Brooke Lynn Moore(January 1,1991)

To tell you the truth I have grown up a lot in a year. As I am only 18 years old I know that I will have many more life changing experiences, but I am very pleased to say that I am completely content with my life currently. I hope that my poetry will reflect this obvious change in my life. I am blessed beyond comprehension with a loving family and great friends. I can only hope that my life continues this uphill sprint that it seems to be on. My love and prayers to you all.

A Message To Men

All the power of the streets,
And shops and trolleys and noises
Disorganized in sound and vision
It all comes up like steam
From the subway grates,
It is collected in men's bodies
And it liberates their minds
They feel empowered,
As if the world
Is theirs to conquer
No conscience holding them back
And nothing hindering their progress,
Only mere obstacles standing in their way
But man should have little or no problem
For he is superior over all else
Nothing can take him down
Nothing, that is, but a woman
A woman is a force to be reckoned with
She is the voice in the back of your mind Telling you that you are a moron
Although right now, a woman is overlooked
One day, soon enough, you will wish
That you had listened to her Because if you had Perhaps you wouldn't be here right now Lying, six feet under
With her, the new superior
Spitting on your grave
Whispering, "I told you so."

Because Of You

You're finally paying
For the pain you've caused Finally all my praying
Is paying off

You enter my mind
Day in and day out
It makes me wanna cry
It makes me wanna shout

What you did to me
Will scar me for life
Inside I'm hoping
That you slip up and die

I'm happy when I say
You'll be gone forever soon
I hope that days today
I hate everything about you

I can't believe I trusted you
That was a huge mistake
But it'll come back to haunt you
It came back today

I can finally put my fears to rest
And move on with my life
I can slow down and take a breath
Its all over right?
Wrong!

Forever I'll remember
That fateful, cloudy day
No matter how hard
I try to forget,
It will remain inside me
For as long as my memory lives

I'm untrusting because of you

I runaway because of you
I give up because of you
My life is ruined because of you
My innocence was taken because of you
I will live my life forever in fear
Because of you

You may physically die
But your memory will shadow
Over me forever
I hope you suffer as much as I do
Each and everyday, because of you

Boy Meets Girl

Girl falls flat on her butt
And head over heels

Girl gets to know him
And just like that She knows how she feels

Hoping he feels the same way
She gives him a smile
He smiles back

It may seem like it here
But in reality
It didn't happen that fast

Its not that hard to figure out
What happenes next
In the story of girl meets boy

Now they're together
And couldn't be happier
Thats the end of this story

Cancer

Cancer
One of many Frightening words
For a month
That was all I thought about
Death
What if that's What it leads to He'd be gone
Would I cry?
Family
What if I lost him
My dad, gone
My life would end
My mind is crazy
Family gone
Death by

Dear Steven

When things in my life start to go AWOL
I write
But I can't ever remember a time when I sat there and rewrote the first line over and over Like now
You know something is really wrong
When you can't even do the one thing you are sure of When you know exactly what you want to say
But you can't
You can't because you know it will hurt the person you love
You can't because you know exactly how much you will hurt if you do
You can't because you know inside that its wrong
But then you can't not because you're sure that its right Confusing huh?
Well here it is then
I love you with everything that I have
And I have never been more sure of anything in my life
You are the most wonderful, deserving, kind-hearted, forgiving man that I know
And I can't be with you anymore.
I have done so many things to hurt you Never on purpose but nonetheless
You forgave me once
Then twice
Then a hundred times more
I have broken promises, my word, and your heart
Over and over like the first line of this poem
I will never stop loving you
I don't think I can
But I am asking you to make the right decision here
And stop loving me
You deserve much, much better
And one day you will find a woman who treats you better than I ever could
This has been an ongoing internal conflict for sometime now
And I have come to the conclusion that the reason I have decided to do this again
Is because I love you
You should know though
That this time we part our ways yet again
We will not be us ever again

Because time does not heal all wounds
And I love you too much to look into your eyes
And see just how deep I've cut you
And though I am in no position to ask any favors here
I will ask that you don't try to drink this away
You will realize one day that I am doing the right thing
By saying goodbye
I am so sorry Steven
More than you will ever know

Do It For Me

Is it always this hard?
Or is it just me?
Theres just something about it
Its not meant to be

We need to do something
You know we should Because as of right now
It doesn't look good

It won't be easy
But that's okay
I'm willing to work
If you'll do the same

We have to be honest
And keep eachother close
Out of everything else
That matters the most

With a little effort
And a whole lot of heart
We'll make this work
And we'll never be apart

Your life does mean something
And I need you to see
If for nothing else

Brooke Lynn Moore

Don'T

Don't say you know how it feels Because you don't

Don't say it'll be okay
Because it won't

Don't lie to me
I've had enough of that

My life has some meaning
About as much as a rat's

Don't tell me to get some rest
Its not that easy

Don't tell me to cool off
You don't know me

Don't say you're sorry
Because you're not

Don't say it won't happen again
Because it will, a lot

Don't waste you time on me
Its not worth it

Don't say you'll be right back
Because I won't buy it

Just don't, don't

Endurance For Freedom

Love, anger, sadness, hate
Emotions I feel everyday Cry, cut, bleed, cry
I just do it, don't ask why
It helps somehow
So I do it now
Then the pain is gone
But not for long
I don't cry, I can't sleep
I hardly ever eat
All the pain makes me weaker
So I cut deeper
As life gets tough
My wrist gets rough
And I'm left with more pain than before
But its worth it I'm sure
To forget about you
And what you made me do
To forget everything

For You

I wanna hurt myself
For what I did to you
Boy I know you're hurtin'
But I don't want you to Remember when I said

I'll love you till I die?
Well, i'm here to tell you now
That boy, I didn't lie

I'm not saying
Forgive me tonight
Because If I were you
I would take my time

What I did was wrong
And I hate myself for it
Just run your fingers across my wrist
Then you will feel the slits

I cut until I bleed
I bleed until I cry
I feel so much better
I no longer wanna die

I love you and hate me
And want you to see;
That I would die for you Cry for you
Lie for you
Cut for you
Kill for you

Goodbye

In my moment of weakness, I admit I caved
But thats already a part of me that I can't change
Its hard to keep up this image that everythings okay
When its not, cuz its different, nothings the same
I used to think that this was just a phase
A phase from which I was already saved

But its not and now my wrist is numb
I realize that what I did was dumb
When I want to get away I can't run from
The person that I hate because I'm the only one
I need some help, a little, just some Either that or give me rum

I'm forced to live my life as a lie
But I have to do it otherwise
Everything will get ruined including my life
And if that happens again I'll break down and cry
When it would be so much easier to just give up and die
In fact I think I'll do that, goodbye

Home Sweet Home

Everyday I wake up and find myself alone
I find myself wishing I was home
But not the home that I've grown accustomed to
The only home for me, is the home I've built with you
That's the only place I can truly be myself
Where the only things I need are my love and my health
You are with whom I wish to share my life
I felt this way even before you asked me to be your wife
I miss how you held me, so soft and so close
And whispered in my ear, "I love you the most"
I trust that you love me, I know that you care
I believe that tomorrow you'll still be there

(Inspiration: Steven H.)

I Hate It

This world so dark and cruel
I often feel alone
But the worst part about it
Is that I don't have to be
I just keep driving people away
The people that I know care for me
And I can't help it because I feel if I ask for help
That will show that I'm weak
And I don't think I could Deal with everybody knowing
Who I truly am, a coward
A girl lost in her own world
With no one to turn to Screaming for attention
And nobody looks
But if somebody does look
She turns them away
She doesn't think anybody can relate Or understand why she is the way she is
I make people feel sorry for me
Then turn my back
Why do I do this
It doesn't make sense
I'm only hurting myself
But that's not true
Because I'm hurting everyone
That sticks their neck out for me
And I hate how I act
I hate how I am
I hate who I've become
So why don't I just change my ways Because in doing that I'll feel I'm giving in
And that means I lose
This never-ending circle of hatred
Is my life, forever
I won't change it

I Hate... I

Hate is a word often overused
After too much use it loses its meaning
Under some circumstances it remains true
For example, every time I mention you
That's when I can truly say
That I feel a feeling so strong
That the words itself comes with pain
The most undesired word of all, hate
This feeling I feel for you
Is completely one-dimensional
For so long, only I knew
So I decided to let you know too
It feels so good to speak my mind
After all these years, finally I'm free
Free from knowing that you're living a lie
And admitting finally, that you, are I

I Have You

As I look around the room
I realize you're not here
Then rolling down my cheek
Is a single, lonely tear

But then the tear is joined Its no longer alone
Then I look around the room
I'm still the only one

But then a sudden noise
And you walk through the door
A smile crosses my face
I'm not alone anymore

I act as if I was okay
But I know you know the truth
I used to be alone and scared
But now that I have you;

I can smile
I can trust
I can laugh
I can love

I can be
Who I am
But this time for real
Not for pretend

Now that I have you
My true colors can show
I'm no longer afraid

I Hope

I'm standing outside
All my bags are packed
You're the only thing
Holding me back

I can't bring myself to leave
Knowing you'll still be here
I want to work things out
Its been over half a year

But what I'm scared of most Is putting myself out there
And being shot down
I know I shouldn't care

But I have a reason
To care as much as I do
I could handle being shot down
Just not from you

Out of everyone else
Your opinion matters most I guess its because We used to be so close

You knew my darkest secrets
My closest personal fears
You were there when things were good
You were there when there were tears

You know me better than anyone
But I guess that also means
That because I trusted you so
I thought you'd never hurt me

So I guess now you can see
That it came as sort of a shock
When you did those hurtful things Like glass hit by a rock

But like I said before
I'm willing to work things out
I mean, if you want to
Is it something we can talk about?

I told you that I loved you
And I still feel that way
You probably don't
But that's okay

I've swallowed my feelings for this long
A few more years won't hurt
Then I'll never see you again
And my new life I can start

But I hope with all I have
And I pray with all my faith
That you realize we should be together
And come back to me someday

I Just Love You So Much

I don't know when I'll next see your face
And I hate it so much I'm going insane
I miss you lips and your tender touch
I miss everything about you I just miss you so much

Maybe I'm taking this a little too far
I just don't know how not to, that's the way things are I care about you more than anything
If I could I would give you everything

I did something dumb and now I don't know what to do
Now I've moved away and don't know when I can see you
If someone would just tell me it'll take this many days
I'll start to countdown and I'll be okay

Because at least I'll know for sure
That there's hope beyond this wooden door
With hope lies faith, and with faith lies love
Maybe it's a sign from far up above

It's saying we are meant to be, we are meant to be together
That if we just push through this, you'll be mine forever
It doesn't matter what they say, I know you care for me
I just see something in you that no one else sees

I see a man, not a boy, with the biggest of all hearts
And I know that when you try, you can be very smart
You have irresistible lips, and the most loving tender touch
I love everything about you, I just love you so much

(Inspiration: Steven H.)

I Know You Love Me

I'm going to kiss you like its the last chance I'll get I'm going to make sure you never forget

I'm gonna let you hold me like you'll never let me go
I'm gonna tell you that I love you and make sure you know

We'll laugh about it later but now is not the time
Just tell me that you love me and that you'll always be mine

We may not get this chance again, so this I need to do
I need to tell you that my heart will always belong to you

Now, if we make it through this we will last forever
I have faith though, that we'll always be together

I know I love you and I know you love me
And that won't change I promise, for anything

I Love You Too

For the first time in my life
I can finally, honestly say
That I know how it feels
To truly be in love
Because I finally feel that way

I thought that I knew
I thought I'd felt it before
But I've never felt this strongly About anyone in my life
That's why I'm so sure

I've never been this happy
In my entire life
It's amazing when you hold me
Because that's the only time I know
That everything is right

Everything is perfect
Because I'm sitting here with you
I wish I didn't have to go
If only time could stand still For just a moment or two

I really have to go
But I'll come back I promise you
Because you're the only person
That when you tell me you love me
I know that you're telling the truth

I Need You

When I'm happy
When I'm sad
When I'm mad
When I'm depressed
When I'm joyful
When I'm in doubt
When I just need someone
To be there
To let me stand there
With my head burried in their shoulder
So that no one else
Can see me cry
Because I don't cry
I can no longer cry
I won't cry
But if I do cry
I'd want you to be there
Like you always have been Before all this I mean
I want you to be the one
That I know I can come to
If I ever need to
When I need a friend
What I'm really saying
Is I need yo

I Still Love You

Why don't you understand that it hurts me to hurt you?
Its not something that I ever planned to do
I need you to realize that I still love you
And I always will, I hope you'll love me too

I can't stand knowing that you're mad at me
We used to laugh so carefree and happily
It won't work out right now, you have to see
Or maybe it can work out, its just me

All I need right now, is a friend to hold my hand
To help me get through, good times and bad
It hurts me so much to know that you're mad
But it hurts even more to know that you're sad

And its all because of me and my selfish ways
My relationships usually only last a few days
But with you it was different in every way
Inside I hope that you feel the same

But why should you?
I don't deserve you...
I had you, but I let you go
And now you hate me
And that makes me hate me
But not you
Because I could never hate you
Because I feel so strongly for you Because...
I love you
And always will.

I'LI Be Fine

I'm lying in the grass thinking about your sweet sweet face
I miss when we were together and you made everything okay
I've been feeling better but I'll never be the same
I guess I've finally figured out that love is just a game

The day that you told me that you and I were through
I told you that my heart still belonged to you
And although my love for you is still true
I'll let you go because thats the right thing to do

I always used to say that if you ever left me
That my life would be nothing, void, and empty
But now that we're apart I think I finally see That someday, somehow, this was meant to be

So now you go your way and I'll go mine
Don't worry about me I'll be just fine
One day I know that the light will shine
Once again on my love life

I'M Sorry

I'm sorry for the pain I've caused
I'm sorry for hurting you
I'm sorry for what I've done
And for what I'm about to do

I want to let you know
That I never meant for this
Its complicated right now
Thats just the way it is

I want you to know
That this isn't because of you
Its because of me
Its something I have to do

But at least I feel better
After I'm all done
The scars are left forever
But the pain is gone

I'd listen to you
If I thought you understood
But you don't
So don't act like its all good

Its really not that easy
On my side of the fence
Everything's confusing
Nothing makes any sense

So each time I cut
I go deeper and deeper
And the mountain I'm climbing Gets steeper and steeper

But I'm not complaining
Because I know its all my fault
I'm digging myself a hole
And soon I won't be able to get out

Thats why I'm writing this
I'm asking for your help
I don't want everyone to know
But I can't do it by myself

Please as a friend
Do this one thing for me
And you'll have my everlasting grattitude
And my friend you'll always be

But if you come please hurry
Because it might be too late
If I slip just once
It may be my last walk of shame

Its Not Too Late

To turn back now
All you have to do is say
That you can't do this Admit that you are scared
That you don't know how To do what we're about to
To finally say "I do"
I won't be upset
Because to tell you the truth
I'm just as scared as you
Not of the commitment
But of what comes after that After the white dress
And flower girls
After cutting the cake
And our first dance
What I'm afraid of
Is that inevitable day
When you wake up
And look over at me
And it hits you finally
That you deserve someone better
I know that you will stay Because that's just how you are You care more for others than for yourself
And I don't want that
This will only work if you do one thing
Promise to be honest
And tell me how you feel Even if I don't want to hear it
Your happiness is my life now
Even if it means that you aren't with me
Even if it means that I have to let you go
If that will make you happy
Be it my will
But until then I am going to Soak up every bit of you
That I possibly can

Because I am going to marry you
And love you
For the rest of my life

(Inspiration: Steven H.)

It's True

I don't remember what I was so scared of Why I was so hesitant to fall in love
I guess all I needed was a little shove
And to see that your hand fits mine like a glove

Maybe I'm crazy for getting in so deep
I think of you all night and never get any sleep
I love the fact that you let me be me
You always make me feel like I'm not just anybody

I never feel as happy as when I'm with you
And when you're not here, I never feel as blue
Its unexplainable but my feelings are true
And I hope everyday, that you feel this way too

I don't know how but I know that its right
I figured that out when I saw you last night
You and I together is such a great sight
I'm so lucky that you are mine

Just A Dream

its just a dream i tell myself ill wake up and itll all go away i think i know im kidding myself i just dont want things to change wake up wake up i cant take this anymore but its still not a dream and you walked out that door

why cant i move on you seem to be fine how are you okay with this how do you not cry

its just a dream its just a dream but then i wake up
and i ask myself,

Killing You

Eyes open hands cold Body stiff as stone
Thoughtless there you lie
No heart, no soul, no mind
I may have had the knife
When I ended your life
But you did this to yourself
And now you rot in hell
Because what you did was wrong
And I've held my tongue for this long
But I've finally had enough
That's right I'm giving up
I wash your blood off my hands
And I pull my knife out of your back Then I smile and put it back in Then I pull it out and do it again
My heart is filled with joy
And you can no longer annoy
I'll go to jail if that's what it takes
As long as I never have to see your face

(Inspiration: Unrelated prompt)

Lost

Lost and alone
Alone and scared
Scared of pain
Pain caused by losing you
You were my life
Life isn't worth living
Living without you is just too hard
Hard is my life in one word
Words were spoken but not meant Meant not to cry
Goodbye to what we had together
Together was then, but now I'm alone

(Inspiration: Steven H.)

Love You Forever

How can you say we're through?
I'm still in love with you
I'm not your toy, your property
You can't just throw us away when you're done with me

I'll never move on, never forget
Not until I make you feel it Feel what I feel everyday
Since you ripped out my heart and threw it away

Pictures of you tattooed in my brain
They won't go away and I'm going insane
My feelings for you will always last
To you though, I'm just in your past

I want to say something when I see you walk by But when I get up the courage, I break down and cry
I've grown up a little, maybe matured
But I'll always, still love you, forever

Memory

Staring off into the abyss
Listening to the silence
I can see your face when I close my eyes
I can feel your heartbeat in rythm with mine
I can almost reach out and touch your hand
I can see your hair the color of sand
Then I open my eyes and you leave
All I have left are these memories
Sometimes I try to put you out of my mind
Because when I think about you I cry
It hurts to remember, it hurts to think back
So I try not to but then I feel bad
Because, I know that I still love you
I just don't know what to do
So I keep my eyes open and my chin up high
I try not to remember so I don't cry
All thats left is your vivid memory
That I keep trying to put behind me

(Inspiration: Steven H.)

Momma's Crying

2: 30 am, nobody's on the road
But me, my brother, and my mom
Trying to get away, but have no where to go
We're running on empty and it won't last long

We're leaving everything we have Hoping for a brand new start
My brother's asleep in the back
My mom's driving with a broken heart

I looked back at my brother, then over at my mom
That moment changed my life
The woman I thought was so damn strong
Had a single tear in her eye

I've never seen her like this
It was so different to me
Was there something that I missed Something I failed to see

I hate seeing you this way
Whats the matter mom
She had nothing to say
So I just moved on

Lately she's been crying a lot
Still nobody knows why
It seems like she never stops.

It hurts to see your momma cry

My Final Goodbye

my final goodbye
i say without regrets i say without remorse i say without you

for me to do

kinda like yours but the only difference is im never coming back

its already said and theres nothing you can do except to accept that

i say one last time because tommorrow im gone

ill miss you so much but you dont care and now im done

now finally, goodbye.

Not Anymore

You broke my heart several times
Yet I never learned my lesson
So many times I have cried
Over what, you?

I could never seem to find a way
To get you out of my head
But if I saw you today
Would I know who you are?

See something happened to me
That I will never forget
And for some strange reason now I see
That you were never worth it.

You may have made me laugh, you may have made me smile
But now I have a straight face
You put a good show on for a little while
Not anymore.

Not anymore will I take the blame
Not anymore will I carry your name
Not anymore will you hurt me
Not anymore, not anymore.

Numb

I'm left with this hole
Where my heart once dwelled Gaping, empty, void
It feels as if You acted as though
My heart was just a toy
It hurts to breathe
My body is numb
I wish it was all a dream
But it won't go away
And I can't wake up
And you really did hurt me
Don't underestimate
How I feel
Because you really don't know
If you did
You wouldn't have done it
I wouldn't feel so low
Think of someone
Other than yourself
For once in your life
I'll forgive you
If you come back
But you're running out of time
God I love you
I miss you so much
I wish that you were mine
One last chance
Jump on it now
Guess not then, so bye

(Inspiration: Ashton T.)

Off Switch

Over and over it plays in my head
As tired as I am I can't go to bed
My heart that is broken, no one can mend
And a hand that could help, no one can lend
I will never forgive myself for this
But I have to ask for one more kiss
As much as I know it's just a silly wish
I only wish more that there was an off switch Switch off this feeling that I feel everyday Switch off this pain that will never fade
Switch off this hurt that will never go away
Switch off my heart and I might be okay
And still, you ask me, why I drink my pain away

(Inspiration: Joseph S.)

One Last Time

Just to hear you speak... one last time
Just to see your face... one last time
Just to take your hand in mine... one last time

If I knew that the last time I saw you
Would be the last time...

I would have kissed you... one last time
I would have held you... one last time
I would have told you how much I love you... one last time

If one last time I could hear you laugh
Forget it! okay, I take everything back
Please just let this all be a dream
Don't punish him, he did nothing
If I could go back I'd give anything
I wouldn't screw up, I'd do the right thing

Its just not worth it okay
I can't go another day
Not knowing if or when I'll get to see my Steven
I love him! I'm not sorry but I love him!

Please, just one last time

One More Chance

Its weird, you know?
To see you with another girl
Even to see you smile
Its like the end of the world

But then I think
Of how you must have felt
When I did that to you
Did your heart just melt?

Well mine did yesterday
When I saw you with her
She told me she loves you
I secretly conquered

Did I ever tell you I'm sorry
I'm sure that I did
But I want you to know
That I still am, and I'll NEVER do it again

I love you
Now and forever
I want you to realize
We should be together

You should be with me, not with her
I don't deserve you I know
But I think we should give it one more shot Without you I'm so low

All I'm asking
Is for one more
You won't regret it I'm sure

One Question

Through the million tears I've cried You've stayed near
When a close, loved one died
You were here
When I needed a friend
You were close by
You could've had anyone
But you chose to be mine
If I was hurt or in danger
There you were
If I was sad or filled with anger
You stood by me
But now when I need you most Where did you go?
Oh yea thats right...
You left me
And now you're sad and empty
I act like I don't care
But I know you know I do
These feelings I cannot bare
I'm still in love with you
I'm not exactly sure
But I think that you do
Just answer this one question,
Do you still love me too

Priceless Dreams

Each breath I take
I take without you
Each day I live
I live without you
Each dream I dream
I see you there
But only there
This dreamless world
And only in my dreams
Can I see your face
Or hear your voice
Or smell your scent
Of cookies and dirt
I can touch your hand
I can taste the sweet relief
Of knowing that you're alright
But then I wake up
And you're gone again
The pain in my chest
Has come back again
I feel naked again
It hurts so much
And it'll never go away
Because you're never coming back
But I'll never forget you Because we'll have
Our special meetings
Every night in my dreams
I'll greet you with a hug
You'll smile at me
We'll go apple-picking
We'll fo skiing on the clouds
We'll swim with the sharks
There is nothing we can't do
In our dreams
So in reality its not that bad
When you actually think about it
We will still have eachother

As long as we have that We have everything
So each breath I take
I take without you
And each day I live
I live without you
But each dream I dream
I will spend with you
Our time together is priceless
So priceless, are my dreams

Questions

I am left speechless with so much to say
These questions I have are burning in my heart
They are tearing me apart
I have so much to ask you
I know you have the answers
But I lack the courage
To confront you
I can't even look at you
Without wanting to pull out my hair
Because you frustrate me
You won't even talk to me
You try to make me feel guilty
But I don't anymore
I haven't given you a second thought
Except for these questions in my head
That I must ask you
But I won't ask you
For I am a coward

Shattered

You took a hammer to my heart of glass Shattered pieces all around
I'm picking up what I can
But I know all will not be found

You say that I was the one to leave
But really it was you
That night you threw me to the floor
And beat me black and blue

You say that you're sorry
You won't do it again
You think I'll come back
But you are mistaken

Things are different now
I've realized and changed
After what you did to me
Things will never be the same

My heart will always be missing pieces
Never again will I be completely whole
Though as long you are not in my life
I'll be okay one day, I know

With my chin up high
I grow stronger each day
And I can finally see
That I am going to be okay

You, on the other hand
Will never forget that night
And you will never change
So you'll never be quite right

It pleases me to know
That you're heart is broken too
And one day you will see
That its all because of you

She's An Angel

She's an angel
But she doesn't know it
A gift from God
Sent down from Heaven
To help me get through life
I solemnly swore
The day she was born
To never let anyone
Hurt my angel
But I broke my promise
And you broke her spirit
And stole her innocence
You robbed her of her childhood
And you took something
That can never be restored
You replaced it with fear
And bad memories that will remain
In her head, in her heart
For as long as she lives
You stole her wings
And she will never fly again
My beautiful Heavenly gift, broken
She remains my angel
Still picking up the pieces
Of her shattered life
You will never really know
How much you hurt her
Or how much I want to hurt you
For making me break my promise
She's still an angel
At least I know it

Smokey Bear

You're my favorite little brother
You look just like our mother
You're the most handsome guy in this town
You're the funnest person to be around

I think of you when I see a guy
Who's ears are so big they touch the sky
If I ever see you without a smile
It would make me sad for a little while

If I ever cried, you'd wipe my tears
And say its okay Brookelynn, now I'm here
Well bubba, I'm sorry that I'm not there
But know that you'll always be my Smokey Bear

Stealing

Its been years
And yet its still here
With me when I close my eyes
How you took something that was mine
I can't believe I let it go
I wouldn't have if I had known
But I did and you hurt her
You did the same thing to my baby sister
I know that it is all my fault
For being selfish and keeping my mouth shut
Had I spoken out
There would be no doubt
That you would have never had the chance
To touch her with your vile hands
The way you once caressed me
Just the thought makes me scream
But then I think about her and you
The way you must have stolen her youth
And all I can do is sit here and cry
And think about how I will end your life
Screaming out in pain
Me having fun with this game
You writhing in agony
And me, I'm laughing
Laughing because you know how it feels When somebody steals
Be it your virginity like it was mine
Or be it your last breath, both are divine
But unlike you I will see another day
Always remembering how you slipped away

Thank You

Life is a beautiful gift
Do with it only what will not make you regret it
Thank God everyday
And always count your blessings
Be grateful that you live in a world
Where man can stand on the moon
Where children are safe to play
Where you are able to pray to whom you wish
And where brave men and women
Give their lives so that you can live yours

Thanks To You

You never let me live my life my way
You say it was in my best interest
But was it really or was it just in your best interest Guess we'll never know because we don't talk, anymore
Thanks To You

If I wanted to be a dentist that wasn't good enough
If I wanted to be a doctor it was too easy
If I wanted to be President of the United States of America
Thanks To You

If I got a 'B' on my report card
That got me in trouble
So I would try harder and get an 'A'
But I still felt bad that it wasn't an 'A+'
Thanks To You

Well guess what, I rebelled
Thanks To You
My life isn't what it should be
Thanks To You
I don't dream anymore
Thanks To You
And you made it impossible for me to forget
What you did and how you treated me
And look at me now, this is all
Thanks To You

The End

I'm killing myself every day
And I try to drink away this pain
Though it will never even fade

I'm not the person I used to be
I'm just the one to leave
And take no responsibility

I wish that I could just forget
That my love for you won't change it
But I guess that's what I get

We will never be again
What we were back then
... so i guess this is the end

Three Un-Beating Hearts

This is a story that does not end
With a happily ever after But with three un-beating hearts
And a 'good enough'.
Did you ever think that just maybe
There was somebody better suited
One person who could make Romeo
Look like a fool?
He met Juliet first, and loved her at once
The love was mutual but uneven
Though this boy would have no sooner
Given his own life for Juliet
She loved him as a brother
And regarded him as her best friend
He was neither a Montague
Nor a Capulet
But a kind, beautiful prince
From afar
Every girl swooned over his very presence
But he never really saw any of them
For he was too preoccupied
With Juliet and a man named Romeo
Romeo was an egotistical
Selfish child and everybody knew it
Juliet's family would never allow it
She could do so much better
And certainly she knows that
'So I musn't worry myself with this new crush of hers
It will pass undoubtedly.' the prince thought
But then, it didn't
And before long they were in... in love
To know that there was someone out there
Who would steal Juliet's heart from the young prince Broke his heart
But then to have her willingly give her heart to that stranger Shattered his heart
To hear her call out his name into the dark
While the young prince stood silently in the shadows
"Romeo, Romeo, where for art thou Romeo? "

Emptied his chest of a heart
And left him in the shadows to watch
As Romeo and Juliet professed their love to each other Romeo knew nothing of the beauty that was inside of Juliet
As compared to the prince
Romeo did not deserve her
Romeo would never be good enough for her
And would never do the things that the prince would do for her
And the young prince would never recover
From his lost love
Because when Juliet's heart stopped beating
So did his for she had his heart all along
If only he had told her sooner
That he loved her more than anything else on earth
That he would have given everything that she could have wanted
And sought out to find the things she never dreamed of
If only he had killed Romeo that night in the shadows Juliet would have been his Like it should have been all along
Juliet had loved him back
But she never did.

What the prince would never know
Is that although Juliet loved Romeo
More than even the sweetest words could possibly express
She knew that the prince's heart belonged to her Countless times she tried to return it
In hopes that he would give it to a girl more deserving than she
But he refused to take it back
Even though he was well aware that her heart
Would always belong to Romeo, her love
But to the prince, her best friend, whom she also loved unconditionally
There would forever be a place in her heart
Where the prince's name would never fade
And it was his face that flashed

To Have And To Hold

To my husband my best friend
To the man I'll be with until the end
I gave you my heart to have and to hold
My love for you will never grow cold
Every morning I wake up you're by my side
You've held me close when I have cried
You've made me laugh myself to tears
I know you'll be here throughout the years
We've made a child, a beautiful boy
He is our son, our pride and joy
Our family is more than the best
Our family I wouldn't trade for the rest
Unconditionally you've loved me for I am yours
And unconditionally I will love you forever more

Trusting Blindly

Life, to say the least
Is an interesting ride
You can never know
What is beyond the next turn
You must learn to trust
Blindly that you will be safe
Otherwise you won't
You will fall until you hit
The realization
That your life is not complete Without Faith in God
Without that faith, you aren't whole
You are a nothing
In a world of something's Without Jesus Christ
Accepted as your savior
You will continue
To take the wrong turns in life
All you have to do
Is ask him for forgiveness
Then repent your sins
And you will truly be saved
You will trust blindly
And he will guide you safely
Through this rough ride, Life

Understatement

Hurt? Understatement.
Broken? Understatement.
Shattered? Understatement.
All of the above multiplied by a million
Without hope of repair?
Still an understatement, but as close as it is going to get Its not that my heart is broken
But it is absent from my body
So I pull myself together
Into a ball on the floor
And thats when I realize that the pain all over my body
Is my bones. All shattered
And if I open up even a fraction of a millimeter Everything will fall apart
When you can't tell your fingers from your toes
When you can't tell you spine from your nose
When you can't tell the time of day, or even know if it is a new day
That's when you do know
That its all over.
The only one you've ever let in Gone.
And its all your fault.
Does anyone out there know how that feels?
Can anyone out there relate?
Has anyone out there ever recovered?
Yes? Thats great
But I am destined to be the one in a million
Who never will be whole again
I will never even be half again
I can only hope to be a fraction again
One day
Though any day won't be soon enough
Because for everyday
I will love you
And for always
You will have my heart
But never again

Will your smile not only star in my dreams
But wake me up every morning
And I will never again
Look into your eyes
And see myself
Like I have before.
Before every despairing word
Became an understatement

Unproud Parent

The reality,
I'm still a little girl
Wanting attention

What I mean by that Is that I want you to see That I'm doing well

I don't care about What anybody else thinks
Only what you think

My motivation
Is the idea of you

The only problem,
Is that you're never around

If you were around
I still don't think that you'd care
But what do I know?

I'm only your kid
I guess that reality
Will not ever change

I'll always be fine
But I'll never be great
And you'll never care

When An Angel Cries

When an angel cries
We lose hope
When a loved one dies
Its hard to cope

When a young boy becomes a man
A tear is brought to his mother's eye
When a young woman gives her hand
Her life flashes through her father's eyes

When a young couple's love loses spark
They think its the end of the world
Once again they're shooting in the dark
They're just two more faces in life's mural

I met an angel once
In the form of a beautiful girl
I'm lucky to have had that chance
Only few have in this world

I saw that angel cry
She found comfort in me
I'm not going to lie
I didn't see her wings

Yet I knew she was an angel for sure
Because she had a certain glow
For just a second listen to her
Because of her heavenly voice you'd know

I fell in love that night
Despite what everyone says
We both knew it was right
Thats all that matters

I'm in love with an angel

Without You

When I think of love
You come to mind
You're what I'm thinking of
All of the time

I hate to sneak around
But we have no other choice
We live in a small town
Where when there's a secret there's a lot of noise

But let me tell you
That you are worth every bit
I don't have a clue
How I ever lived
Without you

I've had a rough life
But that all went away
When you came into mine
You never failed to say

I have the key, and you have the lock
Put 'em together and you're all mine
From this day forward our lives will rock
I could never see spending my life

Yesterday

I saw you yesterday
Who was that girl?
You put your arm around her
That crushed my whole world

I know that we are broken up
But there's something I have to do
There's something I've been meaning to say
I still love you

I told you from the beginning
That I would always love you
Even if someday, somehow
We were totally through

Now you know I wasn't bluffing
But I'm hoping you were Because you belong with me
Not with her

But you don't bluff
And you don't lie
And I promise you this time
I won't cry

It just hurts so bad
You used to be mine
You're out of my life
Yesterday

You

You are the reason I suffer
Your selfish ways ruined my life
You aren't here right now
But your memory won't die
You've caused me pain
You've lied to me
And I hate myself
For believing
You crushed my dreams
You put me down
You helped me up but Only to throw me back on the ground
You hurt me so bad that I can no longer trust
Exit my mind
You won't, but you must
I'm going insane
But I don't want to I'm out of my mind
Because of you
I hate you!

You Broke My Heart

We danced in the rain
We laughed at the moon
These are things I remember
When I was with you

I miss your sweet lips
And your tender touch
I miss everything about you
I just miss you so much

The day that you left me
I could do nothing but cry
At one point I thought

Life wasn't ever easy
But it was never this hard
It hasn't gotten better
Since you broke my heart

(Inspiration: Ashton T.)

You Said

You said that you'd call but you didn't You said that you would stop by
But lately it seems that everything you say
Ends up being a lie

You said that we would go golfing
You said we'd catch a movie or two
And I can't seem to find out why
I keep on believing you

You said you'd always be here
You said you'd always love me
But I need you now where are you
This isn't very easy

Because you keep letting me down
In everything you say you'll do
I hate to say it but you're hurting me
And I just keep coming back to you

Because above all I love you
After all you are my dad
But I think that was the last time
That I'm going to believe what you said

You'Re In Love

To find someone who is everything you're not
Is like finding the other half of your heart
When you find them its like you don't know
How you ever lived when you were apart

They've been right under your nose the whole time
Right in front of you but you never cared before You thought you knew what love really was
But you don't think so now, because you're sure

When somebody really completes you
And makes your half heart whole
Its nothing short of a miracle
And for once in your life you truly know

To imagine life without them is
So devistating you just want to cry
Its nothing compared to how you'd feel
Because if it really happened you'd want to die

You're in love and you both know it
Nothing else matters, you know that its right
So keep on going and believe that you'll make it
