Assorted Thoughts()

Hello everyone!

I've decided to re-post my works under my old name, "Some Guy"

These go back to January 2007 but felt the need to add them as well as some others that I deleted under my new name.

I am very grateful for the positive feedback and am looking forward to spending more time reading your poems.

Some of the stuff I write is just silly, random wordplay... It passes the time, lol

The other is based on personal experience.

I view writing as both fun and cathartic.

Thank you for reading

Godspeed, Andy

Depression

Depression takes everything
Devours it whole
Like a firestorm on a rampage
Consuming your soul
It dashes your hopes
And crushes your dreams
All for the amusement
Of this cruel disease

Assorted Thoughts

Empty

This emptiness inside
Can't be contained
I am brimming over
With nothing

Assorted Thoughts

Haunted

Not on a hill
Far out of view
Nor drenched in tales
By Halloween dew
This warm house
May welcome you
As it threatens me in silence
For I am haunted too

Assorted Thoughts

Ironic

Our primal emotions are love and fear
One of my biggest fears
Is love...

Lost

Lost in a moment

Lost in thought

Lost in words

Whether spoken or not

Lost in ways I cannot comprehend

Lost in you

Drove me to my wit's end

Marriage

This odd couple
Must have been blind
When they said, "I do"
Till the end of time
One blames the other
For all the distress
Leaving it to a therapist
To clean up the mess
They argue constantly
Though they'll never part
Such is the marriage
Of my head and heart

Ocd

At first

The light switch was flattered

Now

It just wants to be friends

Assorted Thoughts

Only To Find

I confided in you

Only to find it was ammunition to be used against me at your own discretion

I trusted in you

Only to find my secrets revealed in the eyes of others

I gave my heart to you

Only to find it carelessly tossed aside

I fell in love with you

Only to find

I hated

Myself

Poem Of The Day:

The long winded, encyclopedic ramblings of these deceased windbags who shuffled their feet across the dirt floors whilst composing these works under dimly lit lanterns seem outdated.

It is honorable to pay reverence to the true masters of this art but there comes a time when the field is beyond harvesting and cannot be cultivated again.

Although, I would hate to see Billy Corgan and Jewel become the new front-runners in years to come.

Oh well, carry on...

Short Stuff

January 2nd
The gym is bloated
With resolutions

The beginning
Of reflection
Sunset

Adversity
Impeding my progress-
Short bus

Snow bank
Sifting through
All the deposits

Boxing up
All the memories
Picture frame

Alone
Watching the sunset
Just me...

Short Stuff Continued

Yearbook

All my friends

On the same page

Drooling over

The flower arrangement-

Loveseat

Steamy shower

Wilts the rose garden-

Wallpaper

A blanket of white

On a spring morning

Bradford Pear

First customer

An open heart

Closes for repairs

Prison

All the crime

Tending the field

Cell phone junkies
How we've evolved
Alexander...

A shot in the dark
On either side of the coin
Back alley hooker

I took a drive
Down memory lane
And broke down

After the rain
Bare branches
Laden with jewels

Assorted Thoughts

Tree

At the park I passed a tree
Two lovers engraved their love to me
Upon returning some time later
A fading heart
That said forever
