Alone Once More

It is quite a struggle when you live alone,
You don't know who to call upon when alone,
You don't know who to love when you're alone once more.

I wish I'm not in the struggle I am right now,
It's making me cry with loneliness,
I wish I was happy with love in the air,
Once alone once more

Wish I was not alone much more,
As it is a struggle for any one who is alone,
Once more.

Your dress in white,
Your flying around me

Cards

We have playing cards
We have Birthday cards
we have Chirstmas cards
We have Get Well cards
We have moving house cards
We have Leaving cards
We have Valtine cards

Playinging Cards come in two colours
Red & black,
They also come with four suits
Diamond Herts Clubs & Spade
There are fifty-two cards in a pack of playing Cards

Birthday, Christmas & Valtine cards you only get once a year, although you can get a few medium or a lot of these cards depending who sends them to you
You can have family & friends or even your pet send them to you

The other cards that I have mentioned you can have More then once a year because you don't know when your going to be ill or leave a job & move house to move to something better

So we all need these cards to cheer us up when we are down.

Christmas Poem

The sky is dark,
The stars are shining,
I can hear bells.
I can see something in the sky,
I can see a light which is red,
Just like Rudolph's nose,
It must be the time of year,
What day is it today?
Oh no is Christmas Eve,
So it is Rudolph's nose,
Trying to shine to lead the way.

Depression

Depression

Depression depression,
Gets to us all,
We don't know why?
But it's always there,
At some point in our lives,
All we want is for our depression to go away,
The types we have are all different,
But we all wish that the depression would fly away just like angels would!

Friends

Friends friends everywhere,
Here there & everywhere,
You just have to ask,
You Know,
Wish I was here wish I was there,
To visit everyone I know,
Wish I can be split in half,
But there isn't a way,
But I know friends are always there,
Here there & everywhere,
We are always friends for ever!

Funfair Poem

The fair is coming to town,
The children are running around,
With so much excitement that the fair is in town,
Hope we go the children say still running around,
This is because they have never been to a fair before,
So they start off slowly on the merry-go-round

Happy Birthday to you,

All the sixty-one members seem to love you,
Because we keep putting poems on you,
Even the youngt members do too.

Members do find it hard to write poems,
But we do,
So happy birthday to you,
Hope you go on for another year,
So members can still write poems on you.

Happy Birthday (A Sad Poem)

Happy Birthday to you,
You would of been fifty-one today,
If you hadn't died from depression,
You would be celebrating with me to.

Now your daughter suffers from it to,
But she can cope with though her her poems,
Which she writes when she is down,

Wish you told the family,
Instead of keeping it in,
You needed someone to talk to,
Like a doctor or more,
But I know your in haven now,
Which to me is the best place be,
But we can still wish you,
Happy birthday,
Which I'm doing with this poem.

Moving

I maybe home sometime,
But I don't know when, everyone likes to move now & again

I've been here for eight years now,
Which is quite a long time,
For a scheme which is just a bridge,
From house to house.

I know it is a shame,
To leave all my friends behind,
But it is time for someone else to take my place,
In my eight year home.

Nature

Leaves are falling,
Off the trees,
All around us the wind is blowing,
Side to side on the trees,
That means Winter is on its way.

I wish I had a warm long coat on to keep me warm on the outside, because it is bitterly cold without one out here,
Which I hate so I wish I waa inside,
With the heating on,
With a hot chocolate inside me.

Spraying up water from you.

With a pot of money at the end,
Wish it rains all the time,
So we can see those bright colours,
Shining in you.

Claire Page

Snow

Snow is falling all around me,
This means I can't get Carrie out,
Wish I had snow tires to go out in,
England don't like America do,
Wish we could though,
As I've been told its great fun.

Wish the snow would stop falling,
So I could go out & have some fun.
Because without those snow tires,
I kept sliding around,

Which isn't very helpful?
Because the snow might make me slide,
This mean I might end up in trouble,
If I go outside

The Wishing Star

I see a wishing star up in the sky,
I start to make a wish upon that wishing star,
Which was so beautiful in my eyes, but by the time I'd finished the wish,
The wishing star was starting to move away in the sky,
So I dipped my eyes & turned away,
For someone else to have a wish,
On that wishing star.

Wheelchair

Wheelchair

Hello how are you,
I'm fine thank you,
How are you,

To be quite honest,
Im just sitting here,
Waiting for someone to sit in me,
To take me outside for a drive,
Please sit in me,
& make yourself comfortable
& take me a for a drive.

If you haven't wondered,
My owner is disabled & in a wheelchair,
So I'm her legs which I don't mind,
Which I don't mind because Claire drives me,
Everywhere she needs to go.
The only thing I hat is I don't have a name just yet?
Oh yes I do its Carrie I must have forgot.

Why?

Why

Why is a three letter word, but what does it really mean?
It can mean many things,

Why me,
this means you can be on your own when you don't have to be.

Why can also be an answer to as question?
with many answer to which nobody knows.

So Why is Why?
a three letter word that nobody can understand

Wishing Star

I see a wishing star outside,
Which has fallen from Sky to ground,
Which I pickup to take it inside to warm it up,
Holding it tight so the wishig dust stays round,
I lay it on the floor near the open fire,
While the wishing star is warming up,
I can't decide what whsh I want to use.
