Ben Kaiser(3-13-91)

Hi I'm currently a senior in Highschool and I am already half way done to completeing my first poetry book. I'm a multi sport athlete and I am very religous.

Dare To Dream

Daring to dream is the new thing,
just when you think all you see is a gleam.
Do you dare to dream, wandering what you will see.
Will it be me, she or jhust another damn anarchy.

But it is a risk to take, and your choice to make.
Dare to dream and see what it takes.
But don't mistake for its your faith.
Daring to dream, what step will you take?

Day After Day

Honey I love you no matter what you say.

I will be here for you day after day.

April and May day after day, Supposedly they say each day is a new day.

Baby I love you ask god even he will say.

We will be together till our final days.

Dreams Have Blinded Me

Your, dreams are yours to make.
Though, some do not come true.
Because of the choice and roads we take.

I've dreamed once, thinking of who I'd be.
Then it soon left me, like the leaves on a tree.
Then it all hit me, and then I finally could see.

That dreams have blinded me.
Because we don't know who we want to be.

Faith

I've lost faith and I don't know why.
But each night I seem to cry and cry.

Each day gets worse and worse.
And everyday I fell the pain of remorse.

But this is what they expect of me.
Even though you don't know sh^t about me.

So go ahead and put me down.
And sure maybe you will see me frown.

But don't think you got the best of me.
Because I was told to lead and believe.

So don't think I've lost faith.
Because I'll hit you so hard, like a spray of mace.
And todays the day I'll never lose faith.

I Love You Babe

I love you more than anything.
O please let me stay.
I'll pray for you every single day.
I know what did was stupid and dumb.
Can you please respond instead of a hum.
I promise I'll make things bright.
Believe me I'll make thing right.
But all I need is that one thing you say.
I love you to come here my babe.

Jesus Guide Me

Jesus will you help me in this dark gulley night.
I am afraid I can not find the ligjht.
I am a good man, I confess to the all might.
Will you guide me and help me find the light.

It is dark and cold when you are alone.
But at least with you jesus I know I'll make it home.

Justice Will Be Served

Justice will be served and the battle will rage.
We'll never back down, we'll fight you day after day.
Never expect us to run and hide.
We have too much country pride.
You blindsided us and you thought we would cry.
Except we loaded up our guns and you all ran and hide.
You made a big mistake, now live up to what you did.
We'll take it easy on you, we'll let you live.
Now come out of your caves and serve to what you did.

Memories

Memories are waiting, memories to make.
Lets go and hurry up, no need to wait.
Memories of the past always seem to last.
No matter what happens the past is the past.
Come with me baby, I'll swear we will make it last.
You and I together will make memories that will last.

My Crush

My crush.

Some say I'm childish, some say I am dumb.

Though whenever you talk to me, I block out all I hear is a hum.

She is my crush, I affray to what you say.

She is my crush, it'll change in a few days.

My Crush Only For A Day

My crush.

Some say I'm childish, some say I am dumb.

Though whenever you talk to me, I block out all I hear is a hum.

She is my crush, I affray to what you say.

She is my crush, it'll change in a few days.

Proud Of Me

The time is ticking and the game is in my hands
I can hear my fans all up in the stands
Hear it comes the moment we all wanted to see
I get tackled short, right near the three
I look up not knowing what will be
I look over at the stands as the fans are staring at me
I think to myself this is it I'm done
All of sudden a clap appears from my son
All of a sudden everyone joined along
Then I realized everything I have done
Now I know what is meant to be
All I cared about was my son to be proud of me

The Boy

Although you barely know me
I'll show you who you see
I'm just the boy who loved
For so long and helplessly

Ben Kaiser

War

War happens for a reason I don't know why
It almost makes me want to cry
As people died for their liberty to seek
As I just sit there and bleak
Though war happens for a cause
I wonder why, sit there and pause

Whatever You Want

What ever you like, you get what you deserve.
I actually deliver, the others just speak the word.
I'm the one you want, you get what you like.
You just say it and baby I'll make it right.
Baby we will be like two spirits in the sky.
When I'm with you it fells like i can fly.
And baby you can have whatever you like.

Why Bad People Cry

We are all sinners, and sometimes good people go to Hell.
Sometimes life's can be taken.
Just by the ring of a bell.

Though, Good people sin and so do the bad.
Now people just make peace, because it is a fad.

Though people don't know why they do what they do.
Why is that bad people cry boo hoo.

So bad people, make peace so they can see God.
And take up all the room, and leave good people in the sod.

Ben Kaiser

You Are My Hope

You are my hope, you make me smile
I will stay with you for awhile
And it's almost time for me to leave
Just like the wind blows through the trees
Now it time to go bye bye bye bye
But promise me you won't cry

Ben Kaiser

You Are My Light

You are my light
You are my day
I wish I could be with you every single day
Although our future is foreseen
Every moment with you is a endless dream

Ben Kaiser

You Don'T Have To Forgive

Please forgive me for I have made a big mistake.
I didn't mean to hurt you.
I should have never gone on that date.

I know you can never forget.
About that evil thing I did.
I swear I'll change my ways, you don't have to forgive.

Ben Kaiser

You Wanted It To Be

I may be a jock, but i have fellings to.
But you wouldn't know that because you think the world revolves around you.

But I don't care what you do, and don't expect me to cry boo hoo.
But never forget what you did to me.
How you messed with he and fooled with me.

Now you ask forgiveness from me.
B^tch please this how you wanted it to be.
