A True First Kiss

When you have your first kiss tell me how it feels as I will never be able to kiss; as I have no lips.
my true love has my lips so I can have a true first kiss one to enjoy, and one to savor.
I wish no one to kiss me until I find him:
The man of my dreams

Acrostic Love

L is for losing someone special

O is for owww

V is for vowing to never leave

E is for eternal pain when he/she is gone love should never be trusted its something our heart falls weak to and you end up getting hurt if it turns out bad.

Cassandra Legg

Beware Love Up Ahead

I may have crossed the seven seas and i may have fought horrible beasts but i have never fought something as strong as love love is like crossing shark infested waters on a tight rope one wrong step and your dead but with love when you die its just a mental thing love can kill or make you stronger

Decisions

have you ever thought 'why am i doing this? ' or 'is this right? ' then youve been in my shoes. making life changing decisions is a difficult thing. when you are pushed into something dont do it, unless you know its right.

Cassandra Legg

Define Love

Love is beautiful love is strong love makes you weak and can sometimes kill love is powerful love makes your heart jump then fall love is nice while it lasts love fills us with joy and excitement love hurts when its gone and we then thirst for it again love is the closest thing to magic though so we always want more of it

Hatred

Hatred

Hatred is a horrible thing

Hatred can cause many bad things in your life

Hatred can be very bad for your friendships with certain people

Never let hatred get in the way of friends, family or relationships

As it will scar you and many other people for the rest of your life

Hatred

Hatred is dangerous

So dont play with fire

Mine

when you look at me, if feel like a foul like i have made my whole life alot worse. i sometimes regret even talking to you in the first place. you caught me in the moment and you had me in your hooks the moment you started talking of love, especially between me and you. you had your hooks dug so deep into my skin the only way to let you go, was to rip the hooks out and try and endure the pain of me and you being apart. i cant stand the pain. you are my first aid kit, you are my healing jesus. you are my everything.
you are mine, and nothing or no one can change that.
never

My One

Whenever I think of you my heart skips a beat, When I tell anyone about you and me, I can't help but smile and think of just how lucky I am to have you.

These days people take so many things for granted, But the one thing I will never take for granted is you and your love that you give me everyday, the most precious thing in my life is you, everything about you is so beautiful, heart stopping and mind blowing to me. Without you I would be a noun, an objective.

But when I'm with you, I'm a living person, an adjective, a person who feels so loved and beautiful and adored it's become an addiction; you are my addiction and when you give me the kiss before you go to work it breaks my heart to let you go, but I look forward to the moment when you walk through the door and my whole world lights up with your smile.

Please Dont Go

I used to think you were mine then you left didn't even tell me now I'm all alone, scared that you'll come back, now that you're back please don't go, if you do i wont have a life again and ill just be an average person without a heart, because when you took your heart you took mine too

Cassandra Legg

'The One'

When you think you've found the one be very careful three things could happen to you they could run away or they can break your heart or they can love you forevermore and when they choose the third option you get your second heart As 'the one' contains our other heart

Cassandra Legg

When I See You

When I see you
I see the world
I see the world today
When I see you
I see love
I see all the love in this universe
When I look at you
I get thrills
The biggest thrills alive today
And when i see your heart I see your heart
I also see mine too

Why Me?

why me?
why did you choose me to be your victim.
for you to just pop up and have feelings for me? dont you think thats a bit ridiculous? i should of known better, i should of known that you weren't real.
that you were just putting on the act of actually liking me. even just a bit.
i long for that moment.
when you stare me in the eye and you say what i want to hear, but this time mean it.
please, atleast do that when im dead.
when i'm in my coffin, or in the jar, with my ashes in there.
come to me and say it, and i'll be looking down from heaven, or up from hell.
blessing you,
that you finally said it.
you said you loved me.
but in the meantime, the question remains.
why me?

Your Heart

your heart is precious your heart is fragile you must take care of your heart if your heart gets a crack you must fix it before it gets too bad if you do not heal your heart it will shatter, it will break be careful with your heart if you take care of 'it'
'it' will take care of you as your heart is also very gullible especially to love
