

Poetry Series

awhina wiliams
- poems -

Publication Date:
2006

Publisher:
Poemhunter.com - The World's Poetry Archive

awhina wiliams()

Her Disguise

When she looks outside
What can she smell
Something so wonderful
Disguised as hell

When she hears the wind
What does she feel
A sensational breeze
Her skin starts to peel

When she looks at herself
What does she see
Her body in pain
Unable to breathe

Her world is burning
With each breath she takes
Her soul is dying
With every step she makes

awhina williams

To My Father

My body will burn
My heart will ache
Each bone in my body
Will eventually break

My soul will wander
I am a gypsy inside
I'll walk alone
And slowly die

This chain on my heart
Will tighten each day
My tears will be useless
And fade away

Though i'm afraid
I'll continue on through
And suffer in silence Escaping you

awhina williams