Agony

Although i think of you
I lie here in agany

when i think of you my heart breaks but i cry in shame

cause i wana see your face everyday
But a piece of me breaks without you cause im in agany

Better Than You

There was a girl named Beth.

She walked up to Carrie and said look at your ragidy clothes.

Carrie said look at the way your acting.

Beth said whats wrong with the way im acting?

Carrie said see god says treat others the way you wana be treated.

Would you like it if i talked about how fat you are?

Now see that offended you didnt it?

We all bleed red blood dont we?

yes said Beth we do.

Love And Hate

Love is something you cant show
Love is something you can feel in the heart

Hate is something you cant love
Hate is something you feel in the heart

But iwont show you hate cause i love you

Nevaeh

Though your name is Nevaeh
I know your in heaven

Though you wont turn 1
You will always be an angel in heaven

Though you are very loved
You will float away on a white winged dove

Rest in peace little angel

Right

There you stand in the light in the dead of night
Like the time you read your rights

Becouse you belived in whats right
Like the night you you got arrested for racist rights
But not to fight for whats not right

Special

To a special girl who means the world and everthing in it

Who loves the world
Which is the girl

But the girl means the world to someone special

Where

Today iwas thinking about you
Just then i realized you wasnt there

So i thought to myself
Then i realized you was in heaven lookin down

Just then i saw a white lite
Then i pictured you in your suite
