7 To 1

7 to 1:

The momentum of action that shifts either way

maybe love or hatred,

maybe pleasant or unpleasant,

maybe conscious or unconscious,

maybe thoughtful or thoughtless,

maybe to integrate or to disintegrate,

maybe relief or pain,

maybe qualitative or quantitative analysis,

maybe to write or to execute,

maybe to progress or to regress, maybe that are gone or that are coming,

maybe promising or unpromising, countless in combinations....

It is that which is unavoidable,

A cyclic process.

A Mark

In the process of trying something new for a better you.

Sometimes, you see through seasons of INSOMNIA.

Sometimes, this STHITHI of the mind, is just a confused dance of the bees within.

Sometimes, it is a BLAZE dancing in the backyard of the WIRELESS mind, and the soloist accompanying this dancing blaze shows eagerness to make a MARK.

The world is waiting keenly, to feed your hunger by thinking of your desire to make a MARK, drives you to destination.

Keep moving with a DAGGER, to achieve a wishful moment.

There is always a? [Question Mark - :)]

The time will speak, it has to.
