Allowance

OK - I allow you,
to walk all over Me.

You find new, always romantic, ways, to show Me your love, cause you really love Me.

but I see in you,

what you really want to do, is to walk,

I think you really want to walk all over ME.

Anna Kypros

Heads

Mother,

these, sisters and old friends, who turned their heads when you trustsmiled at them,

I twist them heads and like true chicken I behead them, these sisters and old friends, who abused and scorned you when you fell down,

I twist their necks, and run about with the beheaded heads and jump and cry:
down evil you shant survive!
