I Feel

I feel there is no end
To the pain you left behind
You left me here alone
When you stepped out of my life

I feel there is no end
To what I feel for you
Even though you took my heart
And ripped it right in two

I feel there is no end
To this poem I write for you
Because to say goodbye
Means you're no longer in my view

I feel now there must be an end
To stop the crying and the pain
Although I love you always
This is the only way to stop the rain.
