Another Day

Another day without your love
Another day all alone
Such dark skies up above
When I'm so far from home

Another day missing you
Another day without hope
Sometimes I can't believe it's true
For it is so hard to cope

Another day I think of old times
Another day that ticks on by
There are no reasons for my crimes
Just the question why?

Another day the sun does rise
Another day I move on
I will never say die
Until I right my wrong

Broken Heart

My heart is broken without you there
You are the only woman for whom I care
I miss your voice as you talked to me
For you are pure beauty
I lost track and with it your heart
Now it is so hard to be apart
I just ask you for one last try?
To love you all my days, for I can never say goodbye

Day Outside

What a great day under the sun!
A lot of hard work but it was fun.
Sun shining down, wind blowing sweet.
The shade under a tree the perfect retreat.

The smell in the air, dirt and dry leaves.
The taste of spring lingers on the breeze.
The squirrels run by playing in every tree.
As the flowers are inspected by a dutiful bee.

You work in the yard making it look nice.
Sweat and hard labor are your price.
Looking about life is everywhere.
Bringing alive beauty that's beyond compare.

Life outside beneath the bright blue sky.
As the birds sing as they fly by.
Joys of spring are right outside waiting for you.
Where the grass is green and the sky blue.

Goodnight Beauty

The sun goes down on the day
Leaving me with one thing to say
Goodnight beauty have sweet dreams
Get some rest for what tomorrow brings
Tomorrow will bring you a smile and fun
In the morning till the setting sun

Great Job

You head out and you do your best.
You will succeed far ahead of the rest.
Keep on giving everything that you can.
You'll have the world in the palm of your hand.
The future is yours a great life lies ahead.
It is worth all the sweat that you shed.
I'm so proud of you and all that you do.
Your building a future for your son and you!

Happy Life

My life is happy because I found love in you.
It makes my heart pound strong and true.
Loving you gives me strength to face what may come.
No matter where the problem comes from.
You fill my soul with pure desire.
You're the one to set my soul on fire.
Burning hot with desire to be by your side.
I'm on board for the whole ride.
You are the thought that brings me peace.
You're my love's perfect release.
Heaven did right by sending you from above.
Sent you here for me to cherish and love.

Happy Morning

Good morning with a smile to your lips
So soft and sweet a pleasure to kiss
You open your eyes, what a beauty I do see
Lying here smiling up at me
How can I not smile at this goddess with red hair
Even an angels beauty can not compare
I feel such love for her each and every day
Completely happy in every single way
I wake up happy being with you in the morning light
Loving holding you next to me all through the night

Hearts Gift

I have been lost for awhile
Then I came across your sweet smile
My heart did flips and my knees became weak
I think I found the woman that I seek
She is beautiful and full of fun
It would be a great day if she is the one
Already she has brought a spark to my soul
For she is just so wonderful
She brightens my day without even a try
With that sparkle in her eye
She is funny and full of wit
The type of woman on who you can never quit
She is my smile and my hearts desire
For she fills my heart with fire
A passion I already have for her
Because she is wonderful that is for sure
I thank the universe and all it has to give
She is my hearts perfect gift

Holding You!

There is a woman that everyone desires,
Such beautiful eyes and hair like a brilliant fire.
Her skin is as soft as feather down.
Her voice is the perfect sound.
She is my waking thought when i get out of bed.
I look down on her, lay a kiss upon her head.
The she wakes up with a smile on her face.
My heart beats faster picking up the pace.
I look on her beauty with a smile on my soul.
She is the only one for me this I do know.
For I would do anything for this Goddess next to me.
I will lover her forever even past eternity.
I caress her face with love in my eyes.
I look down on her my pulse beats a happy surprise.
I kiss her tender lips they taste so sweet.
With her beauty there is no one to compete.
I pull her close to me as she places her hand on my chest.
Her touch just feels the best.
We lay in bed without a care beyond this moment.
Time with my love very well spent!

If You Could Be With Her

If you could see her smile
When she wakes in the morning
It is worth all the while
Just to have you by my side

If you could hear her laugh
The sound that angels do make
Or the happiness that is there after
It fills my life with joy

If you could feel her heart
When it beats only for me
When we are together or apart
The love is still the same

If you could only know
Her love and how it feels
Then you too would show
All the love that you could

Just to be with her
Heaven can only smile
For all my love is pure
Making it all worth while

Imagination

Imagine a world twisted and true.
Where adventure and fun waits for you.
In a place where wonders never end.
Where you never worry about the time you spend.
All you dream you can live like real.
Your only limit is your will.
Take hold your creation for it is your own.
What you make is reaped from what you've sown

Like The Heavens

Like the sun you light my way.
You show me the path that is ok.
Like the moon you brighten my night.
Making me want to be with you till morning light.
Like the stars you are what i desire to dream.
You make my life more than it seems.
Like the universe you are all that can be.
Making my life so happy
You are wonder in the best way for you make me want to say.
Stay with me and let me be there for you.
Let me open my heart and show you a love that can be true.
So like the heavens you are what i strive for in all i do
For im totally fascinated by everything that is you!

Miss You

Oh how I miss your touch
I miss every thing about you so much
To be beside you and know you are for me
I miss your love you see
I miss your smile when a poem of mine you read
I miss you sleeping next to me
I will do anything to show you I care
For I miss you a woman that is so rare

Morning Smile

The morning sun rises and you are not there.
For my kiss with you to share.
I at least can send you a smile.
Reminding you why it's worth while.
Have a great day and laugh out loud.
For of you I'm always proud!

My Day

My day was good, now it's grand
No more time for bland
Because you bring a smile to me.
Knowing you makes me happy
So now I share my smile with you
Making your heart happy and true

My Day Thinking Of You

When i think of you my heart is filled with joy.
Making me one very happy boy.
I think of you when i am away.
I think of you every single day.
I think of ways to make you smile.
I think of ways to make your day worth the while.
I think of you because you are so special to me.
That is why i always think of ways to make you happy.
Smile real big and enjoy all that you do.
For im here just thinking of you!

My Prayer For You

Dear God please watch over her and bring her love.
I pray for you to watch over her from above.
Show her the life I wish I could.
If I new beter I would love her like I should.
Bring her a smile to brighten her day.
Show her love in every single way.
Give her the strength to be the woman she is.
Let her live with happiness and bliss.
For she is special, a one of a kind.
She deserves love and happiness all the time.
I ask you with all my heart to show her love and happiness.
Even if I have to go through hell for all of this.
Treat her with the love that she should have.
Show her happiness, never let her be sad.
If you can do this with an open heart.
I will do what you ask, I will do my part.
Even if it means that I love her only in my soul.
I beg you to let her love and her life be full.
Hear my prayer and grant her a life thats grand.
I pray for this on my knees with clasped hands.

Never Change

How I wish to be with you till the sun no longer shines.
Never once forgetting your love for all times.
Just to be there and see your life turn out great.
For who you are, I shall forever wait.

I wish I was there to hold you close.
For my love for you is the most.
I saw you work to make your dreams come true.
Never stopping in what you need to do.

How wonderful you are with your kids.
Their smiling faces in the love you give.
How I love everything that you are.
Your my inspiration, my shining star.

I hope you stay the same perfect in every way.
You bring me a smile each and every day.
For you are the love that my heart desires.
No matter how many tears it takes to quench the fires.

I will love you for what you have given me.
I just wish my love you could see.
I will fight on no matter how long I have to fight.
For loving you is the only thing I have ever done right.

Outside

You look up to the sky amazed by what you see.
Every where you look there is wonder and mystery.
The sun shines down warming your face.
The smell on the wind taking you to an old place.
A place back in time when you were young.
Back when every day was full of fun.
The day outside is wonderful in deed.
Every where I look wonders I do see.

Princess Wish

There once was a princess who was the most beautiful in the land. She had all the princes give her their hand. None of these princes had what it takes. It was always her heart that they would break. Then one day she went to a pond with plenty of fish. This is where she made her hearts wish. To find a man that would love her for all time. Not one that would only give her a line. She wanted a man that would love her for who she is. One that forever they could live in bliss. When she was done with her wish and stood up. The beating of her heart had an interrupt. For coming to find her was a man. Up next to her he came to stand. 'My fair lady are you alright? ' 'you look like you had a fright.' She just smiled at him and they started to laugh. As they started walking a path. The two of them talked and talked. As together they did walk. When they got home she went to her dad. What he did made her sad. For this man she found had a past. Her dad wouldnt let him be with her, wouldnt let it last. Yet this mans love for her was too great. He would do whatever it would take. He explained to the king his love and how he would treat her right. Love her and defend her with all his might. The king saw the passion and truth that the man had. He saw without this man his daughter would be forever sad. The king then released him and they together were one. For there hearts had finally won.

Sorrow To Hope

Another day of sorrow.
Another day of pain.
I miss you today even more tomorrow,
Even though my loving you is all in vain.

I love you from when I met you.
I love you even still today.
I will love you when everything is through,
I will love you in every single way.

These feelings for you they are all I have.
From the time I wake up to the time I go to bed.
They make me happy and sad.
just the thought of you in my head.

You are there when I wake,
You are there when I sleep.
My heart and soul you do take,
And forever you may keep.

So smile for me my one true love.
No matter what you do I'll always be there.
For to me you are an angel from above.
Sent down to me for my love to share.

Thank you beauty for all you've given to me.
You've given my life such great scope.
I will always love you for eternity.
For in you I can never lose hope!

Waking Dream

The sun rises as I look at you looking at me
Your beauty calms my soul and sets me free
I pull you close hold you really tight
Just as we did all through the night
The feel of your skin the taste of your lips
As we lay together hip to hip
My life is perfect with you be my side
My secrets in you I can confide
Then it happens it just slips away
I dont want you to leave, no I want you to stay
Yet no matter how hard I try to stay asleep
I can't ignore that infernal beep
I wake up I already miss you
My heart wonders what to do
I then sit down and let my heart have it's way
Write you a poem of what my heart wants to say
Then I smile thinking of my dream last night
Waiting for the day I can hold you close and tight

Your The Only One

In my life I have made many mistakes
With some I fix with others I get breaks
Then there is you the only one to see both sides
You help me stand strong you never hide
Through that time our love has strengthened our hearts
A love that keeps us together even when apart
The past is done the future lies ahead
My feelings for you are more than can ever be said
You are my future your my only desire
Never breaking me down you instead build me higher
I thank you for being my true love til I die
The only one to be in my heart and steady by my side
