Break Up Poem

tears fall down like falling rain never to stop for sometime I feel like I've lost my soul you took it with you when you said goodbye now matter how much I try I can't stop the memories that replay in my head my soul has fallen apart in your hands my heart has stopped beating everything I know and love is slipping away I can't cry no matter how much I try I'm done my heart has shattered but it doesn't seem like that really matters

I knew I shouldn't have gotten close I've been hurt before and I knew it would happen again the next couple of weeks will hell what is done can't be undone it hurts even now to think of you no one will ever love me like you did

Darken Dreams

during some night I toss and turn dreaming up things that tend to hurt and no matter how much I scream and cry it seems now that no one will come and rescue me these are the nights I dream darken dreams no matter how hard I try to hide the hurt it just seems to be getting worse even though I've had these dreams for quite sometime they seem to be getting darker every night I wish they would just go away and if they do it probably won't stay that way every night I have these dreams I want to crawl into a corner and cry but somehow I release the urge and wait for these darken dreams to subside

She Won We Lost

it's done she won we tried but it just wasn't enough she won we lost
the hurt gets worse everyday my heart's in pieces I'm all cried out nothing stops the pain not even time even the memories hurt we've been through so much together but nothing could have prepared us for this our love grew but no matter what
no matter if we fight back she still wins we were once one soul but now we're two we once shared one love but now there's only two tears pour down like falling rain they don't seem to stop my soul's in pieces my heart has stopped there's never a love quite like this when I heard your voice I started to cry I never hurt this much I didn't want what we had, our love, to end our love that we once shared was special, sacred, rare you were my first true love, my only love the one thing I never wanted to end
