chopping block 24/7
But i cant help it.
But i wish people wouldn't hurt me
And next time I'll think twice Before sharing my secrets.

My Last Breath

What would you do
If I didn't have long to live?
If I was suddenly Deathly ill?

Would you stay with me?
Stay by my side
Through my pain
Or would you run?

I know I'd want you with me
To hold my hand
To kiss my cheek
To say goodbye

If you didn't stay
I'd still wish and pray for you
And it would be your name I'd whisper
With my last breath

My Room

The peacock blue walls covered with the most gorgeous gentleman ever. Hehe With the music of crickets mixed with the clucking of chickens force me to drag myself from the depths of my dreams

I grimace as I realize my closet is still spilling over with randomness
And the rug still contains a pile of dirty clothes Takes too much effort to clean.

I notice velcro the purring tabby sprawled on the bed at about 3 feet long I sit next to him and scratch his ears which in the end will be my downfall
For he'll never let me leave.

I sit there thinking about the arguemnts with my mom usually about my brother.
Or the crabby mood I'm in which means Jonathon recieves the short end of my temper.

My writing is spilled over on the table in the middle of the room
But my ideas arent swimming yet I glanced at the smudged blue ink of the regirgitated ideas from the previous night
But i pack it away to take to school

I press play on the stereo but skim through until i find a song that pleases me i begin to think about the drama that awaits me at school I try not to think about it for it gives me a headache

The peacefulness that is always shortlived was disturbed by my own mouth screaming
'Skipper get out of the bathroom! '
So much for a pleasant day.

My Sadness

I remember this first pet I ever lost
She was very special to me
And I did grieve for her

I remember my grandmother Who passed away from Natural causes that I'm unsure of I did cry for her.

I remember when He smashed my heart
And you were there to mend
By battered feelings

I cried a lot for him
But you touched my tears
With your lips
And soothed the pain

You've touched my world
With your fingertips
And you've eased
My sadness.

I hope I never lose you Because there is no one
That can ease my sadness
The way that you can.

My Sweetheart

My Sweetheart's hair is nothing like the moon
It's silky smooth not bumpy nor crazy
It's golden like the sun high at the noon
And makes you feel like all is just daisy His eyes twinkle like bright stars at midnight Brown into blue, he knows what you're thinking Sometimes he's dead on, it gives you a fright
Don't turn away, you remain unblinking
He tells you how he loves you so dearly
You wonder out loud how can that be so You love him too, sometimes so severely
All around you, there's an electric glow
And your heart bursts with love and desire A love so rare, that you must admire

Never Stop

3 years
that's a long time.
I thought i could forget
But i really havent

We were young and immature but not anymore

We had a few precious moments when we both belonged to anohter

But i realized that it's all been a lie

I've learned
That i still love you
And i cant stop

But i cant have you back Because you're under her spell

Her lies, her deceit They've changed who you are

But i cant stop You're who i love You're who i want to be with

Maybe one day You'll realize we belong together
But if not, I'll never stop.
I'll never stop loving you.

No One Knows

No one knows what im going through the pain, the agony
no one knows.

they dont know what its like to feel the amount of guilt that i feel.

how i felt when those girls ended up dead

no one knows
that i want to bury myself in my bed covers and hide from the reality but he knows.

he knows what i need but he's afraid to give it to me

no one knows
that i would give anything to be with him
no one knows what its like to be me

Not Again

I'm not sure if this is a good idea
I forgave him one too many times
I don't think i should again.
Not again.

He doesnt seem different
And you know he's too Absorbed in her But you insist on being around him.

Now, you're gunna hang out
And i'm gunna be left in the cold
I wont let him do this to me.
I wont. Not again.

Maybe you didnt notice
But i'm not fond ofhim
And h'es not gunna Break my heart.
Not again.

I'm not going through this.
Never again.

Only You

Only your arms can save me.
Only your lips can taste me.
Only your eyes can see me Only your ears
Can hear me Only your smile makes me smile too Only your touch can feel me
And only your heart can love me.

Our Memories

My white dress flares at my waist
I feel like a princess
As I walked toward you Do you remember the day you met me?
Or the first time i needed you help?
November 9, My tummy did a flip flop
They day you told me to leave him
But I couldn't find it in my heart to do it But you were right
The day we almost kissed
Or the many days, i laid in your lap
Do you remember when i left him
Or the day you asked me to be yours
What about our first real kiss
The fights we had where we cried When we'd thought we'd lost each other
The day we graduated
Your proposed and of course i said yes
Do you remember everything like i do These memories flood my head
As i think about what we went through to get here You're mine now and you forever will be
And no one can ruin that Saying our vows and I finally confess to you, how i never thought anyone would truly want me So i tell you that it takes a very special person to see past me and see my heart
You not only saw me for me
You stole me heart and broke down
The walls around it

So i guess i make you happy
Because on our wedding day you said 'I do' and so did I
You know that this is forever right?
I Hope you do because today
I promised myself to you And you promised yourself to me

So i hope you're happy because I'll never let you go Never.

Sonnet Of Lies

Lies are easier to spew around
We know the truth will always come out Lies can cause pain that drives us to the ground
But still lies will always be told about Someone always gets hurt no matter what Sometimes it's a friend who's deceived your trust
The betrayal runs deep like a spending cut
Can you ever get over the mistrust?
You still care even though she lied to you
She says she'll stop but it's another lie
You may forgive her, you know you want to She spreads more lies, making you want to cry
The truth should be solid, genuine, and real But people swell up with lies just to feel.

Take My Heart

You say you love me
And I know I love you.
We argue over who Loves the other more.
I'd totally win.
We fight sometimes
But everyone does.
We wouldn't be normal
If we didn't.
You hate it when we Say goodbye
And it gets harder
Every time.
You asked me to love you
But it was kinda hard not to.
You asked a lot of me
But I never said no.
Except when you wanted more I'd given you all I have.
So if I give you my heart
Please don't break it.
I couldn't handle it if you did.

The Possibility

The Possibility
of getting hit by a car
Is slim to none

The possibility
of getting lost in the jungle is possible but not probable

The possibility of losing myself in you Already too late

The possibility of having my heart broken i hope it doesnt happen again

The possibilities are too great of a risk but then again not being risky is boring.

The Very End

I wanna know
What's in your heart
So I can help you

You've told me of your dark past and it made me quiver

I want you around not worrying about your next attack

I wont let him hurt you again He'll go through me first

I could never live without you so
If he tries to hurt you

He has to knock me down.
He wont hurt you without hurting me

I promise I'll stand by you through thick and thin Till the very end

Time

One second Is all it takes 2 minutes
The blood is flowing

3 hours
The family waits 4 days
They don't know if she'll make it

5 weeks
They pull the plug 6 months They've moved on

7 years
They still think of her 8 decades
Little ones hear her story

9 centuries
A stranger learns of the tale

10 forevers
Is she forgotten?

Today

Today

I lost someone

Today

Strange people spoke to me

Today

I found out something awful

Today

I couldn't hear what people were saying

Today

My life changed

Today

It felt over

Today

He asked me if I was okay

I looked at him and said

Maybe Tomorrow I will be

True Friends

True friends will call you Just to say howdy do Fake friends will call you Because they've nothing better to do

True friends are reliable
And will be there in a flash Fake friends are too busy Saying they have a rash

True friends love you for who you are And laugh at your quirks Fake friends try to change you Because you don't have good perks

True friends are always there No matter what comes along Fake friends never care
They never think something's wrong

True friends show you reality
Even when it hurts Fake friends make a fantasy
And ignore all the alerts

True friends join you in glory
When you have a good day
Fake friends writhe in envy and despair
And say that you didn't play fair

True friends will die for you
If you were in danger Fake friends will be at your funeral
Like you were some stranger

True friends never lie, never cheat
And never betray
I know who my real friends are All I'll love them 'til my dying day

Truth

Truth is solid
As my world crumbles
You hold the truth
In your eyes

You pull me from the darkness
And into the light
The truth envelops me
But soon I disappear

The lies come at me from all sides
I cant find the truth no matter how hard I try

Help me through the darkness Which has swallowed me once more
I'm so lost and confused

The truth in your eyes helps me find my way without you by my side
I would be lost forever

If you ever left me
I would be so lost
Nothing would have form Nothing would matter

The pain would crush me crack my bones This dagger i hold would bring the truth again

When you are watching me be lowered into the earth the truth of the matter will make sense

I'm nothing without you
You caused me to take my life
The dagger, was still clutched in my hand when you found me

I always told you
I would die for you
I hope you forgave me
When you found me in a pool of blood

We'll never know now Because i had to go Even though some didn't want me to The truth caused me too much pain

I knew the truth behind your lies That's why you snapped at me

That's why we fought That's why I'm gone
I didn't wanna lose you
But the truth is

When I killed my self
I killed us too.

Untitled Love Poem

I didn't realize how much I missed you Until you showed me what we could have gotten into I wish we never said goodbye
I could have gotten lost in your eyes
I melted in your arms Got so turned on by your charm
And I opened my heart
And I hated when we were apart.
Your kisses were to die for,
Sometimes you were hardcore
But I didn't have you
You were enthralled in that shrew
She treats you so poorly
But you won't walk away prematurely God I wanted it all
I wanted it all with you, the long haul
They say true love never dies
That doesn't change no matter how many lies After three years and I'm still not over us
Maybe I never will be, but I won't obsess
But I don't think I can let go
I don't really want us to be through Do you feel the same?
Maybe one day you'll get back in the game
Hope you will before it's too late Because God I need you, and I don't want to wait.

Velvet

Velvet soft skin warm against mine
His velvet touch Makes me melt

The velvet promise he made to me
makes the heavens sing with love

The velvet song
I sang to him made him weak and he became mush

The velvet angel they sent from above put a spell on me and I glowed with love

As he took my hand and slid the ring on my finger I kissed his velvet lips and vowed my love to him forever

What About Me?

I'd like to think that I would do anything for you
I consider myself
A good person
I'd like to think That I'm good to you

I try to give you Everything you desire
I give you my arms
When you need to cry
I give you my heart
Though I know it's on the line
I give you my back bone to stand up For what you know is right
But you don't seem to be satisfied.

You always want more
And there's not much more
Of me to give you
I want to keep my body for now
But I'll keep my dignity forever

And every once in a while Maybe something that shows
That I'm important to you too.
Something for just me and you Like just sitting together In the bitter cold
Just so we aren't alone.

But you can't seem to do that
What about me?
When am I going to be important to you?

What's Left?

Take away beauty
Take away hope Take away family
Take away feeling Take away life
Take away friends Take away you Take away love
Take all that away,
Whats left?

Why Didnt You Call Me?

Why didn't you call me?
I sat by the phone all day
But I heard nothing
You couldn't take five minutes
And pick up a phone

What have I done to you?
I was so worried when you told me about your plans.
When you said you were Going to see him

You told me you were scared
I said call me when you get home
Then I'll come see you
You told me later, that you never went But couldn't let me know

Why didn't you call me?
Am I that bad of a friend
I didn't do anything
But wait for your call so
Why didn't you call me?

Words

There are happy and positive words
Then sad and bad words
We say good things to people we love
And bad things to people we hate But what happens when The 2 get mixed up?
When we say something bad
About someone we love
When your worst enemy needs your help?
What do you do when your best friend stabs you in the back?
Or you ex boyfriend says he wants you back?
What do we say?
Sometimes its hard to find the words to say to someone
And sometimes they roll off the tongue without us thinking Its kind of like an infection
An infection in everyone called words.
The infection is cured when there is eternal silence.

Would You Leave Me?

I saw my sister
Screw up her life
So I don't wanna End up like her

I'm not ready to be MOM
And you aren't ready to be dad
So I'm afraid you'd leave me

If it was an accident
And another life was involved
Would you leave me
To be a single mother?

If I was forced
By someone I didn't know
Would you make me Get rid of it?

Then if I wanted to keep it,
Would you leave me?
This wasn't my fault
But I wont murder and innocent

You said you wouldn't Let me keep it
But would you leave me
If I wanted it?

I don't want to be A single mom.
I don't wanna be without You ever. But I'm scared.

If I overwhelmed you.
Tell me and I'll back off.
Cuz I'll do anything to keep you.
Anything to make you stay.

You

I like you and I miss you
You make me cry, then laugh
Why do you make me so angry
Then brighten my day.

You confuse me
Yet you're the only thing that makes sense My heart tightens in my chest at the amount of emotion i feel

Would you understand
If I laid down my life for you or someone you love

If I shut the door in your face
Would you bang on the door Or just walk away

I wanted to fix us but you walked away from me
I'm lost in this world without you Please come back and help me up.

Help me through life
Help me be us again
Or would you let us go
And let us die away

You Didn't Want Me

I was told at seven
That she's not my mother
Why do I call her mom
If you're the one

You didn't want me
You never tried to take care of me You gave up

Why do you continue to treat me like I'm four When you gave me up because you didn't want me

Leave me alone
I don't wanna be near you
The whiskey on your breath Makes me sick

I don't wanna be near you
You didn't want me
So don't push me around You're no longer my mother
