channel WALKER(November 18 1986)

I am a young writer my passion is to become a creative writer right alongside of writing my first book. I currently started a few books looking to finish really soon. My writing passion expresses my inner person it gets within depth so you can truly understand.

Distance

Im standin hea, playin my role;
confused why do i feel so naked;
when our bodys are standing intwine;
when we alone we say never mind about what they have to say;
once the situation reappears;
I address the streets with a middle finger;
when i turn to see your response;
your looking towards south;
confused and so naked;
are we together or are we apart?
but your standing behinde me.
