Never Give Up

Life is full of dirty tricks /
So i'm focused & following my dream while others will be chasing them chicks /
Everyday i'm placing them bricks towards building my dreams /
Coz i believe that anything is possible /
I'm incomparable, unstoppable so don't try to stop me coz i'm flammable /
No matter what i will never give up /

I took a key & tried to open doors of opportunities /
But the key could not simple open & i wonder why? /
Why i don't become rich & famous just like other people /
No-one can answer all my question /
And i realise that i have to stand up & do things for myself in order to survive /
I realise that i have to be better today than i was yesterday /
But not as great i would be tommorrow /
