Yo-!

for
life, death, and love.
take my heart
and try not to break it treasure it
But please dont break it

Ashlee Stover

You

You Drain my tears my eyes. You make me feel pain in my chest. You drill the holes in my head. You are always on my mind. You just dont get that i love you, and only you. So then you looked at me, and smiled then said 'I love you too, now and forever.' Then you held me tight. Now you stop the tears from my eyes. You stop the pain in my chest. You heal the holes in my head. Your still alyways on my mind. You do get that i love you. Take, hold, treasure, love, comfort, and dont break my heart that is yours.
