'The Disconnect Between Us'

I am a child, and you are an elder,
But you are not like an angel.

I am foolish, and you are intelligent,
But you quarrel every time.

I am blind, and you have eyes,
But you don't see the beauty of the world.

I am dumb, and you have a tongue,
But you don't speak good words.

I am deaf, and you have ears,
But you want to hear the mistakes of others.

I am helpless, and you have hands,
But you use machines for work.

I am lame, and you have legs,
But you don't go out of your room.

I am a heart patient, and you are healthy,
But your heart is hard.

I am poor, and you are rich,
But you are like a poor man.

I am an infidel, and you are a believer,
But you don't have love.

I am alone, and you live in a crowd,
But why do you feel lonely?

I am blind, and you have eyes,
But you have no dreams.

I am ignorant, and you are a scholar,
But your words are meaningless.

I am a loser, and you are a winner,
But you are not happy.

I am an enemy, and you are a friend,
But why do you want to kill me?

I am a poet, and you read me,
But you don't know me.

Tale Of Two Perspectives

My mind says, 'Stay in the room'
My heart says, 'Explore the universe'

My mind says, 'She has only a body'
My heart says, 'She has a beautiful soul'

My mind says, 'Get the degree'
My heart says, 'Seek knowledge'

My mind says, 'Kill the neighbor'
My heart says, 'Love the neighbor'

My mind says, 'Plunder the world'
My heart says, 'Give to the world'

My mind says, 'God is not here'
My heart says, 'God is always here'

My mind says, 'Rule the earth'
My heart says, 'Live in harmony'

My mind says, 'Invent new weapons'
My heart says, 'Keep peace'

My mind says, 'He is a small man'
My heart says, 'He is a great soul'

My mind says, 'He is ignorant'
My heart says, 'He is wise'

My mind says, 'Live for money'
My heart says, 'Live in love'

My mind says, 'He hurt you'
My heart says, 'Forgive his mistake'

My mind says, 'Don't agree with his opinion'
My heart says, 'Respect his perspective'

My mind says, 'You are a great poet'

My heart says, 'You are humble'

The Beauty In Your Eyes

'A universe dwells in your eyes, water, flowers, moons and skies.

When I see into your eyes, I leave this earth, and touch the skies.

When I saw your face,
my heart dances, singing,
it's always a beautiful surprise

'Universe Of Love And Beauty'

'Universe serving, day and night
We are busy, in war and fight
The Sun comes early morning
Makes a day, full of charming

Shine goes everywhere to spread
Melts snow on the mountain's head
Its warmth gives us fruit and bread
Reminds us of the promise God said

The flowers in the garden, and the trees
Give us freshness and breeze
The smell of roses is the smell of the soul
The shadow of the tree hugs me tight

The tree in the garden swings my eye
To see leaves on branches high
The Night comes with moon and stars so bright
They look very near, but they are far from sight

Stars look at me with all their shine
The Moon gives a smile all the time
Moonlight falls on the bench in the street
Lovers look like angels when they meet

We invent new weapons of war
Kill love everywhere, near and far
All men are creations of love
Try to lower others, to keep themselves above

Do not see what God made for us
We have no time for all these blessings
Universe, God, and you, and me
Leave all the work, enjoy beautiful and keep see

The Wisdom Of The Child

A little child is my master;
I'm met by him in my nature.
He does not worry about his past,
He does not care about the future.
Smiles dance on his face,
In both joy and serious cases.
When he's hurt, he forgets;
He lives in joy, blessed.
He teaches me a holy lesson:
I can live happily in tension.
An elder may not know love,
But a child knows he is above.
I started respecting children;
He shows me the way to heaven.
We may be wise, but we get zero;
He loves us, he is a hero.
When I meet a child, I feel like a child

In The Realm Of Unseen

Fly in water, walk on air,
Enjoy in death, wait for life to share.
Cry in happiness, laugh in tears,
Listen with eyes, see with ears.

In the depths of water, I spread my wings,
In the vastness of air, my footsteps sing.
In death's dark embrace, I find delight,
And in life's promise, I wait with all my might.

Tears of joy streaming down my face,
Laughter echoes in a sorrowful place.
Eyes that hear the silent whispers deep,
Ears that see the beauty in secrets we keep.

Winter Does Not Come Alone

After summer winter comes
Haze every where its fun
Open the door and walk
Eat the ice cream and run

A Christmas comes with him
Trees and hearts shine
We do not stay at home
Hearts celebrate and sing
"Its time is mine its time is mine"

In the winter New Year smiles
Past says "Good bye my boy"
Let's learn what you did
Open the new door of experience
Do new experiment doesn't be shy

Christmas Is A Day Of Freedom

Jesus brought freedom for us
We live in love we live in bless

He frees us from every sin
Hate, selfness goes to bin
We meet our old brother
Eat, drink, and laugh together

Love takes breath in the soul
Flowers dancing and they sing
We hug all our foes
And doves fly in the ring

Word of fighting is removed Love, forgiveness every where We respect our elder and child
We think about them and care

A new life welcomes us
We live in love we live in bless

When Our Eyes Meet

We fly in the sky
We walk on the moon
Lips touch to each other
We kiss during fly

Birds sing a song
Trees sway in the ground
We walk on the grass
And birds fly around

Ice melts on the iceberg and sun starts shine
A cool breeze touch me
When eyes say, "you are mine"

We walk in the street
Moon peeps trough the cloud hearts dance and they sing
"I love you, I love you" loud

Listen

I was a great speaker
I criticized on all the people
I proved in my words
All People are foolish,
Love has been cold
Blood has been white
Education is without knowledge
Scholar's words are meaningless
The Rich people rule on the poor
The Believer acts are as infidel
People live for money
Now, I am tried
To my words
I am keep quite
I want to live
In your eyes
Beautiful smile
And loving words
From beautifully lips
I want to listen

Silence

Silence is a beauty of nature
Mountain, sea, sky and sun
Moon, star and other creature
It's not mean, they do not talk
Sing and dance likes music rock
Waves of sea and winds blow
It makes a sound, up and low
God keeps silent but he loves
All these beauty created for us
If you want to enjoy this silence
Spent your life with you self
It will tell you what you are?
Give you answer, it does help.

War From Pride To Repent

'I was a brave young soldier
When we attacked the enemy's country
We destroyed their region, I felt proud
But little did I know, my joy would be clouded

We returned home, people welcomed us with garlands
We celebrated, sang songs, and danced
But one night, while we slept, the enemy army attacked
Destroying everything, leaving bodies scattered in the fields, people crying

All homes were damaged, I remembered my past
When I attacked and destroyed the enemy's region at last
Now, I repent, feeling weak and ashamed
My enemy is celebrating, but soon they'll feel the same
