The Confluence

Sensitivity remains the hallmark of creativity
Success comes as a surprise with little effort
And one becomes able to achieve acclivity
Crossing of desert takes maximum endeavour
My love for your needs I can go to any extent
And I hope so you will continue to support
Continuity takes beauty to its peak as advent
Your alluring and charm remain part of resort
You are the linchpin of continuous struggle
Without your grace I may not be of any consequence
With your relentless support I can win any battle
Good life is in need of confidence and confluence

Life is a strange gamble if you fail then you fail the avail
But if you believe in yourself you can overcome all odds

Let Me Confess

Let Me Confess
The best of your soul to make your love life progress
Complete happiness without giving and receiving
The beauty that the universe have in store is to confess
The clean and sincere heart has to be just believing
Love has very many shades to portray with sincerity
Beauty with all its light gives its colours to spread
What a wonderful aspect remains sheer austerity
Which makes it to be on poisonous thorns to tread
Real life is real sacrifice to win the battle of life
Blood stained path makes one to lead and to win
Life is like a sharp strife on the edge of a knife
To love with a sweetheart is never a deadly sin

To Ameliorate Beauty

In a pure clean stream of water she was taking bath
In the warmth of sun she was glittering like gold
She was swimming carrying taste from just every path
I was astonished to see beauty dancing being bold
Simultaneously she was singing a song to increase taste
This was all but a lonely thin jungle to ameliorate the reality
Her white sparkling body was so pure, so sweet, so chaste
For attraction by heart from pore to pore she was valid plea
I observed all her wonderful contours to see and appreciate
I was so intoxicated that I wanted to have a warm embrace
I also wanted to write sonnets on her and to just opely narrate
I wanted to take her face to face to feel her solemnly grace

False And Fake

In this world all relations are false and fake
The opportunist have their typical move
To get according their choice the hot cake
For their own sake they have to reprove
Humans have lost their sense in their interest
They are least bothered about the others
They are contented and for others disinterst
Brothers suck blood of their brothers
Sincerity is a disparity to play just dirty
Contempt has gone to the roots to but say
So how come one should not be shirty
Humanity is vanishing dear just day by day

In Front To Confront
I am standing in front of my enemies to confront
Most of the faces are well known but hypocrite
I am very polite with own people but for rivals blunt
So I have decided to take revenge and not quit
Some are those to whom I remain kind they are cruel
They have jealousy, hypocrisy and contempt to rule
But I am disappointed by their character just as a duel
My enthusiasm of taking revenge becomes as fuel
So in the fitness of things I have decided to reciprocate
From the entire world half are blood thirsty relations
I waited to change them still my people say just to wait
But now I am determined to follow my declarations

Its arrival and retreat is uncertain like a beautiful swabbing
It has no specific place but where ever it intends it is to dwell
Its pulsating in nature characterized by a strong regular throbbing

Romantic Passions

Romantic Passions
Tears in the eyes of beloved will drag you heart to heart
Love gives an opportunity to delve into romantic passions
To sooth the beloved with solace needs kindness to impart
So will automatically sentiments turn to wonderful narrations
Beauty needs a touch of class to be on terms to resonate
Love has its softness to take over a very difficult situation
It is matter of heart to heart to understand and to coordinate
Mutual love and affection definitely brings real salvation
Tears are the domain of pain and smiles are of the pleasure

What a gamble it is and what a play
Years have passed and when one looks back
He is astonished to see the highest speed

With marvellous good and just bad deeds
It seems that it was yesterday that we were in
And its next day carrying long years along
With full of good deeds and dirty crime and sin

My Soul's Perfection

A beautiful girl with enchanting smile
Moves along me like a wonderful reflection
Impresses a lot when seen for a while
Gives to my heart and my soul's perfection
Her eyes are full of wine to drink to sink
I am taken away by her sweet figure so to say
She allures me just with her eyes in brink
She is wonderful and cool like dawn of the day
Her one embrace can reactivate life in me
Her whispering love song resonates in my ear
Her beauty is like a wonderful deep sea
Which attracts me to its centre and more near

Don't Take Risk

We are surrounded all around by the hounds
Hypocrisy has gone up to a level of no return
The enemies are afraid of us, we are in bounds
We are sincere that is our only and solid concern
World is divided by hounds and simple sheep
So it is easy to play hell with them I do know
Enemosity is in veins of enemies down deep
So they capable easily to play hell and to blow
Haves have the urge and strength to but play
With all weak people with their sheer hypocrisy
Truth is bitter but let me declare and just say
For killing of have nots need no reason or plea
Some rascals play with the life and with desire
Of all those who can respond in a proper way
But be careful sincerity is but a hot burning wire
People and land of God is saved by divine pray

Sunshines and rainbows are the part of this life
Which give colour to life about our dreams
At times we may be on the edge of sharp knife
Out of black thundering clods appear beams
Hope is instilled in human soul to survive
Struggle is the hallmark to overcome difficulties
Zeal and zest come to struggle to revive
Unflinching faith in Allah to tackle hostilities
Man is the best creation as Lord declares
So he can do but miracles under adverse conditions
Being really virtuous and vicious players
Let us be meticulously methodical in our all missions

Fortunate Surprise

What is life but a set of exalted dreams
For which one aspires and desires to realize
From different corners come light beams
To make every curse but a fortunate surprise
I am proud of the fact that my Lord never Left me alone in any eventuality but to win
I am enthralled by His grace to remain ever
To forgive for every evil fact and every sin
Lord is Great who never leaves me alone
His gracious grace is always there to pardon
When in my hopelessness I resort to moan
My Lord is my Protector and my Warden

Allah Is Sole Saviour

Allah Is Sole Saviour
When I go through every torture and pain
I keep silent just to go through every agony
In this mutual broken and distorted chain
Where near a dear relation devoid of fancy
I was alone and will leave world but alone
The only solace is love of my Beautiful Lord
Heart to Lord there remains sweet love tone
Who never ever just leaves His created ward
The moment I seek relief He rushes to embrace
And with in no time He becomes my Saviour
I am highly obliged for Lord's sweet love and grace
He saves with His Merciful and Kind behaviour

Her Sweet Innocence

With her innocence she is looking around
By putting her finger in her lips she is to see
What all is around her on the love ground
What her beauty desires in circumstances to be
Her innocent sentiments and sweet passion
Makes her heart to jump and to get but all
Needs warmth just from the hot burning sun
Nature has ordained her with wonderful call
To take all fruits with their juices in real prime
Her youth makes her most charming to attract
Every moth to seek her light and to seek time
To burn and to be ashes the way he is to select

Piece of Gold

What a divine beauty with a cup of divine wine
I am enthralled by her way of presentation
She is mine and I am bound to be on her line
Words are less to celebrate her narration
Her innocence and fragrance make me lunatic
What a beautiful creation of God she just remains
To her style and fashion I am but just fanatic
There are rhythmical strings in our sweet love chains
Her tresses carry in them full moonlit night
I am fortunate to feel her warmth in little cold
In her every approach she is wonderfully right
She is so precious to me as a piece of real gold

Curse In Fate

In a human bondage we have to follow the verdict
What soever is written in fate is to take place
No body in this world is able to avoid fate being imperfect
We have no choice between grace and disgrace
What a creation is human being what a miracle
Which at times to take place with every grace and disgrace
Written part is predestined 'so what is struggle
To come out of this trap we have to have but face to face
With hidden forces which work far or against fate
Is human a puppet or a full fledged force to tackle circumstances
After a late of discussion for centuries about the state
Humans failed to determine whether these are bu chances
Or may be something different beyond human limitation
What is all about being virtuous or vicious in reckoning
Where lies destruction and where ilies but the real salvation
Human is embodied in a strange right and wrong string

On The Cross

With selfless sacrifice a father is always on the cross
He has to spend every minute for the welfare of kids
In his life time to very many difficulties he comes across
In his struggle to serve his wards 'he makes many bids
His duties and responsibilities never leave him to take rest
His constant and consistent efforts bring excellent results
He embodies god in this world to make his wards the best
He remains ever ready to pocket all the dirtiest insults
For all these hardships he never ever claims any rewards
He remains on cross till he embraces martyrdom on cross
Through all love communion and chords to make wards lords
With his courage and sobriety he proves himself the best boss

Love At First Sight

Your beautiful smoky eyes keep me in to see
My sweetheart you are my love but at first sight
In your remembrance i find pleasure and glee
My all darkness you are only source of real light

Let Me Die

I want to die, I can't bear pain of life any more
I have no one who can take care of me
My sentiments are damaged from pore to pore
Vultures and crocodile are all in this sea
My blood relations have no sense of humanity
They have lost all sense and sensation
Their poisonous words are not healing but dirty
They ask about my health just as fashion
I can't bear this pain of life any more, let me die
Let me give solace to my soul to but depart
Let me be out of this rut to be a star in the sky
Let me unite my heart to be with eternal heart

Fear Of Unknown

Fear of Unknown
I am in trouble because something is on my mind
Which has taken over my heart, my soul and my passion
I want to nip this fear from my mind to get refined
My path to the factual reality and to the real salvation
My desire is to live and love in a carefree fashion
For that I have to be righteous and conscientious
Satanic forces are all around just on every station
To turn my virtuous approach to vicious, tenacious
The only resort remain to take refuge with my Lord
Only then I will be able to be on right path again
I pray to Thee for His gracious sake take me as ward
To establish and refine with Him my love chain

The Last Resort

I wept bitterly in front of Lord To get solace
Because I do not have anyone less than Him
I called upon His mercy, kindness and grace
This remains the ultimate aim of this hymn
I remained on bed for the last so many months
I patiently endured the inflicted illness by enemies
My soul being in real trouble just confronts
All the pain but to pray for the real remedies
My patience has expired so I prayed for the relief
Because for every pain there is a treatment
This all strengthen my faith and my sweet belief
By reinvigorating my passion and sentiment

Hearts become hopeless and helpless in a row
Heart becomes totally dark due to innocent sin
So one has to follow the stream just in its flow
Heart when passes through pain becomes clean
But human nature dominates in perfect hesitation
Everything done in real life can easily be just seen

Then comes spring full of flowers and fragrance
It brings enjoyment and hope to see beauty in dance

Satan Wins

My father used to tell me this world is divided
Into two groups, one is of satan and the other is of God
At most of the time they become just coincided
What is the fate of this human who consiers the ward
God's group is most fortunate and rewarded
On every step he is blessed by God to pursue His cause
Step by step this group isbut transformed
To be most righteous and to overcome pains with scars
Satan is a test right from the very begining
At times it takes over the hearts of his followers
This is how contepmt and hatred becomes string
Satan group is defeated being the borrowers
Lust and avarice keep the weak souls in chain
In the hands of Satan as a pawn to continue, to pursue
This is the constant torture and consistent pain
Apprently Satan wins and human has no clue to renew

I am romantic lover of the east with all possibilities

Who is a suture to all bruises, injuries and all ailments
Who in his actions and words is but more selective
Love is my message which crosses just all horizons

Unflinching Trust

Life is a battle which can be won with unflinching trust
MyLord has protected me throughout my struggle
We have to have our hearts clean without any dirt or dust
Anxiously waiting for help from Lord just as a miracle
Pain and pleasure go side by side unless we die
But we have to have this poison till the dead end
For self respect we have to keep our head high
When all is verdict of God then why to just bend
The only dominating force is that we are best creation
So we have to have all ups and downs with pleasure
We know that cleanliness of heart and action is salvation
We have to cherish this faculty as ultimate treasure

But a communion soul to soul
A love ameliorated string

The Real Battle

Two roses aspire to be in love from petal to petal
Fragrance reinvigorates beauty to ameliorate
They are ready to face the life just like a real battle
And transitory sonnets to associate, narrate
All the colours of life with just different shades
The dew drops on the petals glorify the state
But death has its own stairs to sharp edged blades
What a fortune and what a miserable fate
Roses are roses with their own pain and pleasure
They take birth to make surroundings colourful
And then die down leaving behind the love treasure
Their transitory stay is beautiful and wonderful

My Strawberry Moon

My love is like a strawberry moon which ripens strawberries
In early spring and summer being a good fortune, optimism
She is like a wind in my hopelessness and lonely sanctuaries
It is a state which curbs pessimism and promote the heroism
This moon refines relations particularly romantic audacity
The delicate heart-shaped berry has connotation of purity, passion
Its symbol of purity, sensuality, fertility humility and modesty
It is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, faithfulness and narration
My love you are a pink strawberry moon, so juicy and fresh
I love you for your beautiful appearance and all modesty
Your enchanting style and fashion makes me but so refresh
Keeping in view your all qualities let me praise your majesty

Tawakkul Ala Allah

Tawakkul ala Allah
And whosoever puts his trust in Allah then He will suffice him
And everything which one wants to do will be under God's command
The beam of light will overcome every darkness up to the brim
The true believer gets more than his desire and demand
It means to have perfect faith in God and reliance on God alone Which is tremendously liberating, his soul and heart from any chains
Immediately you are covered by your Lord and you are in His zone
Which immediately abolishes all strains and righteousness reigns
My Lord I am all alone in your this painful world to survive
Please help me to adopt the right path under all circumstances
Under your kind and merciful command I want to strive, thrive
My all advances are totally dependant on your given chances

The Father
Father is a disciplinarian from beginning to end
He is the master who has to set the eternal trend
He makes his wards to stand up and never bend
The message of humanity he has to take and send
Being strict in rule he is not liked by all and sundry
But he is the one who makes his generations free
He is representative of God and he holds valid plea
He trains his wards to sail honorably in violent sea
He takes his onerous task with smile to perform
He teaches all skills and also teaches all the norm
In chilling snowy season of odds keeps wards warm
He is love in entirety and makes concern conform
Image of God with love of many mothers for wards
Being an ordinary person makes his wards the lords
Being a staunch guard is always happy and guards
Keeps in fact intact all strings of beauty, love chords

Embrace Glee

Doubts take us away from reality
But we should not torment ourselves
To be satiated to embrace glee
Let us put all eccentricities on shelves
Life has very many obstacles to cross
At times we have to pass on the fire
So we should not be just at a loss
We must be determined to aspire
To be at ease a skill we must acquire
So that we should tackle any problem
We must be able to see and admire
So that rosemarry should blossom

Soul To Console

Love has very many colours and shades
When it inflicts a heart it injures it completely
Which cut the heart of lover with its blades
An injured heart is taken over just discreetly
Love of a beloved is first step to love of God
When physical love fails becomes spiritual
When he looks to Lord he is taken over as ward
Then soul takes over the body perishable
Lord takes those souls under His sweet domain
The blessed soul becomes part of love as whole
This string of soul and Lord when are in chain
Mercy of Lord covers loved soul to but console

For long long years I served my family and nation
Because I wanted to bring change in my life style
I never ever took rest but struggled with my passion
My journey remained from pace to pace, mile to mile
But when I achieved my reward and succeeded
Then with sheer jealousy my relations inflicted magic
That was the time I required help I needed
All near and dear made my life but purely tragic
Now I am alone in my pain to continue my efforts
Still I want to work for my family and for relations
This remains the price of all my struggle deserts
See my struggle and see outcome of expectations

Purest Truth Prevails

Truth Prevails
World is full of trick and mockeries to deal
To create situations to play with pure passion
One is disappointed what to leave what to feel Emphasis remains on false style and fashion
On the path of heinous contempt and hatred
All humanity remains on the stake to pass
All those are given imporatnce who are well said
The inferior beings are in search of a class
Truth has taken over by the falsehood to cherish
All human dignity to be molested on perils of rules
Sixth sense remins for purest truth not to perish
To be kept for the followers of truth as pure jewls

The Opportunists

This world is full of opportunists who change faces
At one time they are crows at another foxes
Their vested interests change at the different places
They carry their faces and wear one from boxes
They will not come across for years unless in need
For Their need they will make you feel as great givers
They will become of your breed and of your creed
You will find they are of your streams and of your rivers
Contempt, hatred and jealousy they carry in them
Daggers are in blood to kill they remain in blood
They are the self seekers and remain so in outcome
They remain as ingrates unless the eyes take mud

She has come with a gift of fragrance
There is all around her fragrance around
My love I am enthralled by presence
I found myself just no more on ground
All colours of rainbow she carries along
I am in love with all the sweet colours
I do understand to me she does belong
Let me discover what is hidden in covers
Beauty has her own shades and taste
Love gives beauty the colours of love
My heart in a haste to be embraced
Fortune makes me fortunate my dove

Sweet Realities

She holds moon to enlighten face
Her eyes hold dreams to be on galaxies
What a wonderful style, sweet grace
Beauty holds her own wonderful fantasies
Beautiful night has its own love spell

Oh love you have your own sweet realities
Clouds are there on your head to seek
How beauty enthralls romantic atmosphere
How life enchants from cheek to cheek

Real Love Dominates

For righteous people this world is a difficult place
And for vicious people it is a place to celebrate
Innocence plays its role with honesty and grace
There is alot to associate and to openly narrate

Prophets and saints pass through difficult times
They have the quality to bear pain and not complain
They remain in the veils of time with rythm and rhymes
Their eternal association with Lord makes a chain

What is right and what is wrong, time will determine
Love has to celebrate its entity and hatred to die
Love has its own version and its own sweet sermon
Where God takes all loving hearts to sky so high

Colonel Muhamad Khalid Khan
Trust In Allah

And whosoever puts all His trust in Allah
He will be enough for him, it is declared
Let me be specific it remains my saga
My trust is in a chain with my love shared
I crossed all the obstacles in life with trust
In every moment of pain I got solace
And in every aspect of my life I do entrust
I am but beholder of my Allah's grace
He never ever disappoints me I do believe
His Mercy and Kindness is always prevailed
Whatever I request for I definitely receive
In His company I succeed never ever failed

Life Is A Combat

Work in an intuitive way rather to do everything by the book
Old trodden paths may have unexpected road blocks
Be intuitive to follow the new approaches with a new look
With your will power and resolve you can turn rocks
Let us be optimistic and to play with the help of intuition
All those who trust definitely encounter every obstacle
Let us reinvigorate our sentiments and our great passion
To be responsible is but the hallmark of real struggle
He has to win who has the heart and soul but to win
It is always good to learn from the mistakes of the past
One should be zealous and brave to definitely excise
Life is a complete reality to face, be a soldier to combat

A Set Of Miracles

My love my life is a complete set of miracles
My Lord has bestowed every fortune on me
From almost zero He raised me to pinnacles
From a simple drop of water He made me sea
Even if I bow my head I can not return back
There are no words to be thankful and grateful
With my egotism I have grown meglomaniac
He secures me in cradle, I am really so faithful
He remains with me in every hour of trial
Indeed the help of Allah is near, He declares
He takes me out of pain to make me smile
He is the sole Lord of my all difficult affairs

Beauty To Portray

I saw her beautiful style and figure
I have no words to appreciate and explain
But I lost my heart just to trigger
My passion and sentiments in a sweet chain
My sweet innocent beauty to portray
You have all the guts to be a lady of the day
I don’t know what I should but say
You to glow like the dawn of the day
I am impressed by your style and fashion
You have taken me and my heart
You have reinvigorated my love passion
Please remain mine never ever to depart

Imposter Syndrome

When your worries pop up, let them know
They are not welcome here in your domain
So let them analyse to make them but glow
Let make every effort to deal in real chain
Do not let hold back what really want in life
Luck may supersed real achievement
Its just like walking on a double edged knife
So how can we be on an agreement
To come out of this syndrome to be clear
We have to separate feelings from fact
To aspire truth to be near and more dear
Accentuate the positive approach intact

What A Life

Life is full of pain and torture, fate is predetermined
We have to go through thorns but barefooted
One remains successful who remains but determined
In bits and pieces life agony is just narrated
Love shades are few but full with agonies and pains
Rest is all full with contempt and hatred to be born
All near and dear relations are in just broken chains
We find all relations broken and just severely torn
I am in chains from birth to death to bear but all
My punishment is bigger than my committed sin
I remain in waiting to go from birth to death call
Always in search of peace and solace in hidden tin
We can't fight fate which leads our destiny, destination
But still there are moments where we have to create
Fire in the chest at times gives fire just to our passion
Fortune remains at a palm's length from our fate

Love Tribute to Beauty

Eyes are beautiful like vast green sea
Lips are like cups of wine in real trance
If kissed what taste my love could be
Heart dangles and dance to take chance
There are no words to explain beauty
Is an eternal stream to flow and to glow
In its own style with sheer sincerity
This is what explains you in line in row
You are a sonnet with very many notes
Your music takes me up in the skies
You are a truth in very many such quotes
Let us be on love line to cherish cries
Beauty stands for a beloved or friend
Who comes near to be dear 'dear alone
In her own charming style and a trend
With her smiling face and mild sweet tone

Yume Takbeer

Yume Takbeer
Allah is great and all greatness belongs to Him in many different situations this slogan remains prevalent
In happiness, in extreme distress and battle cry at brim
Its evident, detriment as well as really reverent.preeminent
To creat balance and harmony in the region to prevail
On 28th May Pakistan celebrated its entity against enemy
Tried to establish its integrity to be on one grid, scale
To keep its border from any untowards hegemonic jealousy
Allah is great and His greatness is hallmark in excellence
So His country became superpower amidst hegemonic designs
He helped his soldiers with kindness mercy, benevolence
In any extreme atrocities He shows His sheer love, precedence
Allah o Akbar Allah o Akbar La ila ha il lalah remains around
This is how we take path of Allah in any adverse situation
Help then pours from the sky, and sparingly from the ground
This our integrity, honesty, valour and real love narration

Relief Is In Me
In sheer disgust and disappointment I wanted to die
But then hope came to rescue and to clearly tell
I have to remain stable and to keep my hopes high
This is how I thought to be in trouble to dwell
The galaxy of hope is like a clear celestial cauldron
To bring something powerful to the surface to be bold
Hidden energy was refined to be brightened in sun
Like an alchemist to turn base metal into just pure gold
I realized the gold is in me and I am my own alchemist
Something magical is inside me that is coming to life
I have to go ahead to the world I have got to clear the mist
To clear the path to eternity on the sharp edge of knife

In Darkness Comes Dawn

When I look towards ruthless attitude of my relatives
I feel dejected and depressed in a state of confusion
I find my soul remains in a darkness being captives
I think there is all around complete but just illusion
Clouds of delusion and mists of nebulous rancor
Have surrounded me and intend killing me to be alone
It's going to take more fog to make me drop anchor.
Which can easily make me blown to be just thrown
But my love where there's a will, there's always a way;
So in life there is a moments to decide what to do
Power of love makes me endure for dawn of the day
I am a soldier my duty pusuades me to but pursue
All difficulties and hardships come to take a hard test
Light comes from the eternal source to be ready to pay
My Lord has created me to take all hardships to be best

Two Cups of Wine
My love we are like two heavenly cups of wine
One is empty and the other is full up to brim
But every cup upholds that relation is but fine
But intoxication is more in her than to him
From the day one a cup full of wine gets more
And more never ever to end in real trance
An empty one is there to explore and to adore
Always aspiring for more and more a chance
Sweet is the cup which sparingly distributes
And fortunate is the cup which donates
What a love saga to which beauty just suits
Real taste of wine upholds and narrates
All about creation being so fortunate
The process of cheers has to grow and glow
Both these love cups are real associate

Don't Give Hope

Don't Give Hope
The most contemptible act in the eyes of Lord
Is to say something which you don't practice
Giving hope is good to establish the love cord
Virtue must always be just really gratis
Hopelessness and helplessness prevails
Hundreds and thousands are needy and deprived
To help a needy helps alot and sails
Your boat through violent waves with pride
May Allah shower his blessings on entire humanity
May the clean hearts be more soften to provide
This act of kindness will maintain your individuality
When human beings try to go just side by side
Only Allah remains our first and last hope
Whenever we look towards Him, He never debars
Let us be clear on the fact how to invoke
All favors with costant and consistent prayers

Neat And Clean Heart

Clean Heart
A clean heart is that which is free from disbelief and pride
It is clean like heart of birds who are free from dirt
A conscientious person abides all rules of cleanliness to abide Clean heart is far away from any meanness or flirt
Allah lives in clean heart and loves the person
Whose heart is all clean and sincere to but any extent
Allah considers that heart as best abode as version
It is mercy and kindness which prevails just as advent
Worship and remembrance of Allah make a heart clean
So let us remain busy in constant and consistent effort

Broken Stairs

I was thrown out from paradise for a mistake
And was asked to attain the station lost
In this cruel world where every is at stake
What may the price of return and cost
Every one has a clear trend to be in many veils
So it is difficult to be on right path at wrong place
With broken canoe how one saves himself, sails
Disgrace, disgrace and there is no trend of grace

God Complains

Great God vehemently acclaims that His creation is dreat
And He created humans so that He be properly recognised
See the created ones who changed fortune into just fate
For his superamacy and awareness prophets stnt to advised
God is the supreme commander Who commands heavens
And earths without even have a blink of an eye what a Lord
With seven skies and with earths seven, healths and heavens
He has created all things and colours of life for His sweet ward
But see the ungratefulness of man, he never ever satisfiys
God delares that ungrateful creature failed to please Him
Throughout his life he complains unless he miserably dies
He is wonderful God to give chances to retrieve, this is hymn

Weaklings of society including women
Become victim of this heinous crime
Lack of wareness remains undesirable sin
How can purity remain just sublime

Then how women folk to just dwell
Severe punishments are direly needed
Otherwise menace will turn to ailment

Of truth and right and sincerity the way it was
He being righteous defends his position till last
He takes all injuries and bruises with a smile
He is man of action never ever ithinks about cost
He takes every style being a man of style
A soldier has two options in the battlefield
Whether he takes life of enemy or gives his life
He has a strong urge to right fight and yield
His total life remains on double edged sharp knife

Onslaught

I am a bruised and injured innocent bird
She has left me in front of the violent winds
My mind is in trouble my eyes are blurred
My heart is in pain and my soul just binds
I think to but resolve this painful state
But my circumstances do not allow me
My fortune left me with this dirty fate
I do not know what my future could be
But the suddenly a light dawns on me
And I decide to have my ever last flight
Vulture and hounds are all around to see
I go deep down in the tunnel with might
Life and death are interlinked to prevail
Can I seek for more life, may be just not
The last chance of life I could still avail
So I have to face This strange onslaught

Leave Me Alone
My love please break all chains to make me free
I cant bear this pain of life any more I must admit
You have left me i exile without any valid plea
I want to leave this painful life please do permit
Till the time I was a man to play with you in a mood
You loved me to the extent I can not gracefully explain
But now since I am seriously ill so you became rude
Now I am a gone case so I have to face all the disdain
I never thought Tthat you will leave me in this exile
I have lot of love for you but you need phisical solace
This is why you have left me behind mile after mile
And debarred me from your intoxication and grace

Agony Of Love

Love is the sweetest passion on God's earth
But at times it becomes agony and pain
Then it makes burn a lover in burning hearth
Sanity changes into pain to make insane
On very many occasions it does take its toll
And one remains in a deplorable plight
Pain goes from injured heart to lover's soul
Darkness comes to take over, no light
But even then love has its own pleasure
With bleeding heart one stands to see
Love is a wonderful and beautiful treasure
Which influences heart without any plea

Be Brave

Life is full of pain and torture to sustain
One should take all as a part of the game
Miseries at times come in a series as chain
Why to be disappointed and why to blame
Yourself or your companions for the damage
Be honest to take these wounds as a challenge
Why not to be bold enough to just manage
Take the crunch to face it and to encourage
You are the best possible creation on this earth
It takes courage to deal with your wounds,
So be brave dive right in to wounds take rebirth
Perfection comes but gracefully consumes

Dedication And Passion

Dedication to Passion
I am highly consistent and dedicated to my passions
In search of higher truth my passions do fluctuate
So love has different colours shades and narrations
My sweet fortune surpasses my horrible fate
My inner strong voice through thrives and strives Constantly and consistently makes me to glow
It encourages me to be on top, it lives and thrives
In a stream of love it makes me to just flow
My pride is reinvigorated with courage in move
I feel elated and am able to overcome all barriers
This is how it proves my ability to just pursue
This is the inner urge which turned us warriors
One is the architect of his own fortune to play
One remains captain of his own ship so to speak

I was dejected, depressed and disappointed to review

All scenes of my life went in mind fast and fast

So that I could get some relief some solace for me

So I vehemently strived day and night to be on destination
To strive relenlessly and to struggle I made my only plea
This is what all I did for my life to get just sheer salvation
Suddenly a rey of light came to my mind to know

Forgive Me
My love in sheer curiosity I wanted to explore
What a mistake I committed I do realize
But I do plead and apologize not to do more
Give last chance I vehemently emphasize
Love is a crystal clear glass to carry passion
An untowards drop may make it abominable
Love is a truth, a real passion not a fashion
So from start till end it remains but just stable
Innocent hearts of lovers do not entertain
Anything which changes pure into just impure
So how could I be excused for this disdain
In clear and clean relations nothing to but lure
Doubts in love are of no use and no excuse
Henceforth I will never ever doubt your integrity
Love my love never entertains any abuse
Please forget and forgive, and let be totally free

For that you must have real spirits

Let us make beauty a patemoster with every bead
To count all names of Lord to be glorious instead

Every reaction remains ready for a staunch reaction
Heart needsto be purely cleaned unless is sacred
Man remains on the paths in world unless perfection
Let us make this world beautiful in togetherness

My enemies wanted to make me insane through ailments
To gain their pride they used all their cruel and nausty grips
Through all possible means and their untowards statements
I survived from a severe attack of insanity and it dawned on me
That only you are the real Lord to save helpless creation
In this strange sea full of all dangerous creatures how could be
Out of all miseries with patience and with just all passion
Please be mine and help me to be yours through all thick and thin

So this love stance my heart just openly selected
So I shaved my face and took bath and became ready

To make my departure a wonderful and beautiful day

Fits Of Lunacy

I passed through pain and torture being on bed rest
In the process I tried my level best to remain stable
But sense of deprivation and lack of concern was test
Very base of my thought being ignored was painful
What we give to near and dear and what we just get Even they are not ready to pay back, what a concern
What to talk about due debt and emerging mindset
Which the upcoming generation has to show, to discern
Fits of lunacy became part of my pain and torture
I could not swallow the misery anymore to hide
I considered myself in front of a very skilful archer
Through this clumsy and full of up and down ride

I provided you with best food, livelihood and education
I never demanded anything but rocked every flood

Along with me your mother has sacrificed all desires

Imulsive urges are on their way to be accomplished

But I was reinvigorated as well as totally astonished

So I was unable to respond in a frank and clear manner
I just smiled and took her hand in mine to feel goal
My love aspiration increased for her lovely sweet candor

As well as being seriously ill I decided to follow the domain of trust
In Almighty Allah and not to go to any healer rejected
I also wanted to remain in His company and not to antitrust
All so-called spiritual healers and catalysts are just fraud
So why to ask for somebody who himself is helpless
And have sold their souls to satan being in devil's squad
With all awareness why should I be rebellious, defenceless
I have perfect trust in God and reliance on Him alone
God-consciousness makes me strong, to be in His company
My Lord for His kindness and mercy is well known
I am His servant in entirety and in His protection I am free

Life is a game to win or to lose

Mercy Of Lord

In sheer dejection and disappointment
I wept in front of my Lord to give solace
To my heart and soul in this predicament
And to relieve me from pain to grace

I have gone through pain by competitors
Who play magical tricks to destroy me with third class approach and characters
They don't know that I have Lord I agree

I have faith in my Lord beside credence
He will never ever let me down I believe
His love comes in abundance, in sequence
Whatever I perceive I just always receive

Let me remind the stories of love as a chance
Doubts about what I should do if he falls in love
That too with me by the fortune above

The harshness of the world around me at the moment
My values safety and stability are at stake my friend
So how can I be infront to confront for real bestowment
The world must extend honour to set the real trend
My friend you are powerful and can create your future
That is built on strong values and honoring differences
A man without respect and honour can easily be looser
And to be respectful we have to cover large distances
We have to fight against injustice, inequality and crimes
Let us be real human beings to use our heart and soul
We have to read between the lines by just being in lines
This is how we can achieve our real aims and real goal

Dance Of Beauty

Beauty in Dance
Tresses play with her lips to glorify her beauty
Her lips sparkle to communicate her desire
She along with her style carries every valid plea
To burn every heart with her sweet love fire
A glance brings romance when she is in mood
She believes to spare a chance in her sweet move
At times she takes along her shield to be rude
That is also a test to approve or totally disapprove
When I have glance answer remains just romance
I love her for her different style and sweet taste
I take a chance and chance after a beautiful chance
In her love Ido know I am just properly placed

Bring Up Concerns

Its good to bring up your concerns to make people know
Healthy relationship is a two way street, avoid crossroads
The best policy is to be sincere and honest to make you glow
Do not play with shadows fllow the right and valid codes
Face must be clean and clear like clean and clear heart
Actions speak louder what is invogue in cities and towns
If hypocrisy prevails it is better to just change, depart
Without being loyal and the best there are just no crowns

Courage And Resolve

My love at times love makes me depressed to think
Then I don't know how get relief from this silly pain
Whether I will be able to sail through or painfully sink

One drags a love to dance and other leaves on chance
Every action may be reaction of a romantic glance

A glance of love may make disappear every gloom
Promise me never ever to depart my sweet heart

Blessing Of God

Blessing of God
The universe is instilling confidence in me
That causes me to think that I can't fail
I take it a blessing of God full like a vast sea
This is a sweet golden chance I must avail
My broken heart takes strength to relish
I know a man can turn the mountains in a go
Let me this beauty of thought to cherish
Let beauty help me together in stream to flow
Let us do not waste time in a nonsense row
Let us be more frank in our approach
Before we wither my love let us grow and glow
Let me kiss your hand out of the coach

Merciful Lord

For virtuous this world is a prison for vicious its paradise
As per mood this world is temporary and transitory
Only those who have acumen can cross it to be very wiiwise
So one can reckoning all this syndrome as a category
All trials and tribulations are for beloveds of Lord
All those who can patiently bear these remain winners
But an ambitious and vicious can not be his ward
But all those who ask for mercy may no more be sinners
Lord is a loving Lord who sparingly forgive His creation
His Love is all out to embrace those who seek mercy
Love of Lord is for all and sundry with lovely narration
One be loyal to his benevolent Lord without controversy

Be Realistic

Expectations always lead to disappointments
When someone expected big becomes small
Disillusion takes over all the sweet sentiments
When every step passes through another wall
It is good to be rational, to live and let live
Opinions may differ from person to person
Take less, try to give and graciously forgive
A small meaningful talk is better than sermon
Actions speak louder than words, so to say
Character is based on morality my dear
Let us be more liberal and kind to just pray
It is better to be associates and so near Kindness is God gifted quality we must know
We must be realistic and spread just charity
Heartbeats are kind enough to flow and glow
Human to human is needed but solidarity

Time and Tide

Time and tide wait for none, so be precise
Every moment brings changes we must know
Calculated risks make one strong and wise
The fortunate are those who glow with flow
Less time all remains fake, vigilance is needed
When time is passed only remorse remains
If truth at an appropriate time is strongly pleaded
Only then one can keep proper all life chains
Every injury may be treated before it turns to illness
We can help ourselves before its just too late
We can save ourselves from all the disappointments
Everything has to be earned, nothing comes in plate

Passionate Attraction

Love has to be always on a higher pedestal
But then one will not be able to see eyes to eyes
So much love one can not see as truth at all
Disappointment resembles just with love cries
It's important to keep perceptions realistic
Especially at the start of a passionate love affair
It's easy to be in fantasies but reality is fantastic
Sincerity must remain the hallmark in love pair
Benefit of doubt is the perfect treatment
For a heart-to-heart conversation in love my love
Which must be used just more frequent
This remains essence of relationship my sweet dove

Hardships Bring Peace
All Prophets have gone through different trials and tribulations
But Allah was extra kind and merciful to help them to pass through
They were the ones to set marvellous and wonderful foundations
For their followers how to act, react, how comes help out of blue
Abraham was thrown to fire by pharoah to burn completely
Abraham declares that being in fire was the best time of his life
And pharoah has to take the taste by taken away by wrath fully Pharoah along with his followers was cut by the fate of knife
Prophet Muhammad faced series of hardships but stood to occasion
Once He was inflicted by severe magic by daughters of non believer
But with graces of Allah he surpassed the evil doers with precision
So remained the miserable life of the non believers, deceivers
I have been inflicted by magic by my sister in lawas, spouses
Let me tell you the torture and pain I felt gave me a new experience
These rascals did all to usurp all money and property the houses
But with kindness of Allah I came out of all fuss being glorious
Now I know that Allah put His prophets in a test to for our sake
That whenever we are in trouble we should seek all strength
From the life stories of lovers of Allah as a real sweet hot cake
Whatever intensity of a turmoil and whatever is its length

Conquest of Fear
My love there are two dominant fears in life
One is the fear of starvation and other is death
We pass through this danger on edge of knife
We remain in a difficult state till the last breath
Fear remains fear unless we accept it and jump
The moment we jump in fear it totally disappears
Never ever to return to haunt or to just slump
It may terminate on the tears or just on cheers
So Fear is just nothing but a hurdle to abolish Take positive steps and adopt the path of righteous
This is how we can and will polish get to polish
And this how we can more clean and more pious

Embrace Truth

My love it is time to embrace truth as a bless
Even if it's difficult but truth remains truth
Facing your fears will always lead to progress
Acceptance of reality will definitely sooth
Your heart and your soul and will take you
To place of solace with all heavenly things
To the eternal heights through and through
Hence you will sail through on love wings
Truth surpasses all fears in ones sweet life
One should not feel worried to but just fail
Only truthful persons face life's sharp knife
It is just a matter to unveil the apparent veil

Drops To Dance

Rain makes my passion to flow and glow
Every drop makes me to dance at a glance
Love remains through out a life a show
This is from heart to heart to take a chance
My love your beauty shines in drizzling rain
Your figure crops up with all sweet curves
It makes me really lunatic and totally insane
Let my sweetheart praise you the way deserves
Rain reinvigorates my spirits to kiss, embrace
Let me hold you to be more near to my heart
Let me take you with all your nurturing grace
Please be mine for ever never ever to depart

Be Glorious

Every battle in life can not be fought to be victorious
Most of the times they are to renie the skills of war
This real practice makes soldiers to be really glorious
This is how the soldiers explore and to but adore
I am a soldier so donot take me light my enemies
I will fight till last to celebrate my sacrifies for the nation
My acts of valour will make me eternal for centuries
My sentiments and my every step is based on my passion
Let me remind you my friends about the experience
Which I carry along to belong to that group of soldiers
My every step takes me to be glorious and victorious
I am soldier of my Lord strong from boulders to boulders

Trials And Tribulations

Trials and Tribulations
Pure love needs trials and tribulations
To put a mark of spiritual elevation
We have to have straight communications
Love is a bold step to real salvation
Bigger the trial brings increase in love
Heart to heart travels message to tell
Love is a supreme trait from the above
It brings intoxication.it brings a spell
Love is ingrained in human soul by Lord
Who Himself is an ever glowing love
He bestowed this trait to His every ward
Have a clean heart to have this now

Sentiment

After long years of love, service and servitude
I feel depressed for a harsh negative response
I have gone through many turmoils not to brood
But now when I need rest through proper chance
My near and dear ones started discarding me
On one pretext or another to make me a fool
They don't aspire for a drop I donated them sea
Their attitude has become just cruel and cool
This world is a deception and residents are fake
I think silence is best to bear an irrational response
The tarnished image one may not be able to make
They do not understand fully let them give a chance

Constant Struggle

My love constant struggle brings incredible progress
And then no one can pursue and stand your way
Rest assure no one comes your way less sweet bless
Then no one can dare to come in the way to play
To endure is to win in every moment and every time
Love gives it zeal and zest to be a soldier so best Obstructions come to test the soldier for his prime
A soldier never ever remains at any sort of rest
Fortune favours the brave and brave has to win
Allah being kind helps each and every one
Sincerity to take us to the edge of eternity within
When love takes heart then there remains none

Sweet Remembrance

Sweet Remembrance
I am sitting by side of a water stream
To listen to the music of small little waves
Light comes out in a beautiful beam
The charm of beauty comes over and saves
Me and my passion for the sake of love
She is a beautiful girl to be but mine
My fortune is wonderful from just above
I am ready to drink from lips as wine
My sweetheart donot take me so light
But my heart remains softer to say
You are in sight and remain as insight
Give me your hand to together pray

Percipience

What a man who serves his wife and children for years
But still there is no belongingness on the part of family
Heb performs his duties like a donekey to be in tears
But no belongingness accrues when dealt just as callously
What a world of hypocrisy with people of vested interest
There is no sense of belongingness so to but declare
Hatred takes over all duty and just all life commitment
Hearts have gone to darkness being completely indifferent
This indifferent attitude makes me dejected and depressed
I think about the self-centred approach of the people
Allah is great to make me dutiful and in difficulties the best
I am a mountain eagle an I can cover every steep hill
But at times I do think what I lost and what I gained
For all my sacrifices what I did and what I wanted to do
My love I have all but sustained to be in chained
But I am a parent and I pray for generations God bless you

Conquer Invasion

Conquer Invasion
My sweetheart asked me that how I am
I told her that I am not well so on bed rest
She responded that I have state as same
I am broken in pieces no regrets being best
World is a strange place when we are in pain
Then we miserably cry and start complaining
What a process of being sane and insane
We must divert ourselves to something entertaining
At the same time we must be grateful to Lord
We must endure and stand to the occasion
Lord loves us and takes us ourselves as ward
Our fight for right will conquer the invasion

Know Your Worth

Worthless people are those who failed to understand
Value, worth and significance of Lord and His graces
Who have no access to that frequency and sweet band
He is within for whom they travel from pace to pace
And with eyes so dirty and hearts totally unclean
How can get revelations to flow in love stream
Let my friends know that love remains evergreen
Let's have clarity to know about pure light beam
It is complain worthless people are of no consequence
Because they negate virtue and aspire for vice Satan derails them all in organization and sequence
Worthless people must be ready to pay the price

Difficult Times

Hard Times
Difficult times come to refine and clean
All dirt and garbage go down to the drain
Absurdity to reality can easily be seen
It is but blessing and merciful drops of rain
God is great who takes care in survival
Whatever obstacles come are encountered
Pure intention takes shape of an angel
Serenity goes to fulfill mission word by word
Let the take all odds with a tinge of smile
Let us be more humble to win ever war in life
Absurdities of life we have to forget for a while
Even if we are cut by a double edged knife
Character is the virtue of but real hard times
Which bring solidarity between heart and mind
Soul touches with eternal Soul and sublimes
Hence combined effort blends to make but bind

Temptation

Temptation is dangerous than murder
Due to its unwarranted creation of conflict
It is the one which creates disorder
Hence life from its fitness becomes unfit
The attempter never ever gets solace
The vicious ones are destroyed derailed
They carry along disgrace, no face
Temporarily may be winners but failed
Virtue has to flow with its strong wings
To all the nooks and corners with its grace
It flies and remains in all love strings
To bring balance from just place to place

And through fear to inflict heart and head

Unless you allow to creeo it in your thread

Daisy Crazy

Some girls do claim that my love poems make them crazy
So I feel elated with this wonderful remark so to say
I coordinate and associate this remark with fragrance of daisy
Idea being hazy makes clear all like dawn of the day
As a poet I do appreciate their sense of poetic creativity
The point is how one communicates and loves beauty
When beauty attracts then love becomes lunatic in captivity
I am in a chain and in bond of love and fiduciary duty
Sublimity makes a piece of literature really great
All abstractions can be narrated and explained to make clear
Rhythm and rhyme make it in tune to associate
Beauty with love brings excellence to bring all near and dear

Love is an evergreen pain in heart to celebrate
The virtuous moments all in the temple of soul
Tears are like dew drops to narrate and incarnate
Colour of soul from silver to gold as a whole
My sweetheart my heart's solace be mine to see
How beauty takes control of everything in life
My love, love has no solid or valid reason or plea
A lover remains and becomes purple loosestrife
Sweet red coloured eyes change into but pale
Sweet smiles just change into an anger strike
Pleasure changes in to pain to consistently prevail
Life from reality but changes into dreamlike

Run run and run to capture but they are very many
How to select one for my innocent aim I don't know
I will only capture the selected one and not just any
I am in the stream of love with zeal and zest to flow
Then in love pursuit I saw the selected one to capture

No concern has left behind to associate
No one is ready to pray or just to pay

One race has to bear the brunt to let bloom the next
Sacrifices given never go waste being sincere in nature
To reciprocate the mutual interest things be in context
To help next generation to flourish is the lbest egislature
So we have to aspire excellence for coming generations
We have to save them from all embarassements in life

So why not to be gracious to see our progress in them
Let be more vigilant to save them from all and every fuss

The Hallucination

in the boat on the lake to cross over water
In shimmering water I see your sweet image
You in a cruel mood seem but to slaughter
She with all her sweet tricks to just rummage
Me for a innocent sin of love which I committed
I do appreciate that meanings of love not known
But this was the crime which her charms permitted
But I must admit that in this affair I was not alone
Then suddenly I saw her in front of me in the boat
She had a cruel smile on her beautiful sweet face
In her red coat and golden dress with an abecedote
My lover do you know what is love and what is grace

Let Love Glow

Love is to take a leap of faith to take all risk
Sincerity brings heart to heart to negotiate
Love takes its own leaps and jumps to be brisk
From heart to heart love is to communicate
It brings excellance to conquer all in a go
My love you have conqured me with beauty
Attraction takes one to unknown state of flow
Hence all bondage vanishes to remain free
I am fortunate that you selected me for you
I hope with the passage of time we will glow
My longing is to hold through and through
In this stream of fragrant love to grow to flow

All rainbows bow their colours on her sweet charm
This is how she gives me satisfaction with perfection

She intoxicates every part of her inner universe
In a glance she takes me to trance to buldoze

Beauty has dawned on me love with all its shades
I wish and desire to keep her near and face to face

Revenge For Revenge

Revenge For revenge
She wants to make me insane with her tricks
Now I decided not to leave her in that sweet solace
I will drag her on thorns and will try to fix
For once and all, I will take revenge on face to face
She with her broker husband tries to conquer all
But she will get the taste of her henious crimes
It is not always good to take someone to the wall
Sometimes one has to pay the price to times
Revenge gets revenge as per all the sacred books
So I have the right to return to her what I received
My enemy I will no more let you play with good looks
So to be relieved I agreed to make criminals diseased

Love Remains
When heart becomes rebel then sane becomes insane
Only loved one remains and remaining lover dances in rain
The universal light comes down and shimmers in a chain
After heart is taken by love then remain no sense no brain
My sweetheart how to be in this world to bear this sweet pain
Heartbeats leave their music to bear all stress and strain
To remain in harmony with others becomes difficult to maintain
These are the fits of insanity which occur time and again
Symphony of love never ever is to last but definitely blast
Love has nothing to do with colour creed and the caste
Love and beauty play in their own comparison and contrast
My love in love I am most rebellious and really iconoclast
Please be mine and do not try to measure my being entusiast
I am a soldier frank, bold and courageous to be surpassed

My Staunch Belief

My relations intend making me insane with magic
The enmity has started because they don't believe in work
They do believe in short cuts in life which is tragic
They being totally dishonest and hypocrite believe in quirk
I have decided to bear this pain without complain
Not to visit any magician to get relief in untowards condition
I purely trust in God and not to sell my soul in chain
I will not resort to any magician to complete the worstmission
I requested to God to save me or to take me away
But I will never ever sell my soul to the dirty devil for relief
I am not like a dark night but dawn of the day
I love my Dod at peril of my life this my staunch belief

Life is Dreamlike
One good deed my friend goes a long way
While one bad deed brings destruction to generations
A beam of light reveals the truth it does say
Strong building can only be erected on strong foundations
Vice can never ever last long it is quiet for sure
Virtue blooms and celebrates its utility for times to come
The only wonderful act is to prepare and to endure
To make wonderfully beautiful this life sweet to troublesome
Every human gets birth as a virtuous being to celebrate
But time and circumstances make him the way they feel like Whosoever aspires for virtue definitely remains great
Life in this world is not like rainbow its strange and dreamlike

In Shelter
Whoever reposes his trust in God
Will never ever be in any trouble
So it is incumbent on one to laud
Merciful act before being bubble
Miseries of life are never ending
Constant attachment helps in all
Straight path is but never bending
Protection sought saves from fall
I have no one less less my Lord
Who constantly takes me in shelter
He covers me like wonderful guard
He brings all clarity when sight is blur

But one thing which I do carry is the strong plea
I have a choice to go deep down or to sail

I have to overcome all obstacles not to fail
But I don't need any help since I am flaunt

The Anatomy Of Love

Anatomy Of Love
Love my love is not so easy to take and to just play
Surprising twists and turns appear as challenges at first Emotions, sentiments and passion will test so to say
Romantic opportunities come slow but then to just burst
Love is simple but its idiosyncracies may take life
Love my love is innocent and sweet with all its charms
But simultaneously its like a double edged sharp knife
It is sweet as well as difficult to go along its norms
My sweetheart let me be frank to tell you I love you
Now its purely up to you to take me as such or not
I promise to be yours under all thick and thin all thru
Now we are in a knot which can never ever be forgot

Love Is Fire To Play

My love do not play with fire less you burn your hands
Accept whatever is written in your fate remains eternal
Life is like a burning desert without shade remains sand
Love and hatred go side by side being a reality universal
We are friends but love is supreme to be taken so light
But I do know that we are not meant for each other
We are two birds meant to be different on different flight
So it will be good to separate just each other rather World is full of hypocrites who wear mask over mask
Values including love has gone down to stray dogs
So let my love be frank and straight in state of bask
Let us remain in the state of just confusion like fogs

Your magic dances all around me to declare
You are only one in the world that I do adore
That we are the ones to be the fortunate pair
My heart at times tells me that you are real
But my imagination fascinates me to spark
I love you my love and can; thide my zeal
Because its you who made mark as hallmark
How can I embrace you and kiss you just tell
That beauty is surely responsible to take life
My love I am really enthralled by your spell
I took you as life but you proved you as knife
Dreams proved more hostile my love to me
I am in a situation where there is no light
Darkness is so deep and dark just as vast sea
Being love crippled I ca not have a flight

In Struggle

I am a straight soldier and never play dirty
You may see me in struggle but never to quit
But you will always see me frank and heart
Unless someone attacks me I never ever hit
I am bestowed with a duty to perform, partake
I am predestined to always be on right path
I coscientiously go on my way for Lord's sake
In the process I don't mind any contempt, wrath
You can deal with me but don't challenge me
I will not swallow any insult do take care
I in my own reckoning just like a vast green sea
Do not give air to the flame to make it flare

Injuries of Life

The injuries of can not be healed
Because soul remains in real trouble
Body and mind can be sealed
But love has to perish like a bubble
Since hatred takes all in a chain
So how I take suture to but butcher
Unless I am totally just slain
What remains in present past in future
Still I feel fully convinced to overcome
All injuries of heart and soul in a go
Oh life is cruel and definitely troublesome
But still it is boung to show and flow

Love Is For Ever

Love Is For Ever
Why do you play a game of to appear and disappear
Either my dear vanish away or be mine forever
Whether you want to give me poison or love wine dear
Do not play with my endeavour don’t be clever
My heart is heart of a poet so soft and so loving
But if you want to pollute it with hatred it may die
Innocence of my heart is so sweet knowing nothing
Please don’t be so rude to degrade me just to cry
My love even if die my love will remain in spring
It will bloom with all flowers to show eternity of love
Then you will weep when my soul will but sing

Let's Conquer

You are neither a stranger nor an adversary
You are my sweet and wonderful soulmate
Please do not be party to my foes just to be
The symbol of my fortune and not my fate
We can conquer entire world hand in hand
But if we become the victim of thy jealousy
Then we will lose our frequency and our band
So love demands only faith and sincerity
Let be frank in our love to increase its charm
Let be straightforward in our love to eternity
Let us have our relation wonderful and norm
Let us adopt in our relation more audacity

Allah Is Great
When a dejected heart strongly holds rope
Of Almighty Allah then suddenly comes hope
No doubt that one is on a straight slope
He gets all the strength how to just cope
Whenever I remember Him He comes to me
Takes me in His Mercy and helps to come up
He is like a vast green limitless sweet green sea

People are crying for basic needs to get
But the politiations resort to wonderful speeches
In their reckoning all remains but just set
Poor are in trance and remain totally speechless
The children do not get food nor education
They are totally debarred from all necessities of life
What anation they do not have any station
They spend their life on a double edged sharp knife
May God Almighty lookafter His debarred creation
May these restless souls get peace to remain
May dissolve into nothingness this deadly frustration
May all this change to pleasure from chain of pain

Cruel clutches of animals are up to but kill
No distinction remains there is no prudence
Life has all poison as medicin but no advil
Why I am in them I don't know so to speak
But I do feel ruined in this strange jungle

It may reveal all truth about me and my entire life

It may give you all information how I strived to deal
With every aspect of life including love and hatred
So do not play with my sentiments, is just an appeal
See I am still alive with pain and torture being dead

Death Call

A Poem by Ayesha Khalid

Loud cries echoed in the surroundings
Screams and shrieks made terrible poundings
The roof collapsed on the enormous loss
Of the near one who left the worldly chaos
Many empty hands were raised to pray
Death entered from window to snatch and slay
The worldly clock got struck never before
Like a lethal wound bleeding once more
The glass door imprisoned the time
On the eternal deep musical rhyme
The true love tried really hard to freeze
The love moments had to end and cease
Tears sprinkle in the eyes of grace
Death made a terrible blow on the base
The utmost love and the utmost care
Left behind in the heart so fair
The dutiful eyes freezed in time
Love is supreme, love is prime Nothing left behind except pain
Death conspired to make sane insane

Bruised In Salty Sea

I am in a salty sea of life and my body is all bruised
Pain and torture haunts me just now and then
For what crime my love I am accused I am confused
It might be my fate written by the great pen
Still I am not clear for what i am in the salty sea
What I see all like me are in real trouble
What a world and what may be my solid plea
In water all around I am also a bubble
Life is a dream within a dream I must confess
So we have to sail to other end for salvation

How one can trust them in this state
For whom we can sacrifice for their sake
And thin think all remains in our fate
Even if we be upront to know the ones
To search for real love bond to just trust
The embarrassment comes but in tons

Thinking about that night on mountain with snowfall
The weather reminds me your soft words in sterness
My love without warmth of your love remains woeful
The snowfall further aggravates the situation to gloom
My beloved please be kind and pray for my coming
But still let me tell you in this dim situation love is to gloom
Your love song vibrates around and in ears like humming
Again in this severe weather all around to find traces

For train to drop some more passengers to take
What a wonderful drama is on the fixed date
All is destined when to sleep and when to awake
Journey is also planned by Lord for the believers
Faith remains in all situations at the top to say
Fault remains with the disciples of satan, deceivers
What remains the aim of faithful but to pray
Hypocrites are all around with their dirty tricks

Chains Are Chains

Golden chains of love are taken over by hard iron chains
Stress and strain are part of the game with lot of pains
Cruel hands of fate take in grip to kill in severe hurricanes
Life is a game full of trics and to terminate on false plains
World is an unknown station with lot of up and down trains
One remains unaware of different losses and different gains
Humans are standing on straight paths on straight lanes
The hearts are full of hatred, and contempt with tricky brains
Humans are strange and pass through strangest paths
The due to their actions get less mercy and more wrath
Pain and torture are scattered all around like a scathe
At times one may find gracious moments like a spathe
Death comes to humans like end to see and aftermath
So life from beginning to an end remains but a warpath

Heart to heart and eyes to eyes discourse
Surely amorous looks will enthral to call
All strength to a point to explode in a go
Love makes me wonderful just all in all
A blasting force is ready to flow and glow
I am lost and she has taken over the charge
I don't know whether it is hell or paradise
Sighs and cries go hand in hand to enlarge
Our innocence is to blend to make us wise

Love Pearl

She raised her hands in a jubilant mood
I could see moon in its full sweet prime
My sweetheart my heart is just to allude
My heart in time flows with love rhyme
Her closed eyes reinvigorate her charms
Her tresses call all skies to come down
Her cheeks declare openness in norms
Her necklace looks from neck as a crown
Her eyes are on the vast green sea to be
A part of that vastness to jump and select
In front of me she is like my love plea
I am bound to search a love pearl to detect

I Am At War

I am at war with me all the time
The saga starts from my early prime
What is this world what we to do
Under all circumstances but to pursue
Love and hatred go hand in hand
With one frequenct and with one band
What is that peace of soul to aspire
What is that beauty for which we desire
All relations are fake foes are true
At times what is all that we pursue
Pain and torture are our friends
They tell us to submit or to bend
All humans are full with all tricks
Conscience is always there and pricks
How to have love for all and all
Let us still be peace our only call
Let us be in the company of Lord
Let us be His wonderful ward

Seeking Forgiveness

My love don’t be angry with me I am not in my senses
Life with my rivals played a dirty trick on me to destroy
They have thrown me on on thorny cutting of fenceses
They have taken me for granted being a young boy to cry
But they don’t know me I am a soldier to fight till last
Having all quick responses to their tricks and hypocrisy
To friends I am very kind to enemies a grenade to blast
I know my limits and expect to be respected not to try
But my love at times I do lose senses being human being
So this was the state of affairs I got angry, I never meant
So my sweetheart this all non sense was for the time being
So I am in dire need of forgiveness pull me out of torment

In My Heart Beat

From snow clad high mountains down to deserts
I remained in search of you but could not find
I looked for you in paintings and all pieces of arts
My sweet heart I failed to find you being blind
I tried to get you in whispering winds in spring
But like hidden treasure you remained hidden
My passionate passion tried its best to just bring
But you remained like a sacred scripture hidden
Then I heard a mellowing song of a sweet stream
So I jumped to see your sweet figure but just failed
Then I checked my love line to find your love beam
You were dancing in my heart beat and I derailed

Satan Never Dies

Satan Never Dies
World is full of rascals guided by Satan
Innocence and purity is everywhere at stake
Merciless tricks has corrupted the maiden
In this black world all remains just totally black
God gifted heroes play their part with grace
Virtuous ones never sumbit to any vice
They are alwaus ready to kiss and embrace
Martyrdom under circumstances suffice
Heroes love to die to live for a cause for ever
Vicious tricks can never ever stop the way
Of valliants one for their relentless endeavour
They remain like a light beam and a ray
But see the plight of a man who how he survives
To go hrough every torture and every pain
And look at the Satan, the vicious never ever dies

Aphrodite

Love And beauty
Love is selfless to bear all pains and disdains
Beauty is a magnet to attract with its force
Its the point where all ideas culminate in chains
A touch of class graciously may endorse
Love is an eternal gift of God so to speak
It drags a lover to all zigzag paths to uncover
What is awesome and what remains unique
This is all what one has to discover, recover
My love I do understand what is hidden in love
I do also understand the miracles of beauty
It is good to understand from the verdict above
To be on one grid makes lover, beloved free

Moment To Decide

Decisions once taken should not be regretted
This is how we can project our sincerity and resolve
Through out our lives we remain but indebted
It is how we can be able to involve and to just solve
A moment may come to test us in a hard trial
Our patience and fortitude helps but to overcome
That moment is precisely test us for a while
How to be one on one with the life troublesome
Valliant are those who pass this test smilingly
And touch the edge of eternity with trsolution
All support comes to them but surprisingly
To be in the ride remains only sole solution

The Tears

Some tears never appear
In eyes but go deep down
Heart aches and souls to bear
Pain hits heart to wear crown
I am helpless and hopeless
But then a beam of light hits
To give me hope and bless
I am broken in bits and bits
Life has played hell to me
Death will come to cover my face
A drop will go back to sea
Without compromising on its grace

Strange State

This world is a hell to dwell my friend
The tricks remain the only feasible trend
The common understood policy is to bend
Sheer hypocrisy my friend is the only blend
Humain rights are molested to just defend
To cater for melancholy may just impend
To know all about let us try to comprehend
This is all which is to be blantly condemned
Let be fair in trouble to understand to resolve
This can not happen unless we just fully involve
Love with sincerity remains useful to dissolve
Beauty of all actions should fairly just convolve
It needs transfer of power to initiate to devolve
What is unresolved must be resolved with resolve

I Am Near

You are here and you are also there
But you have not seen me dear
And you haven't felt me anywhere
If you touch your heart I am near Heartbeat is my sign of presence
In each and every pore to move
Without you my life is but sentence
I am sorry that I can not prove
With your beauty love is eternal
Its fragrance blooms to prove right
That intensity makes one abnormal
So my love you forgot me in flight

Pain In Love Chain

My love your heart is so innocent so tender and so sweet
Hence you can see any human in torture and pain
For this sweet trait I love you and want to be my heartbeat
So that beauty be praised and taken in love chain
I know world has its own mockeries and its own tricks
But with clean hearts we will be able to overcome all
With sincerity of purpose all difficulties we will just fix
We will be able to forestall and to encounter any wall

My Beloved Leader

My beloved leader Imam Hussain my heart's solace
I salute to you and to your small group of seventy two
When he decided not to submit the race of lawless
Being the true soldier of Allah he was determined to do
Whatever was the call of the occasion to establish writ
He and his group was debarred from food and water
But being hungry and thirsty they were fit and not upset
And then enemy attacked and sky saw man slaughter
Imam Hussain fell down from horseback in the battle
Imam Hussain was severely injured went to prostration
This was the excellent action of martyrdom as example
His act of valor and wonderful elation was the salvation
Great Hussain will be remebered for sacrifice for times
His stand for the cause of Allah will bring all mercy
Yazeed will be cursed for his dirty designs henious crimes

Images Remain Images

Images are not real but they are fictitious
They lack originality and are of no consequence
They are suspicious being just ambitious
They are to show superiority being ambitious
Prophets and saints can not be captured in images
It's equally valid for all the sacred entities
They are portrayed without any principles, witnesses
They are talk of the town without identities
One cannot be divided as very many to create fun
Hence a person must take all care in the field
Vice and virtue are under no circumstances be one
Truth revealed brings along its own sharp shield

The Restlessness

My heart aches with pain and my soul cries
The idiosyncracies of life kills me time and again
The cruel relations around are full of lies
What is this world but full of pain to make insane
I have gone mad my heart has become soulless
I aspire to look to the blooming red roses
But the thorns are on my way to tread to bless
In sheer darkness a streak of light proposes
How should I sail through all these troubles
To be on the other end to feel pleasure in disgust
What appears to eyes remains like bubbles
In state of distrust heart is to burst soul is to rust

No Shortcuts

At Military Academy we were afraid to take short cuts
But there was a hidden desire to have the taste of it
Every cadet under stress and strain wants to get peanuts
On the basis of our fitness authorities to establish writ
Every benefit we could understand in our normal routine
Military life has taught us all to be just perfect gentlemen
To fairly become keen, lean to be straight, frank and clean
Great human being in every field remains ten out of ten
And then a day comes when one fulfills desire of short cut
On wrong attractive information one just takes a chance
Being amidst if and but he is swayed and is caught by rut
A short cut taken ruines him in a glance to be in a trance

Let us understand to be a man is to be on cross
Through and through to win lot many battles
But injuries of soul inflict badly to be in the loss
With severe weather in life dies down candles
Pain and torture one bear till the last moment
Valliant are those who never ever cry in a trial
They pass through all to confront being silent
Their hard struggle remains being worthwhile

A Good Cop A Bad Cop

A Good Cop, A Bad Cop
I was telling to my son about all the people
That he should not trust them, they are hypocrites
They should not just be considered as sepals
So he should know how gracefully he hits and fits

In this scenario where all is fake and nothing is true
So he should be well educated to know manners
How to deal with every vice and with every virtue
So he should deal with planners and manners

My son said this world needs but every weather

God is only Saviour
My daughter cried, father I have seen a dreadful dream
Blood was all around and on the roof to inflict magic Which tells all about the tricks played by enemies it seem Apparently all this seems dreadful and definitely tragic
My daughter, I replied I am a soldier of God, He will protect Me and my family from all magical dirty tricks, I believe
It is only to decide between Lord and Satan to just select
I am a staunch believer of God so no one can dare to deceive
I leave all to my God to protect us all and to but select

The Sweet Remembrance

The Remembrance
It was raining and I was thinking about my past
When me and my beloved were together to enjoy
The drops of rain were touching me and I was lost
In the soft touch of my blooming love to cry
Love cries and sighs were the whispering sound
We were totally lost in the ecstasies of sweet love
We were hand in hand in the sky not on ground
We were gifted by sweet moments from the above
But the I was in present she was no more to adore
I was all alone remembering sweetness of her
This is what is the trick of fate just to state to ignore
This is what is pain of love to but remember

Love and Duty

A soldier has more aesthetic sense than a poet
He wears uniform to take the most patriotic duty
His courage fortitude make him ready to opponent
In his decision he is blunt, but moderate and free
Whether he may be on high altitude or in a desert
He has the will to do and to convert it into paradise
He remains always remains alert to exert, to divert
He can face any untowards situation being but wise
He claims his uniform as his coffin and proves it
He tackles with the enemies on peril of his life
He proves it all whatever is demand to commit
His sense of duty makes comfotable even on knife

Right Wins

I am surrounded by hounds, vultures and vicious circle
Who aspire to harm me through their dirty tricks
With their dirty so called powers they want to encircle
They have sold their souls to satan to play politics
They are jealous of me and my hard work in my life
They are the ones who don't work but resort to illegal ways
They want to snatch my food by downgrading me to strife
I am sure that by their tricks they have counted their days
With my conviction and belief I will definitely win over them
My Allah is my sole Saviour who is Lord of truely right
The vicious ones will soon face their fate most troublesome
With kindness and mercy of Allah I will fiercerly fight

Wicked Magicians

All those who practice magic have sold their souls to satan
For their ulterior motives and henious designs
Is this world is a brothal house or a place just forsaken
What guidelines are coming out with the signs
These are the rascals and bitches who worship vice
They follow dark shadows in sheer darkness
They don't know that what may be the real price
They are not aware about fate and sharpness
They play with the innocence of people as a sport
They dwell to bogdown in swamp to strange death
Hell is predistined for them as ultimate real resort
They will taste the results of evil till their last breath
For this transitory world they play magic to survive
I pray for their rewards to become a symbol a sign
They should be thrown to hell with their dirtiest drive
Their punishment should equate to their vicious line

Its a jump which makes a sane to be totally lunatic

A sane to embellish his point for insane no yardstick

A Tribute To Sweet Father

The Father
Father is a disciplinarian from beginning to end
He is the master who has to set the eternal trend
He makes his wards to stand up and never bend
The message of humanity he has to take and send
Being strict in rule he is not liked by all and sundry
But he is the one who makes his generations free
He is representative of God and he holds valid plea
He trains his wards to sail honorably in violent sea
He takes his onerous task with smile to perform
He teaches all skills and also teaches all the norm
In chilling snowy season of odds keeps wards warm
He is love in entirety and makes concern conform
Image of God with love of many mothers for wards
Being an ordinary person makes his wards the lords
Being a staunch guard is always happy and guards
Keeps in fact intact all strings of beauty, love chords

Love To Ameliorate

To Ameliorate
In rainy evening she appears as bottle of champagne
I forget all to take her sip by sip to ameliorate
This is how I try to bear every torture and every pain
In sheer love my soul starts dancing with my soulmate
Her sweet beauty is beyond any words to explain
For her glowing eyes I can sacrifice my every asset
Her beauty intoxicates me to be sane and insane
Love and beauty embrasse each other to be perfect
My love I lost my heart I lost my soul for your sake
Be mine and let explore love with all sincerity
Your sensual pleasure makes you beautiful hot cake
Let take all benefit of rainy evening let feel free

Present to Call

I have to fight this battle of life with grace
Hence I have to bear all torture and pain
Love is the only weapon to carry place to place
My love I have but only sweet love chain
I know that I have to be a committed soldier
But I am sure no one can stop me to win
I have to cross mountain from boulder to boulder
Let me in this intoxication open another tin
Do not challenge me I am not open of death
I have to keep my resolve to conquer but all
I have to fight like a real soldier till last breath
My love for my Lord keep me present to the call

Life Is Risk

A big risk brings a big reward my love
To battle with inner critic with your talent
Love is a constant stream with a rove
It is violent as well as excellent by gallant
Self esteem makes true this dream
It is job of a wonderful self directed soldier
On every step realization blooms a beam
To encounter hurdles from bolder to bolder
My sweetheart be sweet to my eyes to see
What real taste of life comes with struggle
Your inner zeal and zest sparkles like spree
To surpass in life over each and evry trouble

Dancing Mood

My dreams of love make me to see
Her sweet beauty in a dancing mood
I think in trance what taste could be
Her charming style makes me pursued
Her green eyes her red juicy cheeks
Her red juicy rose make me to drink
My every heartbeat anxiously seeks
I want to appreciate from link to link
Then I embrace her beauty but to kiss
What a chance I get to always cherish
She is my sweetheart my beautiful miss
I do dclare without her I will but perish

So Sweet My Love

So Sweet
Dew drops when touch your beautiful cheeks
Start dancing down to extend all praise
After that they jubiliantly and one just sneaks
How can be a sonnet from phrase to phrase
Beauty is what enthralls and gives way
To a wonderful ray of light to be in a trance
I love you my love what I have to say
Love accelerates a sweet marvellous chance
My love you are so sweet to see to taste
You will not be able to find an appraiser like me
Let me dive in an ocean of beauty so chaste
Whisper all love songs in my ear my humming bee

In Front To Confront

I saw her in a mall in a modern city
She followed me anxiously to embrace
She was so loving and was but free
When I saw her I was impressed by grace
In a corner she suddenly was in front
She raised her hand and it was all fragrance
She was after me but hug and confront
I was enthralled her impressed by her presence
When I saw her face it was ready to be kissed
I saw in her eyes they were all in trance
The wonderful moment was not to be missed
I bent upon and took a sudden chance

All Are Equal

All Are Equal
My soul is in trouble my heart is in pain
I am a poet of love who loves all and sundry
World is full of hatred to spread in chain
In burning desert of life there is no love tree
Rascals have divided world for their benefit
Races are there on the basis of status and skin
Human emotion is delicate so one should hit it
Division on the basis of color and caste is sin
All prophets and all saints preach dignity
Then what this difference of color and creed
Humans are most noble creatures to be all free
Any test and trial is totally dependent on deed
All humans are equal in the eyes of our Lord
Caste color and creed is no criterion to judge
Every white and every black remains but ward
Unclean hearts will face their ultimate on grudge

But you left me alone in a burning desert
You promised you will remain totally loyal
I never thought you will be first to but hurt
I don't mind if I die in my sweet love trance
But my soul will follow you till the last day
You must remember I was victim of a glance

A Moment Of Bliss

A sweet love kiss remains a moment of bliss
She has glowing cheeks and sweet rosy lips
What an innocent sin let me openly confess
I remember her sweet grace on my finger tips
Her glowing cheeks take away my faith
She beats in heart and travels in the blood
Sun beams are pleased to give her sun bathe
My passion aspires to see in thundering flood
I love her a lot she loves me up to the brim
From heart to heart and soul to soul
She is a stream of beauty love has to swim
Beauty has her trend and love has its role

Embrace moments of joy in ones sweet love life
Since life is trasitory and full of torture and pain
In this burning desert of life on the edge of knife
Where it's pleasure to have magical mercy of rain

Beauty has a knack to flow in the stream to ignite
Let solace comes to take one to heights as treasure
Then sight becomes insight to provide sweet delight

To Strongly Sustain

Occasionally pain of my heart tells me the state of heart
At times I do not know whether I am sane or lunatic

I am in need of soul soothing sentiments and solace
I pray for mercy of Lord my love but with the tears

Its only love which comes and takes me to embrace
My heart-wrenchingly poignant pain to awash in joy
This gift of my Lord keeps me balanced just to grace

And forget Allah for just their own betterment
It is only support in any upheavel to become eagle

There remains no clarity but only fogs
What they do they just only take turns

Blood relations are after blood to play
Their dirty game to be more benefited

We tread but bonly on the path forsaken

Sweet Love Call

In disaster states are spreading fear of death and hunger
They do not have any serious planning and implementation
The most responsible has become third class rumour monger
They are mere vagarants without any destiny and destination

There are useless speeches and discussions on blame game
General public is in a state of fix what to follow and what not Without any frame of truth, reality they are in flame of shame
There stupidity is hidden under versatile innocence fixed knot

Democracy is government of the people for the people to say

Still there is a time to have a firm and solid policy for day to pray

Her beauty surpasses full moonlit night to venerate

Mother - Sweet Mercy

Mother
Sober serene, gracious and full of love
Being in constant torture with no complaint
My mother was an eternal mercy to bow
With godly qualities she was but a saint
She taught us all the manners to survive
In pleasant way she was a prize in surprise
She trained us how to thrive and strive
Like a morning sun she made us to rise
Pain and pleasure is what we had learnt
From a mother who was image of Lord
Like piece of gold we were burnt and burnt
To make us strong, passionate and hard
May God shower on her mercy to please
Her soul in the heaven like glow of light
May God make her part of all the galaxies
May God keep her in the eternal delight

Hatred And Love

Hatred and Love
Hatred has a set of tricks with dirty planning
To deprive someone for which he but deserves
What a scheme and what a real tricky spanning
Do not ask what it reserves to play with nerves

It is a painful pain for those who play with it
They consider that they can play to be smart
What a notorious act what a real satanic art
It remains useless which has to hit, bit by bit

On the contrary love does not need a plan at all
It requires only a glance to provide a chance
Beating hearts and whispering seasons are at call
This is a minor act which takes a lover to trance

My Soul My Mind

My love I have gone through the sand storms
In a burning desert all alone to but bear all pain
But being on duty to my nation with all norms
My love soothes my soul with sheer love chain

All this now story of the past but images remain
I feel gratitude to you my love that you did a lot
To keep me in me and to be balanced not insane
Your all support kept me in wonderful love knot

Now at times I see all those sand storms in exile
Without any destination my destiny does drag me
My soul reinvigorated with your help for a while
My love my elan and ethos keep me in sweet esprit

To Forgive And Forget

To Forgive and Forget
It is good to choose to forgive and forget,
Even if it is not easy to accept ones mistakes
But if you cooperate with heart its all set
What is the sweet effect of a sweet embrace

Its good to move right into right to be right
An attitude of gratitude helps in love stance
This increases confidence and pride insight
Past teaches when and where to take chance

This moment of revelation needs celebration
For a better future yet in hand to be taken care of
This is all relentless effort with innocent passion
This flair of love makes one aware of to share of

Allah Is Light

Allah is Light
Allah is light of the entire universe
A beautiful lamp in a sweet mihrab
Wherein is glowing the lamp diverse
The lamp contained in a crystal knob

This globe is as a glittering star
This lamp is lit with the sacred olive tree
It has neither eastern nor western bar
Light is glowing, no fire lits light to see

Allah takes to His light whom He wills
Allah explains similitudes for people
Allah is well aware what sweet light fills
Every clean heart needs to be disciple

Unity In Unit

Unity in Unit
We are individuals neither a community nor a nation
What a tragic flaw that we have not learnt any lesson
From our all past difficulties and problems evaluation
And to take appropriate measures to cope up to lessen
Poverty and ailments are the basic hurdles to overcome
To be a unit to plan to coordinate to organize, to implement
To be at peace and prosperity in the life troublesome
It is neither good to be innocent and nor to be insolent
Under one flag we can bloom and flourish to succeed
To follow the sweet verdict of Unity, Faith and Discipline
Like an iron wall we have to plead our deed indeed
To be a nation we have to have on one line and be in line

Sweet Birthday Wish

AS YOU LIVE AEONS MORE

Amb Nelson Prayyz Emmanuel

As you live aeons more
the world shall thee adore
Still it's you I'll choose
To see, even if I shall give
All on which I have to live
You give the earth her rhythm and blues
And your smiles inspires the songs I muse
To which tunes the earth dances (so may your days on earth be long) your names resonating as golden gong unceasingly as times tell in this your calling may you excel
Give me millions of choice and chances
I'll still choose you to grace
The earth with your fine face
For as long as you will stay on earth, may heavens proper your ways on every of your birthing morn the smiling sun shall in gaiety dawn..

Lord is Great

Lord is Great
I know that I am made of clay but glorified
With a beautiful glowing soul by my Master
Which guides me how to have eternal ride
And how to be blessed to encounter disaster

I am the best creation of all my Lord declares
Then why I opt to be in the abysmal depths
In the wake of my tears He still takes cares
I am bestowed with intelligence for all steps

He made me fortunate to be but grateful
My actions at times drag me to wrong direction
And I start complaining to be ungrateful
Then Lord descends to bestow with all perfection

To Get Solace

To Get Solace
It is good to commiserate about the difficulties
Loved ones must be helped to gracefully survive
The hour of trial may not prolong it has to cease
Through honest drive consistent, constant thrive

Sincerity in pep talk brigs all the positive results
Affected one may feel a great relief and to abandon Realistic approach saves from all dirty insults
The process also reivigorates sentiments and passion

Solace of mind and heart gives sufficient space to a person who is passing through chain of pain
Morally elevated spirit gets just wonderful grace
A desert heat stricken soul gets but drizzling rain

When Truth Comes

When truth comes then falsehood has to retire
Definitely falsehood has to embrace its death
For falsehood clean hearted people never aspire
And they don't mind even if they lose breath

Love and hatred my love has same distinction
Love has to relish being attraction neat and clean
Love is guided by moral values as a mission
Hatred based on tricks in abysmal depths be seen

Love my love being truth brings beauty to life
It blooms and cherishes being embraced by truth
Hatred plays with right becomes a poisinous knife
It lacks moral sanction being dirty and uncouth

My love, love is the most beautiful muse
Which makes life colorful and romantic
It takes over all intellect to openly chose
Her beautiful figure allures, a love trick

My love your graces are my love charm
They reinvigorates my spirits to the beauty
What a wonderful and beautiful norm
To be face to face to praise and to just see

Because it brings hope and solace

How to exploit how to be victorious

Blame Game

Blame Game
Blame game is a game popular the world over
It is a weapon in the hands of the egocentric
Who with double faces have choice exposure
They always remain hectic in their dirty trick

Speeches and speches and without any substance
They want to be popular in society by doing nothing
They aspire to create castles in air just as a chance
Against love chains they create sheer hatred strings

Satan is their teacher as well as master to teach every man has become an enemy to but another
Revenge is the only option they plan and preach
Amongst all relations including brother to brother

A Laborer's Voice On 1st May Poem by Col Muhamad Khalid Khan

I am a laborer just by birth
And will die in the same way
I know my duties in a hearth
Hope does not come near to say
I am also one of humans
And not a donkey just to drag
But I do ask some questions
Who being champions always brag
By shouting slogans for my rights
Deliver speeches and forget
Till next year when shines light
With my blood they will let
The entire world again to know
My contributions in prime
About my martyrdom in Chicago
Where my excellence became sublime

To Rupture
From ridge to ridge from valley to valley
My love I remained in search to capture
One glimpse of beauty will make a plea
To give me immense pleasure to rupture

Happiness surmounts all other emotions
My love I am pleased with this kind gesture
Only heart can appreciate heart's notions
Love for beauty has its own sweet venture

My love with her unique beauty and style
Tinkles in my heart like heartbeat I think
My sweet love please be with me for a while

God is eternal Truth Beauty and Love
His lovers get graces by being martyrs
Saints and soothsayers are from above
Have their unique and sweet love charters

Socrates had to take full poisnous cup
To be the champion of truth to uphold truth

To aspire for love bringspleasure and sooth

Love stands for truth and truth for beauty
What a wonderful triangle to take one in
All these traits make the followers but free
From every vice and definitely from the sin

To Get Favors

Love can help melt any metaphorical glaciers
That may have formed between you and me
A warm smile can break the ice to get favors
Love with all intricacies is like a vast green sea

My love let us go on beach to see the sunsets
Let us be the part of whispering winds to share
Let us share all our assets without any regrets
Let us be the lovers in trance and let us be fair

Love is like a season to come and to make glow
Just think that there are you and me to narrate
Why to be in a state where pity matters to grow
Love has its own atrocities when rivals associate

Mischief And Torment

Mischief and Torment
Dirty people cause harm, suffering and trouble
The relations are worst in this art and trick
Oh what a scheme of an ordinary water bubble
Taken over by third class people to but pick

Dirty hearts and dirty minds will never be at rest
They have polluted society for dirty designs
They have ulterior motives to be winners in quest
They are definitely the creation of enemy lines

In their attitude they are the cause of destruction
So needed a group of people to show them right path
Vice surpasses virtue over vice in sheer seduction
If they are not guided properly they will face the wrath

Angsty Feelings

Angsty feelings crop up when lovers become fighters
And uncertainty takes over ones heart and soul
This is a drama of life taken over differently by writers
Life has different shades can not be dealt as whole

Contentment can come if heart is clean and satisfied
Irritations make one imbalanced in the way of life
What a drama of life makes one dangle far and wide
Only stability helps to come in every every strife

Anger is a poison which pollutes mind to destroy
It is good to understand the reality and then to act
Only weak people can't take responsibility and cry
It is good to be a realist and contented to accept fact

Hatred is to abolish and love needs all promotion
Social evils culminating at injustice be abolished
Sole contentment remains in sheer love and devotion
This is how angst is demolished character is polished

Innocent Sins
In love my love one can neither see nor listens
A line of action is to be enlightened to glow
Love is a drink enthralled with sweet innocent sins
It is a constant and consistent stream to flow

In my heart and soul her image becomes painted
In my state of insanity I see her just all around
This starts from sensual pleasure and goes sainted
Love is a sweet bond which makes hearts bound

Affliction Versus Consolation

Affliction
Affliction is worst than killing of humans indeed
It ia trial and a cause of pain and harm a lot
It is a dagger full of poison with to plant evil seed
It makes stream of flowing blood to just clot

God takes test by giving amnd by taking riches
Time and tide leave very many spots to remember
Without kindness of God one comes across ditches
Through which he has to go through but foever

God is so near if we have clean heart to get blessing

Love needs good deeds for narrating and expressing Mutual love is dependent on beautiful love beads

Amidst Conflicts

This world is full of all miseries, pain and torture
It constantly needs sweet and blood to nurture
Of humans who are needy being totally deprived
The so called ego has further made them divide
I do not know how to abolish this class distinction
In the wake of very many butchers to the sanction
The needy are exploited on the name their religion
Innocent sensitive souls remain throughout in prison
World has very many self created compartments
For every vice there remains different departments
Love has been converted into very many hatreds
Every one has his own tricks and in own way treads
Where is human and where is humanity you can't see
Still for every silly trick there is contemptuous silly plea
Do not search for humans animals are to dominate
Greatness has been thrown on ninkumpoops to be great
My soul is disappointed in this third class body cage
All conflicts of mind increase me and my mind in rage
My Lord help me to be a wonderful associate to save
I have become a weak tiny creature make me brave

The Message

A glorious invitation from the universe comes
And tells me to spread love to all and sundry
Love has its own charms, wonderful outcomes
To explore inner cores of heart leads to discovery

Message comes to tell all are equal in eyes of Lord
Class distinction is but purely done by the idiots
Every soul remains wonderful and is ward of God
Hence it is not valid but remains just mysterious

Love all and hatred for none remains the message
Since there is no distinction of caste, color and creed
As per pure wisdom it remains a serious presage
Humans are not tested by their appearance but deed

All About Doubt

Doubt is that poison which pollutes mind
Its a strange ailment which makes kind unkind
It is what never heals but increases to find
Its way how to make a victim totally blind
It corrupts not one but all around to remind
That bad remains bad and can not be refined
When head and soul are totally confined
So it is what can not be easily streamlined

On the contrary faith brings but only light
This is what remains source of the delight
But a doubtful person never gets just bright
He dangles always like a but broken kite
Depth remains depth and height is height
Doubt has its own shameless shameful flight

At times lover try to be so tricky and so smart
Let my love be fair to praise beauty part to part
Share me and my miseries be a real counterpart
Lover and beloved should not be poles apart
My beloved you are a wonderful piece of art
Please remain mine throughout not to depart

My Sweet Lord

My Sweet Lord
Merciful Lord never leaves a soul alone
In any calamity and in any disaster
A loving owner never ever just disown
A fortune maker remains forecaster

Soul is His commandment and His image
Under all circumstances He is Savior
The relation is like a bond and a bridge
He remains Master in eternal favor

My Lord has bestowed me with love
He dispels all tricks of all my enemies
He takes care of me from around, above
He saves me from every ailment, disease

I have no one less Him this is my belief
He remains near and dear to me always
Only His Mercifuness can bring relief
In entire universe You deserve real praise

Love Atrocities

Love is a sin a crime and needs to be punished
In this world full of tricks and dirty hypocrites
But heart is a sweet entity which remain enriched
With vibes and vissitudes of romantic love dates

Love needs patience, blood and constant sacrifice
Beauty reinvigorates love to kindle and rekindle
A lover is a highest bidder to pay the highest price
Enthralled by love he remains all to enkindle

Love buthers, love burns and ashes are taken by air
I salute Mansoor to go through such love atrocities
My innocent beloved when you say love is fire to dare
I love you take me on this thorny path along please

Heart Of A Rebel

Heart of A Rebel
My heart is that of a rebel who never stops
In beating to beat with all its real sincerity
On any inhuman activityit really but hops
To take away all humanity to make it free

My love is an ever burning fire which burns
To take away any injustice and any cruelity
It goes straight and take my love but no turns
What it promotes and kisses but only beauty

All humans are equal in the eyes of my Lord
Every suffering soul is taken care only by Him
Every dejected and depressed soul is His ward
His ocean of vast Mercy remains easy to swim

Lover - The Rebel

A lover is a rebel who cherishes radical approaches
To reach to his destination through his destiny
Where he finds her sweethearth with set of roses
Oh love sweet love what pleasure is in love harmony

Love bite has its own sensual effect to cherish
Beauty gives air to this hot pursuit to grow and glow
Pain in love is another experience which perish
Beauty has its own heavenly stream to make him flow

My sweet innocent beloved your innocence plays
A dominant role in the life a lover who aspires
To be in you and in your bosom knot and just stays
This pursuit continues unless his desire expires

A Poisnous Knife

What is love and what is friendship, a fine distinction
I do not know when and how it but blends to be one
Kindness of hearts make it a pure sweet benediction
It is what is called a wonderful job done and undone

I do not know when all changes into a poisnous knife
When iut kills a sweet hear but bein unkind mercilessly
My heart jumps up and down to play a dagger in life
She plays with my emotions by her actions hopelessly

Please try to understand or just stand out to see to call
How each relation touches cross to be just crucifide
Every relation is busy in its tricks to make just other fall
Innocent sentiments are beieng humiliated far and wide

I Am The Laborer

Me and my children are victim of starvation and disease
The people in authority have their own logic for lock down
Do not play with our lives and innocent emotions please
But what I suggest is on our cost they should not wear crown

From beginning I know my problems and I know my worth
I work, work and work till I embrace my uncalled for death
The people in chain do not like me I know just from my birth
I know I have to strive and struggle till my end till my death

All around the world the labor day is celebrated to promote
By the champions of human rights that I am the worthy human
The entire activity is a mockery to be appreciated to get vote
They take me as stupid but I do know their attitude is inhuman

By birth man is alone and remains same in exile
Till death he passes through very many difficulties
Due to Corona man has lost company for a while Again social distancing made him alone to be at ease

No companion and no company now is invogue
Everywhere man is alone in chains due to threat
Threat of death makes virus just the bloody rogue
Let be wise to accept this debt just as a set net

Why you are so concerned about your miserable plight

She is wonderfully mellowed like just real silk
Heart crops up to really chase, to kiss, to embrace

To the summit of high hill and to command
My destiny and destination towards right path
All and sundary from wonderful high ground

Your sweet courage makes me always strong
From mountains to desert you remained with me

Then entire universe will be just your slave
This is the only protection from disaster

Cup Of Poison

Cup of Poison
At times friendly relations are more sincere
While real relations are nothing but hypocrite
My friend be a realist and with hatred tear
If you have strength then be good to tolerate

World is a circus rather a brothal house infact
Where every relation is poisoned but in reality
We have one choice whether to select or reject
So our good sense makes us frank and just free

Conflicts conflicts and nothing else is world trade
We have to have courage and fortitude to bear
One slip in action always degrade us to third grade
To sip the cup of poison makes us a soothsayer

Her rays carry warmth more than sun rays
Her beauty spreads around in hundred ways
What is the taste of her beauty let me appraise
Her charming style remains romantic always

When I encountered her I was but taken away
In my reckless move I saw dancing light in a ray

Veteran Tree

How invigorated men of God could be
How gallant sons of soil behold their pride
How life and death go side by side
I saw the trainers in their sheer dedication
In starchy dress in brilliant fashion
Melodious songs of boots and hoofs
Crossing the edges of the reddish roofs
The cadets will, to touch the edge of eternity
I saw their pride I salute to thee
Flames of love kindled in their soul
Unity of action remains their goal
I depart but my soul remains

Love One On One
When she is in my arms and her heart beats touch my beats
Rhythm and music take us to the paradise with love around
The beauty makes me cease to explore it all crease by crease
What a wonderful bond of love to bound and really surround

Me and my beloved in satiating the wonderful relation found
Touch and kiss remain salt to revolt in sentiments and passion
Do not ask me to explain the beautiful and hissing love sound
My sweetheart let me praise you for your loving style and fashion

Love is a boundless bound to surround all around

In the darkest of darkness it kindles like light
Love has different shades to portray to say
Infinitey in time and space make us realize about Lord
Every part of this universe has a part to play
We do seek refuge with Lord being His real little ward
Soul remains companion of Him in thick and thin
His merciful bounties make us valiant and strong
He owns us with innumerable number of of sin

The Request

I requested for help of my Lord
He responded with prayer and patience
I bitterly wept on sins as ward
He responded with His Mercy and Presence
I complained about my loneliness
Allah said I am near to your life line
I said I am in search of His bless
He said I am yours and you are mine
My Allah You are my sheer love
I am in your protection I have none
His mercy rushed from all above
This is how I sought help one on one

In Union

The beneficent, the merciful and the kind maker
The glorious, the greatest and the eternal refuge
My Master my Lord remains always my care taker
He protects me from every disaster and deluge

He has hundreds and thousands but I have none
Only He is the one who takes care of me in difficulty
His mercy prevails He says and all is just done
His eternal love of seventy mothers make me free

But being a heartless creature I do have complaints
I feel dejected, depressed and disappointed man
He in sheer love rushes to me just like dazzling rains
Before I turn to be ungrateful He takes me in union

Make Freed Or Bleed

Allah you are the most Merciful and Gracious
This is what is part of my faith and my belief
I do know that only you can make us audacious
We are unable to take any pain or any grief

We are staunch believers that only you can ruin
Being Supreme Commander of the entire universe
We submit to you to please save from this illusion
Please be kind enough to save us from the curse

Entire humanity is praying for permanent solace
From this serious illness and to but just overcome
We with all our helpness beg to your kind grace
Please help us to away from this state troublesome

You are Great Master and we are disease stricken
We are also totally helpless and we are in dire need
We in our faith do believe will happen what written
It is your choice whether you make us bleed or freed

The Laborer

I am by birth a laborer and work for solace
My life is full of trials and tribulations I admit
But do not look down upon me I have grace
I have wonderful light on face I never submit

Please do not take me for granted I do warn
I know the greatness of work and I am pleased
With my relentless efforts my efforts to adorn
I will work ceaselessly before I just go deceased

I have worked for legitimate and will continue
My inner soldier reinvigorates my sweet spirits
I will pursue my efforts through and through
Beauty of my soul surpasses to but metaphysics

In this helplessness and dejection I have no one to recall
But my Lord you are only one who can bring me solace

Fortune Of Lover

Fortune of Lover
My love you remained the centre of my dreams
I have had your taste throughout my life my love
You provided me help in darkness with your beams
This is what it was destined from heaven above

Now I have neither you nor any dream to cherish
All colors have lost their beauty and their style
Without you I was nothing but a just thing to perish
My life has chunks of rememberance for a while

I think about you to glow then a pain of loneliness
Comes to play with my sentiments and my passion
Life without you is nothing but with you was bess
What a fortune of a lover and what a celebration

Look Back

Love is soft and tender to but deal
So it remains dormant and hidden
Unless a wound of the past to heal
It remains like a fruit totally forbidden

My love its spring season that reminds
Your love with me and your grces grace
In its entirety it takes me on and binds
To be heart to heart and just face to face

I am totally lost in this wonderful affair
You changed me and my life I appreciate
From an ordinary man made soothsayer
With all sincerity of heart I must narrate

If it is possible please do come to see
My eyes have gone dim in waiting my love
If possible please this drop back to sea
Sheer sincerity can change destiny from above

A Message Of Love

Love is a relation from eyes to eyes
Which goes deep down from heart to heart
Pain and pleasures are love cries
It is an affair from part to part and to depart

Sincerity is what an essence of love to pursue
Beauty ignites the affair to its ultimate end
My sweetheart is a red rose with drop of dew
It makes stones to turn and then to bend

Love with different shades with different trends
Proceeds with love's essence and fragrance
Love surpasses beauty in all respect and sends
A message to convey essence in real sense

Innocent Surprise

Innocent Surprise
My beloved is so innocent that she does not understand
What are the intricacies of love and how to withstand
She has her own frequency and she her own sweet band
In her wonderful beauty she has her own brand to be grand

We remain heart to heart and hand to hand in our love
She is my sweetheart my beloved like white wind dove
Definitely she is from fairies land somewhere from above
I do not know from when and how we surpassed in love

Still she is so pure so chaste like an angel from paradise
Her innocence and fragrance could make me but so wise
She is just like a beautiful and wonderful surprise to rise
My heart dictates me the wonders of this innocent surprise

Glow Of Light

Glow of Light
It is not easy to embrace eternal truth of love
One has to pass through very many rough patches
A beam of light always guides from the above
Fiery path also has its most difficult burning patches

Love needs realization with head on ones hands
Truth needs courage of Mansoor to be cut in pieces
Its a thorny path on rythmical tune of different bands
At times reinvigorates and at times suddenly ceases

Ultimate love and ultimate truth is a glow of light
My Lord is a burning lamp so pure and wonderfully hidden
I do know that if I intend to see Him I will lose sight
This love path remains for extraordinary for ordinary forbidden

Superstitions

Superstitions
All prophets show us the right path to God
They also declare what is right and what is wrong
Satan has his own tricks to play with squad
By playing nausty with his sweet dirty vicious song

The innocent human lose their way in the darkness
If not guided by their senses they but go astray
The devil knows how to derail mind how to garnish
Hence the followers lose their light not to play

The dirtiest ones become victim to do irrational things
To creat a dirty situation to take innocent in palm
By using their strings to exploit and to cut virtuous wings
With the help of just creating doubt fear and qualm

Let me assure you my people vice can not surpass virtue
God's verdict remains final under all stress and strain
In most difficult circumstances mercy comes out of blue
Like a righteous people we have to suffer to bear pain

Matter Of Pride

In essence love is but a baby step
In fragrance it surpasses fragrance of rose
In wilderness it is really a giant step
In reality it is something to just bulldoze

Whosoever comes across is overtaken by passion
It has its own shades and colors to injure
It has its own style and its own wonderful fashion
It knows when and how to just conjure

Two sweet hearts in one golden chain
It has its own warmth like a blazon burning sun
Its mercy in dazzling dangling rain
It is matter of pride, and job very well done

Love Remains Love

Love is Love
Your cruel attitude has turned my heart into a stone
Without any emotions and without any feelings
My rivals have succeeded to make me but all alone
With all their dirty designs and clumsy dealings

My love I wanted to make this desert as bed of flowers
But due to all misunderstanding it has gone to dogs
It remains no more innocent love but game of powers
Now all love songs have gone down to voices of frogs

But still I have trust in my sincerity of love to glow
Still in moonlit nights I see you in moon and appreciate
I am still convinced it was just a momentary blow
We will be together again to love selflessly to narrate

Sighs And Cries

Sighs and Cries
She said you are different as I know
From all others who are from your tribe
I my sweetheart could know in one go
I take love as a love and not like a bribe

Its sincerity of actions which speak loud
Its the portrayal of inner self in ones eyes
It is how a new individual feels in crowd
Feelings have no apparent sighs and cries

Let me admit I am different because I take Innocence as fragrance and not more or less
A girl an innocent sweet girl and not a cake
Human is a human who carries along bless

Salute To Women On Women's Day

A Salute To Women On Women's Day -
Poem by Col Muhammad Khalid Khan

God has created women with tenderness and delicacy
The entire world is bound to take care and to agree
She came out of the ribs of man and a part of heart is plea
So it is obligatory to extend all respect and to know and see

Women have sharp sixth sense like few selected called leaders
So as a matter of fact we should not be biased but be the pleaders
No one else has quality to create but the women which glitters
Men should accept the dignity honour respect and shouldn't be misers

Women are mixture of love and beauty which continue to cherish
In hour of trial and tribulation she never leaves someone to perish
World ows its strength and beauty to the beauty and strength of women
She wears the crown of creation being elegant and great with devotion

Salute to all women who create persevere and bring peace and prosperity
They are the beacon of light from home to home and country to country
For their refinement of sixth sense I am proud of but definitely just envy
From the core of my heart I appreciate their services in all relations openly

In my dark life my love you are the only light ray

I am in trouble with out you be near and beside Help me to be in me make me stable in this state
My love, your beauty be together far and wide
My love for you remains wonderfully just so great

Take me don't break me help me remain composed
You are the only hope in this world of cruel rivals
Let your love be frank straightforward and exposed
Be mine openly in all subtle difficulties and trials

With the universe around me to see

Furthermore beauty carries only plea

Let me be a passionate lover to glow
Let me be satiated with but all around
Let me be fit to face untoward blow
Let real fragrance to but just surround

Resonance is needed badly in stress

My eyes were stunned to see Kaba empty
A place which used be surrounded by all lovers
Fear dominated love to but just see
How vice surpasses with hippocratic black covers

Foes and rivals are in a pursuit to stop
The encircling of moths around a burning lamp
How can clean hearts and souls to drop
How to be more in their love in the love camp

Be merciful and increase them in strength
To dominate over all satanic tricks to be more near

Time and space to take care how to think and to do

For clean hearts and souls love remains dawn of the day

Our Motto

We have to strive for nation's life
Life for cadets is a double edged knife
Progress and property touch our feet
Whether on Siachin or in desert's heat
We are MEN OF VALOR, BORN TO WIN
Being LION HEARTED defeat is a sin
DEATH BEFORE DISHONOR is the only option
In the gallant sons of soil's profession
WHO DARE WON and SECOND TO NONE
Duty is worship to every one
Being TIGERS we RISE TO CONQUER
Without any help without any favor
FIRST TO FIGHT we DO OR DIE
WE NEVER GIVE IN, we never cry
WHEN ALLAH's HELP AND VICTORY IS NEAR
Being soldiers of God no point to fear

Twinkling Little Tears

I love my grandson to any extreme
He is my life's lightening beam
We love each other I never ever know
We have our heartbeats on one flow
My daughter left and took her along
Hence I thought dimmed love song
One day I was in sheer love to see him
So I requested my family to get him
I saw him on word sap he was morose
I could not swallow that angry dose
He was silent but showed his mood
He was in love and was not rude
I saw her two eyes with two little tears
He was looking at me like soothsayer
I thought and understood meaning of love
Which is bestowed on all from above
I bitterly wept wept wept and wept
But tears never ever were able to detect
Love is but an eternal gift from my God
I am also like my grandson His ward

Mercy Of Allah

Mercy Of Allah
From birth till death one remains in chains
With pain of love one has to go through pains
At times there is clear sun at times are rains
At times life is full of hatred and sheer disdains
A man of courage faces obstacles with pleasure
Life has to offer all bounties and all treasure
Allah is great who loves his creation openly
Only His blessings and mercy makes man free
Do not ask me the pleasure of being His ward
The way He looks after me is difficult to explain
But there is not a single moment without mercy
He cares for me like a lonely drop in a large sea
He is Master with love full of a vast green ocean
He is like lamp of light to burn and to discern
Master remains Master and a slave like me is slave
His eternal love and affection allows me to pave
My path through all miseries and all pains
His Mercy always on me shower drizzling rains

But I will work and work till my death

But like soldier I am carrying along fortitude
In sheer disgust I lost my hope to survive
And then I heard my prophet’s saying
To a follower who was with Him for praying
Prophet saw his hard hand with scratches
His hand full of difficult and hard patches
Prophet took his hand in His hand to see
And then asked what would the cause be
The follower said Sire I work for my kids
For their welfare I can go for any difficult bid
Prophet kissed his hand and prayed for him
May Mercy of God bestow on him upto brim
God’s mercy is eternal and just evergreen
Which a clean and honest followers make green

Be A Unit

Be a Unit
Individuals remain individuals in their vested interests
They can't be a unit to act and move on collectively
Their hearts do beat for their own need as it suggests
They can't progress and be prosperous unless free

From their henious satanic bonds and ulterior motives
They become dangerous for themselves for the nation
Hence they eat up themselves being really corrosives
In such type of circumstances how they can bring salvation

So it is good to be a useful part of nation for progress
Lest complete destruction comes to leave sheer regrets
So it is good to aspire for bless under any stress, mess
So it is the joint honest ventures which bring forth assetts

The Perfection

I should not be afraid of shadows
I cannot be hurt by arrows of foes
With my unflinching belief intact
I will definitely succeed just in fact
Do not challenge me to brazen fight
I believe in right and follow right
Vice and virtue are but two shades
To separate these I have the blades
I am from Him will return to Him
So in the ocean of life i have to swim
I haveno choice in life and death
This is how i can make myself perfect

Honor Is Priceless

Honor is Priceless
My love this world is full of reckless people
So you have to be mindful of this cruel fact
A flower has its beautiful fragrance of sepal
So it is to be understood as a real love pact

Your honor and dignity portray in actions
Blood speaks with its force to tell entire truth
Humans are in different groups and factions
Being neat and clean and being really uncouth

Beauty of heart never allows to be with vice
Every step is to be taken with care and caution
Honor is priceless not to be everybody's choice
Let us take grace as fortune's real precaution

Who am i and to which tribe I do belong
Like a gentleman I carry my gait, grace
I love every right but don't ignore wrong

The Bounds

My love let me lick my wounds
Do not take me out of the mud
Let us encounter all the bounds
Triumph over sensation in blood

World owes its progress to those
Who do not take reasonable way
Who are always ready to dispose
What is morose and what is gray

Me and you are in a relation of pain
Petals of rose need just dew drops
To bear the strain in every disdain
Whether in desert or mountain tops

Relations don't resort to work but to all short cuts
In hatred and contempt their blood becomes flood
They plan day and night to just get vigilant spirits

From their masks they perform their all dirty tasks
Apprently they preach the benefits of just sincerity
What the hell is all this nonsense my heart often asks
If all are equal then why this inequality and disparity

Some are aspiring for a simple loaf of one odd bread
Others throw away best food to their pets and dogs
Some in severe winter in a piece of cloth found dead
Some in warm clothes deliver useless speeches like frogs

Love has no bounds and no grounds
Galaxies of stars congratulate me
Being successful in this marvelous pursuit

But I am pleased with the experience of life
I may survive or I may gracefully just die
But I am bound to swallow poison of the knife
Because in this endeavor my pedestal be high

A Crippled Soul

A Crippled Soul
lover's passion for delights is sound
Precisely stokes the romantic embers
To be ready to go above and beyond
Love is but a game of all numbers

A lover has to present what all he has
A heart a passion a real craving soul
A man of words and with principles as Being the only mission and only goal

But soul must carry a physical blow
To be heart to heart in love stream
If body does not make beloved to glow
Then darkness prevails over beam

A lover must swept up in the moment
That could be touch of enchantment
Only a crippled soul be with comment
To be with out love taste on the planet

The Trial

When there is no clarity then is irritation
To crop up and to further aggravate situation
Truth is totally malingered to be a fashion
Only clean heart remains for real evaluation

Truth and lie are two extremes to measure
So never ever take any benefit of doubt
Reality with sincerity remains real pleasure
A staunch person remains ready for bout

Never aspire for a win win proposition
Temporarily truth may be taken to the trial
What matters a lot is the real passion
So remain well organized in rank and file

How You Negotiate
Nudity is not in the object, it is in the eyes
This is how we appreciate to celebrate
Truth at times loses its strength in white lies
So problem remains how you negotiate

Virtue surpasses vice but at times just fails

Hence crown of creation fails to wear the crown

Last but not the least takes intention to trial

From whispering winds the moment of love

Mellowing ever flowing stream from the above

Let be straight to see destiny and destination
Be just in my arms to give solace to my soul
Let us be not overtaken by real wild passion
Allow me to kiss just on your sweet black mole

These moments are but transitory to survive
But I will take you along from pace to pace
Let be frank to allow spirit of love to but revive
Let me be with you one on one face to face

Love Conquest

Love Conquest
Pleasure reigns my love life With sweet taste
My love conquest makes me but to just blast
The beholder of beauty is so pure and chaste
My exotic spirit makes the venture to exhaust

Allow me my sweetheart to sip this wine slowly
Allow me to enjoy every moment in this pursuit
Now there is no hurdle and we are totally free
So don't worry about ups and downs en-route

Grandeur of love surpasses grandeur of beauty
By moving in ride to destination just hand in hand
Let embrace every pore with sagacity and sincerity
Let in sheer trance be on one frequency and band

Love Arrows

Love Arrows
She carries love arrows, to shoot
Right at the heart to take it over
This is a weapon of beauty so cute
She is but like a wonderful rover

Beauty has her own charm to play
Nothing can stop her sweet pursuit
Wonderful show like dawn of day
With all the ups and downs en route

My heart is victim of this charm
I do not know how to take all this
But this is what is enchanting norm
When beauty attacks becomes bliss

A Poet

A poet has no age and no choice
Whatever entices becomes dream
He is always ready to pay price
For that wonderful eternal beam

Love he carries on his sleeves
So sparingly he opts to reciprocate
Pleasure comes and leaves
The moment makes him to associate

Love is what he aspires in life
Where ever he happens to find
His sense to love on the knife
Which always makes him blind

I have a friend like highest peak
The mountainous rocks are my abode
He whispers since he can't speak
This Is what I term my love episode

Mountain does keep its love in love
It never ever plays with your passion
It has a lap like kind mother now
This is how he helps to the salvation

I daily come in front to salute to pay
My homage to its vivacity and sagacity
What he gives me in love in a way
Thanks to be with mountain not in a city

His purity and chastity makes me pure
In his company I became like a rock
Now I am ever ready to just endure
To take my enemy and his way to block

Mountain Deer

I am like a deer of high mountains
Who dances in true love being in trance?
In pure love of beauty with all the sins
I am ever ready to take in love a chance

When full moon peeps through the peaks
I become a frantic lunatic in my love
My heart becomes enlightened and seeks
To kiss beauty of my beloved from above

What happens to me I don't know but jump?
To be with my beloved in her warm arms
I come down from clump to clump to bleed
I do understand love has its real sweet norms

But my bruised body makes me to realize
That I have donated my beloved my soul
Love in absurdity makes greater soul in size
On the peril of life I get my mission my goal

Fragrance of humanity should spread all along

Year 2018

Life is a set of strange happenings
At times so sweet at others so rude
From heart to heart it carries strings
On all love events so far pursued

At very many instances we lost hope
But inner strength crop up to domain
Unity remains if we hold on to one rope
It does strengthen the human chain

In the process it also openly revealed
Life is interwoven in very many surprises
Other doors are open when one is sealed
This is but how human, mind actualizes

Tactile and concrete world is a friend
Hand in hand we can travel till the end
If life is predictable its never to bend
Life is a set of surprises not to pretend

Please do not take me just as shallow and hollow

Injustice to Women
Being from the ribs near to heart
She has been degraded but down
She is in malicious world to depart
Being equal and being love crown

Hatred and contempt is imposed
By degrading woman as prostitute
All the doors and avenues closed
Nothing remains beautiful and cute

She is a society in herself to know
But society remains ruthless and rude

She remains in darkness being light

Let Change Ourselves For Peace

Love has different shades which culminate
On oneness of humanity on the color of blood
Let us purify our hearts to be the associate
In violent human emotions like vehement flood

Peace of soul and heart totally refines mind

Steps in love makes it easy to declare, find
Hearts start to beat in a trance but with solidarity

Let us initiate love for peace and peace for love
Let be frank, free and straight in our approach to life
Let listen to our heart and symphony from above
Let us abolish the barriers of hate and carriers of knife

Let us celebrate each day as the World Peace Day
The absence of war and violence is the only solution
Let us join hands from all shades of humanity to pray
This may be the only pact and contract for resolution

My Stance Real

My Stance
That was first chance
I became victim of glance
Which make me to dance
Don't negate my stance

Please do appreciate
I am a lover so loyal
I can follow my love
From mile to mile

But just for a while
You let me smile
Before life takes its toll
To make me beguile

Season Of Love

Season of Love
Season of love has come again
To remind me your presence around
I am fully enthralled by this rain
I am in the air and no more on ground

My love My searching you blindly
But I am not in a mood to disturb you
To take trouble or to aspire for plea
This is what as duty I must take, do

So let me be in search of you dear
Let me taste of being alone in love pain
This pain of being alone but to bear
Love my love is part of heart not of brain

Petals of beauty play with love
Every rose becomes really red
My sweetheart, beloved, dove
Whatever is said just well said

Let play with streaks and beams
Let take happily whatever wrath

In pleasant moments thru and thru

And spill over into your world

Accept Own Blunders

Accept own Blunders
Life is too short to love while we aspire to hate
Hence short moments of happiness we but lose
Our desires make us mean and others great
So as a matter of fact we have choice to chose

We do not only commit mistakes rather blunders
We are so narrow hearts that we do not forgive
Repeatedly repeat to blow like lightening thunders
In our own Cruel shackles we die and we just live

Let be frank in our approach to to graciously satiate
Let take the blame on self and not on loved ones
Let us celebrate our fortune and not disastrous fate
Let heal our inner injuries not to expose to suns

For A Reason

For a Reason
You can see that everything exists for a reason
So let me understand the fact and appreciate
And that is the reason I love you in every season
To be a soulmate in love to be a real associate

To taste the poison of love in its sane entirety
To be an insane to take all burden but in one go
Let my beloved be out of bands to be just free
To take this wonderful fire to just grow and glow

Let me kiss the petals of beauty to be a lover
Let be my sole partner to take my heart and soul
Let me see you with naked eyes without cover
I sacrifice my life and universe just on your mole

Presence In Moment

Presence in Moment
Let be more optimistic in our style and fashion
My love create a loving presence in every moment
You are queen of my sentiments and passion
Please come up to the expect ions cent per cent

What I see and what I perceive you don't know
But what I know is sweeter in taste and flavor
Precious time should not go waste but in a row
How can then we demand from time any favor

It is good to live and enjoy every minute of life
Life once given is a gift by Lord to be appreciated
Pain and pleasure are two sides of sharp knife
The only chain of love is to be but be reciprocated

Love Spell

Love Spell
Your smile takes me under love spell
My love I love you and I do but know
What I have to carry and what to tell
Beauty gives the way to stream to flow

Your excellence of style takes but all
To the heavenly abode in different style
This is what my love is the real love call
Which takes me away from all for awhile

I trust my instinct to be along the shore
Sea of love and beauty are to coincide
The wine I want to drink more and more
Let us be on the same grid far and wide

Love So Sweet

So Sweet Love
Love travels through all thick and thin
It is an evergreen light to glow, to show
A virtuous value just without any sin
Makes eternal stream in eternity to flow

My love you are so beautiful, so sweet
That words fail to take the task to take
My soul my eyes my sweet heartbeat
I take you on my face like snow flake

Come and make me dissolve as all
Take me, make me with a lovely kiss
Let love travels to the beauty as a call
Oh my beloved my sweetheart my miss

Blood Does Speak

Blood Speaks
Don't ask me my friend who am I
Because actions speak louder than words
They do tell about quality low or high
Because innocent people are just like birds

I have tamed myself from savage to civilized
But in my blood I do carry stream of past
So my present and my past never coincide
Lest it just becomes stretched from vast

Blood speaks and reveals the real tribe
Cadence and courage just go hand in hand
It makes the reality to proceed to imbibe
In a particular chain and on a particular band

Longing For

We have to create the beauty we are longing for Universe has to offer full support for the purpose
That is the reason I am at war with the hidden bar
To color the petals of my heart's romantic rose

I am a painter who paints without colors and hands
But love is a force which makes miracles to happen
Music of beauty is dangling and dancing on bands
I do not bother whether I just lose or whether I just win

Beauty in entirety is just an image of eternal soul
Which dominates my heart to nurture in pure pain
Hence I can sacrifice my everything on your mole
Let me be on the mercy of drizzling dangling rain

A Phase To Free

A Phase to Free
Life is a flowing stream unless it is stopped
And suddenly death comes over to take blame
Burden of love and affection be dropped
One has to go through this ever burning flame

Man is but has to pass from all phases to see
Mockery of life is to understand in entirety
Let me tell you what the real result could be
It is a state to make one from a phase to free

My life is a given gift by my Lord to make me test
But I always aspire for His mercy to take
In my humble capacity what else can be really best
In my real sacrifice I have nothing at stake

Never underestimate the will to misunderstand
Clarity is your friend to pursue in right direction
Life is but a strange phenomenon of that brand
Take on your stance with great love and affection

What we have to offer is solidarity in difficulty
What we have to see is the reality in action
In this imperfect dirty world how to be just free
From imperfection do not aspire for perfection

Our dreams are like little moths
Taken over by our innocent wishes
With pain, pleasure and hearths
Aspire for life with all sweet dishes

What is life just an effortless effort
The end of the tither remains unknown
A pure surprise, deception and flirt
What it carries can never ever be shown

Destiny And Destination

Destiny to Destination
Destiny’s twists and turns take one to the destination
One has to have sudden shifts in ones life and path
If one is to the end of the road one seek real passion
To step on to the next track to be out of all the wrath

It is plan of universe which is always but to prevail
One has to be straight with the effort and intention
It is good to strive to go for available chances to avail
What are the hardships it is but no need to mention

Who are straightforward dare to but seek for bless

Unaware of all difficulties of life
Being faced by all animals so wild
It is to travel on double edged knife

How to portray honor and dignity

Rivalry is good if based on rules
Otherwise it will be of no consequence

With her unique style with her real charming grace
Her beauty dominates the entire beauty of the world
She is an emblem of love pace to pace, place to place
She is like a burning candle to warm all hearts around
I want to take her in front of me always face to face
She enthralls me and I am drunk, she takes me along
She is remedy of my ailments like satisfaction, solace

In all failure with many successes

At a given time we have to complete very many tasks
Hatred, jealousy in own blood dominates for revenge
Different humans come across but with lot many masks
Even in moments of pleasure remains the bitter tinge

How fate plays its part to become our fortune
How can stars glitter in your eyes but to be
The moon with its beauty becomes in tune

Under all circumstances my heart is your abode

Please never ever leave me just alone on the road

A Mother

The Mother
Mother is bestowed with all heavenly qualities
From beginning till end she remains at stake
She is a shelter in severe summer like the trees
God gifted style makes mother never to shake

Mother is emblem of God on this difficult land
She bears the pain and remains always in front
What a leader is she to love chain, love band
She remains ever ready just to bear the brunt

Love of mother can not be easily understood
It is but a gift of series of sacrifices to offer
She maintains balance and remains really good
She is a reality without which world is blur

Let be frank to pay homage but with sincerity
She helps the children to keep their heads high
We must acclaim the claim with more clarity
In her all wonderful pursuits she touches the sky

Pakistan, The Land Of Pure

Pakistan, the Land of Pure
A bouquet of very many ethnic flowers
With their sincerity hospitality and morality
With their high claims like high towers
A blend of people from the village and city

Land of lovers, sophists and the saints
Right from Siachin down to the hot desert
What a wonderful picture but it paints
Austerity, solidarity and peace to be alert

Against every heinous crime, dirty design
Of all those who carry hatred and contempt
Strength of faith makes them but to define
Their way of life makes them to but exempt

Beautiful valleys and wonderful mountains
Make it more beautiful as tourist attraction
Water flows from natural sprinkling fountains
To dominate the scenario but in every section

Pakistan is the land of clean and pure to see

As a solider of the land I would but defend thee
It is a chain of love bond from string to string

Our Love Band

Our Love Band
My helplessness brings all my hopes to tears
I feel but dejected, depressed and disappointed
I suddenly become my all inner hidden fears
More embarrassment dawns upon me instead

What a creature is man just set of particles of clay
Bestowed by a streak of light in a shape of soul
Moving blindly on a path in darkness like just ray
Lost in sheer hurdles for exploring his real goal

Love dominates and hatred has to go and vanish
Beauty like light gives eyes more to understand
Let be real in entirety to chew difficulties to bannish
The real essence and fragrance of our love band

A Blind Alley
When there is disappointment in life
Mercy of God comes to but satiate
Whatever may be the sharpness of knife
It changes to fortune from the fate

Love is so superior to cross the horizons
That soul goes to trance to appreciate
The taste is overtaken by burning suns

Man is so ungrateful, he is never happy
Never bows in front of one but to many Remains in shackles and is never ever free

Love Makes Heretic
They call me heretic because I can't see less Him
I take it for granted that love is diverse and unique

The path of righteous the way to the eternal glory
Where a streak of light makes a drop but rainbow
Which imprints its real entity being but so transitory

Concern to Discern

Disgrace is portrayed as part of grace
We carry tricks as an emblem of faces

Love is not a commodity it is a concern
Lovers do share the innocence of heart

The real road map and the real love chart

Pace to pace and place to place is marked

A Laborer's Voice On 1st May - Poem by Col Muhamad Khalid Khan
I am a laborer just by birth
And will die in the same way
I know my duties in a hearth
Hope does not come near to say

I am also one of humans
And not a donkey just to drag
But I do ask some questions
Who being champions always brag

By shouting slogans for my rights
Deliver speeches and forget
Till next year when shines light
With my blood they will let

The entire world again to know
My contributions in prime
About my martyrdom in Chicago
Where my excellence became sublime

The heart dangles and dances to really desire
The essence of love makes negligible out of size

Love oh love your essence deals with sacrifice
But the taste of beauty makes all more volatile
No one in this world can be able to pay the price

In our youth and prime, hand in hand
We used to talk for hours, hours long
Love on its brim portrayed in a band
Passion said to each other we belong

Now age has taken its toll we are old
We sit together for hours but in silence
Still we communicate all all but gold
Without any words, gold is silence

Time tells what to do how to proceed
Kinetics and words and just a look
Love has languages no language indeed

For performing weddings for soldiers
Who were forbidden to marry not to send
Who were persecuted on the altars

Valentine healed Asterius the daughter
Of jailer, and before his execution, he wrote
Her letter signed Your Valentine” as farewell
From that day on it became a love quote

Love is to be celebrated and to openly dwell
In the hearts of those who take care as pain
As a life time celebration of a lover to excel

Dress-Less Dress

Dress-less Dress
In my dream I see very many images
With many colors and many shades
Some are really dark and some sages
Some to help and some are blades

Life is a dream and I am just dreamer
In this void green ocean we are to tread
With out any boat without any steamer
Where to go and how to travel on thread

We are humans but fake and just sham
Useless in our approach and just thankless
Every time on trial and every time on exam
We are purely naked in our dress-less dress

Never Leave Traces

Never leave Traces
Beauty withers when it is touched
So it is good to keep the distance
To be loved and not to be clutched
It travels in the soul like fragrance

So my sweetheart I will but carry
Your sweet image for times to come
Let me see through the green sea
Dancing beauty thru life troublesome

Love is light which travels thru light
It ignites beauty and burns to ashes
It is the happiness it is the delight
It is a reality which never leave traces

Let me in trance follow unknown route

Allow me to measure just all the treasure
Let me analyze how seems areal angel
Let me accumulate all wonderful pleasure

Let me touch caress and let me just kiss
Let me be you and make you totally me

So Grateful

I met with a eunuch and asked to state
Did he satisfy with ups and downs of life
He was grateful about his fortune, fate
He never ever complained being on knife

Thrown out in the age of five by parents
And remaining in the kicks of the society
With lot many pains and sheer imprints
How could he be straight and totally free

Grateful to God and all the near relation
With no daughters and with just no sons
Without any sentiments, without passion
Hats off to the person for but fair salvation

Let me see anxiously how love dangles and dance
Let my sweetheart to take you and just to but to fetch
As a treasure of life as a measure to take a chance

What remedy of poison is but poison
So is the irritation of soul from above
Which further ignites the burning sun

Love is in soul and beauty is in front
Heart touches heart being but too soft
A real lover has just to bear the brunt
What an intensity of love has the craft

Love desires to conquer the universe
Beauty has to portray its real design

As Gift

You have spread thorns on my way
Let me present red roses as award
You played with passion but to stay
Alive to see effects of thorns on card

I do understand your hatred to say
I left you without sucking you hard
I left your innocence to see the day
Not to make but you just time barred

But let me tell you now my stance
I will take revenge for this bad deed
In your barren land I will sow seed
Which will change your cast, creed

So I present red roses with thorns
Take them as a gift for that real rift
I will take you from your soft horns
And will poison you fountain as gift

She sails in water like a wonderful swan
Her cups of wine touch water to just grace

Water is ambitious that to tackle and to deal

Innocence Molested

Innocence Molested
Innocence has been molested, thrown in dust bin
Just without any sin and just without any crime
The only sin of little girl was to get education to win
The laurels in days to come to serve in her prime

Morality has gone to dogs and dogs are but stray
Their masters are trying hard to save them for brutality
Shameless creatures are hidden in their dirty way
But this time they will not be safe for but heir hostility

Zainab was raped and killed in the age of just seven
While her parents were on holy journey to Makkah
So sweet a girl being a martyr she embraced heaven
Her chastity purity were converted by rascals to saga

Criminals must be hanged till death for their dirty sin
Little girl be given justice with exemplary punishment
No more little girls be molested, thrown but in dust bin
Corrupt elements be annihilated as declared and meant

No one else but himself on creation as a wonderful valid plea

Different colors and different shades to portray what is all
To be portrayed gracefully on the chest of the green earth
And then in its uniqueness in the universe so big, so tall
Birth and rebirth of creation to declare the value and worth

To Take Care

Hearts are abode of God so they should be taken care
It is stupidity of satanic spirits who attack to but change
If someone overshadows the truth of but real light glare
They will be taken to the task keeping appropriate range

Religion is not a dove to prey and to spread the blood
It is a sanctity of heart and soul to refine and to define
All limits between right and wrong attack with the flood
So time and again it emphasizes to declare and to refine

Polluted and molested minds to come back on right path
The verdict of God and words of Prophet to be understood
Before the defaulters aspire for burning hearth and wrath
Forever to remain in the possible torture which is not good

So be on the right path before it crosses the limits to go
And to send others to hell to seek intentional destruction
To make Satan happy and to be in a devil's disciple in flow
Selection of virtue will help to overcome but total rejection

Call and Recall

Somewhere from where I may not recover
What a sweet guest she is I am the host
Under core of my heart my love to discover

What sentiments and passion I celebrate
As a lover of beauty but I am just known
But suddenly I feel dejected as my fate
Declares my heart as it is always alone

Deep down in seclusion and in love pain
How can it be reinvigorated with style
In love I never bothered about sun, rain
But it never ever listened just to the brain

What I am and what I aspire to be in love
I do not know and I need not know it all
But suddenly a news flashes from above

Son of The Soil
Amidst severe winter snow at the highest peak
He remained exposed for hours to severe cold
His body was but frozen so to vehemently speak
But he was son of the soil hence remained bold

After hours when his pain gone beyond all limits
He requested to his counterpart to shot him dead
He never bothered about his frenzy attacks of fits
But in love and affection he wanted the load shed

Poisonous Arrows

Poisonous Arrows
My relations are blood thirsty like hounds
They want to suck my blood to make hollow
Now I am on a ground without any grounds
In sheer disgust how conscious is to follow

On the face of it they are sisters and brothers,
But contempt and hatred took us to gallows
In irregularity sons have surpassed their fathers

A soldier is so selfless that at times seems stupid
Oh soldiering how can I appreciate your innocence
His heart tinkles with the heart of country like bud
He is man of principle surrounded all by fragrance

Let heart beat in severe heart or blood clotting cold
Let soul to sing a song of love to portray real unity
Let me face the bullets on my chest to be the bold
Let me fight like a demon to keep my country free

From beginning till end a soldier is but ward of Lord

My love I was so pleased to get the bruises in love
Because the process helped to cross bridges in love
The one who came back from your door was ingloom
Now it is my turn to go through all odds and, lapses
All my sweet wishes were now covered with blood
I found and see myself standing alone on all mesas
When I left this world in disgust and sheer disappoint
I was not complete but was torn in to different pieces
The pulse of the earth has lost all its limits in distress
Because all her body has been torn out in to pieces
Without physical touch she adorned with motherhood
It was a miracles amidst wonderful, beautiful roses

Love burns under the sun but protects beauty
The lovers at times are taken over by warmth
Burning sun with burning fire just test sincerity
Love really is a blazon burning like fiery hearth

Why I love you my love because you are fire

My love my sweetheart is the declared desire
For your sake I can take any hatred and wrath

The Hymn 786

The Hymn
When heart suddenly becomes disturbed and morose
So indication is something is really missing from life
The remembrance of God is like a real fragrant rose
With out which the soul remains on poisoned blunt knife

Soul demands love and love blooms in heart to spread
Hence heal should not stop remembrance of only God
All those who lack remembrance are not living but dead
This is what is between soul to soul the eternal concord

So whenever I remember Lord He helps me in distress
Supports me to overcome all the obstacles from my way
He never leaves me alone to be in trouble but to bless
I am in sheer darkness and he refines me to a light ray

My Concern

My love I have been attracted by the magic of your eyes
Heart to heart communication has started to send signal
I am really flattered by the sweet attention and love sighs
You must appreciate that I am loyal to you my sweet angel

If it is just fake or sham way to flirt I will not take it further
Do understand that I love you and demand same in return
For very many tricky questions in love there is no answer
Let me share with you my sweetheart my real love concern

Let me take you to my heart and to my soul to celebrate
The occasion of love as a real chance to take a glance
I assure you that I love you and I am your love associate
Let me take you in my arms to embrace and to dance

To Seek In Sky

My root calls me back to understand the light of shoot
Every bower carries beauty enthralled with pure love
Let me tell you my root has the search of still enroute
That how I came down to abysmal depths from above

It was a glance by chance when I could see the truth
In its all entirety to be blooming in pure blazon sun light
To give eternal satisfaction to my soul for heart's sooth
Then lunacy dawned upon me like sheer and pure delight

Love from the start is in search of beauty to burn be burnt
Ecstasy of the glance never ever fades to make me die
But still my beginning till end is in sheer mist not to be learnt
However my love has been given wings to seek in sky

An Angel For People

An Angel for People
A soldier is fully reinvigorated with the love of his country
Can not be taken aback under any adverse circumstance
His excellence is the hallmark in his faith, fortitude to free
Love is a chance after chance for a wonderful sweet glance

A soldier remains soldier but nothing else throughout life
Ready to sacrifice all for the sake of his love and patriotism
His life goes through different paths to remain on the knife
He has the love and wisdom to cope up and just but to trim

His every step is calculated even if he carries splinters in body
His heart is at the top of his peak to see and to counter hurdle
His heart is like a sea and he really carries but the actual key
For the enemies he is too lethal and for his people he is angel

Fate or Fortune

My sweetheart I don't want to disappoint you
But the fact remains that I am no more in love
But don't think I disappointed you thru and thru
On the sky of love appeared another dove

Love is love and it is not just the compromise
Which can burn fire to the candles of hearts
Love is purely blind and it is never ever wise
So innocent heart should remain attacks of sorts

Let love have the warmth to burn beauty with Let beauty be the commanding force to dominate
I will try to understand this just strange myth

Pleasure Of Altar

Pleasure of Altar
All paths have been blocked and I am restricted
My enemies want to play all the tricks to my nerves
On the basis of principles I want to remain selected
My ultimate faith seeks every reason and deserves

When God is on my side I dare not lose the sight
I may be in low spirits but it does not make me falter
My every pain drags me to happiness and delight
But in my heart of heart I know the pleasure of altar

Let me take the weapon along with the real cross
My death is my domain my destiny is destinatination
Now being true lover I am beyond of gain or loss
I am in the real trance waiting for magical salvation

But I do admit I can not live without you
Do not cut me with a sharp blunt knife
To carry the pain and torture just through

Be mine and be my partner in love to do
What I can not understand in the style
Let me love and let me always just pursue

Let me see your beauty my love in dim light
To kiss and touch your beautiful hands

Land of pure ha been converted into a whorehouse
Where rascals come and spend time as per desire
All so called nobles and respected men are espouse
Corruption is rule of the day and for money all aspire

Country has gone to dogs dogs are in search of bones
Any tom, dick and harry are ruling all as the real rulers
Due to their inner moral weakness they are low in tones
Present is but bleak and future has become totally blur

Where are heroes who always give blood to save nation
Men of principles are required to take anthem and the flag
Men who should sacrifice lives, loves, sentiments, passion
Who pass through the test of time and shout but not brag

My sweetheart all have been burnt alive not to sustain
Every love story sets but a different and unique trend
Torture follows happiness and happiness follows pain
Purity comes when tears are sprinkled on burning fire
Hence chastity is being done when fire gets ablution
With human wishes sentiments, passion and love desire

Ocean Waves

Ocean waves come to kiss the cheeks of shore
They stay on the shore for a kiss and just return
Caressing slowly the sands to explore and adore
What transitory is life and what is its real concern

Nothing remains all comes and goes with time
Autumn and spring come side by side to declare
Distance is negligible between old age and prime
There are very less moments to spare and share

Its existence in between the moments to portray

My heart has been cut into pieces
Now you have to but take care
I have to tread naked and bare
After losing the glow of your eyes
I have made myself a soothsayer

Do understand I am not a player

Be kind to make with Mehr a pair

Angry Beloved

Angry Beloved
My love you have magical dynamism and reassurance
It gives courage and initiative to approach love heights
Hence I love you for dashing style and for your arrogance
Your gorgeous beauty helps me to achieve love delights
Remain angry you look so sweet but do come to terms
Understand my point of view before you leave me alone
Your wonderful beauty with anger blooms and reaffirms
I am not as bad as you take me and show as just frown
My heartiest love my angry beloved I claim you as mine
Whatever you intend doing I don't mind so just gladly do
For me you are the most precious and intoxicating wine
Hence I overlook your so called attitude and I will pursue

Love Dances

My sweetheart I know you can not resist passion of love
So let be straightforward and frank to dangle and dance
Forget about the circumstances and where when and how
If love gives a chance then why not to take just a chance
God predestined man and woman to be in love to bloom
Hence all beauty of the world rests with but every spring
Most of the time a lover remains in dejection and gloom
But a gesture of love brings all in one go with love ring
Then the entire universe becomes filled with happiness
Love showers come down to cover them with real mercy
God being real emblem of love descends in shape of bless
Hence love makes all lovers from all shackles but free

The Lord

My Lord
I am grateful my Lord for all the kindness extended
Only you can save me and help me from difficulties
Forgive me if in my innocence I just ever pretended
You are Master of the heavens, earth be kind please
Being most Compassionate you created me as man
You alone taught me the art of straight expression
Most blessed is the name of my Lord in all the pain
The Master of Glory and Splendor saves in depression
He is the Master of Bounty and Honor with all blessings
So which of your Lord's blessings you can just deny
Its He who travels in all autumns and blooms in springs
He remains in me helps me to tread on land on sky

Let me be on the edge of life to achieve but eternity
Take part with zeal and zest in this pursuit in ride

Love is a just double edged weapon
At times it tease and at times please
At times it is like burning blazon sun
At times it is like hard winter to cease
Beauty is full of warmth very very hot
It takes all fire to burn but a real lover

It swallows hatred to extend a shower
Love and beauty are like two blades
They cut each other with sharp knife
Poisonous like lethal the weapon raids

Don't play with fire less you burn your hands

I am a stupid person making images on sands
When I look in to your eyes flowers start bloom
All barren lands convert in to the flowery lands
We my love are one bound in a chain to love
Love in search of beauty is knitted in the strands

The Deception

My love you left me in this desert of life in solitude
With that sheer love I never thought you could do it
I am still in a state of affairs to know how you be rude
You drowned me in darkness, I thought you will lit
All candles of your love to please me and not to tease
When I will be disappointed you will take care of tears
My eyes have your real image never ever but to cease
You will help me to overcome and not to play with fears
Life is a real drama based on conflict of every action
And you accompanied my rival to show me wisdom
I do know that nothing is perfect in this all imperfection
Life from beginning to end is definitely but troublesome

My love if I die you can see my eyes to whom I belong
Without my breath you can have around my love song
This relation is not transitory let me be straightforward
This is a bond a pact so vehemently permanently strong
Poverty has eaten up just the very essence of real love
Hence poor people are condemned to pain torture along
There can be no debate between eternal beauty and love
Because beauty remains always right and love is wrong

Love is a sheer risk, I am ready to take again
I am habitual offender of taking pain and pain
Let me be frank and straightforward in my stance
I do realize love is insanity and conflict in brain
Whenever I am in a mood to see you thru and thru
I recall the day when we both were taken over by rain
Life is what a series of events in a line of action
Beauty is what fire of love to invite to be in chain

Water has gone under the bridges is down the drain

Spiritual Elevation

Saints dare to dwell at the highest possible places
They remain one on one with God in a real trance
The glare and glow of snow enlighten but their faces
They accumulate love and beauty in their one glance

Purity and chastity are the bases of in all the crises
Soul is refined to austerity step by step in process
Beauty of the circumstances remedy but every disease
Mercy of God Almighty comes down to kiss and bless

Those are blessed who dare to remain in communion
Love chain becomes more defined as well as refined

It is purely matter of heart and soul and not out of mind

Black Day

Hypocrites who are after blood want to embrace the victim
They have realized that by embracing they can enter the teeth
In the necks of all those who create trouble in light so dim
So the hunters have taken now their swords in the sheath
Rape ransom and innocent killings are the part of agenda
Freedom fighters pay the price in the shape of their blood
Rights have been snatched through a negative propaganda
But when legal right is stopped it surpasses all with flood
My brethren of Kashmir cruel clutches are about to break
Your sincere struggle will bear the fruit just as full freedom
You have shaken the very roots of cruelty to take partake
Breeze of freedom will embrace you after life troublesome

Saga of Poverty

Looking at the injustice done in this cruel world
At times I feel sick with pain in heart and soul
My inner helpless voice suddenly sound herald
All atrocities are for those who are weak as goal
World is full of rascals who take toll from debarred
Every helpless soul doing nothing plaintively cries
World is dominated but by underground every lord
Due to lack of food medicine and shelter make dies
What is this all is beyond level of comprehension
All humans are equal the why disparity do prevail
Poor comes in chains and remains but in detention
For some this world is a luxury palace for others jail

Tiny False Writer

But her inner biases make her but grey
Contempt and hatred are but so tight
That apparently no one just can say
She knows nothing but claims high
Her majesty is nothing but just trash
She wants to live in pages but will die
Since her hatred and love are in clash
A little paper boat is her head and tail
Being illiterate she claims her native
In her paper boat she claims to sail
Down the drain to sink but sedative

We are the soldiers of God and carry only his verdict all along
We do not believe in weapons, faith and passion are armors
We are strong and valiant because to God's country we belong
We are ever ready taking our heads on our palms to present
Our hearts are for our land we do know how to be real patriot
Whatever harsh circumstances could be we are always on front
We are hard and harsh in our duty we hoot care about climate
Our real passion is our duty and our real love is our country
We are staunch aspirants of our love we do love our heart

Passions Flow

She is young so she does not know
What is the meaning of touch in love
She does not know how passions flow
She is hesitant like an innocent dove
I want to take her on the way to charm
But she is always resistant to do to flow
In stream of love to spread being warm
But a little touch makes her grow, glow
When I come across I feel intoxicated
She seems to me like a bottle of wine
String of love makes her beauty related
In chain of love it is enough she is mine

Let me taste the real beauty of beam
Let me ask for the wonderful wrath
My love you made me grow and glow
My feet are no more on the ground
Let love be the part of hilarious show
Let my love surround you all around
Taste of lips and flavor of your cheeks
Take away but my heart and my soul
Your graceful gait with dancing peaks
You my love enthralled me as a whole

The Informers

Every on is prisoner of his own interest
World is full of all types of but jugglers
Trust is eaten up by greed, avarice, lust
By ulterior motives they keep on but altar
All those who are travelers of right path
Remain always virtuous, straightforward
Against all evils they are but on warpath
They remain ready to sacrifice, shed blood
Evil Informers die the death of a culprit
Who will have no shelter on his dirty way
To Satan his soul he will he has to submit
Being characterless with all the areas gray

My Shelter Of Love

My beloved you are like warm shelter in winter
And just like a window in the real hot summer
In any severe assault you are like a reel armor
But to your questions I don't have an answer

Still I feel pleased in your innocent company
Your companionship makes me more free
In a desert of life you are like a shelter to me
A real friend in the dangerous deep rough sea

Your love is my asset your beauty my domain
In sheer hot weather you are but drizzling rain

Pain Of My Life

Pain of Life
It looks as if I am in a trap of fate
To go through strings of life in pain
Love has been eaten up by hate
Sane heart seems to be but insane
Particle of sand is taken just away
By water waves to take me in ocean
Soul in its trance is always to sway
Life kisses death in strange fashion
I am tired of being alive let me die
Perhaps it will soothe your curiosity
I have chosen destination in the sky
My soul will make me but totally free

My Estranged Lover

Love is that passion which takes away
One from oneself, from reality to fantasy
Heart in its entirety is to play and sway
With in love bondage to be just more free
Lover has no belief and is always hostile
On one pretext or another he carry doubts
He never comes out from it but for a while
Hence compromised but all love turnouts
Estranged lover keeps love in chain of pain
Ecstasy makes the beloved to play to dance
Heart and soul dominate all over the brain
Hostility of lover stops beloved to take chance

Real Love Of God

Love of God
Whosoever loves God, God loves him
And whosoever loves by God is blessed
A drop of water in ocean is but to swim
Lover is supreme due to the beloved
God commands the hearts with His love
All loved by God are but the chosen one
Love is innocence like an innocent dove
Warmth embraces the warmth of a sun
I am a servant and a servant may falter
But string of love makes me but optimist
Love is a question without any answer
It is streak of light so colorful and purest

Whose destiny and destination are but destined

At times I am ungrateful but my master is sober, serene
I am a beneficiary my lord is a hidden worthy treasure
He is lord of the heavens and I am like a little tiny teen

So how can I reveal to her my heart and love
Apparently she shares frequency and band
She doesn't know what to communicate, how

Innocence has its own essence and, fragrance
These qualities make her wonderfully beautiful
Like a young angel, she shows her presence
She is so sober so serene and kind and blissful

My love is blunt while her beauty is pure, chaste
She is my life my heart my soul I have to declare
She is like salt in me to increase flavor and taste
She flows in my blood like wine layer by layer

Unfinished Drama

Let my love see your lips are soft or petals
Your bosom's knot is more hot or blazon sun
Let me see your cheeks are juicy or apples
Let me see the beauty of your every action

Do you match just with my real imagination
Are you set of beautiful images in reality
Do you dawnd on me like real salvation
Do you make me free with love symphony

Is it a dream and when from sleep I awake
You will be no more and I will face trauma
For glowing cheeks and long tresses sake
I will be left alone like an unfinished drama

Beauty For Ever

It is enough that I am beautiful lass
I do not bother about the appreciation
I am really proud that I am of my class
Beauty is known by its presentation
God loves beauty He sparingly presents
It is His quality by which He is known
All world and universe share the currents
It is the blessed eye to which it is shown
Let me love you my sweetheart to prove Beauty never dies it remains but for ever
It is like on a rose petal like drop of dew
It finishes never due to its taste and flavor

Your warmth takes me to fountain of love
Your beauty takes through cheeks to glow

Streaks of fire of love when takes us on
All dark nights take shape of just dawn

This is how to each other we are drawn

Now I flow in your ever flowing stream

Midst Of Snow

At the highest battle field in midst of snow
With love of my country I am bound to glow
Enemy dare not to face either I will but blow
Blood in veins like a flowing stream to flow

I am for my land and i sincerely wants to kiss
Love is my life and my love is a sheer bliss
No one can understand and no one can guess
Red flowers are ready to bloom just to dismiss

False claim of the enemy I will drag on snow
Sincerity will come out from blood but to grow
Your weakness and cowardice I will see, throw
On your face with force I have just to throw

I am a soldier of God, I follow destined path
I will burn you alive I am that burning hearth
With my integrity I will throw on you all wrath
When situation warrants I take the blood bath

Faith Is Path Of Thorns

Faith is like passing through the path of thorns
But without being his dress torn or being inured
This is how a faithful survives and just adorns
Against all non believers who are heretic, absurd

Faith is a force which conquers all and sundry
It blooms in pure heart and its fragrance be felt
Stauch believer enjoys the status to be free
Hence with his eyes every hard rock just to melt

Faith is a crown worn by fortune from fortunate
A true believer cherishes his essence and grace
A true lover is true believer being just passionate
His feet remains on petals from pace to pace

My love accompany me to be near, dear
Let us take all thorns from path be clear
Let us cross every circle and sphere

We will face earthquakes and morass

It is but sense to be aesthetic
Love and beauty but do appoint
To be in love is to be an heretic
Both these culminate at one point

Love is fire to burn heart and soul
One remains but in sheer trance
Beauty speaks through thy mole
It pertains to extraordinary chance

Love takes in possession nerves
Beauty is a reward just to strive
Let be in pain the lover deserves
In ocean of love let be ready to dive

Whatever is that just take along
Lover to be heretic, heretic to lover
This is what but a real love song

Set Of Shadows

Age is telling on me and I am counting my days
I do not know why I am remembering my past
Now I am in sheer darkness to count youth rays
Old age in itself is a slow poison no need to blast

What is life a set of shadows moving without reality
Some people throughout their lives remain in trance
What is love and hatred interwoven in useless plea
Opportunist in every nook, corner take but chance

I am a poet hence take all things in true perspective
But still I failed to appreciate just real anatomy of life

Spiritual experiences open door to destination
Physical love leads us to eternal metaphysical goal
Whosoever captures reality gets but salvation

How can one taste this flavor if remains but sleep?

Intimate Relation

Husband and wife are in a sensitive relation
Most of the time they are surrounded by doubts
It is what is the outcome of sentiment, passion
The things are not considered as per whereabouts

All affairs must be taken on the face value to see
Trust and faith in love are the realities of the life
At times falsehood shadows but just a valid plea
The life takes the turn to be on double edged knife

So we must reciprocate the love which we take
Mutual understanding builds relation in entirety
It is up to us to take care of the partner or shake
All relation in state of disgust, disguise, fear or pity

Where our actions are counted day by day

The Labor's Day  1st May

I am a laborer just by birth
And will die in the same way
I know my duties in a hearth
Hope doesn't come near to say

I am also one of humans
And not a donkey just to drag
But I do ask some questions
Who being champions always brag

By shouting slogans for my rights
Deliver speeches and forget
Till next year when shine lights
With my blood they will let

The Entire world again to know
My contributions in my prime
About my martyrdom in Chicago
Where my excellence became sublime

State of Affairs

Life is full of bruises on which salty water is poured
To increase pain and torture to celebrate the real love
All values of love, all shades of love are being ignored
In reality it is like vulture but apparently like a dove

Innocence and peace are the hallmarks to really portray
On ground it is but pieces of human bodies with blood
Moral values have been taken over by the colors just gray
This warrants revolution to bring real change like flood

Corruption flows in blood hence all body is polluted
It will definitely make all pieces to be cut one by one
To make the entire body crippled and integrity doubted

What Is Poetry

What is Poetry
Poetry, my love is not a set of love songs
It portrays all types of hatred as well
Love goes to kiss the beauty it belongs
The rivals have their own hatred to dwell

Love touches the chords of soul my dear
But at times it does tear apart all the parts
Love takes in lap the sweetest beauty near
Hence it melts into liquid both the hearts

Let sweetheart sing love song to proceed
Let us take real love to edge of its eternity
Lets know a friend in need is friend indeed

Friendship To Deceive

Friendship to Deceive
Where are you my sweetheart and where is your love
Since you pledged never to leave but left me half way
Should I presume you are very clever in shape of dove
You have darkened my path while portraying to be ray

Now I realized you came to me just to play and to leave
Hence You have done a crime and sin on name of love
You are that woman who makes friendship to deceive
Let tell me you learnt this art from where, how and when

You have broken not chords of love but of my sweet soul
I am in constant trouble and pray you be deceived as same
You are not a beloved but a plaything as well as a nasty doll
Who on the name of pure love proves herself as pure shame

Warmth Of Love Tune

Warmth of Love Tune
How can you challenge my sweet fortune
It is predestined but with love of my Lord
It also carries along the warmth of love tune
By merciful savior who is never ever hard

So don't challenge me you are made for me
Our souls have commitment of love thru ages
You are like a golden evergreen beauty of sea
All love books carry our love along in pages

Let my love take your hand in my hand to go
Let me seek warmth of beauty like burning sun
We may have difference of opinion in life though
But in chain of love with beauty we have none

Salute To Martyrs

Soldiers are pride of a nation
Under all odds they work with passion
They have their own style and fashion
Every station is their station

They dare to stare just like men
They take enemies from their den
Their destiny is ordained by pen
They are ready now and then

Being injured don't utter cries
Being truthful don't resort to lies
On martyrdom their open eyes
Salute to the eternal patriotic ties

Everlasting Pain

Do not tear me apart I may not survive
My heart is in agony my soul is in pain
I want to take your image, don't deprive
Allow me to carry along everlasting chain

What is predestined can not be changed
We have to follow the verdict but till last
All comes as blue moon, nothing arranged

With very many crocodiles and with sharks
Journey is in blind alley with turns to trim
With many hazards, with dangerous marks

Love To String

I have been bruised just thrown from towers
I am torn in to pieces being hopeless, helpless
I converted my pains into blooming flowers
I have hidden my tears under my happiness

Do not play with my passion and sentiments
My inner ego mars me, kills me with weapon
If I look back I find my downtrodden footprints
In the process I lost myself and my every action

Let me assemble all my broken pieces into whole
Let me take you near to heart to listen breathing
Time has injured and bruised my heart my soul
Let me take image of beauty with love to string

Life With Pattern

Life with Pattern
Mother is like a warm lap father is like rock
Both look after their wards around the clock
Who save them from any hurdle and shock
A story of full of sacrifices of the heroic epoch

Wards are the sign of all the prayers of parents
On every occasion they act like cover for infants
Parents consider them for old age armaments
Under all circumstances they bear the torments

But what they give to wards do they get in return
The wards when grow up don't share they earn
This is the concern which they do portray, discern
What a bloody life and what is its apparent pattern

Ghazal From Urdu

Just leave a path to come back then go
Take my today but do give me tomorrow
It is useless to think about fruitless trees
Who can give fruit and will also bestow
A lake is in search of a lotus to bloom
My love give white lotus to make fresco
If you desire my love take me to the altar
This is what you can repay as a hero
I have put my burning candle on winds
Either you can kill me or put me thru
Whatever is in my nature is your image
Love has its own style and its tempo
Where ever I go I see your smiling face
This is what is my desire but a fiasco
Whenever I want to kiss take with smile
Be frank and open your heart window
It is ridiculous to say I have to go back
Mehr when others left you have to follow

In trance she left herself to awake
She was like a stubborn hard rock
Her love make her heart to shake
Her soft and sweet lovely fragrance
Make her heart in my love to slake
My love desire was like a plaything
Hence she always kept me at stake
She was wearing a bangle of ego
Which to my love she had to forsake
Her beauty vine was in search of light
And broke itself in a sheer mistake
Mehr desired to be your love desire
In her love she melt from a snowflake

To Follow Verdict

Life is predestined and preordained
All humans are bound to follow verdict
In complete submission, life is grand
Order for good and bad is to restrict

Faith is a pillar, culminates at struggle
In this love band fruit comes to hand
Whosoever comes up is like an angel
Bad are those who make castle on sand

Hearts Are Blind

It is not eyes but hearts which are blind
Open the eyes of heart to be more kind
What we search outside, inside may find
Love is matter of heart but not of mind

Insight of heart is more than eye sight
When darkness increases comes light
Wrong is always wrong right is but right
Beauty is pure gold love is pure bright

My love and me are shades of but one
Love enters in heart and burns like sun
For lunatics it remains like but just a fun
Love is love which is just equal to none

Barter And Trade

Love is a sea which can not be understood from surface
Its depth and its inner treasures including pearls to measure
The green water is living but takes life with an embrace
But no one can easily understand its happiness and pleasure

Heart is deep like sea and its depth carries very many goals
Soul is like a mirror which goes deep to understand truth
Body has its own attraction for glowing cheeks with black moles
Eyes have their own domain to capture beauty to just sooth

The world drama is beyond human comprehension to express
Half truth and half falsehood is of no consequence to grade
We do not tell what is real hence we go side by side to depress
Opportunists have their own designs of barter and of trade

Life is a continuous chain of very many pains
At times up to top at times down town trains
Full of wrath, odds trials tribulations, disdains

Where human anxiety converts in anger and rage
From birth till death we are imprisoned in cage

My Heart's Solace

My Heart's Solace
Our love should not remain on turn about
My sweetheart my heart's solace my dear
Where trust has been taken in cloud of doubt
Love cannot blossom in such an atmosphere

Let be honest to celebrate whatever we own
Let not waste time on useless ideals and trails
Love has its soft music and beauty its own tone
Canoe of beauty in Love River but easily sails

My beloved I love you to the limit of worship
In my heart I can see your image just so clear
Do not ask me the taste and flavor of the grip
You are so wonderful being so near and so dear

My Love My Belief

My love is my ultimate belief
This remains a source of belief
In disturbance it's a sheer relief
It is real solace in every grief

If you just ask me my plight
I am but like a broken kite
In sheer darkness it brings light
Gives me all strength to fight

It beings virtue to my domain
Every string makes strong chain
It helps to abolish every pain
Converts in mercy every disdain

Love gives me force to conquer
With it fortitude is to nurture
It protects me from the torture
Love from every part to rupture

Love Is Volcano

Love is like a volcano when burns bursts all
No heart can resist its just ever burning style
It crosses all the borders and just every wall
One is completely taken over by it for a while

My love is so kind which presents me wine
It takes me over and enthralls with a shower
I think I am not for love but my love is mine
Which elevates me for the kiss to the tower

When my beloved offers me the cup of wine

Suddenly I see just all around drizzling rain
I am enthralled, intoxicated in real love chain
In your company I am pleased in absence in pain

My love I do understand love is dandelion flower
Whose petals wither just with claim like a tower

It is as the most beautiful hand offers wine sip by sip
And taken by a thirsty soul from fountain lip by lip
Then beloved starts dancing in me from tip to tip

Mercy is bestowed and showered in abundance
I request to happen again and again the occasion
Asking for and sharing love my love is no offence
His greatness takes me on with just my credence

Embolden in light remains always in complete veil
Love offers and takes neither barter and nor deal
I can not share what in his presence my love I feel
My all bruises and injuries to automatically just heal

Lovers may never ever meet just like tracks of train

I feel fully enlightened because in me you dwell
My sweetheart I am under your control and spell
My love I love you with the core of my heart, soul
It is up to you you may send me to heaven or hell
Excellence in love comes with clean and clear heart
I know pain of love refines me so help me to excel
For your love my beloved I left paradise in trust
Still I have the taste of fruit for which I was to expel
The day I saw you I am no more in me but just lost
Your eyes attracted me to you what intoxicated impel

I will leave all luxuries of life to be in your as a rebel
Ghazal 20

If beams of light carry eyes then all reasons are good
If season of the heart is good then all seasons are good
From attitude and behavior it is difficult to see hatred
All faces covered under cover and the curtains are good
When we call them good but this comment do not suit
All seem to be apparently good but the real ones are good
When we departed my love we lost our souls in trance
We made them fertile and they left us barrens are good
Hearts are full of venom of hatred but love dances on lips
All of us are good players all of us in actions are good
Only Satan is bad and his disciples are bad in entirety
Mother Eve is really good and just Adam's sons are good
They wear hand gloves when kill innocent just mercilessly
What type of killers are they that all factions are good
Mehr has emphasized on love and in love gave his life
I am staunch believer of love, for them heavens are good

Real Associates

Real Associate
My heart is in my town, my soul is in my city
My sweetheart lives in it that is why its pretty
That is why my heart and soul are in serenity
But life is life with just each and every obscurity

When I go to shore I see her footsteps on sand
Every wave is in trance and has its clear brand
We are on same frequency we are on same band
Every tree carries her name which ever is on land

Love is physical but metaphysical love is so great
She carries my fortune being my true real associate
At times it seems that she is a deity of muse incarnate
How we celebrate love my love come and coordinate

A Salute To Universal Women

A Salute to Universal Women
Right from the man ribs to the heart to celebrate
Women are in the world to get love to recreate
The essence of love with beauty to serve, dominate
Life on its edge of eternity to associate, culminate

In all walks of life women are ahead of strong men
They are like sword and sword is mightier than pen
No one knows revolution came how, where and when
For their fellowmen, all women have become supermen

But in many places they are below level of humanity
They are imprisoned in chains and not at all are free
The creator of prophets, saints and preachers of liberty
They are treated worst than animals, below level of dignity

The international day is fro some but for all it is mockery
Which is just to show men has achieved level of humanity
Salute to all the women who persevere pain in entirety
And still bring life and color to this world and bear disparity

The Adoration

I love my beautiful city Abbottabad to the extent
That when I come back to it I come with the intent
To worship and kiss it all through with its consent
I never leave any occasion or event to compliment.

I love it, it dominates my heart as my living beloved
I kiss and caress its beauty, intoxicated its every grid
Let spring make more greener and autumn to forbid
A thing of beauty is joy for ever, is definitely well said.

I love you my city my town I love all your residents
All love moments are precious moments of reverence
From its very start there are very many achievements
We as citizens love its beauty to aspire for refinements.

In Service Of God

In Service of God
I was commissioned on 7th March thirty one years ago
My God remained extra kind to make me grow and glow
Life, like a water stream on its own path was just to flow
With golden stars, starchy uniform, enemies I could blow

I struggled hard to keep pace with equals and subordinates
My soul gets courage and fortitude to make me reinvigorates
To counter all odds, hurdles and hardships helped get targets
My heart is enthralled on achievements my soul associates

Throughout I fought war against enemies of country and God
Whether in country or with the peace keeping forces abroad
This pursuit of service in love brought all laurels and applaud
For the holy jihad I served for God in the wonderful squad

Set Of Blind Turns

Set of Blind Turns
Life is an uneven bumpy road, is a set of blind turns
No one knows from where it starts and where it ends
Fortune is hidden under cover while just fate discerns
What is style of life and what are its different trends

Clear intention and struggle of survival is to display
Great people and heroes come with frank approach
So beams of light and streaks are in darkness to play
Meanest of the means do nothing but just to encroach

Vice and virtue go side by side in in world as in blood
Vicious are more than virtuous to play and celebrate
Poor are victim of pain and torture like stream in flood
This is what for world's progress they are to contribute

Dejected and depressed I am just sitting alone
Thinking about you and the beauty you carry
In your image in your shape I am proud I own

In spell of love your beauty will extend flavor
Fragrance will show your presence in my room

My love, every thing is fair in love and war
So forget about the idiosyncracies of our life
Whether on altar in chains or behind the bar
Whether one is cut in pieces with blunt knife

Purity and chastity are the hallmark of beauty
My beloved you intoxicate me with love wine

Hasty Decisions

Hasty Decisions
Hasty decisions are wastage and not fruitful
Most of the time they take away ones luck
A situation has to be seen from every angle
Young petals are need not to take or pluck

Life is a serious affair to be taken with care
All aspects of life are but the essence of life
One who comes with chest up just to dare
Takes pride and pleasure from blunt knife

A Donkey

What a wonderful creature is a donkey
Carries heavy load with such humility
Innocent by design and wise to be free
He is more humane than real humanity

A donkey of the world has one voice
Never ever believes in any caste the best
Being a pure simpleton has no choice
Whether he is from the east or the west

At times he is purely but just ordinary
Being better at times seems an angel

His Benevolence

We are controlled by God to follow His judgement
It is His kindness we do have a free will and choice
He saves us from all embarrassments to comment
For His love we offer our sacrifice as an actual price

I submit he elevates all my spirits with zeal and zest
There is no one less Him either on land or in the sky
God is merciful, kind, beneficent and really the best
My God is the one who gives me wings to fly so high

One Sided Love

From far off distance she sent a message of love
Is it what is called my love, love just at first sight
She is so beautiful like a sweet innocent dove
What should my love I do in this deplore plight
She wants me as a staunch true lover for her life
Without knowing that I have a wife and children
She says that age is a number written with knife
And having a family is but not just a deadly sin

Love is beyond any odds, hurdles and constraints
So love me with honesty of purpose and to pursue
Let us follow true path to pure in love like saints
For me my sweet beloved like a moon out of blue

Declare Defective

All clear orders to be obeyed, unclear swayed
God gives His commandment clear and lucid
In hands of religious jugglers they are played
But with men of clean hearts they are but avid

Men in robe follow orders for lust and greed
They implement their need to get the reward
No one else can do it less this but dirty breed
They barter their souls with Satan just as lord

Revolution is needed to throw them to dustbin
So that word of God prevails in true perspective
They and their followers are outcome of a sin
Initiative is required to declare them defective

I Will Follow

I am in bondage of love so whatever you say I will follow
In the stream of your beauty I am just constantly to flow
I can nurture your cheeks with my blood to glow and show
Your love has brought flood in my veins to blast to blow

My sweetheart never ever ignore me to kill or just to leave
Whatever you intend to do please never ever just deceive
I have strength of love to make princess of my heart to achieve
Let me spread my eyes heart and soul on your path to receive

My beloved please let me know what is your next love move
Being staunch lover of you I have to follow love ethics to pursue
When some one asks me whether I love you I love you yes I do
If someone asks you what is love philosophy I admit it is but true

Love Viberates

Nature of Love
Love is a real passion which brings one to tears
It is a chain of contentment interwoven in fears
It makes one totally lunatic when whispers in ears
It bruises heart and its passion with set of spears

My beloved your eyes are full of strange magic
At times full of pleasure at times purely tragic
They play very gracefully who know love ethic
Whatever its shape may be but my love it is classic

Beloved has very many arrows, weapons to kill
It is where God's will coincide with lover's will
It triggers moving and moving makes just still
It is eternal heavenly wine which make heart to fill

Strange Impressions

Journey of Love
I love because there is excitement in the journey
At times it is full of pleasure at times there is pain
Even if if I am bounded by chains still I feel free
Because this the affair where there is no loss no gain

At times I weep bitterly to see and capture her image
At times I am by chance at the dangerous steep ridge
At times I am on red roses at times I am in thorny hedge
But this is part of my faith, love and beauty enjoy bridge

Love is strange and an invisible threat one takes willingly
It is the outcome of that tasty fruit of the heavenly tree
Why I love you my love I don't have any real valid plea
But I am in search of you if it is possible on land or in sea

Love is like a disease which makes patient to be in pain
It is in severe winter a snowfall in extreme autumn rain
It is a friendship band it is a wonderful eternal chain
It is like a beggar's shawl torn out with holes with disdain

Straws In Flower Vase

My daughter was shouting on me for a cause
She was correcting my flaw just clause by clause
I was just listening to her interpretation of laws
I thought I was collecting straws in flower vase

The matter pertained to my brother's widow
Who left us on the tricks of her father and family
And initiated a bogus case in the court to flow
To sail in her stream on our cost to be totally free

I was for her being sole inheritor of my brother
As the rules of army are clear and fair on subject
So why to keep her and ourselves on the altar
We should be love sparing not in contempt strict

Then idea got full support from my daughter
That will of God is supreme to take its own path
Hence we should be right not to be defaulter
We should aspire for mercy and not for the wrath

With Open Arms
My sweetheart welcome me with open arms
Let my love longings be fulfilled just for ever
Let me kiss and caress you with love norms
Let us be companions for real taste and flavor

I just own my body but you are my soul's solace
Every contentment comes through your red lips
In every trying situation you are my only grace
I am enthralled by wonderful curves giving tips

I want to explore all treasure but being one on one
In the process I may discover you all and in entirety
Let me see you burning with burning blazon sun
But before that my love you have to agree to disagree

Soul In Transit

My sweetheart don't feel depressed but impress
Take stress and be like an umbrella of pure bless
I love you from the core of my heart let me confess
In pure love my love there is no defeat no success

I always find love as a source of constant depression
But it gives me the taste of different style and fashion
Your enchanting beauty is my real love’s sole passion
When I embrace you I see dancing season after season

But I take beauty to reinvigorate in me real love spirit
It covers and discovers real beauty just facet after facet
When we are in ocean of love there remains no limit
Till the time we explore all in all soul remains in transit

On Your Will

What type of love is that which made us separate
Your beauty has taken us just to crossroads of life
From a bosoms friend you made me like a culprit
I can feel the pain of love in my heart like a knife

You kill me and then resort to say sorry to revert
My sweetheart this all will not do any good to me
As far as you are concerned you want me to convert
From just an ordinary stream to extraordinary sea

I am confused and don't know how to cope up love
Because every beat makes me to defeat and to kill
When I have another eye on your innocence my dove
I have left my beloved totally on your sweet will

Lovers Are Dreamers
Your beautiful figure entered in heart through eyes
You are medicine of life without you the lover dies
Love is an eternal truth surrounded by all the lies
It is nothing my beloved but a set of whispering cries

He who can bear pain will be bestowed with pleasure
Beauty my sweetheart is really a God gifted treasure
The intensity and depth can no one never ever measure
Love takes all from the lover to leave him as soothsayer

Oh love, damn love you are the perisher and destroyer
Your follower remains on altar without real answers
On your tune lover and beloved become the dancers
What a reality covered in mist, all lovers are but dreamers

Ghazal 16

My senselessness may crop up to celebrate
My beloved it will be good just to annihilate
My heart is passing through sheer darkness
Bring it to your light to make it illuminate
I am imprisoned by multifarious sins, crimes
Please open the doors of mercy to extricate
I just want to see lightening with open eyes
You can take my soul from body to separate
I am in search of you my sweetheart to find
Come in me and make me just god incarnate
Mehr he should dawn upon me like real light
Give me knowledge about me to orientate

Phase To Phase

Hypocrisy prevails from phase to phase
This world is nothing but a center of praise
All are busy in their tricks and on their ways
Daggers are in their hands under bouquets

Intentions do not match with dirty actions
Whatever they do that returns in reactions
Hatred needs hatred in prominent selections
Images portray imperfections to perfections

Hearts and eyes need pure water to be cleaned
There is no unity even if meetings are convened
Integrity is void character remains uncleaned
With the help of valiant, humanity is intervened

Love Delight
I was taken over by her innocent beauty tips
When she took her finger in her sweet red lips
With her alluring beauty she takes me in grips
I love her so her all qualities are on my fingertips

I think this is what is called love at very first sight
In my dark nights she comes like a beam of light
Please don't ask me in love what is my real plight
I am not in me I have taken over by pure love delight

Strength Wanted

Depressed, dejected and just disappointed
I am a man of no consequence any more
Hence for my weaknesses, strength wanted
Through my experience I have to explore

The path which should lead me to right
To come up to great expectations I will strive
To bear utmost pain and torture in sight
But no one dare to make me debar and deprive

I have to have my last leap to cover distance
No one can beat me unless I am beaten by fate
I have to encounter every border and fence
I do know that love is a force to encounter hate

Dare To Defeat

What is my life nothing but a canoe of paper on water
Either wind or flood will determine its face and fate
My soul is on borrowed on loan and my body is barter
I sparingly distribute love but in return get but hate

Life is an endless tether and on its both ends there is pain
Pleasure at times may come out of sunburst to give hope
From the birth till death I am standing to face sheer disdain
Constantly I am trying not to write on to keep clean envelope

But dust even if refined and purified goes back to the dust
Soul being the gift of light by lover will embrace his feet
So with clear intention to keep my heart clean is but must Then no power on earth which can beat or even dare to defeat

I am her guard and I am bound to defend

A Strange Place

A Strange Place

Near and dear ones are blood thirsty like blood hounds
What has gone wrong with all human ever good trends
We kill each other on several, different strange grounds

Hatred has superseded love and love has taken just all
Satan dances everywhere with dirty tricks to take to win
From heaven to earth man took fall to cross wall to wall
Victims are taken over for every crime and for every sin

What was the aim of creation of man no one just knows
Lust and greed has become order of the day to proceed
Contempt like flood in human veins flows and grows
Every one aspires to meet destruction for dirty bad deed

But still some moths with small beams of light show path
They burn continuously to show the others burning candle
They still hold the stance of converting love from the wrath
Vice will be taken over by virtue by the little innocent angel

How can I complain to any one else but fate
Only friend left is my God so merciful, great

Ups and downs are part of life to test to grow
My love is a sweet deep stream in which I flow
Time either will save me or will make me blow

Virtue Cherishes

Virtue Prevails
Evil creeps in from doors and windows
So we have to seek protection from God
When tricks of all and sundry and foes
Then comes to help us mercy of the Lord

Vice can not overcome virtue even if strong
Vicious in their own circle reap but the sins
Right is always right, wrong remains wrong
Poisonous wine to promote evil comes in tins

Let be virtuous to follow the dictates of right
Only then we will be taken to sweet paradise

Henceforth I will try to forget my love
All relations will come to a stand still
On my chest I will feel my innocent dove
Your beauty will become dagger to kill

I love you and will remain in this state
My love will never ever be able to forget
I know this was predestined act of fate
Now I am on mercy of time which will set

Forefathers The Best

If one race becomes ready to bear the rel brunt
Then at least seven races are saved from disaster
All those who do care in this regard come on front
The glory of the time only they dare to capture

Our forefathers taught us to survive head high
They were real soldiers whose footsteps we follow
Trained us to honorably live and gracefully die
All enemies to be cut to pieces to leave them hollow

I am a follower of footsteps of my valiant leaders
Till the other end of the world with zeal and zest
In the process I am ready to kiss very many altars
But still I maintain I am nothing they were the best

Age Is A Number

My love from a far of place says age is just a number
It is a matter of heart and nothing to do with reality
In her own enthusiasm she feels pleasure to rapture
To bloom in my embrace she agrees on the valid plea

Both of us hail from army so fitness and style matters
We do enjoy aggressiveness, confidence and courage
We both are the fighters of the right path are candlers
With our magnanimity of attitude we can but bridge

Love for both of us beyond any boundaries of our age
Beauty will mellow down all in the light of love moon
Hence we will enjoy physical pleasure and like a sage
With stance of love we are looking forward to meet soon

Journey In The Past

My brain storming took me to the past
Where I could see the faces of hypocrites
Who wanted to play hell, at any cost
But heavenly verdict with stance dictates

Little human palms and polluted brains
Can never ever be able to stop progress
Of those who have been in the love chains
Long bearded rascals with religious dress

Help from God dawned on me to protect
Which I still cherish as real God's bounty
Their heinous designs make them detest
They are in Sheer disgust I uphold glory

Me To Excel

Me to Excel
My heart is a staunch critic never allows me to excel
But when it is matter of heart it becomes ready to compel
Its all integrity for the sake of beauty makes it rebel
Then it never minds whether to live in heaven or in hell

Do not burn your hands my sweetheart in burning fire
It will eat you up my beloved do not tread on quagmire
The streaks of light which sneak from your romantic attire
Hit in my eyes in my heart in my soul as a sole love desire

Let us take your beams of beauty to make galaxies in sky
Let me embrace you and to take you to heights let us fly
Even if I have to go back in your lap I want to happily die
Please be mine my sweetheart just give me a real last try

Heart in Stride
Love is an irresistible thread takes heart in stride
It provides a wonderful opportunity to seize heart
One feels flying in the air really in alluring ride
The treasure so accumulated is never ever to depart

My sweetheart is so sweet and tender I can't explain
She has overtaken me and now I am on just crossroads
I can feel pain and torture of world's cruel disdain
My heart and soul are under assaults of blunt swords

My beloved I want to go through this torture and pain
I do not need any healing less I may forget this taste

It makes eyes clean heart benign soul and body chaste

To Embrace God

To Embrace God
I want to embrace my God in sheer trance
At the cost of my life I want to take a chance
People may call me lunatic for the glance
I am in love and want to be in real romance

I have left all to be with in His sweet company
The moment I want to be with Him I feel free
If someone ask me I do not have any valid plea
But He travels in me like a golden green sea

I request God to take under His benign shelter
To make me neat and clean and my hear to filter
To show me the real truth by abolishing all blur
I am His most wonderful creation His is Creator

Hatred Initiates Love

It is quite strange that hatred ultimately initiates love
When it burns in furnace of hatred goes to get power
Fire has its pivotal role to burn to kill and then to bow
Love then crops up with full force to be just love shower

Anatomy of love is very difficult to know to understand
Bit by bit and drop by drop one has to sip this real truth
Gift is not for ordinary people, blooms flower in wasteland
But the ultimate truth is heart does get solace to soothe

Let us be burnt in this fire to become nothing else but gold
This is the test of our mettle and caliber to prove character
Edge of eternity is in search of all those who are valiant, bold
It is what is contained in book of love, chapter after chapter

Your enchanting beauty has emerged as a bridge

When I want to see you I just have a love glance
Your beauty from everywhere just starts pouring in
As a staunch lover I do not miss available chance
This is how I commit an innocent and beautiful sin

My love you are in me I am in you as companion
This is how chain of love blooms to play the tune
With sip of your beauty my love feels but drunken
Being intoxicated I get in winter warmth of June

Love Demands
My love please do not cut and tear me in shreds
Rather give me slow poison to take me to destiny
But know you will not be able to break love threads
I will remain in your taste and flavor my honey

Love is a fortune which is not destined just for all
Only the blessed ones are bestowed upon with prize
Low people with contempt and hatred never be tall
It pertains to innocence and not to be with the wise

Whatever the harsh circumstances my love could be

Just Drop By Drop

Drop By Drop
I am bound to sip poison of life drop by drop
This is how my destiny just wants me to live
A sharp blunt dagger wants but me to chop
I don not know except life what else I can give

Life is a broken thread from a place unknown
How can I compromise with predestined destiny
Very many ups and downs I have been shown
Oh my God what is life and what is its beauty

In my helplessness I cannot express my feelings
What I can do is to cross limits with head down
With love strings I want to see blooming springs
To be the best possible creation to wear crown

Great Dreams

Great Dreams
How could world become heaven to celebrate
Little human innocent wishes and such desires
Which can bring life on equal footing to be great
To take out helpless, hopeless out of quagmires

All are equal in the eyes of Lord then why classes
Why rich ones be rich, poor ones be down trodden
Let us be fair and frank to remove jealousy glasses
New horizons and vistas to be explored to broaden

God has created world sent man to create paradise
Man with vested interests converted it into a hell
It is up to man not to be Satan's friend in surprise
And not to sell his soul to devil to honorably excel

The girl I left has left me in sheer disgust
She apparently has opted for better option
She doesn't know what is love and lust
Hence she took hurriedly an abrupt action

Forgiveness is serious than to take revenge
But how can I inflict severe pain but on me
She has her image on my heat as challenge
I am a swimmer and she is like a green sea

Love is but like flowing water has to flow
No hurdles can stop or change its real path
I carry her along on the face of time to glow
Apparently people may say I am under wrath

The Invisible Cage

What one has to receive and what to send
What one has to take what one is to lend
Nothing is known, this is what I pretend

In blind alleys being blind we are to tread
With clean heart we are but just rightly led
We spend time in search of shed and bread

I am victim of her mood, she is queen of my love ode

No problem if you have a better option in life than me
Go ahead to get that leave me alone in life's strange sea
I have already have had the taste of that forbidden tree
You have your own constraints with you I just do agree

My friend in beauty, beauty is to but ultimately decay
Now it does not matter what you pray and I have to say
Forever on the screen of world neither you nor I will stay
But what I learnt from you is grey areas but remain grey

Will Never Leave

Will Never Leave
You my love told me that you will never leave
You left me in disgust then how should I believe
Can you come to take me out of pain to relieve Kill me with your own hand but never deceive

You have very many to appreciate your graces
Be straight and frank and don't resort to breaches
On my part my sweetheart there may be lapses
If you so desire cut me in to very many pieces

Be mine and be my future tolerate me being great
I will try to be with you and will try to just satiate
I can not compromise on you being only soulmate
You are my destiny, my destination and my fate

And kiss on your cheeks to feel taste
You are beautiful book of sweet verses
Let me place my hand on your waist

Let me explore you just curve by curve
My sweetheart intoxicate me with wine
The praise which I extend you do deserve
Without you I am alone love you're mine

Let me see you in dim light my beloved
Let my explore you love crease by crease
Let me open the bottle by removing lid
Let me gaze and daze and just let me cease

Hearth Without Chimneys

Hearth Without Chimneys
A glass of wine will do to decrease the pain of life
I can't bear it, it is beyond my limits to take to bear
My beloved has bruised me with beauty's knife
She has killed me with her rude attitude just to tear

I never thought a soft and sweet beauty will play
With me and my innocent passion like a clever fox
And I will die from moment to moment, day to day
Pain and torture to take me bare feet on hard rocks

Life is a strange puzzle with strangest tinge of love
Where one is amazed and dazed in difficult realities
Innocence of heart fails to understand why and how Life is like burning hearth in hearts without chimneys

Moments to Cease
My sweetheart I am bound to return your glance
Under all circumstances I want to win over smile
Considering it to be just the only available chance
To take me over and to be impressed by your style

My sweetheart tinkle in my heart to make a start
Beauty has to use weapons of its charms, graces
My beloved you are part of my heart not to depart
In my colorful dreams your beauty comes embraces

Let us be the way it is ordained by the lord of love
Let me take the taste of beauty just drop by drop
Let us be together my beloved, my innocent dove
Let me request time to cease these moments to stop

Snow Melts On Fire

I can not explain the warmth of your desire
But I melt in your arms as snow melts on fire
Curves of your body show glow from attire
My eyes are on beauty to relentlessly admire

My sweetheart burn me with your fiery glow
Let me in your sensual stream to bloom, flow
Please do not spoil this season of love in a row
What ever is the price of beauty I know, I know

When they surround nothing else but real beauty

Moments Of Happiness

Moments of Happiness

My sweetheart let us share the moments of happiness
Let me take hand in hand and warmth heart to heart
Let us talk our hearts about love affair being voiceless
But my beloved please never ever to think to depart

Heavy breathing tells love at its extreme to declare
Intensity of love in real perspective just so to speak
Let my love take bath in your beauty's just real glare
Embrace me in trance by touching cheek to cheek

The color of emotion makes cheeks red like blood
Beauty is what makes it to burn like candle to glow

No Destination

I wept and my tears became twinkling stars
Spiritual healing makes clear difference in life
Heart must have rapport to touch love bars
Pain and pleasure exalt to treasure all the strife

We are bubbles of water taken by air to burst
But our claims touch the limits of all blue sky
Created best but degraded down to the worst
From place to place we try to dance and to fly

Oh bundle of dust you survive with God's light
We have been given a soul to be sent on parole
Then we being hollow and shallow forget in flight
With no destination no destiny, aim and goal

From the heart of hearts bloom love remarks
For every strange question, beauty gives answer

By being together we understand realities
Let us set together take romance to real dance
My heart says you are queen of real beauties
My love intends to take chance after chance

Let make severe cold winter in blooming spring
Let your warmth of beauty send beam after beam

Heart of A Poet

The autumn has snatched the attire of the trees
But you are still mourning the robes of the queens
Eyes have gathered all blood in them to cease
And you are talking about the beauty of the teens

What all is world a cover under cover to uncover
Its oddities and idiosyncrasies to present, portray
What a wonderful creatures are the poets as lovers
For the peace progress and prosperity they but pray

I am poet what I see I present you may like or dislike
At times I do take blood from heart to sight to write
Which may inflict heart of sensitives to attack or strike

My Painter

My painter has painted me with all love and affection
But I do not know why I still aspire for every perfection
At times in my disappointment, despair and dejection
I think what ever I am, that I am, no point of correction

I know with the passage of time I deteriorate, I will fade
I am in transit being transitory bear pain and to degrade
Back to all my original colors from which I was but made
Still I maintain it is not me but will of the painter to wade

My master has given me all the colors of life to be colorful
He has ingrained in me all vices and virtues of sweet angel
I remained on wall of fate with pain and pleasure push, pull
But I am in complete servitude to obey the will as a real bull

At times I just do complain in a light vein about my existence
At very many occasions I feel fragrance of colors as my essence
Some colors have gone down light which were really dense
But I have all my doubts about my wit intelligence and sense

Innocent Magical Bird

Love makes an ordinary person to be an extraordinary
It is a real forceful force which is definitely to endorse
Its stamp is eternal and universal to break chains to free
Through lover's heart being clean and in clear discourse

Love establishes rapport between man to man and to God
It is that sacred verdict which with sheer honesty blooms
Man is but fully protected under all circumstances by Lord
Mercy, kindness in shape of love can be narrated in volumes

My sweet beloved it is not me who taught you love to glow
But it is inherent in your beautiful heart which I triggered
It is all your charms, style, graces which were bound to show

She is Excused
Every time my love decides to leave
But then begs to be in my company
She sends a message which I receive
She has very many waves like sea

Her heart is like an anxious little bird
Which takes its wings to fly to sky
And sings its love song word by word
With mixed emotions says goodbye

She comes she goes considers love play

Everyday she is a lady of just that day

My love love is not a game which you can play
On your own terms and conditions in a dismay
It is set of sacrifices to be offered just in an array
Pain, torture cuts one in to pieces but everyday

My love what you do that just do not correspond
With your tricks and your untoward odd attitude
It sounds strange to love for a while in tricky bond
You should love me in true spirits or to be just rude

This hypocrisy will take my life, I will die mercilessly

Forget about that to your silly designs I agree, disagree

Honesty is taken to the altar time and again is to kill

Know To Flow

Fate is hidden written in the book
Palm takes from some uneven lines
Some jugglers play with being crook
Extract some meanings from mines

Whatever written either good or bad
Makes but destiny, destination clear
At times if known makes one just mad
Creation of God to Him near and dear

Faith is solace in this very difficult case
God is savior under all circumstances
He keeps His creation just face to face
Sparingly offers but very many chances

When I get real warmth in your arms

Beauty To Grace

Beauty to Grace
Your whispering of love in my ear tinkle as song
These moments will be most powerful in my life
Rest assure my love to each other we do belong
I do not care even if you cut in pieces with knife

Love is a sharp blunt weapon which never stops
It kills lover in such a way that he is unable to cry
One has to carry his cross till end for the real hops
And remains on that till he sees the truth on sky

Love, crazy love makes one to march to grandeur
Where pain and pleasure to wait to just embrace
Beauty is to take, to touch after never ending endure

Whirlwind Romance

Whirlwind Romance
I am lost, taken over by whirlwind of romance
Glance of sweetheart has not given me a chance
I was in the air my heart and soul were in dance
In all this surrounding I was just victim of trance

In spur of moment I lost my world on graceful gait
All your charms and graces just bloom to celebrate
All went hurriedly with out just being so moderate
But let me tell you the experience was surely great

My beloved love is but a real whirlwind to accelerate Distance apart hearts and souls to agree on one date
Their is nothing much to think or much to deliberate
It is but love passion which makes the lovers passionate

Aspires To Flow

Aspires to Flow
The moment I am in love I am like a blazon sun
Beauty gives air to the fire to take you and run
Tell me my sweetheart how can this all be done
All has gone pain what we have started as a fun

I see your image dancing all around in a state
Where I can not find me to be there to celebrate
Love is to associate with beauty to be moderate
Whatever is the experience that is really very great

Love is what beauty needs to nurture, to grow
To any solace and satisfaction it is really big blow
It is like a stream along which one aspires to flow
It culminates at pleasure but starts just in a row

Beauty In Stance

Beauty in Stance
Today sky is full of clouds but tomorrow sun will shine
Nothing is constant in this world just let me clearly opine
Fortune dares to kiss those who dare to meet her just fine
Consistent struggle has its taste and flavor like pure wine
I am destined to be a man of destiny, destination is mine
Bruises of heart and soul to be kept alive with real brine
My mission is so vital that I see all around its glowing sign
I am proud of the fact my Lord keeps me with Him on line

Miracles happen when love takes verdict of beauty in stance
Life becomes a caring friend to provide chance after chance
But one should not mix reality with just ordinary romance
To be fully involved in real love affair one should be in trance
Let me apprise you about the clarity of eyes heart in advance
One should keep efforts in tact not to leave all on circumstance

Love Candies

Love Candies
My starry eyed beloved let me show you all the galaxies
We will do seek advice of moon on your blooming pride
Then we will have the real taste of all lovely love candies
Allow my love beauty to ride on this journey side by side

It will be a glorious venture to explore heights with delight
In ecstasy we will know the pleasure of life to seek, to take Dancing passion will carry us to eternal height on the flight
Love in the lap of beauty will dance to take and to partake

My love let not the weather of love pass and surpass silently
Let have an eternal embrace to celebrate it for times to come
Let us be far far away from cruel clutches of world to be free
Let be on the glorious path of love to flourish and to blossom

Her Reflection

She says my heart is beautiful I think it is her reflection
Which makes my beloved to show me that I can't explain
Both love and beauty are in chain to make perfection
This is the grace which makes both of us to bear the pain

Love is constant torture, full of trials and of tribulations
When one is involved there is no way to come out of rut
But surely it leads one to new horizons, avenues, beacons
Still whosoever opts for is definitely perfect and fortunate

My beloved through all pleasure and torture I maintain
I will go through this novel experience till the last day
Let my sweetheart play hide and seek in the drizzling rain
To come out let us pray to come out as a lightening ray

The Real Altar

Be aware of hypocrites otherwise they will drag My friend down to the abysmal depths for ever You will have nothing at your disposal but brag About their third class approach on the real altar

Shun all those who have but notorious designs Their underhand methods can not be forgiven A good person either serves gracefully or resigns On straight path there is nothing but just driven

The conscience dictates between right and wrong Prudent takes all steps with due care and caution They know to which graceful tribe do they belong Their straight path remains for them their fashion

Ready for Affront
I hate you so please never ever come across
Otherwise you will have the taste of relation
And I will forget about the benefit or the loss
You do not know me you do not know passion

Do you think I will spare you but never ever
Test me, my patience otherwise you will have
How I am vigilant with my relentless endure
I do not take any rest to abreast and to salve

My enemy but I will never ever attack on back
I will face you always from the front to confront

Flavor Of Flavor

Flavor of Flavor
Vice may temporarily prosper, virtue dominates
Love is to conquer world hatred but has to leave
Beauty is good in life which comes, accommodates
You are a part of heart we are bound to believe

What I pay and what I get that is but my sacrifice
Humans are strange commodity change but faces
Devilish or angelic, we just have to pay the price
But remains virtually are nothing but all the traces

My beloved let me take you on a strange oasis
Where we can have survival on different stature
Where we can deal with each other with justice
I want to taste your taste and flavor of flavor

Get Delight

Get Delight
My beloved wants me to take her in arms
When moon just blooms and stars shine
I see her style, charms and graces in norms
My beloved wants me to take her like wine

She tells me to hold her tight to embrace
To kiss and caress her beauty like light
To be eye to eye and to play face to face
To get all pleasure and to get all delight

My sweetheart let us be together on path
To enjoy life just from moment to moment
My heart has become fire as burning hearth
In a graceful mood, journey remains pleasant

Celebrate Moments

My beloved is my storybook she resides in my eyes
When ever I look in to the mirror it tells me her story
In the mirror of my heart I see her along with love cries
I do believe in her beauty and her graces just blindly

My beloved you can also see me in the mirror of heart
Consider me the person who in love sees you around
But please take me seriously never ever to just depart
Whatever you consider may be the appropriate ground

Let's celebrate these moments with due care and caution
Let us dangle and dance from land to the open blue sky
In love, love has its own passion and beauty has its fashion
Let me take you hand in hand to go up to clear sky so high

Wishful Thinking

Wishful Thinking
My Lord please bestow on me the holy journey
Before I die I want to be at holy places to pray
I know I do not have either strength or valid plea
But I want to refine all my sins, vices, areas grey

Your mercy and kindness is my just whole wealth
My soul, heart my body are greatly indebted to you
I know with help I will get all benefits with health
With eternal support I will be able to be thru and thru

Even if I die before I request I may be blessed with
This gift of love and spiritual elevation as a token
So that when I leave be covered with fragrance, pith
This is a prayer, wishful thinking so far opted by none

Show Of Mirror

Show of Mirror
His play of status is just subject to show of mirror
As he takes him the most innocent person around
So that clarity touches him and he should not blur
Man who touches sky is not even fit to be on ground

His character is as Satan has got his abode just in him
Seller of sisters and daughters portrays to be religious
Full of darkness carries candle light wavering and dim
In the world of devils he remains vicious and callous

Double death will take him to his eternal dirty abode
No song of honor or departure he deserves to be sung
Like a dog or bitch will die ordinary death on the road
Angels will drag to dirt for his dirty intentions, tongue

My beloved when I will become lunatic keep me in room
Chain me so that I should not be on road to be stoned
Totally lost being in painful torture and just in sheer gloom
Thrown in disgust in despair being totally but disowned

I promise you that I will never ever forget act of kindness
By being near to you before I depart to the other abode
You please be mine once again to take and to harness
Now it is your turn to love code how to sing the last ode

My beloved I am in trouble and my heart is not with me
Now the darkness is prevailing all around to just swallow
I do not know what my circumstance and fate could be
What all is written in the book of fate I think I do I know

When Beauty Dazzles
The energy emanating from your beauty dazzles
My love dangle and dance with but real pleasure
In complete darkness just burn so many candles
I feel overjoyed just with this wonderful treasure

When I sneak through your bosom’s knot to see
Spring comes in bloom to show me many flowers
You may not find what the state of pleasure be Beauty suddenly spreads just with all love showers

Light is all around and I am in the center of light
I feel your whispers in my ear to listen, celebrate
I do not want to see anything when you are in sight
I feel myself fortunate my fortune sprout from fate

Gracefully But Blindly

My beloved a time will come when I will be mad
Please do consider that will be the height of love
Request is to chain me and keep without being sad
Then please do not ask this all happened when, how

Do not leave me on road, people will throw stones
And will kill me mercilessly just like a play doll
And will abuse me in dirty rude and harsh tones
Then my heart will bleed and be in trouble my soul

Love is a strange and a marvelous sentiment, passion
Which needs sacrifice not of heart but of all the body
You do realize in love I have my own style and fashion
So towards my end I will go gracefully but blindly

What ever my beloved writes in Persian
I take it echo of my heart like the intuition
Even if do not know what to accept or shun
But her writings do carry her elegant fashion

I quench my heart's thirst to know to follow
At times I do not understand, remain hollow
Her beauty makes my love ridden heart, bow
Even I know nothing still I say I know I know

Time and again she is in front just like clear sea
At one time she agrees at another she is to disagree

Down Trodden Tracks

Forget me my beloved we are not for each other
So it is good to depart and take our own path
It is better not to ask any question or give answer
If we are not good for love we be ready for wrath

It will be good for you to look for better option
As far as as I am concerned I will opt for seclusion
It will be good to be away with heart broken
To cover in anxiety just mountain after mountain

Time is the best healer to recover injuries, bruises

If life is not straight then what down trodden tracks

Life On Canvas

My beloved is a painter who paints life on canvas
My eyes are ever loving to search love in creation
But when I tell her to paint me she becomes anxious
She takes a blank sheet of paper to buss it as a fashion

Is it love that she can not ignore but always explore
How to embrace me in her own style so stunning
She apparently ignores but in her heart she adores
She is like a beautiful flowers string in blooming spring

Time and again she becomes angry to leave me alone
Time and again I check her on one pretext or another
Even if we throw stone on each other but still we own
We go by love with all difficulties from bolder to bolder

Castles Of Sand

You told me that you will see me in the evening
The evening has come but you have not turned up
Why you keep me in agony what is this love string
Why don't take me seriously, keep me in back up

Please do not play with me either take me or leave
But this way of ignoring will bring distance for ever
You have taken me to the middle of the road I believe
If you have taken some one else then look back never

But my sentiments and emotions do require my love
That I should hold you, embrace you and hand in hand

Who is untiringly, relentlessly opts for his quest

Being beggar of beauty when I ask for the charity
My beloved being blunt never ever show solidarity
Even if there is no one like her in the town or city
But she refuses to be my beloved with more clarity

Romantic Evening

When your curly hair spread then fragrance blooms
My sweetheart you have taken me to brim of spring

To your sweet beauty and to my love it is like a string

If the world becomes gold even then you are my treasure

Let me be your only chooser and rest of the world loser

Graces of God
I am undergoing very many serious ailments
Some pertain to body, some pertain to mind
These are due to my own deeds to bear brunt
Some curses come from front some from behind

God being merciful carries every mercy for me
So only He is who provides me shelter to save
Whenever I bow He just comes running to see
How is His humble servant and obedient slave

Love of very many mothers is His gracious style
Which He sparingly bestow on me and on like me
In His sweet company, I just forget for a while Then I totally get what my past and my future be

Sophisticated Blades
Love has very many colors and very many shades
Which dominate, cover every sphere of human life
Beauty has its own wonderful sophisticated blades
Love remains on the altar, on sharp edge of knife

On His verdict love and beauty were sent as beams
He himself is so beautiful and appreciates beauty
With His gracious graces and charms makes all free

We praise virtue, which is love and beauty in song

Assaults Of Hell

Verdict of God
Man can play tricks with man but not with Lord
If he does so he will be taken by assaults of hell
Where he will be dealt with for his mischief hard
And will be imprisoned by burning fire to dwell

Wise people use sincerity, remain helping hand
Bad ones astray like dogs in their sheer negligence
Apparently they may evolve just castles of sand
The miserable end will not give time for repentance

Still it is better not to play beyond verdict of God
Otherwise complete destruction will be the end
One should bow and seek forgiveness from Lord
Before one is broken it is better to gracefully bend

Ghazal 12

The camel is spiteful and has entered in the tent
Mehr is naked head, under naked sky cent per cent
Why to flirt and play with my little innocent heart
When to be in the arms of others, what love meant
You have left me on the road under the burning sky
And just in friction of time you bid adieu to time spent
Our life long relation has gone to dogs being playful
The rivals remained successful in making cruel dent
Please look in to my sincerity in love my sweetheart
You are leaving me for good, I received message sent
Even if you are away from me in the company of others
Your fragrance in my room makes that you are present
Your beauty is my asset your charms are my glow
You have to understand love is life it is not a comment
Let us be away from this cruel world in a hut in forest
Please come along and go together you give me consent
My love is your charm which blooms in flowery spring
Take my love as a token for your beauty it will augment

Innocent Emotions

She wants to play with my innocent emotions
I am neither robot nor a little doll to play with
This is what she wants to return for my devotions
This is what is all her alluring beauty’s pith

Take me as human and play but with my heart
For the sake of it, just amuse you with my soul
Or give fair chance to both to willfully depart
But we have to separate pore to pore, pole to pole

Even if we leave but let us know love will remain

Love will neither change its shape or its real color

And when you want to love more
It makes your life but totally blur

So do not to kiss it time and again
Anger may be a powerful weapon
Heart should not over do to brain
Under your shadow keep blazon sun

At times it saves from all difficulties
And makes you happy and to dance
But at another time it comes as breeze
Where you flourish love and romance

Embrace Altar

Embrace Altar
Goodbye my love to never ever look back
Our destiny and destination are different
Since we are no more on declared track
Since we both are blunt to bear the brunt

We traveled together on two rail-tracks
Which never meet but remain on distance
We have faced but very many attacks
In the wake of hearts, bodies were hindrance

Now is the time to be happy to depart
Please never ever miss me or remember
We will try to silently play destined part
Carrying along we will embrace altar

To Bid Adieu

To Bid Audieu
With a heavy heart let me bid adieu my love
Henceforth we will not see each other now
Where from this dilemma came to us and how Fortune takes it and in front of fate to bow

Whenever beauty is molested by dew drops
Soul goes to pieces and by dagger heart chops
No seeds of love needs to be sown for crops
Love and beauty are not commodities of shops

With cleanliness of heart I bid you but adieu
You appeared my love like moon out of blue
As you wish and aspire I will not ask to renew
Whatever relationship was that was but virtue

Inferno Of Love

Inferno of Love
My passion wants to capture colorful rainbow
This is my love which may turn just into fiasco
I will opt for the beauty which may be inferno
I will sacrifice my love on my beloved's eyebrow

Please don't ask about the taste I can not explain
This is what is for thirsty soul like drizzling rain
I think you have not tasted, yet this tasty pain
You may straightaway term it in conflict in brain

Love is love which is fire and burns beauty alive
It is like vast Green Ocean to jump and to dive
My heart and my soul consistently desire thrive
Whosoever touches its edge may die or come alive

Just One On One

One On One
Under naked sky I travel with bare feet
Thorns of life are playing with my patience
Life is a continuous journey in desert heat
It is a game of brilliance without any sense

Who I am and what for I am here alone
I think and think and then feel just tired
When I don’t find I talk to me in low tone
Am I sold am I rented or am I just hired

Blowing breeze opens me crease by crease
I think about my departure from heaven
From trials and tribulations how I get peace
I will ask the question being one on one

Love Route

Love Route
May I ask for oranges to take and suck
May I have a beautiful evening with you
You are my fortune and you are my luck
This is what I felt through and through

May I wish a shower of life in love rain
May I taste all forbidden sweet fruits
Let my love be in a love string and chain
Let us go back to the wonderful roots

It wants to be victorious in its pursuit

Life Travels

That touch of class still keeps me on
When you kissed me just lips on lips
In so beautiful and wonderful dawn
Love can manage just very many trips

Beauty seeks for eternal love deeds
At all times to be with broken string
When on floor roll the precious beads
Beauty of beloved in spring to sing

That love song which has eternal glow
To make the life to take another start
No one can appreciate that love show
When life travels from heart to heart

Whatever I carry along that is but world treasure
I carry along from mile to mile beautiful smile

Till last breath you will find me in front, behind
I am of my own mood, of my own staunch kind
Basing on justice my all limits are just well defined

A Soldier

I am bound by the verdict I follow the orders
If I am down in the ramparts or on the borders
I love flowers on death come in wreath flowers
Hence I come across different tastes and flavors

A soldier remains soldier from his birth to death
He remains loyal and patriot till his last breath
Honesty of purpose and mission orientation is faith
I never ever take in to account what is the aftermath

I know I am soldier of God and remain on His path
Temporarily I may encounter each and every wrath
You take me to the altar or just burn me in the hearth
Even if I am in peace I remain always on the warpath

Yellow Poison

Yellow poison when ever injected in the body
Is taken to entire body by particles of blood
It takes over heart and brain and make cloudy
Then it engulfs entire body like violent flood

Thinking stops and suspicions come to surface
Under the auspice one becomes more anxious
Yellow pages, hypocrites vomit same disgrace
All is poisoned for petty benefits pace to pace

The venomous smile on faces of religious rascals
Who come to innocent people in garb of angels
They are make minds crippled guided by devils
They are devoid of any values and any morals

Yellow poison is more in humans than in snakes
It is responsible for all heartaches and heartbreaks
It is the devil's game in which every one partakes

My beautiful sweetheart is very very clever
She takes me along with out any en-devour
When I kissed her that was a kiss of class
Twas long time back but I still feel the flavor
Love is from the heaven, rivals should know
Love is so sacred please do not be the broker
What is there deep down in ocean I don't know
I am just a beginner and I am only a surfer
I kiss that hand which drags me to the slaughter
I am to be butchered my beloved is the butcher
I love her I praise her, I gaze her I chase her
Her gestures make me bold I am proud of candor
Where hatred to terminate where love to culminate
Due to my innocence I still can not decipher
Beauty is the master and love is only a servant
Fate is written in the book and I have to follow
But still I failed to know how fortune to conjure
How can I be blind how can my eyes just strand
When your beauty travels with me as path finder
Enemies have resorted to all the dirty tricks

Day of Human Rights
Tyranny oppression with the help of force and coercion
Social animals have degraded humans down to animals
With the faces and hearts of hypocrites with the assertion
The devils present themselves in the garb of sacred angels

On the name of human rights they rape, molest humanity
This is how for their heinous designs they play dirty tricks
They keep humans in their vested chains by declaring free
Their forts are constructed as bulwark with human bricks

Humanity, humanity is but in shackles of hunters like hounds

Vicious in their circles suck blood and eat flesh on all grounds

In severe turmoil we need patience and gratitude
God helps those who have frank, positive attitude
With staunch servitude and with clear certitude
Crude iron do require fire to be strong and prude

Love is a fire which burns and refines entire body
It affects heart and soul to be required more deeply
Rights bestowed upon a person when done duty
One should abide by moral code of conduct fully

Gratitude is a bulwark against all odds and trials
It helps to win all situations, brawls and battles
Clear eyes and clean hearts burn all the candles

Made Me Robot

From a normal man you made me robot
I lost all my fragrance and became a slot
From bosom's knot I became just a rot
After taking wine of love I am like besot

You bruised my heart, you injured soul
For a fish like me, you became just troll
Beauty with her charm can easily control
You can only harm then who can console

But please do appreciate robots use mind
They are heartless hence emotionally blind
Just to grind many stupids you can just find Henceforth my love we are no more aligned

Wear Me As Dress

My sweetheart wants to wear me like her dress
But on every weekend you change it i do guess
I know, you do know which button is to press
For good players love is a game but like chess

I have a keen eye on you knowing fully well
I consider in your heart I definitely do dwell
For lunatic lovers for me do remain under spell
I am in love and in real love I do love to excel

Please do wear me as many times as you desire
Make me stable and do throw some water on fire
Sell me as many times as you think and as aspire
If you change your attire I may in love do expire

To Be Or Not

My young energetic and innocent beloved
I must admit that I am not fit to give any bid
I know that you are ready to extend sacrifice
This is how you my love are to pay the price
You love me because you are not aware of act
I request you to go, get a boy to seek, select
If you only aspire for my fame and money
Then in the long run will be in trouble honey
I love you You remain hidden in my heart
But I do not want to leave you and depart
Please do not play with my pure emotions
My love, forget about all the wrong notions
But if you are determined to be in my life
Then take me in your arms become my wife

Color Of Eyes

You are heart of my heart, you are color of my eyes
You are pleasure of my life you are pain of my cries
You are in my disguise and I am in your disguise
Love on beauty relies, neither beauty nor love is wise

Life is desert without water, a mountain to surmount
Hence throughout life one is busy to search destination
My sweetheart for me you are more than paramount
Beauty remains in contemplation while love is pure action

What has gone but what is to come is of prime importance
Together we can make this world an actual heaven
Beauty in concurrence with love brings to life all prudence
Then in attraction of life love embarrasses real love season

Life becomes a real treasure in shape of the golden glow
When light passes through, you become the beauty of class

You embrace me to caress and kiss to eternal love path
In your company I feel myself to be just the blessed one
With your love I can carry, every contempt and wrath
My sweetheart you are my only savior less you there none

Enforce To Endorse

When I told her to open bosom’s knot
It was full of with names of lovers a lot
Beauty has its own benefits being sexpot
Her glowing cheeks were just fiery hot

In that glow, love stream was to flow
Pleasure danced all around to show
In company of love beauty was to blow
This is how love and beauty were in row

Stream of love was on its normal course
We forgot but all in this love discourse
We were ridden by some unknown force
Love was to enforce beauty was to endorse

In intoxication she dances with the shoots
When she sprouts all juice from the roots

Sham Love

She is like an innocent dove so whom so ever
She comes across she innocently says I love you
On first glance I fell in love with to leave never
But then I saw portraying her parts thru and thru

She paints and paints but naked breasts for show
Either knowing fully well or just stroke of a brush
It is more than sufficient in flow to take and blow
But all this embarrassment never ever make her blush

I do not know about strange conduct and behavior
But by now I realized the idiosyncrasies of the life
We are the defaulter we ruin or make ourselves savior
We can cut our bodies or vegetables with the knife

Do not ask me about the awesome depth of my love dealings
Love us rule with power of words, surmounting all feelings
But does exercise the power of taking all bruises to blessings
Love and beauty remain throughout in strings in all springs

My beloved do believe in strength of love to sail to real belief
My heart has been stolen by a real little lovely innocent thief
On relation of love and beauty one can write books but brief
Love is a reef in ocean or it may bloom on a new tree as a leaf

Broken Glass

Pieces of broken glass are difficult to collect
Knowingly or unknowingly one can just hurt
It is color of blood which is bound to reflect
See with open eyes the result of lover's effort

Beloved if so desire can use blood as vermilion
This is how she be considered married in love
You my fountain of beauty is just my real fortune
I will keep you in my heart, my innocent dove

So pure and so chaste even touch may be a crime
I love you, I love you this I repeatedly but repeat
You are excellent and sweet, this is your sublime
You are so clean an neat as pure white blank sheet

Love may make her life a glow or just sheer despair
Lover or beloved has to pay the price like a little dove
They either be killed or burnt in fire of love with flair

Shock or pain may change color of hair to white skirt
Innocence of youth may acquire wrinkles on the face
Heart may bleed being severely wounded and hurt
Youth may step to old age jump without leaving trace

Whosoever is victim of love must realize understand
Love is a life taking altar which one has to take till last

We do not have very many qualities but we do reinvigorate

Nature Of Love

Nothing I have body nor soul to swing
But whatever remains I can just bring
I do appreciate in company, can see spring
From heart to heart there remains a string lovers go through a severe test of patience

Even being totally crippled carry cadence
It mostly remains hidden in the conscience
Its fragrance carries hindrance after hindrance

Beauty is what instigates fire in the love
Peace celebrates itself like innocent dove
Under the circumstance chance left is bow
Who knows from where love crops, how

Distance A Leap

Suddenly I laugh, suddenly i shout and Suddenly I weep
They consider lunatic, say you sowed the crop now reap
I am just fit apparently unless you dig my heart so deep
Distance from me to you seems just a pace and just a leap

Is this love then don't ask me to explain love's real nature
It is above me and above us all in its entirety and stature
What love is what is after at times pain at times pleasure
Please don't ask me about him who is real hidden treasure

Kiss is not a suture to the bruises which are open to just see
Love is a wonderful experience what circumstances could be
For celebration of love needed no valid justification or plea
It can not take its real shape unless soul uncovers to be free

Staunch Lover

He started tinkling in my heart and became just heart
My soul is a streak of light from that eternal fountain
He has taken over me never ever to leave or to depart
I am just a burning amber he is unlimited blazon sun

He is an umbrella and I am in his strong cover to exist
When he takes me over I remain no more but a shadow
It is great kindness on his part which I can not resist
I am just a tiny beam in that eternal ever growing glow

He loves me I love him and this is all what I can share
I am bestowed by his mercy And no one can dare to be
I am just a particle of dust he is the ever loving glare
In his presence I just see, see him to lose myself in thee

Love Stupid Love

Love is sheer stupidity it does not involve brain
With love train everything goes down the drain
So called vanity makes a lover sane to be insane
In its domain it travels on very difficult terrain

Love of youth is serious, love of old age takes life
In love one is in poverty love is nothing but strife
Love has all shades but what about love with wife
Love is that foe of yours which keeps one on knife

Being stupid I tasted love but it proved to be poison
It makes the action futile it takes all land just barren
Helplessness is its fruit it seems to be a show brazen
For some it is a fashion for others it remains famine

Love To Stay

Love enters from heart and nourishes in soul
It takes one to beauty and beauty remains goal
When it spreads from pore to pore, pole to pole
It dominates brain and takes one just as a whole

What a beauty and what charm to make it glow
When beauty strikes love to burst, love to blow
It is spring flowers to bloom do not be in a row
Beauty comes as a gift so beautiful has to show

Let my sweetheart to embrace let beauty portray
Let be light of my night let be just glare of the day
I must admit I must declare I vehemently pray
Let us be very good lovers and then for life to stay

Lips Pray

What is love you can ask this from a person in grip of death
When he will be leaving all but will definitely be able to tell
It is very difficult but good to see beloved to lose his breath
Love is a pain of life, pain of death but still to offer to dwell

With the Master for times to come after transitory departure
Soul will fly like a bird to be around and around the fountain
The beggar will go back to the Master for grace with candor
Like streak of light goes back in trance to burning blazon sun

Mercy, mercy, mercy and kindness becomes the order of the day
Disheartened souls will get solace in the lap of their real Master
Heart will tinkle and soul will dangle dance, lips if open will pray
Hence soul will be totally free from stress and strain and pressure

Flirt To Hurt

What type of girl she is nothing but flirt
On one pretext or another she is to hurt
Dancing swan, she is wearing white skirt
She makes me to see she keeps me alert

In the company of friends she leaves alone
I have to bear the brunt of a difficult time
I am on a stone while she keeps the throne
What is the taste of sin what is price of crime

Please do not play with my heart so tender
Be mine for a while I want to see you but all
Have a close look at me I am of your color
Once we were the lovers if you call to recall

To act holding hands and to be in love accord
Let my love to be head over heals in love to go
Whether we are on rocks or in some concord
A touch of beauty will take, make us to know

How love takes its roots in our heart and soul
How beauty celebrates its graces and charms
How in chain unity becomes a real clear goal
How every move uncovers with all set norms

My sweetheart you have taken real me from me
I am left with the treasure of your image to carry

Ecstatic Moments

When arrow of love hits and pierces two hearts
Amazing, intense, ecstatic moments to celebrate
Fortune brings every thing with clarity to charts
Love becomes wonderfully, beautifully moderate

In this jungle of humans it is good to have this time
Where love and beauty knit themselves in love chain
Then crop up just innocent sin and innocent crime
Beauty has its own pleasure and love has its own pain

Let my love try to understand idiosyncrasies of life
Let us be more frank, straightforward and just clear
If you want to kill, kill me once not in pieces with knife
In our love sphere please remain near my love so dear

Love Has No Criterion

Love has no criterion love can not be judged
It is a set of sentiments in a flowers wreath
It is a sign of beauty that makes love nudged
Love is like sharp sword, beauty is a sheath

Burning fire needs water, water is a symbol
Water is life but at times it is cause of death
Beauty is to baffle and has the wings of angel
Embrace me with love but don’t stop breath

Love is love till it is polluted with dishonesty
Beauty remains beauty till it is raped by touch
Cleanliness of eyes and heart make us just free
Things not as they are they do not look as such

Love my love can not develop in mistrust and distrust
It is developed in sincerity of heart and sacrifice of soul
No doubt it is thrust by fortune but to be saved from rust
It does not come in chunks it takes a person as a whole

Beauty also needs purity and chastity by love to discern
If it is polluted it is nothing but just a third class passion
You my love are seeking in the story what is my concern
A thing of beauty needs a specific mannerism and a fashion

Pain refines love and gives color to beauty what I learnt
Love takes life step by step, beauty follows pace to pace
Like a candle burns a moth, love with beauty is but burnt
But makes love and beauty to glow and celebrate the grace

I do not believe in false love so please do not cheat
Lovers remain lovers they are not players for tricks
You played with my heart and stolen my heartbeat
World is a place full of all types of sham dirty chicks

Do not blame me blame but your self for the crime
You have taken my heart and soul to make me beggar
You are victim of your ambitions and I am victim of time
I don't think you do have any plea for the acts or answer

So let us pay farewell to each other and bid but just adieu
Hence forth we will not make notorious the sacred love

You have taken my eyes I have no image to glow
Keeping your photo in front I am anxious to buss

To Take Altar

She has promised not to leave me alone
But in a hurry she is leaving me for ever
I have become a stone not to weep, moan
Whether I was a stupid or she was clever

She used to praise my eyes for our dreams
Now even eyes have gone waste for good
Leaving nothing she has taken her beams
Now I am confined to my own box of wood

I can feel her pain my heart is totally bruised
I can I reach her to tell her truth and reveal
I am cursing my self and the day introduced
To the deadly song of fate and to put a seal

Now I will embrace her in my dreams if possible
Now I will see her image in me in front of mirror
Being my own counsel I will report to my angel
I know that to be on altar I have to take my altar

I trap has been set to play with my sentiments
To open every lock she carries the same key
For each and every lover she carries comments

All her treasure she carries in her little palms
Interested can snatch just will and demand
Being cool and calm she offers charity and alms

Innocent Deed

You think you can cheat me being young and energetic
I tell you I have seen you very many through my journey
I am a man with experience and you are innocent chick
There is no dearth of just like you and me in this dirty city

So the only chance remains when we take love in reality
The taste and the intoxication is where ever we just opt
Being addicts of love no one can stop us we are but free
The mode and manner we have liberty to select and adopt

But chastity and purity make the affair more fair to take
Love and beauty either corrupted with lust and greed
All those who cross limits for taste and spice are but fake
Innocence of heart and eyes make pleasant a deed indeed

We were not in ourselves we were different in mood
From where to start and where to end or to conclude
One has to know nature then to see and then certitude
Love is in the veils beauty in the rails see the gratitude

Love And Lust

In a moment how many do you kiss and be kissed
Is it love or lust you must just be aware of this flaw
In return how many return love with love and missed
Is it in consonance with love, is it against natural law

At one time you can love or be- fool just particular one
Remaining are after you with animal pursuit and desire
Love is a serious affair it takes life and is not just a fun
Love is to offer sacrifice, not to ask for anything to aspire

Love is love, a matter of heart and soul and not just sex
If someone offers her private parts in public just to show
Hence love is to perplex and beauty must be like scolex
So love reciprocates to be sheer lust and beauty to blow

Your red lips kiss my lips which always appreciate beauty
As lover my beloved you give a chance and I take a chance
So we both feel pleased in life in a green golden beautiful sea

How to help with meager resources available
How to open the lock of fortune with key
How to help others how to be the real angel

May God give me strength and fortitude
To be like a burning candle to show the path
To all those who need help but lack aptitude

Take Me Through

Life from its very inception is under assaults of hell
Test after test, trouble after trouble torture after torture
Man till his last day is to forebear and just to dwell
He from the start till his end to pay the price like multure

What is heaven or hell these are two sides, shades of life
What is and what was not his choice for that to pay price
Life cuts him bit by bit and piece by piece by blunt knife
Time and again poor soul asks about the available choice

God and man man and God are in a line in consonance
Soul is in between to take the real pain and real pleasure
This is how man is tested for his fragrance and essence
Actions are clear but no one knows about hidden treasure

Megalomania

All of us one way or the other are victim of egotism
We enjoy and celebrate when we dominate others
In the process we sing our anthem and feel awesome
So in our own circus we prove to be good actors

Being hubris we look down upon all others as ninnies
And in spur of moment we forget how helps we are
We forget what tiny moment will cease and make us freeze
Being behind unseen bars we poor creatures are at war

Time determines ones endowment and intent to explore
His worth in this unlimited golden green ocean of life
We are just a straw in blunt blowing wind to take to roar
And on altar of life we can be butchered by a a blunt knife

Her fragrance and beauty bloom to be evergreen
My love is the one who can be compared just to none
Unaware of love she is a teen with naughty routine

She still does not know all the complexities of life
Her innocence is her guide which makes her unaware
She keeps me in trouble and drags me to a sharp knife
In the air of flair she accompanies me just everywhere

When she dangles and dances her bosom knot just jumps

I do not know why wind takes your red scarf
Why my love you were in a hurry just to leave
I failed to understand where ship will dwarf
But I do believe your red scarf will always grieve

Because it carries along the color of bruised heart
It is also stained with the red blood sentiments
Why rivals became successful and we are to depart
Why all and sundry have cheeks to offer comments

Brim Of Time

In sheer dejection one wants to touch brim of time
This is how things are realized and just acted upon Man remains ungrateful and in a hurry not loyal
From dawn to dusk and from dusk to real dawn

What a spice is a man what all he carries just along
A guided animal taking conscious as his sole guide
Intends always to collect wealth and life to prolong
In all odds and tests is most illogical far and wide

Helplessness is within hopeless is but all around
Tries to run from death which is just predestined
His place is nowhere but from ground to ground
He never opens up but remains throughout detained

Let me be frank we are just travelers in transit camp
Where time determines our sole entry and our exit
In the light of eternal lamp we either quit or put stamp
Either we go fit or unfit either in-debited or in profit

People play tricks to win the moment
Hounds, vultures are busy on ground
Very many odds that one has to confront

Humans are less while animals more
After every step there is but real trap
What to condemn and what just to adore
In winter bears await for any one to nap

Your bosom's knot is ready to bulldoze

Beauty Demands

Love has no language, every language is language of love
Kine-sics communicate more beautifully in real situations
Eyes with their movements communicate open just now
Love always remains in front while beauty behind cannons

Farhad being true lover of Shirin, an ordinary stone cutter
Embraced his love and could opt to dig a forty mile canal
Became extraordinary in his love pursuit being on love altar
Keeping in mind his rationale never ever lost his morale

Love is a constant and continuous torture with chains of gold
It makes a beggar a king with all luxuries and real pleasure
Beauty demands and tests a lover to come up to occasion be bold
Beauty is a worldly treasure of a beloved and lover is soothsayer

Intention Absolves

Nearing of moon to earth may bring storms in the tide
Attraction of beauty may bring love far just and wide
Fire may broke in rivals when we sit near side by side
Who can stop us from love when beauty acts as guide

Beauty portrays itself on verdict of love in clear terms
Then a moth in lunacy finds burning candles, squirms
When beauty in trance portrays to show itself affirms
Love my sweetheart crops up and vehemently affirms

Love is a real force on which entire universe revolves Beauty being burning candle slowly, steadily dissolves
Cleanliness of heart with sincerity of heart just evolves
In reality it is only chastity of intention which absolves

Merciless Love

Through my eyes it is to you whatever is love appeal
How much I love you my love only time will reveal
Real passion and real emotion will put irrevocable seal
Love is an eternal passion it is neither barter nor deal

If some bruises come to you I feel and undergo pain
I have become you my love totally lunatic and insane
Please do not ask me the pain and pleasure of chain
I don't mind even if in love I am just mercilessly slain

So let us enjoy real taste and spice of our innocent love
You carry my heart and soul with your flight my dove
Please do not ask me it happened when, where and how
But let me it will remain in us every moment from now

The Deadly Issue

Fear of unknown has viciously grown to tear me apart
Like deadly poison it has engulfed my heart and soul
It has corrupted my wit and intelligence being smart
Rather slowly and gradually it has taken me as a whole

In life this state is often in vogue as a satanic dirty trick
Vice apparently succeeds virtue to be tactful and smart
It takes its abode in heart first to pick and then to prick
At this trial only faith plays a real dominant role as art

Blessed are the ones who refine hearts as abode of God
They even if become victim can easily sneak through Save me from all embarrassments and give shelter my Lord
Help me graciously to come up and resolve deadly issue

The Windfall

In mountains and dales only love prevails
It is no matter who from where one hails
God is love a song is sung by nightingales
Love is just what every living heart assails

Beauty intoxicates and takes its real control
Real part is played by lover's heart and soul
Creation becomes its ultimate eternal goal
Pain of love is what takes one as a whole

My sweet beloved are you ready for the trial
Before you are totally lost and just beguile
Think about the intricacies of love for a while Before you are thrown to ocean from the soil

Let be clear love takes in a wink but just all
Only chosen one are eligible for the real call
For others it is set of hurdles wall after wall
Only men of heart encounter to get windfall

The moment I touched clear blue sky
The moment you whispered the part
The moment I forgot to be bird to fly

The moment I kissed on your red lips
The moment I felt taste of the real wine
The moment my heart dangles it trips

To Take Course

She wants me to put my sensibility against her sensuality
So that both of us to taste pleasure of life in its entirety
Hence to be more romantic, ultimately to be totally free
I do have an eye on her graces and charms to really see

Love has overtaken by lust lust to be naked to appreciate
I have done it once and still aspiring to be the victim of fate
Moments are colorful and beauty seems beautifully great
I do not know to what a limit I resist and just to tolerate

Her every beam invites me to take her to my real life line
She embraces me in my dreams and in reality to be mine
In faithless weather she seems to be a ope bottle of wine
Let nature takes its course let beauty portray her design

She says she is another drop of water in the ocean
It means she does not know the fate of a tiny drop
She says a drop of water carries rainbow with sun
She does not know after that glow life is just to stop

She says she lives with me in my heart in my room
And she tastes me till the first lovely streak of dawn
But she does not know the real dejection and gloom
She carries in her beauty the romantic dance of swan

Life is in transit, love in trance and beauty in romance
So no one is clear and sure about the coming destination
A drop of dew is in love with a streak of sun to dance

Come Closer

My sweetheart will keep me in her eyes
Hence beauty will hide with her white lies
Love has but all plaintive cries with sighs
Can we be the guest just in the blue skies

You are like grapes so juicy and so sweet
Love will process you will make you wine
My lips need some fire with glowing heat
My heartbeat will declare beauty is mine

Let me take your color, let me be your color
Before my heart stop before my eyes to blur
Before my heart to stop I want to come closer
Even if it is too late still I request some favor

Your beauty carries fire and love is also fire
Hence when fire will touch fire with desire
So one has to burn and one has to just retire
Beauty in love attire makes but love expire

Love Tales

Spirit of the Lord leads me to love to pledge
In the process my tears like rain take to ridge
Pain is associated with love to take to the ridge
In real trance beauty takes love to make bridge

Lord is the fountain of all love and beauty to see
When drop changes into drop and when in sea
It is not easy just to capture moment of eternity
Let us take key and be associated you and me

Moments of trance take to intoxicate like cocktails
Courage makes no sense and confidence just fails

He is who has given me intellect with brilliance
It is he who has given me fortitude and resilience
At times I do laugh on my stupidity, imprudence

He has destined me to capture his beauty thru
My Sweetheart my love I love you, I love you

Meanest To Adjust

If distance can be maintained then relation be sustained
With sincerity of heart real balance can be attained
With mutual trust and respect objective can be obtained
This is how lost glory by people can just be regained

Great people and great nations are product of real trust
All rascals and mean like watery bubbles are to burst
Polluted minds are to rust, with being notorious go to dust
Blessed ones are rewarded meanest are required to adjust

Your innocence spreads in the room like an innocent bower
You are an endless stream of beauty, love takes eternal shower
Beauty is real queen of night and love is like a relentless chaser

My sweetheart like flower of night you cherish and bloom in night
Your real charms crop up to touch edge of eternity to take to fight
My eyes have your light so it is you to remain always in my sight
You are so beautiful so charming and like glowing light so bright

But coincidentally fortune became fate to pay a trick to your graces

Where we touch the heights or go down the drain
Which may bring in all luxuries of life or wrath

Nothing is at our disposal I declare and agree

Real Statement

Love blooms in very many colors and shades
Ready to cut beauty in pieces with its blades
Apparently lover and beloved are comrades
But in reality are victim of fits and the raids

Satanic rivals just play all their dirty tricks
Hatred is being developed bricks by bricks
World is full of so called critics and cynics
Still innocent hearts do prefer to sing lyrics

Beauty has just very many shades to present
But in every shape it is beautiful and brilliant
It blooms, nourishes from moment to moment
Beauty is always fragrant in its real statement

Please take care my love my dear

Ascetic you are for this real flight
Beams and streaks of beauty take me
My all around I see glowing light
A drop is dancing in clear green sea

Soul my love is servant of real lord
Heart is but the actual place to reside
Even if life remains blunt and hard
But its impact dances far and wide

Time Is To Fix

People do not show their real races
They hide them just behind the mask
With a mischievous smile in faces
Different obnoxious questions they ask

By portraying a friend the stab in back
This is how their intentions are known
Their heart and faces are equally black
Habitually they are bad and are prone

Satan is their master to tell and guide
How they can promote their dirty tricks
They use all under hand methods to ride
Time is ready to fix for fault in genetics

Rosy Glow

My love I saw you in a dream with rosy glow
Please just do not ask me the price of the show
You are unaware of love blow but I do know
That how enchanting beauty in my veins to flow

Love is neither comedy nor take it as a tragedy
But still it is that wonderful heavenly golden key
Which opens those closed doors of beloved free
Through which a lover has taken away his fairy

My sweetheart please do not be victim of rivals
Let us be fair, frank in our approach like angels
Even if by people we are just considered as rebels
Let be like a beacon of light to create the miracles

Stance Is Grand

I was a real strong man but your love
Has taken me over in such a manner
My heart and eyes have stolen my dove
That now I have gone down to an altar

My heartbeat takes only on your name
My eyes have gone but image remained
My love how can I give you any blame
When I am severely injured but sustained

You are a real woman I must just admit
But I am no more a real man understand
My complaint to which I honestly submit

Ecstasy And Taste

My love for your sake I can bear any pain
In severe cold winter without attire in rain
I can smilingly take all contempt and disdain
People may call me just lunatic and insane

Let me tell you about ecstasy and the taste
My heart remains pure my soul is so chaste
I don't know to whom in lunacy I embraced
I am in my staunch lover apparently defaced

My love travels in me and I travel in trance
He wants me badly and I also take a chance
I do not know if it was a blunder or a glance
What my eyes see now we both are in dance

Love And Lover

Real lover is neither uncovered nor seen
It does require heart to be clean and keen
That remains total deception what is seen
Wisdom remains with the lines in between

Hidden treasure is real lover to be explored
All hardships and hurdles are to be ignored
It is desire of a beggar which is to be implored
This is a state where one wants to be overboard

Love, lover and beloved are image of the same
They are like a candle to carry but one flame
They in reality are side by side with one name
If they are separated the starts real blame game

Her Real Abode

Soul when left its origin wept and cried
Because she never wanted to be away
From her lover but became victim of tide
But then departed like a light ray to say

She will be back with her ultimate lover
And lover agreed for her real elevation
And sent her to bloom in real candor
This is how both sought real salvation

But after coming to the real taste of life
Soul became disappointed for her retreat
Who can say that who remained on knife
Taking this state heart came heartbeat

Now Soul is enchanted for her real abode
She remains thirsty to take water of source
But as a promise she can not break the code
Hence being dejected remains in remorse

Love By Idiots

Love is a joke between two idiots
Who do not understand it just cuts
Fake certificates declare illiterates
This is how they make their huts

When they go through its real fire
They immediately bound to retire
This is how they think and aspire
They term their love just their desire

Love is just an idiots tale with trail
This is how they always just fail
What is love where beauty is to hail
Only pleasure is together they sail

Through out my life I could bear torture and pain
On your verdict I tried to bear all stress and strain

With my positive attitude I could climb all altitude
Through out my life I never changed my attitude

But now my dear Lord I can't bear more troubles
My all real fortitude have gone down to bubbles
Now in this state I can not even lit to light candles

The Musketeers

The Musketeers
This world is full of musketeers to cheat
They wear very many faces on the street
Their actions are soft with talk so sweet
This is how they attack on and try to beat

Simple and innocent people are their victims
These are their traditions and their customs
How can solve stupids these conundrums
Hence for their protection they seek asylums

What is this equation of just wise and fools

Life should be guided by justice and rules

Soul To Ameliorate

When fire burns and becomes a glow
Then it in its true colors it is to show
What is fire how it burns how to blow
In its entirety, intensity its never slow

When put iron in it iron takes color
Being red hot it takes ones eyes blur
Only iron can taste the taste of altar
Iron becomes fire and has to suffer

A drop of water in ocean is but ocean
A streak of light when touches sun
Automatically becomes a part none
But sun embraces it to be just like sun

Love is a fire and beauty is like iron
When they embrace they just stun
Only fire remains in this blunt action
One remains in real words but one

Soul and God embrace to celebrate
Less oneness all remaining to negate
To be great all trouble is to tolerate
Only then soul shines to ameliorate

Broken Love

Being young and stupid I was by taken over
By a mature and clever woman with desire
She had all the skills of a very good actor
She with half attire wanted me to admire

All her body with everything underneath
Hence she made me to kiss and caress that all
I like newly born little soul searched beneath
And she played me dirty to be victim to fall

Purity of love was butchered on dirty beauty
She showed me all paths leading to lusty greed
Being unable to resist I took fruit from tree
So i was no more to say something or to plead

After some years I saw an angel who need love
Because of her sheer innocence I took her on
In praise of alluring beauty of innocent dove
I came out from darkness to be poet of dawn

All around me is the fragrance alive
In your ocean green eyes I want to dive
Let me see what price I have to pay
If my life is needed I offer I must say
But your image my eyes will take
This is only for alluring beauty sake
Let us be together on love zigzag path
For this venture I accept all wrath

Pain With Smile

Life is like an endless pain to bear with smile
Relief may come to man in trouble for a while Under tension becomes difficult to reconcile
How can one escape from this rut for a while

It is just but a series of tests to really ascertain
In the process one has to lose, one has to gain
It is a chain of odds linked with pain after pain
At times it affects heart and at times just brain

Love is only passion which tries to just sooth
In all this falsehood it remains the only truth
It affects more in old age than in real youth

Positive Attitude

Life is full of problems, miseries and hardships
To encounter any hurdle one has very many dips
Very many complaints remain under the lips
Very many sweet full moons remain under eclipse

What mockery is a man's life what test it takes Soul remains always in trouble and heart just aches
In the hour of trial no one is there who partakes
Lot many chances do come in life but mistakes

Never leaves one to be able to be on path of solace
Heightened sentiments when encounter real grace
When one decides to take on difficulty face to face
Courage and confidence travels from race to race

Hope is hallmark of men who suffer with solitude
They are always ready to pay homage with gratitude
One has to remain happy and never ever be rude
What makes real difference is ones positive attitude

Desire Till Expire

Love is to burn and beauty is to discern
It is a point from where there is no return
Hence I have my concern to be more stern
We both enjoy and celebrate our pattern

Let me see in your eyes to nurture romance
Come in my arms to celebrate and to dance
How can I forget your sweet and lovely glance
Beauty gives chance and love takes chance

From the day I am in love I burn in love fire
With every flame of fire I inspire to admire
My rivals inquire what I got from love desire
But I want to continue with desire till I expire

State Of Lover

Love terrain is very very difficult and different
It goes through chaos with color of contempt
Beloved enjoys it being princess to be ardent Lover has to be bold enough to bear the brunt

Love has different moods and different shades
Beauty has the raids with sharp and blunt blades
My innocent sweetheart when comes in braids
Then she takeover all and vehemently invades

She is not aware of force and strength of beauty
Everyone who is in love must admit and agree
Love is at glance and not on any real valid plea
But imagine what the state of real lover could be

Ghazal 8

Your smile has taken away my heart
Now remains like a light ray my heart
You have just injured and bruised me
But still love only love say my heart
Your beauty sparkles in sheer darkness
My love glistens like a pray of my heart
My rivals try to make me just astray
Play dirty tricks to them anyway my heart
I know that you are young and sweet
But with your beauty don't slay my heart
Please take my life I just don't mind
But please do not ever betray my heart
Be a painter and paint aspects of life
With red blood color portray my heart
Be brave Mehr take your beloved along
In front of all praise everyday my heart

When you come in my dream and I stroke hair

When I look down in to your eyes you just smile

Chastity Of Soul

Soul from day one is in trouble and dejection
Because it has never opted as a choice to accept
To be secluded from its real origin as selection
It was verdict of the Master to take the concept

Soul is in search of Lord to be back in the ocean
A drop of water has no entity in the real source
Only intention is granted but devoid of any action
What remains with man is pain and just remorse

Love of soul is entrance in search or real beauty
Constantly and consistently it is in search of truth
From a chained state it always tries to be just free
World has failed to snatch its chastity to be uncouth

God has heart of a staunch lover so He loves His creation
Man has heart and will so he takes on this love to celebrate

He loves being Creator and showers His kindness for humans
Man is just a drop of water Creator is unbounded ocean to see Man when comes to love His Creator then he takes in him suns

Colors Of Universe

My love beware of the treasure you are carrying along
Any thief may try to steel it from you in wink of an eye
You do not know the price and worth whatever belong
You have all the colors of universe my innocent butterfly

World is full of all, who can deceive you in a moment
Then nothing in world be able to compensate your loss
In that hour of trial your sky will be devoid of crescent
In this state of ethos you will just come across only chaos

Please do realize treasure once lost becomes a commodity
Love does not buy a beauty which has passed thru eclipse
Love remains nascent till the time is not touched by beauty

In the darkness I can't see destination
This is how I celebrate my incarnation

Love has taken all my life and death
In state its difficult to take the breath

Do I see truth or nothing else but myth

Pain has sapped all my ability, intellect
I am no more if you ask stance in fact
I have no choice just to select or elect

My Lord is savior under circumstances
Only He can give many more chances
So I hoot care whatever the instances

The Target

Man is surrounded but by difficulties in all aspects
Most of the time he has to pay the price for defects
Divine angels are guarding the neglect sof suspects
Survival of the fittest make hurdles for all subjects

Continuous struggle can take the victims out of rut
Man is what and what is his fate being in the transit
Unity is abolished and man is in dire need of the unit
And Satan is also in the path to get flattened target

In severe helplessness one shouldn't break the chain
All miseries, odds and torture just go down the drain
Today may be worse badly inflicted by flooded rain
Tomorrow is another day when sun will shine again

See In Mirror

If you want to see what you are see in mirror
It will determine your exact worth and price
Subject to the condition your eyes are not blur
If heart is clean virtue speaks louder than vice

Religions and morality convert animal to man
They sparkle to convert darkness to real light
A good person will do good which he will, can Sight being clear and clean changes in to insight

When it dawns then path becomes clear to tread
Dark shadows disappear, images make all clear
Golden pearls of wisdom spread ahead instead
From every sphere of life we have to conquer fear

Father's Maid Servant

English language remained father's maid servant
Who played with her beauty for thirty five years
He passed it on to us to take, to the bear brunt
We loved to be on the line to embrace the veers

We have a claim of native with spark of language
To cross the barriers it has provided us the bridge
We salute to our father who has given us courage
And helped us to portray and celebrate his image

Let us not give to any Tom, Dick and Harry a chance

The Bondage

Relations are double edged weapon which cut
Whether they are paternal or maternal as may be Due to their poisonous attitude we have to shut
The door of bondage to set us out of chains to free

Maternal relations are like dress, can be changed
Paternal relations are in blood hence suck blood
These are the omens which can not be exchanged
Which make blood dirty but remain just like flood

All people are ridden by this relation as mockery
They are the ones who should take sufferings along
Their ruthless behavior makes me angry and crazy
When relations are so wrong how can they be strong

Burning candle has never kissed the light of moth

Religious Jugglers

With faces so different and indifferent hearts
They play with humanity for small benefits
Maintain their financial charts on their arts
On the name of religion they implement writs

For every crime and sin they pay the price
Confession and price give them liberty to do
For every such action there is different device
Hence they portray them pure as drop of dew

Forsaken by God and overtaken by humanity
They play dirty in sheer dark to remain hidden
When humanity from their cruel clutches be free
When they will be damned to eat fruit forbidden

No choice in birth and no choice in death

If an action is accompanied then one is rebel

Life is a continuous struggle as it is just said

World is only two moments, why resurrection

Weak Thread Relations

All so called blood relations have gone to dogs
Either they are blood thirsty or weak like thread
Faces and hearts are filled with filth as prologues
Want to snatch away even last loaves of bread

Sell coffins of their dear ones to make them naked
They are constant buyers of contempt and hatred
They get their buds nurtured with loved ones blood
Their actions speak louder than their words avid

In this jungle of humans I am counting my breath
Come and take me along, Oh death, sweet death

Please come down to me like a Creator to embrace
What is life and death and what remains in between
I am pale yellow in illness only you can make green
I was sent to this world which was not as per choice
Hence I as a right have a right to be happy to rejoice
But still I know the state of my helplessness as man

Dirty Deeds

Man of tricks never ever succeeds
Why to play with broken beads
Third rate man with dirty deeds
Sows dirty seeds, get dirty needs

Man is but master of tricks of trade
Cuts innocent other with sharp blade
To get his greed he is to serenade
Hence gets his face just fade to fade

Lust runs in veins like dirty blood
Hence he becomes victim of flood
Injures himself being a cactus bud
Dirty mud just goes back to mud

Price I Know

From birth to death I am in balusrade
This is the price of life what I have paid
Throughout my life I have been betrayed
People have left no point to just degrade

In my rivals, relatives and my maid alike
Blunt blades were ready to hit and strike
Score of dislike was more than just like
But I remained a man like just rock-like

I still believe no one can beat me hollow
I am a staunch believer of rules to follow
My inner light makes me grow and glow
What I am and what is my price I know

Love is nothing but treasure of the universe
Only fortunate can win its beautiful hand
Love has many colors, it's colorful and diverse
Love is quality of God and of its own brand

Beauty is that eternal fountain which is known
For its streams to make fertile the barren hearts
Blessed is the one who comes in its chosen zone
Many a times it makes a lover parts and departs

Love is like a whirlwind and it is like a quicksand
It swallows the victim with just its complete force
Love has its abode on the sky as well as on the land
It is like a beautiful kiss of a lovely miss to endorse

Your Beautiful Canvas

Oh my God, please cover me with your colorful veil
Help me not to derail in this world of strangeness
Give me strong wings to fly, give me courage to sail
Paint me with your color from your beautiful canvas

Make me to stand on my feet to move with all grace
Change my nature to a wonderful being not just wild
Protect me in your lap, take in your arms to embrace

Less you no one cares me while you have very many
Please make me your staunch servant to make me free
I am a sinner and full of sins please do not get angry

Abuse At Our Back

We have nothing to share but to abuse at our back
Down trodden people with strayed, misled track
Muddy eyes with dirty hearts so black just to slack
This is how hypocrites attack on each other to ransack

We talk and talk just nonsense and all but rubbish
We in our interest are very clever and very selfish
Hence human values are too devilish to accomplish
How can we refine ourselves with an innocent wish

Let us be honest in our approach to be just straight Closed darkened ways to be enlightened our gate
Fate only then changes in to fortune to reciprocate
Sincerity takes us to the gallows to make us great

In love one is to be burnt or to burn
Where beauty takes U turn is no return
Experience takes one to gallows to yearn

Love has to show boldly its own concern

Charasmatic Image

When your fragrance comes to surround
My sweetheart I just feel you all around
Your presence takes me above the ground
For my love beauty keeps musical sound

Let me love you and your charismatic image
Let my love make a chain with beauty's bridge
Let us pass gracefully through life's broken ridge
Let me be straight to pass my real love message

Without you my survival be really at the stake
Only love is real in this world so sham and fake
My sweetheart I can do everything for your sake
I am like a lake and you are white lotus in the lake

At Shore

When water kisses your body at shore
When waves kiss your charms in trance
Your charms travels from pore to pore
My soul at a glance just starts to dance

I kiss my love your charms in dream
I feel your taste in every up and down
You travel in me like lightening beam
When I wear you my dear beauty crown

Our flight is like on an ever eternal edge
Our communion is beyond any time frame
Love and beauty are knitted in a bridge
Love is so serious its not an innocent game

Conflicts Of Mind

Love is nothing but a conflict of mind
Which makes a lover just totally blind
At times it is cruel but at times it is kind
It takes one to dreams never ever to find

What is beauty, it is but light to bloom
At times it is pleasure at times just gloom
It is heart taking fragrance in empty room
It is nothing else but like your perfume

May I take just some moments on loan
Please be kind don't have heart of stone
Concern is that which is openly shown
Princess of my heart my heart is throne

The Vengeance

In all Holy Books and all Holy Scriptures
Revenge for revenge is the verdict of God
In all crimes sins and such other fixtures
One has a right to reciprocate as per Lord

Life for life tooth for tooth and eye for eye
In The Torah The Bible and The Holy Quran
From the lowest of earth and up to the sky
From every darkest night till enlightened dawn

The rule of law for any loss is to abide, follow
However forgiveness is needed and desired
Man being victim of his instinct and hollow
At times just by Satan being reared and fired

Lips In Chain

Your red red lips make me to kiss
My love, sweetheart my sweetest miss
Your elegant graceful gait princess
Make you for me an eternal bliss

When you move you make heart dangle
As the musical sweet sound of bangle
You are so perfect from every angle
Your curly hair on back in wrangle

Taste of lips like real champagne
Which always keep my lips in chain
Let us dance just in drizzling rain
Your beauty always makes my love slain

Love Is What

Love is what just love is not
Like a beloved's bosom knot
Like a beggar's empty pot
Under all circumstances hot

Beauty is like full moonlit night
Sight which conquers all insight
Bigger than a mountain height
Spreads along like eternal light

Kiss of love makes beauty spark
Then both sing like innocent lark
When both in trance come on mark
Abolish from all around sheer dark

Human Action

Human action is linchpin of fortune
On which heart dances it is the tune
Active life needs passion with fashion
For lover every season is love season

When beauty blossoms love is to take
From the surroundings that hot cake
Beloved is chaste like lotus in the lake
Fragrance blooms to take and partake

Life is nothing but struggle on altar
Loser always remains the defaulter
At times vision becomes but just blur
Flower dies in autumn, takes life after

Complexities Of Life

Complexities of life can be understood but can be shown
From birth till death man remains just in the danger zone
One should not have a living heart but just heart of stone
By the end of the day destitute soul has nothing to own

Humans are in unknown, unseen chains always to suffer
On this world stage we come and go like nominated actors
Keeping in eyes life full of flowers we smilingly face altars
What we are completely borrowed souls and bodies in cover

What is life a dream in dream with all the fits of insanity
What we have been ordered we are but bound to agree
World is an ocean full of whirlwinds and to face without plea
What is fate written somewhere and what is fortune let us see

How to break these chains to come out of cruel clutches of life
We have to travel per force with bare feet on sharp blunt knife
At times we are on swing of luxuries and at times just in strife
From these unseen chains man wants to be free just like a rife

Magic Dance

Your beauty is like fire gives warmth and light
It changes my love into fortune from a plight
My love you are in sight and remain in sight
It creates miracles when love takes eternal flight

Let my love play with strings of beauty in mood
Do not waste time being vehemently cruel, rude
Love is in search of just beauty's sincere gratitude
Let make all love whispers love’s base and prelude

Let me love you to make spring more romantic
Before its too late let us be really prompt, quick
Let the tower of lover be developed brick by brick
In entire world there is no one like you my chick

Your beauty has taken over love just at a glance
If you ask me I do not want to take any chance
In this state of sheer love and dangling romance
Let our souls hand in hand go for a magic dance

The Father

Father is a disciplinarian from beginning to end
He is the master who has to set the eternal trend
He makes his wards to stand up and never bend
The message of humanity he has to take and send

Being strict in rule he is not liked by all and sundry
But he is the one who makes his generations free
He is representative of God and he holds valid plea
He trains his wards to sail honorably in violent sea

He takes his onerous task with smile to perform
He teaches all skills and also teaches all the norm
In chilling snowy season of odds keeps wards warm
He is love in entirety and makes concern conform

Image of God with love of many mothers for wards
Being an ordinary person makes his wards the lords
Being a staunch guard is always happy and guards
Keeps in fact intact all strings of beauty, love chords

Is nothing else but image of Thee
Truth is light which I do believe
My love falsehood is bound to leave

God is Truth, love and sheer beauty

Seeds Of Hatred

They could not sow anything else but seeds of hatred
Now what will crop up nothing less buds with blood
The next generation is of bloody thirst hounds avid
How can love overcome when nothing remains sacred

Gift of father travels through very many generations
It becomes root cause of all evils in many great nations
It corrupts worthy daughters becomes debacle for sons
When atmosphere becomes sheer dark without beckons

Prayers are destitute slogans are but just sham excuse
Only charity remains in the shape of just utter refuse
It is not possible now to inject life or confidence to infuse
Bruised minds and injured hearts will not be able to diffuse

Time can not wait for stupids to come up to the occasion
Broken donkeys are unable to carry troublesome burden

Real pragmatic people believe in life in action and function

Beauty is a light which just swarms on its brim
Odds and sacrifices make valiant to fly to trim
One who dares never encounters situation grim

Lover has boat of strength with its strong mast
With his love anchor he can encounter holocaust
Beauty with her graces can make him to blast
Time becomes still whether future, present, past

Love surmounts and surpass every eventuality
It takes on charge to abolish every fear and pity
In the company of sweetheart being smart, pretty
Love surpasses all hindrances and odds to be free

Virtuous Stands

What a world is and what is its real flow
Every one carries a Satan in his shadow
No one bothers unless encounters a blow
Hypocrisy dangles and dances in its show

One face carries but very many false faces
Humans in their all hatred go along races
All graces just carry real inherent disgraces
Morally corrupt people go along stray paces

Lust has crossed all illegal, illicit demands

World We View

My love how many faces do you wear
Why you ruthlessly my heart just tear
Whatever harsh words, cruelties I bear
Still I love you my love in front I swear

Life is a set of strange happenings, events
Dark incidents leave aside all dark prints
At times it seems that all of us are on rents
Either in sand castles or on mountain tents

Hatred travels with love just side by side
Conscience dictates all along as a guide
Man plays tricks all along far and wide

A Circumstance

Life is a sentence without any full stop or comma
With painful stretches it is just nothing but trauma
A full story of conflict with an anti climax drama
Sometimes it is pure devil and sometimes its santa
At times it is an idea but at times it is full of inertia
At times it is Ophelia and at another just a replica
In every persona it remains like a test of ones stamina
In drizzling rain it just becomes for every ones umbrella

So let us taste graces and oddities of life in real trance
Let us be pragmatic enough to take chance after chance
We may mourn it just miserably or be ready for a dance
If you ask my opinion it is a lover's thirsty eyes glance
One may be saved with the power of love and romance
Whether it is ones fate or fortune based on circumstance

If you leave me alone I can not defend myself on any plea
Whatever may be the state of my fate or my fortune could be

I may or may not survive but from you the strength I derive
Which will make me till last to just gracefully strive to thrive
In this state of consistent lunacy If after all want me to revive
I am totally dependent on your graces please help me survive

Bullet On Chest

After lot many turns when one returns to his eternal abode
Then another life presents to him another musical ode
Life after life follows its code in its real pertinent mode
All burden of dust to unload to be again on destined road

Life is a series which carries along just very many shades
At times on bed of roses at times on sharp and blunt blades
Through zig zag paths it encounters very many dirty raids
It blossoms like rose through oceans it wades and then fades

Daring and dashing with pride take their objective and target
With their zeal and zest they aspire to encounter and just cut
They do not mind what danger lies where and situation is what
They never turn back and take on their chest the bloody bullet

The Departure

Dust goes to dust and light goes to light
What one takes is just a wonderful flight
When beauty of Creator just comes in sight
Then love is bound just to be more bright
Vice brings wrong but virtue brings right
On call of Master soul rushes like a kite
Body goes down but soul touches height
For a lover it is an experience full of delight

Man right from birth is in search of pleasure
Master for him is like a total hidden treasure
Man in search of beauty is a relentless lover

Then emerges on the life horizon real picture
Then state of happiness one can not measure

As Chain

Kiss of muse is like arrow of cupid
It seeks sacrifice from blood to blood
When love behaves like a violent flood
Then beauty presents it more candid

Charms and graces play their role
When cheeks are kissed on thy mole
When love travels from pole to pole
Then soul just also loses its control

Love with beauty makes dance in rain
Pleasure takes over but every pain
What ever is, loss sparkles like gain
Then love takes over beauty as chain

Wonderful Piece Of Art

My smart sweetheart has taken away my heart
I know we live far far away and just poles apart
But let me tell you she is wonderful piece of art

I am really impressed with her innocent tricks
At times she really clicks and suddenly pricks
A sweet caring beauty well versed with ethics
Rainbow is nothing but colors of her lipsticks

How can I please her and praise her all graces
At times she kisses and vehemently embraces

God Correct My Ways

My Master is being kind keeps me happy under all circumstances
Ignores all, chance after chance just gives me very many chances
Helps me to encounter all difficulties as well as difficult challenges
He overlooks my all sins and actions and whatever over indulgences

Under sheer disgust and disappointments I always look towards Him
When I become seriously ill and all healers make me hopeless and grim
His kindness prevails over and empowers all odd situations up to brim
I love you at the peril of my life I bow in front of you with just my whim

My dearest God My ultimate Love, Truth and Beauty let me praise
My soul is reinvigorated with Your Love phrase just in every phase
Under complete love and affection I want to touch glory with craze

Love At Peak

With his full greed and lust Satan runs in my blood
Makes my lust and sensuality to stir like violent flood
All beauty of the world starts blossoming like a bud
My soul is reinvigorated my strength makes me stud

My all emotions arise my love takes all beauty to suck
From every green branch all flowers I want to pluck
My youth is at its peak so every beauty wants to struck
My love is on fire her beauty is ready to play havoc

My life has its taste my sentiments touch the green sky
With my sweetheart I want to dangle dance and to fly
Every beauty should be ready to give my love just a try
Love is at its peak beauty is ready to kiss from eye to eye

World is so beautiful with chains of society and religion
All these hurdles make me take my taste and just run
All is but transitory carrying all its pun with all fun
When I see love and beauty, priest and nun one on one

When I whisper in your ear your cheeks become red
Your sparkling eyes tell me with a taste to go ahead
Precious pearls are always found my love in riverbed
Most of love emotions are communicated just unsaid

My beautiful queen of world let me see you in detail
Being a sincere lover, my love I never ever want to fail
Breeze plays with your vale let my love chance to avail
Beauty takes over love and love is just ready to prevail

What I Saw

I saw in trance my body leaving soul
My body has changed back to mud
In particles body is to decay as whole
Then particles are taken away by flood

What is life and what is ultimate death
What is soul is a just a streak of light
Light and darkness are to gather to breath
Life and death is a just two way flight

Man comes to the world with a message
He is bound to follow the verdict of God
He has to cross ridge to establish bridge
To be grateful to God give a big applaud

So sweet you are that I can not explain in words
We are songbirds and we have to set standards

Flowers blossom in such a way only in real spring
Let my love give your beauty a wonderful swing
Let me compose many songs on your beauty to sing
Allow me to beautifully make a love chain and string

Only you care for me in this cruel world of hawks
In your company I can encounter all blocks, rocks
Let us just cherish our all hidden and inherent talks
Let us bear together all lovely and violent shocks

Even if we die but our longing will travel for ever

With fire of love beauty is bound to blow
World has nothing more beautiful to show

Man Of Principles

People with their dirty tricks so cheap
Should be ready for the harvests to reap
Simple words with meanings so deep
Hatred and venom like snake to creep

From their dirty path they never retreat
Blunt, sharp knife hidden with smile sweet
With dirty designs carry just white sheet
Covered with religion want to just greet

Satan has a large family to play surpass
Who can see their faces in a mirror glass
What could be the fate of humanity alas
Trespassers will never be able to harass

When truth prevails falsehood is to vanish
Virtue remains wish and vice is just blemish
Laziness remains sluggish is bound to perish
Only man of principles comes up as stylish

I can sacrifice my life on intensity and warmth of love
You are so beautiful so grand, no one is of your brand
I remain down the drain and you are up in sky above

Let me cherish embers of beauty in lovely love flames
Take me to the heights where may touch drops of dew
I want to be with you on eternal heights with my claims
Where we should be through, I shouldn't find any clue

A Stranger

From birth till death we just remain strangers
We have to pay to beauty for all love errors
By being on bed of roses we take other to altars
We consider we play tricks but we are defaulters

A stranger can not show sincerity in his tribute
You send flowers and in return you just shoot
Mannerism tells you in respect you have to salute
For future reference don't indulge in such pursuit

Strangers remain as they are not even acquaintance
Never ever seriously taken their essence and fragrance
Science and morality has failed to lessen the distance
I am neither a lover nor friend but still feel her presence

Oneness To Bloom

When love proposes action beauty surpasses reflection
Only survives enchanting chain remaining goes to none
When beloved is in arms then universe seems crimson
Love is in my blood like my innocent, violent passion

Love is when you that you are not but love is all around
When love is in line of beauty then one becomes bound
To see what all is real to listen to the inner eternal sound
Then all is on horizon and nothing remains on the ground

My beloved let me taste what all your beauty is to portray
Tear me in to pieces and enter like blazon burning sun ray
You are like darkness of my life you are like dawn of the day
Let us embrace in sheer trance and let us sing and let us pray

It is oneness which remains it is a flower which is to bloom
It is only one tinkling of heart while both of us we are in room
In all this vacuum it is love and beauty which need to resume
Do not measure my love, you will never ever measure its volume

To Be Greener

Man is born free but he is in chains everywhere
This is what a soothsayer like Plato has to share
No doubt he comes to the world with good flair
But there are very many obstacles on way to scare
No doubt that in creation he is supreme and rare
With his candor and cadence he has guts to scare
Being short sighted he is not ready to avoid or spare
All his enemies rivals who are hidden in holes there

Being crown of creation he was sent to see conquer
His destination is clear even path may be just blur
He communicates with heart even language is slur
With very many faces he may be an actor or author
He opens a chapter, with zeal and zest plays in cenetr
He was sent down to the drain but climbs as a climber
Being on image of God he plays hell with satanic figure
He blooms in spring, withers in autumn to be greener

The Divine Gift

I am beloved of God my soul is the divine gift
Separation from the origin was a painful shift
God made me on His image, my move was swift
The sad part of story was entrance of Satan's rift

Who made me a sinner and played with sincerity
Took me to the gallows without disparity, clarity
Sad part was exit from heaven, painful world entry
World is full of pleasure but to me it is just ennui

When soul leaves the body, goes back to its lover
Its path is enlightened When it goes in golden cover
No one can appreciate what may be zeal and fervor
Let me tell you my friend God’s love is a great honor

Hymn To God

It is difficult to swallow when vision becomes reality
Man is in chains from birth without a single moment free
What seems it is not, what is not just to uncover to see
Truth is out of bounds and seems just beyond any plea

Truth can not be seen in pieces virtue carries its reward
The fountain of all love, truth and beauty is my God
With all His graces He is my savior and He is my Lord
With all my idiosyncrasies, weaknesses I am His ward

The Natives

Life is a transit camp and moments are caged
In our imprisonment for what we are gauged
When every act, every move is properly paged
Without our desire and our liking we are staged

People in robes tell that we are accounted for
We listen to their malicious sermons and snore
Apparently born free but we are behind the bar
To this vicious circle for forgiveness we implore

God is so merciful and just sparingly forgives
Only He is the one who knows our all motives
He loves us not just as captives but as real natives
He rewards us for our all intentions and initiatives

In Sojourn To Discern

My innocent princess your glowing eyes dictate
It seems that you want to cut straight to my heart
Let your beauty be straight and frank just to state
That love and beauty are same and not poles apart

Your graces and intuition make you great to declare
That you have been created in paradise with a glow
That your flair and glare definitely makes you rare
God has sent you to the world, His beauty to show

So you are not part of this world but a light in trance
Through the centuries like a candle you burn to turn
Every darkness from the face of earth to give a chance
With modern pattern to the world in sojourn to discern

The Providence

Master and servant ca never be equal in their domain
Master is to issue orders about all servant is to sustain
The relation of servant is to obey orders to forebear pain
Master with His Providence sends love in merciful rain

I am a tiny little particle of my Masters grace and grandeur
He is the purest of all and hence likes who's heart is pure
With my so called little patience He orders me to endure
Like good servant I try my level best to complete my tenure

He loves me like mother and nurtures me like real father
He cares me a lot when my vision is just completely blur
I am sincere in my submission, He is mercifully candor
In all trials and tribulations He provides me complete cover

His love is supreme, surpasses universe over my servitude
In all situations I am fully rescued so I feel fully renewed
I pray and request to Thee to help me in confidence, fortitude
In all my humbleness still I admit failed to come up to gratitude

Be So Close

Let me kiss your soft and silky glowing cheeks
As dew drops kiss the petals of a lovely red rose
Let my soul come out to embrace wonderful peaks
To become one heart and one body to be so close

Let me feel your breath at my neck to be fragrant
Let me feel on the blue sky and not on this land
Let me take style and graces my love so innocent
Allow me to take frequency of beauty on love band

Let light of beauty cover the fire of soul just in trance
Allow me to love you just with my soft heart and soul
Let me in love and romance to take chance after chance
In your sweet company I will be able to establish goal

So please never ever leave me in disgust and despair
Please dare not to from your sparkling glare and flair
Your arrogant beauty may not appreciate love we share
There is no one else in the world which I swear I care

Drop By Drop

My beloved do not kill me just drop by drop
Just kill me once with a sharp blunt weapon
I want to be killed but with just only one chop
Where and with which job can easily be done
What ever is desired please do without a stop
Throw my bruised body under scorching sun
Even you can put my head on blunt arrow top
But please do remember except you I have none

Life is a great misery without shelter of curl hair
Which is the only point of satisfaction and solace
Life for beauty has specific style, grace and flair
It is soft and cool in burning desert like muse buss
For your eyes sake I am ready to take and to bear
In the entire world you are mine my innocent avis

Thorns Of Life

Path of life goes through thorns of sin
The moment life starts it is just to begin
Love and beauty are by birth just akin
It is a game or a play to lose and to win

Bare feet is to cross all burning embers
Test makes a person to come out of covers
Hence one is bound to take proper measures
Blood and sweat make men good painters

Let understand that no pain lacks pleasure
Honesty is needed for searching treasures
Those take pressure ultimately be pioneers
Captain of their own destiny are the soldiers

Demand of task takes at times but ones life
Honor demands but the double edged knife
Life carries shades of wealth and also strife
One has to sacrifice his life children and wife

Man is in chains from birth to death
What control he has to have on his fate
Every step and every pace till last breath
What is hidden in fate one can't narrate

If this is the case then what is to assess
No doubt that it is great Creator's bless
If all is written then what else to express
Silently to bear all carry the real success

It's God's grand scheme which to prevail
Human tricks are just always bound to fail
Man from paradise to this world is on bail
Very many whirlwinds come on way to sail

On Temporary Parole

My love is so innocent that she carries her heart in her eyes
Light of galaxies of stars surrounds her I can easily recognize Land kisses her feet, glowing cheeks are touched by the skies
Love and beauty are chained from the beginning in love ties

The words fail when I appreciate your beauty as a real lover
Only my emotions and sentiments make my heart, soul stir
For silly questions of the world I do not just have any answer
Love is strange thing either one takes to the gallows or to altar

Light of God travels in man in the shape of real ordained soul
Man being chained in fine love strings only plays his real role
He is like a deserter from paradise being on temporary parole
From pace to pace, pole to pole strangeness prevails as a whole

Life is full of just very many turns and contours
At very many places we have to have the detours
Life is an ocean and travel is from shores to shores
To reach to destination to cross very many doors

Without aim one is just like a ship without rudder
For one who believes in tricks destiny remains blur
But for gallant sons who carry on with a soul stir
The only weapon to fight against odds is to be candor

The virtuous are fortunate enough to wear the crown
The vicious remain always in the drain to be down
The stupid ones never come up, remain clown in town
All those who lack spark in life are found broken down

Accept Reality

Life is a journey with bare feet on hard thorns
In pain and pleasure one throughout mourns
One has to have the taste of it even one scorns
Only charm of beauty celebrates and adorns

Neither birth nor death is in our sole control
Life is a trouble not in parts but as a whole
Goal oriented surely establish their real goal
To go through all thick and thin is man’s role

With clean hearts and clear eyes to see, wish

Love Speaks

Waterfalls of love when touch my thirsty soul
In the desert of life I search for beauty as goal
Dissatisfied with this world and its rigmarole
I can't take truth in pieces I want to have it whole

When dew drops kiss the soft petals of the rose
As a matter of fact its chastity it takes to bulldoze
The real face is different than the face one shows
Flames of the beauty make me to take and propose

My love you are like moon with cools of its streaks
In darkness of life light comes with glowing cheeks
When eyes are closed then through heart love speaks
Let my love be with me in conquering all love peaks

Will Of God

There is no free will, it is will of God which is to prevail
Fate is predestined and ordained kept hidden under veil
Man does not know Where to take birth where and to hail
Death is another surprise when and where to come to fail

All human tricks go waste but verdict of the Lord sustain
Man goes through pleasure and successful if bears pain
If servitude is taken in true spirit mercy comes just in rain
Soul is a sole bond between human soul and God in chain

Struggle is a must but results rest with the Lord in thy fate
No human being is given a golden spoon and a silver plate
It is sheer submission to will of God which makes one great Pure faith in God and sincerity of purpose opens every gate

Expression Of God

Being hidden treasure wanted to see His image
So He established link with soul as a bridge
Path is steep that man is always at steep ridge
Man with God enjoys a real wonderful bondage

God is in all and all is in God this is the truth
Solace and contentment provide the real sooth
How we can be clean and honest being uncouth
We do not have any images of truth in our youth

So all our stages and all pain and pleasure demand
One be successful being on the frequency and band
Beauty of God portrays just in everything His brand
Man being particle of sand is for a test on the land

Man is slave and God is commander of the universe
His presence can be felt in all living beings diverse

Only beauty of God surpasses love to be really terse

Winner Is Righteous

Truth nurtures like a beautiful light beam
Whatever I write, I write for my self esteem
Ideas in me flow like an over flowing stream
I am just nothing but part of a bigger scheme
Life is nothing but just a lunatics day dream
Life is a series of events and not just a theme
From beginning to end it is strange extreme
For some it is darkness for others sunbeam
If we could understand the meanings to redeem
It is ordained by Lord as part of eternal regime

So let be a team to promote peace and justice
Let us promote truth to abolish all chaos, fuss
Let us have some norms as on valid good basis
Being not callous but with sobriety and calmness
Let us extend our horizon with clear conscious
Because life is ever growing and just endless
Life demands fitness, firmness and just frankness
Winner is that who promotes virtue to be righteous

For all my sins I take all the blame
But my Lord I carry all the shame
I do not have a plea for one or same
Neither I aspire mercy just a claim

I spent my youth in all deadly sins
I had the taste of very many chins
I took warmth from many soft skins
To taste juicy lips I opened many tins

I tasted many chicks for the real taste
I played with those who were chaste
Now I realized it was all but just waste
For all this fun I have to be lambaste

Repentance is but without any plea
For forgiveness towards Lord I see Since His love is love of mother be

The Prayer

A smartly turned out young man in military uniform
When reached the gate saluted by all in proper form
He smiled and returned the salute with army's norm
He passed by carrying in his hand a stick like storm

When he crossed the gate he went straight to his duty
On the way he remembered his grandfather suddenly
Then a past event cropped up and flashed his memory
When he accompanied his grandpa to just go and see

Then a sentry turned them down without entry pass
And told the old man that his relative told not to cross
The gate being sacred was disallowed by so-called boss
The old man kept silent and looked to the sky with loss

Fruit of the prayer was rewarded in wonderful reward
God accepted the old man's prayer like an excellent Lord
Made the grandson of the man an officer as His little ward
When prayers are accepted become eternally time barred

But now I am like an empty bottle to waste
Now people are not interested in my way
I am just bound to relax and not to just play
Now the bull has been condensed to cow

From a chain of love I am in chain of hatred
I am no more a living being but a human dead
I do not think some one will bury me as trend
But time has stamped me as dead to bend

Dishonesty is just their sole ornament
Falsehood based on only false comment

They will not be able to see dawn of day

Light Flashes

Your beautiful curves instigate me to just explore
My curiosity invigorates me for more and more
My sensual pleasure runs just from pore to pore
Beauty in its entirety takes me from door to door

Light streaks come from streaks to show the path
I am just travelling through you like a little moth
Then I damn care about any curse, or any wrath
My love want to cover your beauty like satin cloth

My love has burnt me and now only there are ashes
Embers before dying down produce the light flashes
The sophisticated touch of love has turned to lashes
Beauty and love are now ready to wear golden sashes

Abstraction

Life is a series of dour, complexities and abstract
Every abstraction causes an other for its sake
It is like a beggar's pot at times fiction at times fact
Looking few for pennies to buy bread or cake
From abstractions what humans have to select
In plain words what they are authorized to take
Few sand castles or innocent wishes so correct
Still in this duel we have to take and to partake
To prove that we are the ones who are to be perfect
World is so false sham and defrauds to a limit
Still we claim that we deserve to get heaven in pack
And divine wine to sip bit by bit with a lady by writ

Fire In Fire

When beauty encounters real love fire
It is either to burn or to gracefully retire
But from the burn which it is to aspire
That is what remains the burning desire

Love when kindles brings flames along
It is nothing but glowing embers song
To me and to you my love I just belong
The chain of love and bond is really strong

She says I am just a matter of pure clay
She who is for me really dawn of the day
Please do not ask me what price I to pay
Let me take you in my arms and to pray

My beauty my grace my charm and style
Makes me think for a moment for a while
But I know time will remember us for style
For beauty's arrogance for our love's smile

In My Life

You are in my life and I tinkle in your heart
From this chain of love it is difficult to depart
Love celebrates beauty by being very smart
If my love you need I may take fresh start

Some words are spoken from eyes in silence
They are great in their cadence and credence
I love your style and warmth of the confidence
Just love with sincerity and take me out of fence

All along path I will go with you side by side
Accompanying your beauty will enjoy love ride
When we will go my sweetheart with real stride
Then I am sure we will be known far and wide

My love is so sober, kind and so serene
She always wears her heart on her sleeves
Remains on screen being beauty queen
Respect over and above she always receives

This is the reason that I love her to explore
What all she has to present to the universe
What else she keeps in her beautiful store
Since she has a grace and style being diverse

In hopelessness and helplessness I wept in front of God bitterly
So that he should help me in trials and tribulations to make me free
For all my sins for all my crimes whom am I to have no valid plea
But only satisfaction and solace with me is His boundless mercy

He has billions and billions across the world but I am alone on road
In flooded ocean I am all alone so only He can take me on board
I do think that if He does not take me I should cut myself with sword
But again His anger and dissatisfaction I can not, dare not to afford

Love I Relish

Love is that touch of class which makes one dance on embers
For lovers who are taken over by beauty are victim of alters
Love is like a beautiful rainbow predominantly by many covers
It is a state where heart is taken over to cut into pieces by daggers
Lovers are in trance of love beloved are the alluring charmers

Love takes its toll while beauty can not be appraised for a price
It comes from edge of eternity and becomes invaluable in price
It assaults suddenly hence is not matter of lover or beloved choice
It is Virtue of God hence can not be taken over any Satanic vice

When I say I'm in love in front of a mirror my image just vanish
But still to love and to be loved is just my real and lunatic wish
My sweetheart your beauty helps me to blossom and to cherish
Still I maintain with a real stance that love remains love I relish

Strength Of Love

My love in your innocence please do not blush
My love is so delicate please do not just crush
Your voice carries melodious song of thrush
Let me take you to heavenly abode from rush

My emotions mirror your image like pure glass
You are my love queen look like beauty of class
In the entire world there is no one like you lass
Your eternal beauty dances just pass to surpass

Come in my arms, give me warmth of your beauty
I am very lonely in the world please make me free
Take over me as a whole so that my soul could see

When lunacy takes me to path so steep
In trance let me take just a step to leap
It has become in love difficult to keep Myself to me but at a glance to weep

I am no more me but a particle of sand
My frequency is lost I have but no band
This is my style you can call it my brand
Can beauty go with love hand in hand

Beauty is fire and love is to play and blast
This is what is considered as just outcast
In my pursuit I am so serene but just fast
Do not call me heretic I am but iconoclast

Love Like Moon

Your cheeks glow in your curly hair like moon
You are like a drizzling rain in month of June
My heat beats have taken music from your tune
My love will get you and your beauty very soon

Let us try to be completely in love all the rituals
You are more beautiful than fairies and the angels
On your arrival let me lit all lamps and the candles
You surpass in your beauty all the new wed bridles

My beloved I can not name you but your fragrance
You dominate my conscience and are my credence
My prudence carry for you lot of respect, reverence
But fact remains that you have taken away all sense

To Put Stamp

Love is like beads of rosary to play with beats
A lover is totally lost in beloved to real praise
Beauty has its own pleasant feats and treats
Life offers many chances to be in daze and craze

A real lover never keeps her beloved out of sight
He prefers to play and dance in enlightened light
Beauty blossoms while love is in miserable plight
Beauty has a right to play with love in delight

I am just a traveler and travel to be in transit camp
I do not know I will be able to see through great lamp
Is this a thorny path or reserved for special as ramp
Even if I lose myself in the process, I will put stamp

Just A Glance

It is good to annihilate self to be part of a whole
Bodies drags to lust while contentment is for soul
To touch reality and to be real ascetic is the goal
In this vast universe beauty carries me like mole

Ascetic is a state where beauty touches beauty
To touch the other end it has to cross green sea
To open this lock love is the ultimate real key
To be the part of Truth heart be clean with plea

I am nothing and Master is all in this real stance
Being real slave how dare I to take any chance
I am staunch in faith and passing through stance
Please help me to clean my eyes to just have a glance

My friend you have lost all your ways
Life can not be spent on borrowed rays
When some gets just the counted days
Then he is liable for the price he pays

You have selected dummy gods in life
You think they will help you in strife
Be ready to be cut with the same knife
You have put in danger your life, wife

With corruption you think to prosper
In the process you have made path blur
You will have to repent just but after
Your life and faith is at stake the broker

Still is the time to take back your soul
Do not consider Satan provider of goal
Still you have time to exercise control
Before you get destruction as a whole

So Called Relatives

Blood relations are blood thirsty
Their images are completely dark
They never leave any chance to be
To get any weakness on the mark

A pity affair portray on the screen
They never share happiness or sorrow
Their dirty faces can be really seen
When you just aspire to take or borrow

They don't accompany us for our pleasure
They take their vengeance always along
To get a chance to play with us and to tear
Our hearts apart on the bases we belong

So it is to good to avoid these night jackals
It will facilitate not to take any such chance
Life is a tricky path of all the downs and falls
Hence one should not be always in trance

Torture Of Life

What is life it is very difficult to understand
For some thorny path for others rosy garland
For some it is luxury for others castle on sand
Idiosyncrasies never vanish but go hand in hand

There are very many who aspire for loaf of bread
Many do not get coffin even if are mercilessly dead
Valiant are debarred and just by jackals they are led
With blood of innocent people grow the roses in red

A revolution is needed to strike balance on the earth
All are equal no one is low or high by status of birth
If one search for real clean hearts there is but no dearth
All are God made with dignity honor style and worth

With its full force in veins it flows and glows
Love either takes you to glory or to the gallows
When beauty in trance becomes ready and shows
Price of that rose a lovers understands and knows
When every thing changes its shape to love rose
When beauty becomes heavenly wine to bulldoze
When lover in love becomes lunatic and he owes
Then beauty in intoxication takes a chance, throws

The entire universe takes herself to that love dance
Happiness shares herself everywhere to take chance
Nothing remains stable but goes to just a real trance
Entire world is dominated either by love or romance

Lust To Dust

Dirty hearts carry greed and lust
To get the taste they can just burst
Humans when go down are the worst
Bodies made of dust will embrace dust

Eyes take and give lust up to the brim
Wise is that who can control and trim
Vice creeps and acts in the darkness to dim
Situation becomes more morose and grim

When lust enthrals blood to vicious assault
Wine acts as a catalyst to give taste like salt
When the criminal fails to stop and to hault
When all blunders take shape of just a fault

Flirt and lust when just burst to real rape
Man and woman become Satan in the shape
When man in intoxication grabs the grape
Then humanity finds just no place to escape

Take A Challenge

At times it just seems that I wasted my life
Throughout the time on double edged knife
Progress and prosperity pverity and strife
Were test like injuries by my fortune as a wife

With worthless options and the useless plans
Insweatining summer and severe snow and rains
With all the hatred, contempt, dislikes disdains
With just ulterior motives and nefarious designs

But I took every challenge to turn my pain to pleasure
Hence I was able to discover and recover the treasure
My state of heart and mind one can not be able to measure
From all this dirty rut I rose like a man and like a soothsayer

Disparity

My better half left me for good
Because I lost my knighthood
What I could that I definitely would
We were good friends in our childhood

But now time has taught the tricks
Our castle of love has broken the bricks
But now I am left to the worldly kicks
Even if I have lot many other chicks

But taste of her soft and silky kiss
I can not and dare not just miss
I considered her in reality a bliss
But she never took a time to dismiss

Enchanting Lover

She is like a butterfly flying just from rose to rose
In her emotional flight she just wants to buldoze
Whosoever comes in her way silently on his toes
She is so wonderful with her beauty she just blows

All garden is enthralled with her graceful charms
She cherishes love and never ever inflict harms
With her embrace every one she entices and warms
But some clever boy wants to capture her with alarms

With touch of the screwed she loses herself and her color
Love has lost its identity in the hands of an enchanting lover

Grace And Style

My soul is alive my body is dead
I am totally covered in a coffin red
Petals of roses are on my own bed
But drops of my blood are really led

By that terrorist who made me blast
Taken my life just at my nation's cost
My blood will take its toll from that last
Because he is a rebel and I am iconoclast

My blood will blossom in a very strong tree
Which will make but everyone just free
Not again to witness this horror and see
His stance is invalid I have a real valid plea

He will die for the rascals I die for the nation
He will die as criminal I die to uphold salvation

He is ruthless I am graceful in my style and fashion

My heart is taken over by her beauty to sing

Love is a fire reinvigorated by beauty's charm
In sacrifice for love there is no rule no norm
Whenever she emanates beauty and is in form
Then I think in giving myself to her is of no harm

When I drink from her fountain of divine wine
I think from the core of my heart she is only mine
She is so energetic wonderful, beautiful and fine
I remain no more when she my love takes me on line

From cruel clutches of rivals she made me free
In her glowing eyes I saw twinkling star and sea

Virtue Prevails

Life is full of all pain and pleasure
All paths are really foggy and blur
Why a virtuous is always on altar
Why happiness surpasses all anger

Temporarily virtue is overtaken by vice
Why hypocrites seem apparently nice
Why for every good we pay the price
Why life opens up just slice after slice

But let me tell you with all its clarity
Life is not just like an ordinary charity
Inner conflict, problems and disparity
Vice and virtue are same with similarity

Let us pray vicious be chained by shame
Only purity of heart and eyes bring fame
Life with rivals is just a dirty blame game
Let my love be together in a beautiful frame

Painful Or Peaceful Departure

Whenever I am in pain or torture infact
Allah’s mercy comes down to protect
He loves me more then my expectations
He saves me from all burning relations
I take all His mercy as a sheer charity
He helps me to take on path with clarity
Even if I am bestowed with many diseases
But with every problem His mercy increases
It is His kindness which helps me alot
With ou His graces I am just rotten rot
I enjoy my bondage of real servitude
I ignores my every blunder and my attitude
Allah is love and I am direly in need of love
He is commander of the universe I am a dove
I pray to Thee never ever to leave me alone
My soul my body with me is just on loan
I request to make my departure comfortable
In that moment He request Him to make me stable

Allah cherishes these qualities to the creation uncouth
Disturbed and disappointed heart and soul is to sooth

World has undergone a terrible shock
Earthquake was ready to play and rock
There was no key to this untowards block
Every path was just seemed to stop, lock

Allah, most merciful reminded to humanity
For being heretic is a third class invalid plea
Every eye being in danger could be able to see
Only servitude to Allmigthy Allah can make free

Bondage of servitude is chain of eternal love
Which takes and makes us then and just now
His mercy gives us a chance and to just to allow Chastity, sincerity, and austerity demands to bow

Mercy of Allah has overlooked all crimes and sin
Complete submission is essential to uphold the chin
To be a complete faithful we have to take heretic pin

The Best

A bold should face the truth and the music
He should overcome all obstacles brick by brick
With sincerity he should kick just every trick
By following ethics all his action shine to be angelic

We should portray ourseleves as we happen to be World should praise our actions as bold and frank to see
To be honest is a defence and dishonesty does not carry any plea
Blood speaks louder and proves ones honesty and dignity

Virtue guides like northern star to be ones destiny and destination
One may be from any caste colour are from any country or nation
Every difficult path needs self esteem fortitude and undaunting passion
Truth remains predominant and with falsehood it has no relation

Let follow the footprints who sacrificed their selves for larger interest
Time has saved their names and actions with distiction as people the best
They have outshined in the annals of history from all of the rest
They were the ones who could encounter all obstacles to pass the test

Strangeness Of World

World is a strange place to live with
It is It does not seem what it actually is
It is but a strange wonderful myth
It remains less pleasant but mostly miz

People are opportunists so act accordingly
They are more mean then apparently they seem Very few are virtuous and are vice free
In sheer darkness one may find a real light beam

Time is the best judge which takes them on mark
If they are good to be kept then they shine like stars
But all those who with their hearts and intentions dark
Become victim of their heinous designs to behind bars

Love is supreme while hatred is contemptible
Love always begets love and hatred gets hatred
Love is God gifted while hatred comes out from dull
Virtue is its own reward is what is just well said

Her prime age makes her to uncover and flaunts

I found many facts which remained under the rime
With lot care and caution I have to clear all grime

They were real graceful and they were but sublime

I owe an apology to my all great grand grand parents
I could not come up to their expectations and sentiments
I failed to save their dignity but time do have imprints
Now I am pleased I found the just all the missing hints
I was totally mistaken to go about all fog with misprints
But it is now my pride to be in light to follow their footprints

Trend Setter

I have justice in my blood I can pave my way
Do not challenge me you will definitely go astray
Life is a serious issue it is not an ordinary child play
Fasehood and vice is to vanish while truth is to stay

Tricks may bring a transitory soothing relief but a defeat
Honest is to remain neat and clean while cheat remains cheat
Dishonesty is down the drain while dignity has a respectable seat
If you are brave enough then through a straight challenge and meet

I have been through very many rigmaroles but ultimately won
Please don't forget that I don't relax till the time I complete job undone
I hoot care about idiosyncrasies and take them as a pun and avs a fun
Don't take me light I can burn you into ashes because I am burning sun

My principles are my yardstick which I follow without any disparity
To beggars like you I sparingly extend charity without asking charity
I am hilarious in nature and adventurous in trends this I know with clarity
You are story of the past I am man of the day this determines my popularity

Let me make you more enlightened and more bright
My sweetheart you are blazed by light to be part of light
Your image dangles in me and in my eyes my sight

You are part of eternal beauty which captures fire

Actual lover retires from abode to be in open as a buyer
Beauty is not a commodity which third class rival can hire

Cherish To Perish

Serving of my nation for long long years
Being in pain without shedding tears
Many hypocrites and many soothsayers
Were in my way to create many fears

But still I maintain I paved my way
In that scorching fire of the day
I kindled my soul and dwindled to pray
For Beauty of Lord who has yet to lay

His love on my heart His beauty in eyes
Soul just cherishes and body dies
Then at times in those love cries
When truth of eyes changes to lies

After passing through that long distance
Crossing hurdles borders and fence
I yet to think to finish sentence
And be back to my people hence

Death should come in the company of friends
That is the point where body bends
Clay to clay and trends to trends
That is where soul always bends

To his master to his Lord
That is the time when call of God
Embraces soul being time barred
When the land takes back its ward

Love travels beauty goes
Like the fragrance in innocent rose
The return of native will bulldoze
Where the world has, has suppose

All problems of the day
Where one has to ultimately say
Goodbye to friends and to foes
Soul has to go and body has to stay
With crazy desires and lusty needs
Nurture again the soil seeds
Conviction being leader always leads
Where words are encountered by good deeds

About this world what to say what not to say
Time consistently passing thru us just day by day
Complete darkness is followed by the light ray
Peace and prosperity should be every one’s pray

This world is heaven and this world is like hell
Some purchase others while others are to sell
Hidden emotions one has to understand to tell
Some are silent and some communicate just well

Let us help to improve our standards to be respectful
Let us change our state to be comfortable than awful
Let us not be brutal but to be more fair and merciful
Let us shun all hatred and contempt with lit love candle

Love Sonnet

Don't tear me piece by piece kill me once
Play with my life but don't play with credence
My sweetheart I don't want to see you at distance
So be near to me so I should cherish fragrance
In my room I feel your presence for balance
Now please don't allow rivals to create hinderance
Please help me to improve and build my confidence
The moment I saw you I am no more I lost my sense

My love is enthralled by your beauty to such a limit
That I have lost my world as well as my real orbit
You my sweetheart is my soul my heart and my spirit
I only request you do not tear me in pieces bit by bit
Please be with me to make a complete and proper unit
You flow in my veins like blood and in mind like love sonnet

What Is Life

What is life it is today and tomorrow
What is to get and what is to borrow
A set and series of just blow after blow
This is what we all are bound to know

With lot many tests without any right
Performance of duties make us bright
A war which up to latr we have to figh
With clear sight we can't keep insight

What Master has ordained we carry along
Vice and virtue are part of the given song
Journey is predestined whether short or long
We know who we are and to whom we belong

Through annals of history we come to know
How many passed through just this life blow
From centuries stage is set to present and show
That humans are on a useless way in a dirty row

Life is neither hatred nor a contempt to celebrate
It is only force of love which plays role to accelerate Vicious are tmhird rate while virtuous are great
Amicable actions make it wonderful to tolerate

Fire Embers

Hand is yours but pulse is mine
Heart is yours with my beat sign
Lips are tasting your sweet wine
We both are just in the same line

Love provides cover to the beauty
Both with each other feel just free
It is a glance and a manner to see
I consider and take it my first duty

In love encounter beauty conquers
It takes both of us to the real alters
Real love trance makes us dancers
Even if fire dies remain fire embers

A Salute To Women On Women's Day

God has created women with tenderness and delicacy
The entire world is bound to take care and to agree
She came out of the ribs of man and a part of heart is plea
So it is obligatory to extend all respect and to know and see

Women have sharp sixth sense like few selected called leaders
So as a matter of fact we should not be biased but be the pleaders
No one else has quality to create but the women which glitters
Men should accept the dignity honour respect and shouldn't be misers

Women are mixture of love and beauty which continue to cherish
In hour of trial and tribulation she never leaves someone to perish
World ows its strength and beauty to the beauty and strength of women
She wears the crown of creation being elegant and great with devotion

Salute to all women who create persevere and bring peace and prosperity
They are the beacon of light from home to home and country to country
For their refinement of sixth sense I am proud of but definitely just envy
From the core of my heart I appreciate their services in all relations openly

World Deception

Life is a dream in dreams where a person finds relief
It is a set of vice and virtue according to one's own belief
Happiness is transitory and is under cover of pain and grief
Depicted unfulfilled desires seem done in a time so brief

This world is a deception and is not what it seems as such
On the petal of rose it redeems and vanishes just with a touch
World is a driverless vehicle which moves on without a clutch
It hoots care about color creed and religion of a Spanish or Dutch

But a fact remains that a duty is ordained which is to be overtaken
Whether someone is too clever or someone happens to be forsaken

Graces To Show

Let me be clear and fair in a tone to tell
It is we who make world heaven or hell

My idiosyncrasies make me sick and unwell
Your love makes me an iconoclast and rebel

So let forget for once and for all this dirty row
Let us be more mature to grow and just to glow

Let's Make World Peaceful

If you inflict torture and pain I will return
At some point of time life is to take a turn
Whatever efforts are put in one has to earn
For every hard action reaction remains stern

So let us decide not to unearth what was past
Let us gain something new let lost be just lost
Let us come out of the well to make horizon vast Let us save our future before it is completely blast

We are enemies by blood so aspire for the blood
Let us divide this river in to streams before flood
Let us grace our faces before eyes filled with mud
It is good to nip the evil at the beginning from bud

Life is too short to love how people efford hatred
Right path is impossible when one is wrongly led
If color of hatred is red then love like rose is red
We can make this world peaceful if we are just avid

Revenge for revenge is nothing but revenge
But if some one can forgive then it is great

Forgiveness is wonderful without any wait

I do not know whether I will be able to forgive
All that torture which was inflicted on me
By all those who just never allowed me to live
But still I require time to forebear and to see

Whether I should give them another chance
Or be frank and straightforward in approach
So let me forget and forgive in just that trance
I fully understand that this subject is to broach

Sham Relations

All relations are sham with ve ted interests
Greed is their motto with full of dirty lusts
Eyes full of wickedness hearts full of dirty dusts
Take name of God but are really just atheists

I can not understand the fricks which they play
They do not do what which they just always say
Apparently they are good but full of with areas gray
Darkness of night is in hearts but seem like day

I wasted much of timewith them to help be bright
But I just failed to change their miserable plight
They have their own way to be happy to delight
They do have sight but totally lack their insight

Please don't cut my wings let me fly
My vision is clear my limit is the sky
I do not want to be low let me be high
For completion of mission I may die

A soldier always tread on right path
He is least pushed if to go by hearth
For the sake of his nation accepts wrath
His coffin is the flag not ordinary cloth

On the zig zag paths through odds of life
He moves on even if to travel on blunt knife
Remains extraordinary in all ordinary strife
For the sake of his people doesn't care for wife

Humans Are Humans

Pain of life brings pleasure to life when is taken with grace
Hence every such test determines man’s patience and race
Love sparkles on the face beauty is in character not on face
Ugliness under all circumstances leaves just the dirty trace

Humans are humans because they are conscientious to know
They prove their worth being surroundings in which they grow
Innocent hearts and clean eyes make a person beautifully glow
Hatred and contempt change virtue into vice change them in row

Animals are animals but human in to animals with bad intentions
Hence they remain prisoners of conscience and remain in detentions
Memories are lost when they become miserable being fake retentions
Humans may be in deserted deplored houses and may not be in mansions

The Surrender

My sweetheart you are so delicate and tender ront of your beauty my heart is to surrender
Under all circumstances you have to conquer
I am in search of myself taking cover after cover

Like petals of rose and like lotus so pure and white
Like beacon of light like snow so white and pure
My love you are only source of happiness and delight
It is not season to be in arow or be troubled in fight

Flowers blossom to bring life to saples of the old trees
Let caress your lovely cheeks by the morning breeze
Love when touches beauty opens crease by crease
Your beauty makes every one in the area stun and freeze

My love has given you very many shades to be portrayed
The moment I saw you my heart danles and is swayed
Please do not consider me as a puppet to be easily played
The price for your love I have already considered and paid

Where ever I go it comes with me so I am ready to bear the brunt
To attract and to play with love beauty is the powerful agent
Her beautiful tricks of playing with love are so sweet and brilliant

I love you to the core of my heart so take the taste and do not test
In this entire world beauty is scattered all around but you are the best
I am ready to sacrifice my body and soul so I am ready to go in contest
I am a prisoner of love and aspire your beauty to come forward to arrest

My sweetheart time is passing as sand particles slip from the palm of hand
My heart my love is in consonance with your beauty on frequency and band
Please take my love seriously otherwise it prove on shore like castle of sand

The Real Lovers

Love of Allah makes one to forget himself and all around
Like force strong it makes spell bound and bound to surround
It makes one to be in trance and then to take a sheer chance
To see the whole truth and nothing else but truth in a glance
It is in the annals of history that when a lover was enthralled
He was cut into pieces alive then his pieces were burnt to be called On the alter of love he exclaimed the superiority of eternal love
His ashes were thrown on the river which was remember now
Eternal beauty and eternal love when are desired ask for life
It is not a bed of roses it is full of poison double edged knife
Lovers are like moths and beauty is like glowing light of a candle
It is a journey in the hot desert with naked head difficult to handle
But supreme are those who never give in and are martyrs of love
In their hearts of heart with clean eyes and hearts are innocent dove

Life In Ocean

Life is a journey through a deep rugged ocean
It is a hazardous encounter taken one on one
Salty moisture under the scorching heat of sun
Taken by a managaist all odds ultimately won

Fortune favours the brave destiny kisses thy feet
At the top of the ladder there is always a good seat
Who dares to win no one dares to come in to beat
My sweetheart I am striving for you come and meet

Journey after journey this what life aspires to and for
If the emotions are strong no one can dare to hinder debar
No one can come in the way no one has cheeks to debar
With all sinews of war I am ready to attack and wage a war

No whirlwind can come in my way when I decided to die
My limit is the horizon my destination is the just blue sky
Wjnd come in the way not to hinder but to take me high
My experience of life dictates me not to relax but to try and try

I can I will my faith is my to tell and the leasson learnt is rudder
I am man of cosequence being a soldier don not take me light sir
My eyes are like hawk I know where to attack my my vision isn't blur
Where ever I lose a sight then my heart dictates me as you were

To do nothing and sit and wait
Is very difficult my soul mate
In mean people you are great
Victory does not come in a plate

Let us strive hard to explore, win

With clear approach path can not be blur

The Eunuchs

All power rests with God He is the Master
His will prevails and there is less choice
He is beholder of destiny and the Caster
So slaves have to accept verdict to be nice

In this world we all are bonded not free
Eunuch is being tortured and maltreated
By this society and by all and sundry
So when they talk none sense are defeated

Eunuchs are creation of God we must understand
Who so ever raises finger challenges God
Only God's will prevails above and on the land
We must be more careful being His sole ward

All creation is loved by God on equal ground
No one is inferior or superior as a matter of fact
This we should understand clearly and must sound
We have to follow verdict of God being in pact

Out Of Veil

Your ocean green eyes looking out of the veil
Makes my heart to dangle dance and to sail
I am fully aware that to the fairies land you hail
Help me to win and please don't make me fail

For very many times when I look forward to see
I am fully aware it could not possibly clear to be Moon when is hidden in clouds can not feel free
For my innocent desire I could not have any plea

I do know you are pure like snow like lotus in lake
Hence I dare sacrifice my life for your eyes sake
You are famous and taken by the town as hot cake
Let me love you praise you and worship you to take

As my life my soul my heart and a beacon of light
I am grateful to God who has brought you to sight
What of rivals to the entire world I am ready to fight
Please be mine and do consider my miserable plight

To Strive

My love you are a candle and I am a moth to dance around
Let me take your beauty and listen to your heart's sound
In this state of trance neither you nor me are on the ground
Love quenches its thirst and beauty makes it to make it bound

What love is I don't know but I can't survive without you any more
My eyes my heart my soul are spell bound to love and to adore
My sentiments of love for you travel forcefully from pore to pore
I am in whirlwind and your beauty is like a ship to take me to shore

I lost my senses and forgot words to appreciate your style and graces
Your charm has made me mad and I am lost with a touch and embraces
I think my love for you crops up in different shades and the faces
Coming to you is just like a pace which I consider very many paces

Let me be in your bosoms knot and in your open arms to survive
Let me travel in you to gain back my life and to rewind to revive
In your green ocean to get precious pearls to accumulate to dive
This is how I take your beauty to my love to be one to strive and thrive

Is Love Sin

In every spring your love haunts me
Your beauty reminds me bygone days
Pearls of remembrance I carry along to see
How you come out of me like light rays

What I was and what you turned me to
In a situation I can not be able to explain
When I will encounter all obstacles thru
My injuries require suture but not salty rain

You proved how pride runs in the blood
You played with me by taking me a puppet
I do not think you be able to bear the flood
To put a suture of beauty on my open cut

I embraced you time and again in dream
I saw your rose petals like beautiful cheeks
But then my awakening made me scream
When my heart in pieces leaks and bleeds

It is world of tyranny and oppression of rivals
Who always play tricks to attack and win
What is my sentiment and emotion of revivals
Is love a crime and to appreciate beauty a sin

A Bitch

She played with my innocence in my childhood
Hence I became victim of disparity for good
But still with my conviction on the path I stood
She committed a crime by making me a statue of wood

At that time she gave her hand in the hand of a rich
Hence she molested my emotions and proved her bitch
Through her tricks she inflicted pain on me as a witch
She opted for a fort and threw me in to a dark ditch

And today I am a man of consequence and she has nothing
Now she wants me to be with her in her lap a song to sing
Time has brought me wisdom and intelligence and to bring
All happiness all fortunes and again she wants to give her ring

Is it love or was it lust by her which played with my life
She has taken a plan to kill me with her gone youth knife
Now she wants to be my friend while she was not in time of strife
She wants to be with me on the path of life as a husband and wife

Blunt And Rude

Do not consider me blunt and rude

If you prove yourself clever, shrewed
Then I will make you naked and nude

When human nature is compromised
Then he is disrespected far and wide
There are very many other curses allied
Then he is taken every one for the ride

Good intentions make destination clear
Destiny becomes success to be so near
There remains no iota of any fret or fear
Honesty makes and nourishes a soothsayer

The Terrorists

Brazen acts against humanity by the terrorists
Are liable to be paid back in the same coin
Because they play with the lives of innocents
Hell should be played to them in same line

Their heinous crimes their derty designs
Need no bounds on the land to kill and to kill
Their booby traps and gun powdered mines
Require to tackle barbareously to instill

What they sow so shall they are bound to reap
Their bad intentions and poison they spread
With fortitude and with sincerity to upheld to keep Where ever are found to be killed to be dead

They are enemise of God and enemies of all men
They have nothing good but promote bad deed

In Togetherness

This world is a place where there is no solace
Love with beauty is a stance and a troubled case
Path is through burning fire from pace to pace
Still the world aspires to go on fire without trace

My love has been burnt with simple touch of beauty
This is the start I don't know what its end could be
My deplorable plight I wish rivals should not see
Let us move together hand in hand to feel more free

My sweetheart love is neither a gamble nor a play
Its seriousness makes just it a dawn a day a light ray
Let us in togetherness we cherish excel and pray
Together to go throw cold in December and hot in May

Let me take you in my arms and then to forget forever
Let us collect all from our struggle and every endeavor
Even if entire world is against us we should remain in favor
Whatever love we have for each other without seeking any waiver

Let me be you and let you be me for eternal love pursuit
Let us be one and let us follow the same steps on same route
It becomes in love whether to suit or whether not to suit
Let us make this moment of love eternal and not to pollute

Our souls and our hearts and minds with poisonous thought
Let us be straight and not on wrong footings to be caught
Let us celebrate solace and satisfaction in the process sought
Let us be together in every hour of trial with our love a lot

World is strange with all its strangeness it haunts
Sincerity is always taken as a plaything to play
On very many occasions it derails and changes in taunts
Straightfowarded people become disappointed to say

Vice to virtue and virtue to vice to take or to give chance
People take shelter behind curtains not to show their faces
Morality is tested and it becomes difficult for good to stance
Evil prevails over good and good loses all its identity traces

Truth does not require any defence to plead what all is right
Falsehood travels cover to cover to win over all the dood deeds
Shadows become big to be taken a thing of consequence in sigh
They play to glorify with monilifornin but with garland beads

Faithless people as they are and faithless people they will remain
Wrath will take them on for their henious crime and dirty desingn
They will never ever be bestowed with mercy and its eternal rain
Time will celebrate them not as a figure of respect but as a dirty wine

My Request

I have to carry my cross all along
Till the time I embrace to whom I belong
My heart in full swing sings a song
I am a slave my Master is so strong

My destiny dictates all my destination
I carry along all my love and passion
I am proud of my this eternal relation
To come up to the occasion is my salvation

Please shower on me all your mercy
Save me from torture and pain not to see
Please help me to make just real me
Only you are mine without any plea

In your love I carry along graceful trend
Whenever I bow my head and to bend
Then all your graces come down to lend

But my faith tells me how lovely and soft

Love On Trial

You my love are still young and I have gone old
Punishment has inflicted on me in different style
The burnt amber when turns into ashes isn't gold
Your good graces provided energy to every mile

So you in your prime still can burn like the fire
You still can invigorate spirits of love in lovers
But my age has become hurdle in need so dire
Time will grow all fruits and flowers on bowers

You my love may have certain choices in front
I never had one less you in present past or future
I make your images from all the ashes burnt
I can not see and find for my bruises the suture

Please take me in your warm and soothing arms
Before I the last light of my eyes to leave me alone
Your beauty like a fountain in my heart swarms
Let us share together all love and beauty in tone

Drama Of Life

I don't have any control on my role in drama of life
Predestined will occur to control my destiny
I may be in solace or on the sharp blade of knife
I may be lost in dust or on the edge of eternity

My God takes me along on the path chosen for me
I just drove along with Him like a blind
In all ups and downs in all good and bad
I don't have to be cautious since He is so kind
So I keep just the track whether happy or sad

Please be kind my Lord I don't have any one
Who can be like you to protect me from dejection

Morality

Morality has gone down to the dogs
Corruption has covered the dirty heads
Cropping up different voices of frogs
Dishonesty Is dancing over living deads

Who comprised and by whom compromised
Time will determine the reality and intensity
Annals of history dictate its version
Poisoned minds have poisoned fraternity
Covers over covers played with virgin

Let us bring back the reality into action
Let be honest to the coming generation
For bringing back reality to its perfection
Let us come up to respect and veneration

Only you are my destined declared goal

Love needs sacrifices and offers the same
Lust intends to play with beauty for shame
All lovers for their love enjoy respect
Carriers of lust are the worst not best
Love is to share and to spare in trance
Lust is always to molest every chance
Love is what life is full with emotions
Lust is what aspires for with wrong notions
Love is to give and lust is to take
Love is all truth lust is but all fake

Alluring Dance

When wine touch the brim of glass
Every touch becomes touch of class
Beauty surrounds around to pass
Flood of emotions is ready to cross

All limits to quench eternal thirst
When love takes fire around to burst
Love surpasses all greed and lust
Then taking wine of beauty is must

Please afford a chance to have romance
Be ready for a fiery alluring dance
What I had, you took in a glance
What remains is just Love’s stance

No Candle

My sweetheart you are full of beauty
There is no one like you in the city
You are so graceful and so pretty
No one like you I could ever see

A bottle of wine full up to the brim
Full of flowers a bower not to trim
Romantic light so sweet and dim
In front of eyes like a lively film

Portrayed beauty is beyond any limit
Which love wants to take bit by bit
You are so charming and so fit
In front of you no candle dare to lit

Desert Of Life

Standing alone in the midst of desert of life
Thinking about revival after being burnt alive
Being badly bruised by words like a knife
Gaining energy from all illusions to survive

With will I will manage and also pave my way
Through the ups and downs to get my destiny
Keeping an amber of beauty alive in love ray
It is for sure to be with you on other end honey

Just look at my will and not my miserable plight
I will move and move thirsty and hungry along
Keeping just your image in my eyes to just fight Against all odds whether they are right or wrong

I do believe in the force of love as faith to proceed
Please do not debar me from your graceful image
Love as an eternal fire to guide your beauty to lead
I will burn in love as a worldly lunatic seer and sage

In sheer dejection when I lose all hopes
I call my Allah to shower all His mercy
Then I feel myself chained in love ropes
He covers and protects me to just see

He loves me a lot I enthrall with beauty
No harm can touch me or dare to abuse
My Creator is pretty why I shouldn't be
When He loves me then how can I refuse

In Romance

My sweetheart is too young to understand what love is
She does not know that her beauty is more than fairies
Through her innocence she looks at the things to dismiss
Her wonderful graces and charms she normally carries

She wants a touch of dew drops like on petals of rose
Then she will be able to accompany me to celebrate
She has the daring and dashing attitude to bulldoze
Only touch of love to beauty will make her tolerate

Idiosyncrasies of life debar her to be more frank, fair
She remains reserve being afraid of even her shadow
She will open herself with passage of time layer to layer
Then when she will grow will be able to glow and show

What she all carries in her beauty what she may portray
From the veil of beauty to the world at a glance to dance
Then she will flow in every heart like a beautiful light ray
She will be mine and be ready to accompany in romance

Let me have beauty at its initial stage

Which may take us to rise or fall

Your beauty is as sharp a razor's edge
It makes my love to have dangerous pledge
Travelling together on vulnerable ridge
We may encounter every fence and wedge

My love seeks path in beauty’s light ray
It needs action then just to declare and say
You have even my life with dedication I pray

But please do not leave me to rivals will
If you want to kill me please just do kill
To encounter beauty is climbing high hill
For your sake I am ready to pay the bill

The Beginning Of Love

She quarrels with me on one pretext or another
This is what is the beginning of love from her
So I have to take her on with softness of love
She will melt with love like a tamed dove
So it is love which will make her to accept
My love being original and being correct
Henceforth she will feel pride to belong
To me and to my beautiful love song
Together we will proceed on love path
To rise to the occasion we will accept wrath
World can not separate us with meanness
So let love extend to beauty its eternal kiss
Let my miss promise to celebrate not to miss
Let be ready to play with rivals design to dismiss

The Damnation

All relations claim to be loyal and sincere
While there hearts and faces are dirty and black
They carry daggers to cut me into pieces to tear
Lust and greed take one from the path and track

Ambitions and desires put bar on their sense
They carry lost destiny as well as destination
Imprisoned in themselves with the fence
Thy will face death and eternal damnation

They will burn themselves to the ashes
They will lose their names and faces
They will be exposed with baseless bashes
They will lose in the dirt their dirty races

Life is a continuous challenge for daring and brave
For graceful living I have the captivating crave
I know that my family and myself I have to save
When one has a will then it becomes easy to pave

My way through rodes and thorns all thick and thin.
To strive for the honest living is not a sin
I have to look after all my real kith and kin
Life is a wine not in shladd but in a sealed tin

My duty demands from me all the sacrifice
Survival is predestined and not on my own choice
All those who strive for them life is lovely and nice
Only honesty of purpose and sincerity will suffice

That how one becomes able to get more and more favor
How to uncover this strange unbecoming cover
How in the midst of contempt and hatred one turns to lover

Beauty cherishes love when comes up to the brim
Whosoever is in loves with Allah, Allah loves him
When honesty and sincerity overcome intentions to trim
When light spreads then no situation remains grim

When one looks towards Allah then Allah showers graces
Then he does not Alone but benefited all his races
Allah for His kindness does not need any or more basis
He is so beautiful that His beauty sneaks through faces

We all from Allah to Allah and go back to our Lord
Hence we are contented we belong to Him being His ward Journey of life will be over whether simple or hard

Then love per force just fails and derails

Every stronghold is but beauty's right

When I kiss her cheeks in sheer trance
Then at highest peaks remain romance

You crop up in me like pure me
In the mirror less you I can not see
Love refines and beauty defines
Hence all is bounded in clear lines
Let me hug myself just with in you
Let us be now through and through
No one else can dare to tear us apart
Because now your heart is in my heart
My beloved my sweetheart my soul
We dance in each other as a goal
Love and beauty are eternal treasure
That is why we both kindle pleasure

Like Galaxy

Like galaxy of stars you twinkle on my sky
In praise of your beauty my love weeps and cry
I am down below but you are up in the sky high
Please give me wings of your beauty to fly
When one is in love then he is no more on ground
He travels to some other heaven to take a round
He is lost in beauty astonished and fully astound
A lunatic lover when lost can not be found
Through beloved lover sees all images on line
Beauty in all its shades wonderful and fine
If truth is lunacy like love I own it purely mine
My love is in thirst of beauty so allow me to take wine
My beloved you are remarkably so enchanting
Without you I always remain in short and wanting
Fear of losing you makes me in fear and in state of haunting
With out you how can I be able to cherish and sing
Love song which travels in my blood and veins
For you I can take all hatred contempt and disdain
I always carry you along in my heart soul and brain
My love and your beauty are chained in eternal chain
You are my happiness you are dejection you are my pain

Burning Lights

Fragrance of your body still haunts me
I still cherish the very first touch of class
My sweetheart you are like a deep sea
Your lips taste like wine in a clear glass

I still miss you in lengthy winter nights
I still cherish your cheeks as burning lights
From where I can bring hand in hand flights
We were in the sky like two colorful kites

Recall those precious times and come back
By being in your company I don't take flak
Beauty is hallmark and graces are the knack
Warmth travels in and you are beauty pack

Let me take a chance let me just embrace
Let me have romance let me kiss on face
Let me take the honor let me take the grace
Let beauty on line of love let be on one race

Honest Cherish

Opportunists are everywhere with many faces
They are from all cultures and from all the races
They wear different robes and are cases within cases
They are the ones in veils without any graces

Honest and straightforward in life have no places
Morally corrupt have deep down deadly basis
The deserted ones count from paces to paces
Being clever they do not leave behind any of the traces

This world with jugglers increase day by day
Apparently clean have all the areas just gray
With limited thinking and with calculated play
In sheer darkness with no light of ray
With dirty hearts and dirty eyes how they portray

Light is for those who take test of the time
Only virtuous have the right to celebrate prime
How criminals can promote and cherish crime
Only honest and straightforward cherish time

With beauty love celebrates reunion
When my eyes become just stun
Then automatically undone is done

When in mirror I see your reflection
My all emotions take forceful action
Beauty and love find more perfection
Heart reinvigorates to take you to run

Beauty Is Blunt

My love is reticent while beauty is blunt
I am down the drain she is on the front
Love is a deer which beauty is to hunt
For her graces I am ready to take brunt

Reflection of her beauty just takes life
Appreciating beauty I remain on knife
For her sake I do not mind any strife
But what I aspire is to make her wife

But like every thing beauty has a price
All my rivals do believe just to be bias
Enemy remains enemy how he be nice
With warmth of my love I will break ice

The Blessed

When darkness prevails everywhere and light is needed
When men become animals and all values are superseded
When for the weakest no one is ready to stand pleaded
When hatred and contempt down to the roots is seeded

Then mercy of Lord comes in the shape of a real savior
All vistas and horizons become clear to shun the blur
Love comes, prevails and overcomes all the dirty mixture
Then humanity breaks the shackles and dances in rapture

The beloved are those who are mercy for the universe
They with their sincerity shun all that remains averse
Hearts and eyes become clean and nothing is a curse
God takes his slaves back to Him again to help, nurse

My Prophet is the emblem of humanity celebrated
He is the one who cleans the dirty and bad blood
He is the one by whom every stayed becomes gifted
His presence makes the defaulters lucid and avid

Soft Melody

Her alluring voice with soft melody
Makes me elevated and totally free
From all pain in this world could be
All hypocrisy on the dirty faces I see

Life eats me like just slow poison
I do not know what could be done
Troubles are challenges and not fun
Injured body under the scorching sun

I am in search of fragrance of roses
From cruel clutches life opens, closes
What one is and what just one poses
One should steadfast whatever opposes

I am always ready to take any challenge
In any ocean of troubles I can plunge
All my enemies I can but just expunge
I know how to attack and just to lunge

High Aims

We worked with zeal and zest for the generations
But they resorted only to shows and celebrations
We as elders put in all the efforts to mend relations
Time and place bring fate or fortune at the stations

Our forefathers were honest and were hard at effort
They remained busy to clean from the past all dirt
They were real lovers and never resorted to the flirt
Their sixth sense was more refined to make them alert

We are the followers of great and excellent traditions
To upheld the torch of civilization we are the ones
We carry along the bright and ever growing visions
Our forefathers brought audacity to the brilliant sons

We have pride in us because we enlightened the names
We have got fame because of them so we have claims
In our burning heart and soul we carry kindred flames
Every success deserves the fame because of high aims

When music of snow flakes rise
To put love and beauty just wise
Prize of the moment were sighs
When we both were on the skies

Your bosom knot was to fled
When your fragrance to spread

Salute To Christa.D

Let me show you an interesting picture
With vision you may call it real or blur
Christa your comment makes me stir
And it reinvigorates my soul to spur

Christa called my love as lucky duck
Which my mind just hurriedly struck
Out of many roses if one I dare to pluck
Then one should in fact make me stuck

Ducks are ducks with very many faces
They may belong to different races
Some are odd, some ugly in their cases
But lucky ducks do have some basis

As some remarked them pregnant ducks
But some do do purchase them with bucks
What I understand from all this given crux
Like humans some do have just good lucks

Do what I did that was good and fine

World is full of very many classes
Some are iron some fragile glasses
Down the drain with no choices
Some are donkeys and some bosses

Some took birth with silver spoon
Some do not have food for the noon
For some life is like a wonderful boon
While others without food perish soon

Human rights is but a sham slogan
In which for the all poor is just none
Poor people have been shun to run
All exploiters even now have won

Life is serious it is not just for fun
Situation warrants a quick action

Dawn Of Light

Life is like sand particles slipping away from palms of time
It is like a sad song with out rhythm and with out any rhyme
Only time remains constant which counts every sin and crime
Many encounter it in withered stage and many take it in prime
What a strange thing is life philosophers failed to understand
Same take it in ramparts and some embrace it on open land
Every one has his own frequency and every has his own band
Real people are those who face to and just withstand to stand
Like all of other I do accept my ignorance of this sheer reality
At times pity overcome fear and at times fear overcome pity
But people with clean heart and soul have actions so pretty
Due to which dawn of light is prevailing in every town and city

In sheer disgust she is like a sweet guide
Love and beauty are on the same love tide

She is a heavenly wine in a golden cup
My heart wants to take it slowly in sup
Beautiful love letter in shinny envelope
I can not explain the taste of this mix-up

But still I assure you no daggers at the back out of sight
If you do not refrain then you will see miserable plight

Be on guards take all the precautionary measures you can
Do not play with my sanity in rage I am totally insane
Do not portray as a mountain you are not more than sand grain
The amount which you can bear Inflict that torture and pain

Glowing cheeks and surmounting peaks
Every beauty individually turns and speaks

Still my heart and soul recollect how it hit

But then I suddenly lost you never to found
On some untoward incidents and ground

Poor human is averse and consistently ask for curse
Love of thy master provides a shield to forestall

Its a doze a which is given to bulldoze

A momentary stay with very many tests
In a transit camp we are the guests

Dirty desires in barren chests light less stars with drowning crests

Life is like a drop of dew
On the petals of a rose, what I knew

May be a prize but for few
But for the rest surprise in lieu

Declared Virtue

Give me wings of your beauty my love wants to fly
Do not ask me about the limit because limit is the sky
My sweet heart I know you love me so why to be shy
Do not bother about the rivals their death they will die

Be open to my love give beauty a chance to flourish
Let all emotions and desires come up and to nourish
To be together in a hut is what is my innocent wish
To my innocent crime neither debar me nor punish

My sweet heart you belong to me and I belong to you
In my love pursuit I value your beauty and I pursue
On petals of rose your beauty is like drop of a dew
In this dark world of vices you are a declared virtue

Enlightened Austerity

When my sweetheart you take your finger in lips
My heart in intoxication just jumps up and trips
Magic of your beauty surmounts, surrounds, grips
My heart in its grip and with vehement force it snips

Then I think I am no more but its you who just stay
All around and in me like a beautiful golden light ray
My heart in jubilation then s bound to bow and pray
I know what price my love for your beauty has to pay

My beloved my sweetheart please take me on in modesty

Your tender words of love when touch my ear
I feel you closest to my heart so near my dear
Your beauty is just like light of the day so clear

When you whisper in my ear my destiny blinks
And when you are away from a moment it sinks
We are tied up in a strong bond of love and links
There is no one else more beautiful my heart thinks

Let us cross the horizon and be on some other planet
Allow me to sing you on my heartbeats as love sonnet
Let us be away from this world and its all dirty rut

Love To Illuminate

I want to take you from my eyes to my heart
My sweetheart you are so lovely and sweet
My trance dictates me to take you as my part
And to tel my heart to take you as heartbeat

I do not know how to praise your beauty and you
My love has taken you as a piercing streak of light
With you graces and style I am through and thru
With your light my eyes are clear, shining and bright

When I touch you I feel as I am not on this land
Intensity of emotions make my entire body heart
When frequency of your beauty touch my love band
Then I feel myself with you in summer on desert sand

Your beauty is so warm when it embraces my heart
I feel that as if I am Cupid and you are goddess of love
But I am also afraid that the rivals of love are so smart
But I am also confident that our love will keep us above

All such conspiracies and all such odds and dirty design
We are carried away by love in such a state to be great
From pore to pore and part to part intoxicated with wine
We are ready to just accelerate our love to illuminate

Love To Pursue

World is not what it seems apparently
It is full of all sorts of dirty designs
Only people with tricky survive blatantly
A man with honesty of purpose resigns

To a place where his love has a place
Where his sweetheart is ready to embrace
Where beauty has a wonderful grace
Where light just dances on real face

Where rose has its fragrance to portray
Where beloved makes one in a trance
Where heart has at its liberty to say
Whenever and where ever it gets a chance

My beloved my sweet heart in this transit camp
When you are with me in my arms to prove
In my dark life you kindle like enlightened lamp
In the light of your beauty my love is to pursue

What we had and what we have in the days to come
In all those troubles we will be more and more clear
By now we know life is troublesome but awesome
I enjoy those moments when my sweetheart is near

Clear And Plain

Come in my arms and forget about the world
World which is faithless and just totally absurd
You with clean heart is my little innocent bird
With all its deception world makes us to be whirled

My sweet heart you and me don't belong to this hut
Let us be alone in some forest in a far away hut
In real love entralled there is just no if and no but Please close your eyes and let make all the doors shut

Love is love when it grows on the beautiful stalk
Let us straighten our path and then walk and walk
When we are destined to each other no one dare to block
Talk out your heart with its music and talk and talk

My beloved world is very short in its predestined span
It is very much immaterial what we lose and what we gain
Your beauty is intelligent witty, pretty and just sane
But in your love I became insane which is clear and plain

Clean Heart

The birds do have innocent hearts
Are away from conspiracies of all sorts
The most corrupt heart is that of man
Which makes him sane and insane

If one makes his heart clean
Will be able to see unseen
God will come down to kiss
He cannot and will not miss

Any chance of the eternal flight
And ordained to encounter height

Humanity To Hop

You have chained my love and imprisoned for beauty
Who can be more cruel than just you in the city
My sweetheart I know you are charming and pretty
Your charming style is ever haunting never witty

Blood sneaks through the pores and colors my hands
It will ultimately be swept away by waves from the sands
No fragrance of flowers can reciprocate garlands
Tears come and kiss emotions from bands after bands

What is world a sarcasm, a play to show and to see People play in series what is wrong and right could be
What is love, what is beauty what is chain in thee
What should take along as ultimately a valid plea

My heart when its torn oozes blood drop by drop
Even is there a point where all mockery is to stop
If emotions are derailed then they will definitely flop
Humanity bare footed bare headed has to crop and to hop

You portray each symbol and sign
I am yours you totally are mine

You travel with me like my shadow
In your light my cheeks glow
You are in me that I surely know
Please just take me to the show

Set Of Challenges

Life is nothing but a set of challenges
Only brave the courage to take with smile
All sacred books declare the revenges
Even if one has to travel mile after mile

Do not challenge me I am bound to return
Whatever you send with any dirty affect
Fire is for fire and any burn is for burn
So take life seriously and do not neglect

Any word any action any move any retreat
Be firm on your stance declare with conviction
Then no one can dare to attack or to beat
Weapons and words do require proper selection

Each occasion requires due deliberation
Winner is the one who’s ready cent per cent
Only full preparation can bring salvation

No Compromise

When I keep in sight that I am right
Then no barrier can come in the way
If any wall is erected in eyes and sight
Then I can pass like a real light ray

No compromise when path is clean
Do not take me never ever for granted
My heart in my eyes can be seen
God's willing I am not man haunted

Think very many times before you act
But when decided then no point to fear
You need kindness of God in fact
Then do not afraid to attack and tear

Sham and shallow veils to remove Faces should look like in reality
If you are right then just pursue
Only need is just the valid plea

Who so ever comes too close

Ward Of God

What I see and what I saw
Life is nothing but a tragic flaw
Quacks are there to derail the rail
Who aspire to make one fail
Players play with the belief
To give the victim temporary relief
They give poison in sugar coated pill
This is how they aspire to kill
Innocence with all hatred and contempt
This is how they attack and attempt
Man is betrayed to be away from God
This is what their cruel fraud
Real relation is now at stake
Man is to drown in the deepest lake
But in this state who keep bond with God
Are rewarded with relation of a ward
And whosoever is ward of God
Remains in time is never time barred

When your fragrance touches me and makes me dance
Your excellence of style your graces for a while Takes from me my life and makes me beguile
I lost all my confidence and submit to your beauty
Your eyes ocean green and your curly hair like sea
Pearls of your beauty when come to take love
Your sagacity is flowing like a sweet beautiful dove

No Plea

Through whole night I kept awake
Fear was there to break and shake
My dummy head was just in shambles
My faith liberates and just dangles
If I fail to be at employers given place
I may fail and be out of professional race
So I managed by being awake
To be with boss to have that cake
After I managed to all this rut
Then my mind started to if and but
What I did for just a dummy statue
Why can't I perform it thru and thru
For my real Master and Lord
My beloved my Merciful God
So I wept and wept in trance
Why I have taken wrong chance
Why I was afraid of a ninny
How can not afford himself a penny
In disappointment and disgust
I wept a lot to clean the dust
From my heart and my soul
I realized my real established goal
May my God take me in mercy
For my sin I don't have a plea

The Players

The so called innocent are not straight
With different look they are hypocrite
Meanest of mean look apparently great
For discovering truth one has to wait

Life is but a set of events so strange
What is constant and what is change
What is in and what is out of range
What is arranged and what is to arrange

Shrewd just in their vested interests
Full of greed and full of all lusts
Blowing like severe wind gusts
Eaten up by their own distrusts

Will become victim of their own tricks
Can not hold on to their sham sticks
When their conscious just pricks
With their own tricks are in kicks

World is but a circus with players
Who claim themselves soothsayers
With blind eyes they see the glares
Buyers of all sets are actual payers

What is beauty and what is its romance

Just like a beautiful and pure stream

I do not mind even if I lose and become totally insane
Even if I am cut into pieces due to blunt edge of knife

What is the essence and fragrance of beauty to flow
How love will take care of it and be the eternal friend
I will be in and around you to cherish and glow
How love and beauty in togetherness to set a trend

Life Is Meaningless!

Life is meaningless being abstract
At times abstraction gives it meaning
It just attracts us through out in fact
Even if we swing but prefer to cling

A separation between lover and beloved
Meeting culminates being hall mark
In complete darkness being just gloved
Burns us completely being love spark

A communion long awaited in disguise
Who may refrain due to worldly lust
A clear indication for a person so wise
Being in dust is a clear gust in trust

On our shortcomings are defaulter

And we blindly approach the alter

Then His mercy comes as a grace
Which is for every nation and race

Where beauty became bliss in solitude
Beauty in style is still innocent and crude
While love in strength to beauty is imbued

My survival is based on that only stance
Attraction of your beauty makes me advance

Like you I love your lovely lies
In warmth of love beauty sighs

Please come in me and let me sail
Let love move in beauty's trail
The only chance just let me avail
This is what to my life is to entail

Call Me Insane

It is where beauty is smart to take on to start
Love is a communication from heart to heart
One glance takes heart and soul just apart
It is neither a skill nor part on planned chart

My sweetheart please do realize the reality
After seeing you I am totally lost in veracity
My words have changed in strange verbosity
My entire body has become a heart on love plea

Please come and take me on to beauty' path
For your sake I will accept each and every wrath
Please don't give me more fire I am in hearth
Now no one can snatch from me my love bath

If you call me I will come like a hurricane
Love and beauty are now in an eternal chain
I listen to heart pounding and not to brain
People of the town now just call me insane

A Phrase

Love is what beauty demands as a right
Lovers should understand the need
Beloved's company is heavenly bright
Which nourishes with blood its seed

Cadence of love is tested in real odds
Lover has to pay the price with blood
His effort never wastes but lauds
With precious moments like floods

Soul is but a gift of love as reward
Body is but to take and praise
Love is but with beauty like guard
Both are like an interwoven phrase

What To Say

I don't know what to say and what not to say
But let me bold to pray to take you along away
To a place where only be you and me to stay
Like a single soul enthralled in love like a sun ray
No one should be there to disturb and to annoy
My love and your beauty should not cry
Our bodies and souls should fly high above the sky
Then we don't mind even if we die

Just Face To Face

Unless you have will to revive
You will be unable to survive
To get pearls you have to dive
Life is constant struggle to strive
Who strives wins the hearts
Remains in pages not departs
When he willingly plays parts
To tricks never bends or resorts
He remains in time and space
He may be from whatever race
Time keeps his love and grace
On edge of eternity face to face

Lost Grounds

What I have and what I have not
What I still desire and aspire to get
Nothing but like a bosom's knot
Your beauty is my precious asset

My love has no words to appreciate
So for a moment I am totally lost
You are that alluring soul mate
Which has taken my life as cost

You are but a wild rose in prime Whose fragrance comes, surrounds
You are my fortune my time
In front of which I lost all grounds

Real Salvage

A slave has nothing to do about the verdict given
He has to follow and obey to direction he is driven
A slave is to be on right path to desires to shun
Only then he will be able to get Lord's attention

For piety and sincerity rewards are in abundance
Cadence in credence gives him more brilliance
When clarity comes in actions with more patience
This is what is the servitude's real love essence

I cherish and love to be in a real love bondage
Which helps to have strings to make it a bridge
When beauty enters and provides it real salvage
Then graces of Lord showered with no shortage

To Adore

From the lap of the lord to the lap of the lord
We are innocent babies to cherish mercy of God
So kind and benign our follies he always ignores
Sparingly showers all lovely blessings from stores
To please us He created all the beautiful things
All lovely autumns and all soothing springs
All beautiful colors from earth up to the sky
Given all powers to body and soul to fly
Has given us the strength to aspire and explore
Then why should not we be grateful to adore
We are now bound to follow all the rules of sanctity
To prove how that we can rise and be on edge of eternity

Whosoever tells the truth and travels on straight path
Is considered rashly lunatic and taken for granted
He has to face all hatred, all contempt and the wrath
His entire life passes like an innocent dear haunted

Victim of ego and prey of hounds and the vultures
He goes through pain in heart from all in and out
It is very difficult to live and strive among all archers
But he takes wisdom from faith to be more stout

A man of principle goes happily through every fire
Even if he is burnt he surpasses time for salvation
Being conscientious he encounters every quagmire
Son of morality he rises from clouds like fiery sun

The Prison

With out any glorious tangible sash
World is just nothing but totally trash
Every thing is sold if you have cash
Dirty clash happens with dirty crash

A dust bin filled with notorious acts
Lies superseded all civilized pacts
Under garbage are hidden facts
All are false and wicked contracts

For good person it is like prison
With good actions one can won
It is like a dirty priest with nun
All is based on all desires to shun

Start Of Ride

World is a transit camp people come and go
They stay some time vanish in wink of eyebrow
All have their own intentions with a pace slow
What is their objective no one knows though

Some bring women some come all alone
Some come on loan some come to be blown
Some are brought some come at their own
Some become notorious some vanish unknown

World is like a hotel where I have to reside
It is whose choice I may not be able to decide
Me and image of my beloved go side by side
I do not know about the end it is start of ride

So Swift

Love is nothing but a constant sense of sacrifice
It comes from paradise and costs double price
Taking it as animal spirit people take it as slice
It is virtue of the heaven not from hell just a vice

It is not a commodity which is sold on a shop
A virtue makes your head chop or takes to top
It is dawnd on soul to pacify it drop by drop
Like a seed in the land of heart brings pure crop

Love when dawnd on a saint he got lunar spill
He said love would be seen in three days as bill
First day he was cut in to pieces to prove his skill
Next day was burnt in to ashes to cater for drill

His ashes were thrown on a river to pacify as a gift
Love is nothing but a relation of good and bad's rift
If you have a pure heart go and dare to sift and drift
It travels with speed of light in seconds it is so swift

Big Blow

Molested by the culture of corrupt he lacks values
By committing a blunder he is happy to just abuse
A faithless person takes every bad thing to amuse
His so called ego, and freedom to explore venues

Chains of faith, humanity and society keep us right
If we debarred light converts into darkness of night
Even with eyes we will lose sight as well as insight
Cultural invasion will play hell to the coming height

Poor soul mixture of east and west is bound to follow
Dictum of his faith less he becomes just totally hollow
He should know what is right by the friend and foe
If he fails then he should be ready to big bang and blow

Where Is The Man

Apparently bright but so dark inside
Full of greed, lust and just sham pride
He is the one who can wonderfully hide
On Satan's ride lover goes side by side

Face smiles but with a cover of hatred
Whatever is said others call well said
At times just aspired for destined bread
With morose hearts and souls dead

Where is the real face with honesty
Which can lead us to be more free
To whose verdict we can easily agree
Who can be mirror thru which can see

All what is in and all what is around
With sagacity and character so sound
Who can be like a blessing on ground
Who follows all the limits and bounds

Who Dare To

You can't claim all your actions are based on sincerity
Unless your head and heart are on same frequency
If you do not do this you are sheer victim of self flattery
Rest assured you are sinking in deception without plea

Honest are those who what so ever say believe in same
Their good and high claim brings them destiny with aim
Flame of love kindled in soul brings good name and fame
No one in life can just dare to blame them to defame

Being beacon of light they spread light to nourish
Hurdles, trials and odds come in their way just to vanish
They take difficult path to distinguish and to accomplish
They dare to diminish evils and virtues are to establish

Charming Stance

When she bends to pick something
Surroundings are overtaken by spring
Such amazing beauty no one can bring
To it my heart wants to swing and cling

She is beauty of her own alluring class
Through which like glass eyes can pass
How can I bear this which can't surpass
She is of her kind like her no other lass

She has taken me over in just one glance
From that moment I am just in a trance
From that moment my heart is in dance
Her charming stance is my love romance

Heightened Glory

Life is a struggle relentless and unending
Leafless in autumn with flowers in spring
Happiness and pain interwoven in string
With all its idiosyncrasies it is strange thing

What we aspire and what we are granted
Most of the time wanted remains unwanted
Takes along good and bad just blended
Some being avid people are really blessed

Life like water is ever flowing to the future
Even if most of the time is unclear and blur
For all poets it is like the curly hair of her
At times amber and at times becomes alter

I fail to understand its wisdom and sagacity
While wise people take it as a continuous duty
It is like beauty which remains eternal love plea
It is key to success it is a step to heightened glory

Dirty Faces

Apparently all people carry love on their faces
Hatred ingrained in them from the dirty races
They carry their revenge from dust to ashes
From time to time and from paces to paces

What they portray and what actually they are
They keep it in cover and behind the hidden bar
For their pity interest they are ready to wage war
Bad intentions take them from kindness too far

Mirrors of their hearts are covered with dirty dust
Hence they are liable to be meanest being in rust
Thy carry along all the appetite greed and lust
They are the faithless creatures with out any trust

Because of her astonishing curves
She dangles and dances on my nerves
Sheer praise her beauty deserves
She is just mine my love right reserves

So henceforth I take her beauty as my right
For me she is the only source of delight

She seems like a full moon lit night

With smiling eyes and glowing cheeks
Her beauty glows from peaks to peaks
From her dress her every part aptly peeps
I can not describe her in days and weeks

I do not know whether death is action or reflection
Because neither life nor death has got perfection
At times hatred takes over and eats up attraction
No one in the world can help me in my selection

Death is but extension of life in some other shape
Life stands for nothing but a set of rape after rape
Valiant dare to take but cowards go for the escape
Life is what a crushed shape of good juicy grape

Love and hatred are shapes of discarded events
We are in world only on rents for few of the cents

Of that lass which was pure like glass

Of my innocent and young little dove

World A Deception

In cruel clutches of the world you left me alone
Being no longer required it was good to be thrown
In a dirty dustbin where no body should own
How love can nurture in hearts made of stone

With hawks eyes and with wolves ugly jaws
Lip service for humanity with discarded clause
Feelings are crushed under pressure of heavy laws
Life is a young dove being taken in vulture claws

Based on tricks social animals are just animals
While when sent were made like pure angels
Most of the spices are just like water bubbles
Being cheap commodity some are found in brothels

On Edge Of Eternity

You can win your goal and be a winner
It hardly matters if righteous or sinner
Even if vision is clear or in illusion or blur
But heart should be clean and soul is to stir

No one can dare to exploit your all efforts
Path will be clear and will vanish all the dirts
Love remains love unless it becomes to flirts
He remains the winner who dares and exerts

My duty is my worship my task is to sincere
Hence it is declared there is no fear just to steer
Your boat in every water your skill in every sphere
When conscious is clear then destiny is so near

As a soldier my belief is in God who gives relief
My argument is so clear my stance is so brief
I remain happy in all sadness pain and grief
Who remains ever green I am that blessed leaf

Entire Journey

At times we fail to get the answers we seek
Then suddenly comes to mind like a streak

We get wisdom to know about the stance
But efforts get us there not only a chance
Then mind gets clarity from every romance

Because I happen to be a tough adversary
Do not play with my simplicity and sagacity

But I will not spare him to get any relief

So do not let me stray in this ugly world all alone
Only you are the one who I can claim to be my own
Consider me a man with soft heart and not a stone

Surpass the beauty over all visible borders
Provides to my thirsty eyes all the answers

We have carried gracefully it up to now

But rivals are with tricks always on watch
Pure, innocent sincere love to debauch

The Guide

Love is not a cheap commodity being sold on shop
It's serious affair which takes blood and remains on top
At times a lover presents his head on alter of love to chop
It's a bleeding wound which drops inside drop by drop

Lover when dejected and depressed becomes a game, play
In the hands of cruel people of the world like strayed ray
But his beloved grows in him continuously as day by day
Beauty is in want of blood and needs heart and head to slay

Whether love surpasses beauty or beauty surpasses love in tide
This is the topic which commands the entire world far and wide
No one is there to take care of dejected injured hearts side by side
Only beauty can play its part to ride the tide and to be the guide

My Musical Lyric

My sweetheart my beautiful young chick
My aesthetic sense has to select and pick
Your sensual beauty makes me lunatic
That is the reason my behavior is erratic

Your one glance took me to sky on flight
You are so charming with beauty so bright
My heart becomes rainbow like colorful kite
I am out of my sight since you came to sight

What I see you have more beauty to celebrate
You are so dazzling, elegant and so delicate
My love my heart aspires to take you on date
Your personality is so charismatic and great

I want to take you like divine wine sip by sip
The moment I saw you I am in your soft grip
Pleasure takes to flight when I am lip on lip
I am poet and you become my musical lyric

Make Me Fly

Give me wings of love to make me fly
I know to your beauty limit is the sky
If you give me warmth to take me high
Promise me to live together and to die

Let our love be for times to come
Let not make beautiful life troublesome
Your alluring beauty remains awesome
Me and my love gets from you all rhythm

You are my last hope on this earth
Even if of lovely girls there is no dearth
I think I love you from just your birth
With out you I know I have no worth

Let now be love partners for the life
Whether we have good times or in strife
I do not mind if you keep me on blunt knife
But for God sake be my beautiful caring wife

Teen Evergreen

A smart alluring beautiful teen
What a beauty seems ever green
The world might not have seen
She looks really neat and clean
Seems exactly pink rose on screen
I am her king she is my queen
She seems so sober and serene
We are one nothing in between

Light glows, needs appreciation
Thundering cloud, warming sun
If one strives there is but none
Her graceful style makes me stun
I will try to pursue and be won
Taking hand in hand we will run

Death Comes

My days are counted my breath is to seize
What can I do just nothing but to release
No hope is left nothing comes with breeze
My ambitions are fading crease by crease

My destiny is clear with pain and torture
What ever I see seems nothing but blur
Growing from an amber now I am on alter
Today I am tomorrow will make me were

So helpless I am But still I can not scream
In this darkness there is no ray no beam
As an individual leaving behind my team
I am just nothing but a part of bigger scheme

Death takes me as a guest from world's breast
Facing test after test for still another test
Being best creation I was declared the best
My journey is alone by leaving all the rest

Note. My brother is on deathbed for whom I have written it with tears.

You have taken me with a glance
Now I don't know what to do
I only aspire for another chance

Sanctity Will Glow

Counting on another is nothing but stupidity
It will hinder you and will take your freedom
It makes you dependent for nothing to see
What is in life troublesome and in the bosom

People are not so simple as they portray to be Innocence is covered under lot many tricks
Varieties are in action in this ocean in this sea
Beautiful pics of chicks are walls bricks by bricks

Sincerity is nothing but a taboo of golden times
Love is based on hatred and values are bygone
Relations are condensed but to heinous crimes
Darkness is prevailing with no hope to dawn

Still some idiots do aspire with hope to see
Change in time and tide by being just in row
Good times to come with only hope and plea
Humanity will flourish and sanctity will glow

We are all in a transit camp for our turn to proceed
In front of commandment of God we have to concede
Being helpless our case we are unable to present plead
As per written decree being bound our hearts may bleed
It does not matter what is our caste color and creed
But it is quite sure what is written in fate will happen indeed

Like prisoners we are chained in invisible eternal chains
Even then we have to survive even if we are down the drains
Mostly love is the matter of hearts and not matter of brains
There is one destination to which moving all the moving trains
We are unaware whether these are sheer losses or sheer gains
We do not know whether these are cruel clutches or merciful rains

But ultimately it was revealed you are stationed in me
At times I feel you when you happen to surround
How can I see I find when you are fragrance just to be

Gracefully Retire

Life is nothing but the scandal of a whore
Whether to abhor or whether to adore
When you extend less it will ask for more
It remains sore from pore to pore

Its behavior remains very strange
No compromise for the sake of change
What is in the range and what to arrange
There are only views to exchange

What is desired and what we aspire
Has nothing to do with need or desire
By hook or crook we have to expire
Under all circumstances to gracefully retire

Clever And Smart

I thought my loved ones will place me under the shade
They proved themselves wiser they put me on blade
By becoming saddest I enjoy and feel more happy and glade
People have some humanity but relatives are of third grade

It seems all claimant of blood are blood thirst and hounds
On one pretext or another they inflict pain on some grounds
For this cruel act they do not need any limits or any bounds
They do not portray any mannerism after very may rounds

Hence I have taken over the skin of crocodile not to feel
I have killed my heart to be one on one to offer a deal
I know I cannot put any medicine on them to cure, heal
With this rigmarole I cannot change movement of wheal

Life is to go and all of us we have to play our given part
Whether we stay together or we disengage and depart
This is what comes in end this is from where we start
Innocence cannot be overtaken by being clever and smart

It is a constant and consistent flight
In complete darkness springs like light
In utter dejection brings life to delight

Every piece of effort is to be rewarded
From all evils man is but to be guarded

In Exile

Life is nothing but a journey in exile
From paces to paces from mile to mile
It seems death blue like river Nile
It is soul of heaven and clay of soil

It is thorny path with bare feet
Like burning sun with scorching heat
Time is passing with heart beat
Story of life written on blank sheet

Bruises of soul with agony of time
Makes every moment full of crime
When all pains bloom to the prime
Is life action or just silly a mime

Fate is written in steps line by line
Life is bound to follow every sign
What all is yours what all is mine

When helplessness takes a flight

When worldly abode is to detest

Appeal For Clemency

Unless we have the honesty of purpose
We can not be successful in the service
Inner self is totally different from surface
Hence what we portray is just a circus

Every profession want sweat and blood
Only efforts change calmness into flood
Otherwise mud will just go back to mud
No race will be won by an ordinary stud

We don't have destination so no destiny
How can we have any appeal for clemency
Life is a bitter truth it is not a mere fantasy
We are nothing but our own enemy

Fire To Burn

Love is nothing but a fire to burn
It is a point with no turn or return
Beauty is there to make us learn
My beloved is very bold and stern

We both want to go in a style
Which leaves a sign on every mile
I can sacrifice my life on her smile
For rivals beloved style is a trial

I want to sail with her and sink
In green eyes with lips so pink
This is a wine to take and drink
Life has opted for glorious link

We may die but love remains
Since to her beauty it pertains
In thundering storms and rains
Why to bother about disdains

Declared Choice

I have secretly kept you underneath my heart
I don't want any one to know about the affair
Under no circumstances I want ever to depart
Let me be honest in our love and be more fair

You are like a butterfly which I want to keep
Like a young boy in my palm as an eternal gift
Please don't debar me to love you and go deep
Not to allow the rivals to aspire to create any rift

I know our love is writing on the sand on shore
Waves of water will soon come and take it away
But no one can ever dare to stop me to love, adore
I am ready to pay the the price what ever it may

Like romantics we will remain in the chest of time
Our love story will tell others about the love price
Love and beauty definitely bloom in early prime
In true love edge of eternity is our declared choice

Eternal Lights

Please hold me for a while in your arms
I want to have my lost credence back
Let love enjoy all the charming norms
On my request Just give me what I lack

Hold my hand in yours and let it warm
Let us be frank and talk heart to heart
Help me and let me to form and reform
After this moment I never want to depart

Your fragrance has taken me just away
I take you along hence now and then
You have passed through like light ray
I do not know now what happened when

Let me carry your sweet image in eyes
Just take me over along never to leave
Let my heart beat with beauty's cries
Only you are the one who can relieve

My from this eternal agony and pain
Let me take you to glorious heights
Let us freely dance in drizzling rain
Let us be enlightened with eternal lights

Reward For Grateful

People are wise enough in their interest
But seem stupid when to others it pertain
It is very difficult to confide in or trust
Because thy work in a group like chain

Sense of responsibility is rarely found
They are like vultures they are hounds
They act upon their groundless ground
They do not have any limits or bounds

They ignore even presence of thy Lord
Play tricks for accomplishment of plans
Their motives and actions thrown by God
In the shape of odds, trials and disdains

May God help us not to be ungrateful
Only grateful deserve all the bounties
We are nothing but God's mercy is to pull
All of us to innumerable graceful counties

My Credence

Our heart beat becomes music in complete silence
Love and beauty mingle in perfect sweet cadence
My sweet heart your beauty has wonderful pretense
Your beauty has astonished me, I lost my credence

Beauty is my faith and love is my declared stance
When I think about you my heart starts to dance
Love is at first sight but beauty provides a chance
This has become strong stance in our romance

I am in a trance when I saw you I lost my identity
My aesthetic sense has flown me to cross eternity
Now I am a lover of beauty with out my integrity
I look in every thing for you I want to have clarity

Please embrace me, tell what I am to your charm
Increase my faith in love through beauty with norm
My God is so beautiful who has given you this form
Let me kiss you, caress you in this there is no harm

The Relief

Scattered by ideas shattered by Faith
Vague impressions dangled me to wrath
Sentenced sincerity seems like wraith
Doubtless images astray me from path

Life is but like a reckless necklace
Relations are but jugglery of words
I don't know to whom I may confess
Broken nests with shed away birds

Hatred superseded love in its entirety
In darkness there is nothing to believe
All around darkness is up to eternity
Only death can now come to relieve

Wink Of Eyebrow

My sweet heart your image is in mirror of my heart
I see you all around i can not even think to depart
I have taken you along on ride on my life cart
It seems as you have become all me and my part

God has created you by taking all beauty in your figure
By being most beautiful you have the power to trigger
With all love and affection He has thought to configure
In your charm He celebrated His beauty more bigger

I have declared you my life my heart and life is to grow
I take care of you and make like a fragrant rose to glow

Being my blue eyed you do carry pride in your stylish stride

We can conquer all the vistas and horizons If you be with me
You do not know in your company what my fortune could be
I am sailor of love in search of beauty and you are beauty of sea
I am for you and you are for me this is what I carry as only plea

Love Communion

When internally your sentiments are so flooded
Then never try to hide your love from beloved
It is but sure that all lovers are but hot blooded
Love is nothing but like uncontrollably studded

Your beauty is a hunter and I really feel hunted
Your graces and style make me really confronted
To encounter this opportunity I feel but stunted
Let us be together to make all the rivals shunted

My love my life my heart my eyes let me take
You with your all graces in a heaven to awake
Just for your beauty and your gracious style sake
I am really ready to attack to take and to partake

All world and all those who dare to come in way
I will take and hide your beauty just ray by ray
To your sublimity magnanimity I have to pray
Let us our love communion flourish day by day

Laughing Stalk

Dishonesty and deceit has gone down to the roots
Pomp and show has become their charter and truce
For their meanest cause they can always induce
For every irresponsible act they have a valid excuse
They have their own nefarious designs and recluse
They have nothing good to produce or reproduce
With their dirty useless tricks they openly seduce
This is how they illegally and immorally abuse

Legal authority and responsibility invested in them
From them nothing which is good to crop up or stem
Hence with retarded minds, complexes they can't swim
Their blessed lights embrace darkness and become dim
Since they are unable to change their behavior to trim
Their state goes to a state where that id nothing but grim
When their attitudinal filth and dirt come up to the brim
Then they become laughing stalk with their expired sim

To touch the horizons and to cross the barriers

Then what guides us how to be good carriers

Of sheer love or mere hatred, rivalry just goes on Rivals are on the way to snatch from us this chance
From dawn to dusk and from dusk to dawn
All of us play our own tune to dance and dance

Ungrateful are down the drain to flirt with the dirt

No one in universe can surpass her as a whole
She is lady of my heart she is beauty of my soul
If any thing is in my life she is my only goal

Whenever in ecstasy I have an occasional glance
The entire world just accompanies me in dance
I aspire again and again to get beautiful chance
I learnt from her what is love what is romance

When with her I don't what happens to my eyes
I see her all around whether in sounds and love cries
When ever she is in public every one sees and dies
Moonlight feels astonished when in moonlight she rise

She is soft like petals of rose she is pink like a rose

Taste of beauty was more than wine
Happily both were hand in hand to shine

What Is World

As an innocent nun with a clever monk
Submits as a sacred duty to go to bonk
When she knows the secret like a wonk
Then she is withered like rose to conk

This world is like a bitch like a whore
Which takes innocent door to door
Apparently act is heinous to abhor
But the innocence is to admire to adore

The faces are darker than they seem
Darkness eats up glare of light beam
Wickedness travels in a group in team
Veils stop streak of light just to gleam

What all is worship and what is lust
Are fully hidden under the dirty dust
What in hands remains as a must
Is in shame and shambles just to rust

This world is like a dirty market
Where human emotions are sold
Where sliver for rich becomes gold
And gold of poor fails to hold

Efforts of poor are just fruitless
While tricks of rich more or less
Declared successful on the guess
Contemptuous are holders of bless

Human values, humanity on sale
Riches makes faces glow in veil
While faces of poor morose, pale
How in troubled waters one sail

How can we change this circus
Unless sincerely we will discuss
The fate or fortune of this buss
Only then we can abolish the fuss

Love Crest

Without love's touch beauty becomes stale
Hence romantic sentiments remain under veil
Bitten by love beautiful faces become pale
In love boat lovers amicably ready to sail

Love like fire burns make ashes and returns
Real lover always remains in the fire of guns
From strange behavior of beloved lover learns
Love is up above the heavens hence Satan runs

With beauty of my beloved my love is a trail
We are the travelers and life is like a speedy rail
With sincerity of the purpose one can not fail
Love is supreme it dawns on lovers like a mail

My love is a test your beauty is surely the best
Have beloved in the arms forget about the rest
Your image is on my face your love is on the chest
I am down under the mountain and you are crest

Love Velocity

Patience and tenacity remain love velocity
Beauty with its graces depend on sagacity
My love my sweetheart have just some pity
Do not go along with rivals mere verbosity

A streak of love when touches thy beauty
From a drop of water love becomes sea
In ocean of emotions when lovers dip to see
Reality crops up to dwell with authenticity

When I saw you I lost all just in a glance
I think I believe that was the only chance
When I was taken away totally by romance
This is what became a chance to enhance

My beloved my sweet heart heart be my life
With your graces do not keep me on the knife
Please remain mine whether adversity or strife
We belong to each other let's be husband and wife

Poetry And Wine

Oh my sweetheart you flow in me
Like love poetry and the best wine
My words actions if you can see
They all portray that you are mine

People when talk about both of us
They can never separate us at all
They will never ever can discuss Whether decline or rise or just fall

Beauty for love is like sheer catalyst
Which invigorates the spirits to eternity
In our love we are surely the ever best
With sincerity of love comes real sublimity

My eyes are still wide open to see
My beloved your charming beauty
Your beauty makes me in waiting
Definitely this chance is so satiating
Come and sooth my painful eyes
Please don't believe in rival's lies
No one wants to see our pleasure
Intensity of love is hard to measure
Beauty is that valuable treasure
Which can take the life of soothsayer

My heart wants beauty to dance
With out you my death is certain
This might be for you just a fun

Kindness Of God

Worship and bow in front of Lord
Hence love makes more real sense
Never forget remembrance of God
Surely hearts get peace in remembrance

In every difficulty He rushes to guard
Never ignores His beautiful creation
All human creation He takes His ward
Under no circumstances He breaks relation

His love is supreme with countless graces
His charity remains for all and sundry
For all the nations and for all the races
All helpless look towards Him in quandary

My beloved God help me in every difficulty
No one else but only you can help and secure
Being sinner but on your mercy's plea
You kindness prevails on all, pure or impure

For hours days and for all weeks

My survival is in you love touch
Beauty remains a mercy as such
Now I am no more a mere smutch
Love aspires for much and much

This is what beauty needs to do

Beauty Of Soul

Love is the beauty of my soul
You are beauty of my love
Your beauty from pole to pole
Makes my love perfect now

When you look in to my eyes
I remain no more on land
My love cross all the skies
We then travel hand in hand

Without you in sand dunes
I feel lonely and all alone
My love loses all its tunes
I also lose taste and tone

Be my beloved in real sense
Please me with your real grace
Please don't make life sentence
Let me love you face to face

Moment To Depart

With eyes full of tears the pain is to bear
Love bondage fail and taken over by fear
My sweetheart my beloved and my dear
You have taken all by remaining so near

Now you are leaving me for ever
We may not see each other and never Come across on to be deserted to deliver
The boat will be taken away by river

But still i must maintain and declare
I wait for you till my eyes open and care
I will take the burden to move and bare
You must realize you were unjust unfair

You lost love and got the hand of rival
Who is taking you away for more trouble
With whom your life will be totally dull
Then you will realize about useless travel

Northern Star

Oh my sweetheart you are a full cup of wine
Being up from the heaven you are purely divine
Every sip of it makes me intoxicated being mine
You are so beautiful you are so good and fine

Your intoxication flows in my blood my veins
You enthrall me like summer drizzling rains
Love surrounds hearts being not matter of brains
All mercy comes on lovers as matter of disdains

Your beauty your dress your gait your grace
Makes me to be overtaken by struggle by race
I hold you in my arms and you come face to face
I kiss I caress and then in jubilation I embrace

Please be mine and please do not ever debar

Let the bad intentions of the rivals never mar

Awkward moments in life crop up
To take test of ones real intentions
Changes into poison full love cup
Where beauty needs more detentions

Rivals create all distrust and doubt
Image of beloved becomes more dark
Where all becomes and is just about
It makes no difference even if dogs bark

Essence of love can not be overtaken
Beloved's beauty gleams more and more
Bad intentions of rivals are forsaken
Fragrance of love travels door to door

My sweetheart no one can change stance
I beg you for you beauty and grace
Please don't give to any one this chance

My Fortune

I do not know from where to start
About love affair to part and depart
Appreciating beauty is a real art
For which one has to be really smart

Your fragrance and innocence attract
It is your sagacity with which you select
I know my limitations not to be perfect
But your every step is very very correct

Please accept me with all my blunders
Do not shower on me beauty's thunders
Forgetting about all ups and sunders
Show me what are the beauty's wonders

I am yours please don't doubt about that
Let me take you on a wonderful love date
I worship your beauty you are so great

Love Band

Completely involved, enthralled in love
Let me kiss you my little innocent dove
Please don't cut me with beauty's bow
I lost myself don't ask now why and how

Love nourishes with pure hot blood
Then it overflows with intensity of flood
Only those are not affected who are dud
Beauty is taken over by hard like a stud

My blood your company is supreme
When you make with me a love team
Then to every one in entire world it seem Graceful beauty how glistens like a beam

My love my dove don't leave me alone
Now you and me in love have grown
On beauty's music and enchanting tone
Love has grown up and clearly shown

Love like worship is love'hall mark
Which like light gleams up from dark
Let us enjoy love in entirety in love park
Where love should sing like love lark

Corrupt Humanity

With different intentions faces tell lies
With ulterior motives hypocrisy emerge
Under this stress heart plaintively cries
All is false this is what is to diverge

What someone is and what he seems
That is not the case that is not truth
Eyes full of mud with their own dreams
Incapable to see being dirty, uncouth

Hence in this drama false take the roots
Sincerity is in a fix and is to vanish
Love tree is barren and bear no fruits
Humanity with animosity is just to banish

Are we humans or just in the shape
Where is our humanity where are we Molested minds to corrupt and in rape
One with clear vision can easily see

Only you protect me being my Benefactor

And left alone by all my blood relations
In troublesome state I lose destinations
For my protection are left no stations

When I am surrounded by vaulters and hounds
In that miserable plight when I lose grounds
Then your kindness, grace comes down, surrounds
Then my happiness and joys need no bounds

Summer Love

In rainy season love crops up to the brim
Seeks from the beauty to let together swim
In golden pond of lovers where love in vim
Romance gets spirits with beauty so slim

Let us fly together in emotional twist
Let us cross the heights and be in list
These golden moments are the best in gist
Let us be illuminated when we are kissed

By the test of time we should go across
More gain depicted then a sheer loss
Coincidentally we are from that class
Which seems to be one from mirror of glass

You travel in me and I travel in you
Hence we are blessed just thru and thru
You are pure rose I am drop of dew

The Destiny

Our destiny is predestined which we carry along
A direction is decreed whether it is right or wrong
We are just servants and to our Master we belong
This is what is basis of my this very humble song

We have to have the orders always in our sight
We then gleam through this journey clear and bright
If we are bound by this then we fly like a kite
This strengthens faith and guide us to the right

Love of Master travels with us if we follow dictates
Every thing just comes to us in beautiful plates
Only those are debarred who by nature are third rates
Their faces just declare their clumsy miserable states

Only then we can be better than angels in the sky
Only then we nourish love above us so high
Truth overcome all the third rate falsehood, lies
But the truthful with his truth joyously cries

They are the successful who hold the rope fast
They don't have to care even bomb is going to blast
If we in the boat of blessings and hold the mast
Then no one can dare to make us lost or the last

Untrustworthy People

If trusted meanest of mean
You will get daggers in the back
They are opportunist and keen
With faces, white hearts so black
In the garb they can be seen
Moving on their own dirty track
Apparently in branded pack
Looking so clear and clean
Morality is what they surely lack Dirty designs on big screen
In their duties all hidden slack
In their tricks they are evergreen
And have a big bang in crack

True To Aspire

Love with very many beautiful shades
Is being cut with double edged blades
Beauty celebrated by beautiful maids
Is prepared with all attacks and raids
The process is on for many decades
When odds are encountered in brigades
And steps segregated in different grades
Then Truth remains and falsehood fades

No one in world can dare to stop

And you are playing in his hands for survival
But very soon with real face on actual arrival

Seeker of love is never satisfied
Every moment brings more odds
Beauty whether implicit, implied
Remains always lord of lords

Love is a jump from earth to sky
Lover is exalted in romance
Emotions always crop up go high
Lover never spares any chance

Let my beloved be in that race
Where all aspire to win the day
Mirror of heart be on the face
Due price one needs to pay

From the day I am attracted
From the time we are in touch
From the time you are selected
I now do not see around much

Please be mine like a cup of wine
Let me sip you more slow in pace
You and me are together more fine
Let me worship your kindled grace

My eyes take dip you are white and milky
When you move your graceful straight gait
Makes my heart pounce like a fishing bait
Your eyes so bright your cheeks red and white
Enthralls my heart make me to take light
Your body is so smart like an innocent heart
Your ups and downs when wear a crown
Take me to sky and then throw me down
With all my efforts I can't bear sustain
Your glowing beauty in drizzling rain
Your hair when touch your chest in trance
My heart leaves me and starts to dance

First Discourse

I still remember that first discourse
When your smile became love resource
And then I lost my path my course
And now you are my only source

When our eyes became just friends
Then suddenly changed all the trends
When love gets hand of beauty bends
On one glance heart hurriedly lends

All what it carries for life to go
Then beloveds cheeks to glow
This is how love aspires to glow
All sentiments burst and blow

Your beauty is now only stance
Which was result of a lovely glance
Heart jumps up and starts to dance
This is love attraction this is romance

Fragrance In Azure

Oh my beloved let me implore
All our rivals are to abhor
No one can dare to ignore
Love is known from door to door
No one has seen such beauty before
Let me praise you let me adore
Be my love and do not ignore
Emotions crop up in me in chore
When beauty dances from pore to pore
My heart aspires more and more
Eyes still want to explore more
Lot of love is still kept in store
Your beauty wants to restore
And spreads fragrance in azure

In Harmony

We come from God go back to Him
Our path is not clear in light so dim
All is written in the Book of Fate
We have to follow the written dictate
We start life blindly and innocently
Every step seems it started recently
On light of God shows us right path
Alternatively we aspire for the wrath
Satan is along to drag us to gallows
Mercy of God kindles and mellows
Our every step taken towards wrong
Heart carries along the right song
Love of God protects in every tyranny
Sincerity of heart keeps us in harmony

Sense Of Commitment

I came to worship and to die
Your beauty in a real trance
If I am successful I will fly
I will not take another chance
Price of my life is not high
It is but your lovely glance

My Beloved please don't debar
My eyes from a french kiss
I beg your beauty not to mar
My request do not dismiss
Your beauty and love are at par
Be a bliss my lovely miss

You and me will travel along
On the path which will lead
To eternity with love song
Don't leave my heart to bleed
Its me to whom you belong
Let us sow deep down love seed

My Sweet Beloved

There is no one except you oh my beloved
So come closer and conquer me with style
Your sparkling cheeks so white and so red
Intoxicate me for once and for a while

I can't see anything else but only you
You flow in me like my demanding blood
Please take me along through and through Overtake me with emotions, feelings flood

Your beauty surpasses the entire universe
My love is more than fire of the burning hell
All and entire beauty comes and converse
For praising your beauty I put my world to sell

You touched all the chords of my heart and soul
Your light takes me to eternal flight to sky
You are so sweet my beautiful colorful doll
On my wings of love I can take you so high

False Relations

All relations are sham, false and untrue
Honesty is rarely found to ascertain
Hence throughout life one can't construe
Pun and opposition are used for fun

Blood relations are blood thirsty
Vengeance travels in blood with flow
Eyes are full of awe and dusty
Inheritance takes every war and row

Brothers and sisters are for the sake
Every move is with a selected objective
They always take and always partake
Their role of not friend but of a detective

Distances increase love and attraction
They decrease contempt and hatred
One has to be precise in selection
Before life leaves and on is dead

Love Rekindled

After a long long time I came across
To my beloved with all glowing charm
Her presence elevated me to pass
All the barriers to feel more warm

I feel that I am flying not on land
Carrying her along somewhere in sky
We are surround by flowers garland
My emotions make me fly so high

Your fragrance make me lunatic
Your beauty enthralls me to the extent
Your charm makes me real fanatic
My heart worships you cent per cent

Oh my beloved I am grateful to you
Please keep me in your bosoms knot
Let us be again together and through
Let me kiss you and love you a lot

Half Faces

We can't see all but only half faces
What is seen don't depict the hidden
This is going on in the world from races
Reality remains like food forbidden

People carry them in their masks
Apparently are saints in guise of Satan
They don't uncover even if one asks
They in pun celebrate and enjoy the fun

Best creation with worst attitude
With ulterior motives nefarious design
Have in dishonesty their fortitude
Feel the successful good and fine

World is for them they are for world
Their half faces are tricks of the trade
Their sham slogans their false herald
Make them dirty dishonest, third rate

Mature Whore

She plays with my innocent desires
Being mature she has her designs
In her own tricky way she aspires
When she gets me she flatly resigns

She takes benefit of her age and skill
Hence she can inspire me to submit
She knows how to play and to kill
She wants me all in all but bit by bit

She learns with me the play of love
She pleases my rival with the charm
She is an enemy in shape of a dove
Which inflicts on me every harm

I am a school boy she is mature whore
I lost my every emotion and feeling
Even if you ask me I can't tell more
This was not love but dirty dealing

Spiritual Love

Spiritual love needs burning in fire
I am ready to embrace naked wire
Price of this love is known to me
Moses did it on only this love plea
Who so ever desires it goes to ashes
Fiery lashes are real love lashes
With beloved whether heaven or hell
For a lover it is pleasure to excel
Me and you are friends of soul
Bodies are no matter and no goal
God is light and we need that light
It may just be a deplorable plight
Lovers are those who embrace light
Mundane desires require severe fight

I Am Confused

What is this life and what it stands for
My conscience pricks and make me debar
To understand and enjoy its real essence
But chains of morality drag back me to sense
They say I am born free but remain in chains
With lusty babes I wasted my drizzling rains
If I look around all vultures and dirty hounds
Want to tear me off on their dirty grounds
Parents teachers and Hippocratic priests
Surround me and teach me to avoid beasts
I am fed up all this melodrama on ground
I don't know how to be free how be bound
My feelings my emotions want me to play
Game of love with beloved in night and day
I need someone who should take me out
And help me to be ready for another bout
I may stray I may duck down may win or may fail
But at least with freedom I will drown I will sail

Leaps And Bounds

Your love increases by leaps and bounds
Even if we are surrounded by rival hounds
Let me assure you on solid love grounds
We will cross horizons declared out of bounds

Endowed with seductive power your charm
Makes love atmosphere more hot and warm
Keeping aside every worldly declared norm
Your graceful form brings me in real form

By getting all opportunities to discover, explore
Let me caress you kiss you and honestly adore
Emotions and feelings crop up from pore to pore
Thirsty eyes at chore ask for more and more

Oh my beloved come and grace me for ever
Extend all your graces and debar me from favor

No one should dare to separate us now or never

A surge of passion stirs in my heart
Which encounters all heavy clouds apart
Hurdles may come in the way of all sort
But your beauty attracts me being smart

Oh my beloved you can’t understand
How your beauty uncovers band by band
For all this my love has a valid stand
Which takes beauty and love hand in hand

Your beautiful red cheeks with a mole
Stirs all feelings, emotions in my soul
I want to snatch all colors of the doll
Let us play together the fiery love role

Like An Image

Sitting on the shore of an ocean
Busy in counting receding waves
I think about the days to run
Throwing water on each other paves

Building castles of love with sand
And then demolishing as a fun
Enthralled in love not on land
Under scorching heat of hot sun

Then you left me in disgust in pain
And selected my rival just to tease
Now when I come on shore in rain
Life becomes curse not to please

I see your image on the water
Which vanishes like an image
Love becomes beauty’s martyr
And remains on stage as a page

That spirit of reunion to celebrate
Every action to sparingly accommodate
To carry along ones own soulmate
Sense of oneness and belonging is great

Horizons seem under lovers feet
When in action comes the fleet
Celebrating love on love seat
No other action can easily beat

Sparkles all this dangling flight
Carrying along all love might
On this path being straight and bright
Right of love over beauty's right

Arrow Of Love

Arrow of love when hits the sparrow
Smiling eyes attract with the charm
Beauty when travels on wheelbarrow
When when it spreads its warmth to warm

Cupid hits and Muse takes pride
Hand in hand this journey starts
Side by side with colorful ride
On minor distrust heart departs

Oh my beloved be my Muse
Invite Cupid with sheer sincerity

Love Portrayal

Oh my love I love you a lot
Your beauty makes my love hot
Your wonderful charming smile I got
I cant count what graces brought

Life of mine is your portrayal
World takes it in moving rail
From this sin I don't want bail
Together we intend to travel, sail

When touch your body drops of rain
Fragrance of beauty spreads in chain
Pleasure of beauty increases love pain
It invites all torture and disdain

Still I vehemently emphasis, maintain
Even if you break me kill me or slain
Faith in love an iota or sand grain
Will enlighten my heart my brain

With Broken Heart

With broken heart and few signs
I am in search of my destination
With many sins and crimes on lines
I aspire to celebrate salvation

With my words I injured your heart
With my actions I did sheer wrong
Now I seek permission to depart
Now I seek for my departure song

Satiated with my heart and soul
Plundered with my physical being
I lost my sense and I lost my goal
I lost my eyes by scenes in seeing

Distrust has taken us away, too far
Now there is no chance to come near
Our own actions are sufficient to mar
To overcome courage and to create fear

What ever may be the price of love

I can sacrifice every thing my little dove
Let us through all hatred to dust bin

Heartbeat

I take her along like life and soul
I am beggar while she is a good giver
We travel together from pole to pole

In her dance she gives a chance
To take her in through my eyes
Her beauty takes me in trance
Soul leaves me and body cries, dies

She is like a mirror in the room
Gives an impression of a portrait
Like a flower she is to bloom
Seems ready for an early date

Now we travel in the same boat
Sailing together is a wonderful treat
For every poison she is life anecdote
Now we tinkle in each others heartbeat

Like an amber it has to glow
Jubilantly it seems to blow

You are so charming and bright
My heart beats like dangling kite
To this lunatic state I can not fight

The dress surpasses all the charm
Beauty oozes being hot and warm
For all youth it is like an alarm
Kissing with eyes is just no harm

When you walk your grace comes first
Your lovely gait increases my thirst
It so seems that its going to burst
Lusty peaks when stare with lust

Should surpass all what is pretty

Price To Pay

Parents have their sense of struggle, sacrifice
While children take every thing for granted
Parents aspire, go for what their wards suffice
Wards take everything as a right what they wanted

When children grow up they become more wiser
They are more concerned about rights than duties
For every second thing they consider parents miser
They don't take into consideration all the difficulties

About all those pains and tortures which were faced
By the parents by bringing them to their present stage
They start taking things seriously which are debased
This is how they increase pains by moving parents to rage

Innocent children don't learn any lesson till the time
Their parents loose grip on life and fade away
Their own sons and daughter come to achieve prime
And they have to submit to them and the price to pay

Beauty Discerns

It is said that love is blind
It takes away heart and mind
It leaves nothing to find
Soul and body are to grind

The spell of beloved's charm
It keeps the situation warm
Eyes become the victim of form
Soul remains to take all harm

Beauty has no price to share
Beloved needs all extra care
Lover has no right to dare

This world is so difficult and so strange
An ordinary person fails to understand
Its cheating spirit and its sneaking range
With so many covers and land over land

For a sincere person it is test to appear to fail
For an hypocrite it is like heaven, paradise
For a trustworthy person it is like a jail
It is a booty for the person who is wise

Good people come, suffer and then pass
Mean carry them with tricks of the trade
Graceful people in their honesty surpass
Meanest people embrace death third class

In this state of ecstasy I forget all odds and pains
My heart starts dancing on all mountains and plains
I am totally lost no pleasure no pain no loss and no gains

After just a glance my feet are not on this land
I am surrounded by love chains and love band
With your touch fragrance I feel like a garland
Our love is written on sand dunes and on sand

This transitivity of world will definitely forget
But on this love and on beauty I declare and bet
From the day we suddenly saw each other and we met
To universe and to all the rivals we established to set

Life and love beauty and relations may just fade
But the essence of all these for we which were made
May cut our bodies our souls with invisible blade
Will prevail being extraordinary on every ordinary grade

Which one always takes in surprise
When face is in deception and disguise
Then heart definitely remains in surmise

Beauty and love when comes in love chord
Then to leave each other becomes very hard
Love cherishes beauty as an innocent ward
Beauty becomes master and love becomes lord

In this beautiful love chase and pursuit
Beauty deserves and wins its charming suit
Pain and pleasure brings the sweetest fruit

At least it is love which comes to us to bind
We should behave on each others behind
To define and refine what is there in mind

If she is destined for you I don't object
But each of us should have a right to select
Our choice, world says is so perfect
Now our approach should also be correct

World Jugglery

Being bone of contention one should not break the bones
People in glass houses should never throw the stones

Real talks of humans are replaced with cell phones

Wind when blows in deserts make sand dunes
Vice has taken over all virtuous tunes
Full days have been shortened to all desired boons

Time and again I look towards the door
Your foot have sound to touch my heart
In your absence I love to consider, explore
Why love carries sad part and depart

Your coming is like full light moon
Your beauty is like spring in bloom
Heart is waiting for coming soon
Your absence takes me to heavy gloom

Intensity of love remains in search of you
Keeps me waiting through and through
Your presence may be like out of blue
My heart’s rhythm is just to pursue

Please do not debar me from your sight
Whether the idea is wrong or right
In this cruel world of deplorable plight
Only you can make me bright to light

Taste of waiting brings pleasure to pain
On barren land it is like merciful rain
For your sake I accept all hatred, disdain
I am but prisoner of your love chain

Tricky World

The world is not as it seems to be
Play with humans with many tricks
Cheat on one or another dirty plea
When objective is achieved it kicks

In this cruel and deceitful drama
Innocent people become victim of time
By being taken away by this panorama
Hence their virtues also become crime

Survival is only for those who are fit
Who lack integrity and sincerity
But understand the world bit by bit
Fashion is the mark and not austerity

Keep in view this hypocrisy in row
I have decided to take my way
In the process world may blow
But I will will establish time and day

Hatred's Force

Oh my beloved! you never listened to me
But you preferred to listen to the rivals
Our love distorted like whirl pool in the sea
Life changed into departures and arrivals

When mistrust and distrust take its roots
Then any and every love relation is at stake
Flowers are debarred from growing on shoots
Emotions and feelings face heavy earthquake

People in the world do not allow to flourish
Love with beauty in normal discourse
How life can glow when poison is to nourish
Love is superseded with hatred's force

Ardent Love

When lips remain silent, eyes speak
Love conquers every beautiful peak
Expression comes from a sparkling cheek
Crazy feelings come from heart to sneak

What is out in beloved, s domain
When she plays in drizzling rain
Love emotions to beauty start to drain
Heart becomes love and fails brain

Oh my beloved every season in you
Comes like moon just out of blue
On rose petals they play like dew
Price of all only heart known by few

Whether in autumn or in spring
Wind only dares fragrance to bring
My heart is justified happy to sing
You are my queen I am your king

Hidden Tears

Don't look at my smiles and cheerful face
Because I have hidden tears underneath
The hypocrisy of world made a base
To dip down in the ocean and to see beneath
Wonderful people are from wonderful race
My enemies are carrying their sword in sheath
They have hidden their cases in my case
Apparently are bringing flowers wreath
What a displacement is from the real place
High up from paradise down to the seethe
What a vengeance one takes from mass
Every one wants to bring others under teeth

Oh My God! I want to be on your path
Even if on my way comes all the wrath
No one can stop me with fire of hearth
You are my lamp I am Your moth

Your mercy is my only solace
When I dejected Your mercy embrace
When I take two You take ten pace
Your light overcomes all darkness of place

 Permit me to lay my head and heart
Even if I am cut in pieces apart
Your love and beauty I cannot resort
My soul is Your destined order, departed part

Dancing Doll

If taken as a whole
She is beautiful dancing doll
In my body like a soul
She plays her charming role
Beauty dances pole to pole
Carries her destined goal

When her beauty comes to play
Then it always takes away
When my love has to stray
Then I am bound to lay
My ego, pride to her day
This is price I have to pay

I don't know to whom should I complain
Your extreme hatred and disdain

It commemorates only drizzling rain

Embrace Me

My beloved please embrace me for last
I want to live in present not in past
In front of beauty love has to blast
Life is too short and time is too fast
From the day beauty is in cast
In love being rebel I became iconoclast

Your beauty and grace ring me to the race
Being face on face we will be able to trace
The real height to touch to embrace
Definitely love varies from race to race
Love is hide and seek from place to place
Its intensity varies from case to case

Penurious Commodity

It is true that there is no dearth
Of all those who are mean by birth
Such commodity spare no chance
For their motives they always dance
When they encounter any hurdle
They become upside down like turtle
They are creatures without character
For their pity interest they barter
Their bodies hearts and their souls
So they acquire lot many roles
But those who discern purity of blood
Never compromise on principles in flood
They can take revenge but spare
With their heart and mind they dare
To encounter all odds with passion
They have their own style and fashion
If they desire they can take revenge
But they spare do never avenge
They only resort to show the mirror
This is their stance rarely rare

Story Of Love

Story of love, full of miseries and sorrow
Takes life at times with esteem being low
Whether yesterday, today or tomorrow
To kindle light for soul one is unable to borrow
In dejection one thinks life is so retarded and slow
But time never stops with its capacity to flow
In spring, green is life in summer, its all yellow
Beauty with love is only miracle to show
How life sparkles and how life sparkles and glows
My dear beloved, time is too less for any row
Then why not to be together to grow and glow

Golden Crown

Thorny path brings pain with pleasure
My beloved your love is a treasure
So enthralled beyond limits of leisure
The beauty cherished no one can measure

As a beam of light your travel ahead
You lead me through and I am led
On the shores of beauty in oceans bed
This is love which means well said

From the past till ensuing present
We remained together as cent per cent
Real beauty is what ever love meant
It is same whether in palace or tent

You and me are talk of the town
With love silver and beauty brown
Whether up or whether so deep down
We deserve to wear the golden crown

Her beauty is my life my wealth
She is my ever lasting health

In Dance

Bond of love is so sweet and strong
That it does not afford any wrong
In sheer ecstasy heart sings a song
Under all odds to each other we belong

Oh my beloved I cherish your beauty
No one is like you in the entire city
Love never affords any knity gritty
Graces prevail over any fear and pity

Time and tide all leaps and bound
Make to stand us on solid ground
You are a lamp I am light around
Only beauty can always surround

Where ever and ever I think to glance
Life becomes love to provide a chance
So deep so involved we are in romance
Our souls and bodies are in dance

A Chameleon

Remains busy from dusk to dawn
Giving his soul to Satan's pawn
Keeping all the tricks buttons on Man is nothing but a chameleon

Cheats all for his lust and greed
Third rate creature he is indeed
Sows contempt and hatred's seed
With no rationale always plead

No respect no dignity and no pride
Under the veils is always busy to hide
Taking negative attitude his guide
On leaps and bounds on all stride

Man is but a deception in shape
Blank unused like a page full scape
Creating different vacuums and gape
Rapes his soul through body rape

Fragrance of body and sensual delights
Help me to explore new beautiful heights
When we enjoy and find jubilant flights
Rainbow spreads and kisses love kites

You and me are together in trance
Life has offered this wonderful chance
Kiss on forehead glitters the romance
Souls and bodies enthrall in dance

We can conquer world being one
Kiss your feet moon stars and sun
Caress you and touch you in a fun
Hurriedly all complete job undone

Through your eyes I just praise to see
What is world and how could it be

Your curly hair just move to cease
You are in habit to flirt and tease
Your tricks open crease by crease

But for me you are just solace
Your lovely lips cheeks and face
Take me to that beautiful place
Where beauty portrays and trace

Real love play just hide and seek
Where life dances, peak to peak

Fragrance of youth intends to creek

Words of love and beauty to rhyme

It is all because of you, it is all but love knot
When I miss you in winter I feel so hot

Carries me along and crosses horizon though
All universe I can sacrifice on your eye brow

Sublimity of love takes to sallow

By being on the edge of a razor
Beauty always aspires for an appraiser

You and me are like fire and water

Sensuality in beauty is thy charter
On which love becomes always a martyr

And will die in the same way

And not a donkey just to drag
But I do ask some questions
Who being champions always brag

Eternal Goal

Let me exonerate from all that crime
Which innocently i committed in prime
I could not resist because of your innocence
Love touched beauty ii just preference
The days were really remarkable
Your fragrance make me irrational
The taste of that kiss will never lost
The cries of beauty will never exhaust
Togetherness dragged us more near
You became more lovable and dear
But the trick of time separated in a way
Love and beauty forgot to play
Some one else became your choice
You left me as priceless price
Still I remain open the door to adore
Your beauty on love's shore to explore
Please remember that my survival is at stake

Coexistence

I know we have different moods
I know we have different shades
That is the reason my heart broods
Love first sight takes decades

In melting snow of sheer hatred
Making a place for emotions to flow
When all actions are hypocrisy led
Then any action can come to blow

Life is but a continuous torture
Self is to bear all difficulties and pain
Human existence is exit and departure
Water carries it like sand grain

Hence compromise and forbearance
Is solution for all the humanity
Very much essential for coexistence
Only is the essence of sheer integrity

Lunatic Poet

With all seven colors, like beautiful rainbow
Culminating just in one like golden glow
As pure as white like shimmering snow
Like daffodil in pond you are in me to grow

From the day I saw I am no more in me
You have surrounded me like waves of sea
Where ever I go you travel with me
Nothing else but you in mirror I see

Is it love or beauty or trial for no sin
Is it me or you together like wine in tin
Path is thorny and difficult from a pin to pin
But I enjoy the relation considering to be kin

Will a day be there when we have the solace?
Will ever life will dance on our face?
Will we ever be we embrace the grace?
Will ever we be able to kiss and embrace?

When I talk to myself people take as lunatic
They throw stones on me try to sympathetic
Some consider me irrational and some heretic
Some laugh at me considering just pathetic

In Her Praise

Lovely, sweet up to the limit
In her prime being fit to hit
I, to praise to establish writ
In front of her I have to submit

With slow wind all ups and downs
Slowly move like beautiful gowns
For her lusty busty crowns
She is praised in city and towns

Rain graces her graceful grace
Sun embraces her beautiful face
Flowers kiss her beauty in race
Eyes follow her pace to pace

She is beauty of her style
Swans envy her for a while Graceful in her rank and file
Who comes in is to beguile

Love Glow

My sweet beloved. golden light. a glow
I don't know how to express my love with you
At times I see you in me and weep though
Have you ever thought of me too

When I recall the days of being together
I feel delighted. enthralled and depressed
That was a real season of love and weather
Now I do recall and count the moments missed

Looking forward at the peril of my life
For the sweet company at edge of eternity
I decided to be with you on edge of knife
Love needs no season. no plea with beauty

The day when we will be just one again
Whether being sublime. sane or insane
Matter of heart has nothing to do with brain
Whether that will be a complete loss or gain

Wisest of the wise always quote
Poison for the poison is anecdote
Hatred and contempt is to float
From one boat to another boat
At times a mote take us remote
This is how humans promote

Vices on the chest of motherland
Vicious circle acts like a band
Land remains no more a land
Only righteous can take a stand
Castles which are built on sand
May have had their own brand

Love remains its own reward
Even if it is earned too hard
It is but a virtue of the Lord
Which always is ready to guard
Humans from their ugly card
Love is evergreen never time barred

Price For Gaze

Let me kiss you on your forehead
My beloved lost moments be not dead
As a token they should be led
Be remembered as well said

I know that with passage of time
Our love will be sin and crime
But do know that in early prime
A flower has to have a rhyme

With surroundings full of fragrance
Where when princess touch the prince
With no hurdles with no fence
Love becomes life long reference

You may forget me in coming days
But your beauty in the shape of rays
Will never lose me in my craze
Life is the price I pay for gaze

If you want to see. see me in thee
Who is my mirror reflects me
In my true entirety to be

A lover who travels in beloved
Who according to her wishes led
Love in her words is well said
Matters of heart not ruled by head

Only lover knows beauty in truth
Only beloved takes ruthless ruth
Eyes with inner eyes can only sooth
Communication of heart being in same booth

You Tinkle In Me

From the day you have started tinkling in my heart
From that day my heart refused to take another start
On one seat sitting together and one love cart
In this play to take a part and then depart

I lost to remember who am I and who are you
This love just dawed from just out of blue
Glow of beauty is there fire of love to pursue
Waiting in the line just to say I do I do

Please just let it know you are me I am you
On this thorny path from all through and through
You spark of beauty is ready to subdue
With love's encounter it will definitely renew

Love and beauty play hide and seek
Up and down mountain and peak
When every thing becomes so bleak
Through all the days and through week

Sadness of beloved take very many faces
Different designs with different basis
At times disgraces at times graces
Love and beauty have appropriate paces

Her painful eyes are still in front
Heart is bruised with weapon blunt
Love used beauty just a stunt
Hide and seek Whether hunted or hunt

Love kills and kills in entirety
Without any fear without any pity
Beauty is so good and pretty
Being so graceful being so witty

Brightness of her beauty is around
I am on sky and not on ground
By being just fully spell bound
Beauty when spreads love loses ground

Jealousy Oozes

Life travels, destines to cater
What cones early or comes later
Whether democrat or dictator
Intention returns to initiator

Jealousy is ingrained in blood

Why don't tear darkness to light
Dirty aspirations show dirty plight

Dirty Tricks

World is full of dirty tricks
With conceits, deceits and chicks
Broken promises, uneven bricks
Shrewd takes innocent to kicks

In this world this unstopping train
With just an iota of sand grain
Which may mar human brain
Which constantly makes sane insane

In this game, clever always wins
Bodies are bruised with blunt pins
Right has been thrown to the bins
Innocence has taken over by sins

Body remains but soul no more
Pain travels from pore to pore
Human values are no more
Insanity dances from door to door

Magic Of Love

Oh my love you are so sweet and cute
I see you in life on every route
Juicy and good being all weathers fruit
What ever I strive for you are in pursuit

Life has very many ups and downs
From down to drain up to the crowns
In all cities in very many towns
Whether in robes or in gowns

Your magic prevails and surpasses
Beyond the limits of wins and losses

Which makes surroundings bright
Whenever she comes in sight

I have made her fortune and fate
My life starts with that date
When counters her graceful gait

Her love is fire her light is fire
On my cost I want to get and hire

Which makes me to pray

Sincere efforts never go waste
Even if show tasteless taste
Courage is ready to paste

Light when dances peak to peak
Apparently it may look bleak
But definitely it has to seek

All that is fair, plain and just

A Trauma

In world's panorama
Soul is in trauma
Heart is in a fix
With life complex
In this state
How man can be great
Hence soul is dejected
Path to be selected
Now every one needs
A path which leads
In search of a saint
Who could paint
Reality in truth
With heart uncouth
Sincerity brings to trial
Just for a while
Then heart succumbs
And soul comes
To embrace the truth
Love conquers ruthless ruth

A Moment

Life is just a dramatic act, flow
Which makes us to go in a row
Row which we always carry along
By justifying what's right what's wrong
We strive to capture a moment from life
By being always on the edge of knife
For that moment we kindle the spark
By achieving that ultimate mark
We intend to change spark in to flame
For which we take every one's blame
But that moment never comes in life
Hence our soul remains on edge of knife
We have to carry our cross till last
In the process we blast in past

Such a beauty such a teen
World dreams yet to be seen
Smart enthralled lean and keen

Water can be seen in a glass
How can love dare to pass
When beauty is meant to surpass

What all is near and far

When I see my heart is to blow

We feel one and nothing remains
What remains are just love chains
Love is what when one is lost
In twilight of present and past

Glowing Face

When breeze blows
And touches your cheeks
Then beauty shows
How it always seeks

Appreciation from lover
By being enthralled
Through unveiling the cover
As newly installed

Of all the hidden charm
By mixing it with grace
By being so warm
Through the glowing face

In Line With Love

What to love and how to flourish
How to explore the beauty of soul
How to caress and how to nourish
All in self with more control

It is but sincerity with grace
Which makes one more at ease
It determines intention with race
And blows intelligence to cease

Only beauty plays its role
And creeps in love with line
Love becomes perfect in soul
And intoxicates like wine

Loneliness

I traveled alone
Through a thorny path
I could not moan
On disgraceful wrath
The world was full
With joy and fun
But there was none
Who could even say
A word of praise
In all those days
Who could just gaze
With lovely rays
All relations were false
All stations were sham
All loves were cool
Without being calm
I traveled like a moon
From dawn to noon
The moment sun sinks
I have to leave soon
My travel will remain
Like the travel of time
My innocence is a sin
My life is crime

An Umbrella

You are like an umbrella on my head
You save me from thundering rain
I have to have you with me, instead
Even in hottest weather to abstain

Me from all that scorching heat
I maintain that your presence with me
Will keep me away to beat
All types of trials to see and be

But you see I have to change
You for my own convenience
There are colors of different range
Umbrellas are in consequence

No one in world is indispensable
Every one is to play its part
And then to leave being sensible
This is the play to part and depart

Call Of Duty

Time upholds his wonderful stride
He was born to win and ride
Sincerity was in blood to guide
Martyrdom was the essence of pride

On the edge of eternity to guard
The eternal life was gift of God
Valiant soldier was chosen by Lord
Time in itself became time barred

Total disregard for a while
Valiant son of the soil
Marched with soldiers mile to mile
Became role model in rank and file

Sword of honor kept the sword
Carrying call of duty aboard
Opted for himself that road
Which culminated above the board

The soldier proved his worth and mettle
With action of valor in the battle

Force Of Hatred

You hated me throughout my life
I remained on a double edged knife
With the time I learnt a lesson
How ugliest things become so crimson
Time tested and showed a path
How to encounter the abominable wrath
Now hatred has changed into a force
Through this I can enforce
My strength has suddenly increased
All disappointment and dejection decreased
I am full with force of hatred
It has become my butter and bread
Vengeance is stronger than forgiveness
Hatred became a strongest bless
Feelings of hatred has gone into blood
And now oozing out like a flood
Hatred is must to establish right
One has to keep this duty in sight

Graces Of God

Man disappoints God
God never disappoints man
Being a merciful lord
He never imposes ban

Man is being sinful
Whenever asks for mercy
God is ready to pull
Him to be free

From all dirty deeds
From trial and tribulation
By taking care of his needs
In a wonderful fashion

God is so kind in his bounty
Man is but ungrateful lot
Graces of the Sovereign county
Are the only compassion

First Kiss

First kiss of a miss, I miss
Which makes me to understand?
The beauty of life in selflessness
And then we travel hand in hand

To the height of that enterprise
The fragrance of which still around
Love is there to put me wise
And celebrate the kissing sound

To be to one at a place to face
The destined glory entranced and enchanting
When the lovers have just one pace
When the beauty is so daunting

Then price to one is price to win
The beauty, love and the time
Whether one is out or one is in
That too in youth and prime

But even if she wants to go
Still love never dies in a row
The beauty of kiss, the love of miss
Remains with me as only bliss

She can only just dismiss
I won't go for another kiss

Oh, my love you always thought
That I am man of what sort

Now I do not need a wife

Love Magic

Golden light spread along
Hearts bowed in crimson light
Music dances like a song
Whenever she comes in sight

Her fragrance is around
Her beauty is to flourish
Her charm is to sound
Her presence is to nourish

Heart beats like a sound
I feel just to fly
I am on the ground
She is in the sky

Love magic is so strong
Where beauty is to bow
Romance is a song
Where everything to flow

Life Dances

Whatever I think is my perception
For all others it may be deception
Experience makes one more perfect
Conscience helps to accept and reject
Life has shadows like rainbow
For some high and for some low
For me it is like your eyebrow
Which determines my fate though
For some vice for some virtue
For some false and for some true
In a chaos we aspire for certain
For some sake we turn mountain
Some we leave and some we take
In this game to take partake
Beauty is to die and love is to fade
When a test to chastity is made
Only truth remains but God
All remaining is just time barred
Still some optimists go for a ride
Uncovering reality far and wide
With some realities and many romances
When takes chances then life dances

Heretic And Deviant

Saints of time in their pride
Exactly know how to ride
Dont take life as simple
It is not easily accessible
Life is but a strange string
Intervoven in a ring to bring
The darkness and dawn
Where soul is ready to pawn
Itself for the days to come
To be away from life toublesome
A tussel between vice and virtue
From the day one is to pursue
Communion with one in ecstacy
Declares the path of prophecy
Ordinary can't be extraordinary
On this straightforward plea
By being heretic and deviant
One becomes pure and saint

Passion

On the side of creek
I have to seek Love at its peak
From your cheek
Which will bring
Love song to sing
In every thing
Will make me a king
From just a beggar
It will trigger
My soul's chord
And make me lord
Of my passion
In a lovely fashion
World is mine
Love is fine

Yesterday Today

At Military Academy I was wisest of the wise
So I thought myself bigger to my size
All ranks were bound to respect and rise
But now I take that prize in surprise
Then I used to tell and inform
When you were not in liquid form
Even then I was in uniform
But today all those come across to inform
Without any fear without any harm
Sir, you are no more in uniform
See being in uniform we are in full form

Blood Speaks

Enemies came to test our nerve
They should know we are born to serve
We will not spare their covertly curve
They will face the fate they deserve

They have now attacked on my heart
Mercilessly killed our children apart
Blood speaks and touches heart a lot
How can heart leave body to depart?

Innocence and purity will always flourish
When innocent blood cherishes to nourish
The roots of the nation the cause of the right
Will ultimately come up to crush

The enemies of the nation will never succeed
When they have left the eyes to bleed
When right will come up to lead
They will be taken away by their deed indeed

Martyrdom was selected by the date
Great actions make people great
Third class death is for third rate
Who can not differentiate between love and hate

Beauty In Mist

Clouds come down to kiss her cheeks
Mist engulf her lovely peaks
Winds are there to pay tribute
Love is there to touch and suit
Her beauty is full with love and charm
Nothing in universe is to harm
Her charismatic beauty and sweetest mood
At times in style she tries to be rude
I see, I love, I kiss her cheeks
I touch, I caress her lovely peaks
Then mist disappears and nothing is there

Brise Brise

When my eyes suddenly cease
On a point moving breeze
Then I see beautiful eyes
From the moving brise-brise

Where lives that beauty of class

Whether I stay or to pass
If I dip in an ocean
Love emphasises them to shun
All ambitions, all desires
Just establishing link with wires
Where should I be with Thee
No more me and no more she

Shining colour with golden brown
Curly hair jump up and down
When she comes from home to town
Beautiful lass wears beautiful crown

Delicacy supercedes flowers
Intimacy touches the towers
Budding like beautiful bowers
Kindness comes in shape of showers

Whenever she is ready to ride
Beauty goes her side by side

Defence Day

Forces of evil are on the border
They want to attack and to harrass
It is the duty of nation to be in order
And never allow them to cross

To our motherland to our towns
It is high time to crush the band of crowns
And time to tell them with clarity
With mission orientation and sincerity

That shedding of blood is not an easy task
The oppressors now remove their mask
Tha should not dare to touch our land
Which stands for sacred bond and band

Of affinity and divinity
In state of sanity it is insanity
Rise my fellows to face the danger
On sublime heights, waiting the grandeur

God is there to kiss the martyr
It is incumbent to establish His charter
God is there to help the brave
Enemy is to be sent to grave

When We Met

When we met after such a long time
Her beauty was the same as in prime
She was talking to me about the days
When we were wrapped in lovely rays
Her eyes, her cheeks and her style
Amazed me, dazed me just for a while
Time has brought maturity in her talk
She could face all odds like a rock
With smiling face she asked for fun
Should I start poetry being one on one
Then I said, nay, it is but just flows
It's not only she makes it flows
When I asked her what poetry could be
Then she smiled and defined poetry
Whe god graces some heart with dignity
The heart touches the heart of eternity
Fragrance, beauty, heart and soul
When touched by God, have just one goal
There is none but God is the one
Who cherishes moon and cherishes sun
His feet when touch the beauty in heart
The beauty and love then never depart

Dishonesty

I never fail but failed
My brilliant ideas just derailed
Humans are such a commodity
Who under fear and pity
Perform for their vested deals
Hence reason never appeals
To their conscience which never pricks
Ordinarily they are busy in tricks
To avoid bypass or confuse
On one pretext or another to refuse
They earn ten but never pay one
They are there for the job undone
Humans what a creature of God
Look towards the dictates of rod
Spare a rod and spoil a child
Animals too remain so wild
Unless they are taken to the task
Unless someone snatches the mask
They will take but deliver none
Work for them is just a fun
Which they while away in talks
Being too tiny claims to be rocks
Time is there to take all care
They will be damned being unfair
Their ugly faces will be defaced
Their dirty claims will be debased

How much I love, I can not show
Let me tell you what I think
With your modesty I can throw

Myself to your hospitality
With my ability and versatility
We will travel on that path
With breathlessness and vitality

Who can without disparity

Lunacy

At times reason leaves me alone
Something strange happens to me
In that dejection I just moan
I lost in a strange world to see
Strangeness in its entirety
What is about to happen to me
Lunacy comes to take me along
And sings a beautiful song
In which every right is wrong
But still I feel so strong
Journey is so pleasant and great
I feel love, truth and light
In that trance I just can't wait
To touch the eternity at its height
I become a Pheasant for moon
Who always want to embrace
Remains fast in that race
But never loses its grace
In that strange love pursuit
I become an ocean in rage
I intend to catch her soon
Love takes me from the cage
After a while when I partake
To my normal place and time
Then I enjoy my lunatic flight
Where I could touch the height

When I was thrown away

From heaven to haven

Like a stranded ray

From rest to pa-van

I took it as a challenge

And streamed through the streams

With vengeance and revenge

When lot of dreadful dreams

With Satan in my blood

Full of mundane desires

Which burst like a flood?

And behave like naked fire

In the process of that test

In the order of that decline

By considering me the best

He glisten me to shine
His love for time to come

Will take me back to heights

Full of thunders, thundering lights

To remain in the beloved eyes
With out any sighs and cries
Love is but enchanting song
Which takes the lovers along

She has the graceful pace
Innocence plays on her face

I am victim just to see
Only on love plea
Where ever I happen to be
I am lost she is she

Fragrance Of Love

I will encounter all barriers
I will cross all the horizon
I don't require any carriers
For taking fire from the sun

Love is that force which enforce
All the time it reinforce
When your lips just endorse
Then opens that path that course

Which takes us on love ride
Where we have invincible pride
Where love takes its tide
Then fragrance spreads far and wide

You in me and I am in you
Sue the force and ensue
Where beauty always pursue
Then time takes us through

Love Never Retires

Your beauty is my aim to cherish
Your grace makes me die and perish
You travel in my blood; tinkle like heart beat
Your touch of class is really so sweet
You have taken away me from me
I lost my eyes now I am unable to see
What is happening around is none of my concern
Love for the beauty is what I discern
Don't play with my nerves just take me along
Love never refrains from the love song
By winning your beauty I lost my love
My innocent charming little dove
In the heat of emotions worship turns to desires
Beauty never expires and love never retires

Soul's Passion

You are so beautiful I can't explain

My love is ready to bear all pain

Snowy white in moon-soon rain

Glowing light in my brain

Your beauty at a glance

Gives me a chance to romance

When my heart gets a chance

Pleasure fills it starts to dance

You my heart, you my fortune

I want to get you very soon

Like a sip of wine at noon

Glowing flower in hot June

Let us cherish love relation

In a style in graceful fashion

With real soul's passion

For satisfaction and salvation

Holy Tears

In your company my heart becomes sage
My eyes become clean to capture your image
Please accommodate me don't be in rage
Let us be one on our love page

I take refuge to make me lost
It melts all dirt and frost
Life is nothing in front of the cost
In ocean of pain you become mast

My tears define and refine my soul
They play important and dominant role
They reveal all whether known, unknown
In high pitch or in low tone

I have no defence nor plea
Only you just see, foresee
Whatever the circumstances could be
I do believe you can save me

Blooming Beauty

Love is what we sacrifice
By being good and being nice
It is not barter or bargain
It is grace in shimmering rain
It is what makes us go high
It is a point to touch of sky
Oh my beloved I admit
I am in love let me submit
Please embrace me with love
Like an innocent beautiful dove
I can't praise your charm
By worshiping you with norm
But still i may maintain
You are beauty blooming in rain
Where ever I am you are with me
This is what your love could be

The Present Moment

Forget about the past
Let us think about the present
My love let us cast
This life cent per cent

Forget about the future
That is what is unseen
Share just lovely gesture
Be more little keen

Love me for once and all
Care for me like a friend
Just recall and then call
Your beauty is the trend

You are me, I am you
This is what is truth
Let us be through
For making soul sooth

Allah Hoo

I am servant you are Master
I am bound to follow thy charter
Sacrificing ambition on alter
I restrain my self to falter

I am servant you are God
Only you can be my Lord
Mercy makes you never hard
I enjoy the love chord

You order and I do
I submit and I pursue
There is no one less you
Allah Hoo, Allah Hoo

Your Beauty Love and Truth
Makes me to be uncouth
In your lap calm and sooth
Like an infant early youth

When I walk on your path
I am saved from all wrath
Fire becomes flower in hearth
You are lamp and I am moth

To My Love

Oh my love, be satisfaction of heart
Do not tear my heart apart
Let us be on one love cart
To embrace heights of all sort
Throughout my life I aspired for you
Considering you a drop of dew
What to do what not to do
Only time will come to prove
You are like a shining star
Help me in love's row and war
Innocent looks and cheeks at par
Love me, kiss me don't debar
If we fail to be one in life
Due to my poverty and strife
Remaining on the edge of knife
Fail to be husband and wife
It was revealed in love test
Your beauty is the best of best
When I will be laid to rest
Request is to place photo on chest
Hand In Hand

You my heart in love ties
Must realize love never dies
When love touches beauty, cries
Let us be true in the world of lies

You are so near and dear
So message of heart is so clear
Be considerate and dont tear
Page of love under any fear

Me and you one on one
Will complete job undone
Life is sacred and not pun
Like a priest and like a nun
Cant tolerate just a fun
Like a fiery burning sun
Hand in hand let us run

Gracious Style

Silence of the water
In a river so calm
Portrays sagacity of a wizard
Who maintains all his norms

World is full of different notions
It goes through its ways
It hardly caters for emotions
So one has to pass his days

Successful always show graces
And lead the rank and file
Failures are all those cases
Who debar the gracious style

Beauty And Love

Spring has come to embrace your cheeks
Lovely breeze caresses your peaks
Love itself comes and seeks
Through out the days through out the weeks

Permission to touch submission to take
The fragrance of your body to a lake
For eternal sublime for its sake
The relation of love one should partake

Where flowers have grown
Where love is known
Where beauty is shown
In sophisticated tone

Fairies sing a song to dance
About your beauty and much more
Pain plaintively cries in core
The world has not seen it before

Beauty is to die while love remains
In all hatred and disdains
In all difficulties and pains
There are no losses but only gains

The Preachers

Contempt and hatred remain their creed
Hypocrisy is the way to lead
Lust and greed always indeed
Remain hidden in every deed

They exploit on the name of Lord
By clinging on their to lusty chord
Declaring all innocent their ward
They play dirty and very hard

Claim thy faith but are faithless
With bad intentions they digress
On Lord's name they take cess
They preach more and practice less

Hell is waiting forthe defaulter
Who on alter always falter
Satan has taken thy souls on barter
How can faithless creatures be martyr

Day of judgment be dooms day
Where they will find no ray
The they will have to pay
This is what the Holy Book say

Right To Prevail

Life is full of tricky situations
At times one has to have reverberations
But one should just be on right
Even if one has to fight
With himself and around
But still one is to bound
To be bold and to be rude
To overcome all vicissitude
One should learn this by heart
On the peril of life, not to depart
Right is always to prevail
With its graces it never fail
Do not overlook oversight
It's always good to be on right

Right To Die

I suffered a lot, being helpless
I failed to understand the life so complex
But still I manage and confess
I will survive by paying this tax
Fatal path of life is degenerated
But still my soul remains invigorated
To fly too high to touch the sky
Eternity is on edge celebrated
Enough is enough, I may cry
The right to pass, the right to die
Should remain open as an option

My wings be given back to fly

Chicane

Spicy juicy young and free
Overgrowing flower on a tree
Humming like a little bee
Dreaming innocence one can see
Natural beauty one can pick
From that gloomy life to tick
With her inner life to flick
She is like that candle wick
Lightens path of life so bright
Being colorful like a kite
As snow is pure white
Nourishes health, strength and might Love her, praise her but can't raise
Voice of my heart with pain and craze
But still I can't stop those rays
Full of fragrance, make me daze
Difference of age makes me sick
On a chicane, I can't tick
But still I do desire to pick
That beautiful flower, even thorns prick
Lots many turns one has to take
To comfort her I will break
Once again I will jump in the lake
I'm gone case, she is hot cake

Be One

For lot of time we remained away
Now let us be together again
For the heart's sake to play
That Melodious song of love in pain

Let us be in the boat in the river
To sail away to that place
Where we be the taker and giver
Where we have melodious grace

Let us be around like the clock
Let us tickle like melody of heart
Let us have hottest lip lock
Let us be one not to depart

The Kindness

Dejected, disappointed and depressed
Standing in front of Master I confessed
All my mistakes, blunders and all sins
Which pricked my conscience like sharp pins
Innumerable follies are at His mercy
The petition is filed to see on the plea
Hopeless, helpless servants are to err
But Kindness of Master is always to defer
Chances of forgiveness are to wait and see How ultimate kindness comes, could be Servants are to submit, to pray and to serve
Humbleness, good intentions are to deserve
Mercy and graces of the Merciful Lord
Only honesty and sincerity is loved by God

The Light

Beauty and love go side by side
On an intoxicated charming ride
The tide spread far and wide
Then how the fragrance one can hide

Beauty pierces like a ray, like laser
Love touches beauty and chases like a chaser
By being on the edge of a razor
Hence beauty needs an appraiser

You and me are fire and water
Beauty is pawned on love's barter
Sensuality in beauty is the charter
On which love becomes always a martyr

Let us forget the row in spring
Let the petals wear love's ring
Dew drops will definitely bring
Queen's gift of heart for the king

Let us be like a colorful kite
Let us oversight the world in sight
For the emotion golden bright
Which will bring all darkness to light

Broken Wings

In the valley of bewilderment, to embrace torture
I am looking forward to make a departure
From the wordly luxuries and solace
To be in your company to love and embrace
Your beauty with love to submit with grace
Where you come forward with mercy to embrace
Me and my humbleness with serenity and affection
Where I should feel my love with perfection
I am your slave you are my Lord and Master
I am in trouble and you are my Saviour
Please take me in your eternal grace
Give me a chance to see you face on face
In my pursuit even If I fail but still I pursue
If praise to beauty is sin I will still continue
Till the time you come to see my plight
With broken wings I will complete my flight

Dew drops touch the delicate petals

Prisoner Of The Moment

Man is the prisoner of the moment
But aspires for more and more
Chained and bonded cent per cent
Looks forward for lust to explore

His all plans are sham
His all tricks to fail
His hesitations never calm
His all rails to derail

Happens that which is destined
Comes and takes place in way
Hence one can not pretend
What to say, what not to say

Only moment in hand is true
So one has to be steadfast
Only that can pass through
Who keeps the faith till last

Faith is but love and trust
Through all the chains of time
Submission to the will is must
To cherish and perish in prime

World A Whore

She brings a person to her trap
And plays with him amorously
The victim being entrapped in lap
Extends all his assets generously

She knows all the skills
Being master of her trade
She plays and then kills
By launching on her full fledged raid

World is like a charming whore
If you kick her being smart
Then she follows you for long
And she never thinks to depart

But if you run after her with speed
Then you must know with clarity
She will eat you up indeed
Considering you an ordinary charity

Soul's Celebration

When truth comes then reason departs
I do not want truth in parts
In search of truth from place to place
In the people of every religion and race
In search of truth from city to city
I want truth in its entirety
Through beauty of thought, sublimity of action
With sincerity, with perfection
Through the passage of time in prime
When just vanishes every sin and crime
Being on straight path in affection
I have to have my selection
Considering every pain as a pleasure
With my heartbeats I can measure
Greatness in all worldly creation
With my struggle and my passion
I can feel that actual relation
The string of love without deliberation
Life is nothing but a lovely donation
Which demands lot of veneration?
Body is but mud's combination
Soul is but love's celebration
Beauty, Truth and love of God
Remain in time, I am time barred

Rightist Right

Being comfortable on their seat
Elite class tries always to cheat
Poor aspire for grains of wheat
While elite take wine butter and meat
Elite play with innocent wishes to beat
By keeping poor under scorching heat

Poor are harnessed by democratic knot
This is how determined fate of the lot
For their rights their dignity is bought
This is how have have have not
On them played tricks of all sort
They are condemned to the beggar's pot

But tyranny and oppression do not lost long
Right can not be taken over by wrong
Rightest right remains always strong

Take Me Along

Oh my love you look like a rose
Beauty dawns on you to close
You are hidden in heart beats
Your colour play those feats
Which portray them in rainbow
Which like moon to beautifully glow
On the sky of my lovely heart
Just to remain and not to depart
Kindly do not debar me to say
You are like enlightened day
Let me worship, allow me to pray
Be in me like that golden light ray
Which encounters darkness of night
Which grows and glows like light
Please be me and take me along
Beauty must always sing love song

Bougainvillea

Life is like a bougainvillea
With green leaves and pink petals
Full of thorns with open bra
Creeps along the wall, snake rattles
Thorns pr*ck to make me sick
Process remains from brick to brick
Bougainvillea spreads its chains
Having no love and no disdains
Love of the creeper injured my soul
How can I achieve my goal

Being helpless I can not shun
Let me grow in my way

Holy Journey

Rusty soul and dusty heart
Dirty eyes with vague images
Require cleaning to impart
Sages not on daily wages

But conviction and selection
Inner need of one indeed
Invigorates one to perfection
Like a newly inborn seed

Sincerity in worship is all
God comes down to kiss
It is how we stall to install
What is kindness & bliss

God is kind to humanity
Considers them His family
Insanity touches sanity
Whether serious or just silly

God is kind with all mercy
Being Master of universe
He just see and foresee
Whether constant or diverse

Mission

When sincerity brings to trial
Then we have to think for a while
All our efforts must be vain
All our pleasures must have pain
Heart should then dictate our brain
Chained in only that love chain
Which should culminate at an end
Where one should never bend
Where one should stand like a man
We know that we will we can

Public Republic

Being an ordinary citizen of a nation
I always faced merciless damnation
By passing through this tortuous fashion
I don't think I will have salvation

I am surrounded by merciless hounds
Hence I lost my limits and bounds
Slogans are for me with shrieking sounds
But in the process I lost my grounds

A useless instrument in the useful crown
For vested interests I am up and down
They declare themselves white, I am brown
They are the white collar and respected gown

Against me they are united and one
I am in open field under scorching sun
They play with me, like play and fun
On my cost becomes done undone

Like me this is the public plight
Against themselves they have to fight
Due to my old age and oversight
I don't know justice is black or white

Song Unsung

You are so beautiful I can not explain
With charm and grace to every limit
Soft and sweet bathed in rain
You can, t be me even if I submit

So I decided in a more better way
I want Him who created beauty like you
Still I maintain I have more to say
All beauty be mine if I get through

Beauty comes from a beautiful source
For which I will aspire to get
In this remarkable discourse
I will be able to set upset

Beauty with love immortal can cherish
In this transitory life for long
With out that I will perish
With that beautiful unsung song

Who does not know the essence of pleasure?
The knoweth and unknoweth can't be equal
Who is in pain gets all that treasure

Which comes from the eternal source
This never bothers to sprinkle of course
A blessing discourse without remorse
And which gives him all that force

To an ordinary man to be extraordinary
And who is ready to enforce that prudence
To come out from slavery and be free
With the force of that love hence

Love flows like fragrance to the world
And inspires a man to be like a bird
To love and enjoy his beloved's communion

Oh, my honey
I cant spend money
To share love song
From a distance so long
I am a poor man
But being your fan
I have to surrender
Feelings of love so tender
Hence forgive me for my fate
And wait for the date

And beauty will sail

We will have same notion

Band of enemies operated in a style
That every one stayed stunned for a while
Their brazen acts revealed their designs
Blood of martyrs oozes and shines
To show to the world and world at large
That they have taken charge to surcharge
Invaders act like evil forces
By using all their dirty resources
To harness, bypass and to surpass
Being in cross and to harrase
But one thing should be learnt with clarity
We have the right to avenge with sincerity
Loss of blood can not be tolerated
Courage and mission can not be separated

Virtue will overcome the vice

Veteran Tree

For long long years I stood to see
How invigorated men of God could be
How gallant sons of soil behold their pride
How life and death go side by side
I saw the trainers in their sheer dedication
In starchy dress in brilliant fashion
Melodious songs of boots and hoofs
Crossing the edges of the reddish roofs
The cadets will, to touch the edge of eternity
I saw their pride I salute to thee
Flames of love kindled in their soul
Unity of action remains their goal
I depart but my soul remains

Desires

Desires are like burning wires
Burn inside like fire in fires
Approximately three hundred and sixty
Remain always in human proximity
The black colour absorbs it all
Saves man from abysmal fall
Statues are in the temple of soul
This is what determines human goal
Man being weak is overtaken
In the temple of soul foresaken
Falsehood takes the shape of satires
In this world of hypocrisy buyers
Everything engulfed in fire vanishes and expires
When truth comes then falsehood retires

Fragrance

God is like fragrance

Spread every where

One can feel His presence

Here and there

Whether huts or palaces

Whether mountains or plains

You can see Him in clouds

You can find Him in rains

You call and He rushes

Helps in a test

He forgives your faults

As a friend is the best

When actions are refined

And soul is clean

Vision becomes clear

And He can be seen

His love is supreme

His fragrance is for ever

Even if you forget Him

He forgets you never Feelings

My feelings, innocent feelings
Through all those dirty dealings
Remained fair and friendly
Without being silly
Through this ruthless world
I could fly like a bird
Whose destiny is the sky
Who always bid to buy
The eternal edge of glory
Without questioning why
Death for him is life
And life being double edged knife
Either takes him to a cage
Or butchers him being in rage
Feelings are but blessings
In this dressless dressful dressings

Sufferings

In torture and pain
In all disdain
In thunders and rain
How life be plain
From cradle to grave
I have to pave
My way in the dark
Even if dogs bark
Only patience can bring
All beauty to life
Eternal may come
At the edge of a knife
Hopeless by birth
Helpless by creed
Concerned about judgement
And not about deed
I have to search
My way through grave
No one can make
My soul a slave
My concience pricks
And makes me clean
My loftiest thoughts
Are ever green
The sufferings will perish
And I will cherish

Depressed and dejected with relations attitude
I bent on a wall, I wept in solitude
All relations are full with vested interest
Agony and pain at times just burst
I curse my self, I stay alone
But I do fumble in a low tone
What is this world what are these humans
Who do nothing but give sermons
On love and affection while full with hatred
Keep the venom of a snake in butter and bread
In this cruel world one has to keep
A shoulder to weep with wound so deep
Then God comes in with mercy to extend
Then one is protected when one has to bend

Symphony

When loneliness increases and one has to cry
When inner dissatisfaction asks me to die
When miseries of life bring more pain
When love changes into disdain
When beloved changes her path
When there remains only a wrath
When one goes through helplessness
Then in that disgust I think
I should sail and should not sink
Then my Lord becomes my saviour

I have to go back to give Him company

Unexpected Rendezvous

My beloved I am enthralled
By your beauty in which involved
I always miss that hot kiss
Which I took as a gift as a bliss
But beauty does require a chain
Without money all is in vain
On your demand I joined army
Your affiliation always warm me
Do remember me in spring
By looking at engagement ring
When our love will blossom in flower
Like a stream like and a tower
Don't even think I don't remember
You glow in heart like an amber
Wait for me in another spring
When I will be able to bring
Every thing to cherish in life
When love will have no strife
I feel you with me in bunker
Good to connect than to conquer
Life is an unexpected rendezvous
Love is there to just pursue

What is life, a dream in dreams?
Naked fire like fiery beams

Excellence

With all the wrong notions
How actions are sound?
In the heat of emotions
With groundless ground
In the world unlimited
With the counted days
Without souls bid

And with every limitation
One can always be great

Can only be achieved

Is properly received

Chains

We are in chains
Our life is a dream
With lot many strains
We can't scream
In clouds and rains
In search of a beam
Which may take in?
All shadowy ways
And make it a sin
Without any craze
Puppets as we are
We can't wage a war
Against all forces
In normal discourses
But a day will come
In life troublesome
When a beam of light
May peep in the soul
Take us to a flight
We may win a goal
We will be free
Like a bird in the sky
Our bodies will dance
Our souls will fly
For God's communion
In a chain of reunion

With your heinous, nefarious designs
When I am a part of light
And light never resigns
From ordinary assaults of dark
Soul has her own domain
Which can not eaten up by shark
I have the courage to say
With my aim and mission high
You can put barricades in my way
But you can't stop my soul to fly
I do believe in path of right
Hence harm can't come in way
This is what I keep in sight

Chains of life are hidden in fate
These always vary from mate to mate
At times one feels that life is great
But every next moment it seems third rate
At times one finds him on a track
Where one can not go back to pack
Tussle in life makes one to hack
For some body's will, for some one sack
All those difficulties on the way
In complete darkness there is no ray
Of hope, of love, when one can say
After darkness of night there is a day
Zigzag paths going up and down
Losing path makes one a clown
Soul is silver and body is brown
One can not remain in town
From normal acceptance to dirty disdain
For quite sometime in torture and pain
With lot of loss without any gain
Barbarous acts in merciless train
With broken wings how one can try
With injured body from earth to sky
With mundane desires how soul can fly
With lot of thirst and tongue so dry
Chains of life are in disdains

Chains of life are in veins

Sacred Whore

World is not what it seems to be
The real face one cannot see
Beauty comes from the facade
Inner side is full of fraud
What it portrays is not the truth
Inner surface is hard, uncouth
Corrupt people corrupt it more
On their faces its taste is sore
Chastity and purity is at stake
People take it like hot cake
Love and hatred go side by side
People take it a joyful ride
No one is there like a guide
Who can spread truth far and wide
But saints do come to refine its worth
Besides bad there is no dearth
Of all those who believe its fine
Besides all those who take its wine
A taste for those a pain for all
Who believe to stall install
Water comes from the divine
To purify all as a symbol as a sign
To take their taste with smiling face
Who are determined to save their race
Who do still believe in grace
Who kiss ugliness and embrace
With the cleanliness of their hearts
And are ready to collect all parts
Love and hatred, cleanliness and dirt
Who still believe to flirt
To convey the message from door to door
Not to corrupt this whore anymore

Golden Light

Oh my beloved in the darkness of night
You enthralled me like a golden light
Together in the move and in the flight
Only you were in me nothing else was in sight

Your presence still I feel like fragrance around
The way you came the way you surround
We were both in the air we were not on ground
Our eyes were no more our hearts were to pound

Colonel Muhamad Khalid Khan
Love Line

Green eyes and red lips
Beauty portray all good tips
On her grace my heart trips
Eye casts and heart sips

Heart is taken away anyway
What to say and what to pray
Her beauty travels like a ray
She is like a dawn a day

All her beauty is like a wine
She is so lovely she is fine
Beauty is now on love line
I am her and she is mine

Colonel Muhamad Khalid Khan
You tortured me throughout my life
By keeping me on a double edged knife
But it was luck that I survived
Through my patience side by side
You never spared my through time
Hence you committed an abominable crime
You wasted all my youth and prime
By torturing me in chain of time
Your ruthless acts your cruel action
Never gave me time for any selection
Your contempt, hatred and prejudice
Remained on the increase nevertheless
Now you came to me for mercy
What do you think what you foresee
Should I pardon you for the deed
But on what grounds you plead
Your case for sowing hatred seed
How can you take me for granted
Since you remained always most wanted
Still you want to take me for ride
Hence winning my heart for your pride
But you see I developed a habit
To return that hatred bit by bit
Please leave me alone and don't ask why
I hope you don't want to see me cry
Let us be on the oldest path
Without sharing love and the wrath
Don't call me back from turning point
How can rejoin the broken oldest joint
We were none and we are none
For this so called relation undone

The Herald

World is full of different characters
Basing on variety of factors
Nimrad and Pharoah are no more
But their stories are door to door
Falsehood dies in her death
Vanity cant take second breath
Prophets and saints are time barred
Their message of love by thy Lord
Written on the chest of time
Which never loses its prime
Good and bad are in the man
Prudence tells him what to drain
Time is with all those brave
Who have the courage to save
Themselves from assaults of hell
Who with dignity bound to dwell
On the open chest of time
Who saves them from crime
Let me just suggest the world
Which will help you like herald
Cast vanity and pride aside
Be humane and humble in ride

Colonel Muhamad Khalid Khan
Ray Of Hope

World is full of miseries and pains
Contempts, hatred and disdains
It is junction of all moving trains
Humans aspire mercy in rains

Fate is but a double edged weapon
Which cuts in scorching heats of sun
Humans are involved in a pun
They play each other for fun

Humanity is but far far away
For which one can only pray
Pains inflicting night and day
Is there any hope of ray

Pain can only change into pleasure
When they aspire for God, a treasure
Whose mercy one can not measure
Patients pass through it to bear

God's company is only solace
For this down trodden race
Love's contention is the base
Which dawns on the painful face

Solace In Test

It is easy to preach but difficult to follow
Without principles man is but hollow
Character is to portray and to test
How God creature becomes the best
Followers of a faith remain calm and cool
All other plotters are down the drain being fool
Preachers of hated eaten up by the hate
Time determines their fate being third rate
Survival is most difficult in the world of hounds
But fortitude helps the good to gain the grounds
But one thing remains which keeps us in chains
Whether mercy of love or contemptuous rains
Relation with Creator may be polished and refined
This is how solace comes in cash and kind

Edge Of Eternity

On the basis of love I just plead
You are my need and I am in need
You presence in me takes to trance
For your sake I take every chane
In scorching heat, you are like rain
Like soothing effect in every pain
You are in my heart and I am in you
I cherish your grace and pursue
Beauty with love to go along
In thy company to sing a song
In anguish of love we will perish
But our souls will definitely cherish
Let us make promise to seek
Through our hearts we will speak
By being on edge of eternity
With our grace, love and serenity
Time will keep us in its chest
With sincerity being the best

Inner Power

Enemy says that he has the pride to kill me
But I am not ready to accept his dirty plea
Even if he takes away my body per force
Still he will not be able to maintain to enforce
His heinous designs on my eternal soul
Still I will be able to strive to play my role
Because he carries darkness and I light
That is the reason my journey is so bright
I may become Socrates or Sophocles
But I will not sell my soul to Mephistopheles

Select To Reject

Beauty transcends from the heaven above
Like an innocent, beautiful, charming dove
Love is like a fire on earth to burn
Beauty to make ashes and to turn
Into very many faces of charity and grace
When beauty prevails then love to place
The face of the earth like sweet paradise
To select one is given wisdom to be wise
I know you aspire for love to enrich beauty
Hence to support you in struggle is my duty
Let me praise you beauty in arms
To cherish all of your charming charms
We can make this world paradise
Let us be not foolish but wise to rise
Oh my love, you are so beautiful I can't reject
But every one is beautiful so I can't select

Intent And Endowment

What one has to show
His intent and endowment
With a wink of eyebrow
Understands hard comment

Never unleash for a while Ordinary face with no face
When one comes to trial
Disgrace mingles grace

Vested interests always play
Their role with clarity
Like an order of the day
No portrayal of sincerity

What is life a panorama
A writing on the water
But still in ugly drama
Why soul is to barter

Col Muhammad Khalid Khan

Colonel Muhamad Khalid Khan
My Love

Your beauty conquered my heart my soul
I am in trance and I lost my goal
How can I survive without your charm
Since you have become my norm
From the day I saw I am not in me
If this is beginning what end could be
You are in me like my heart beats
Your beauty is writing on my blank sheets
I don't deserve your glowing cheeks
I don't deserve your lovely peaks
Because your beauty is talk of the town
Then how will I be able to wear the crown
You may have hundreds in the line of love
But without you I don't have my dove
Please consider my humble request
Be mine by removing this dust

Truth Prevails

Dirty minds by remaining in the deep
Conspire with satan to flourish and keep
The promise of their bad intentions
By continuous immoral submissions
Apprently good people to suffer
But their conscience dictate to prefer
Life over death in the hour of trial
They celebrate their dignity worthwhile
Merit and calibre ordinarily fail
But extraordinarily it has to sail
Corrupt material eaten up by time
They never flourish to go up to prime
Time tests and tests veracity
Noble go and embrace sublimity
When truth comes falsehood to vanish
When honesty prevails then dirt is to banish
All notorious by abolishing from its list
Dawn appears and vanishes mist

Love Streams

Your beauty entangles me in dreams
Love overtaken by beauty screams
Streaks of light flow in streams
I feel enlightened by light beams

Completely overtaken by charm
In bosoms knot without any harm
Your grace makes me in farm
What I know is just love norm

When you are in arms as a miss
Heaven just comes down to kiss
Both of us rewarded with the bliss
All contempt will just dismiss

Both of us in mood and style
Then suddenly we forget for a while
This is the reward being loyal
Then our hearts sing with smile

Colonel Muhamad Khalid Khan
Empty Cartridge

One in service cherishes all
Prestige and respect stall install
It is not easy to drag him to wall
Many wait and look for a call

But a retired comes down to earth
People tell him his price and worth
Empty cartridges have no dearth
Die in row before taking rebirth

Salute remains to the rising sun
All bygones are pun for a fun
Without bullets gun can't be a gun
Days start slip just one by one

What is right and what is wrong
Shortened shadows can't be long
In disgust one may sing a song
Let us carry our weaknesses along
