Love

Love is like your heart leaving your chest
it tastes like life
it smells like home cooked meals it looks like two people in love it feels like well love it sounds like a calm band of violins love is when two or more people share a spark love could be friend, family, and relationship

Rain

Rain is like a fresh water stream heading for a water fall

It tastes like life

It smells like freshly mowed grass

It looks like a heaven on Earth

It feels like a cold show after a hot day

It sounds like thunder and lightning

Rain is life falling from the sky
